God be with him, and let him go up to Jerusalem, which is in Judah, and build the house of the LORD God of Israel, (he is the 4 God,) which is in Jerusalem. And whosoever remaineth in any place where he sojourneth, let the men of his place help him with silver, and with gold, and with goods, and with beasts, beside the 5 freewill offering for the house of God that is in Jerusalem. Then rose up the chief of the fathers of Judah and Benjamin, and the priests, and the Levites, with all them whose spirit God had raised, to go up to build the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem.
6 And all they that were about them strengthened their hands with vessels of silver, with gold, with goods, and with beasts, and with 7 precious things, beside all that was willingly offered. Also Cyrus the king brought forth the vessels of the house of the LORD, which Nebuchadnezzar had brought forth out of Jerusalem, and had put 8 them in the house of his gods; Even those did Cyrus king of Persia bring forth by the hand of Mithredath the treasurer, and 9 numbered them unto Sheshbazzar, the prince of Judah. And this is the number of them: thirty chargers of gold, a thousand chargers 10 of silver, nine and twenty knives, Thirty basons of gold, silver basons of a second sort four hundred and ten, and other vessels a 11 thousand. All the vessels of gold and of silver were five thousand and four hundred. All these did Sheshbazzar bring up with them of the captivity that were brought up from Babylon unto Jerusalem.

Now these are the children of the province that went up out of the captivity, of those which had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away unto Babylon, and came again unto Jerusalem and Judah, every one unto his city; Which came with Zerubbabel: Jeshua, Nehemiah, Seraiah, 2 Reelaiah, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispar, Bigvai, Rehum, Baanah. The number of the men of the people of Israel: The children of Parosh, 3 two thousand an hundred seventy and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The children of Arah, 5 seven hundred seventy and five. The children of Pahathmoab, of 6 the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand eight hundred and twelve. The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and 7 four. The children of Zattu, nine hundred forty and five. The 8, 9 children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. The children 10 of Bani, six hundred forty and two. The children of Bebai, six 11 hundred twenty and three. The children of Azgad, a thousand 12 two hundred twenty and two. The children of Adonikam, six hundred 13 sixty and six. The children of Bigvai, two thousand fifty 14 and six. The children of Adin, four hundred fifty and four. The 15, 16 children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. The children of 17 Bezai, three hundred twenty and three. The children of Jorah, 18 an hundred and twelve. The children of Hashum, two hundred 19 twenty and three. The children of Gibbar, ninety and five. The 20, 21 children of Bethlehem, an hundred twenty and three. The men of 22 Netophah, fifty and six. The men of Anathoth, an hundred twenty 23 and eight. The children of Azmaveth, forty and two. The children 24, 25 of Kirjatharim, Chephirah, and Beeroth, seven hundred and forty and three. The children of Ramah and Gaba, six hundred 26 twenty and one. The men of Michmas, an hundred twenty and 27 two. The men of Bethel and Ai, two hundred twenty and three. 28 The children of Nebo, fifty and two. The children of Magbish, an 29, 30 hundred fifty and six. The children of the other Elam, a thousand 31 two hundred fifty and four. The children of Harim, three hundred 32 and twenty. The children of Lod, Hadid, and Ono, seven hundred 33 of the children of the priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai; which took a wife of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite, and was called after their name: These 62 sought their register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but they were not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the Tirshatha said unto them, that 63 they should not eat of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and with Thummim. The whole congregation 64 together was forty and two thousand three hundred and threescore, Beside their servants and their maids, of whom there were seven 65 thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and there were among them two hundred singing men and singing women. Their horses 66 were seven hundred thirty and six; their mules, two hundred forty and five; Their camels, four hundred thirty and five; their asses, 67 six thousand seven hundred and twenty. And some of the chief 68 of the fathers, when they came to the house of the LORD which is at Jerusalem, offered freely for the house of God to set it up in his place: They gave after their ability unto the treasure of the 69 work threescore and one thousand drams of gold, and five thousand pound of silver, and one hundred priests' garments. So the 70 priests, and the Levites, and some of the people, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, dwelt in their cities, and all Israel in their cities.

And when the seventh month was come, and the children of 3 Israel were in the cities, the people gathered themselves together as one man to Jerusalem. Then stood up Jeshua the son of Jozadak, 2 and his brethren the priests, and Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and his brethren, and builded the altar of the God of Israel, to offer burnt offerings thereon, as it is written in the law of Moses the man of God. And they set the altar upon his bases; for fear 3 was upon them because of the people of those countries: and they offered burnt offerings thereon unto the LORD, even burnt offerings morning and evening. They kept also the feast of tabernacles, 4 as it is written, and offered the daily burnt offerings by number, according to the custom, as the duty of every day required; And 5 afterward offered the continual burnt offering, both of the new moons, and of all the set feasts of the LORD that were consecrated, and of every one that willingly offered a freewill offering unto the LORD. From the first day of the seventh month began they to offer burnt offerings unto the LORD. But the foundation of the temple of the LORD was not yet laid. They gave money also unto the masons, and to the carpenters; and meat, and drink, and oil, unto them of Zidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar trees from Lebanon to the sea of Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia. Now in the second year of their coming unto the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that were come out of the captivity unto Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD. Then stood Jeshua with his sons and his brethren, Kadmiel and his sons, the sons of Judah, together, to set forward the workmen in the house of God: the sons of Henadad, with their sons and their brethren the Levites. And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel. And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks unto the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever toward Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid. But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy: So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity builded the temple unto the LORD God of Israel; Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said unto them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice unto him since the days of Esarhaddon king of Assur, which brought us up hither. But 3 Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said unto them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build an house unto our God; but we ourselves together will build unto the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us. Then the people of the land weakened the hands 4 of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building, And hired 5 counsellors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia. And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote 6 they unto him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem. And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithre- 7 dath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions, unto Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian tongue, and interpreted in the Syrian tongue. Rehum the 8 chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort: Then wrote Rehum the chan- 9 cellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dinaites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites, And the rest of the nations whom the great 10 and noble Asnappar brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side the river, and at such a time. This is the copy of the letter that they sent unto him, even unto 11 Artaxerxes the king; Thy servants the men on this side the river, and at such a time. Be it known unto the king, that the Jews 12 which came up from thee to us are come unto Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the bad city, and have set up the walls thereof, and joined the foundations. Be it known now unto the king, that, 13 if this city be builded, and the walls set up again, then will they not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou shalt endamage the revenue of the kings. Now because we have maintenance from the 14 king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishon-

- 15 our, therefore have we sent and certified the king; That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so shalt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful unto kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which 16 cause was this city destroyed. We certify the king that, if this city be builded again, and the walls thereof set up, by this means 17 thou shalt have no portion on this side the river. Then sent the king an answer unto Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and unto the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.
 18 The letter which ye sent unto us hath been plainly read before me.
 19 And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, 20 and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein. There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, which have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was 21 paid unto them. Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not builded, until another command-22 ment shall be given from me. Take heed now that ye fail not to 23 do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings? Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem unto the Jews, and made them to cease by force 24 and power. Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased unto the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.
- 5 Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied unto the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusa-2 lem in the name of the God of Israel, even unto them. Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and 3 with them were the prophets of God helping them. At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shetharboznai, and their companions, and said thus unto them,

Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall? Then said we unto them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building? But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter. The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side the river, and Shetharboznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, which were on this side the river, sent unto Darius the king: They sent a letter unto him, wherein was written thus; Unto Darius the king, all peace. Be it known unto the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is builded with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work goeth fast on, and prospereth in their hands. Then asked we those elders, and said unto them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to make up these walls? We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them. And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was builded these many years ago, which a great king of Israel builded and set up. But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven unto wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon. But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God. And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered unto one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor; And said unto him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be builded in his place. Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished. Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

- 6 Then Darius the king made a decree, and search was made in the house of the rolls, where the treasures were laid up in Babylon.
- 2 And there was found at Achmetha, in the palace that is in the province of the Medes, a roll, and therein was a record thus written:
- 3 In the first year of Cyrus the king the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be builded, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations thereof be strongly laid; the height thereof threescore
- 4 cubits, and the breadth thereof threescore cubits; With three rows of great stones, and a row of new timber: and let the expenses be
- 5 given out of the king's house: And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought unto Babylon, be restored, and brought again unto the temple which is at Jerusalem,
- 6 every one to his place, and place them in the house of God. Now therefore, Tatnai, governor beyond the river, Shetharboznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, which are beyond the river,
- 7 be ye far from thence: Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house
- 8 of God in his place. Moreover I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith
- 9 expenses be given unto these men, that they be not hindered. And that which they have need of, both young bullocks, and rams, and lambs, for the burnt offerings of the God of heaven, wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the appointment of the priests which are
- 10 at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail: That they may offer sacrifices of sweet savours unto the God of heaven,
- 11 and pray for the life of the king, and of his sons. Also I have made a decree, that whosoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged
- 12 thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this. And the

God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall put to their hand to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed. Then Tatnai, governor on this side the river, Shetharboznai, and their companions, according to that which Darius the king had sent, so they did speedily. And the elders of the Jews builded, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the son of Iddo. And they builded, and finished it, according to the commandment of the God of Israel, and according to the commandment of Cyrus, and Darius, and Artaxerxes king of Persia. And this house was finished on the third day of the month Adar, which was in the sixth year of the reign of Darius the king. And the children of Israel, the priests, and the Levites, and the rest of the children of the captivity, kept the dedication of this house of God with joy, And offered at the dedication of this house of God an hundred bullocks, two hundred rams, four hundred lambs; and for a sin offering for all Israel, twelve he goats, according to the number of the tribes of Israel. And they set the priests in their divisions, and the Levites in their courses, for the service of God, which is at Jerusalem; as it is written in the book of Moses. And the children of the captivity kept the passover upon the fourteenth day of the first month. For the priests and the Levites were purified together, all of them were pure, and killed the passover for all the children of the captivity, and for their brethren the priests, and for themselves. And the children of Israel, which were come again out of captivity, and all such as had separated themselves unto them from the filthiness of the heathen of the land, to seek the LORD God of Israel, did eat, And kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with joy: for the LORD had made them joyful, and turned the heart of the king of Assyria unto them, to strengthen their hands in the work of the house of God, the God of Israel.

Now after these things, in the reign of Artaxerxes king of Persia, Ezra the son of Seraiah, the son of Azariah, the son of Hilkiah, The son of Shallum, the son of Zadok, the son of Ahitub, The son of Amariah, the son of Azariah, the son of Meraioth, The son of Zerariah, the son of Uzzi, the son of Bukki, The son of Abishua, the son of Phinehas, the son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron the chief 6 priest: This Ezra went up from Babylon; and he was a ready scribe in the law of Moses, which the LORD God of Israel had given: and the king granted him all his request, according to the hand of the 7 LORD his God upon him. And there went up some of the children of Israel, and of the priests, and the Levites, and the singers, and the porters, and the Nethinims, unto Jerusalem, in the seventh 8 year of Artaxerxes the king. And he came to Jerusalem in the 9 fifth month, which was in the seventh year of the king. For upon the first day of the first month began he to go up from Babylon, and on the first day of the fifth month came he to Jerusalem, according 10 to the good hand of his God upon him. For Ezra had prepared his heart to seek the law of the LORD, and to do it, and to teach in 11 Israel statutes and judgments. Now this is the copy of the letter that the king Artaxerxes gave unto Ezra the priest, the scribe, even a scribe of the words of the commandments of the LORD, 12 and of his statutes to Israel. Artaxerxes, king of kings, unto Ezra the priest, a scribe of the law of the God of heaven, perfect peace, 13 and at such a time. I make a decree, that all they of the people of Israel, and of his priests and Levites, in my realm, which are minded of their own freewill to go up to Jerusalem, go with thee.

14 Forasmuch as thou art sent of the king, and of his seven counsellors, to enquire concerning Judah and Jerusalem, according to the law 15 of thy God which is in thine hand; And to carry the silver and gold, which the king and his counsellors have freely offered unto 16 the God of Israel, whose habitation is in Jerusalem, And all the silver and gold that thou canst find in all the province of Babylon, with the freewill offering of the people, and of the priests, offering 17 willingly for the house of their God which is in Jerusalem: That thou mayest buy speedily with this money bullocks, rams, lambs, with their meat offerings and their drink offerings, and offer them upon the altar of the house of your God which is in Jerusalem.
18 And whatsoever shall seem good to thee, and to thy brethren, to do with the rest of the silver and the gold, that do after the will Jerusalem. And whatsoever more shall be needful for the house 20 of thy God, which thou shalt have occasion to bestow, bestow it out of the king's treasure house. And I, even I Artaxerxes the 21 king, do make a decree to all the treasurers which are beyond the river, that whatsoever Ezra the priest, the scribe of the law of the God of heaven, shall require of you, it be done speedily, Unto an 22 hundred talents of silver, and to an hundred measures of wheat, and to an hundred baths of wine, and to an hundred baths of oil, and salt without prescribing how much. Whatsoever is commanded 23 by the God of heaven, let it be diligently done for the house of the God of heaven: for why should there be wrath against the realm of the king and his sons? Also we certify you, that touching any 24 of the priests and Levites, singers, porters, Nethinims, or ministers of this house of God, it shall not be lawful to impose toll, tribute, or custom, upon them. And thou, Ezra, after the wisdom of thy 25 God, that is in thine hand, set magistrates and judges, which may judge all the people that are beyond the river, all such as know the laws of thy God; and teach ye them that know them not. And 26 whosoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be unto death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment. Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, which 27 hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem: And hath extended 28 mercy unto me before the king, and his counsellors, and before all the king's mighty princes. And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

These are now the chief of their fathers, and this is the geneal- 8 ogy of them that went up with me from Babylon, in the reign of Artaxerxes the king. Of the sons of Phinehas; Gershom: of the 2 sons of Ithamar; Daniel: of the sons of David; Hattush. Of the 3 sons of Shechaniah, of the sons of Pharosh; Zechariah: and with him were reckoned by genealogy of the males an hundred and fifty.
Of the sons of Pahathmoab; Elihoenai the son of Zerariah, and 4 with him two hundred males. Of the sons of Shechaniah; the son 5 of Jahaziel, and with him three hundred males. Of the sons also 6 7 of Adin; Ebed the son of Jonathan, and with him fifty males. And of the sons of Elam; Jeshaiah the son of Athaliah, and with him 8 seventy males. And of the sons of Shephatiah; Zebadiah the son 9 of Michael, and with him fourscore males. Of the sons of Joab; Obadiah the son of Jehiel, and with him two hundred and eighteen 10 males. And of the sons of Shelomith; the son of Josiphiah, and 11 with him an hundred and threescore males. And of the sons of Bebai; Zechariah the son of Bebai, and with him twenty and eight 12 males. And of the sons of Azgad; Johanan the son of Hakkatan, 13 and with him an hundred and ten males. And of the last sons of Adonikam, whose names are these, Eliphelet, Jeiel, and Shemaiah, 14 and with them threescore males. Of the sons also of Bigvai; Uthai, 15 and Zabbud, and with them seventy males. And I gathered them together to the river that runneth to Ahava; and there abode we in tents three days: and I viewed the people, and the priests, and 16 found there none of the sons of Levi. Then sent I for Eliezer, for Ariel, for Shemaiah, and for Elnathan, and for Jarib, and for Elnathan, and for Nathan, and for Zechariah, and for Meshullam, chief men; also for Joiarib, and for Elnathan, men of understand-17 ing. And I sent them with commandment unto Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say unto Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring unto us ministers for the house of our God.

 18 And by the good hand of our God upon us they brought us a man of understanding, of the sons of Mahli, the son of Levi, the son of Israel; and Sherebiah, with his sons and his brethren, eighteen; 19 And Hashabiah, and with him Jeshaiah of the sons of Merari, his 20 brethren and their sons, twenty; Also of the Nethinims, whom David and the princes had appointed for the service of the Levites, two hundred and twenty Nethinims: all of them were expressed 21 by name. Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river of Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.
 22 For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken unto the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him. So we fasted and besought our 23 God for this: and he was intreated of us. Then I separated twelve 24 of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them, And weighed unto them the silver, and the 25 gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counsellors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered: I even weighed unto their hand six 26 hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels an hundred talents, and of gold an hundred talents; Also twenty basons of 27 gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold. And I said unto them, Ye are holy unto the LORD; the 28 vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a freewill offering unto the LORD God of your fathers. Watch ye, and keep them, 29 until ye weigh them before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD. So took the priests and the Levites the 30 weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem unto the house of our God. Then we departed from 31 the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go unto Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way. And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days. 32 Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels 33 weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites; By number and by weight of every one: 34 and all the weight was written at that time. Also the children 35 of those that had been carried away, which were come out of the captivity, offered burnt offerings unto the God of Israel, twelve bul-locks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he goats for a sin offering: all this was a burnt offering unto the LORD. And they delivered the king's commissions unto the 36 king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, say- 9 ing, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites. For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass. And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down astonished. Then were assembled unto me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat astonished until the evening sacrifice. And at the evening sacrifice I arose up from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands unto the LORD my God, And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up unto the heavens. Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass unto this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day. And now for a little space grace hath been shewed from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage. For we were bondmen; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy unto us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations thereof, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem. And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments, Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, unto which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness. Now therefore give not your daughters unto their sons, neither take their daughters unto your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever. And after all that is come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this; Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldest not thou be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping? O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we remain yet escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.

Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled unto him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very sore. And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said unto Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken strange wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing. Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law. Arise; for this matter belongeth unto thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it. Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they should do according to this word. And they sware. Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he did eat no bread, nor drink water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away. And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem unto all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together unto Jerusalem; And that whosoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away. Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together unto Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the 10 great rain. And Ezra the priest stood up, and said unto them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken strange wives, to increase the 11 trespass of Israel. Now therefore make confession unto the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves 12 from the people of the land, and from the strange wives. Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast 13 said, so must we do. But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand without, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in 14 this thing. Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them which have taken strange wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges thereof, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter be 15 turned from us. Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter: and Meshulam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them. And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth 17 month to examine the matter. And they made an end with all the men that had taken strange wives by the first day of the first 18 month. And among the sons of the priests there were found that had taken strange wives: namely, of the sons of Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and his brethren; Maaseiah, and Eliezer, and Jarib, and 19 Gedaliah. And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for 20 their trespass. And of the sons of Immer; Hanani, and Zebadiah. And of the sons of Harim; Maaseiah, and Elijah, and Shemaiah, 22 and Jehiel, and Uzziash. And of the sons of Pashur; Elioenai, Maaseiah, Ishmael, Nethaneel, Jozabad, and Elasaah. Also of the Levites; Jozabad, and Shimei, and Kelaiah, (the same is Kelita,) 24 Pethahiah, Judah, and Eliezer. Of the singers also; Eliashib: and 25 of the porters; Shallum, and Telem, and Uri. Moreover of Israel:

THE BOOK OF NEHEMIAH.

1  he words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as 2 I was in Shushan the palace, That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, which were left of the 3 captivity, and concerning Jerusalem. And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is 4 broken down, and the gates thereof are burned with fire. And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before 5 the God of heaven, And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments: 6 Let thine ear now be attentive, and thine eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against 7 thee: both I and my father's house have sinned. We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy 8 servant Moses. Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will 9 scatter you abroad among the nations: But if ye turn unto me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you cast out unto the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them unto the place that 10 I have chosen to set my name there. Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, 11 and by thy strong hand. O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thine ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cupbearer.

And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year 2 of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. Wherefore the king said unto me, Why is thy 2 countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid, And said unto the 3 king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchres, lieth waste, and the gates thereof are consumed with fire? Then the 4 king said unto me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven. And I said unto the king, If it please 5 the king, and if thy servant have found favour in thy sight, that thou wouldest send me unto Judah, unto the city of my fathers' sepulchres, that I may build it. And the king said unto me, (the 6 queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time. Moreover I said unto the king, If it please the king, 7 let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah; And a letter unto 8 Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me. Then I came to the governors beyond 9 the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me. When Sanballat the 10 Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel. So I came to Jerusalem, and was 11 there three days. And I arose in the night, I and some few men 12 with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon. And I went out by night by the gate of 13 the valley, even before the dragon well, and to the dung port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the 14 gates thereof were consumed with fire. Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for 15 the beast that was under me to pass. Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered 16 by the gate of the valley, and so returned. And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, 17 nor to the rest that did the work. Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the 18 wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach. Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken unto me. And they said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good 19 work. But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye 20 do? will ye rebel against the king? Then answered I them, and said unto them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.

3 Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brethren the priests, and they builded the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even unto the tower of Meah they sanctified 2 it, unto the tower of Hananeel. And next unto him builded the men of Jericho. And next to them builded Zaccur the son of Imri.
3 But the fish gate did the sons of Hassenaah build, who also laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, 4 and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah, the son of Koz. And next unto them repaired Meshullam the son of Berechiah, the son of Meshezabeel. And next 5 unto them repaired Zadok the son of Baana. And next unto them the Tekoites repaired; but their nobles put not their necks to the 6 work of their Lord. Moreover the old gate repaired Jehoiada the son of Paseah, and Meshullam the son of Besodeiah; they laid the beams thereof, and set up the doors thereof, and the locks thereof, 7 and the bars thereof. And next unto them repaired Melatiah the Gibeonite, and Jadon the Meronothite, the men of Gibeon, and of Mizpah, unto the throne of the governor on this side the river. Next unto him repaired Uzziel the son of Harhaiah, of the goldsmiths. Next unto him also repaired Hananiah the son of one of the apothecaries, and they fortified Jerusalem unto the broad wall. And next unto them repaired Rephaiah the son of Hur, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem. And next unto them repaired Jedaiah the son of Harumaph, even over against his house. And next unto him repaired Hattush the son of Hashabniah. Malchijah the son of Harim, and Hashub the son of Pahathmoab, repaired the other piece, and the tower of the furnaces. And next unto him repaired Shallum the son of Halohesh, the ruler of the half part of Jerusalem, he and his daughters. The valley gate repaired Hanun, and the inhabitants of Zanoah; they built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and a thousand cubits on the wall unto the dung gate. But the dung gate repaired Malchiah the son of Rechab, the ruler of part of Bethhaccerem; he built it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof. But the gate of the fountain repaired Shallum the son of Colhozeh, the ruler of part of Mizpah; he built it, and covered it, and set up the doors thereof, the locks thereof, and the bars thereof, and the wall of the pool of Siloah by the king's garden, and unto the stairs that go down from the city of David. After him repaired Nehemiah the son of Azbuk, the ruler of the half part of Bethzur, unto the place over against the sepulchres of David, and to the pool that was made, and unto the house of the mighty. After him repaired the Levites, Rehum the son of Bani. Next unto him repaired Hashabiah, the ruler of the half part of Keilah, in his part. After him repaired their brethren, Bavai the son of Henadad, the ruler of the half part of Keilah. And next to him repaired Ezer the son of Jeshua, the ruler of Mizpah, another piece over against the going up to the armoury at the turning of the wall. After him Baruch the son of Zabbai earnestly repaired the other piece, from the turning of the wall unto the door of the house of Eliashib the high priest. After him repaired Meremoth the son of Urijah the son of Koz another piece, from the door of the house of Eliashib even to the end of the house of Eliashib. And after him repaired the priests, the men of the plain. After him repaired Benjamin and Hashub over against their house. After him repaired Azariah the son of Maaseiah the son of Ananiah by his 24 house. After him repaired Binnui the son of Henadad another piece, from the house of Azariah unto the turning of the wall, even 25 unto the corner. Palal the son of Uzai, over against the turning of the wall, and the tower which lieth out from the king's high house, that was by the court of the prison. After him Pedaiah the 26 son of Parosh. Moreover the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel, unto the place over against the water gate toward the east, and the tower 27 that lieth out. After them the Tekoites repaired another piece, over against the great tower that lieth out, even unto the wall of 28 Ophel. From above the horse gate repaired the priests, every one 29 over against his house. After them repaired Zadok the son of Immer over against his house. After him repaired also Shemaiah 30 the son of Shechaniah, the keeper of the east gate. After him repaired Hananiah the son of Shelemiah, and Hanun the sixth son of Zalaph, another piece. After him repaired Meshullam the son of 31 Berechiah over against his chamber. After him repaired Malchiah the goldsmith's son unto the place of the Nethinims, and of the merchants, over against the gate Miphkad, and to the going up 32 of the corner. And between the going up of the corner unto the sheep gate repaired the goldsmiths and the merchants.

4 But it came to pass, that when Sanballat heard that we builded the wall, he was wroth, and took great indignation, and mocked 2 the Jews. And he spake before his brethren and the army of Samaria, and said, What do these feeble Jews? will they fortify themselves? will they sacrifice? will they make an end in a day?
 will they revive the stones out of the heaps of the rubbish which 3 are burned? Now Tobiah the Ammonite was by him, and he said, Even that which they build, if a fox go up, he shall even break 4 down their stone wall. Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a 5 prey in the land of captivity: And cover not their iniquity, and let not their sin be blotted out from before thee: for they have 6 provoked thee to anger before the builders. So built we the wall; and all the wall was joined together unto the half thereof: for the people had a mind to work. But it came to pass, that when 7 Sanballat, and Tobiah, and the Arabians, and the Ammonites, and the Ashdodites, heard that the walls of Jerusalem were made up, and that the breaches began to be stopped, then they were very wroth, And conspired all of them together to come and to fight 8 against Jerusalem, and to hinder it. Nevertheless we made our 9 prayer unto our God, and set a watch against them day and night, because of them. And Judah said, The strength of the bearers 10 of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish; so that we are not able to build the wall. And our adversaries said, They shall 11 not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease. And it came to pass, 12 that when the Jews which dwelt by them came, they said unto us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return unto us they will be upon you. Therefore set I in the lower places behind the wall, 13 and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows. And I looked, 14 and rose up, and said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be not ye afraid of them: remember the Lord, which is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses. And it 15 came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known unto us, and God had brought their counsel to nought, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one unto his work. And it came to pass 16 from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah. They which builded on the wall, and they 17 that bare burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon. For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his 18 side, and so builded. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.

 And I said unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the 19 people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another. In what place therefore ye hear 20 the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither unto us: our God shall 21 fight for us. So we laboured in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.

 22 Likewise at the same time said I unto the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they 23 may be a guard to us, and labour on the day. So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard which followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.

5 And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives 2 against their brethren the Jews. For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn 3 for them, that we may eat, and live. Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that 4 we might buy corn, because of the dearth. There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that 5 upon our lands and vineyards. Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and, lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought unto bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and 6 vineyards. And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these 7 words. Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said unto them, Ye exact usury, every one of 8 his brother. And I set a great assembly against them. And I said unto them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, which were sold unto the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold unto us? Then held they their 9 peace, and found nothing to answer. Also I said, It is not good that ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because 10 of the reproach of the heathen our enemies? I likewise, and my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn:
 11 I pray you, let us leave off this usury. Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their oliveyards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of 12 the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them. Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they should do according to this promise. Also 13 I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labour, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise. Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their 14 governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even unto the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.

But the former governors that had been before me were chargeable 15 unto the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, beside forty shekels of silver; yea, even their servants bare rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God. Yea, also I 16 continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither unto the work. Moreover 17 there were at my table an hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, beside those that came unto us from among the heathen that are about us. Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox 18 and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this required not I the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people. Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that 19
I have done for this people.

Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem 6 the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had builded the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;) That Sanballat 2 and Geshem sent unto me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief. And I sent messengers unto them, saying, I am 3 doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you? Yet they 4 sent unto me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner. Then sent Sanballat his servant unto me in like 5 manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand; Wherein 6 was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou bildest the wall, that thou mayest be their king, according to 7 these words. And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come 8 now therefore, and let us take counsel together. Then I sent unto him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but 9 thou feignest them out of thine own heart. For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it be not done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

10 Afterward I came unto the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in 11 the night will they come to slay thee. And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into 12 the temple to save his life? I will not go in. And, lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy 13 against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him. Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach 14 me. My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest 15 of the prophets, that would have put me in fear. So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and 16 two days. And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard thereof, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived 17 that this work was wrought of our God. Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters unto Tobiah, and the letters
18 of Tobiah came unto them. For there were many in Judah sworn unto him, because he was the son in law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam 19 the son of Berechiah. Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.
7 Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were 2 appointed, That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many. And I said unto them, Let not 3 the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house. Now the city was large 4 and great: but the people were few therein, and the houses were not builded. And my God put into mine heart to gather together 5 the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them which came up at the first, and found written therein, These are 6 the children of the province, that went up out of the captivity, of those that had been carried away, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away, and came again to Jerusalem and to Judah, every one unto his city; Who came with Zerubbabel, 7 Jeshua, Nehemiah, Azariah, Raamiah, Nahamani, Mordecai, Bilshan, Mispereth, Bigvai, Nehum, Baanah. The number, I say, of the men of the people of Israel was this; The children of Parosh, 8 two thousand an hundred seventy and two. The children of Shephatiah, three hundred seventy and two. The children of Arah, 10 six hundred fifty and two. The children of Pahathmoab, of the children of Jeshua and Joab, two thousand and eight hundred and 11 eighteen. The children of Elam, a thousand two hundred fifty and 12 four. The children of Zattu, eight hundred forty and five. The 13, 14 children of Zaccai, seven hundred and threescore. The children of 15 Binnui, six hundred forty and eight. The children of Bebai, six 16 hundred twenty and eight. The children of Azgad, two thousand 17 three hundred twenty and two. The children of Adonikam, six 18 hundred threescore and seven. The children of Bigvai, two thou- 19 sand threescore and seven. The children of Adin, six hundred fifty 20 and five. The children of Ater of Hezekiah, ninety and eight. The 21, 22 children of Hashum, three hundred twenty and eight. The children 23 of Bezai, three hundred twenty and four. The children of Hariph, 24 an hundred and twelve. The children of Gibeon, ninety and five. 25 The men of Bethlehem and Netophah, an hundred fourscore and 26 eight. hundred ninety and two. And these were they which went up also 61 from Telmelah, Telhahasha, Cherub, Addon, and Immer: but they could not shew their father's house, nor their seed, whether they were of Israel. The children of Delaiah, the children of Tobiah, 62 the children of Nekoda, six hundred forty and two. And of the 63 priests: the children of Habaiah, the children of Koz, the children of Barzillai, which took one of the daughters of Barzillai the Gileadite to wife, and was called after their name. These sought their 64 register among those that were reckoned by genealogy, but it was not found: therefore were they, as polluted, put from the priesthood. And the Tirshatha said unto them, that they should not eat 65 of the most holy things, till there stood up a priest with Urim and Thummim. The whole congregation together was forty and two 66 thousand three hundred and threescore, Beside their manservants 67 and their maidservants, of whom there were seven thousand three hundred thirty and seven: and they had two hundred forty and five singing men and singing women. Their horses, seven hundred 68 thirty and six: their mules, two hundred forty and five: Their 69 camels, four hundred thirty and five: six thousand seven hundred and twenty asses. And some of the chief of the fathers gave unto 70 the work. The Tirshatha gave to the treasure a thousand drams of gold, fifty basons, five hundred and thirty priests' garments. And 71 some of the chief of the fathers gave to the treasure of the work twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand and two hundred pound of silver. And that which the rest of the people gave 72 was twenty thousand drams of gold, and two thousand pound of silver, and threescore and seven priests' garments. So the priests, 73 and the Levites, and the porters, and the singers, and some of the people, and the Nethinims, and all Israel, dwelt in their cities; and when the seventh month came, the children of Israel were in their cities.

And all the people gathered themselves together as one man 8 into the street that was before the water gate; and they spake unto Ezra the scribe to bring the book of the law of Moses, which the LORD had commanded to Israel. And Ezra the priest brought the 2 law before the congregation both of men and women, and all that could hear with understanding, upon the first day of the seventh

3 month. And he read therein before the street that was before the water gate from the morning until midday, before the men and the women, and those that could understand; and the ears
 4 of all the people were attentive unto the book of the law. And Ezra the scribe stood upon a pulpit of wood, which they had made for the purpose; and beside him stood Mattithiah, and Shema, and Anaiah, and Urijah, and Hilkiah, and Maaseiah, on his right hand; and on his left hand, Pedaiah, and Mishael, and Malchiah, 5 and Hashum, and Hashbadana, Zechariah, and Meshullam. And Ezra opened the book in the sight of all the people; (for he was above all the people;) and when he opened it, all the people stood 6 up: And Ezra blessed the LORD, the great God. And all the people answered, Amen, Amen, with lifting up their hands: and they bowed their heads, and worshipped the LORD with their faces
 7 to the ground. Also Jeshua, and Bani, and Sherebiah, Jamin, Akkub, Shabbethai, Hodijah, Maaseiah, Kelita, Azariah, Jozabad, Hanan, Pelaiah, and the Levites, caused the people to understand 8 the law: and the people stood in their place. So they read in the book in the law of God distinctly, and gave the sense, and 9 caused them to understand the reading. And Nehemiah, which is the Tirshatha, and Ezra the priest the scribe, and the Levites that taught the people, said unto all the people, This day is holy unto the LORD your God; mourn not, nor weep. For all the people 10 wept, when they heard the words of the law. Then he said unto them, Go your way, eat the fat, and drink the sweet, and send portions unto them for whom nothing is prepared: for this day is holy unto our Lord: neither be ye sorry; for the joy of the LORD 11 is your strength. So the Levites stilled all the people, saying, 12 Hold your peace, for the day is holy; neither be ye grieved. And all the people went their way to eat, and to drink, and to send portions, and to make great mirth, because they had understood 13 the words that were declared unto them. And on the second day were gathered together the chief of the fathers of all the people, the priests, and the Levites, unto Ezra the scribe, even to understand 14 the words of the law. And they found written in the law which the LORD had commanded by Moses, that the children of Israel should dwell in booths in the feast of the seventh month: And that they 15 should publish and proclaim in all their cities, and in Jerusalem, saying, Go forth unto the mount, and fetch olive branches, and pine branches, and myrtle branches, and palm branches, and branches of thick trees, to make booths, as it is written. So the people went 16 forth, and brought them, and made themselves booths, every one upon the roof of his house, and in their courts, and in the courts of the house of God, and in the street of the water gate, and in the street of the gate of Ephraim. And all the congregation of them 17 that were come again out of the captivity made booths, and sat under the booths: for since the days of Jeshua the son of Nun unto that day had not the children of Israel done so. And there was very great gladness. Also day by day, from the first day unto the 18 last day, he read in the book of the law of God. And they kept the feast seven days; and on the eighth day was a solemn assembly, according unto the manner.

Now in the twenty and fourth day of this month the children of 9 Israel were assembled with fasting, and with sackclothes, and earth upon them. And the seed of Israel separated themselves from all 2 strangers, and stood and confessed their sins, and the iniquities of their fathers. And they stood up in their place, and read in 3 the book of the law of the LORD their God one fourth part of the day; and another fourth part they confessed, and worshipped the LORD their God. Then stood up upon the stairs, of the Levites, 4 Jeshua, and Bani, Kadmiel, Shebaniah, Bunni, Sherebiah, Bani, and Chenani, and cried with a loud voice unto the LORD their God. Then the Levites, Jeshua, and Kadmiel, Bani, Hashabniah, 5 Sherebiah, Hodijah, Shebaniah, and Pethahiah, said, Stand up and bless the LORD your God for ever and ever: and blessed be thy glorious name, which is exalted above all blessing and praise. Thou, 6 even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are therein, the seas, and all that is therein, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshippeth thee. Thou art the LORD 7 the God, who didst choose Abram, and broughtest him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham; And 8 foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous: And didst see the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea; And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day. And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters. Moreover thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way wherein they should go. Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spakest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments: And madest known unto them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant: And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them. But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments, And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not. Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee up out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations; Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to shew them light, and the way wherein they should go. Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst. Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes waxed not old, and their feet swelled not. Moreover 22 thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan. Their 23 children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and brought-est them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it. So the children 24 went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would. And they took strong cities, 25 and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards, and oliveyards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they did eat, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness. Nevertheless they were disobedient, and 26 rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets which testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations. Therefore thou deliveredst them 27 into the hand of their enemies, who vexed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them saviours, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.

 But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore 28 leftest thou them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried unto thee, thou heardest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies; And testifiedst against them, 29 that thou mightest bring them again unto thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not unto thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man do, he shall live in them;) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear. Yet many years didst thou forbear them, and testifiedst 30 against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gavest thou them into the hand of the people of the lands. Nevertheless for thy great mercies' sake thou didst 31 not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gra-

32 cious and merciful God. Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time 33 of the kings of Assyria unto this day. Howbeit thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have 34 done wickedly: Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened unto thy commandments and thy testimonies, wherewith thou didst testify against 35 them. For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their 36 wicked works. Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest unto our fathers to eat the fruit thereof and the 37 good thereof, behold, we are servants in it: And it yieldeth much increase unto the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, 38 at their pleasure, and we are in great distress. And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, seal unto it.

Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands unto the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding; They clave to their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes; And that we would not give our daughters unto the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons: And if the people of the land bring ware or any victuals on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt. Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God; For the shewbread, and for the continual meat offering, and for the continual burnt offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God. And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law: And to bring the firstfruits of our ground, and the firstfruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, unto the house of the LORD: Also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, unto the priests that minister in the house of our God: And that we should bring the firstfruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, unto the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground unto the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage. And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes unto the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house. For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, unto the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

- 11 And the rulers of the people dwelt at Jerusalem: the rest of the people also cast lots, to bring one of ten to dwell in Jerusalem the 2 holy city, and nine parts to dwell in other cities. And the people blessed all the men, that willingly offered themselves to dwell at 3 Jerusalem. Now these are the chief of the province that dwelt in Jerusalem: but in the cities of Judah dwelt every one in his possession in their cities, to wit, Israel, the priests, and the Levites, 4 and the Nethinims, and the children of Solomon's servants. And at Jerusalem dwelt certain of the children of Judah, and of the children of Benjamin. Of the children of Judah; Athaiah the son of Uzziah, the son of Zechariah, the son of Amariah, the son of 5 Shephatiah, the son of Mahalaleel, of the children of Perez; And Maaseiah the son of Baruch, the son of Colhozeh, the son of Haz-
 6 aiah, the son of Adaiah, the son of Joiarib, the son of Zechariah, the son of Shiloni. All the sons of Perez that dwelt at Jerusalem
 7 were four hundred threescore and eight valiant men. And these are the sons of Benjamin; Sallu the son of Meshullam, the son of Joed, the son of Pedaiah, the son of Kolaiah, the son of Maaseiah, 8 the son of Ithiel, the son of Jesaiah. And after him Gabbai, Sallai, nine hundred twenty and eight. And Joel the son of Zichri was 9 their overseer: and Judah the son of Senuah was second over the 10, 11 city. Of the priests: Jedaiah the son of Joiarib, Jachin. Seraiah the son of Hilkiyah, the son of Meshullam, the son of Zadok, the son of Meraioth, the son of Ahitub, was the ruler of the house of 12 God. And their brethren that did the work of the house were eight hundred twenty and two: and Adaiah the son of Jeroham, the son of Pelaliah, the son of Amzi, the son of Zechariah, the 13 son of Pashur, the son of Malchiah, And his brethren, chief of the fathers, two hundred forty and two: and Amashai the son of Azareel, the son of Ahasai, the son of Meshillemoth, the son of 14 Immer, And their brethren, mighty men of valour, an hundred twenty and eight: and their overseer was Zabdiel, the son of one 15 of the great men. Also of the Levites: Shemaiah the son of Hashub, the son of Azrikam, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Bunni; oversight of the outward business of the house of God. And Mat- 17 taniah the son of Micha, the son of Zabdi, the son of Asaph, was the principal to begin the thanksgiving in prayer: and Bakbukiah the second among his brethren, and Abda the son of Shammua, the son of Galal, the son of Jeduthun. All the Levites in the holy 18 city were two hundred fourscore and four. Moreover the porters, 19 Akkub, Talmon, and their brethren that kept the gates, were an hundred seventy and two. And the residue of Israel, of the priests, 20 and the Levites, were in all the cities of Judah, every one in his inheritance. But the Nethinims dwelt in Ophel: and Ziha and 21 Gispa were over the Nethinims. The overseer also of the Levites 22 at Jerusalem was Uzzi the son of Bani, the son of Hashabiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Micha. Of the sons of Asaph, the singers were over the business of the house of God. For it was 23 the king's commandment concerning them, that a certain portion should be for the singers, due for every day. And Pethahiah the 24 son of Meshezabeel, of the children of Zerah the son of Judah, was at the king's hand in all matters concerning the people. And for 25 the villages, with their fields, some of the children of Judah dwelt at Kirjatharba, and in the villages thereof, and at Dibon, and in the villages thereof, and at Jekabzeel, and in the villages thereof,

 And at Jeshua, and at Moladah, and at Bethpheet, And at Haz- 26, 27

 Ziklag, and at Mekonah, and in the villages thereof, And at En- 29 rimmon, and at Zareah, and at Jarmuth, Zanoah, Adullam, and 30 in their villages, at Lachish, and the fields thereof, at Azekah, and in the villages thereof. And they dwelt from Beersheba unto the valley of Hinnom. The children also of Benjamin from Geba dwelt 31 at Michmash, and Aija, and Bethel, and in their villages, And at 32 Anathoth, Nob, Ananiah, Hazor, Ramah, Gittaim, Hadid, Ze- 33, 34 boim, Neballat, Lod, and Ono, the valley of craftsmen. And of 35, 36 the Levites were divisions in Judah, and in Benjamin.

were the chief of the priests and of their brethren in the days of 8 Jeshua. Moreover the Levites: Jeshua, Binnui, Kadmiel, Sherebiah, Judah, and Mattaniah, which was over the thanksgiving, he 9 and his brethren. Also Bakbukiah and Unni, their brethren, were 10 over against them in the watches. And Jeshua begat Joiakim, 11 Joiakim also begat Eliashib, and Eliashib begat Joiada, And Joi-12 ada begat Jonathan, and Jonathan begat Jaddua. And in the days of Joiakim were priests, the chief of the fathers: of Seraiah, Mera-13 iah; of Jeremiah, Hananiah; Of Ezra, Meshullam; of Amariah, 14, 15 Jehohanan; Of Melicu, Jonathan; of Shebaniah, Joseph; Of Har-

 20, 21 Mattenai; of Jedaiah, Uzzi; Of Sallai, Kallai; of Amok, Eber; Of 22 Hilkiah, Hashabiah; of Jedaiah, Nethaneel. The Levites in the days of Eliashib, Joiada, and Johanan, and Jaddua, were recorded chief of the fathers: also the priests, to the reign of Darius the Per-23 sian. The sons of Levi, the chief of the fathers, were written in the book of the chronicles, even until the days of Johanan the son of 24 Eliashib. And the chief of the Levites: Hashabiah, Sherebiah, and Jeshua the son of Kadmiel, with their brethren over against them, to praise and to give thanks, according to the commandment of 25 David the man of God, ward over against ward. Mattaniah, and Bakbukiah, Obadiah, Meshullam, Talmon, Akkub, were porters 26 keeping the ward at the thresholds of the gates. These were in the days of Joiakim the son of Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and in the days of Nehemiah the governor, and of Ezra the priest, the 27 scribe. And at the dedication of the wall of Jerusalem they sought the Levites out of all their places, to bring them to Jerusalem, to keep the dedication with gladness, both with thanksgivings, and 28 with singing, with cymbals, psalteries, and with harps. And the sons of the singers gathered themselves together, both out of the plain country round about Jerusalem, and from the villages of Netophathi; Also from the house of Gilgal, and out of the fields of 29 Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had builded them villages round about Jerusalem. And the priests and the Levites puri- 30 fied themselves, and purified the people, and the gates, and the wall. Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and 31 appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, whereof one went on the right hand upon the wall toward the dung gate:

 And after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah, 32
 And Azariah, Ezra, and Meshullam, Judah, and Benjamin, and 33, 34 Shemaiah, and Jeremiah, And certain of the priests' sons with 35 trumpets; namely, Zechariah the son of Jonathan, the son of Shemaiah, the son of Mattaniah, the son of Michaiah, the son of Zaccur, the son of Asaph: And his brethren, Shemaiah, and Azarael, 36 Milalai, Gilalai, Maai, Nethaneel, and Judah, Hanani, with the musical instruments of David the man of God, and Ezra the scribe before them. And at the fountain gate, which was over against 37 them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the going up of the wall, above the house of David, even unto the water gate eastward. And the other company of them that gave thanks 38 went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even unto the broad wall; And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the 39 old gate, and above the fish gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even unto the sheep gate: and they stood still in the prison gate. So stood the two companies of them that gave 40 thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me: And the priests; Eliakim, Maaseiah, Miniamin, Michaiah, 41 Elioenai, Zechariah, and Hananiah, with trumpets; And Maa- 42 seiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer. Also that day they offered great sac- 43 rifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off. And at that time were some 44 appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the firstfruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that 45 waited. And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the com-46 mandment of David, and of Solomon his son. For in the days of David and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs 47 of praise and thanksgiving unto God. And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things unto the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them unto the children of Aaron.

13 On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for 2 ever; Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, that he should curse 3 them: howbeit our God turned the curse into a blessing. Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated 4 from Israel all the mixed multitude. And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our 5 God, was allied unto Tobiah: And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where aforetime they laid the meat offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tithes of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.
 6 But in all this time was not I at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon came I unto the king, 7 and after certain days obtained I leave of the king: And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.
 8 And it grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household 9 stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber. Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat offering and the frankincense.
 10 And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, 11 were fled every one to his field. Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? And I gathered them together, and set them in their place. Then brought all Judah the 12 tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil unto the treasuries. And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, 13 and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were counted faithful, and their office was to distribute unto their brethren. Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe 14 not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the offices thereof. In those days saw I in Judah some 15 treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day wherein they sold victuals. There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, which brought fish, and 16 all manner of ware, and sold on the sabbath unto the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem. Then I contended with the nobles of 17 Judah, and said unto them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day? Did not your fathers thus, and did 18 not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath. And it 19 came to pass, that when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and some of my servants set I at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day. So the merchants and 20 sellers of all kind of ware lodged without Jerusalem once or twice. Then I testified against them, and said unto them, Why lodge 21 ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the sabbath. And I 22 commanded the Levites that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy. In those days also saw I 23 Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:

24 And their children spake half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of 25 each people. And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters unto their sons, nor take their daughters unto your sons, or for yourselves.
26 Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even 27 him did outlandish women cause to sin. Shall we then hearken unto you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in 28 marrying strange wives? And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son in law to Sanballat the Horonite: 29 therefore I chased him from me. Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the 30 priesthood, and of the Levites. Thus cleansed I them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, 31 every one in his business; And for the wood offering, at times appointed, and for the firstfruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

THE BOOK OF ESTHER.

ow it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is 1 Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over an hundred and seven and twenty provinces:) That 2 in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace, In the third 3 year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: When he shewed the riches of his glo- 4 rious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days. And when these days were 5 expired, the king made a feast unto all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both unto great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace; Where were white, 6 green, and blue, hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black, marble. And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the ves- 7 sels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king. And the drinking was accord- 8 ing to the law; none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure. Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the 9 women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus. On 10 the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, To bring Vashti the queen before the 11 king with the crown royal, to shew the people and the princes her to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore 13 was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him. Then the king said to the wise men, which knew the times, (for so was the 14 king's manner toward all that knew law and judgment: And the next unto him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, which saw the king's face, and which sat the first in the kingdom;) 15 What shall we do unto the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus 16 by the chamberlains? And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all 17 the provinces of the king Ahasuerus. For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, 18 but she came not. Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the king's princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall there arise too much contempt and 19 wrath. If it please the king, let there go a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate unto another 20 that is better than she. And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives shall give to their husbands honour, both to great and 21 small. And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the 22 king did according to the word of Memucan: For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

peased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her. Then said the king's servants that minist- 2 tered unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king: And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his king- 3 dom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, unto the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their 4 things for purification be given them: And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased 4 the king; and he did so. Now in Shushan the palace there was a 5 certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite; Who had been carried away 6 from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away. And he brought up Hadassah, that is, 7 Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter. So it came 8 to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
 And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; 9 and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women. Esther had 10 not shewed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not shew it. And Mordecai walked every day 11 before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what should become of her. Now when every maid's turn was 12 come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her to go with 14 her out of the house of the women unto the king's house. In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by 15 name. Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in unto the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

 16 So Esther was taken unto king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year 17 of his reign. And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favour in his sight more than all the vir-gins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her 18 queen instead of Vashti. Then the king made a great feast unto all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of 19 the king. And when the virgins were gathered together the second 20 time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate. Esther had not yet shewed her kindred nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was 21 brought up with him. In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those which kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand 22 on the king Ahasuerus. And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it unto Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king 23 thereof in Mordecai's name. And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was found out; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

3 After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat 2 above all the princes that were with him. And all the king's servants, that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman: for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence. Then the king's servants, 3 which were in the king's gate, said unto Mordecai, Why transgress-est thou the king's commandment? Now it came to pass, when 4 they spake daily unto him, and he hearkened not unto them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew. And when Haman saw 5 that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath. And he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai 6 alone; for they had shewed him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai. In the 7 first month, that is, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar. And Haman said unto king Ahasuerus, There is a 8 certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them. If it please the king, let it be written 9 that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries. And the king took his ring 10 from his hand, and gave it unto Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy. And the king said unto Haman, 11

 The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee. Then were the king's scribes called on the 12 thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded unto the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring. And the 13 letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. The copy of the writing for a commandment 14 to be given in every province was published unto all people, that 15 they should be ready against that day. The posts went out, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

4 When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the 2 midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry; And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the 3 king's gate clothed with sackcloth. And in every province, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and 4 wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes. So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and 5 to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not. Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment 6 to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was. So Hatach went forth to Mordecai unto the street of the city, which was before 7 the king's gate. And Mordecai told him of all that had happened unto him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised 8 to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them. Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to shew it unto Esther, and to declare it unto her, and to charge her that she should go in unto the king, to make supplication unto him, and to make request before him 9 for her people. And Hatach came and told Esther the words of 10 Mordecai. Again Esther spake unto Hatach, and gave him com-11 mandment unto Mordecai; All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except such to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king these 12, 13 thirty days. And they told to Mordecai Esther's words. Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall 14 there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this? Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer, Go, 15, 16 gather together all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther 17 had commanded him.

Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her 5 royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house. And it was 2 so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favour in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre. Then said the king unto her, What 3 wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom. And Esther answered, If it 4 seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him. Then the king 5 said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared. And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, 6 What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.
Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is; 7
If I have found favour in the sight of the king, and if it please the 8 king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to morrow as the king hath said. Then went Haman 9 forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai. Nevertheless 10

Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and 11 called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife. And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things wherein the king had promoted him, and how he had 12 advanced him above the princes and servants of the king. Haman said moreover, Yea, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king unto the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and 13 to morrow am I invited unto her also with the king. Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at 14 the king's gate. Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends unto him, Let a gallows be made of fifty cubits high, and to morrow speak thou unto the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go thou in merrily with the king unto the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.

6 On that night could not the king sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read 2 before the king. And it was found written, that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.
 3 And the king said, What honour and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered 4 unto him, There is nothing done for him. And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak unto the king to hang Mordecai on the 5 gallows that he had prepared for him. And the king's servants said unto him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the 6 king said, Let him come in. So Haman came in. And the king said unto him, What shall be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom 7 would the king delight to do honour more than to myself? And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth 8 to honour, Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown 9 royal which is set upon his head: And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man withal whom the king delighteth to honour, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honour. Then the king said to Haman, 10 Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king's gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken. Then took Haman 11 the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done unto the man whom the king delighteth to honour. And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But 12 Haman hastened to his house mourning, and having his head covered. And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that 13 had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife unto him, If Mordecai be of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou shalt not prevail against him, but shalt surely fall before him. And while they were yet talking with him, 14 came the king's chamberlains, and hastened to bring Haman unto the banquet that Esther had prepared.

So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen. 7 And the king said again unto Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom. Then Esther the queen answered 3 and said, If I have found favour in thy sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request: For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, 4 to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bondwomen, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage. Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said unto Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so? And Esther said, 6 The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen. And the king arising 7 from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him 8 by the king. Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen upon the bed whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the 9 king's mouth, they covered Haman's face. And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then 10 the king said, Hang him thereon. So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

8 On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy unto Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before
 2 the king; for Esther had told what he was unto her. And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it unto Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.
 3 And Esther spake yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the 4 Jews. Then the king held out the golden sceptre toward Esther.
 5 So Esther arose, and stood before the king, And said, If it please the king, and if I have found favour in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews which are in all the 6 king's provinces: For how can I endure to see the evil that shall come unto my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction
 7 of my kindred? Then the king Ahasuerus said unto Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, 8 because he laid his hand upon the Jews. Write ye also for the Jews, as it liketh you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, may no man reverse. Then were 9 the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day thereof; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded unto the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India unto Ethiopia, an hundred twenty and seven provinces, unto every province according to the writing thereof, and unto every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language. And 10 he wrote in the king Ahasuerus' name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries: Wherein the king granted the 11 Jews which were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey, Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon 12 the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.

The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every 13 province was published unto all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.
So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being 14 hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace. And Mordecai went out 15 from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced and was glad. The 16 Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honour. And in every 17 province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.

Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the 9 thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;) The Jews gathered themselves together in their cities 2 throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; 3 for the fear of them fell upon all people. And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them. 4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai waxed greater 5 and greater. Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they 6 would unto those that hated them. And in Shushan the palace the 7 Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men. And Parshandatha, 8 and Dalphon, and Aspatha, And Poratha, and Adalia, and Ari- 9 datha, And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, 10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the 11 Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand. On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was 12 brought before the king. And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall 13 be done. Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon 14 the gallows. And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons. 15 For the Jews that were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred 16 men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand. But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, but they 17 laid not their hands on the prey, On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same rested they, 18 and made it a day of feasting and gladness. But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth day thereof, and on the fourteenth thereof; and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness. Therefore 19 the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwall'd towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another. And 20 Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters unto all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far, To stablish this among them, that they should keep the four- 21 teenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly, As the days wherein the Jews rested from their enemies, 22 and the month which was turned unto them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day: that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor. And the Jews undertook to do as they had 23 begun, and as Mordecai had written unto them; Because Haman 24 the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them; But when 25 Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows. Wherefore they called these days Purim after the 26 name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them, The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon 27 their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves unto them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year; And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout 28 every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed. Then Esther 29 the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim. And he 30 sent the letters unto all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth, To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, 31 according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, 32 the matters of the fastings and their cry. And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

10 And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon
2 the isles of the sea. And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the 3 chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia? For Mordecai the Jew was next unto king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

THE BOOK OF JOB.

 here was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; 1 and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and eschewed evil. And there were born 2 unto him seven sons and three daughters. His substance 3 also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east. And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his 4 day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them. And it was so, when the days of their feasting were 5 gone about, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all: for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually. Now there 6 was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them. And the LORD 7 said unto Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast 8 thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth 9 Job fear God for nought? Hast not thou made an hedge about 10 him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land. But put forth thine hand now, and touch 11 all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD 12 said unto Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thine hand. So Satan went forth from the 13 presence of the LORD. And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's 14 house: And there came a messenger unto Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them: And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yea, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am escaped 15 alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God is fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep, and the servants, and consumed them; and 16 I only am escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made out three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yea, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only am 17 escaped alone to tell thee. While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house: And, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they 18 are dead; and I only am escaped alone to tell thee. Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell down 19 upon the ground, and worshipped, And said, Naked came I out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: the LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the 20 LORD. In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

2 Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to
 2 present himself before the LORD. And the LORD said unto Satan, From whence comest thou? And Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro in the earth, and from walking up and 3 down in it. And the LORD said unto Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him in the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and escheweth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me 4 against him, to destroy him without cause. And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, yea, all that a man hath will he give for his life. But put forth thine hand now, and touch his bone 5 and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face. And the LORD 6 said unto Satan, Behold, he is in thine hand; but save his life. So 7 went Satan forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot unto his crown. And he 8 took him a potsherd to scrape himself withal; and he sat down among the ashes. Then said his wife unto him, Dost thou still 9 retain thine integrity? curse God, and die. But he said unto her, 10 Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?

 In all this did not Job sin with his lips. Now when Job's three 11 friends heard of all this evil that was come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite: for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him and to comfort him. And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him 12 not, they lifted up their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads toward heaven.
 So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven 13 nights, and none spake a word unto him: for they saw that his grief was very great.

After this opened Job his mouth, and cursed his day. And Job 3, 2 spake, and said, Let the day perish wherein I was born, and the 3 night in which it was said, There is a man child conceived. Let 4 that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it. Let darkness and the shadow of death 5 stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it. As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it 6 not be joined unto the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months. Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful 7 voice come therein. Let them curse it that curse the day, who are 8 ready to raise up their mourning. Let the stars of the twilight 9 thereof be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day: Because it shut not up the doors of my 10 mother's womb, nor hid sorrow from mine eyes. Why died I not 11 from the womb? why did I not give up the ghost when I came out 12 of the belly? Why did the knees prevent me? or why the breasts 13 that I should suck? For now should I have lain still and been 14 quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest, With kings and counsellors of the earth, which built desolate places for themselves; 15 Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver: 16 Or as an hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which 17 never saw light. There the wicked cease from troubling; and there 18 the weary be at rest. There the prisoners rest together; they hear 19 not the voice of the oppressor. The small and great are there; 20 and the servant is free from his master. Wherefore is light given 21 to him that is in misery, and life unto the bitter in soul; Which long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid 22 treasures; Which rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can 23 find the grave? Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, 24 and whom God hath hedged in? For my sighing cometh before 25 I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters. For the thing which I greatly feared is come upon me, and that which I 26 was afraid of is come unto me. I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

4, 2 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, If we assay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can withhold 3 himself from speaking? Behold, thou hast instructed many, and 4 thou hast strengthened the weak hands. Thy words have uphelden him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.
 5 But now it is come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, 6 and thou art troubled. Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy 7 hope, and the uprightness of thy ways? Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous 8 cut off? Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow 9 wickedness, reap the same. By the blast of God they perish, and 10 by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed. The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young 11 lions, are broken. The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the 12 stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad. Now a thing was secretly 13 brought to me, and mine ear received a little thereof. In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men, Fear 14 came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.

 Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up: 15
 It stood still, but I could not discern the form thereof: an image 16 was before mine eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying, Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more 17 pure than his maker? Behold, he put no trust in his servants; 18 and his angels he charged with folly: How much less in them that 19 dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, which are crushed before the moth? They are destroyed from morning to 20 evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it. Doth not 21 their excellency which is in them go away? they die, even without wisdom.

Call now, if there be any that will answer thee; and to which 5 of the saints wilt thou turn? For wrath killeth the foolish man, 2 and envy slayeth the silly one. I have seen the foolish taking root: 3 but suddenly I cursed his habitation. His children are far from 4 safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them. Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it 5 even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance. Although affliction cometh not forth of the dust, neither 6 doth trouble spring out of the ground; Yet man is born unto trou- 7 ble, as the sparks fly upward. I would seek unto God, and unto 8 God would I commit my cause: Which doeth great things and un- 9 searchable; marvellous things without number: Who giveth rain 10 upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields: To set up on 11 high those that be low; that those which mourn may be exalted to safety. He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their 12 hands cannot perform their enterprise. He taketh the wise in their 13 own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.

 their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty. So the poor hath 16

- 17 hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth. Behold, happy is the man 18 whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of 19 the Almighty: For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, 20 yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee. In famine he shall redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.
 21 Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt 22 thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh. At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts 23 of the earth. For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the 24 field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee. And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle shall be in peace; and thou 25 shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin. Thou shalt know also that thy seed shall be great, and thine offspring as the grass of the 26 earth. Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, like as a shock it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

- 6, 2 But Job answered and said, Oh that my grief were thoroughly 3 weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together! For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words 4 are swallowed up. For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison whereof drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God do set 5 themselves in array against me. Doth the wild ass bray when he 6 hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder? Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white 7 of an egg? The things that my soul refused to touch are as my 8 sorrowful meat. Oh that I might have my request; and that God 9 would grant me the thing that I long for! Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me 10 off! Then should I yet have comfort; yea, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words 11 of the Holy One. What is my strength, that I should hope? and me? and is wisdom driven quite from me? To him that is afflicted 14 pity should be shewed from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty. My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and 15 as the stream of brooks they pass away; Which are blackish by 16 reason of the ice, and wherein the snow is hid: What time they 17 wax warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place. The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to 18 nothing, and perish. The troops of Tema looked, the companies 19 of Sheba waited for them. They were confounded because they 20 had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed. For now ye 21 are nothing; ye see my casting down, and are afraid. Did I say, 22 Bring unto me? or, Give a reward for me of your substance? Or, 23 Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty? Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause 24 me to understand wherein I have erred. How forcible are right 25 words! but what doth your arguing reprove? Do ye imagine to 26 reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind? Yea, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit 27 for your friend. Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is 28 evident unto you if I lie. Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; 29 yea, return again, my righteousness is in it. Is there iniquity in 30 my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?

Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not 7 his days also like the days of an hireling? As a servant earnestly 2 desireth the shadow, and as an hireling looketh for the reward of his work: So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome 3 nights are appointed to me. When I lie down, I say, When shall I 4 arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro unto the dawning of the day. My flesh is clothed with worms and 5 clods of dust; my skin is broken, and become loathsome. My days 6 are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope. O 7 remember that my life is wind: mine eye shall no more see good.

9 eyes are upon me, and I am not. As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up 10 no more. He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his 11 place know him any more. Therefore I will not refrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the 12 bitterness of my soul. Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a 13 watch over me? When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch 14 shall ease my complaint; Then thou scarest me with dreams, and 15 terrifiest me through visions: So that my soul chooseth strangling, 16 and death rather than my life. I loathe it; I would not live alway: 17 let me alone; for my days are vanity. What is man, that thou shouldest magnify him? and that thou shouldest set thine heart 18 upon him? And that thou shouldest visit him every morning, and 19 try him every moment? How long wilt thou not depart from me, 20 nor let me alone till I swallow down my spittle? I have sinned; what shall I do unto thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
 21 And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away mine iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.

8, 2 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy 3 mouth be like a strong wind? Doth God pervert judgment? or 4 doth the Almighty pervert justice? If thy children have sinned 5 against him, and he have cast them away for their transgression; If thou wouldest seek unto God betimes, and make thy supplication 6 to the Almighty; If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness 7 prosperous. Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end 8 should greatly increase. For enquire, I pray thee, of the former 9 age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers: (For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon 10 earth are a shadow:) Shall not they teach thee, and tell thee, and 11 utter words out of their heart? Can the rush grow up without 12 mire? can the flag grow without water? Whilst it is yet in his greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.
 13 So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish: Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall 14 be a spider's web. He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not 15 stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure. He is green 16 before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden. His 17 roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.

If he destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, 18
I have not seen thee. Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out 19 of the earth shall others grow. Behold, God will not cast away 20 a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers: Till he fill thy 21 mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing. They that hate 22 thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to nought.

Then Job answered and said, I know it is so of a truth: but 9, 2 how should man be just with God? If he will contend with him, 3 he cannot answer him one of a thousand. He is wise in heart, 4 and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered? Which removeth the mountains, and they 5 know not: which overturneth them in his anger. Which shaketh 6 the earth out of her place, and the pillars thereof tremble. Which 7 commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and seaeth up the stars.
Which alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the 8 waves of the sea. Which maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, 9 and the chambers of the south. Which doeth great things past 10 finding out; yea, and wonders without number. Lo, he goeth by 11 me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not. Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will 12 say unto him, What doest thou? If God will not withdraw his 13 anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him. How much less 14 shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?
Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I 15 would make supplication to my judge. If I had called, and he had 16 answered me; yet would I not believe that he had hearkened unto my voice. For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my 17 wounds without cause. He will not suffer me to take my breath, 18 but filleth me with bitterness. If I speak of strength, lo, he is 19 20 strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead? If I 21 justify myself, mine own mouth shall condemn me: if I say, I am 22 perfect, it shall also prove me perverse. Though I were perfect, 23 yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life. This is 24 one thing, therefore I said it, He destroyeth the perfect and the 25 wicked. If the scourge slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of 26 the innocent. The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he 27 covereth the faces of the judges thereof; if not, where, and who is 28 he? Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see 29 no good. They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle 30 that hasteth to the prey. If I say, I will forget my complaint, I 31 will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself: I am afraid of 32 all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent. If I 33 be wicked, why then labour I in vain? If I wash myself with snow 34 water, and make my hands never so clean; Yet shalt thou plunge 35 me in the ditch, and mine own clothes shall abhor me. For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come 33 together in judgment. Neither is there any daysman betwixt us, 34 that might lay his hand upon us both. Let him take his rod away 35 from me, and let not his fear terrify me: Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.

10 My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon 2 myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul. I will say unto God, Do not condemn me; shew me wherefore thou contendest

 4 thou shouldest despise the work of thine hands, and shine upon 5 the counsel of the wicked? Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou 6 as man seeth? Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as 7 man's days, That thou enquirest after mine iniquity, and searchest 8 after my sin? Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is 9 none that can deliver out of thine hand. Thine hands have made me and fashioned me together round about; yet thou dost destroy clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews. Thou hast granted me life and favour, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit. And these things hast thou hid in thine heart: I know that this is with thee. If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from mine iniquity. If I be wicked, woe unto me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou mine affliction; For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou shewest thyself marvellous upon me. Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thine indignation upon me; changes and war are against me. Wherefore then hast thou brought me forth out of the womb? Oh that I had given up the ghost, and no eye had seen me! I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave. Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little, Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness and the shadow of death; A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shadow of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said, Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified? Should thy lies make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed? For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thine eyes. But oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee; And that he would shew thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thine iniquity deserveth. Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty unto perfection? It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know? The measure thereof is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea. If he cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?  the ghost.

12, 2 And Job answered and said, No doubt but ye are the people, 3 and wisdom shall die with you. But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yea, who knoweth not such things 4 as these? I am as one mocked of his neighbour, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is laughed to 5 scorn. He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised 6 in the thought of him that is at ease. The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand 7 God bringeth abundantly. But ask now the beasts, and they shall 8 teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee: Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea 9 shall declare unto thee. Who knoweth not in all these that the 10 hand of the LORD hath wrought this? In whose hand is the soul 11 of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind. Doth not the 12 ear try words? and the mouth taste his meat? With the ancient 13 is wisdom; and in length of days understanding. With him is wis-14 dom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding. Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a 15 man, and there can be no opening. Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they over-16 turn the earth. With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived 17 and the deceiver are his. He leadeth counsellors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools. He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle. He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty. He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged. He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty. He discovereth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth out to light the shadow of death. He increaseth the nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth the nations, and straiteneth them again. He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way. They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

Lo, mine eye hath seen all this, mine ear hath heard and understood it. What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior unto you. Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God. But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value. O that ye would altogether hold your peace! and it should be your wisdom. Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips. Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him? Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God? Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him? He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons. Shall not his excellency make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?
 Your remembrances are like unto ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay. Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will. Wherefore do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in mine hand? Though he slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain mine own ways before him. He also shall be my salvation: for an hypocrite shall not come before him. Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears. Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified. Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall give up the ghost. Only do not two things unto me: then will I not hide myself from thee. Withdraw thine hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid. Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou 23 me. How many are mine iniquities and sins? make me to know 24 my transgression and my sin. Wherefore hidest thou thy face, 25 and holdest me for thine enemy? Wilt thou break a leaf driven to 26 and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble? For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities 27 of my youth. Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly unto all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of 28 my feet. And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth eaten.

14 Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.
 2 He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a 3 shadow, and continueth not. And dost thou open thine eyes upon 4 such an one, and bringest me into judgment with thee? Who can 5 bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one. Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months are with thee, thou hast 6 appointed his bounds that he cannot pass; Turn from him, that 7 he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as an hireling, his day. For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will sprout again, 8 and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the 9 ground; Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth 10 boughs like a plant. But man dieth, and wasteth away: yea, man 11 giveth up the ghost, and where is he? As the waters fail from the 12 sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up: So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens be no more, they shall not awake, nor 13 be raised out of their sleep. O that thou wouldest hide me in the grave, that thou wouldest keep me secret, until thy wrath be past, 14 that thou wouldest appoint me a set time, and remember me! If a man die, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will 15 I wait, till my change come. Thou shalt call, and I will answer 16 thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thine hands. For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?
 17 My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up mine 18 iniquity. And surely the mountain falling cometh to nought, and 19 the rock is removed out of his place. The waters wear the stones:

thou wastest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man. Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away. His sons come to honour, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them. But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said, Should a wise man utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind? Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches where- with he can do no good? Yea, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God. For thy mouth uttereth thine iniquity, and thou choosest the tongue of the crafty. Thine own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yea, thine own lips testify against thee. Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills? Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself? What knowest thou, that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us? With us are both the grayheaded and very aged men, much elder than thy father. Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee? Why doth thine heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at, That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth? What is man, that he should be clean? and he which is born of a woman, that he should be righteous? Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yea, the heavens are not clean in his sight. How much more abominable and filthy is man, which drinketh iniquity like water? I will shew thee, hear me; and that which I have seen I will declare; Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it: Unto whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them. The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor. A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him. He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for of the sword. He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.

v.19 wastest...: Heb. overflowest. 15. v.2 vain...: Heb. knowledge of wind.
v.4 castest...: Heb. makest void. prayer: or, speech. v.5 uttereth: Heb. teacheth. v.21 A dreadful...: Heb. A sound of fears.

24 Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail aga-25 inst him, as a king ready to the battle. For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
 26 He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of 27 his bucklers: Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and 28 maketh collops of fat on his flanks. And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to 29 become heaps. He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection thereof upon the 30 earth. He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.
 31 Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be 32 his recompence. It shall be accomplished before his time, and his 33 branch shall not be green. He shall shake off his unripe grape as 34 the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive. For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the 35 tabernacles of bribery. They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly prepareth deceit.

16, 2 Then Job answered and said, I have heard many such things: 3 miserable comforters are ye all. Shall vain words have an end? or 4 what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest? I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up 5 words against you, and shake mine head at you. But I would strengthen you with my mouth, and the moving of my lips should 6 assuage your grief. Though I speak, my grief is not asswaged:
 7 and though I forbear, what am I eased? But now he hath made 8 me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company. And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my 9 leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face. He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his 10 teeth; mine enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me. They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves together against me.
 11 God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the 12 hands of the wicked. I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark. His archers compass me round about, he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground. He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant. I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust. My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids is the shadow of death; Not for any injustice in mine hands: also my prayer is pure. O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place. Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high. My friends scorn me: but mine eye poureth out tears unto God. O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbour! When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me. Are there not mockers with me? and doth not mine eye continue in their provocation? Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me? For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them. He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail. He hath made me also a byword of the people; and aforetime I was as a tabret. Mine eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shadow. Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite. The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger. But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you. My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart. They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness. If I wait, the grave is mine house: I have made my bed in the darkness. I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister. And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who shall see it? They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

18, 2 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will 3 speak. Wherefore are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in 4 your sight? He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of his place?
 5 Yea, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his 6 fire shall not shine. The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and 7 his candle shall be put out with him. The steps of his strength 8 shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down. For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.
 9 The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail 10 against him. The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for 11 him in the way. Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and 12 shall drive him to his feet. His strength shall be hungerbitten, and 13 destruction shall be ready at his side. It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the firstborn of death shall devour his strength.
 14 His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall 15 bring him to the king of terrors. It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his 16 habitation. His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall 17 his branch be cut off. His remembrance shall perish from the 18 earth, and he shall have no name in the street. He shall be driven 19 from light into darkness, and chased out of the world. He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining 20 in his dwellings. They that come after him shall be astonished at his 21 day, as they that went before were affrighted. Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.

19, 2 Then Job answered and said, How long will ye vex my soul, 3 and break me in pieces with words? These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange 4 to me. And be it indeed that I have erred, mine error remaineth 5 with myself. If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, 6 and plead against me my reproach: Know now that God hath 7 overthrown me, and hath compassed me with his net. Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment. He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths. He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head. He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and mine hope hath he removed like a tree. He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me unto him as one of his enemies. His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp round about my tabernacle. He hath put my brethren far from me, and mine acquaintance are verily estranged from me. My kinsfolk have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me. They that dwell in mine house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight. I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I intreated him with my mouth. My breath is strange to my wife, though I intreated for the children's sake of mine own body. Yea, young children despised me; I arose, and they spake against me. All my inward friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me. My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I am escaped with the skin of my teeth. Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me. Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh? Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book! That they were graven with an iron pen and lead in the rock for ever! For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he shall stand at the latter day upon the earth: And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God: Whom I shall see for myself, and mine eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me. But ye should say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me? Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said, Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste. I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding 4 causeth me to answer. Knowest thou not this of old, since man 5 was placed upon earth, That the triumphing of the wicked is 6 short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment? Though his excellency mount up to the heavens, and his head reach unto 7 the clouds; Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they 8 which have seen him shall say, Where is he? He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: yea, he shall be chased away 9 as a vision of the night. The eye also which saw him shall see 10 him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him. His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore 11 their goods. His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall 12 lie down with him in the dust. Though wickedness be sweet in his 13 mouth, though he hide it under his tongue; Though he spare it, 14 and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth: Yet his meat 15 in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him. He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God 16 shall cast them out of his belly. He shall suck the poison of asps: 17 the viper's tongue shall slay him. He shall not see the rivers, the 18 floods, the brooks of honey and butter. That which he laboured for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it down: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice therein.

 19 Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he 20 hath violently taken away an house which he builded not; Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that 21 which he desired. There shall none of his meat be left; therefore 22 shall no man look for his goods. In the fulness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon 23 him. When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
 24 He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike 25 him through. It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yea, the 26 glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him. All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.

The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up 27 against him. The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods 28 shall flow away in the day of his wrath. This is the portion of 29 a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed unto him by God.

But Job answered and said, Hear diligently my speech, and let 21, 2 this be your consolations. Suffer me that I may speak; and after 3 that I have spoken, mock on. As for me, is my complaint to man? 4 and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled? Mark me, 5 and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth. Even 6 when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh. Wherefore do the wicked live, become old, yea, are mighty 7 in power? Their seed is established in their sight with them, and 8 their offspring before their eyes. Their houses are safe from fear, 9 neither is the rod of God upon them. Their bull gendereth, and 10 faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf. They send 11 forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance. They 12 take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.
They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to 13 the grave. Therefore they say unto God, Depart from us; for we 14 desire not the knowledge of thy ways. What is the Almighty, that 15 we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray unto him? Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of 16 the wicked is far from me. How oft is the candle of the wicked 17 put out! and how oft cometh their destruction upon them! God distributeth sorrows in his anger. They are as stubble before the 18 wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away. God layeth up 19 his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it. His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the 20 wrath of the Almighty. For what pleasure hath he in his house 21 after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?
Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are 22 high. One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and 23 quiet. His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened 24 with marrow. And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and 25

 27 and the worms shall cover them. Behold, I know your thoughts, 28 and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me. For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling 29 places of the wicked? Have ye not asked them that go by the way?
 30 and do ye not know their tokens, That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they shall be brought forth to the day of 31 wrath. Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay 32 him what he hath done? Yet shall he be brought to the grave, 33 and shall remain in the tomb. The clods of the valley shall be sweet unto him, and every man shall draw after him, as there are 34 innumerable before him. How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

22, 2 Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said, Can a man be profitable unto God, as he that is wise may be profitable unto him-3 self? Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous?
 4 or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect? Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judg-5 ment? Is not thy wickedness great? and thine iniquities infinite?
 6 For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for nought, and 7 stripped the naked of their clothing. Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withholden bread from the 8 hungry. But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the 9 honourable man dwelt in it. Thou hast sent widows away empty, 10 and the arms of the fatherless have been broken. Therefore snares 11 are round about thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee; Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.
 12 Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the 13 stars, how high they are! And thou sayest, How doth God know?
 14 can he judge through the dark cloud? Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of 15 heaven. Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have 16 trodden? Which were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflown with a flood: Which said unto God, Depart from 17 us: and what can the Almighty do for them? Yet he filled their 18 houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me. The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent laugh 19 them to scorn. Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the 20 remnant of them the fire consumeth. Acquaint now thyself with 21 him, and be at peace: thereby good shall come unto thee. Re- 22 ceive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thine heart. If thou return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built 23 up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles. Then 24 shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks. Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defence, and thou 25 shalt have plenty of silver. For then shalt thou have thy delight 26 in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face unto God. Thou shalt 27 make thy prayer unto him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows. Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be 28 established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

 When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is lifting up; 29 and he shall save the humble person. He shall deliver the island 30 of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thine hands.

Then Job answered and said, Even to day is my complaint bit- 23, 2 ter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning. Oh that I knew where 3 I might find him! that I might come even to his seat! I would 4 order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments. I 5 would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say unto me. Will he plead against me with his 6 great power? No; but he would put strength in me. There the 7 righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge. Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and 8 backward, but I cannot perceive him: On the left hand, where he 9 doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him: But he knoweth the way that I take: 10 when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold. My foot hath 11 held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined. Neither have 12

I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed 13 the words of his mouth more than my necessary food. But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even 14 that he doeth. For he performeth the thing that is appointed for 15 me: and many such things are with him. Therefore am I troubled 16 at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him. For God 17 maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me: Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.

24 Why, seeing times are not hidden from the Almighty, do they 2 that know him not see his days? Some remove the landmarks; 3 they violently take away flocks, and feed thereof. They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
 4 They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide 5 themselves together. Behold, as wild asses in the desert, go they forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yield- 6 eth food for them and for their children. They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.
 7 They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have 8 no covering in the cold. They are wet with the showers of the 9 mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter. They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.
 10 They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away 11 the sheaf from the hungry; Which make oil within their walls, 12 and tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst. Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God 13 layeth not folly to them. They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not the ways thereof, nor abide in the paths 14 thereof. The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and 15 needy, and in the night is as a thief. The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and 16 disguiseth his face. In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the daytime: they know not the 17 light. For the morning is to them even as the shadow of death:
 if one know them, they are in the terrors of the shadow of death.
 18 He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards. Drought and heat consume the snow waters: so doth the grave those which have sinned. The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree. He evil entreateth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow. He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life. Though it be given him to be in safety, whereon he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways. They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all other, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn. And if it be not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?

Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said, Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places. Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise? How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman? Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; yea, the stars are not pure in his sight. How much less man, that is a worm? and the son of man, which is a worm?

But Job answered and said, How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength? How hast thou counselled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou plentifully declared the thing as it is? To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee? Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof. Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering. He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing. He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them. He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it. He hath compassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end. The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof. He divideth the sea with his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud. By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent. Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

27, 2 Moreover Job continued his parable, and said, As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty, who hath vexed my soul; All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils; My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit. God forbid that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove mine integrity from me. My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live. Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous. For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul? Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him? Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God? I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal. Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain? This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty. If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread. Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep. Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay; He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver. He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh. The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not. Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night. The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place. For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand. Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

28 Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it. Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is molten out of the stone. He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shadow of death. The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant; even the waters forgotten of the foot: they are dried up, they are gone away from men. As 5 for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire. The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and 6 it hath dust of gold. There is a path which no fowl knoweth, 7 and which the vulture's eye hath not seen: The lion's whelps 8 have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it. He putteth 9 forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots. He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth 10 every precious thing. He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and 11 the thing that is hid bringeth he forth to light. But where shall 12 wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding? Man 13 knoweth not the price thereof; neither is it found in the land of the living. The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It 14 is not with me. It cannot be gotten for gold, neither shall silver 15 be weighed for the price thereof. It cannot be valued with the 16 gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire. The gold 17 and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold. No mention shall be made of coral, or 18 of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies. The topaz of 19 Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold. Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of 20 understanding? Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and 21 kept close from the fowls of the air. Destruction and death say, We 22 have heard the fame thereof with our ears. God understandeth 23 the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof. For he looketh 24 to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven; To 25 make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure. When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for 26 the lightning of the thunder: Then did he see it, and declare it; 27 he prepared it, yea, and searched it out. And unto man he said, 28 Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.

4 through darkness; As I was in the days of my youth, when the 5 secret of God was upon my tabernacle; When the Almighty was 6 yet with me, when my children were about me; When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil; 7 When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my 8 seat in the street! The young men saw me, and hid themselves:
9 and the aged arose, and stood up. The princes refrained talking, 10 and laid their hand on their mouth. The nobles held their peace, 11 and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth. When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave 12 witness to me: Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the 13 fatherless, and him that had none to help him. The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's 14 heart to sing for joy. I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: 15 my judgment was as a robe and a diadem. I was eyes to the blind, 16 and feet was I to the lame. I was a father to the poor: and the 17 cause which I knew not I searched out. And I brake the jaws of 18 the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth. Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.
19 My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night 20 upon my branch. My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was 21 renewed in my hand. Unto me men gave ear, and waited, and 22 kept silence at my counsel. After my words they spake not again; 23 and my speech dropped upon them. And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter 24 rain. If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of 25 my countenance they cast not down. I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

30 But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to have set with the dogs of my flock.
2 Yea, whereto might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom 3 old age was perished? For want and famine they were solitary; 4 fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste. Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their meat.

They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them as 5 after a thief;) To dwell in the cliffs of the valleys, in caves of the 6 earth, and in the rocks. Among the bushes they brayed; under 7 the nettles they were gathered together. They were children of 8 fools, yea, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.
And now am I their song, yea, I am their byword. They abhor me, 9, 10 they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face. Because 11 he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me. Upon my right hand rise the youth; they 12 push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction. They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, 13 they have no helper. They came upon me as a wide breaking in of 14 waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me. Terrors 15 are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud. And now my soul is poured out 16 upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me. My 17 bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest. By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: 18 it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat. He hath cast me into 19 the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes. I cry unto thee, 20 and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.
Thou art become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest 21 thyself against me. Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest 22 me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance. For I know that 23 thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living. Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, 24 though they cry in his destruction. Did not I weep for him that 25 was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor? When I 26 looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for light, there came darkness. My bowels boiled, and rested not: the 27 days of affliction prevented me. I went mourning without the sun: 28 I stood up, and I cried in the congregation. I am a brother to 29 dragons, and a companion to owls. My skin is black upon me, 30 and my bones are burned with heat. My harp also is turned to 31 mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

31 I made a covenant with mine eyes; why then should I think upon 2 a maid? For what portion of God is there from above? and what 3 inheritance of the Almighty from on high? Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?
 4, 5 Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps? If I have 6 walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hastened to deceit; Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know mine integrity.
 7 If my step hath turned out of the way, and mine heart walked after 8 mine eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to mine hands; Then let me sow, and let another eat; yea, let my offspring be rooted out.
 9 If mine heart have been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait 10 at my neighbour's door; Then let my wife grind unto another, and 11 let others bow down upon her. For this is an heinous crime; yea, 12 it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges. For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all mine increase.
 13 If I did despise the cause of my manservant or of my maidservant, 14 when they contended with me; What then shall I do when God 15 riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him? Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion 16 us in the womb? If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or 17 have caused the eyes of the widow to fail; Or have eaten my morsel 18 myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten thereof; (For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have 19 guided her from my mother's womb;) If I have seen any perish for 23 blade, and mine arm be broken from the bone. For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could 24 not endure. If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine 25 gold, Thou art my confidence; If I rejoiced because my wealth

 I should have denied the God that is above. If I rejoiced at the 29 destruction of him that hated me, or lifted up myself when evil found him: Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a 30 curse to his soul. If the men of my tabernacle said not, Oh that 31 we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied. The stranger did not 32 lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveller. If 33 I covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding mine iniquity in my bosom: Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of 34 families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door? Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the 35 Almighty would answer me, and that mine adversary had written a book. Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as 36 a crown to me. I would declare unto him the number of my steps; 37

So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righ- 32 teous in his own eyes. Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the 2 son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.
 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they 3 had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job. Now Elihu 4 had waited till Job had spoken, because they were elder than he.
 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these 5 three men, then his wrath was kindled. And Elihu the son of 6 Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not shew you mine opinion. I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should 7 teach wisdom. But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration 8 of the Almighty giveth them understanding. Great men are not 9 10 always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment. Therefore 11 I said, Harken to me; I also will shew mine opinion. Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched 12 out what to say. Yea, I attended unto you, and, behold, there was 13 none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words: Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him 14 down, not man. Now he hath not directed his words against 15 me: neither will I answer him with your speeches. They were 16 amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking. When I had waited, (for they spake not, but stood still, and answered no 17 more;) I said, I will answer also my part, I also will shew mine 18 opinion. For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth 19 me. Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready

 21 will open my lips and answer. Let me not, I pray you, accept any 22 man's person, neither let me give flattering titles unto man. For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing my maker would soon take me away.

33 Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken 2 to all my words. Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my 3 tongue hath spoken in my mouth. My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

any of his matters. For God speaketh once, yea twice, yet man 14 perceiveth it not. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep 15 sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed; Then he 16 openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction, That he 17 may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.
 He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by 18 the sword. He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the 19 multitude of his bones with strong pain: So that his life abhorreth 20 bread, and his soul dainty meat. His flesh is consumed away, that 21 it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out. Yea, 22 his soul draweth near unto the grave, and his life to the destroyers.
 If there be a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a 23 thousand, to shew unto man his uprightness: Then he is gracious 24 unto him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom. His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he 25 shall return to the days of his youth: He shall pray unto God, 26 and he will be favourable unto him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render unto man his righteousness. He looketh 27 upon men, and if any say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not; He will deliver his soul from 28 going into the pit, and his life shall see the light. Lo, all these 29 things worketh God oftentimes with man, To bring back his soul 30 from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living. Mark 31

 If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to 32 justify thee. If not, hearken unto me: hold thy peace, and I shall 33 teach thee wisdom.

Furthermore Elihu answered and said, Hear my words, O ye 34, 2 wise men; and give ear unto me, ye that have knowledge. For the 3 ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth meat. Let us choose to us 4 judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good. For Job 5 hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.
 Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without 6 transgression. What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning 7 8 like water? Which goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, 9 and walketh with wicked men. For he hath said, It profiteth a 10 man nothing that he should delight himself with God. Therefore hearken unto me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should 11 commit iniquity. For the work of a man shall he render unto 12 him, and cause every man to find according to his ways. Yea, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert 13 judgment. Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who 14 hath disposed the whole world? If he set his heart upon man, if he 15 gather unto himself his spirit and his breath; All flesh shall perish 16 together, and man shall turn again unto dust. If now thou hast 17 understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words. Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that 18 is most just? Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to 19 princes, Ye are ungodly? How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the 20 poor? for they all are the work of his hands. In a moment shall they die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass 21 away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand. For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.

 22 There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers 23 of iniquity may hide themselves. For he will not lay upon man 24 more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God. He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in 25 their stead. Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth 26 them in the night, so that they are destroyed. He striketh them 27 as wicked men in the open sight of others; Because they turned 28 back from him, and would not consider any of his ways: So that they cause the cry of the poor to come unto him, and he heareth 29 the cry of the afflicted. When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only: 30, 31 That the hypocrite reign not, lest the people be ensnared. Surely it is meet to be said unto God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more: That which I see not teach thou me: if I 32 have done iniquity, I will do no more. Should it be according to 33 thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou refuse, or whether thou choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest. Let 34 men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken unto me.

 Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without 35 wisdom. My desire is that Job may be tried unto the end because 36 of his answers for wicked men. For he addeth rebellion unto his 37 sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

Elihu spake moreover, and said, Thinkest thou this to be right, 35, 2 that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's? For thou 3 saidst, What advantage will it be unto thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin? I will answer thee, and thy 4 companions with thee. Look unto the heavens, and see; and be- 5 hold the clouds which are higher than thou. If thou sinnest, what 6 doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions be multiplied, what doest thou unto him? If thou be righteous, what givest thou 7 him? or what receiveth he of thine hand? Thy wickedness may 8 hurt a man as thou art; and thy righteousness may profit the son of man. By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the 9 oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
 But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the 10 night; Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and 11 maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven? There they cry, but 12 none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men. Surely God 13 will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it. Although 14 thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him. But now, because it is not so, he 15 hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity: Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words 16 without knowledge.

Elihu also proceeded, and said, Suffer me a little, and I will 36, 2 shew thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf. I will fetch my 3 knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.

4 For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowl-5 edge is with thee. Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any:
 6 he is mighty in strength and wisdom. He preserveth not the life of 7 the wicked: but giveth right to the poor. He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yea, 8 he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted. And if they 9 be bound in fetters, and be holden in cords of affliction; Then he sheweth them their work, and their transgressions that they have 10 exceeded. He openeth also their ear to discipline, and comman-11 deth that they return from iniquity. If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in plea-12 sures. But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and 13 they shall die without knowledge. But the hypocrites in heart 14 heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them. They die 15 in youth, and their life is among the unclean. He delivereth the 16 poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression. Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy 17 table should be full of fatness. But thou hast fulfilled the judgment 18 of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee. Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then 19 a great ransom cannot deliver thee. Will he esteem thy riches?
 20 no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength. Desire not the night, 21 when people are cut off in their place. Take heed, regard not in-22 iquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction. Behold, 23 God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him? Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniqui-24 ty? Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.
 25, 26 Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off. Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his 27 years be searched out. For he maketh small the drops of water: 28 they pour down rain according to the vapour thereof: Which the 29 clouds do drop and distil upon man abundantly. Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his taber-30 nacle? Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the noise thereof sheweth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the

At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of his place. 37
Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth 2 out of his mouth. He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his 3 lightning unto the ends of the earth. After it a voice roareth: he 4 thundereth with the voice of his excellency; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard. God thundereth marvellously with 5 his voice; great things doeth he, which we cannot comprehend.
For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the 6 small rain, and to the great rain of his strength. He sealet up 7 the hand of every man; that all men may know his work. Then 8 the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places. Out of the 9 south cometh the whirlwind: and cold out of the north. By the 10 breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened. Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he 11 scattereth his bright cloud: And it is turned round about by his 12 counsels: that they may do whatsoever he commandeth them upon the face of the world in the earth. He causeth it to come, whether 13 for correction, or for his land, or for mercy. Harken unto this, O 14 Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God. Dost 15 thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine? Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the 16 wondrous works of him which is perfect in knowledge? How thy 17 garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?
Hast thou with him spread out the sky, which is strong, and as a 18 molten looking glass? Teach us what we shall say unto him; for 19 we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness. Shall it be told 20 him that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be swallowed up.
And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but 21 the wind passeth, and cleanseth them. Fair weather cometh out of 22 the north: with God is terrible majesty. Touching the Almighty, 23

we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, 24 and in plenty of justice: he will not afflict. Men do therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.

38 Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, 2 Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?
 3 Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and 4 answer thou me. Where wast thou when I laid the foundations 5 of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding. Who hath laid the measures thereof, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the 6 line upon it? Whereupon are the foundations thereof fastened? or 7 who laid the corner stone thereof; When the morning stars sang 8 together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy? Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it brake forth, as if it had issued out 9 of the womb? When I made the cloud the garment thereof, and 10 thick darkness a swaddlingband for it, And brake up for it my 11 decreed place, and set bars and doors, And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be 12 stayed? Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and 13 caused the dayspring to know his place; That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of 14 it? It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.
 15 And from the wicked their light is withholden, and the high arm 16 shall be broken. Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea?
 17 or hast thou walked in the search of the depth? Have the gates of death been opened unto thee? or hast thou seen the doors of 18 the shadow of death? Hast thou perceived the breadth of the 19 earth? declare if thou knowest it all. Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is the place thereof, 21 shouldest know the paths to the house thereof? Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days 22 is great? Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or 23 hast thou seen the treasures of the hail, Which I have reserved 24 against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war? By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon 25 the earth? Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee? Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labour to him? Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn? Gavest thou the goodly wings unto the peacocks? or wings and feathers unto the ostrich? Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in dust, And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them. She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labour is in vain without fear; Because God hath deprived her of wisdom, neither hath he imparted to her understanding. What time she lifteth up herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider. Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder? Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible. He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men. He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword. The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield. He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet. He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting. Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings toward the south? Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high? She dwelleth and abideth on the rock, upon the crag of the rock, and the strong place. 40, 2 Moreover the LORD answered Job, and said, Shall he that contendeth with the Almighty instruct him? he that reproveth God, 3, 4 let him answer it. Then Job answered the LORD, and said, Behold, I am vile; what shall I answer thee? I will lay mine hand upon 5 my mouth. Once have I spoken; but I will not answer: yea, twice; 6 but I will proceed no further. Then answered the LORD unto Job 7 out of the whirlwind, and said, Gird up thy loins now like a man: 8 I will demand of thee, and declare thou unto me. be righteous? Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thun- 9 der with a voice like him? Deck thyself now with majesty and 10 excellency; and array thyself with glory and beauty. Cast abroad 11 the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him. Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; 12 and tread down the wicked in their place. Hide them in the dust 13 together; and bind their faces in secret. Then will I also confess 14 unto thee that thine own right hand can save thee. Behold now 15 behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox. Lo 16 now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly. He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his stones 17 are wrapped together. His bones are as strong pieces of brass; 18 his bones are like bars of iron. He is the chief of the ways of 19 God: he that made him can make his sword to approach unto him.

 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts 20 of the field play. He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of 21 the reed, and fens. The shady trees cover him with their shadow; 22 the willows of the brook compass him about. Behold, he drinketh 23 up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth. He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth 24 through snares.

13 Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to 14 him with his double bridle? Who can open the doors of his face?
 15 his teeth are terrible round about. His scales are his pride, shut 16 up together as with a close seal. One is so near to another, that no 17 air can come between them. They are joined one to another, they 18 stick together, that they cannot be sundered. By his neesings a 19 light doth shine, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
 20 Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire leap out.
 21, 22 Out of his nostrils goeth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.
 His breath kindleth coals, and a flame goeth out of his mouth. In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before 23 him. The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in 24 themselves; they cannot be moved. His heart is as firm as a stone; 25 yea, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone. When he raiseth up himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they 26 purify themselves. The sword of him that layeth at him cannot 27 hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon. He esteemeth iron 28 as straw, and brass as rotten wood. The arrow cannot make 29 him flee: slingstones are turned with him into stubble. Darts are 30 counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear. Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the 31 mire. He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea 32 like a pot of ointment. He maketh a path to shine after him; one 33 would think the deep to be hoary. Upon earth there is not his 34 like, who is made without fear. He beholdeth all high things: he to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath. Therefore take unto you 8 now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job. So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite 9 and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job. And the LORD 10 turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before. Then came 11 there unto him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an earring of gold. So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his 12 beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses. He had also seven sons and three daughters. And he called the 13, 14 name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Kerenhappuch. And in all the land were 15 no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren. After this lived Job 16 an hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations. So Job died, being old and full of days. 17

THE BOOK OF PSALMS.

1 lessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the 2 ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth 3 in the seat of the scornful. But his delight is in the 4 law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day 5 and night. And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of 6 water, that bringeth forth his fruit in his season; his leaf also shall 7 not wither; and whatsoever he doeth shall prosper. The ungodly 8 are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.
9 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners 10 in the congregation of the righteous. For the LORD knoweth the 11 way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

2 Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?
2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel 3 together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let 4 us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.
5 He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have 6 them in derision. Then shall he speak unto them in his wrath, 7 and vex them in his sore displeasure. Yet have I set my king upon 8 my holy hill of Zion. I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said 9 unto me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee. Ask 10 of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for thine inheritance, and 11 the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession. Thou shalt 12 break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel. Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth. Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling. Kiss the Son, lest he be angry, and ye perish from the way, when his wrath is kindled but a little. Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son. LORD, 3 how are they increased that trouble me! many are they that rise up against me. Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help 2 for him in God. Selah. But thou, O LORD, art a shield for me; 3 my glory, and the lifter up of mine head. I cried unto the LORD 4 with my voice, and he heard me out of his holy hill. Selah. I laid 5 me down and slept; I awaked; for the LORD sustained me. I will 6 not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves against me round about. Arise, O LORD; save me, O my God: 7 for thou hast smitten all mine enemies upon the cheek bone; thou hast broken the teeth of the ungodly. Salvation belongeth unto 8 the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people. Selah.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm of David. Hear me 4 when I call, O God of my righteousness: thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
 O ye sons of men, how long will ye turn my glory into shame? 2 how long will ye love vanity, and seek after leasing? Selah. But 3 know that the LORD hath set apart him that is godly for himself: the LORD will hear when I call unto him. Stand in awe, and sin 4 not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still.
 Selah. Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in 5 the LORD. There be many that say, Who will shew us any good? 6 LORD, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us. Thou 7 hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased. I will both lay me down in peace, 8 and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me dwell in safety.

To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David. Give 5 ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation. Hearken unto 2 the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for unto thee will I pray. My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the 3 morning will I direct my prayer unto thee, and will look up. For 4 thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee. The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: 5 thou hatest all workers of iniquity. Thou shalt destroy them that 6 speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.
 But as for me, I will come into thy house in the multitude of thy 7 mercy: and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

8 Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; 9 make thy way straight before my face. For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat 10 is an open sepulchre; they flatter with their tongue. Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against 11 thee. But let all those that put their trust in thee rejoice: let them ever shout for joy, because thou defendest them: let them also that 12 love thy name be joyful in thee. For thou, LORD, wilt bless the righteous; with favour wilt thou compass him as with a shield.

6 To the chief Musician on Neginoth upon Sheminith, A Psalm of David. O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten 2 me in thy hot displeasure. Have mercy upon me, O LORD; for I 3 am weak: O LORD, heal me; for my bones are vexed. My soul is 4 also sore vexed: but thou, O LORD, how long? Return, O LORD, 5 deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake. For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall give thee 6 thanks? I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed 7 to swim; I water my couch with my tears. Mine eye is consumed 8 because of grief; it waxeth old because of all mine enemies. Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the 9 voice of my weeping. The LORD hath heard my supplication; the 10 LORD will receive my prayer. Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and be ashamed suddenly.

7 Shiggaion of David, which he sang unto the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjamite. O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver 2 me: Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while 3 there is none to deliver. O LORD my God, if I have done this; if 4 there be iniquity in my hands; If I have rewarded evil unto him that was at peace with me; (yea, I have delivered him that without 5 cause is mine enemy:) Let the enemy persecute my soul, and take it; yea, let him tread down my life upon the earth, and lay mine honour in the dust. Selah. Arise, O LORD, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that thou hast commanded. So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about: for their sakes therefore return thou on high. The LORD shall judge the people: judge me, O LORD, according to my righteousness, and according to mine integrity that is in me. Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieth the hearts and reins. My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart. God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day. If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready. He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors. Behold, he travaileth with iniquity, and hath conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood. He made a pit, and digged it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made. His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violent dealing shall come down upon his own pate. I will praise the LORD according to his righteousness: and will sing praise to the name of the LORD most high.

To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens. Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger. When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers, the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained; What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him? For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour. Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet: All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field; The fowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whatsoever passeth through the paths of the seas. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth!

will praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth 2 all thy marvellous works. I will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will 3 sing praise to thy name, O thou most High. When mine enemies 4 are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence. For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou satest in the 5 throne judging right. Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and 6 ever. O thou enemy, destructions are come to a perpetual end:
and thou hast destroyed cities; their memorial is perished with 7 them. But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared 8 his throne for judgment. And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.
9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times 10 of trouble. And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou, LORD, hast not forsaken them that seek thee.
11 Sing praises to the LORD, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among 12 the people his doings. When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.
13 Have mercy upon me, O LORD; consider my trouble which I suffer of them that hate me, thou that liftest me up from the gates of 14 death: That I may shew forth all thy praise in the gates of the 15 daughter of Zion: I will rejoice in thy salvation. The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid is 16 their own foot taken. The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.
17 Higgaion. Selah. The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all 18 the nations that forget God. For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not perish for ever.
19 Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in 20 thy sight. Put them in fear, O LORD: that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Selah.

10 Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth. The wicked, through the pride of 4 his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts. His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far 5 above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.

 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never 6 be in adversity. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: 7 under his tongue is mischief and vanity. He sitteth in the lurking 8 places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor. He lieth in 9 wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.
 He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his 10 strong ones. He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he 11 hideth his face; he will never see it. Arise, O LORD; O God, lift 12 up thine hand: forget not the humble. Wherefore doth the wicked 13 condemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.
 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite 14 it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless. Break thou the arm of the wicked and 15 the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none. The 16 LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of his land. LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou 17 wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine ear to hear: To 18 judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In the LORD put I 11 upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 were any that did understand, and seek God. They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth the LORD is his refuge. Oh that the salvation of Israel were come 7 people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? 15 who shall dwell in thy holy hill? He that walketh uprightly, and 2 worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart. He 3

Michtam of David. Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put 16 my trust. O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my 2 Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee; But to the saints that 3 are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.
Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: 4 me in the night seasons. I have set the LORD always before me: 8 my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope. For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou 10 suffer thine Holy One to see corruption. Thou wilt shew me the 11 path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

me about: the snares of death prevented me. In my distress I 6 called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his ears.
Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills 7 moved and were shaken, because he was wroth. There went up a 8 smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: coals were kindled by it. He bowed the heavens also, and came down: 9 and darkness was under his feet. And he rode upon a cherub, 10 and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind. He made 11 darkness his secret place; his pavilion round about him were dark waters and thick clouds of the skies. At the brightness that was 12 before him his thick clouds passed, hail stones and coals of fire.
The LORD also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his 13 voice; hail stones and coals of fire. Yea, he sent out his arrows, 14 and scattered them; and he shot out lightnings, and discomfited them. Then the channels of waters were seen, and the foundations 15 of the world were discovered at thy rebuke, O LORD, at the blast of the breath of thy nostrils. He sent from above, he took me, he 16 drew me out of many waters. He delivered me from my strong 17 enemy, and from them which hated me: for they were too strong for me. They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the 18 LORD was my stay. He brought me forth also into a large place; 19 he delivered me, because he delighted in me. The LORD rewarded 20 me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me. For I have kept the ways of the 21 LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God. For all his 22 judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me. I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine 23 iniquity. Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according 24 to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight. With the merciful thou wilt shew thyself merciful; 25 with an upright man thou wilt shew thyself upright; With the 26 pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt shew thyself froward. For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but 27 wilt bring down high looks. For thou wilt light my candle: the 28 LORD my God will enlighten my darkness. For by thee I have run 29

30 through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall. As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is 31 a buckler to all those that trust in him. For who is God save the 32 LORD? or who is a rock save our God? It is God that girdeth 33 me with strength, and maketh my way perfect. He maketh my 34 feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places. He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by mine 35 arms. Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath holden me up, and thy gentleness hath made 36 me great. Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet 37 did not slip. I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: 38 neither did I turn again till they were consumed. I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.
 39 For thou hast girded me with strength unto the battle: thou hast 40 subdued under me those that rose up against me. Thou hast also given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them 41 that hate me. They cried, but there was none to save them: even 42 unto the LORD, but he answered them not. Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I did cast them out as the dirt 43 in the streets. Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people 44 whom I have not known shall serve me. As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves 45 unto me. The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid out of their 46 close places. The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let 47 the God of my salvation be exalted. It is God that avengeth me, 48 and subdueth the people under me. He delivereth me from mine enemies: yea, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against 49 me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man. Therefore will I give thanks unto thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing 50 praises unto thy name. Great deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his anointed, to David, and to his seed for evermore.

There is no speech nor language, where their voice is not heard. 3

I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, 3 and am not silent. But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the 4 praises of Israel. Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and 5 thou didst deliver them. They cried unto thee, and were delivered:
6 they trusted in thee, and were not confounded. But I am a worm, 7 and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people. All deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him. But 9 thou art he that took me out of the womb: thou didst make me from the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly. Be not 11 are out of joint: my heart is like wax; it is melted in the midst of my bowels. My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my 15 tongue cleaveth to my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death. For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the 16 wicked have inclosed me: they pierced my hands and my feet. I 17 my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture. But 19 help me. Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the 20 power of the dog. Save me from the lion's mouth: for thou hast 21 thee. Ye that fear the LORD, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, 23 glorify him; and fear him, all ye the seed of Israel. For he hath not 24 despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; neither hath he hid his face from him; but when he cried unto him, he heard. My 25 praise shall be of thee in the great congregation: I will pay my vows before them that fear him. The meek shall eat and be satisfied: 26 they shall praise the LORD that seek him: your heart shall live for ever. All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto 27 the LORD: and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before thee. For the kingdom is the LORD'S: and he is the governor 28 among the nations. All they that be fat upon earth shall eat and 29 worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him: and none can keep alive his own soul. A seed shall serve him; 30 it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation. They shall 31 come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he hath done this.

- 23 A Psalm of David. The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.
 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside 3 the still waters. He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths 4 of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art 5 with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest 6 my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
- 24 A Psalm of David. The earth is the LORD'S, and the fulness 2 thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein. For he hath 3 founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods. Who shall ascend into the hill of the LORD? or who shall stand in his 4 holy place? He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; who 5 hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully. He shall receive the blessing from the LORD, and righteousness from 6 the God of his salvation. This is the generation of them that seek 7 him, that seek thy face, O Jacob. Selah. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of 8 glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD strong 9 and mighty, the LORD mighty in battle. Lift up your heads, O ye gates; even lift them up, ye everlasting doors; and the King of 10 glory shall come in. Who is this King of glory? The LORD of hosts, he is the King of glory. Selah.
- 25 A Psalm of David. Unto thee, O LORD, do I lift up my soul.
 2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine 3 enemies triumph over me. Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed which transgress without cause.
 4, 5 Shew me thy ways, O LORD; teach me thy paths. Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation; on thee 6 do I wait all the day. Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and 7 thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old. Remember

The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach 9 his way. All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto 10 such as keep his covenant and his testimonies. For thy name's 11 sake, O LORD, pardon mine iniquity; for it is great. What man is 12 he that feareth the LORD? him shall he teach in the way that he shall choose. His soul shall dwell at ease; and his seed shall inherit 13 the earth. The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; 14 and he will shew them his covenant. Mine eyes are ever toward 15 the LORD; for he shall pluck my feet out of the net. Turn thee 16 unto me, and have mercy upon me; for I am desolate and afflicted.
 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: O bring thou me out of my 17 distresses. Look upon mine affliction and my pain; and forgive 18 all my sins. Consider mine enemies; for they are many; and they 19 hate me with cruel hatred. O keep my soul, and deliver me: let 20 me not be ashamed; for I put my trust in thee. Let integrity and 21 uprightness preserve me; for I wait on thee. Redeem Israel, O 22 God, out of all his troubles.

A Psalm of David. Judge me, O LORD; for I have walked in 26 mine integrity: I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide. Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and 2 my heart. For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have 3 walked in thy truth. I have not sat with vain persons, neither 4 will I go in with dissemblers. I have hated the congregation of 5 evil doers; and will not sit with the wicked. I will wash mine 6 hands in innocency: so will I compass thine altar, O LORD: That 7 I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works. LORD, I have loved the habitation of thy house, 8 and the place where thine honour dwelleth. Gather not my soul 9 with sinners, nor my life with bloody men: In whose hands is 10 mischief, and their right hand is full of bribes. But as for me, I 11 will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.
 My foot standeth in an even place: in the congregations will I bless 12 the LORD.

will I praise him. The LORD is their strength, and he is the 8 saving strength of his anointed. Save thy people, and bless thine 9

A Psalm of David. Give unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto 29 the LORD glory and strength. Give unto the LORD the glory due 2 unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness. The 3 voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters. The voice of the LORD 4 is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty. The voice of 5 the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon. He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and 6 Sirion like a young unicorn. The voice of the LORD divideth the 7 flames of fire. The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the 8 LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh. The voice of the LORD 9 maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory. The LORD sitteth upon 10 the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever. The LORD will 11 give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David. I 30 will extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me. O LORD my God, I cried unto 2 thee, and thou hast healed me. O LORD, thou hast brought up 3 my soul from the grave: thou hast kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit. Sing unto the LORD, O ye saints of his, 4 and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness. For his anger 5 for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. And in my prosperity 6 31 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust; let me never be ashamed: deliver me in thy 2 righteousness. Bow down thine ear to me; deliver me speedily: be 3 thou my strong rock, for an house of defence to save me. For thou art my rock and my fortress; therefore for thy name's sake lead me, 4 and guide me. Pull me out of the net that they have laid privily 5 for me: for thou art my strength. Into thine hand I commit my 6 spirit: thou hast redeemed me, O LORD God of truth. I have hated them that regard lying vanities: but I trust in the LORD.

 7 I will be glad and rejoice in thy mercy: for thou hast considered 8 my trouble; thou hast known my soul in adversities; And hast not shut me up into the hand of the enemy: thou hast set my feet in a 9 large room. Have mercy upon me, O LORD, for I am in trouble: 10 mine eye is consumed with grief, yea, my soul and my belly. For my life is spent with grief, and my years with sighing: my strength 11 faileth because of mine iniquity, and my bones are consumed. I was a reproach among all mine enemies, but especially among my neighbours, and a fear to mine acquaintance: they that did see 12 me without fled from me. I am forgotten as a dead man out of 13 mind: I am like a broken vessel. For I have heard the slander of many: fear was on every side: while they took counsel together 14 against me, they devised to take away my life. But I trusted in 15 thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my God. My times are in thy hand: deliver me from the hand of mine enemies, and from them 16 that persecute me. Make thy face to shine upon thy servant:
 17 save me for thy mercies' sake. Let me not be ashamed, O LORD; for I have called upon thee: let the wicked be ashamed, and let trust in thee before the sons of men! Thou shalt hide them in the 20 secret of thy presence from the pride of man: thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. Blessed be the 21 LORD: for he hath shewed me his marvellous kindness in a strong city. For I said in my haste, I am cut off from before thine eyes: 22 nevertheless thou heardest the voice of my supplications when I cried unto thee. O love the LORD, all ye his saints: for the LORD 23 preserveth the faithful, and plentifully rewardeth the proud doer.

 Be of good courage, and he shall strengthen your heart, all ye that 24 hope in the LORD.

A Psalm of David, Maschil. Blessed is he whose transgression is 32 forgiven, whose sin is covered. Blessed is the man unto whom the 2 LORD imputeth not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.
 When I kept silence, my bones waxed old through my roaring all 3 the day long. For day and night thy hand was heavy upon me: 4 my moisture is turned into the drought of summer. Selah. I 5 acknowledged my sin unto thee, and mine iniquity have I not hid.
 I said, I will confess my transgressions unto the LORD; and thou forgavest the iniquity of my sin. Selah. For this shall every one 6 that is godly pray unto thee in a time when thou mayest be found: surely in the floods of great waters they shall not come nigh unto him. Thou art my hiding place; thou shalt preserve me from 7 trouble; thou shalt compass me about with songs of deliverance.
 Selah. I will instruct thee and teach thee in the way which thou 8 shalt go: I will guide thee with mine eye. Be ye not as the horse, 9 or as the mule, which have no understanding: whose mouth must be held in with bit and bridle, lest they come near unto thee.
 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked: but he that trusteth in the 10 LORD, mercy shall compass him about. Be glad in the LORD, 11 and rejoice, ye righteous: and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

7 the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of 8 them by the breath of his mouth. He gathereth the waters of the 9 sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses.
10 Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the 11 world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he 12 commanded, and it stood fast. The LORD bringeth the counsel of 13 the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none 14 effect. The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts 15 of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God 16 is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own 17 inheritance. The LORD looketh from heaven; he beholdeth all 18 the sons of men. From the place of his habitation he looketh 19 upon all the inhabitants of the earth. He fashioneth their hearts 20 alike; he considereth all their works. There is no king saved by 21 the multitude of an host: a mighty man is not delivered by much 22 strength. An horse is a vain thing for safety: neither shall he 23 deliver any by his great strength. Behold, the eye of the LORD 24 is upon them that fear him, upon them that hope in his mercy; 25 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
26 Our soul waiteth for the LORD: he is our help and our shield. For 27 our heart shall rejoice in him, because we have trusted in his holy 28 name. Let thy mercy, O LORD, be upon us, according as we hope 29 in thee.

34 A Psalm of David, when he changed his behaviour before Abimelech; who drove him away, and he departed. I will bless the LORD 35 at all times: his praise shall continually be in my mouth. My 36 soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear 37 thereof, and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us 38 exalt his name together. I sought the LORD, and he heard me, 39 and delivered me from all my fears. They looked unto him, and 40 were lightened: and their faces were not ashamed. This poor man cried, and the LORD heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles. The angel of the LORD encampeth round about them 7 that fear him, and delivereth them. O taste and see that the 8 LORD is good: blessed is the man that trusteth in him. O fear 9 the LORD, ye his saints: for there is no want to them that fear him. The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger: but they that 10 seek the LORD shall not want any good thing. Come, ye children, 11 hearken unto me: I will teach you the fear of the LORD. What 12 man is he that desireth life, and loveth many days, that he may see good? Keep thy tongue from evil, and thy lips from speak- 13 ing guile. Depart from evil, and do good; seek peace, and pursue 14 it. The eyes of the LORD are upon the righteous, and his ears 15 are open unto their cry. The face of the LORD is against them 16 that do evil, to cut off the remembrance of them from the earth. The righteous cry, and the LORD heareth, and delivereth them out 17 of all their troubles. The LORD is nigh unto them that are of a 18 broken heart; and saveth such as be of a contrite spirit. Many are 19 the afflictions of the righteous: but the LORD delivereth him out of them all. He keepeth all his bones: not one of them is broken. 20 Evil shall slay the wicked: and they that hate the righteous shall 21 be desolate. The LORD redeemeth the soul of his servants: and 22 none of them that trust in him shall be desolate.

A Psalm of David. Plead my cause, O LORD, with them that 35 strive with me: fight against them that fight against me. Take 2 hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for mine help. Draw out 3 also the spear, and stop the way against them that persecute me: say unto my soul, I am thy salvation. Let them be confounded 4 and put to shame that seek after my soul: let them be turned back and brought to confusion that devise my hurt. Let them 5 be as chaff before the wind: and let the angel of the LORD chase them. Let their way be dark and slippery: and let the angel of 6 the LORD persecute them. For without cause have they hid for 7 me their net in a pit, which without cause they have digged for my soul. Let destruction come upon him at unawares; and let 8 his net that he hath hid catch himself: into that very destruction let him fall. And my soul shall be joyful in the LORD: it shall 9 unto thee, which deliverest the poor from him that is too strong for him, yea, the poor and the needy from him that spoileth him?

 11 False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that 12 I knew not. They rewarded me evil for good to the spoiling of 13 my soul. But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I humbled my soul with fasting; and my prayer returned 14 into mine own bosom. I behaved myself as though he had been my friend or brother: I bowed down heavily, as one that mourneth 15 for his mother. But in mine adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: yea, the abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; they did tear me, and ceased not: 16 With hypocritical mockers in feasts, they gnashed upon me with 17 their teeth. Lord, how long wilt thou look on? rescue my soul 18 from their destructions, my darling from the lions. I will give thee thanks in the great congregation: I will praise thee among 19 much people. Let not them that are mine enemies wrongfully rejoice over me: neither let them wink with the eye that hate 20 me without a cause. For they speak not peace: but they devise 21 deceitful matters against them that are quiet in the land. Yea, they opened their mouth wide against me, and said, Aha, aha, our 22 eye hath seen it. This thou hast seen, O LORD: keep not silence: 23 O Lord, be not far from me. Stir up thyself, and awake to my 24 judgment, even unto my cause, my God and my Lord. Judge me, O LORD my God, according to thy righteousness; and let them not 25 rejoice over me. Let them not say in their hearts, Ah, so would we 26 have it: let them not say, We have swallowed him up. Let them be ashamed and brought to confusion together that rejoice at mine hurt: let them be clothed with shame and dishonour that magnify 27 themselves against me. Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favour my righteous cause: yea, let them say continually, Let the LORD be magnified, which hath pleasure in the prosperity of his 28 servant. And my tongue shall speak of thy righteousness and of thy praise all the day long.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David the servant of the 36 LORD. The transgression of the wicked saith within my heart, that there is no fear of God before his eyes. For he flattereth himself in 2 his own eyes, until his iniquity be found to be hateful. The words 3 of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: he hath left off to be wise, and to do good. He deviseth mischief upon his bed; he setteth 4 himself in a way that is not good; he abhorreth not evil. Thy 5 mercy, O LORD, is in the heavens; and thy faithfulness reacheth unto the clouds. Thy righteousness is like the great mountains; 6 thy judgments are a great deep: O LORD, thou preservest man and beast. How excellent is thy lovingkindness, O God! therefore 7 the children of men put their trust under the shadow of thy wings.
 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of thy house; 8 and thou shalt make them drink of the river of thy pleasures. For 9 with thee is the fountain of life: in thy light shall we see light. O 10 continue thy lovingkindness unto them that know thee; and thy righteousness to the upright in heart. Let not the foot of pride 11 come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked remove me.
 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: they are cast down, and 12 shall not be able to rise.

A Psalm of David. Fret not thyself because of evildoers, neither 37 be thou envious against the workers of iniquity. For they shall 2 soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.
 Trust in the LORD, and do good; so shalt thou dwell in the land, 3 and verily thou shalt be fed. Delight thyself also in the LORD; 4 and he shall give thee the desires of thine heart. Commit thy 5 way unto the LORD; trust also in him; and he shall bring it to pass. And he shall bring forth thy righteousness as the light, 6 and thy judgment as the noonday. Rest in the LORD, and wait 7 patiently for him: fret not thyself because of him who prospereth in his way, because of the man who bringeth wicked devices to pass. Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: fret not thyself in 8 any wise to do evil. For evildoers shall be cut off: but those 9 that wait upon the LORD, they shall inherit the earth. For yet 10 a little while, and the wicked shall not be: yea, thou shalt diligently 11 consider his place, and it shall not be. But the meek shall inherit the earth; and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.

 12 The wicked plotteth against the just, and gnasheth upon him with 13 his teeth. The Lord shall laugh at him: for he seeth that his 14 day is coming. The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, to cast down the poor and needy, and to slay 15 such as be of upright conversation. Their sword shall enter into 16 their own heart, and their bows shall be broken. A little that a 17 righteous man hath is better than the riches of many wicked. For the arms of the wicked shall be broken: but the LORD upholdeth 18 the righteous. The LORD knoweth the days of the upright: and 19 their inheritance shall be for ever. They shall not be ashamed in the evil time: and in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
 20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of the LORD shall be as the fat of lambs: they shall consume; into smoke shall they 21 consume away. The wicked borroweth, and payeth not again: but the righteous sheweth mercy, and giveth. For such as be blessed of 22 him shall inherit the earth; and they that be cursed of him shall be 23 cut off. The steps of a good man are ordered by the LORD: and he 24 delighteth in his way. Though he fall, he shall not be utterly cast 25 down: for the LORD upholdeth him with his hand. I have been young, and now am old; yet have I not seen the righteous forsaken, 26 nor his seed begging bread. He is ever merciful, and lendeth; and 27 his seed is blessed. Depart from evil, and do good; and dwell 28 for evermore. For the LORD loveth judgment, and forsaketh not his saints; they are preserved for ever: but the seed of the wicked 29 shall be cut off. The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever. The mouth of the righteous speaketh wisdom, 30 and his tongue talketh of judgment. The law of his God is in his heart; none of his steps shall slide. The wicked watcheth the 31 righteous, and seeketh to slay him. The LORD will not leave him 32 in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged. Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the 33 land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it. I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green bay 34 tree. Yet he passed away, and, lo, he was not: yea, I sought him, but he could not be found. Mark the perfect man, and behold the 37 upright: for the end of that man is peace. But the transgressors 38 shall be destroyed together: the end of the wicked shall be cut off. But the salvation of the righteous is of the LORD: he is their 39 strength in the time of trouble. And the LORD shall help them, 40 and deliver them: he shall deliver them from the wicked, and save them, because they trust in him.

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance. O LORD, rebuke 38 me not in thy wrath: neither chasten me in thy hot displeasure.
 For thine arrows stick fast in me, and thy hand presseth me sore. 2
There is no soundness in my flesh because of thine anger; neither is 3 there any rest in my bones because of my sin. For mine iniquities 4 are gone over mine head: as an heavy burden they are too heavy for me. My wounds stink and are corrupt because of my foolishness. 5 I am troubled; I am bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the 6 day long. For my loins are filled with a loathsome disease: and 7 there is no soundness in my flesh. I am feeble and sore broken: I 8 have roared by reason of the disquietness of my heart. Lord, all 9 my desire is before thee; and my groaning is not hid from thee.
 My heart panteth, my strength faileth me: as for the light of mine 10 eyes, it also is gone from me. My lovers and my friends stand aloof 11 from my sore; and my kinsmen stand afar off. They also that seek 12 after my life lay snares for me: and they that seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and imagine deceits all the day long. But I, as 13 a deaf man, heard not; and I was as a dumb man that openeth not his mouth. Thus I was as a man that heareth not, and in whose 14 mouth are no reproofs. For in thee, O LORD, do I hope: thou 15 wilt hear, O Lord my God. For I said, Hear me, lest otherwise 16 they should rejoice over me: when my foot slippeth, they magnify themselves against me. For I am ready to halt, and my sorrow 17 is continually before me. For I will declare mine iniquity; I will 18 be sorry for my sin. But mine enemies are lively, and they are 19 strong: and they that hate me wrongfully are multiplied. They 20 also that render evil for good are mine adversaries; because I follow the thing that good is. Forsake me not, O LORD: O my God, be 21 not far from me. Make haste to help me, O Lord my salvation. 22

39 To the chief Musician, even to Jeduthun, A Psalm of David. I said, I will take heed to my ways, that I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, while the wicked is before me.
 2 I was dumb with silence, I held my peace, even from good; and 3 my sorrow was stirred. My heart was hot within me, while I was 4 musing the fire burned: then spake I with my tongue, LORD, make me to know mine end, and the measure of my days, what it is; that
 5 I may know how frail I am. Behold, thou hast made my days as an handbreadth; and mine age is as nothing before thee: verily 6 every man at his best state is altogether vanity. Selah. Surely every man walketh in a vain shew: surely they are disquieted in vain: he heapeth up riches, and knoweth not who shall gather 7 them. And now, Lord, what wait I for? my hope is in thee.
 8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: make me not the reproach 9 of the foolish. I was dumb, I opened not my mouth; because thou 10 didst it. Remove thy stroke away from me: I am consumed by the 11 blow of thine hand. When thou with rebukes dost correct man for iniquity, thou makest his beauty to consume away like a moth: surely every man is vanity. Selah. Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a 13 stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were. O spare me, that I may recover strength, before I go hence, and be no more.

40 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. I waited patiently
 2 for the LORD; and he inclined unto me, and heard my cry. He brought me up also out of an horrible pit, out of the miry clay, 3 and set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings. And he hath put a new song in my mouth, even praise unto our God:
 4 many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in the LORD. Blessed is that man that maketh the LORD his trust, and respecteth not
 5 the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies. Many, O LORD my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can

Then said I, Lo, I come: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I delight to do thy will, O my God: yea, thy law is within my heart. I have preached righteousness in the great congregation: lo, I have not refrained my lips, O LORD, thou knowest. I have not hid thy righteousness within my heart; I have declared thy faithfulness and thy salvation: I have not concealed thy lovingkindness and thy truth from the great congregation. Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. For innumerable evils have compassed me about: mine iniquities have taken hold upon me, so that I am not able to look up; they are more than the hairs of mine head: therefore my heart faileth me. Be pleased, O LORD, to deliver me: O LORD, make haste to help me. Let them be ashamed and confounded together that seek after my soul to destroy it; let them be driven backward and put to shame that wish me evil. Let them be desolate for a reward of their shame that say unto me, Aha, aha. To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Blessed is he that considereth the poor: the LORD will deliver him in time of trouble. The LORD will preserve him, and keep him alive; and he shall be blessed upon the earth: and thou wilt not deliver him unto the will of his enemies. The LORD will strengthen him upon the bed of languishing: thou wilt make all his bed in his sickness. I said, LORD, be merciful unto me: heal my soul; for I have sinned against thee. Mine enemies speak evil of me, When shall he die, and his name perish? And if he come to see me, he speaketh vanity: his heart gathereth iniquity to itself; when he goeth abroad, he telleth it. 42 To the chief Musician, Maschil, for the sons of Korah. As the hart panteth after the water brooks, so panteth my soul after thee, 2 O God. My soul thirsteth for God, for the living God: when 3 shall I come and appear before God? My tears have been my meat day and night, while they continually say unto me, Where is 4 thy God? When I remember these things, I pour out my soul in me: for I had gone with the multitude, I went with them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, with a multitude 5 that kept holyday. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted in me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet 6 praise him for the help of his countenance. O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore will I remember thee from the 7 land of Jordan, and of the Hermonites, from the hill Mizar. Deep calleth unto deep at the noise of thy waterspouts: all thy waves 8 and thy billows are gone over me. Yet the LORD will command his lovingkindness in the daytime, and in the night his song shall be 9 with me, and my prayer unto the God of my life. I will say unto God my rock, Why hast thou forgotten me? why go I mourning 10 because of the oppression of the enemy? As with a sword in my bones, mine enemies reproach me; while they say daily unto me, 11 Where is thy God? Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope thou in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

art the God of my strength: why dost thou cast me off? why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy? O send out thy light and thy truth: let them lead me; let them bring me unto thy holy hill, and to thy tabernacles. Then will I go unto the altar of God, unto God my exceeding joy: yea, upon the harp will I praise thee, O God my God. Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me? hope in God: for I shall yet praise him, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, Maschil. We have heard with our ears, O God, our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the times of old. How thou didst drive out the heathen with thy hand, and plantedst them; how thou didst afflict the people, and cast them out. For they got not the land in possession by their own sword, neither did their own arm save them: but thy right hand, and thine arm, and the light of thy countenance, because thou hadst a favour unto them. Thou art my King, O God: command deliverances for Jacob. Through thee will we push down our enemies: through thy name will we tread them under that rise up against us. For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me. But thou hast saved us from our enemies, and hast put them to shame that hated us. In God we boast all the day long, and praise thy name for ever. Selah. But thou hast cast off, and put us to shame; and goest not forth with our armies. Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy: and they which hate us spoil for themselves. Thou hast given us like sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen. Thou sellest thy people for nought, and dost not increase thy wealth by their price. Thou makest us a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us. Thou makest us a byword among the heathen, a shaking of the head among the people. My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me, For the voice of him that reproacheth and blasphemeth; by reason of the enemy and avenger. All this is come upon us; yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we dealt falsely in thy covenant. Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from thy way; Though thou hast sore broken us in the place of dragons, and name of our God, or stretched out our hands to a strange god; 21 Shall not God search this out? for he knoweth the secrets of the 22 heart. Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are 23 counted as sheep for the slaughter. Awake, why sleepest thou, O 24 Lord? arise, cast us not off for ever. Wherefore hidest thou thy 25 face, and forgettest our affliction and our oppression? For our soul is bowed down to the dust: our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

 26 Arise for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies' sake.

45 To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, for the sons of Korah, Maschil, A Song of loves. My heart is inditing a good matter:
 I speak of the things which I have made touching the king: my 2 tongue is the pen of a ready writer. Thou art fairer than the children of men: grace is poured into thy lips: therefore God hath 3 blessed thee for ever. Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most 4 mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty. And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and 5 thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things. Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall 6 under thee. Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre 7 of thy kingdom is a right sceptre. Thou lovest righteousness, and hatest wickedness: therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee 8 with the oil of gladness above thy fellows. All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby 9 they have made thee glad. Kings' daughters were among thy honourable women: upon thy right hand did stand the queen in 10 gold of Ophir. Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline 11 thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house; So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty: for he is thy Lord; and 12 worship thou him. And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a 13 gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour. The king's daughter is all glorious within: her clothing is of wrought 14 gold. She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework: the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto 15 thee. With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they 16 shall enter into the king's palace. Instead of thy fathers shall be 17 thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth. I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations: therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

To the chief Musician for the sons of Korah, A Song upon 46 Alamoth. God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble. Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be re- 2 moved, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though 3 the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah. There is 4 a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High. God is in the 5 midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early. The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he 6 uttered his voice, the earth melted. The LORD of hosts is with 7 us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah. Come, behold the 8 works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.
 He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh 9 the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire. Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted 10 among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth. The LORD of 11 hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. O clap 47 your hands, all ye people; shout unto God with the voice of triumph. For the LORD most high is terrible; he is a great King 2 over all the earth. He shall subdue the people under us, and the 3 nations under our feet. He shall choose our inheritance for us, the 4 excellency of Jacob whom he loved. Selah. God is gone up with 5 a shout, the LORD with the sound of a trumpet. Sing praises to 6 God, sing praises: sing praises unto our King, sing praises. For 7 God is the King of all the earth: sing ye praises with understanding. God reigneth over the heathen: God sitteth upon the throne 8 of his holiness. The princes of the people are gathered together, 9 even the people of the God of Abraham: for the shields of the earth belong unto God: he is greatly exalted.

2 of his holiness. Beautiful for situation, the joy of the whole earth, is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, the city of the great 3, 4 King. God is known in her palaces for a refuge. For, lo, the 5 kings were assembled, they passed by together. They saw it, and 6 so they marvelled; they were troubled, and hasted away. Fear took hold upon them there, and pain, as of a woman in travail.
 7, 8 Thou breakest the ships of Tarshish with an east wind. As we have heard, so have we seen in the city of the LORD of hosts, in 9 the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah. We have thought of thy lovingkindness, O God, in the midst of thy temple.
 10 According to thy name, O God, so is thy praise unto the ends 11 of the earth: thy right hand is full of righteousness. Let mount Zion rejoice, let the daughters of Judah be glad, because of thy 12 judgments. Walk about Zion, and go round about her: tell the 13 towers thereof. Mark ye well her bulwarks, consider her palaces; 14 that ye may tell it to the generation following. For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

49 To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. Hear 2 this, all ye people; give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world: Both 3 low and high, rich and poor, together. My mouth shall speak of wisdom; and the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
 4 I will incline mine ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying 5 upon the harp. Wherefore should I fear in the days of evil, when 6 the iniquity of my heels shall compass me about? They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their 7 riches; None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor 8 give to God a ransom for him: (For the redemption of their soul 9 is precious, and it ceaseth for ever:) That he should still live for 10 ever, and not see corruption. For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their 11 wealth to others. Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwelling places to all generations; they 12 call their lands after their own names. Nevertheless man being in 13 honour abideth not: he is like the beasts that perish. This their way is their folly: yet their posterity approve their sayings. Selah.
 14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall feed on them; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwelling.

 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave: for he 15 shall receive me. Selah. Be not thou afraid when one is made 16 rich, when the glory of his house is increased; For when he dieth 17 he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
 Though while he lived he blessed his soul: and men will praise thee, 18 when thou doest well to thyself. He shall go to the generation of 19 his fathers; they shall never see light. Man that is in honour, and 20 understandeth not, is like the beasts that perish.

A Psalm of Asaph. The mighty God, even the LORD, hath 50 spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun unto the going down thereof. Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God 2 hath shined. Our God shall come, and shall not keep silence: a 3 fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him. He shall call to the heavens from above, and to the 4 earth, that he may judge his people. Gather my saints together 5 unto me; those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness: for God is judge 6 himself. Selah. Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and 7 I will testify against thee: I am God, even thy God. I will not 8 reprove thee for thy sacrifices or thy burnt offerings, to have been continually before me. I will take no bullock out of thy house, 9 nor he goats out of thy folds. For every beast of the forest is 10 mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills. I know all the fowls 11 of the mountains: and the wild beasts of the field are mine. If I 12 were hungry, I would not tell thee: for the world is mine, and the fulness thereof. Will I eat the flesh of bulls, or drink the blood 13 of goats? Offer unto God thanksgiving; and pay thy vows unto 14 the most High: And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will 15 deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. But unto the wicked God 16 saith, What hast thou to do to declare my statutes, or that thou shouldest take my covenant in thy mouth? Seeing thou hatest 17 instruction, and castest my words behind thee. When thou sawest 18 a thief, then thou consentedst with him, and hast been partaker with adulterers. Thou givest thy mouth to evil, and thy tongue 19 51 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, when Nathan the prophet came unto him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba. Have mercy upon me, O God, according to thy lovingkindness: according unto the multitude of thy tender mercies blot out my transgres-2 sions. Wash me thoroughly from mine iniquity, and cleanse me 3 from my sin. For I acknowledge my transgressions: and my sin is 4 ever before me. Against thee, thee only, have I sinned, and done this evil in thy sight: that thou mightest be justified when thou 5 speakest, and be clear when thou judgest. Behold, I was shapen 6 in iniquity; and in sin did my mother conceive me. Behold, thou desirest truth in the inward parts: and in the hidden part thou 7 shalt make me to know wisdom. Purge me with hyssop, and I 8 shall be clean: wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow. Make me to hear joy and gladness; that the bones which thou hast bro-9 ken may rejoice. Hide thy face from my sins, and blot out all 10 mine iniquities. Create in me a clean heart, O God; and renew 11 a right spirit within me. Cast me not away from thy presence; 12 and take not thy holy spirit from me. Restore unto me the joy 13 of thy salvation; and uphold me with thy free spirit. Then will I teach transgressors thy ways; and sinners shall be converted unto 14 thee. Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation: and my tongue shall sing aloud of thy righteousness.

 15 O Lord, open thou my lips; and my mouth shall shew forth thy 16 praise. For thou desirest not sacrifice; else would I give it: thou 17 delightest not in burnt offering. The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: a broken and a contrite heart, O God, thou wilt not despise.

To the chief Musician, Maschil, A Psalm of David, when Doeg 52 the Edomite came and told Saul, and said unto him, David is come to the house of Ahimelech. Why boastest thou thyself in mischief, O mighty man? the goodness of God endureth continually. Thy 2 tongue deviseth mischiefs; like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
Thou lovest evil more than good; and lying rather than to speak 3 righteousness. Selah. Thou lovest all devouring words, O thou 4 deceitful tongue. God shall likewise destroy thee for ever, he shall 5 take thee away, and pluck thee out of thy dwelling place, and root thee out of the land of the living. Selah. The righteous also shall 6 see, and fear, and shall laugh at him: Lo, this is the man that 7 made not God his strength; but trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness. But I am like 8 a green olive tree in the house of God: I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever. I will praise thee for ever, because thou hast 9 done it: and I will wait on thy name; for it is good before thy saints.

To the chief Musician upon Mahalath, Maschil, A Psalm of 53 David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity: there is none that doeth good. God looked down from heaven upon the children 2 of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek God. Every one of them is gone back: they are altogether 3 become filthy; there is none that doeth good, no, not one. Have 4 the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread: they have not called upon God. There were they 5 in great fear, where no fear was: for God hath scattered the bones of him that encampeth against thee: thou hast put them to shame, because God hath despised them. Oh that the salvation of Israel 6 were come out of Zion! When God bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

 3 my mouth. For strangers are risen up against me, and oppressors seek after my soul: they have not set God before them. Selah.
 4 Behold, God is mine helper: the Lord is with them that uphold 5 my soul. He shall reward evil unto mine enemies: cut them off 6 in thy truth. I will freely sacrifice unto thee: I will praise thy 7 name, O LORD; for it is good. For he hath delivered me out of all trouble: and mine eye hath seen his desire upon mine enemies.
 55 To the chief Musician on Neginoth, Maschil, A Psalm of David.
 Give ear to my prayer, O God; and hide not thyself from my suppli-2 cation. Attend unto me, and hear me: I mourn in my complaint, 3 and make a noise; Because of the voice of the enemy, because of the oppression of the wicked: for they cast iniquity upon me, and 4 in wrath they hate me. My heart is sore pained within me: and 5 the terrors of death are fallen upon me. Fearfulness and trem-6 bling are come upon me, and horror hath overwhelmed me. And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! for then would I fly away, 7 and be at rest. Lo, then would I wander far off, and remain in 8 the wilderness. Selah. I would hasten my escape from the windy 9 storm and tempest. Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongues: 10 for I have seen violence and strife in the city. Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: mischief also and sorrow are 11 in the midst of it. Wickedness is in the midst thereof: deceit and 12 guile depart not from her streets. For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have 13 hid myself from him: But it was thou, a man mine equal, my 14 guide, and mine acquaintance. We took sweet counsel together, 15 and walked unto the house of God in company. Let death seize upon them, and let them go down quick into hell: for wickedness 16 is in their dwellings, and among them. As for me, I will call upon 17 God; and the LORD shall save me. Evening, and morning, and at 18 noon, will I pray, and cry aloud: and he shall hear my voice. He hath delivered my soul in peace from the battle that was against 19 me: for there were many with me. God shall hear, and afflict them, even he that abideth of old. Selah. Because they have no changes, therefore they fear not God. He hath put forth his hands 20 against such as be at peace with him: he hath broken his covenant.

The words of his mouth were smoother than butter, but war was 21 in his heart: his words were softer than oil, yet were they drawn swords. Cast thy burden upon the LORD, and he shall sustain 22 thee: he shall never suffer the righteous to be moved. But thou, 23 O God, shalt bring them down into the pit of destruction: bloody and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in thee.

To the chief Musician upon Jonathelemrechokim, Michtam of 56 David, when the Philistines took him in Gath. Be merciful unto me, O God: for man would swallow me up; he fighting daily op-presseth me. Mine enemies would daily swallow me up: for they 2 be many that fight against me, O thou most High. What time I 3 am afraid, I will trust in thee. In God I will praise his word, in 4 God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me.
 Every day they wrest my words: all their thoughts are against me 5 for evil. They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, 6 they mark my steps, when they wait for my soul. Shall they es- 7 cape by iniquity? in thine anger cast down the people, O God.
 Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: 8 are they not in thy book? When I cry unto thee, then shall mine 9 enemies turn back: this I know; for God is for me. In God will I 10 praise his word: in the LORD will I praise his word. In God have 11
 I put my trust: I will not be afraid what man can do unto me.
 Thy vows are upon me, O God: I will render praises unto thee. 12
 For thou hast delivered my soul from death: wilt not thou deliver 13 my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

To the chief Musician, Altaschith, Michtam of David, when he 57 fled from Saul in the cave. Be merciful unto me, O God, be merciful unto me: for my soul trusteth in thee: yea, in the shadow of thy wings will I make my refuge, until these calamities be overpast. I 2 will cry unto God most high; unto God that performeth all things for me. He shall send from heaven, and save me from the reproach 3 thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; let thy glory be above 6 all the earth. They have prepared a net for my steps; my soul is bowed down: they have digged a pit before me, into the midst 7 whereof they are fallen themselves. Selah. My heart is fixed, O 8 God, my heart is fixed: I will sing and give praise. Awake up, 11 thy truth unto the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: let thy glory be above all the earth.

58 To the chief Musician, Altaschith, Michtam of David. Do ye indeed speak righteousness, O congregation? do ye judge uprightly, 2 O ye sons of men? Yea, in heart ye work wickedness; ye weigh 3 the violence of your hands in the earth. The wicked are estranged from the womb: they go astray as soon as they be born, speaking 4 lies. Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: they are like the 5 deaf adder that stoppeth her ear; Which will not hearken to the 6 voice of charmers, charming never so wisely. Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: break out the great teeth of the young lions, 7 O LORD. Let them melt away as waters which run continually: when he bendeth his bow to shoot his arrows, let them be as cut in 8 pieces. As a snail which melteth, let every one of them pass away: like the untimely birth of a woman, that they may not see the sun.
 9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, he shall take them away as 10 with a whirlwind, both living, and in his wrath. The righteous shall rejoice when he seeth the vengeance: he shall wash his feet in 11 the blood of the wicked. So that a man shall say, Verily there is a reward for the righteous: verily he is a God that judgeth in the earth.

For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul: the mighty are gathered 3 against me; not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O LORD. They run and prepare themselves without my fault: awake to help 4 me, and behold. Thou therefore, O LORD God of hosts, the God 5 of Israel, awake to visit all the heathen: be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah. They return at evening: they make 6 a noise like a dog, and go round about the city. Behold, they 7 belch out with their mouth: swords are in their lips: for who, say they, doth hear? But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou 8 shalt have all the heathen in derision. Because of his strength 9 will I wait upon thee: for God is my defence. salvation and my glory: the rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God. Trust in him at all times; ye people, pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah. Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: to be laid in the balance, they are altogether lighter than vanity. Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: if riches increase, set not your heart upon them. God hath spoken once; twice have I heard this; that power belongeth unto God. Also unto thee, O Lord, belongeth mercy: for thou renderest to every man according to his work.

A Psalm of David, when he was in the wilderness of Judah. O God, thou art my God; early will I seek thee: my soul thirsteth for thee, my flesh longeth for thee in a dry and thirsty land, where no water is; To see thy power and thy glory, so as I have seen thee in the sanctuary. Because thy lovingkindness is better than life, my lips shall praise thee. Thus will I bless thee while I live: I will lift up my hands in thy name. My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips: When I remember thee upon my bed, and meditate on thee in the night watches. Because thou hast been my help, therefore in the shadow of thy wings will I rejoice. My soul followeth hard after thee: thy right hand upholdeth me. But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, shall go into the lower parts of the earth. They shall fall by the sword: they shall be a portion for foxes. But the king shall rejoice in God; every one that sweareth by him shall glory: but the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Hear my voice, O God, in my prayer: preserve my life from fear of the enemy. Hide me from the secret counsel of the wicked; from the insurrection of the workers of iniquity: Who whet their tongue like a sword, and bend their bows to shoot their arrows, even bitter words: That they may shoot in secret at the perfect: suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not. They encourage themselves in an evil matter: they commune of laying snares privily; they say, Who shall see them? They search out iniquities; they accomplish a diligent search: both the inward thought of every one of them, and the 8 denly shall they be wounded. So they shall make their own tongue 9 to fall upon themselves: all that see them shall flee away. And all men shall fear, and shall declare the work of God; for they shall 10 wisely consider of his doing. The righteous shall be glad in the LORD, and shall trust in him; and all the upright in heart shall glory.

65 To the chief Musician, A Psalm and Song of David. Praise wait-eth for thee, O God, in Sion: and unto thee shall the vow be per-2 formed. O thou that hearest prayer, unto thee shall all flesh come.
 3 Iniquities prevail against me: as for our transgressions, thou shalt 4 purge them away. Blessed is the man whom thou choosest, and causest to approach unto thee, that he may dwell in thy courts: we shall be satisfied with the goodness of thy house, even of thy holy 5 temple. By terrible things in righteousness wilt thou answer us, O God of our salvation; who art the confidence of all the ends of 6 the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea: Which by his strength setteth fast the mountains; being girded with power: 7 Which stilleth the noise of the seas, the noise of their waves, and 8 the tumult of the people. They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at thy tokens: thou makest the outgoings of the 9 morning and evening to rejoice. Thou visitest the earth, and waterest it: thou greatly enrichest it with the river of God, which is full of water: thou preparest them corn, when thou hast so pro-10 vided for it. Thou waterest the ridges thereof abundantly: thou settlest the furrows thereof: thou makest it soft with showers: thou 11 blessest the springing thereof. Thou crownest the year with thy 12 goodness; and thy paths drop fatness. They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness: and the little hills rejoice on every side.
 13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; the valleys also are covered over with corn; they shout for joy, they also sing.

works! through the greatness of thy power shall thine enemies submit themselves unto thee. All the earth shall worship thee, 4 and shall sing unto thee; they shall sing to thy name. Selah. Come 5 and see the works of God: he is terrible in his doing toward the children of men. He turned the sea into dry land: they went 6 through the flood on foot: there did we rejoice in him. He ruleth 7 by his power for ever; his eyes behold the nations: let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah. O bless our God, ye people, 8 and make the voice of his praise to be heard: Which holdeth our 9 soul in life, and suffereth not our feet to be moved. For thou, O 10 God, hast proved us: thou hast tried us, as silver is tried. Thou 11 broughtest us into the net; thou laidst affliction upon our loins.
 Thou hast caused men to ride over our heads; we went through 12 fire and through water: but thou broughtest us out into a wealthy place. I will go into thy house with burnt offerings: I will pay thee 13 my vows, Which my lips have uttered, and my mouth hath spoken, 14 when I was in trouble. I will offer unto thee burnt sacrifices of 15 fatlings, with the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats.
 Selah. Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare 16 what he hath done for my soul. I cried unto him with my mouth, 17 and he was extolled with my tongue. If I regard iniquity in my 18 heart, the Lord will not hear me: But verily God hath heard 19 me; he hath attended to the voice of my prayer. Blessed be God, 20 which hath not turned away my prayer, nor his mercy from me.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song. God be 67 merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us; Selah. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving 2 health among all nations. Let the people praise thee, O God; let 3 all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for 4 joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah. Let the people praise thee, O God; let 5 all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; 6 and God, even our own God, shall bless us. God shall bless us; 7 and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

 4 before God: yea, let them exceedingly rejoice. Sing unto God, sing praises to his name: extol him that rideth upon the heavens by his 5 name JAH, and rejoice before him. A father of the fatherless, 6 and a judge of the widows, is God in his holy habitation. God setteth the solitary in families: he bringeth out those which are 7 bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry land. O God, when thou wentest forth before thy people, when thou didst march 8 through the wilderness; Selah: The earth shook, the heavens also dropped at the presence of God: even Sinai itself was moved at the 9 presence of God, the God of Israel. Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when 10 it was weary. Thy congregation hath dwelt therein: thou, O God, 11 hast prepared of thy goodness for the poor. The Lord gave the 12 word: great was the company of those that published it. Kings of armies did flee apace: and she that tarried at home divided the 13 spoil. Though ye have lien among the pots, yet shall ye be as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her feathers with yellow 14 gold. When the Almighty scattered kings in it, it was white as thousands of angels: the Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the 18 holy place. Thou hast ascended on high, thou hast led captivity captive: thou hast received gifts for men; yea, for the rebellious 19 also, that the LORD God might dwell among them. Blessed be the Lord, who daily loadeth us with benefits, even the God of our 20 salvation. Selah. He that is our God is the God of salvation; and 21 unto GOD the Lord belong the issues from death. But God shall wound the head of his enemies, and the hairy scalp of such an one 22 as goeth on still in his trespasses. The Lord said, I will bring again from Bashan, I will bring my people again from the depths thy goings, O God; even the goings of my God, my King, in the sanctuary. The singers went before, the players on instruments 25

 Bless ye God in the congregations, even the Lord, from the fountain 26 of Israel. There is little Benjamin with their ruler, the princes of 27 Judah and their council, the princes of Zebulun, and the princes of Naphtali. Thy God hath commanded thy strength: strengthen, 28 O God, that which thou hast wrought for us. Because of thy 29 temple at Jerusalem shall kings bring presents unto thee. Rebuke 30 the company of spearmen, the multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the people, till every one submit himself with pieces of silver: scatter thou the people that delight in war. Princes shall 31 come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God. Sing unto God, ye kingdoms of the earth; O sing praises 32 unto the Lord; Selah: To him that rideth upon the heavens of 33 heavens, which were of old; lo, he doth send out his voice, and that a mighty voice. Ascribe ye strength unto God: his excellency is 34 over Israel, and his strength is in the clouds. O God, thou art 35 terrible out of thy holy places: the God of Israel is he that giveth strength and power unto his people. Blessed be God.

To the chief Musician upon Shoshannim, A Psalm of David. 69 Save me, O God; for the waters are come in unto my soul. I sink in 2 deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me. I am weary of my crying: my throat 3 is dried: mine eyes fail while I wait for my God. They that hate 4 me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away. O God, thou knowest 5 my foolishness; and my sins are not hid from thee. Let not them 6 that wait on thee, O Lord GOD of hosts, be ashamed for my sake: let not those that seek thee be confounded for my sake, O God of Israel. Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath 7 covered my face. I am become a stranger unto my brethren, and 8 9 an alien unto my mother's children. For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached 10 thee are fallen upon me. When I wept, and chastened my soul 11 with fasting, that was to my reproach. I made sackcloth also my 12 garment; and I became a proverb to them. They that sit in the 13 gate speak against me; and I was the song of the drunkards. But as for me, my prayer is unto thee, O LORD, in an acceptable time: O God, in the multitude of thy mercy hear me, in the truth of thy 14 salvation. Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.

 15 Let not the waterflood overflow me, neither let the deep swallow 16 me up, and let not the pit shut her mouth upon me. Hear me, O LORD; for thy lovingkindness is good: turn unto me according to 17 the multitude of thy tender mercies. And hide not thy face from 18 thy servant; for I am in trouble: hear me speedily. Draw nigh unto my soul, and redeem it: deliver me because of mine enemies.
 19 Thou hast known my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonour: 20 mine adversaries are all before thee. Reproach hath broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: and I looked for some to take pity, but there was none; and for comforters, but I found none.
 21 They gave me also gall for my meat; and in my thirst they gave 22 me vinegar to drink. Let their table become a snare before them: and that which should have been for their welfare, let it become a 23 trap. Let their eyes be darkened, that they see not; and make 24 their loins continually to shake. Pour out thine indignation upon 25 them, and let thy wrathful anger take hold of them. Let their 26 habitation be desolate; and let none dwell in their tents. For they persecute him whom thou hast smitten; and they talk to the 27 grief of those whom thou hast wounded. Add iniquity unto their 28 iniquity: and let them not come into thy righteousness. Let them be blotted out of the book of the living, and not be written with 29 the righteous. But I am poor and sorrowful: let thy salvation, O 30 God, set me up on high. I will praise the name of God with a song, 31 and will magnify him with thanksgiving. This also shall please the LORD better than an ox or bullock that hath horns and hoofs.

The humble shall see this, and be glad: and your heart shall live 32 that seek God. For the LORD heareth the poor, and despiseth 33 not his prisoners. Let the heaven and earth praise him, the seas, 34 and every thing that moveth therein. For God will save Zion, and 35 will build the cities of Judah: that they may dwell there, and have it in possession. The seed also of his servants shall inherit it: and 36 they that love his name shall dwell therein.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David, to bring to remem- 70 brance. Make haste, O God, to deliver me; make haste to help me, O LORD. Let them be ashamed and confounded that seek after 2 my soul: let them be turned backward, and put to confusion, that desire my hurt. Let them be turned back for a reward of their 3 shame that say, Aha, aha. Let all those that seek thee rejoice and 4 be glad in thee: and let such as love thy salvation say continually, Let God be magnified. But I am poor and needy: make haste 5 unto me, O God: thou art my help and my deliverer; O LORD, make no tarrying.

In thee, O LORD, do I put my trust: let me never be put to 71 confusion. Deliver me in thy righteousness, and cause me to es- 2 cape: incline thine ear unto me, and save me. Be thou my strong 3 habitation, whereunto I may continually resort: thou hast given commandment to save me; for thou art my rock and my fortress.
 Deliver me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, out of the 4 hand of the unrighteous and cruel man. For thou art my hope, 5 O Lord GOD: thou art my trust from my youth. By thee have I 6 been holden up from the womb: thou art he that took me out of my mother's bowels: my praise shall be continually of thee. I am 7 as a wonder unto many; but thou art my strong refuge. Let my 8 mouth be filled with thy praise and with thy honour all the day.
 Cast me not off in the time of old age; forsake me not when my 9 strength faileth. For mine enemies speak against me; and they 10 that lay wait for my soul take counsel together, Saying, God hath 11 forsaken him: persecute and take him; for there is none to deliver him. O God, be not far from me: O my God, make haste for my 12 help. Let them be confounded and consumed that are adversaries 13 to my soul; let them be covered with reproach and dishonour that seek my hurt. But I will hope continually, and will yet praise thee 14 15 more and more. My mouth shall shew forth thy righteousness and 16 thy salvation all the day; for I know not the numbers thereof. I will go in the strength of the Lord GOD: I will make mention of 17 thy righteousness, even of thine only. O God, thou hast taught me from my youth: and hitherto have I declared thy wondrous 18 works. Now also when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not; until I have shewed thy strength unto this generation, and 19 thy power to every one that is to come. Thy righteousness also, O God, is very high, who hast done great things: O God, who is 20 like unto thee! Thou, which hast shewed me great and sore troubles, shalt quicken me again, and shalt bring me up again from 21 the depths of the earth. Thou shalt increase my greatness, and 22 comfort me on every side. I will also praise thee with the psaltery, even thy truth, O my God: unto thee will I sing with the harp, O 23 thou Holy One of Israel. My lips shall greatly rejoice when I sing 24 unto thee; and my soul, which thou hast redeemed. My tongue also shall talk of thy righteousness all the day long: for they are confounded, for they are brought unto shame, that seek my hurt.

72 A Psalm for Solomon. Give the king thy judgments, O God, and 2 thy righteousness unto the king's son. He shall judge thy people 3 with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment. The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteous-4 ness. He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the chil-5 dren of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor. They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all 6 generations. He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: 7 as showers that water the earth. In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.
 8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the river 9 unto the ends of the earth. They that dwell in the wilderness 10 shall bow before him; and his enemies shall lick the dust. The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall bring presents: the kings 11 of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts. Yea, all kings shall fall down 12 before him: all nations shall serve him. For he shall deliver the needy when he crieth; the poor also, and him that hath no helper.
 13 He shall spare the poor and needy, and shall save the souls of the 14 needy. He shall redeem their soul from deceit and violence: and precious shall their blood be in his sight. And he shall live, and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: prayer also shall be made for him continually; and daily shall he be praised. There shall be an handful of corn in the earth upon the top of the mountains; the fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: and they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth. His name shall endure for ever: his name shall be continued as long as the sun: and men shall be blessed in him: all nations shall call him blessed. Blessed be the LORD God, the God of Israel, who only doeth wondrous things. And blessed be his glorious name for ever: and let the whole earth be filled with his glory; Amen, and Amen. The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

A Psalm of Asaph. Truly God is good to Israel, even to such as are of a clean heart. But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well nigh slipped. For I was envious at the foolish, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked. For there are no bands in their death: but their strength is firm. They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men. Therefore pride compasseth them about as a chain; violence covereth them as a garment. Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish. They are corrupt, and speak wickedly concerning oppression: they speak loftily. They set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walketh through the earth. Therefore his people return hither: and waters of a full cup are wrung out to them. And they say, How doth God know? and is there knowledge in the most High? Behold, these are the ungodly, who prosper in the world; they increase in riches. Verily I have cleansed my heart in vain, and washed my hands in innocence. For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning. If I say, I will speak thus; behold, I should offend against the generation of thy children. When I thought to know this, it was too painful for me; Until I went into the sanctuary of God; then understood I their end. Surely thou didst set them in slippery places: thou castedst them down into destruction. How

 20 consumed with terrors. As a dream when one awaketh; so, O 21 Lord, when thou awakest, thou shalt despise their image. Thus 22 my heart was grieved, and I was pricked in my reins. So foolish 23 was I, and ignorant: I was as a beast before thee. Nevertheless I am continually with thee: thou hast holden me by my right hand.
 24 Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to 25 glory. Whom have I in heaven but thee? and there is none upon 26 earth that I desire beside thee. My flesh and my heart faileth: but 27 God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever. For, lo, they that are far from thee shall perish: thou hast destroyed all 28 them that go a whoring from thee. But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have put my trust in the Lord GOD, that I may declare all thy works.

74 Maschil of Asaph. O God, why hast thou cast us off for ever?
why doth thine anger smoke against the sheep of thy pasture?
 2 Remember thy congregation, which thou hast purchased of old;
 the rod of thine inheritance, which thou hast redeemed; this mount 3 Zion, wherein thou hast dwelt. Lift up thy feet unto the perpetual desolations; even all that the enemy hath done wickedly in the 4 sanctuary. Thine enemies roar in the midst of thy congregations; 5 they set up their ensigns for signs. A man was famous according 6 as he had lifted up axes upon the thick trees. But now they break down the carved work thereof at once with axes and hammers.
 7 They have cast fire into thy sanctuary, they have defiled by casting 8 down the dwelling place of thy name to the ground. They said in their hearts, Let us destroy them together: they have burned up all 9 the synagogues of God in the land. We see not our signs: there is no more any prophet: neither is there among us any that knoweth 10 how long. O God, how long shall the adversary reproach? shall 11 the enemy blaspheme thy name for ever? Why withdrawest thou 12 thy hand, even thy right hand? pluck it out of thy bosom. For God is my King of old, working salvation in the midst of the earth.

 thine: thou hast prepared the light and the sun. Thou hast set 17 all the borders of the earth: thou hast made summer and winter.
 Remember this, that the enemy hath reproached, O LORD, and 18 that the foolish people have blasphemed thy name. O deliver not 19 the soul of thy turtledove unto the multitude of the wicked: forget not the congregation of thy poor for ever. Have respect unto the 20 covenant: for the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of cruelty. O let not the oppressed return ashamed: let the poor 21 and needy praise thy name. Arise, O God, plead thine own cause: 22 remember how the foolish man reproacheth thee daily. Forget not 23 the voice of thine enemies: the tumult of those that rise up against thee increaseth continually.

To the chief Musician, Altaschith, A Psalm or Song of Asaph. 75 Unto thee, O God, do we give thanks, unto thee do we give thanks: for that thy name is near thy wondrous works declare. When I 2 shall receive the congregation I will judge uprightly. The earth 3 and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I bear up the pillars of it. Selah. I said unto the fools, Deal not foolishly: and to 4 the wicked, Lift not up the horn: Lift not up your horn on high: 5 speak not with a stiff neck. For promotion cometh neither from 6 the east, nor from the west, nor from the south. But God is the 7 judge: he putteth down one, and setteth up another. For in the 8 hand of the LORD there is a cup, and the wine is red; it is full of mixture; and he poureth out of the same: but the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall wring them out, and drink them.
 But I will declare for ever; I will sing praises to the God of Jacob. 9
 All the horns of the wicked also will I cut off; but the horns of the 10 righteous shall be exalted.

To the chief Musician on Neginoth, A Psalm or Song of Asaph. 76
 In Judah is God known: his name is great in Israel. In Salem also 2 is his tabernacle, and his dwelling place in Zion. There brake he 3 the arrows of the bow, the shield, and the sword, and the battle.

5 of prey. The stouthearted are spoiled, they have slept their sleep: 6 and none of the men of might have found their hands. At thy rebuke, O God of Jacob, both the chariot and horse are cast into 7 a dead sleep. Thou, even thou, art to be feared: and who may 8 stand in thy sight when once thou art angry? Thou didst cause judgment to be heard from heaven; the earth feared, and was still, 9 When God arose to judgment, to save all the meek of the earth.
 10 Selah. Surely the wrath of man shall praise thee: the remainder 11 of wrath shalt thou restrain. Vow, and pay unto the LORD your God: let all that be round about him bring presents unto him that 12 ought to be feared. He shall cut off the spirit of princes: he is terrible to the kings of the earth.

77 To the chief Musician, to Jeduthun, A Psalm of Asaph. I cried unto God with my voice, even unto God with my voice; and he 2 gave ear unto me. In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: my sore ran in the night, and ceased not: my soul refused to be 3 comforted. I remembered God, and was troubled: I complained, 4 and my spirit was overwhelmed. Selah. Thou holdest mine eyes 5 waking: I am so troubled that I cannot speak. I have considered 6 the days of old, the years of ancient times. I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with mine own heart: and my 7 spirit made diligent search. Will the Lord cast off for ever? and 8 will he be favourable no more? Is his mercy clean gone for ever?
 9 doth his promise fail for evermore? Hath God forgotten to be gracious? hath he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah.
 10 And I said, This is my infirmity: but I will remember the years 11 of the right hand of the most High. I will remember the works 12 of the LORD: surely I will remember thy wonders of old. I will 13 meditate also of all thy work, and talk of thy doings. Thy way, O God, is in the sanctuary: who is so great a God as our God?
 14 Thou art the God that doest wonders: thou hast declared thy 15 strength among the people. Thou hast with thine arm redeemed 16 thy people, the sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah. The waters saw thee, O God, the waters saw thee; they were afraid: the depths 17 also were troubled. The clouds poured out water: the skies sent 18 out a sound: thine arrows also went abroad. The voice of thy thunder was in the heaven: the lightnings lightened the world: the Maschil of Asaph. Give ear, O my people, to my law: incline 78 your ears to the words of my mouth. I will open my mouth in a 2 parable: I will utter dark sayings of old: Which we have heard and 3 known, and our fathers have told us. We will not hide them from 4 their children, shewing to the generation to come the praises of the LORD, and his strength, and his wonderful works that he hath done. For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a 5 law in Israel, which he commanded our fathers, that they should make them known to their children: That the generation to come 6 might know them, even the children which should be born; who should arise and declare them to their children: That they might 7 set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments: And might not be as their fathers, a stub- 8 born and rebellious generation; a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God. The children 9 of Ephraim, being armed, and carrying bows, turned back in the day of battle. They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to 10 walk in his law; And forgot his works, and his wonders that he 11 had shewed them. Marvellous things did he in the sight of their 12 fathers, in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan. He divided the 13 sea, and caused them to pass through; and he made the waters to stand as an heap. In the daytime also he led them with a cloud, 14 and all the night with a light of fire. He clave the rocks in the 15 wilderness, and gave them drink as out of the great depths. He 16 brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers. And they sinned yet more against him by pro- 17 voking the most High in the wilderness. And they tempted God 18 in their heart by asking meat for their lust. Yea, they spake aga- 19 inst God; they said, Can God furnish a table in the wilderness?

Behold, he smote the rock, that the waters gushed out, and the 20 streams overflowed; can he give bread also? can he provide flesh for his people? Therefore the LORD heard this, and was wroth: so 21 a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also came up against Israel; Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his 22

23 salvation: Though he had commanded the clouds from above, and 24 opened the doors of heaven, And had rained down manna upon 25 them to eat, and had given them of the corn of heaven. Man 26 did eat angels' food: he sent them meat to the full. He caused an east wind to blow in the heaven: and by his power he brought 27 in the south wind. He rained flesh also upon them as dust, and 28 feathered fowls like as the sand of the sea: And he let it fall in the 29 midst of their camp, round about their habitations. So they did 30 eat, and were well filled: for he gave them their own desire; They were not estranged from their lust. But while their meat was yet 31 in their mouths, The wrath of God came upon them, and slew the 32 fattest of them, and smote down the chosen men of Israel. For all this they sinned still, and believed not for his wondrous works.
 33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in 34 trouble. When he slew them, then they sought him: and they re-35 turned and enquired early after God. And they remembered that 36 God was their rock, and the high God their redeemer. Nevertheless they did flatter him with their mouth, and they lied unto him 37 with their tongues. For their heart was not right with him, neither 38 were they stedfast in his covenant. But he, being full of compassion, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: yea, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.
 39 For he remembered that they were but flesh; a wind that passeth 40 away, and cometh not again. How oft did they provoke him in 41 the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert! Yea, they turned 42 back and tempted God, and limited the Holy One of Israel. They remembered not his hand, nor the day when he delivered them 43 from the enemy. How he had wrought his signs in Egypt, and 44 his wonders in the field of Zoan: And had turned their rivers into 45 blood; and their floods, that they could not drink. He sent divers sorts of flies among them, which devoured them; and frogs, which 46 destroyed them. He gave also their increase unto the caterpillar, 47 and their labour unto the locust. He destroyed their vines with 48 hail, and their sycomore trees with frost. He gave up their cattle 49 also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts. He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, wrath, and indignation, and trouble, by sending evil angels among them. He made a way to his anger; he spared not their soul from death, but gave their life over to the pestilence; And smote all the firstborn in Egypt; the chief of their strength in the tabernacles of Ham: But made his own people to go forth like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock. And he led them on safely, so that they feared not: but the sea overwhelmed their enemies. And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, even to this mountain, which his right hand had purchased. He cast out the heathen also before them, and divided them an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents. Yet they tempted and provoked the most high God, and kept not his testimonies: But turned back, and dealt unfaithfully like their fathers: they were turned aside like a deceitful bow. For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images. When God heard this, he was wroth, and greatly abhorred Israel: So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men; And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the enemy's hand. He gave his people over also unto the sword; and was wroth with his inheritance. The fire consumed their young men; and their maidens were not given to marriage. Their priests fell by the sword; and their widows made no lamentation. Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, and like a mighty man that shouteth by reason of wine. And he smote his enemies in the hinder parts: he put them to a perpetual reproach. Moreover he refused the tabernacle of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim: But chose the tribe of Judah, the mount Zion which he loved. And he built his sanctuary like high palaces, like the earth which he hath established for ever. He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds: From following the ewes great with young he brought him to feed Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance. So he fed them according to the integrity of his heart; and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

inheritance; thy holy temple have they defiled; they have laid Jerusalem on heaps. The dead bodies of thy servants have they given to be meat unto the fowls of the heaven, the flesh of thy saints unto the beasts of the earth. Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; and there was none to bury them. We are become a reproach to our neighbours, a scorn and derision to them that are round about us. How long, LORD? wilt thou be angry for ever? shall thy jealousy burn like fire? Pour out thy wrath upon the heathen that have not known thee, and upon the kingdoms that have not called upon thy name. For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his dwelling place. O remember not against us former iniquities: let thy tender mercies speedily prevent us: for we are brought very low. Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of thy name: and deliver us, and purge away our sins, for thy name's sake. Wherefore should the heathen say, Where is their God? let him be known among the heathen in our sight by the revenging of the blood of thy servants which is shed. Let the sighing of the prisoner come before thee; according to the greatness of thy power preserve thou those that are appointed to die; And render unto our neighbours sevenfold into their bosom their reproach, wherewith they have reproached thee, O Lord. So we thy people and sheep of thy pasture will give thee thanks for ever: we will shew forth thy praise to all generations.

80 To the chief Musician upon Shoshannimeduth, A Psalm of Asaph. Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock; thou that dwellest between the cherubims, shine forth. Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh stir up thy strength, and come and save us. Turn us again, O God, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. O LORD God of hosts, how long wilt thou be angry against the prayer of thy people? Thou feedest them with the bread of tears; and givest them tears to drink in great measure. Thou makest us a strife unto our neighbours: and our enemies laugh among themselves. Turn us again, O God of hosts, and cause thy face to shine; and we shall be saved. To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of Asaph. Sing 81 aloud unto God our strength: make a joyful noise unto the God of Jacob. Take a psalm, and bring hither the timbrel, the pleasant 2 harp with the psaltery. Blow up the trumpet in the new moon, 3 in the time appointed, on our solemn feast day. For this was 4 a statute for Israel, and a law of the God of Jacob. This he 5 ordained in Joseph for a testimony, when he went out through the land of Egypt: where I heard a language that I understood not. I 6 removed his shoulder from the burden: his hands were delivered from the pots. Thou calledst in trouble, and I delivered thee; I 7 answered thee in the secret place of thunder: I proved thee at the waters of Meribah. Selah. Hear, O my people, and I will testify 8 unto thee: O Israel, if thou wilt hearken unto me; There shall 9 no strange god be in thee; neither shalt thou worship any strange god. I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land 10 of Egypt: open thy mouth wide, and I will fill it. But my people 11 would not hearken to my voice; and Israel would none of me. So 12
 I gave them up unto their own hearts' lust: and they walked in 2 mighty; he judgeth among the gods. How long will ye judge un-3 justly, and accept the persons of the wicked? Selah. Defend the 4 poor and fatherless: do justice to the afflicted and needy. Deliver 5 the poor and needy: rid them out of the hand of the wicked. They know not, neither will they understand; they walk on in darkness:

 7 are gods; and all of you are children of the most High. But ye

83 A Song or Psalm of Asaph. Keep not thou silence, O God: hold 2 not thy peace, and be not still, O God. For, lo, thine enemies make 3 a tumult: and they that hate thee have lifted up the head. They have taken crafty counsel against thy people, and consulted against 4 thy hidden ones. They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; that the name of Israel may be no more in 5 remembrance. For they have consulted together with one consent: 6 they are confederate against thee: The tabernacles of Edom, and Korah. How amiable are thy tabernacles, O LORD of hosts! My 2 soul longeth, yea, even fainteth for the courts of the LORD: my heart and my flesh crieth out for the living God. Yea, the sparrow 3 hath found an house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, even thine altars, O LORD of hosts, my King, and my God. Blessed are they that dwell in thy house: they will 4 be still praising thee. Selah. Blessed is the man whose strength 5 is in thee; in whose heart are the ways of them. Who passing 6 through the valley of Baca make it a well; the rain also filleth the pools. They go from strength to strength, every one of them 7 in Zion appeareth before God. O LORD God of hosts, hear my 8 prayer: give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah. Behold, O God our 9 shield, and look upon the face of thine anointed. For a day in thy 10 courts is better than a thousand. I had rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.

uprightly. O LORD of hosts, blessed is the man that trusteth in 12 thee.

To the chief Musician, A Psalm for the sons of Korah. LORD, 85 thou hast been favourable unto thy land: thou hast brought back the captivity of Jacob. Thou hast forgiven the iniquity of thy 2 people, thou hast covered all their sin. Selah. Thou hast taken 3 away all thy wrath: thou hast turned thyself from the fierceness of thine anger. Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause thine 4 anger toward us to cease. Wilt thou be angry with us for ever? 5 wilt thou draw out thine anger to all generations? Wilt thou not 6 revive us again: that thy people may rejoice in thee? Shew us 7 86 A Prayer of David. Bow down thine ear, O LORD, hear me: for 2 I am poor and needy. Preserve my soul; for I am holy: O thou 3 my God, save thy servant that trusteth in thee. Be merciful unto 4 me, O Lord: for I cry unto thee daily. Rejoice the soul of thy 5 servant: for unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul. For thou, Lord, art good, and ready to forgive; and plenteous in mercy unto 6 all them that call upon thee. Give ear, O LORD, unto my prayer; 7 and attend to the voice of my supplications. In the day of my 8 trouble I will call upon thee: for thou wilt answer me. Among the gods there is none like unto thee, O Lord; neither are there 9 any works like unto thy works. All nations whom thou hast made shall come and worship before thee, O Lord; and shall glorify thy 10 name. For thou art great, and doest wondrous things: thou art 11 God alone. Teach me thy way, O LORD; I will walk in thy truth: 12 unite my heart to fear thy name. I will praise thee, O Lord my God, with all my heart: and I will glorify thy name for evermore.

 13 For great is thy mercy toward me: and thou hast delivered my 14 soul from the lowest hell. O God, the proud are risen against me, and the assemblies of violent men have sought after my soul; 15 and have not set thee before them. But thou, O Lord, art a God full of compassion, and gracious, longsuffering, and plenteous in 16 mercy and truth. O turn unto me, and have mercy upon me; give thy strength unto thy servant, and save the son of thine handmaid.

 be ashamed: because thou, LORD, hast holpen me, and comforted me.

A Song or Psalm for the sons of Korah, to the chief Musi- 88 cian upon Mahalath Leannoth, Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite. O LORD God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before thee:
Let my prayer come before thee: incline thine ear unto my cry; 2
For my soul is full of troubles: and my life draweth nigh unto the 3 grave. I am counted with them that go down into the pit: I am 4 as a man that hath no strength: Free among the dead, like the 5 slain that lie in the grave, whom thou rememberest no more: and they are cut off from thy hand. Thou hast laid me in the lowest 6 pit, in darkness, in the deeps. Thy wrath lieth hard upon me, 7 and thou hast afflicted me with all thy waves. Selah. Thou hast 8 put away mine acquaintance far from me; thou hast made me an abomination unto them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
Mine eye mourneth by reason of affliction: LORD, I have called 9 daily upon thee, I have stretched out my hands unto thee. Wilt 10 thou shew wonders to the dead? shall the dead arise and praise thee? Selah. Shall thy lovingkindness be declared in the grave? 11 or thy faithfulness in destruction? Shall thy wonders be known 12 in the dark? and thy righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
But unto thee have I cried, O LORD; and in the morning shall my 13 prayer prevent thee. LORD, why castest thou off my soul? why 14 hidest thou thy face from me? I am afflicted and ready to die 15 from my youth up: while I suffer thy terrors I am distracted. Thy 16 fierce wrath goeth over me; thy terrors have cut me off. They 17 came round about me daily like water; they compassed me about together. Lover and friend hast thou put far from me, and mine 18 acquaintance into darkness.

 3 ever: thy faithfulness shalt thou establish in the very heavens. I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn unto David 5 throne to all generations. Selah. And the heavens shall praise thy wonders, O LORD: thy faithfulness also in the congregation 6 of the saints. For who in the heaven can be compared unto the LORD? who among the sons of the mighty can be likened unto the 7 LORD? God is greatly to be feared in the assembly of the saints, 8 and to be had in reverence of all them that are about him. O LORD God of hosts, who is a strong LORD like unto thee? or to 9 thy faithfulness round about thee? Thou rulest the raging of the 10 sea: when the waves thereof arise, thou stillest them. Thou hast broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; thou hast scattered 11 thine enemies with thy strong arm. The heavens are thine, the earth also is thine: as for the world and the fulness thereof, thou 12 hast founded them. The north and the south thou hast created 13 them: Tabor and Hermon shall rejoice in thy name. Thou hast a mighty arm: strong is thy hand, and high is thy right hand.

 14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and 15 truth shall go before thy face. Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: they shall walk, O LORD, in the light of thy 16 countenance. In thy name shall they rejoice all the day: and in 17 thy righteousness shall they be exalted. For thou art the glory of 18 their strength: and in thy favour our horn shall be exalted. For the LORD is our defence; and the Holy One of Israel is our king.
 19 Then thou spakest in vision to thy holy one, and saidst, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the 20 people. I have found David my servant; with my holy oil have I 21 anointed him: With whom my hand shall be established: mine 22 arm also shall strengthen him. The enemy shall not exact upon 23 him; nor the son of wickedness afflict him. And I will beat down 24 his foes before his face, and plague them that hate him. But my faithfulness and my mercy shall be with him: and in my name shall 25 his horn be exalted. I will set his hand also in the sea, and his my God, and the rock of my salvation. Also I will make him my 27 firstborn, higher than the kings of the earth. My mercy will I 28 keep for him for evermore, and my covenant shall stand fast with him. His seed also will I make to endure for ever, and his throne 29 as the days of heaven. If his children forsake my law, and walk 30 not in my judgments; If they break my statutes, and keep not my 31 commandments; Then will I visit their transgression with the rod, 32 and their iniquity with stripes. Nevertheless my lovingkindness 33 will I not utterly take from him, nor suffer my faithfulness to fail.

My covenant will I not break, nor alter the thing that is gone out 34 of my lips. Once have I sworn by my holiness that I will not lie 35 unto David. His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the 36 sun before me. It shall be established for ever as the moon, and 37 as a faithful witness in heaven. Selah. But thou hast cast off 38 and abhorred, thou hast been wroth with thine anointed. Thou 39 hast made void the covenant of thy servant: thou hast profaned his crown by casting it to the ground. Thou hast broken down 40 all his hedges; thou hast brought his strong holds to ruin. All 41 that pass by the way spoil him: he is a reproach to his neighbours.
Thou hast set up the right hand of his adversaries; thou hast made 42 all his enemies to rejoice. Thou hast also turned the edge of his 43 sword, and hast not made him to stand in the battle. Thou hast 44 made his glory to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.
The days of his youth hast thou shortened: thou hast covered him 45 with shame. Selah. How long, LORD? wilt thou hide thyself 46 for ever? shall thy wrath burn like fire? Remember how short 47 my time is: wherefore hast thou made all men in vain? What 48 man is he that liveth, and shall not see death? shall he deliver his soul from the hand of the grave? Selah. Lord, where are 49 thy former lovingkindnesses, which thou swarest unto David in thy truth? Remember, Lord, the reproach of thy servants; how 50
I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty people; Wherewith thine enemies have reproached, O LORD; wherewith 51 they have reproached the footsteps of thine anointed. Blessed be 52 the LORD for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

2 our dwelling place in all generations. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever thou hadst formed the earth and the world, 3 even from everlasting to everlasting, thou art God. Thou turnest 4 man to destruction; and sayest, Return, ye children of men. For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday when it is past, 5 and as a watch in the night. Thou carriest them away as with a flood; they are as a sleep: in the morning they are like grass 6 which groweth up. In the morning it flourisheth, and groweth up; 7 in the evening it is cut down, and withereth. For we are consumed by thine anger, and by thy wrath are we troubled. Thou hast set our iniquities before thee, our secret sins in the light of 9 thy countenance. For all our days are passed away in thy wrath: 10 we spend our years as a tale that is told. The days of our years are threescore years and ten; and if by reason of strength they be fourscore years, yet is their strength labour and sorrow; for it is 11 soon cut off, and we fly away. Who knoweth the power of thine 12 anger? even according to thy fear, so is thy wrath. So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom. 13 Return, O LORD, how long? and let it repent thee concerning thy 14 servants. O satisfy us early with thy mercy; that we may rejoice 15 and be glad all our days. Make us glad according to the days wherein thou hast afflicted us, and the years wherein we have seen 16 evil. Let thy work appear unto thy servants, and thy glory unto 17 their children. And let the beauty of the LORD our God be upon us: and establish thou the work of our hands upon us; yea, the work of our hands establish thou it.

91 He that dwelleth in the secret place of the most High shall abide 2 under the shadow of the Almighty. I will say of the LORD, He is 3 my refuge and my fortress: my God; in him will I trust. Surely he shall deliver thee from the snare of the fowler, and from the 4 noisome pestilence. He shall cover thee with his feathers, and under his wings shalt thou trust: his truth shall be thy shield and 5 buckler. Thou shalt not be afraid for the terror by night; nor for 6 the arrow that flieth by day; Nor for the pestilence that walketh 7 in darkness; nor for the destruction that wasteth at noonday.  There shall no evil befall thee, neither shall any plague come nigh 10 thy dwelling. For he shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep 11 thee in all thy ways. They shall bear thee up in their hands, lest 12

A Psalm or Song for the sabbath day. It is a good thing to give 92 thanks unto the LORD, and to sing praises unto thy name, O most High: To shew forth thy lovingkindness in the morning, and thy 2 faithfulness every night, Upon an instrument of ten strings, and 3 upon the psaltery; upon the harp with a solemn sound. For thou, 4 LORD, hast made me glad through thy work: I will triumph in the works of thy hands. O LORD, how great are thy works! and thy 5 thoughts are very deep. A brutish man knoweth not; neither doth 6 a fool understand this. When the wicked spring as the grass, and 7 when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; it is that they shall be destroyed for ever: But thou, LORD, art most high for evermore. 8 For, lo, thine enemies, O LORD, for, lo, thine enemies shall perish; 9 all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered. But my horn shalt 10 thou exalt like the horn of an unicorn: I shall be anointed with fresh oil. Mine eye also shall see my desire on mine enemies, and 11 mine ears shall hear my desire of the wicked that rise up against me. The righteous shall flourish like the palm tree: he shall grow 12 like a cedar in Lebanon. Those that be planted in the house of 13 the LORD shall flourish in the courts of our God. They shall still 14 bring forth fruit in old age; they shall be fat and flourishing; To 15 shew that the LORD is upright: he is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

93 The LORD reigneth, he is clothed with majesty; the LORD is clothed with strength, wherewith he hath girded himself: the world also is stablished, that it cannot be moved. Thy throne is established of old: thou art from everlasting. The floods have lifted up, O LORD, the floods have lifted up their voice; the floods lift up their waves. The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, yea, than the mighty waves of the sea. Thy testimonies are very sure: holiness becometh thine house, O LORD, for ever.

94 O LORD God, to whom vengeance belongeth; O God, to whom vengeance belongeth, shew thyself. Lift up thyself, thou judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud. LORD, how long shall the wicked, how long shall the wicked triumph? How long shall they utter and speak hard things? and all the workers of iniquity boast themselves? They break in pieces thy people, O LORD, and afflict thine heritage. They slay the widow and the stranger, and murder the fatherless. Yet they say, The LORD shall not see, neither shall the God of Jacob regard it. Understand, ye brutish among the people: and ye fools, when will ye be wise? He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? he that formed the eye, shall he not see? He that chastiseth the heathen, shall not he correct? he that teacheth man knowledge, shall not he know? The LORD knoweth the thoughts of man, that they are vanity. Blessed is the man whom thou chastenest, O LORD, and teachest him out of thy law; That thou mayest give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be digged for the wicked. For the LORD will not cast off his people, neither will he forsake his inheritance. But judgment shall return unto righteousness: and all the upright in heart shall follow it. Who will rise up for me against the evildoers? or who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity? Unless the LORD had been my help, my soul had almost dwelt in silence. When I said, My foot slippeth; thy mercy, O LORD, held me up. In the multitude of my thoughts within me thy comforts delight my soul. Shall the throne of iniquity have fellowship with thee, which frameth mischief by a law? They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the inno-

O come, let us sing unto the LORD: let us make a joyful noise 95 to the rock of our salvation. Let us come before his presence with 2 thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto him with psalms. For 3 the LORD is a great God, and a great King above all gods. In his 4 hand are the deep places of the earth: the strength of the hills is his also. The sea is his, and he made it: and his hands formed 5 the dry land. O come, let us worship and bow down: let us kneel 6 before the LORD our maker. For he is our God; and we are the 7 people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. To day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your heart, as in the provocation, and 8 as in the day of temptation in the wilderness: When your fathers 9 tempted me, proved me, and saw my work. Forty years long was 10 I grieved with this generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways: Unto whom I 11 sware in my wrath that they should not enter into my rest.

O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all 96 the earth. Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his 2 salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the heathen, 3 his wonders among all people. For the LORD is great, and greatly 4 to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods. For all the 5 gods of the nations are idols: but the LORD made the heavens.
Honour and majesty are before him: strength and beauty are in 6 his sanctuary. Give unto the LORD, O ye kindreds of the people, 7 give unto the LORD glory and strength. Give unto the LORD 8 the glory due unto his name: bring an offering, and come into his courts. O worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness: fear 9 before him, all the earth. Say among the heathen that the LORD 10 reigneth: the world also shall be established that it shall not be moved: he shall judge the people righteously. Let the heavens 11 rejoice, and let the earth be glad; let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof. Let the field be joyful, and all that is therein: then shall 12

97 The LORD reigneth; let the earth rejoice; let the multitude of 2 isles be glad thereof. Clouds and darkness are round about him:
3 righteousness and judgment are the habitation of his throne. A fire goeth before him, and burneth up his enemies round about.
4 His lightnings enlightened the world: the earth saw, and trembled.
5 The hills melted like wax at the presence of the LORD, at the 6 presence of the Lord of the whole earth. The heavens declare his 7 righteousness, and all the people see his glory. Confounded be all they that serve graven images, that boast themselves of idols: 8 worship him, all ye gods. Zion heard, and was glad; and the daughters of Judah rejoiced because of thy judgments, O LORD.
9 For thou, LORD, art high above all the earth: thou art exalted far 10 above all gods. Ye that love the LORD, hate evil: he preserveth the souls of his saints; he delivereth them out of the hand of the 11 wicked. Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the 12 upright in heart. Rejoice in the LORD, ye righteous; and give thanks at the remembrance of his holiness.

98 A Psalm. O sing unto the LORD a new song; for he hath done marvellous things: his right hand, and his holy arm, hath gotten 2 him the victory. The LORD hath made known his salvation: his righteousness hath he openly shewed in the sight of the heathen.
3 He hath remembered his mercy and his truth toward the house of Israel: all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
4 Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all the earth: make a loud 5 noise, and rejoice, and sing praise. Sing unto the LORD with the 6 harp; with the harp, and the voice of a psalm. With trumpets and sound of cornet make a joyful noise before the LORD, the 7 King. Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; the world, and 8 they that dwell therein. Let the floods clap their hands: let the 9 hills be joyful together Before the LORD; for he cometh to judge the earth: with righteousness shall he judge the world, and the people with equity.

 Zion; and he is high above all the people. Let them praise thy 3 great and terrible name; for it is holy. The king's strength also 4 loveth judgment; thou dost establish equity, thou executest judgment and righteousness in Jacob. Exalt ye the LORD our God, 5 and worship at his footstool; for he is holy. Moses and Aaron 6 among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; they called upon the LORD, and he answered them. He 7 spake unto them in the cloudy pillar: they kept his testimonies, and the ordinance that he gave them. Thou answeredst them, O 8 LORD our God: thou wast a God that forgavest them, though thou tookest vengeance of their inventions. Exalt the LORD our God, 9 and worship at his holy hill; for the LORD our God is holy.

A Psalm of praise. Make a joyful noise unto the LORD, all ye 100 lands. Serve the LORD with gladness: come before his presence 2 with singing. Know ye that the LORD he is God: it is he that 3 hath made us, and not we ourselves; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture. Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and 4 into his courts with praise: be thankful unto him, and bless his name. For the LORD is good; his mercy is everlasting; and his 5 truth endureth to all generations.

A Psalm of David. I will sing of mercy and judgment: unto 101 thee, O LORD, will I sing. I will behave myself wisely in a perfect 2 way. O when wilt thou come unto me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart. I will set no wicked thing before mine eyes: 3 I hate the work of them that turn aside; it shall not cleave to me. A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not know a wicked 4 person. Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut 5 off: him that hath an high look and a proud heart will not I suffer. Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may 6 dwell with me: he that walketh in a perfect way, he shall serve me. He that worketh deceit shall not dwell within my house: he that 7 telleth lies shall not tarry in my sight. I will early destroy all the 8 wicked of the land; that I may cut off all wicked doers from the city of the LORD.

102 A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and poureth out his complaint before the LORD. Hear my prayer, O LORD, 2 and let my cry come unto thee. Hide not thy face from me in the day when I am in trouble; incline thine ear unto me: in the 3 day when I call answer me speedily. For my days are consumed 4 like smoke, and my bones are burned as an hearth. My heart is smitten, and withered like grass; so that I forget to eat my bread.
 5 By reason of the voice of my groaning my bones cleave to my 6 skin. I am like a pelican of the wilderness: I am like an owl of 7 the desert. I watch, and am as a sparrow alone upon the house 8 top. Mine enemies reproach me all the day; and they that are 9 mad against me are sworn against me. For I have eaten ashes 10 like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, Because of thine indignation and thy wrath: for thou hast lifted me up, and cast 11 me down. My days are like a shadow that declineth; and I am 12 withered like grass. But thou, O LORD, shalt endure for ever; and 13 thy remembrance unto all generations. Thou shalt arise, and have mercy upon Zion: for the time to favour her, yea, the set time, is 14 come. For thy servants take pleasure in her stones, and favour the 15 dust thereof. So the heathen shall fear the name of the LORD, and 16 all the kings of the earth thy glory. When the LORD shall build up 17 Zion, he shall appear in his glory. He will regard the prayer of the 18 destitute, and not despise their prayer. This shall be written for the generation to come: and the people which shall be created shall 19 praise the LORD. For he hath looked down from the height of his 20 sanctuary; from heaven did the LORD behold the earth; To hear the groaning of the prisoner; to loose those that are appointed to 21 death; To declare the name of the LORD in Zion, and his praise 22 in Jerusalem; When the people are gathered together, and the 23 kingdoms, to serve the LORD. He weakened my strength in the 24 way; he shortened my days. I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: thy years are throughout all generations.
 25 Of old hast thou laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens 26 are the work of thy hands. They shall perish, but thou shalt endure: yea, all of them shall wax old like a garment; as a vesture 27 shalt thou change them, and they shall be changed: But thou art 28 the same, and thy years shall have no end. The children of thy

A Psalm of David. Bless the LORD, O my soul: and all that is 103 within me, *ble*ss his holy name. Bless the LORD, O my soul, and 2 forget not all his benefits: Who forgiveth all thine iniquities; who 3 healeth all thy diseases; Who redeemeth thy life from destruction; 4 who crowneth thee with lovingkindness and tender mercies; Who 5 satisfieth thy mouth with good things; so that thy youth is renewed like the eagle's. The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment 6 for all that are oppressed. He made known his ways unto Moses, 7 his acts unto the children of Israel. The LORD is merciful and 8 gracious, slow to anger, and plenteous in mercy. He will not always 9 chide: neither will he keep his anger for ever. He hath not dealt 10 with us after our sins; nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
 For as the heaven is high above the earth, so great is his mercy 11 toward them that fear him. As far as the east is from the west, 12 so far hath he removed our transgressions from us. Like as a 13 father pitieth his children, so the LORD pitieth them that fear him. For he knoweth our frame; he remembereth that we are 14 dust. As for man, his days are as grass: as a flower of the field, 15 so he flourisheth. For the wind passeth over it, and it is gone; 16 and the place thereof shall know it no more. But the mercy of the 17 LORD is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness unto children's children; To such as keep his 18 covenant, and to those that remember his commandments to do them. The LORD hath prepared his throne in the heavens; and 19 his kingdom ruleth over all. Bless the LORD, ye his angels, that 20 excel in strength, that do his commandments, hearkening unto the voice of his word. Bless ye the LORD, all ye his hosts; ye ministers 21 of his, that do his pleasure. Bless the LORD, all his works in all 22 places of his dominion: bless the LORD, O my soul.

 8 they fled; at the voice of thy thunder they hasted away. They go up by the mountains; they go down by the valleys unto the 9 place which thou hast founded for them. Thou hast set a bound that they may not pass over; that they turn not again to cover the 10 earth. He sendeth the springs into the valleys, which run among 11 the hills. They give drink to every beast of the field: the wild asses 12 quench their thirst. By them shall the fowls of the heaven have praise to my God while I have my being. My meditation of him shall be sweet: I will be glad in the LORD. Let the sinners be consumed out of the earth, and let the wicked be no more. Bless thou the LORD, O my soul. Praise ye the LORD.

 his deeds among the people. Sing unto him, sing psalms unto him: talk ye of all his wondrous works. Glory ye in his holy name: let the heart of them rejoice that seek the LORD. Seek the LORD, and his strength: seek his face evermore. Remember his marvellous works that he hath done; his wonders, and the judgments of his mouth; O ye seed of Abraham his servant, ye children of Jacob his chosen. He is the LORD our God: his judgments are in all the earth. He hath remembered his covenant for ever, the word which he commanded to a thousand generations. Which covenant he made with Abraham, and his oath unto Isaac; And confirmed the same unto Jacob for a law, and to Israel for an everlasting covenant: Saying, Unto thee will I give the land of Canaan, the lot of your inheritance: When they were but a few men in number; yea, very few, and strangers in it. When they went from one nation to another, from one kingdom to another people; He suffered no man to do them wrong: yea, he reproveth kings for their sakes; Saying, Touch not mine anointed, and do my prophets no harm. Moreover he called for a famine upon the land: he brake the whole staff of bread. He sent a man before them, even Joseph, who was sold for a servant: Whose feet they hurt with fetters: he was laid in iron: Until the time that his word came: the word of the LORD tried him. The king sent and loosed him; even the ruler of the people, and let him go free. He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance: To bind his princes at his pleasure; and teach his senators wisdom. Israel also came into Egypt; and Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham. And he increased his people greatly; and made them stronger than their enemies. He turned their heart to hate his people, to deal subtilly with his servants.

26, 27 He sent Moses his servant; and Aaron whom he had chosen. They shewed his signs among them, and wonders in the land of Ham.
 28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; and they rebelled not against 29 his word. He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.
 30 Their land brought forth frogs in abundance, in the chambers of 31 their kings. He spake, and there came divers sorts of flies, and 32 lice in all their coasts. He gave them hail for rain, and flaming 33 fire in their land. He smote their vines also and their fig trees; 34 and brake the trees of their coasts. He spake, and the locusts 35 came, and caterpillars, and that without number, And did eat up all the herbs in their land, and devoured the fruit of their ground.
 36 He smote also all the firstborn in their land, the chief of all their 37 strength. He brought them forth also with silver and gold: and 38 there was not one feeble person among their tribes. Egypt was 39 glad when they departed: for the fear of them fell upon them. He spread a cloud for a covering; and fire to give light in the night.
 40 The people asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with 41 the bread of heaven. He opened the rock, and the waters gushed 42 out; they ran in the dry places like a river. For he remembered his 43 holy promise, and Abraham his servant. And he brought forth his 44 people with joy, and his chosen with gladness: And gave them the lands of the heathen: and they inherited the labour of the people; 45 That they might observe his statutes, and keep his laws. Praise ye the LORD.

106 Praise ye the LORD. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he is

 3 acts of the LORD? who can shew forth all his praise? Blessed are they that keep judgment, and he that doeth righteousness at may see the good of thy chosen, that I may rejoice in the glad-known. He rebuked the Red sea also, and it was dried up: so he 9 led them through the depths, as through the wilderness. And he 10 saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy. And the waters covered their 11 enemies: there was not one of them left. Then believed they his 12 words; they sang his praise. They soon forgot his works; they 13 waited not for his counsel: But lusted exceedingly in the wilder- 14 ness, and tempted God in the desert. And he gave them their 15 request; but sent leanness into their soul. They envied Moses also 16 in the camp, and Aaron the saint of the LORD. The earth opened 17 and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

 And a fire was kindled in their company; the flame burned up the 18 wicked. They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten 19 image. Thus they changed their glory into the similitude of an ox 20 that eateth grass. They forgot God their saviour, which had done 21 great things in Egypt; Wondrous works in the land of Ham, and 22 terrible things by the Red sea. Therefore he said that he would 23 destroy them, had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them. Yea, 24 they despised the pleasant land, they believed not his word: But 25 murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the voice of the LORD. Therefore he lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow 26 them in the wilderness: To overthrow their seed also among the 27 nations, and to scatter them in the lands. They joined themselves 28 also unto Baalpeor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead. Thus they 29 provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them. Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment: 30 and so the plague was stayed. And that was counted unto him 31 for righteousness unto all generations for evermore. They angered 32 him also at the waters of strife, so that it went ill with Moses for their sakes: Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake 33 unadvisedly with his lips. They did not destroy the nations, con- 34 cerning whom the LORD commanded them: But were mingled 35 among the heathen, and learned their works. And they served 36 their idols: which were a snare unto them. Yea, they sacrificed 37 their sons and their daughters unto devils, And shed innocent 38 blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and the land was polluted with blood. Thus were they defiled with their own works, and went a whoring with their own inventions. Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance. And he gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them ruled over them. Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand. Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their counsel, and were brought low for their iniquity. Nevertheless he regarded their affliction, when he heard their cry: And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his mercies. He made them also to be pitied of all those that carried them captives. Save us, O LORD our God, and gather us from among the heathen, to give thanks unto thy holy name, and to triumph in thy praise. Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting: and let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the LORD.

107 O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy; And gathered them out of the lands, from the east, and from the west, from the north, and from the south. They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! For he satisfieth the longing soul, and filleth the hungry soul with goodness. Such as sit in darkness and in the shadow of death, being bound in affliction and iron; Because they rebelled against the words of God, and contemned the counsel of the most High: Therefore he brought down their heart with labour; they fell down, and there was none to help. Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses. He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and brake their bands in sunder.

Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his 15 wonderful works to the children of men! For he hath broken the 16 gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron in sunder. Fools because 17 of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, are afflicted.
Their soul abhorreth all manner of meat; and they draw near unto 18 the gates of death. Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, 19 and he saveth them out of their distresses. He sent his word, and 20 healed them, and delivered them from their destructions. Oh that 21 men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice the sacrifices 22 of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing. They that 23 go down to the sea in ships, that do business in great waters;
These see the works of the LORD, and his wonders in the deep. 24
For he commandeth, and raiseth the stormy wind, which lifteth 25 up the waves thereof. They mount up to the heaven, they go 26 down again to the depths: their soul is melted because of trouble.
They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at 27 their wits' end. Then they cry unto the LORD in their trouble, 28 and he bringeth them out of their distresses. He maketh the 29 storm a calm, so that the waves thereof are still. Then are they 30 glad because they be quiet; so he bringeth them unto their desired haven. Oh that men would praise the LORD for his goodness, and 31 for his wonderful works to the children of men! Let them exalt 32 him also in the congregation of the people, and praise him in the assembly of the elders. He turneth rivers into a wilderness, and 33 the watersprings into dry ground; A fruitful land into barrenness, 34 for the wickedness of them that dwell therein. He turneth the 35 wilderness into a standing water, and dry ground into watersprings.
And there he maketh the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a 36 city for habitation; And sow the fields, and plant vineyards, which 37 may yield fruits of increase. He blesseth them also, so that they 38 are multiplied greatly; and suffereth not their cattle to decrease.
Again, they are minished and brought low through oppression, 39 affliction, and sorrow. He poureth contempt upon princes, and 40 causeth them to wander in the wilderness, where there is no way.
Yet setteth he the poor on high from affliction, and maketh him 41

108 A Song or Psalm of David. O God, my heart is fixed; I will sing 2 and give praise, even with my glory. Awake, psaltery and harp: 3 I myself will awake early. I will praise thee, O LORD, among the people: and I will sing praises unto thee among the nations.
 4 For thy mercy is great above the heavens: and thy truth reacheth 5 unto the clouds. Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens: and 6 thy glory above all the earth; That thy beloved may be delivered: 7 save with thy right hand, and answer me. God hath spoken in his holiness; I will rejoice, I will divide Shechem, and mete out the 8 valley of Succoth. Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim 9 also is the strength of mine head; Judah is my lawgiver; Moab is my washpot; over Edom will I cast out my shoe; over Philistia 10 will I triumph. Who will bring me into the strong city? who will 11 lead me into Edom? Wilt not thou, O God, who hast cast us off?
 12 and wilt not thou, O God, go forth with our hosts? Give us help 13 from trouble: for vain is the help of man. Through God we shall do valiantly: for he it is that shall tread down our enemies.

109 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Hold not thy peace, 2 O God of my praise; For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of the deceitful are opened against me: they have spoken against 3 me with a lying tongue. They compassed me about also with 4 words of hatred; and fought against me without a cause. For my love they are my adversaries: but I give myself unto prayer.
 5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.

 LORD continually, that he may cut off the memory of them from the earth. Because that he remembered not to shew mercy, but 16 persecuted the poor and needy man, that he might even slay the broken in heart. As he loved cursing, so let it come unto him: 17 as he delighted not in blessing, so let it be far from him. As 18 he clothed himself with cursing like as with his garment, so let it come into his bowels like water, and like oil into his bones. Let it 19 be unto him as the garment which covereth him, and for a girdle wherewith he is girded continually. Let this be the reward of mine 20 adversaries from the LORD, and of them that speak evil against my soul. But do thou for me, O GOD the Lord, for thy name's sake: 21 because thy mercy is good, deliver thou me. For I am poor and 22 needy, and my heart is wounded within me. I am gone like the 23 shadow when it declineth: I am tossed up and down as the locust.
 My knees are weak through fasting; and my flesh faileth of fatness. 24
 I became also a reproach unto them: when they looked upon me 25 they shaked their heads. Help me, O LORD my God: O save me 26 according to thy mercy: That they may know that this is thy 27 hand; that thou, LORD, hast done it. Let them curse, but bless 28 thou: when they arise, let them be ashamed; but let thy servant rejoice. Let mine adversaries be clothed with shame, and let them 29 cover themselves with their own confusion, as with a mantle. I 30 will greatly praise the LORD with my mouth; yea, I will praise him among the multitude. For he shall stand at the right hand of the 31 poor, to save him from those that condemn his soul.

 marvellous in our eyes. This is the day which the LORD hath 24 made; we will rejoice and be glad in it. Save now, I beseech thee, 25 O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity. Blessed 26 be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD. God is the LORD, which hath 27 shewed us light: bind the sacrifice with cords, even unto the horns of the altar. Thou art my God, and I will praise thee: thou art 28 my God, I will exalt thee. O give thanks unto the LORD; for he 29 is good: for his mercy endureth for ever.

ALEPH. Blessed are the undefiled in the way, who walk in the 119 law of the LORD. Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, 2 and that seek him with the whole heart. They also do no iniquity: they walk in his ways. Thou hast commanded us to keep 4 thy precepts diligently. O that my ways were directed to keep 5 thy statutes! Then shall I not be ashamed, when I have respect 6 7 unto all thy commandments. I will praise thee with uprightness 8 of heart, when I shall have learned thy righteous judgments. I 9 will keep thy statutes: O forsake me not utterly. BETH. Wherewithal shall a young man cleanse his way? by taking heed thereto 10 according to thy word. With my whole heart have I sought thee: 11 O let me not wander from thy commandments. Thy word have 12 I hid in mine heart, that I might not sin against thee. Blessed 13 art thou, O LORD: teach me thy statutes. With my lips have I 14 declared all the judgments of thy mouth. I have rejoiced in the 15 way of thy testimonies, as much as in all riches. I will meditate 16 in thy precepts, and have respect unto thy ways. I will delight 17 myself in thy statutes: I will not forget thy word. GIMEL. Deal bountifully with thy servant, that I may live, and keep thy word.

 18 Open thou mine eyes, that I may behold wondrous things out of 19 thy law. I am a stranger in the earth: hide not thy command-20 ments from me. My soul breaketh for the longing that it hath unto 21 thy judgments at all times. Thou hast rebuked the proud that are 22 cursed, which do err from thy commandments. Remove from me 23 reproach and contempt; for I have kept thy testimonies. Princes also did sit and speak against me: but thy servant did meditate in 24 thy statutes. Thy testimonies also are my delight and my coun-25 sellors. DALETH. My soul cleaveth unto the dust: quicken thou 26 me according to thy word. I have declared my ways, and thou 27 heardest me: teach me thy statutes. Make me to understand the 28 way of thy precepts: so shall I talk of thy wondrous works. My soul melteth for heaviness: strengthen thou me according unto thy 29 word. Remove from me the way of lying: and grant me thy law 30 graciously. I have chosen the way of truth: thy judgments have I 31 laid before me. I have stuck unto thy testimonies: O LORD, put 32 me not to shame. I will run the way of thy commandments, when 33 thou shalt enlarge my heart. HE. Teach me, O LORD, the way 34 of thy statutes; and I shall keep it unto the end. Give me understanding, and I shall keep thy law; yea, I shall observe it with my 35 whole heart. Make me to go in the path of thy commandments; 36 for therein do I delight. Incline my heart unto thy testimonies, 37 and not to covetousness. Turn away mine eyes from beholding 38 vanity; and quicken thou me in thy way. Stablish thy word unto thy servant, who is devoted to thy fear. Turn away my reproach 39 which I fear: for thy judgments are good. Behold, I have longed 40 after thy precepts: quicken me in thy righteousness. VAU. Let 41 thy mercies come also unto me, O LORD, even thy salvation, according to thy word. So shall I have wherewith to answer him 42 that reproacheth me: for I trust in thy word. And take not the 43 word of truth utterly out of my mouth; for I have hoped in thy judgments. So shall I keep thy law continually for ever and ever. 44 And I will walk at liberty: for I seek thy precepts. I will speak of 45, 46 thy testimonies also before kings, and will not be ashamed. And 47

 I will delight myself in thy commandments, which I have loved.
 My hands also will I lift up unto thy commandments, which I have 48 loved; and I will meditate in thy statutes. ZAIN. Remember the 49 word unto thy servant, upon which thou hast caused me to hope.
 This is my comfort in my affliction: for thy word hath quickened 50 me. The proud have had me greatly in derision: yet have I not 51 declined from thy law. I remembered thy judgments of old, O 52 LORD; and have comforted myself. Horror hath taken hold upon 53 me because of the wicked that forsake thy law. Thy statutes have 54 been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage. I have remembered 55 thy name, O LORD, in the night, and have kept thy law. This I 56 had, because I kept thy precepts. CHETH. Thou art my portion, 57 O LORD: I have said that I would keep thy words. I intreated 58 thy favour with my whole heart: be merciful unto me according to thy word. I thought on my ways, and turned my feet unto thy 59 testimonies. I made haste, and delayed not to keep thy command- 60 ments. The bands of the wicked have robbed me: but I have not 61 forgotten thy law. At midnight I will rise to give thanks unto thee 62 because of thy righteous judgments. I am a companion of all them 63 that fear thee, and of them that keep thy precepts. The earth, 64
 O LORD, is full of thy mercy: teach me thy statutes. TETH. 65 Thou hast dealt well with thy servant, O LORD, according unto thy word. Teach me good judgment and knowledge: for I have 66 believed thy commandments. Before I was afflicted I went astray: 67 but now have I kept thy word. Thou art good, and doest good; 68 teach me thy statutes. The proud have forged a lie against me: 69 but I will keep thy precepts with my whole heart. Their heart 70

71 is as fat as grease; but I delight in thy law. It is good for me 72 that I have been afflicted; that I might learn thy statutes. The law of thy mouth is better unto me than thousands of gold and 73 silver. JOD. Thy hands have made me and fashioned me: give me 74 understanding, that I may learn thy commandments. They that fear thee will be glad when they see me; because I have hoped in 75 thy word. I know, O LORD, that thy judgments are right, and 76 that thou in faithfulness hast afflicted me. Let, I pray thee, thy merciful kindness be for my comfort, according to thy word unto 77 thy servant. Let thy tender mercies come unto me, that I may 78 live: for thy law is my delight. Let the proud be ashamed; for they dealt perversely with me without a cause: but I will medi-79 tate in thy precepts. Let those that fear thee turn unto me, and 80 those that have known thy testimonies. Let my heart be sound 81 in thy statutes; that I be not ashamed. CAPH. My soul fainteth 82 for thy salvation: but I hope in thy word. Mine eyes fail for thy 83 word, saying, When wilt thou comfort me? For I am become 84 like a bottle in the smoke; yet do I not forget thy statutes. How many are the days of thy servant? when wilt thou execute judg-85 ment on them that persecute me? The proud have digged pits 86 for me, which are not after thy law. All thy commandments are 87 faithful: they persecute me wrongfully; help thou me. They had almost consumed me upon earth; but I forsook not thy precepts.
 88 Quicken me after thy lovingkindness; so shall I keep the testimony 89 of thy mouth. LAMED. For ever, O LORD, thy word is settled 90 in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations: thou hast 91 established the earth, and it abideth. They continue this day 92 according to thine ordinances: for all are thy servants. Unless thy law had been my delights, I should then have perished in mine 93 affliction. I will never forget thy precepts: for with them thou 94 hast quickened me. I am thine, save me; for I have sought thy 95 precepts. The wicked have waited for me to destroy me: but I 96 will consider thy testimonies. I have seen an end of all perfec-97 tion: but thy commandment is exceeding broad. MEM. O how 98 love I thy law! it is my meditation all the day. Thou through thy commandments hast made me wiser than mine enemies: for they are ever with me. I have more understanding than all my 99 teachers: for thy testimonies are my meditation. I understand 100 more than the ancients, because I keep thy precepts. I have re- 101 frained my feet from every evil way, that I might keep thy word.

 I have not departed from thy judgments: for thou hast taught me. 102
 How sweet are thy words unto my taste! yea, sweeter than honey 103 to my mouth! Through thy precepts I get understanding: there- 104 fore I hate every false way. NUN. Thy word is a lamp unto my 105 feet, and a light unto my path. I have sworn, and I will perform 106 it, that I will keep thy righteous judgments. I am afflicted very 107 much: quicken me, O LORD, according unto thy word. Accept, 108 I beseech thee, the freewill offerings of my mouth, O LORD, and teach me thy judgments. My soul is continually in my hand: yet 109 do I not forget thy law. The wicked have laid a snare for me: 110 yet I erred not from thy precepts. Thy testimonies have I taken 111 as an heritage for ever: for they are the rejoicing of my heart. I 112 have inclined mine heart to perform thy statutes alway, even unto the end. SAMECH. I hate vain thoughts: but thy law do I love. 113 Thou art my hiding place and my shield: I hope in thy word. De- 114, 115 part from me, ye evildoers: for I will keep the commandments of my God. Uphold me according unto thy word, that I may live: 116 and let me not be ashamed of my hope. Hold thou me up, and I 117 shall be safe: and I will have respect unto thy statutes continually.
 Thou hast trodden down all them that err from thy statutes: for 118 their deceit is falsehood. Thou puttest away all the wicked of the 119 earth like dross: therefore I love thy testimonies. My flesh trem- 120 bleth for fear of thee; and I am afraid of thy judgments. AIN. I 121 have done judgment and justice: leave me not to mine oppressors.
 Be surety for thy servant for good: let not the proud oppress me. 122 Mine eyes fail for thy salvation, and for the word of thy righteous- 123 ness. Deal with thy servant according unto thy mercy, and teach 124 me thy statutes. I am thy servant; give me understanding, that 125 I may know thy testimonies. It is time for thee, LORD, to work: 126 for they have made void thy law. Therefore I love thy command- 127 ments above gold; yea, above fine gold. Therefore I esteem all 128 thy precepts concerning all things to be right; and I hate every false way. PE. Thy testimonies are wonderful: therefore doth my 129

130 soul keep them. The entrance of thy words giveth light; it giveth 131 understanding unto the simple. I opened my mouth, and panted: 132 for I longed for thy commandments. Look thou upon me, and be merciful unto me, as thou usest to do unto those that love thy 133 name. Order my steps in thy word: and let not any iniquity have 134 dominion over me. Deliver me from the oppression of man: so 135 will I keep thy precepts. Make thy face to shine upon thy ser-136 vant; and teach me thy statutes. Rivers of waters run down mine 137 eyes, because they keep not thy law. TZADDI. Righteous art 138 thou, O LORD, and upright are thy judgments. Thy testimonies 139 that thou hast commanded are righteous and very faithful. My zeal hath consumed me, because mine enemies have forgotten thy 140 words. Thy word is very pure: therefore thy servant loveth it.
 141, 142 I am small and despised: yet do not I forget thy precepts. Thy righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and thy law is the 143 truth. Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me: yet thy com-144 mandments are my delights. The righteousness of thy testimonies 145 is everlasting: give me understanding, and I shall live. KOPH.
 I cried with my whole heart; hear me, O LORD: I will keep thy 146 statutes. I cried unto thee; save me, and I shall keep thy testi-147 monies. I prevented the dawning of the morning, and cried: I 148 hoped in thy word. Mine eyes prevent the night watches, that I 149 might meditate in thy word. Hear my voice according unto thy lovingkindness: O LORD, quicken me according to thy judgment.
 150 They draw nigh that follow after mischief: they are far from thy 151 law. Thou art near, O LORD; and all thy commandments are 152 truth. Concerning thy testimonies, I have known of old that thou 153 hast founded them for ever. RESH. Consider mine affliction, and 154 deliver me: for I do not forget thy law. Plead my cause, and de-155 liver me: quicken me according to thy word. Salvation is far from 156 the wicked: for they seek not thy statutes. Great are thy tender 157 mercies, O LORD: quicken me according to thy judgments. Many are my persecutors and mine enemies; yet do I not decline from 158 thy testimonies. I beheld the transgressors, and was grieved; be-159 cause they kept not thy word. Consider how I love thy precepts:

quicken me, O LORD, according to thy lovingkindness. Thy word is true from the beginning: and every one of thy righteous judgments endureth for ever. SCHIN. Princes have persecuted me without a cause: but my heart standeth in awe of thy word. I rejoice at thy word, as one that findeth great spoil. I hate and abhor lying: but thy law do I love. Seven times a day do I praise thee because of thy righteous judgments. Great peace have they which love thy law: and nothing shall offend them. LORD, I have hoped for thy salvation, and done thy commandments. My soul hath kept thy testimonies; and I love them exceedingly. I have kept thy precepts and thy testimonies: for all my ways are before thee. TAU. Let my cry come near before thee, O LORD: give me understanding according to thy word. Let my supplication come before thee: deliver me according to thy word. My lips shall utter praise, when thou hast taught me thy statutes. My tongue shall speak of thy word: for all thy commandments are righteousness. Let thine hand help me; for I have chosen thy precepts. I have longed for thy salvation, O LORD; and thy law is my delight. Let my soul live, and it shall praise thee; and let thy judgments help me. I have gone astray like a lost sheep; seek thy servant; for I do not forget thy commandments.

A Song of degrees. In my distress I cried unto the LORD, and he heard me. Deliver my soul, O LORD, from lying lips, and from a deceitful tongue. What shall be given unto thee? or what shall be done unto thee, thou false tongue? Sharp arrows of the mighty, with coals of juniper. Woe is me, that I sojourn in Mesech, that I dwell in the tents of Kedar! My soul hath long dwelt with him that hateth peace. I am for peace: but when I speak, they are for war.

A Song of degrees. I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills, from whence cometh my help. My help cometh from the LORD, which made heaven and earth. He will not suffer thy foot to be moved: he that keepeth thee will not slumber. Behold, he that keepeth Israel shall neither slumber nor sleep. The LORD is thy keeper: the

- 6 LORD is thy shade upon thy right hand. The sun shall not smite 7 thee by day, nor the moon by night. The LORD shall preserve 8 thee from all evil: he shall preserve thy soul. The LORD shall even for evermore.

- 122 A Song of degrees of David. I was glad when they said unto 2 me, Let us go into the house of the LORD. Our feet shall stand 3 within thy gates, O Jerusalem. Jerusalem is builded as a city that 4 is compact together: Whither the tribes go up, the tribes of the LORD, unto the testimony of Israel, to give thanks unto the name 5 of the LORD. For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones 6 of the house of David. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall 7 prosper that love thee. Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity 8 within thy palaces. For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will 9 now say, Peace be within thee. Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.
- 123 A Song of degrees. Unto thee lift I up mine eyes, O thou that 2 dwellest in the heavens. Behold, as the eyes of servants look unto the hand of their masters, and as the eyes of a maiden unto the hand of her mistress; so our eyes wait upon the LORD our God, 3 until that he have mercy upon us. Have mercy upon us, O LORD, have mercy upon us: for we are exceedingly filled with contempt.
 4 Our soul is exceedingly filled with the scorning of those that are at ease, and with the contempt of the proud.
- 124 A Song of degrees of David. If it had not been the LORD who 2 was on our side, now may Israel say; If it had not been the LORD 3 who was on our side, when men rose up against us: Then they had swallowed us up quick, when their wrath was kindled against us: 4 Then the waters had overwhelmed us, the stream had gone over 5, 6 our soul: Then the proud waters had gone over our soul. Blessed 7 be the LORD, who hath not given us as a prey to their teeth. Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: the snare 8 is broken, and we are escaped. Our help is in the name of the LORD, who made heaven and earth.
- 125 A Song of degrees. They that trust in the LORD shall be as 2 mount Zion, which cannot be removed, but abideth for ever. As the mountains are round about Jerusalem, so the LORD is round 3 about his people from henceforth even for ever. For the rod of the wicked shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; lest the righteous put forth their hands unto iniquity. Do good, O LORD, unto those 4 that be good, and to them that are upright in their hearts. As for 5 such as turn aside unto their crooked ways, the LORD shall lead them forth with the workers of iniquity: but peace shall be upon Israel.

A Song of degrees. When the LORD turned again the captivity 126 of Zion, we were like them that dream. Then was our mouth 2 filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: then said they among the heathen, The LORD hath done great things for them.
 The LORD hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad. 3
 Turn again our captivity, O LORD, as the streams in the south. 4
 They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and 5, 6 weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

A Song of degrees for Solomon. Except the LORD build the 127 house, they labour in vain that build it: except the LORD keep the city, the watchman waketh but in vain. It is vain for you to rise 2 up early, to sit up late, to eat the bread of sorrows: for so he giveth his beloved sleep. Lo, children are an heritage of the LORD: and 3 the fruit of the womb is his reward. As arrows are in the hand 4 of a mighty man; so are children of the youth. Happy is the man 5 that hath his quiver full of them: they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate.

A Song of degrees. Blessed is every one that feareth the LORD; 128 that walketh in his ways. For thou shalt eat the labour of thine 2 hands: happy shalt thou be, and it shall be well with thee. Thy 3 wife shall be as a fruitful vine by the sides of thine house: thy children like olive plants round about thy table. Behold, that thus 4 shall the man be blessed that feareth the LORD. The LORD shall 5 bless thee out of Zion: and thou shalt see the good of Jerusalem all the days of thy life. Yea, thou shalt see thy children's children, 6 and peace upon Israel.

 of the LORD.

130 A Song of degrees. Out of the depths have I cried unto thee, O 2 LORD. Lord, hear my voice: let thine ears be attentive to the voice 3 of my supplications. If thou, LORD, shouldest mark iniquities, O 4 Lord, who shall stand? But there is forgiveness with thee, that 5 thou mayest be feared. I wait for the LORD, my soul doth wait, 6 and in his word do I hope. My soul waiteth for the Lord more than they that watch for the morning: I say, more than they that 7 watch for the morning. Let Israel hope in the LORD: for with the LORD there is mercy, and with him is plenteous redemption.
 8 And he shall redeem Israel from all his iniquities.

131 A Song of degrees of David. LORD, my heart is not haughty, nor mine eyes lofty: neither do I exercise myself in great matters, 2 or in things too high for me. Surely I have behaved and quieted myself, as a child that is weaned of his mother: my soul is even as for ever.

 7 at Ephratah: we found it in the fields of the wood. We will go 8 into his tabernacles: we will worship at his footstool. Arise, O desired it. I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her 15 her saints shall shout aloud for joy. There will I make the horn 17 of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for mine anointed. His 18 enemies will I clothe with shame: but upon himself shall his crown flourish.

A Song of degrees of David. Behold, how good and how pleas- 133 precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;

 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the 3 mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing,

A Song of degrees. Behold, bless ye the LORD, all ye servants 134 of the LORD, which by night stand in the house of the LORD. Lift 2 up your hands in the sanctuary, and bless the LORD. The LORD 3 that made heaven and earth bless thee out of Zion.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the name of the LORD; praise 135 him, O ye servants of the LORD. Ye that stand in the house of the 2 LORD, in the courts of the house of our God, Praise the LORD; for 3 the LORD is good: sing praises unto his name; for it is pleasant.

11 nations, and slew mighty kings; Sihon king of the Amorites, and 12 Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan: And gave 13 their land for an heritage, an heritage unto Israel his people. Thy name, O LORD, endureth for ever; and thy memorial, O LORD, 14 throughout all generations. For the LORD will judge his people, 15 and he will repent himself concerning his servants. The idols of 16 the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men's hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; 17 They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in 18 their mouths. They that make them are like unto them: so is 19 every one that trusteth in them. Bless the LORD, O house of 20 Israel: bless the LORD, O house of Aaron: Bless the LORD, O 21 house of Levi: ye that fear the LORD, bless the LORD. Blessed be the LORD out of Zion, which dwelleth at Jerusalem. Praise ye the LORD.

By the rivers of Babylon, there we sat down, yea, we wept, when 137 we remembered Zion. We hanged our harps upon the willows in 2 the midst thereof. For there they that carried us away captive re- 3 quired of us a song; and they that wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion. How shall we sing the 4 LORD's song in a strange land? If I forget thee, O Jerusalem, 5 let my right hand forget her cunning. If I do not remember thee, 6 let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth; if I prefer not Jerusalem above my chief joy. Remember, O LORD, the children 7 of Edom in the day of Jerusalem; who said, Rase it, rase it, even to the foundation thereof. O daughter of Babylon, who art to 8 be destroyed; happy shall he be, that rewardeth thee as thou hast served us. Happy shall he be, that taketh and dasheth thy little 9 ones against the stones.

A Psalm of David. I will praise thee with my whole heart: 138 before the gods will I sing praise unto thee. I will worship toward 2 thy holy temple, and praise thy name for thy lovingkindness and for thy truth: for thou hast magnified thy word above all thy name.
 In the day when I cried thou answeredst me, and strengthenedst 3 me with strength in my soul. All the kings of the earth shall praise 4 thee, O LORD, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they 5 shall sing in the ways of the LORD: for great is the glory of the LORD. Though the LORD be high, yet hath he respect unto the 6 lowly: but the proud he knoweth afar off. Though I walk in the 7 midst of trouble, thou wilt revive me: thou shalt stretch forth thine hand against the wrath of mine enemies, and thy right hand shall save me. The LORD will perfect that which concerneth me: thy 8

139 To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. O LORD, thou hast 2 searched me, and known me. Thou knowest my downsitting and 3 mine uprising, thou understandest my thought afar off. Thou compassest my path and my lying down, and art acquainted with 4 all my ways. For there is not a word in my tongue, but, lo, O 5 LORD, thou knowest it altogether. Thou hast beset me behind 6 and before, and laid thine hand upon me. Such knowledge is too 7 wonderful for me; it is high, I cannot attain unto it. Whither shall 8 I go from thy spirit? or whither shall I flee from thy presence? If I ascend up into heaven, thou art there: if I make my bed in hell, 9 behold, thou art there. If I take the wings of the morning, and 10 dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea; Even there shall thy hand 11 lead me, and thy right hand shall hold me. If I say, Surely the darkness shall cover me; even the night shall be light about me.
 12 Yea, the darkness hideth not from thee; but the night shineth as 13 the day: the darkness and the light are both alike to thee. For thou hast possessed my reins: thou hast covered me in my mother's 14 womb. I will praise thee; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: marvellous are thy works; and that my soul knoweth right well.
 15 My substance was not hid from thee, when I was made in secret, 16 and curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth. Thine eyes did see my substance, yet being unperfect; and in thy book all my members were written, which in continuance were fashioned, 17 when as yet there was none of them. How precious also are thy 18 thoughts unto me, O God! how great is the sum of them! If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: when 19 I awake, I am still with thee. Surely thou wilt slay the wicked, O 20 God: depart from me therefore, ye bloody men. For they speak against thee wickedly, and thine enemies take thy name in vain.
 21 Do not I hate them, O LORD, that hate thee? and am not I grieved 22 with those that rise up against thee? I hate them with perfect 23 hatred: I count them mine enemies. Search me, O God, and know 24 my heart: try me, and know my thoughts: And see if there be any

To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. Deliver me, O LORD, 140 from the evil man: preserve me from the violent man; Which 2 imagine mischiefs in their heart; continually are they gathered together for war. They have sharpened their tongues like a serpent; 3 adders' poison is under their lips. Selah. Keep me, O LORD, 4 from the hands of the wicked; preserve me from the violent man; who have purposed to overthrow my goings. The proud have hid 5 a snare for me, and cords; they have spread a net by the wayside; they have set gins for me. Selah. I said unto the LORD, Thou 6 art my God: hear the voice of my supplications, O LORD. O 7 GOD the Lord, the strength of my salvation, thou hast covered my head in the day of battle. Grant not, O LORD, the desires 8 of the wicked: further not his wicked device; lest they exalt themselves. Selah. As for the head of those that compass me about, 9 let the mischief of their own lips cover them. Let burning coals 10 fall upon them: let them be cast into the fire; into deep pits, that they rise not up again. Let not an evil speaker be established in 11 the earth: evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him. I 12 know that the LORD will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and the right of the poor. Surely the righteous shall give thanks unto 13 thy name: the upright shall dwell in thy presence.

A Psalm of David. LORD, I cry unto thee: make haste unto 141 me; give ear unto my voice, when I cry unto thee. Let my prayer 2 be set forth before thee as incense; and the lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice. Set a watch, O LORD, before my mouth; 3 keep the door of my lips. Incline not my heart to any evil thing, 4 to practise wicked works with men that work iniquity: and let me not eat of their dainties. Let the righteous smite me; it shall be a 5 kindness: and let him reprove me; it shall be an excellent oil, which shall not break my head: for yet my prayer also shall be in their calamities. When their judges are overthrown in stony places, 6 they shall hear my words; for they are sweet. Our bones are 7 scattered at the grave's mouth, as when one cutteth and cleaveth wood upon the earth. But mine eyes are unto thee, O GOD the 8 from the snares which they have laid for me, and the gins of the 10 workers of iniquity. Let the wicked fall into their own nets, whilst

- 142 Maschil of David; A Prayer when he was in the cave. I cried unto the LORD with my voice; with my voice unto the LORD did I make 2 my supplication. I poured out my complaint before him; I shewed 3 before him my trouble. When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, then thou knewest my path. In the way wherein I walked have 4 they privily laid a snare for me. I looked on my right hand, and beheld, but there was no man that would know me: refuge failed 5 me; no man cared for my soul. I cried unto thee, O LORD: I said, Thou art my refuge and my portion in the land of the living.
6 Attend unto my cry; for I am brought very low: deliver me from 7 my persecutors; for they are stronger than I. Bring my soul out of prison, that I may praise thy name: the righteous shall compass me about; for thou shalt deal bountifully with me.
- 143 A Psalm of David. Hear my prayer, O LORD, give ear to my supplications: in thy faithfulness answer me, and in thy righteous-2 ness. And enter not into judgment with thy servant: for in thy 3 sight shall no man living be justified. For the enemy hath persecuted my soul; he hath smitten my life down to the ground; he hath made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long 4 dead. Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart 5 within me is desolate. I remember the days of old; I meditate on 6 all thy works; I muse on the work of thy hands. I stretch forth my hands unto thee: my soul thirsteth after thee, as a thirsty land.
7 Selah. Hear me speedily, O LORD: my spirit faileth: hide not thy face from me, lest I be like unto them that go down into the pit.
8 Cause me to hear thy lovingkindness in the morning; for in thee do I trust: cause me to know the way wherein I should walk; for I lift 9 up my soul unto thee. Deliver me, O LORD, from mine enemies: 10 I flee unto thee to hide me. Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God: thy spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness.

A Psalm of David. Blessed be the LORD my strength, which 144 teacheth my hands to war, and my fingers to fight: My goodness, 2 and my fortress; my high tower, and my deliverer; my shield, and he in whom I trust; who subdueth my people under me. LORD, what 3 is man, that thou takest knowledge of him! or the son of man, that thou makest account of him! Man is like to vanity: his days are 4 as a shadow that passeth away. Bow thy heavens, O LORD, and 5 come down: touch the mountains, and they shall smoke. Cast 6 forth lightning, and scatter them: shoot out thine arrows, and destroy them. Send thine hand from above; rid me, and deliver 7 me out of great waters, from the hand of strange children; Whose 8 mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood. I will sing a new song unto thee, O God: upon a 9 psaltery and an instrument of ten strings will I sing praises unto thee. It is he that giveth salvation unto kings: who delivereth 10 David his servant from the hurtful sword. Rid me, and deliver me 11 from the hand of strange children, whose mouth speaketh vanity, and their right hand is a right hand of falsehood: That our sons 12 may be as plants grown up in their youth; that our daughters may be as corner stones, polished after the similitude of a palace: That 13 our garners may be full, affording all manner of store: that our sheep may bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our streets:
That our oxen may be strong to labour; that there be no breaking 14 in, nor going out; that there be no complaining in our streets.
 Happy is that people, that is in such a case: yea, happy is that 15 people, whose God is the LORD.

David's Psalm of praise. I will extol thee, my God, O king; and 145
 I will bless thy name for ever and ever. Every day will I bless thee; 2 and I will praise thy name for ever and ever. Great is the LORD, 3 and greatly to be praised; and his greatness is unsearchable. One 4 generation shall praise thy works to another, and shall declare thy mighty acts. I will speak of the glorious honour of thy majesty, 5 7 of thy terrible acts: and I will declare thy greatness. They shall abundantly utter the memory of thy great goodness, and shall sing 8 of thy righteousness. The LORD is gracious, and full of compas-9 sion; slow to anger, and of great mercy. The LORD is good to all: 10 and his tender mercies are over all his works. All thy works shall 11 praise thee, O LORD; and thy saints shall bless thee. They shall 12 speak of the glory of thy kingdom, and talk of thy power; To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glorious majesty 13 of his kingdom. Thy kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and thy 14 dominion endureth throughout all generations. The LORD upholdeth all that fall, and raiseth up all those that be bowed down.

15 The eyes of all wait upon thee; and thou givest them their meat 16 in due season. Thou openest thine hand, and satisfiest the desire 17 of every living thing. The LORD is righteous in all his ways, and 18 holy in all his works. The LORD is nigh unto all them that call 19 upon him, to all that call upon him in truth. He will fulfil the desire of them that fear him: he also will hear their cry, and will 20 save them. The LORD preserveth all them that love him: but all 21 the wicked will he destroy. My mouth shall speak the praise of the LORD: and let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

146, 2 Praise ye the LORD. Praise the LORD, O my soul. While I live will I praise the LORD: I will sing praises unto my God 3 while I have any being. Put not your trust in princes, nor in the 4 son of man, in whom there is no help. His breath goeth forth, he returneth to his earth; in that very day his thoughts perish.
5 Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope 6 is in the LORD his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the 7 sea, and all that therein is: which keepeth truth for ever: Which executeth judgment for the oppressed: which giveth food to the 8 hungry. The LORD looseth the prisoners: The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed 9 down: the LORD loveth the righteous: The LORD preserveth the strangers; he relieveth the fatherless and widow: but the way of

LORD.

Praise ye the LORD: for it is good to sing praises unto our 147 God; for it is pleasant; and praise is comely. The LORD doth 2 build up Jerusalem: he gathereth together the outcasts of Israel.
 He healeth the broken in heart, and bindeth up their wounds. He 3, 4 telleth the number of the stars; he calleth them all by their names.
 Great is our Lord, and of great power: his understanding is in- 5 finite. The LORD lifteth up the meek: he casteth the wicked 6 down to the ground. Sing unto the LORD with thanksgiving; sing 7 praise upon the harp unto our God: Who covereth the heaven 8 with clouds, who prepareth rain for the earth, who maketh grass to grow upon the mountains. He giveth to the beast his food, and 9 to the young ravens which cry. He delighteth not in the strength 10 of the horse: he taketh not pleasure in the legs of a man. The 11 LORD taketh pleasure in them that fear him, in those that hope in his mercy. Praise the LORD, O Jerusalem; praise thy God, 12 O Zion. For he hath strengthened the bars of thy gates; he hath 13 blessed thy children within thee. He maketh peace in thy borders, 14 and filleth thee with the finest of the wheat. He sendeth forth his 15 commandment upon earth: his word runneth very swiftly. He 16 giveth snow like wool: he scattereth the hoarfrost like ashes. He 17 casteth forth his ice like morsels: who can stand before his cold?
 He sendeth out his word, and melteth them: he causeth his wind 18 to blow, and the waters flow. He sheweth his word unto Jacob, 19 his statutes and his judgments unto Israel. He hath not dealt so 20 with any nation: and as for his judgments, they have not known them. Praise ye the LORD.

Praise ye the LORD. Praise ye the LORD from the heavens: 148 praise him in the heights. Praise ye him, all his angels: praise 2 ye him, all his hosts. Praise ye him, sun and moon: praise him, 3 all ye stars of light. Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye 4 waters that be above the heavens. Let them praise the name of the 5 LORD: for he commanded, and they were created. He hath also 6 stablished them for ever and ever: he hath made a decree which praise the name of the LORD: for his name alone is excellent; his 14 glory is above the earth and heaven. He also exalteth the horn of his people, the praise of all his saints; even of the children of Israel, a people near unto him. Praise ye the LORD.

- 149 Praise ye the LORD. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his 2 praise in the congregation of saints. Let Israel rejoice in him that 3 made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King. Let them praise his name in the dance: let them sing praises unto him

THE PROVERBS.

 he proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel; 1
To know wisdom and instruction; to perceive the words 2 of understanding; To receive the instruction of wisdom, 3 justice, and judgment, and equity; To give subtilty to 4 the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion. A wise 5 man will hear, and will increase learning; and a man of understanding shall attain unto wise counsels: To understand a proverb, and 6 the interpretation; the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
The fear of the LORD is the beginning of knowledge: but fools 7 despise wisdom and instruction. My son, hear the instruction of 8 thy father, and forsake not the law of thy mother: For they shall 9 be an ornament of grace unto thy head, and chains about thy neck.
My son, if sinners entice thee, consent thou not. If they say, Come 10, 11 with us, let us lay wait for blood, let us lurk privily for the innocent without cause: Let us swallow them up alive as the grave; 12 and whole, as those that go down into the pit: We shall find all 13 precious substance, we shall fill our houses with spoil: Cast in thy 14 lot among us; let us all have one purse: My son, walk not thou 15 in the way with them; refrain thy foot from their path: For their 16 feet run to evil, and make haste to shed blood. Surely in vain 17 the net is spread in the sight of any bird. And they lay wait for 18 their own blood; they lurk privily for their own lives. So are the 19 ways of every one that is greedy of gain; which taketh away the life of the owners thereof. Wisdom crieth without; she uttereth 20 her voice in the streets: She crieth in the chief place of concourse, 21 in the openings of the gates: in the city she uttereth her words, saying, How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? and the 22 23 scorers delight in their scorning, and fools hate knowledge? Turn you at my reproof: behold, I will pour out my spirit unto you, I 24 will make known my words unto you. Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded;

 25 But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my 26 reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your 27 fear cometh; When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh 28 upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; 29 they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: For that they 30 hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD: They 31 would none of my counsel: they despised all my reproof. Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with 32 their own devices. For the turning away of the simple shall slay 33 them, and the prosperity of fools shall destroy them. But whoso hearkeneth unto me shall dwell safely, and shall be quiet from fear of evil.

2 My son, if thou wilt receive my words, and hide my command-2 ments with thee; So that thou incline thine ear unto wisdom, and 3 apply thine heart to understanding; Yea, if thou criest after knowl-
 4 edge, and liftest up thy voice for understanding; If thou seekest 5 her as silver, and searchest for her as for hid treasures; Then shalt thou understand the fear of the LORD, and find the knowl-6 edge of God. For the LORD giveth wisdom: out of his mouth 7 cometh knowledge and understanding. He layeth up sound wisdom for the righteous: he is a buckler to them that walk uprightly.
 8 He keepeth the paths of judgment, and preserveth the way of his 9 saints. Then shalt thou understand righteousness, and judgment, 10 and equity; yea, every good path. When wisdom entereth into 11 thine heart, and knowledge is pleasant unto thy soul; Discretion 12 shall preserve thee, understanding shall keep thee: To deliver thee from the way of the evil man, from the man that speaketh froward 13 things; Who leave the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways 14 of darkness; Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the froward-15 ness of the wicked; Whose ways are crooked, and they froward in 16 their paths: To deliver thee from the strange woman, even from 17 the stranger which flattereth with her words; Which forsaketh the guide of her youth, and forgetteth the covenant of her God.

For her house inclineth unto death, and her paths unto the dead. 18
 None that go unto her return again, neither take they hold of the 19 paths of life. That thou mayest walk in the way of good men, and 20 keep the paths of the righteous. For the upright shall dwell in the 21 land, and the perfect shall remain in it. But the wicked shall be 22 cut off from the earth, and the transgressors shall be rooted out of it.

My son, forget not my law; but let thine heart keep my com- 3 mandments: For length of days, and long life, and peace, shall 2 they add to thee. Let not mercy and truth forsake thee: bind 3 them about thy neck; write them upon the table of thine heart: So 4 shalt thou find favour and good understanding in the sight of God and man. Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not 5 unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, 6 and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear 7 the LORD, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, 8 and marrow to thy bones. Honour the LORD with thy substance, 9 and with the firstfruits of all thine increase: So shall thy barns be 10 filled with plenty, and thy presses shall burst out with new wine.
 My son, despise not the chastening of the LORD; neither be weary 11 of his correction: For whom the LORD loveth he correcteth; even 12 as a father the son in whom he delighteth. Happy is the man that 13 findeth wisdom, and the man that getteth understanding. For the 14 merchandise of it is better than the merchandise of silver, and the gain thereof than fine gold. She is more precious than rubies: and 15 all the things thou canst desire are not to be compared unto her.
 Length of days is in her right hand; and in her left hand riches 16 and honour. Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths 17 are peace. She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: 18 and happy is every one that retaineth her. The LORD by wisdom 19 hath founded the earth; by understanding hath he established the heavens. By his knowledge the depths are broken up, and the 20 clouds drop down the dew. My son, let not them depart from 21 thine eyes: keep sound wisdom and discretion: So shall they be 22 life unto thy soul, and grace to thy neck. Then shalt thou walk 23 in thy way safely, and thy foot shall not stumble. When thou 24 liest down, thou shalt not be afraid: yea, thou shalt lie down, and 25 thy sleep shall be sweet. Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither 26 of the desolation of the wicked, when it cometh. For the LORD shall be thy confidence, and shall keep thy foot from being taken.

 27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the 28 power of thine hand to do it. Say not unto thy neighbour, Go, and come again, and to morrow I will give; when thou hast it by 29 thee. Devise not evil against thy neighbour, seeing he dwelleth 30 securely by thee. Strive not with a man without cause, if he have 31 done thee no harm. Envy thou not the oppressor, and choose 32 none of his ways. For the froward is abomination to the LORD: 33 but his secret is with the righteous. The curse of the LORD is in the house of the wicked: but he blesseth the habitation of the 34 just. Surely he scorneth the scorers: but he giveth grace unto 35 the lowly. The wise shall inherit glory: but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

 4 in the sight of my mother. He taught me also, and said unto me, Let thine heart retain my words: keep my commandments, 5 and live. Get wisdom, get understanding: forget it not; neither 6 decline from the words of my mouth. Forsake her not, and she 7 shall preserve thee: love her, and she shall keep thee. Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting 8 get understanding. Exalt her, and she shall promote thee: she 9 shall bring thee to honour, when thou dost embrace her. She shall give to thine head an ornament of grace: a crown of glory 10 shall she deliver to thee. Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; 11 and the years of thy life shall be many. I have taught thee in 12 the way of wisdom; I have led thee in right paths. When thou goest, thy steps shall not be straitened; and when thou runnest, 13 thou shalt not stumble. Take fast hold of instruction; let her not 14 go: keep her; for she is thy life. Enter not into the path of the 15 wicked, and go not in the way of evil men. Avoid it, pass not by 16 it, turn from it, and pass away. For they sleep not, except they have done mischief; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause some to fall. For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence. But the path of the just is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day. The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not at what they stumble. My son, attend to my words; incline thine ear unto my sayings. Let them not depart from thine eyes; keep them in the midst of thine heart. For they are life unto those that find them, and health to all their flesh. Keep thy heart with all diligence; for out of it are the issues of life. Put away from thee a froward mouth, and perverse lips put far from thee. Let thine eyes look right on, and let thine eyelids look straight before thee. Ponder the path of thy feet, and let all thy ways be established. Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: remove thy foot from evil.

My son, attend unto my wisdom, and bow thine ear to my understanding: That thou mayest regard discretion, and that thy lips may keep knowledge. For the lips of a strange woman drop as an honeycomb, and her mouth is smoother than oil: But her end is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a twoedged sword. Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold on hell. Lest thou shouldest ponder the path of life, her ways are moveable, that thou canst not know them. Hear me now therefore, O ye children, and depart not from the words of my mouth. Remove thy way far from her, and come not nigh the door of her house: Lest thou give thine honour unto others, and thy years unto the cruel: Lest strangers be filled with thy wealth; and thy labours be in the house of a stranger; And thou mourn at the last, when thy flesh and thy body are consumed, And say, How have I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof; And have not obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined mine ear to them that instructed me! I was almost in all evil in the midst of the congregation and assembly. Drink waters out of thine own cistern, and running waters out of thine own well. roe; let her breasts satisfy thee at all times; and be thou ravished 20 always with her love. And why wilt thou, my son, be ravished with 21 a strange woman, and embrace the bosom of a stranger? For the ways of man are before the eyes of the LORD, and he pondereth all 22 his goings. His own iniquities shall take the wicked himself, and 23 he shall be holden with the cords of his sins. He shall die without instruction; and in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

6 My son, if thou be surety for thy friend, if thou hast stricken 2 thy hand with a stranger, Thou art snared with the words of thy 3 mouth, thou art taken with the words of thy mouth. Do this now, my son, and deliver thyself, when thou art come into the hand of 4 thy friend; go, humble thyself, and make sure thy friend. Give 5 not sleep to thine eyes, nor slumber to thine eyelids. Deliver thyself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the 6 hand of the fowler. Go to the ant, thou sluggard; consider her 7 ways, and be wise: Which having no guide, overseer, or ruler, 8 Provideth her meat in the summer, and gathereth her food in the 9 harvest. How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou with his eyes, he speaketh with his feet, he teacheth with his fin-14 gers; Frowardness is in his heart, he deviseth mischief continually; 15 he soweth discord. Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; 16 suddenly shall he be broken without remedy. These six things 17 doth the LORD hate: yea, seven are an abomination unto him: A proud look, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood, 18 An heart that deviseth wicked imaginations, feet that be swift in 19 running to mischief, A false witness that speaketh lies, and he 20 that soweth discord among brethren. My son, keep thy father's 21 commandment, and forsake not the law of thy mother: Bind them 22 continually upon thine heart, and tie them about thy neck. When thou goest, it shall lead thee; when thou sleepest, it shall keep thee; 23 and when thou awakest, it shall talk with thee. For the command-are the way of life: To keep thee from the evil woman, from the 24 flattery of the tongue of a strange woman. Lust not after her 25 beauty in thine heart; neither let her take thee with her eyelids.

 For by means of a whorish woman a man is brought to a piece of 26 bread: and the adulteress will hunt for the precious life. Can a 27 man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned? Can 28 one go upon hot coals, and his feet not be burned? So he that 29 goeth in to his neighbour's wife; whosoever toucheth her shall not be innocent. Men do not despise a thief, if he steal to satisfy 30 his soul when he is hungry; But if he be found, he shall restore 31 sevenfold; he shall give all the substance of his house. But whoso 32 committeth adultery with a woman lacketh understanding: he that doeth it destroyeth his own soul. A wound and dishonour shall he 33 get; and his reproach shall not be wiped away. For jealousy is the 34 rage of a man: therefore he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
 He will not regard any ransom; neither will he rest content, though 35 thou givest many gifts.

My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with 7 thee. Keep my commandments, and live; and my law as the 2 apple of thine eye. Bind them upon thy fingers, write them upon 3 the table of thine heart. Say unto wisdom, Thou art my sister; 4 and call understanding thy kinswoman: That they may keep thee 5 from the strange woman, from the stranger which flattereth with her words. For at the window of my house I looked through my 6 casement, And beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among 7 the youths, a young man void of understanding, Passing through 8 the street near her corner; and he went the way to her house, In 9 the twilight, in the evening, in the black and dark night: And, 10 behold, there met him a woman with the attire of an harlot, and subtil of heart. (She is loud and stubborn; her feet abide not in 11 her house: Now is she without, now in the streets, and lieth in 12 wait at every corner.) So she caught him, and kissed him, and 13 with an impudent face said unto him, I have peace offerings with 14 me; this day have I payed my vows. Therefore came I forth to 15 meet thee, diligently to seek thy face, and I have found thee. I 16 have decked my bed with coverings of tapestry, with carved works, 17 with fine linen of Egypt. I have perfumed my bed with myrrh, 18 aloes, and cinnamon. Come, let us take our fill of love until the 19 morning: let us solace ourselves with loves. For the goodman is 20 not at home, he is gone a long journey: He hath taken a bag of 21 money with him, and will come home at the day appointed. With her much fair speech she caused him to yield, with the flattering of 22 her lips she forced him. He goeth after her straightway, as an ox goeth to the slaughter, or as a fool to the correction of the stocks; 23 Till a dart strike through his liver; as a bird hasteth to the snare, 24 and knoweth not that it is for his life. Hearken unto me now therefore, O ye children, and attend to the words of my mouth.

 25 Let not thine heart decline to her ways, go not astray in her paths.
 26 For she hath cast down many wounded: yea, many strong men 27 have been slain by her. Her house is the way to hell, going down to the chambers of death.

8 Doth not wisdom cry? and understanding put forth her voice?
 2 She standeth in the top of high places, by the way in the places of 3 the paths. She crieth at the gates, at the entry of the city, at the 4 coming in at the doors. Unto you, O men, I call; and my voice 5 is to the sons of man. O ye simple, understand wisdom: and, ye 6 fools, be ye of an understanding heart. Hear; for I will speak of excellent things; and the opening of my lips shall be right things.
 7 For my mouth shall speak truth; and wickedness is an abomination 8 to my lips. All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; there 9 is nothing froward or perverse in them. They are all plain to him that understandeth, and right to them that find knowledge.
 10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; and knowledge rather than 11 choice gold. For wisdom is better than rubies; and all the things 12 that may be desired are not to be compared to it. I wisdom dwell 13 with prudence, and find out knowledge of witty inventions. The fear of the LORD is to hate evil: pride, and arrogancy, and the 14 evil way, and the froward mouth, do I hate. Counsel is mine, 15 and sound wisdom: I am understanding; I have strength. By 16 me kings reign, and princes decree justice. By me princes rule, 17 and nobles, even all the judges of the earth. I love them that love me; and those that seek me early shall find me. Riches and 18 honour are with me; yea, durable riches and righteousness. My 19 fruit is better than gold, yea, than fine gold; and my revenue than choice silver. I lead in the way of righteousness, in the midst of the 20 paths of judgment: That I may cause those that love me to inherit 21 substance; and I will fill their treasures. The LORD possessed me 22 in the beginning of his way, before his works of old. I was set 23 up from everlasting, from the beginning, or ever the earth was.

When there were no depths, I was brought forth; when there were 24 no fountains abounding with water. Before the mountains were 25 settled, before the hills was I brought forth: While as yet he had 26 not made the earth, nor the fields, nor the highest part of the dust of the world. When he prepared the heavens, I was there: when 27 he set a compass upon the face of the depth: When he established 28 the clouds above: when he strengthened the fountains of the deep:
When he gave to the sea his decree, that the waters should not 29 pass his commandment: when he appointed the foundations of the earth: Then I was by him, as one brought up with him: and I 30 was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him; Rejoicing in the 31 habitable part of his earth; and my delights were with the sons of men. Now therefore hearken unto me, O ye children: for blessed 32 are they that keep my ways. Hear instruction, and be wise, and 33 refuse it not. Blessed is the man that heareth me, watching daily 34 at my gates, waiting at the posts of my doors. For whoso findeth 35 me findeth life, and shall obtain favour of the LORD. But he that 36 sinneth against me wrongeth his own soul: all they that hate me love death.

Wisdom hath builded her house, she hath hewn out her seven 9 pillars: She hath killed her beasts; she hath mingled her wine; she 2 hath also furnished her table. She hath sent forth her maidens: 3 she crieth upon the highest places of the city, Whoso is simple, 4 let him turn in hither: as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, Come, eat of my bread, and drink of the wine 5 which I have mingled. Forsake the foolish, and live; and go in 6 the way of understanding. He that reproveth a scorner getteth to 7 himself shame: and he that rebuketh a wicked man getteth himself a blot. Reprove not a scorner, lest he hate thee: rebuke a wise 8 9 man, and he will love thee. Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: teach a just man, and he will increase in 10 learning. The fear of the LORD is the beginning of wisdom: and the knowledge of the holy is understanding. For by me thy days 11 shall be multiplied, and the years of thy life shall be increased. If thou be wise, thou shalt be wise for thyself: but if thou scornest, 12 thou alone shalt bear it. A foolish woman is clamorous: she is simple, and knoweth nothing. For she sitteth at the door of her 13 house, on a seat in the high places of the city, To call passengers who go right on their ways: Whoso is simple, let him turn in 14 hither: and as for him that wanteth understanding, she saith to him, Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.

 15 But he knoweth not that the dead are there; and that her guests are in the depths of hell.

10 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son maketh a glad father: but a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother. Treasures of wickedness profit nothing: but righteousness delivereth from death.
 2 The LORD will not suffer the soul of the righteous to famish: but he casteth away the substance of the wicked. He becometh poor that dealeth with a slack hand: but the hand of the diligent maketh rich.
 3 He that gathereth in summer is a wise son: but he that sleepeth in harvest is a son that causeth shame. Blessings are upon the head of the just: but violence covereth the mouth of the wicked.
 4 The memory of the just is blessed: but the name of the wicked shall rot. The wise in heart will receive commandments: but a prating fool shall fall. He that walketh uprightly walketh surely:
 5 but he that perverteth his ways shall be known. He that winketh with the eye causeth sorrow: but a prating fool shall fall. The mouth of a righteous man is a well of life: but violence covereth

 7 of understanding. Wise men lay up knowledge: but the mouth of the foolish is near destruction. The rich man's wealth is his strong city: the destruction of the poor is their poverty. The labour of the righteous tendeth to life: the fruit of the wicked to sin. He is in the way of life that keepeth instruction: but he that 17 he that uttereth a slander, is a fool. In the multitude of words 19 there wanteth not sin: but he that refraineth his lips is wise. The 20 tongue of the just is as choice silver: the heart of the wicked is little worth. The lips of the righteous feed many: but fools die 21 for want of wisdom. The blessing of the LORD, it maketh rich, 22 and he addeth no sorrow with it. It is as sport to a fool to do 23 mischief: but a man of understanding hath wisdom. The fear of 24 the wicked, it shall come upon him: but the desire of the righteous shall be granted. As the whirlwind passeth, so is the wicked no 25 more: but the righteous is an everlasting foundation. As vinegar 26 to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, so is the sluggard to them that send him. The fear of the LORD prolongeth days: but the 27 years of the wicked shall be shortened. The hope of the righteous 28 shall be gladness: but the expectation of the wicked shall perish.

 The way of the LORD is strength to the upright: but destruction 29 shall be to the workers of iniquity. The righteous shall never be 30 removed: but the wicked shall not inhabit the earth. The mouth 31 of the just bringeth forth wisdom: but the froward tongue shall be cut out. The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable: but 32 the mouth of the wicked speaketh frowardness.

A false balance is abomination to the LORD: but a just weight 11 is his delight. When pride cometh, then cometh shame: but with 2 the lowly is wisdom. The integrity of the upright shall guide them: 3 but the perverseness of transgressors shall destroy them. Riches 4 profit not in the day of wrath: but righteousness delivereth from death. The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way: but 5 the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness. The righteousness of 6 the upright shall deliver them: but transgressors shall be taken in their own naughtiness. When a wicked man dieth, his expectation 7 shall perish: and the hope of unjust men perisheth. The righteous 8 is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked cometh in his stead. An 9 hypocrite with his mouth destroyeth his neighbour: but through knowledge shall the just be delivered. When it goeth well with the 10 of the righteous are right: but the counsels of the wicked are deceit. The words of the wicked are to lie in wait for blood: but 6 the mouth of the upright shall deliver them. The wicked are over- 7 thrown, and are not: but the house of the righteous shall stand. A man shall be commended according to his wisdom: but he that 8 is of a perverse heart shall be despised. He that is despised, and 9 hath a servant, is better than he that honoureth himself, and lacketh bread. A righteous man regardeth the life of his beast: but 10 the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel. He that tilleth his land 11 shall be satisfied with bread: but he that followeth vain persons is void of understanding. The wicked desireth the net of evil men: 12 but the root of the righteous yieldeth fruit. The wicked is snared 13 by the transgression of his lips: but the just shall come out of trouble. A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth: 14 and the recompence of a man's hands shall be rendered unto him. The way of a fool is right in his own eyes: but he that hearkeneth 15 unto counsel is wise. A fool's wrath is presently known: but a prudent man covereth shame. He that speaketh truth sheweth forth 17 righteousness: but a false witness deceit. There is that speaketh 18 like the piercings of a sword: but the tongue of the wise is health. The lip of truth shall be established for ever: but a lying tongue 19 is but for a moment. Deceit is in the heart of them that imagine evil: but to the counsellors of peace is joy. There shall no evil 21 happen to the just: but the wicked shall be filled with mischief. Lying lips are abomination to the LORD: but they that deal truly 22 are his delight. A prudent man concealeth knowledge: but the heart of fools proclaimeth foolishness. The hand of the diligent 24 shall bear rule: but the slothful shall be under tribute. Heaviness 25 in the heart of man maketh it stoop: but a good word maketh it glad. The righteous is more excellent than his neighbour: but 26 the way of the wicked seduceth them. The slothful man roasteth 27 not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious. In the way of righteousness is life; and in the 28 pathway thereof there is no death.

A wise son heareth his father's instruction: but a scorner heareth 13

2 not rebuke. A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth: but 3 the soul of the transgressors shall eat violence. He that keep-4 eth his mouth keepeth his life: but he that openeth wide his lips 5 shall have destruction. The soul of the sluggard desireth, and hath 6 nothing: but the soul of the diligent shall be made fat. A righteous 7 man hateth lying: but a wicked man is loathsome, and cometh to 8 shame. Righteousness keepeth him that is upright in the way: but 9 wickedness overthroweth the sinner. There is that maketh himself 10 rich, yet hath nothing: there is that maketh himself poor, yet hath 11 great riches. The ransom of a man's life are his riches: but the 12 poor heareth not rebuke. The light of the righteous rejoiceth: but 13 the lamp of the wicked shall be put out. Only by pride cometh 14 contention: but with the well advised is wisdom. Wealth gotten 15 by vanity shall be diminished: but he that gathereth by labour 16 shall increase. Hope deferred maketh the heart sick: but when 17 the desire cometh, it is a tree of life. Whoso despiseth the word 18 shall be destroyed: but he that feareth the commandment shall be 19 rewarded. The law of the wise is a fountain of life, to depart from 20 the snares of death. Good understanding giveth favour: but the 21 way of transgressors is hard. Every prudent man dealeth with 22 knowledge: but a fool layeth open his folly. A wicked messenger 23 falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health. Poverty 24 and shame shall be to him that refuseth instruction: but he that 25 regardeth reproof shall be honoured. The desire accomplished is 26 sweet to the soul: but it is abomination to fools to depart from 27 evil. He that walketh with wise men shall be wise: but a compan-28 ion of fools shall be destroyed. Evil pursueth sinners: but to the 29 righteous good shall be repayed. A good man leaveth an inheri-30 tance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid 31 up for the just. Much food is in the tillage of the poor: but there 32 is that is destroyed for want of judgment. He that spareth his rod 33 hateth his son: but he that loveth him chasteneth him betimes.
 34 The righteous eateth to the satisfying of his soul: but the belly of 35 the wicked shall want.
 36 Every wise woman buildeth her house: but the foolish plucketh 37 it down with her hands. He that walketh in his uprightness feareth the LORD: but he that is perverse in his ways despiseth him. In 3 the mouth of the foolish is a rod of pride: but the lips of the wise shall preserve them. Where no oxen are, the crib is clean: but 4 much increase is by the strength of the ox. A faithful witness 5 will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies. A scorner seeketh 6 wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth. Go from the presence of a foolish man, when 7 thou perceivest not in him the lips of knowledge. The wisdom 8 of the prudent is to understand his way: but the folly of fools is deceit. Fools make a mock at sin: but among the righteous there 9 is favour. The heart knoweth his own bitterness; and a stranger 10 doth not intermeddle with his joy. The house of the wicked shall 11 be overthrown: but the tabernacle of the upright shall flourish.

There is a way which seemeth right unto a man, but the end thereof 12 are the ways of death. Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; 13 and the end of that mirth is heaviness. The backslider in heart 14 shall be filled with his own ways: and a good man shall be satisfied from himself. The simple believeth every word: but the prudent 15 man looketh well to his going. A wise man feareth, and departeth 16 from evil: but the fool rageth, and is confident. He that is soon 17 angry dealeth foolishly: and a man of wicked devices is hated. The 18 simple inherit folly: but the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
The evil bow before the good; and the wicked at the gates of the 19 righteous. The poor is hated even of his own neighbour: but the 20 rich hath many friends. He that despiseth his neighbour sinneth: 21 but he that hath mercy on the poor, happy is he. Do they not err 22 that devise evil? but mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good. In all labour there is profit: but the talk of the lips tendeth 23 only to penury. The crown of the wise is their riches: but the 24 foolishness of fools is folly. A true witness delivereth souls: but a 25 deceitful witness speaketh lies. In the fear of the LORD is strong 26 confidence: and his children shall have a place of refuge. The 27 fear of the LORD is a fountain of life, to depart from the snares of death. In the multitude of people is the king's honour: but 28 in the want of people is the destruction of the prince. He that 29 is slow to wrath is of great understanding: but he that is hasty of spirit exalteth folly. A sound heart is the life of the flesh: but 30 31 envy the rottenness of the bones. He that oppresseth the poor reproacheth his Maker: but he that honoureth him hath mercy on 32 the poor. The wicked is driven away in his wickedness: but the 33 righteous hath hope in his death. Wisdom resteth in the heart of him that hath understanding: but that which is in the midst 34 of fools is made known. Righteousness exalteth a nation: but sin 35 is a reproach to any people. The king's favour is toward a wise servant: but his wrath is against him that causeth shame.

15 A soft answer turneth away wrath: but grievous words stir up 2 anger. The tongue of the wise useth knowledge aright: but the 3 mouth of fools poureth out foolishness. The eyes of the LORD 4 are in every place, beholding the evil and the good. A wholesome tongue is a tree of life: but perverseness therein is a breach in 5 the spirit. A fool despiseth his father's instruction: but he that 6 regardeth reproof is prudent. In the house of the righteous is 7 much treasure: but in the revenues of the wicked is trouble. The lips of the wise disperse knowledge: but the heart of the foolish 8 doeth not so. The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to the 9 LORD: but the prayer of the upright is his delight. The way of the wicked is an abomination unto the LORD: but he loveth him 10 that followeth after righteousness. Correction is grievous unto him that forsaketh the way: and he that hateth reproof shall die.
 11 Hell and destruction are before the LORD: how much more then 12 the hearts of the children of men? A scorner loveth not one that 13 reproveth him: neither will he go unto the wise. A merry heart maketh a cheerful countenance: but by sorrow of the heart the 14 spirit is broken. The heart of him that hath understanding seeketh 15 knowledge: but the mouth of fools feedeth on foolishness. All the days of the afflicted are evil: but he that is of a merry heart hath 16 a continual feast. Better is little with the fear of the LORD than 17 great treasure and trouble therewith. Better is a dinner of herbs 18 where love is, than a stalled ox and hatred therewith. A wrathful man stirreth up strife: but he that is slow to anger appeaseth 19 strife. The way of the slothful man is as an hedge of thorns: but 20 the way of the righteous is made plain. A wise son maketh a 21 glad father: but a foolish man despiseth his mother. Folly is joy to him that is destitute of wisdom: but a man of understanding walketh uprightly. Without counsel purposes are disappointed: 22 but in the multitude of counsellors they are established. A man 23 hath joy by the answer of his mouth: and a word spoken in due season, how good is it! The way of life is above to the wise, that 24 he may depart from hell beneath. The LORD will destroy the 25 house of the proud: but he will establish the border of the widow. The thoughts of the wicked are an abomination to the LORD: but 26 the words of the pure are pleasant words. He that is greedy of 27 gain troubleth his own house; but he that hateth gifts shall live. The heart of the righteous studieth to answer: but the mouth of 28 the wicked poureth out evil things. The LORD is far from the 29 wicked: but he heareth the prayer of the righteous. The light of 30 the eyes rejoiceth the heart: and a good report maketh the bones fat. The ear that heareth the reproof of life abideth among the 31 wise. He that refuseth instruction despiseth his own soul: but 32 he that heareth reproof getteth understanding. The fear of the 33 LORD is the instruction of wisdom; and before honour is humility.

The preparations of the heart in man, and the answer of the 16 tongue, is from the LORD. All the ways of a man are clean in his 2 own eyes; but the LORD weigheth the spirits. Commit thy works 3 unto the LORD, and thy thoughts shall be established. The LORD 4 hath made all things for himself: yea, even the wicked for the day of evil. Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to the 5 LORD: though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished. By 6 mercy and truth iniquity is purged: and by the fear of the LORD men depart from evil. When a man's ways please the LORD, he 7 maketh even his enemies to be at peace with him. Better is a little 8 with righteousness than great revenues without right. A man's 9 heart deviseth his way: but the LORD directeth his steps. A divine 10 sentence is in the lips of the king: his mouth transgresseth not in judgment. A just weight and balance are the LORD'S: all the 11 weights of the bag are his work. It is an abomination to kings to 12 commit wickedness: for the throne is established by righteousness. Righteous lips are the delight of kings; and they love him that 13

14 speaketh right. The wrath of a king is as messengers of death:
 15 but a wise man will pacify it. In the light of the king's countenance 16 is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain. How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! and to get understanding 17 rather to be chosen than silver! The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: he that keepeth his way preserveth his soul.
 18 Pride goeth before destruction, and an haughty spirit before a fall.
 19 Better it is to be of an humble spirit with the lowly, than to divide 20 the spoil with the proud. He that handleth a matter wisely shall 21 find good: and whoso trusteth in the LORD, happy is he. The wise in heart shall be called prudent: and the sweetness of the lips 22 increaseth learning. Understanding is a wellspring of life unto him 23 that hath it: but the instruction of fools is folly. The heart of the 24 wise teacheth his mouth, and addeth learning to his lips. Pleasant words are as an honeycomb, sweet to the soul, and health to the 25 bones. There is a way that seemeth right unto a man, but the end 26 thereof are the ways of death. He that laboureth laboureth for 27 himself; for his mouth craveth it of him. An ungodly man diggeth 28 up evil: and in his lips there is as a burning fire. A froward man 29 soweth strife: and a whisperer separateth chief friends. A violent man enticeth his neighbour, and leadeth him into the way that is 30 not good. He shutteth his eyes to devise froward things: moving 31 his lips he bringeth evil to pass. The hoary head is a crown of 32 glory, if it be found in the way of righteousness. He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; and he that ruleth his spirit 33 than he that taketh a city. The lot is cast into the lap; but the whole disposing thereof is of the LORD.

17 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness therewith, than an house 2 full of sacrifices with strife. A wise servant shall have rule over a son that causeth shame, and shall have part of the inheritance 3 among the brethren. The fining pot is for silver, and the fur-4 nace for gold: but the LORD trieth the hearts. A wicked doer giveth heed to false lips; and a liar giveth ear to a naughty tongue.
 5 Whoso mocketh the poor reproacheth his Maker: and he that is 6 glad at calamities shall not be unpunished. Children's children are the crown of old men; and the glory of children are their fathers. Excellent speech becometh not a fool: much less do lying 7 lips a prince. A gift is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that 8 hath it: whithersoever it turneth, it prospereth. He that covereth 9 a transgression seeketh love; but he that repeateth a matter separateth very friends. A reproof entereth more into a wise man 10 than an hundred stripes into a fool. An evil man seeketh only 11 rebellion: therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.

 Let a bear robbed of her whelps meet a man, rather than a fool 12 in his folly. Whoso rewardeth evil for good, evil shall not depart 13 from his house. The beginning of strife is as when one letteth out 14 water: therefore leave off contention, before it be meddled with.
 He that justifieth the wicked, and he that condemneth the just, 15 even they both are abomination to the LORD. Wherefore is there 16 a price in the hand of a fool to get wisdom, seeing he hath no heart to it? A friend loveth at all times, and a brother is born for adver- 17 sity. A man void of understanding striketh hands, and becometh 18 surety in the presence of his friend. He loveth transgression that 19 loveth strife: and he that exalteth his gate seeketh destruction.
 He that hath a froward heart findeth no good: and he that hath 20 a perverse tongue falleth into mischief. He that begetteth a fool 21 doeth it to his sorrow: and the father of a fool hath no joy. A 22 merry heart doeth good like a medicine: but a broken spirit dri-eth the bones. A wicked man taketh a gift out of the bosom to 23 pervert the ways of judgment. Wisdom is before him that hath 24 understanding; but the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bare 25 him. Also to punish the just is not good, nor to strike princes 26 for equity. He that hath knowledge spareth his words: and a man 27 of understanding is of an excellent spirit. Even a fool, when he 28 holdeth his peace, is counted wise: and he that shutteth his lips is esteemed a man of understanding.

Through desire a man, having separated himself, seeketh and 18 intermeddleth with all wisdom. A fool hath no delight in under- 2 standing, but that his heart may discover itself. When the wicked 3 cometh, then cometh also contempt, and with ignominy reproach.

4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters, and the well-5 spring of wisdom as a flowing brook. It is not good to accept the 6 person of the wicked, to overthrow the righteous in judgment. A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calleth for strokes.
7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his 8 soul. The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down 9 into the innermost parts of the belly. He also that is slothful in 10 his work is brother to him that is a great waster. The name of the LORD is a strong tower: the righteous runneth into it, and is safe.
11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as an high wall in 12 his own conceit. Before destruction the heart of man is haughty, 13 and before honour is humility. He that answereth a matter be-14 fore he heareth it, it is folly and shame unto him. The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; but a wounded spirit who can bear?
15 The heart of the prudent getteth knowledge; and the ear of the 16 wise seeketh knowledge. A man's gift maketh room for him, and 17 bringeth him before great men. He that is first in his own cause 18 seemeth just; but his neighbour cometh and searcheth him. The lot causeth contentions to cease, and parteth between the mighty.
19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city: and 20 their contentions are like the bars of a castle. A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of 21 his lips shall he be filled. Death and life are in the power of the 22 tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof. Whoso findeth a wife findeth a good thing, and obtaineth favour of the 23 LORD. The poor useth intreaties; but the rich answereth roughly.
24 A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother.

19 Better is the poor that walketh in his integrity, than he that is 2 perverse in his lips, and is a fool. Also, that the soul be without knowledge, it is not good; and he that hasteth with his feet sin-3 neth. The foolishness of man perverteth his way: and his heart 4 fretteth against the LORD. Wealth maketh many friends; but the 5 poor is separated from his neighbour. A false witness shall not 6 be unpunished, and he that speaketh lies shall not escape. Many will intreat the favour of the prince: and every man is a friend to him that giveth gifts. All the brethren of the poor do hate 7 him: how much more do his friends go far from him? he pursueth them with words, yet they are wanting to him. He that getteth 8 wisdom loveth his own soul: he that keepeth understanding shall find good. A false witness shall not be unpunished, and he that 9 speaketh lies shall perish. Delight is not seemly for a fool; much 10 less for a servant to have rule over princes. The discretion of a 11 man deferreth his anger; and it is his glory to pass over a transgression. The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his 12 favour is as dew upon the grass. A foolish son is the calamity of 13 his father: and the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.

House and riches are the inheritance of fathers: and a prudent wife 14 is from the LORD. Slothfulness casteth into a deep sleep; and an 15 idle soul shall suffer hunger. He that keepeth the commandment 16 keepeth his own soul; but he that despiseth his ways shall die.
He that hath pity upon the poor lendeth unto the LORD; and that 17 which he hath given will he pay him again. Chasten thy son while 18 there is hope, and let not thy soul spare for his crying. A man 19 of great wrath shall suffer punishment: for if thou deliver him, yet thou must do it again. Hear counsel, and receive instruction, that 20 thou mayest be wise in thy latter end. There are many devices 21 in a man's heart; nevertheless the counsel of the LORD, that shall stand. The desire of a man is his kindness: and a poor man is 22 better than a liar. The fear of the LORD tendeth to life: and 23 he that hath it shall abide satisfied; he shall not be visited with evil. A slothful man hideth his hand in his bosom, and will not 24 so much as bring it to his mouth again. Smite a scorner, and 25 the simple will beware: and reprove one that hath understanding, and he will understand knowledge. He that wasteth his father, 26 and chaseth away his mother, is a son that causeth shame, and bringeth reproach. Cease, my son, to hear the instruction that 27 causeth to err from the words of knowledge. An ungodly witness 28 scorneth judgment: and the mouth of the wicked devoureth iniquity. Judgments are prepared for scorners, and stripes for the 29 back of fools.

20 Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging: and whosoever is 2 deceived thereby is not wise. The fear of a king is as the roaring of a lion: whoso provoketh him to anger sinneth against his own 3 soul. It is an honour for a man to cease from strife: but every fool 4 will be meddling. The sluggard will not plow by reason of the cold; 5 therefore shall he beg in harvest, and have nothing. Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; but a man of understanding will 6 draw it out. Most men will proclaim every one his own goodness: 7 but a faithful man who can find? The just man walketh in his 8 integrity: his children are blessed after him. A king that sitteth in the throne of judgment scattereth away all evil with his eyes.
 9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my 10 sin? Divers weights, and divers measures, both of them are alike 11 abomination to the LORD. Even a child is known by his doings, 12 whether his work be pure, and whether it be right. The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, the LORD hath made even both of them.
 13 Love not sleep, lest thou come to poverty; open thine eyes, and 14 thou shalt be satisfied with bread. It is naught, it is naught, saith 15 the buyer: but when he is gone his way, then he boasteth. There is gold, and a multitude of rubies: but the lips of knowledge are 16 a precious jewel. Take his garment that is surety for a stranger: 17 and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. Bread of deceit is sweet to a man; but afterwards his mouth shall be filled with 18 gravel. Every purpose is established by counsel: and with good 19 advice make war. He that goeth about as a talebearer revealeth secrets: therefore meddle not with him that flattereth with his lips.
 20 Whoso curseth his father or his mother, his lamp shall be put out 21 in obscure darkness. An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the 22 beginning; but the end thereof shall not be blessed. Say not thou, I will recompense evil; but wait on the LORD, and he shall save 23 thee. Divers weights are an abomination unto the LORD; and a 24 false balance is not good. Man's goings are of the LORD; how can 25 a man then understand his own way? It is a snare to the man who devoureth that which is holy, and after vows to make enquiry.

 27 them. The spirit of man is the candle of the LORD, searching all the inward parts of the belly. Mercy and truth preserve the king: 28 and his throne is upholden by mercy. The glory of young men is 29 their strength: and the beauty of old men is the gray head. The 30 blueness of a wound cleanseth away evil: so do stripes the inward parts of the belly.

The king's heart is in the hand of the LORD, as the rivers of 21 water: he turneth it whithersoever he will. Every way of a man 2 is right in his own eyes: but the LORD pondereth the hearts. To 3 do justice and judgment is more acceptable to the LORD than sacrifice. An high look, and a proud heart, and the plowing of 4 the wicked, is sin. The thoughts of the diligent tend only to 5 plenteousness; but of every one that is hasty only to want. The 6 getting of treasures by a lying tongue is a vanity tossed to and fro of them that seek death. The robbery of the wicked shall 7 destroy them; because they refuse to do judgment. The way of 8 man is froward and strange: but as for the pure, his work is right. It is better to dwell in a corner of the housetop, than 9 with a brawling woman in a wide house. The soul of the wicked 10 desireth evil: his neighbour findeth no favour in his eyes. When 11 the scorner is punished, the simple is made wise: and when the wise is instructed, he receiveth knowledge. The righteous man 12 wisely considereth the house of the wicked: but God overthroweth the wicked for their wickedness. Whoso stoppeth his ears at the 13 cry of the poor, he also shall cry himself, but shall not be heard.
A gift in secret pacifieth anger: and a reward in the bosom strong 14 wrath. It is joy to the just to do judgment: but destruction shall 15 be to the workers of iniquity. The man that wandereth out of 16 the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. He that loveth pleasure shall be a poor man: he that loveth 17 wine and oil shall not be rich. The wicked shall be a ransom for 18 the righteous, and the transgressor for the upright. It is better 19 to dwell in the wilderness, than with a contentious and an angry woman. There is treasure to be desired and oil in the dwelling of 20 the wise; but a foolish man spendeth it up. He that followeth after 21 righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour.

22 A wise man scaleth the city of the mighty, and casteth down the 23 strength of the confidence thereof. Whoso keepeth his mouth and 24 his tongue keepeth his soul from troubles. Proud and haughty 25 scorner is his name, who dealeth in proud wrath. The desire of the 26 slothful killeth him; for his hands refuse to labour. He coveteth greedily all the day long: but the righteous giveth and spareth 27 not. The sacrifice of the wicked is abomination: how much more, 28 when he bringeth it with a wicked mind? A false witness shall 29 perish: but the man that heareth speaketh constantly. A wicked man hardeneth his face: but as for the upright, he directeth his 30 way. There is no wisdom nor understanding nor counsel against 31 the LORD. The horse is prepared against the day of battle: but safety is of the LORD.

22 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, and lov-
 2 ing favour rather than silver and gold. The rich and poor meet 3 together: the LORD is the maker of them all. A prudent man foreseeth the evil, and hideth himself: but the simple pass on, and 4 are punished. By humility and the fear of the LORD are riches, 5 and honour, and life. Thorns and snares are in the way of the 6 froward: he that doth keep his soul shall be far from them. Train up a child in the way he should go: and when he is old, he will 7 not depart from it. The rich ruleth over the poor, and the bor-8 rower is servant to the lender. He that soweth iniquity shall reap 9 vanity: and the rod of his anger shall fail. He that hath a bountiful eye shall be blessed; for he giveth of his bread to the poor.
 10 Cast out the scorner, and contention shall go out; yea, strife and 11 reproach shall cease. He that loveth pureness of heart, for the 12 grace of his lips the king shall be his friend. The eyes of the LORD preserve knowledge, and he overthroweth the words of the 13 transgressor. The slothful man saith, There is a lion without, I 14 shall be slain in the streets. The mouth of strange women is a 15 deep pit: he that is abhorred of the LORD shall fall therein. Foolishness is bound in the heart of a child; but the rod of correction crease his riches, and he that giveth to the rich, shall surely come to want. Bow down thine ear, and hear the words of the wise, and 17 apply thine heart unto my knowledge. For it is a pleasant thing 18 if thou keep them within thee; they shall withal be fitted in thy lips. That thy trust may be in the LORD, I have made known to 19 thee this day, even to thee. Have not I written to thee excellent 20 things in counsels and knowledge, That I might make thee know 21 the certainty of the words of truth; that thou mightest answer the words of truth to them that send unto thee? Rob not the poor, 22 because he is poor: neither oppress the afflicted in the gate: For 23 the LORD will plead their cause, and spoil the soul of those that spoiled them. Make no friendship with an angry man; and with a 24 furious man thou shalt not go: Lest thou learn his ways, and get 25 a snare to thy soul. Be not thou one of them that strike hands, or 26 of them that are sureties for debts. If thou hast nothing to pay, 27 why should he take away thy bed from under thee? Remove not 28 the ancient landmark, which thy fathers have set. Seest thou a 29 man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; he shall not stand before mean men.

When thou sittest to eat with a ruler, consider diligently what 23 is before thee: And put a knife to thy throat, if thou be a man 2 given to appetite. Be not desirous of his dainties: for they are 3 deceitful meat. Labour not to be rich: cease from thine own 4 wisdom. Wilt thou set thine eyes upon that which is not? for 5 riches certainly make themselves wings; they fly away as an eagle toward heaven. Eat thou not the bread of him that hath an evil 6 eye, neither desire thou his dainty meats: For as he thinketh in 7 his heart, so is he: Eat and drink, saith he to thee; but his heart is not with thee. The morsel which thou hast eaten shalt thou 8 vomit up, and lose thy sweet words. Speak not in the ears of a 9 fool: for he will despise the wisdom of thy words. Remove not 10 the old landmark; and enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
For their redeemer is mighty; he shall plead their cause with thee. 11 Apply thine heart unto instruction, and thine ears to the words of 12 knowledge. Withhold not correction from the child: for if thou 13

14 beatest him with the rod, he shall not die. Thou shalt beat him 15 with the rod, and shalt deliver his soul from hell. My son, if 16 thine heart be wise, my heart shall rejoice, even mine. Yea, my 17 reins shall rejoice, when thy lips speak right things. Let not thine heart envy sinners: but be thou in the fear of the LORD all the day 18 long. For surely there is an end; and thine expectation shall not 19 be cut off. Hear thou, my son, and be wise, and guide thine heart 20 in the way. Be not among winebibbers; among riotous eaters of 21 flesh: For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty: 22 and drowsiness shall clothe a man with rags. Hearken unto thy father that begat thee, and despise not thy mother when she is old.
 23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; also wisdom, and instruction, and 24 understanding. The father of the righteous shall greatly rejoice: 25 and he that begetteth a wise child shall have joy of him. Thy father and thy mother shall be glad, and she that bare thee shall 26 rejoice. My son, give me thine heart, and let thine eyes observe 27 my ways. For a whore is a deep ditch; and a strange woman is 28 a narrow pit. She also lieth in wait as for a prey, and increaseth 29 the transgressors among men. Who hath woe? who hath sorrow? who hath contentions? who hath babbling? who hath wounds 30 without cause? who hath redness of eyes? They that tarry long 31 at the wine; they that go to seek mixed wine. Look not thou upon the wine when it is red, when it giveth his colour in the cup, when 32 it moveth itself aright. At the last it biteth like a serpent, and 33 stingeth like an adder. Thine eyes shall behold strange women, 34 and thine heart shall utter perverse things. Yea, thou shalt be as he that lieth down in the midst of the sea, or as he that lieth upon 35 the top of a mast. They have stricken me, shalt thou say, and I was not sick; they have beaten me, and I felt it not: when shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

24 Be not thou envious against evil men, neither desire to be with 2 them. For their heart studieth destruction, and their lips talk of 3 mischief. Through wisdom is an house builded; and by under-4 standing it is established: And by knowledge shall the chambers 5 be filled with all precious and pleasant riches. A wise man is strong; yea, a man of knowledge increaseth strength. For by wise counsel thou shalt make thy war: and in multitude of counsellors there is safety. Wisdom is too high for a fool: he openeth not his mouth in the gate. He that deviseth to do evil shall be called a mischievous person. The thought of foolishness is sin: and the scorner is an abomination to men. If thou faint in the day of adversity, thy strength is small. If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain; If thou sayest, Behold, we knew it not; doth not he that pondereth the heart consider it? and he that keepeth thy soul, doth not he know it? and shall not he render to every man according to his works? My son, eat thou honey, because it is good; and the honeycomb, which is sweet to thy taste: So shall the knowledge of wisdom be unto thy soul: when thou hast found it, then there shall be a reward, and thy expectation shall not be cut off. Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the dwelling of the righteous; spoil not his resting place: For a just man falleth seven times, and riseth up again: but the wicked shall fall into mischief. Rejoice not when thine enemy falleth, and let not thine heart be glad when he stumbleth: Lest the LORD see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him. Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked; For there shall be no reward to the evil man; the candle of the wicked shall be put out. My son, fear thou the LORD and the king: and meddle not with them that are given to change: For their calamity shall rise suddenly; and who knoweth the ruin of them both? These things also belong to the wise. It is not good to have respect of persons in judgment. He that saith unto the wicked, Thou art righteous; him shall the people curse, nations shall abhor him: But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them. Every man shall kiss his lips that giveth a right answer. Prepare thy work without, and make it fit for thyself in the field; and afterwards build thine house. Be not a witness against thy neighbour without cause; and deceive not with thy lips. Say not, I will do so to him as he hath done to me: I will render to 30 the man according to his work. I went by the field of the slothful, 31 and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding; And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, and nettles had covered the face 32 thereof, and the stone wall thereof was broken down. Then I saw, and considered it well: I looked upon it, and received instruction.

 33 Yet a little sleep, a little slumber, a little folding of the hands to 34 sleep: So shall thy poverty come as one that travelleth; and thy want as an armed man.

25 These are also proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah 2 king of Judah copied out. It is the glory of God to conceal a 3 thing: but the honour of kings is to search out a matter. The heaven for height, and the earth for depth, and the heart of kings 4 is unsearchable. Take away the dross from the silver, and there 5 shall come forth a vessel for the finer. Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.
 6 Put not forth thyself in the presence of the king, and stand not in 7 the place of great men: For better it is that it be said unto thee, Come up hither; than that thou shouldest be put lower in the 8 presence of the prince whom thine eyes have seen. Go not forth hastily to strive, lest thou know not what to do in the end thereof, 9 when thy neighbour hath put thee to shame. Debate thy cause with thy neighbour himself; and discover not a secret to another: 10 Lest he that heareth it put thee to shame, and thine infamy turn 11 not away. A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in pictures 12 of silver. As an earring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so 13 is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear. As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to them that send 14 him: for he refresheth the soul of his masters. Whoso boasteth 15 himself of a false gift is like clouds and wind without rain. By long forbearing is a prince persuaded, and a soft tongue breaketh 16 the bone. Hast thou found honey? eat so much as is sufficient 17 for thee, lest thou be filled therewith, and vomit it. Withdraw thy foot from thy neighbour's house; lest he be weary of thee, 18 and so hate thee. A man that beareth false witness against his 19 neighbour is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow. Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint. As he that taketh away a garment in cold 20 weather, and as vinegar upon nitre, so is he that singeth songs to an heavy heart. If thine enemy be hungry, give him bread to 21 eat; and if he be thirsty, give him water to drink: For thou shalt 22 heap coals of fire upon his head, and the LORD shall reward thee.

 The north wind driveth away rain: so doth an angry countenance 23 a backbiting tongue. It is better to dwell in the corner of the 24 housetop, than with a brawling woman and in a wide house. As 25 cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
 A righteous man falling down before the wicked is as a troubled 26 fountain, and a corrupt spring. It is not good to eat much honey: 27 so for men to search their own glory is not glory. He that hath 28 no rule over his own spirit is like a city that is broken down, and without walls.

As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, so honour is not 26 seemly for a fool. As the bird by wandering, as the swallow by 2 flying, so the curse causeless shall not come. A whip for the horse, 3 a bridle for the ass, and a rod for the fool's back. Answer not a 4 fool according to his folly, lest thou also be like unto him. Answer 5 a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit. He 6 that sendeth a message by the hand of a fool cutteth off the feet, and drinketh damage. The legs of the lame are not equal: so is 7 a parable in the mouth of fools. As he that bindeth a stone in a 8 sling, so is he that giveth honour to a fool. As a thorn goeth up 9 into the hand of a drunkard, so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
 The great God that formed all things both rewardeth the fool, and 10 rewardeth transgressors. As a dog returneth to his vomit, so a fool 11 returneth to his folly. Seest thou a man wise in his own conceit? 12 there is more hope of a fool than of him. The slothful man saith, 13
There is a lion in the way; a lion is in the streets. As the door 14 turneth upon his hinges, so doth the slothful upon his bed. The 15 slothful hideth his hand in his bosom; it grieveth him to bring it again to his mouth. The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit than 16 17 seven men that can render a reason. He that passeth by, and meddleth with strife belonging not to him, is like one that taketh 18 a dog by the ears. As a mad man who casteth firebrands, arrows, 19 and death, So is the man that deceiveth his neighbour, and saith, 20 Am not I in sport? Where no wood is, there the fire goeth out: 21 so where there is no talebearer, the strife ceaseth. As coals are to burning coals, and wood to fire; so is a contentious man to kindle 22 strife. The words of a talebearer are as wounds, and they go down 23 into the innermost parts of the belly. Burning lips and a wicked 24 heart are like a potsherd covered with silver dross. He that hateth 25 dissembleth with his lips, and layeth up deceit within him; When he speaketh fair, believe him not: for there are seven abominations 26 in his heart. Whose hatred is covered by deceit, his wickedness 27 shall be shewed before the whole congregation. Whoso diggeth a pit shall fall therein: and he that rolleth a stone, it will return 28 upon him. A lying tongue hateth those that are afflicted by it; and a flattering mouth worketh ruin.

27 Boast not thyself of to morrow; for thou knowest not what a 2 day may bring forth. Let another man praise thee, and not thine 3 own mouth; a stranger, and not thine own lips. A stone is heavy, and the sand weighty; but a fool's wrath is heavier than them 4 both. Wrath is cruel, and anger is outrageous; but who is able 5 to stand before envy? Open rebuke is better than secret love.
 6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are 7 deceitful. The full soul loatheth an honeycomb; but to the hungry 8 soul every bitter thing is sweet. As a bird that wandereth from her 9 nest, so is a man that wandereth from his place. Ointment and perfume rejoice the heart: so doth the sweetness of a man's friend 10 by hearty counsel. Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far 11 off. My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, that I may answer hideth himself; but the simple pass on, and are punished. Take his 13 garment that is surety for a stranger, and take a pledge of him for a strange woman. He that blesseth his friend with a loud voice, 14 rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him. A 15 continual dropping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman are alike. Whosoever hideth her hideth the wind, and the ointment 16 of his right hand, which bewrayeth itself. Iron sharpeneth iron; so 17 a man sharpeneth the countenance of his friend. Whoso keepeth 18 the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof: so he that waiteth on his master shall be honoured. As in water face answereth to face, so 19 the heart of man to man. Hell and destruction are never full; so 20 the eyes of man are never satisfied. As the fining pot for silver, 21 and the furnace for gold; so is a man to his praise. Though thou 22 shouldest bray a fool in a mortar among wheat with a pestle, yet will not his foolishness depart from him. Be thou diligent to know 23 the state of thy flocks, and look well to thy herds. For riches are 24 not for ever: and doth the crown endure to every generation? The 25 hay appeareth, and the tender grass sheweth itself, and herbs of the mountains are gathered. The lambs are for thy clothing, and 26 the goats are the price of the field. And thou shalt have goats' 27 milk enough for thy food, for the food of thy household, and for the maintenance for thy maidens.

The wicked flee when no man pursueth: but the righteous are 28 bold as a lion. For the transgression of a land many are the princes 2 thereof: but by a man of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged. A poor man that oppresseth the poor 3 is like a sweeping rain which leaveth no food. They that forsake 4 the law praise the wicked: but such as keep the law contend with them. Evil men understand not judgment: but they that seek the 5 LORD understand all things. Better is the poor that walketh in 6 his uprightness, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich. Whoso keepeth the law is a wise son: but he that is a 7 companion of riotous men shameth his father. He that by usury 8 and unjust gain increaseth his substance, he shall gather it for him that will pity the poor. He that turneth away his ear from hearing 9 10 the law, even his prayer shall be abomination. Whoso causeth the righteous to go astray in an evil way, he shall fall himself into his own pit: but the upright shall have good things in possession.

 11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that hath 12 understanding searcheth him out. When righteous men do rejoice, 13 there is great glory: but when the wicked rise, a man is hidden. He that covereth his sins shall not prosper: but whoso confesseth and 14 forsaketh them shall have mercy. Happy is the man that feareth 15 alway: but he that hardeneth his heart shall fall into mischief. As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear; so is a wicked ruler over the 16 poor people. The prince that wanteth understanding is also a great oppressor: but he that hateth covetousness shall prolong his 17 days. A man that doeth violence to the blood of any person shall 18 flee to the pit; let no man stay him. Whoso walketh uprightly shall be saved: but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at 19 once. He that tilleth his land shall have plenty of bread: but 20 he that followeth after vain persons shall have poverty enough. A faithful man shall abound with blessings: but he that maketh haste 21 to be rich shall not be innocent. To have respect of persons is not 22 good: for for a piece of bread that man will transgress. He that hasteth to be rich hath an evil eye, and considereth not that poverty 23 shall come upon him. He that rebuketh a man afterwards shall 24 find more favour than he that flattereth with the tongue. Whoso robbeth his father or his mother, and saith, It is no transgression; 25 the same is the companion of a destroyer. He that is of a proud heart stirreth up strife: but he that putteth his trust in the LORD 26 shall be made fat. He that trusteth in his own heart is a fool: 27 but whoso walketh wisely, he shall be delivered. He that giveth unto the poor shall not lack: but he that hideth his eyes shall have 28 many a curse. When the wicked rise, men hide themselves: but when they perish, the righteous increase.
 29 He, that being often reprov'd hardeneth his neck, shall suddenly 2 be destroyed, and that without remedy. When the righteous are in authority, the people rejoice: but when the wicked beareth rule, the 3 people mourn. Whoso loveth wisdom rejoiceth his father: but he king by judgment establisheth the land: but he that receiveth gifts overthroweth it. A man that flattereth his neighbour spreadeth 5 a net for his feet. In the transgression of an evil man there is 6 a snare: but the righteous doth sing and rejoice. The righteous 7 considereth the cause of the poor: but the wicked regardeth not to know it. Scornful men bring a city into a snare: but wise 8 men turn away wrath. If a wise man contendeth with a foolish 9 man, whether he rage or laugh, there is no rest. The bloodthirsty 10 hate the upright: but the just seek his soul. A fool uttereth 11 all his mind: but a wise man keepeth it in till afterwards. If a 12 ruler hearken to lies, all his servants are wicked. The poor and 13 the deceitful man meet together: the LORD lighteneth both their eyes. The king that faithfully judgeth the poor, his throne shall 14 be established for ever. The rod and reproof give wisdom: but 15 a child left to himself bringeth his mother to shame. When the 16 wicked are multiplied, transgression increaseth: but the righteous shall see their fall. Correct thy son, and he shall give thee rest; 17 yea, he shall give delight unto thy soul. Where there is no vision, 18 the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he. A 19 servant will not be corrected by words: for though he understand he will not answer. Seest thou a man that is hasty in his words? 20 there is more hope of a fool than of him. He that delicately 21 bringeth up his servant from a child shall have him become his son at the length. An angry man stirreth up strife, and a furious man 22 aboundeth in transgression. A man's pride shall bring him low: 23 but honour shall uphold the humble in spirit. Whoso is partner 24 with a thief hateth his own soul: he heareth cursing, and bewrayeth it not. The fear of man bringeth a snare: but whoso putteth his 25 trust in the LORD shall be safe. Many seek the ruler's favour; but 26 every man's judgment cometh from the LORD. An unjust man is 27 an abomination to the just: and he that is upright in the way is abomination to the wicked.

7 thou be found a liar. Two things have I required of thee; deny 8 me them not before I die: Remove far from me vanity and lies: give me neither poverty nor riches; feed me with food convenient 9 for me: Lest I be full, and deny thee, and say, Who is the LORD? or lest I be poor, and steal, and take the name of my God in vain.
10 Accuse not a servant unto his master, lest he curse thee, and thou 11 be found guilty. There is a generation that curseth their father,

13 There is a generation, O how lofty are their eyes! and their eyelids 14 are lifted up. There is a generation, whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, to devour the poor from off the 15 earth, and the needy from among men. The horseleach hath two daughters, crying, Give, give. There are three things that are never

21 and wipeth her mouth, and saith, I have done no wickedness. For three things the earth is disquieted, and for four which it cannot 22 bear: For a servant when he reigneth; and a fool when he is filled

The words of king Lemuel, the prophecy that his mother taught 31 him. What, my son? and what, the son of my womb? and what, 2 the son of my vows? Give not thy strength unto women, nor thy 3 ways to that which destroyeth kings. It is not for kings, O Lemuel, 4 it is not for kings to drink wine; nor for princes strong drink: Lest 5 they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the judgment of any of the afflicted. Give strong drink unto him that is ready to perish, 6 and wine unto those that be of heavy hearts. Let him drink, and 7 forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more. Open thy 8 mouth for the dumb in the cause of all such as are appointed to destruction. Open thy mouth, judge righteously, and plead the 9 cause of the poor and needy. Who can find a virtuous woman? 10 for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth 11 safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She 12 will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She seeketh 13 wool, and flax, and worketh willingly with her hands. She is like 14 the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth 15 also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it: 16 with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth 17 her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She per- 18 ceiveth that her merchandise is good: her candle goeth not out by night. She layeth her hands to the spindle, and her hands hold the 19 distaff. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth 20

ECCLESIASTES; OR, THE PREACHER.

 he words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Je- 1 rusalem. Vanity of vanities, saith the Preacher, vanity 2 of vanities; all is vanity. What profit hath a man of all 3 his labour which he taketh under the sun? One genera- 4 tion passeth away, and another generation cometh: but the earth abideth for ever. The sun also ariseth, and the sun goeth down, 5 and hasteth to his place where he arose. The wind goeth toward 6 the south, and turneth about unto the north; it whirleth about continually, and the wind returneth again according to his circuits.
All the rivers run into the sea; yet the sea is not full; unto the place 7 from whence the rivers come, thither they return again. All things 8 are full of labour; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing. The thing that hath been, 9 it is that which shall be; and that which is done is that which shall be done: and there is no new thing under the sun. Is there any 10 thing whereof it may be said, See, this is new? it hath been already of old time, which was before us. There is no remembrance 11 of former things; neither shall there be any remembrance of things that are to come with those that shall come after. I the Preacher 12 was king over Israel in Jerusalem. And I gave my heart to seek 13 and search out by wisdom concerning all things that are done under heaven: this sore travail hath God given to the sons of man to be exercised therewith. I have seen all the works that are done 14 under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit.
That which is crooked cannot be made straight: and that which is 15 wanting cannot be numbered. I communed with mine own heart, 16 saying, Lo, I am come to great estate, and have gotten more wisdom than all they that have been before me in Jerusalem: yea, 17 my heart had great experience of wisdom and knowledge. And I gave my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly: I 18 perceived that this also is vexation of spirit. For in much wisdom is much grief: and he that increaseth knowledge increaseth sorrow.

 2 I said in mine heart, Go to now, I will prove thee with mirth,
 2 therefore enjoy pleasure: and, behold, this also is vanity. I said 3 of laughter, It is mad: and of mirth, What doeth it? I sought in mine heart to give myself unto wine, yet acquainting mine heart with wisdom; and to lay hold on folly, till I might see what was that good for the sons of men, which they should do under the heaven 4 all the days of their life. I made me great works; I builded me 5 houses; I planted me vineyards: I made me gardens and orchards, 6 and I planted trees in them of all kind of fruits: I made me pools 7 of water, to water therewith the wood that bringeth forth trees: I got me servants and maidens, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of great and small cattle above all 8 that were in Jerusalem before me: I gathered me also silver and gold, and the peculiar treasure of kings and of the provinces: I gat me men singers and women singers, and the delights of the sons of 9 men, as musical instruments, and that of all sorts. So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also 10 my wisdom remained with me. And whatsoever mine eyes desired I kept not from them, I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced in all my labour: and this was my portion of 11 all my labour. Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labour that I had laboured to do: and, behold, all was vanity and vexation of spirit, and there was no 12 profit under the sun. And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that cometh after the 13 king? even that which hath been already done. Then I saw that 14 wisdom excelleth folly, as far as light excelleth darkness. The wise man's eyes are in his head; but the fool walketh in darkness: and I 15 myself perceived also that one event happeneth to them all. Then said I in my heart, As it happeneth to the fool, so it happeneth even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, that this also is vanity. For there is no remembrance of 16 the wise more than of the fool for ever; seeing that which now is in the days to come shall all be forgotten. And how dieth the wise man? as the fool. Therefore I hated life; because the work that is 17 wrought under the sun is grievous unto me: for all is vanity and vexation of spirit. Yea, I hated all my labour which I had taken 18 under the sun: because I should leave it unto the man that shall be after me. And who knoweth whether he shall be a wise man 19 or a fool? yet shall he have rule over all my labour wherein I have laboured, and wherein I have shewed myself wise under the sun. This is also vanity. Therefore I went about to cause my heart to 20 despair of all the labour which I took under the sun. For there is a 21 man whose labour is in wisdom, and in knowledge, and in equity; yet to a man that hath not laboured therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil. For what hath 22 man of all his labour, and of the vexation of his heart, wherein he hath laboured under the sun? For all his days are sorrows, and 23 his travail grief; yea, his heart taketh not rest in the night. This is also vanity. There is nothing better for a man, than that he 24 should eat and drink, and that he should make his soul enjoy good in his labour. This also I saw, that it was from the hand of God. For who can eat, or who else can hasten hereunto, more than I? 25 For God giveth to a man that is good in his sight wisdom, and 26 knowledge, and joy: but to the sinner he giveth travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that is good before God. This also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose 3 under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to die; a time 2 to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; A time 3 to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up; A time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, 4 and a time to dance; A time to cast away stones, and a time to 5 gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing; A time to get, and a time to lose; a time to keep, 6 and a time to cast away; A time to rend, and a time to sew; a 7

8 time to keep silence, and a time to speak; A time to love, and a 9 time to hate; a time of war, and a time of peace. What profit hath 10 he that worketh in that wherein he laboureth? I have seen the travail, which God hath given to the sons of men to be exercised in 11 it. He hath made every thing beautiful in his time: also he hath set the world in their heart, so that no man can find out the work 12 that God maketh from the beginning to the end. I know that there is no good in them, but for a man to rejoice, and to do good 13 in his life. And also that every man should eat and drink, and 14 enjoy the good of all his labour, it is the gift of God. I know that, whatsoever God doeth, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor any thing taken from it: and God doeth it, that men should 15 fear before him. That which hath been is now; and that which is to be hath already been; and God requireth that which is past.
 16 And moreover I saw under the sun the place of judgment, that wickedness was there; and the place of righteousness, that iniquity 17 was there. I said in mine heart, God shall judge the righteous and the wicked: for there is a time there for every purpose and for 18 every work. I said in mine heart concerning the estate of the sons of men, that God might manifest them, and that they might see 19 that they themselves are beasts. For that which befalleth the sons of men befalleth beasts; even one thing befalleth them: as the one dieth, so dieth the other; yea, they have all one breath; so that a 20 man hath no preeminence above a beast: for all is vanity. All go 21 unto one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again. Who knoweth the spirit of man that goeth upward, and the spirit of the 22 beast that goeth downward to the earth? Wherefore I perceive that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his own works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him to see what shall be after him?

4 So I returned, and considered all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and behold the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors 2 there was power; but they had no comforter. Wherefore I praised the dead which are already dead more than the living which are 3 yet alive. Yea, better is he than both they, which hath not yet been, who hath not seen the evil work that is done under the sun. Again, I considered all travail, and every right work, that for this 4 a man is envied of his neighbour. This is also vanity and vexation of spirit. The fool foldeth his hands together, and eateth his own 5 flesh. Better is an handful with quietness, than both the hands 6 full with travail and vexation of spirit. Then I returned, and I 7 saw vanity under the sun. There is one alone, and there is not 8 a second; yea, he hath neither child nor brother: yet is there no end of all his labour; neither is his eye satisfied with riches; neither 9 saith he, For whom do I labour, and bereave my soul of good? This is also vanity, yea, it is a sore travail. Two are better than one; 9 because they have a good reward for their labour. For if they 10 fall, the one will lift up his fellow: but woe to him that is alone when he falleth; for he hath not another to help him up. Again, 11 if two lie together, then they have heat: but how can one be warm alone? And if one prevail against him, two shall withstand him; 12 and a threefold cord is not quickly broken. Better is a poor and 13 a wise child than an old and foolish king, who will no more be admonished. For out of prison he cometh to reign; whereas also 14 he that is born in his kingdom becometh poor. I considered all 15 the living which walk under the sun, with the second child that shall stand up in his stead. There is no end of all the people, 16 even of all that have been before them: they also that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and vexation of spirit.

Keep thy foot when thou goest to the house of God, and be 5 more ready to hear, than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they consider not that they do evil. Be not rash with thy mouth, and 2 let not thine heart be hasty to utter any thing before God: for God is in heaven, and thou upon earth: therefore let thy words be few. For a dream cometh through the multitude of business; and a 3 fool's voice is known by multitude of words. When thou vowest a 4 vow unto God, defer not to pay it; for he hath no pleasure in fools: pay that which thou hast vowed. Better is it that thou shouldest 5 not vow, than that thou shouldest vow and not pay. Suffer not 6 thy mouth to cause thy flesh to sin; neither say thou before the angel, that it was an error: wherefore should God be angry at thy

7 voice, and destroy the work of thine hands? For in the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear 8 thou God. If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and 9 there be higher than they. Moreover the profit of the earth is for 10 all: the king himself is served by the field. He that loveth silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance 11 with increase: this is also vanity. When goods increase, they are increased that eat them: and what good is there to the owners 12 thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes? The sleep of a labouring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much: but 13 the abundance of the rich will not suffer him to sleep. There is a sore evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept for 14 the owners thereof to their hurt. But those riches perish by evil travail: and he begetteth a son, and there is nothing in his hand.
15 As he came forth of his mother's womb, naked shall he return to go as he came, and shall take nothing of his labour, which he may 16 carry away in his hand. And this also is a sore evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit hath he that hath 17 laboured for the wind? All his days also he eateth in darkness, 18 and he hath much sorrow and wrath with his sickness. Behold that which I have seen: it is good and comely for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy the good of all his labour that he taketh under the sun all the days of his life, which God giveth him: for 19 it is his portion. Every man also to whom God hath given riches and wealth, and hath given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labour; this is the gift of God.
20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answereth him in the joy of his heart.

6 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is 2 common among men: A man to whom God hath given riches, wealth, and honour, so that he wanteth nothing for his soul of all that he desireth, yet God giveth him not power to eat thereof, but 3 a stranger eateth it: this is vanity, and it is an evil disease. If a man beget an hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years be many, and his soul be not filled with good, and also that he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he. For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, 4 and his name shall be covered with darkness. Moreover he hath 5 not seen the sun, nor known any thing: this hath more rest than the other. Yea, though he live a thousand years twice told, yet 6 hath he seen no good: do not all go to one place? All the labour 7 of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled. For 8 what hath the wise more than the fool? what hath the poor, that knoweth to walk before the living? Better is the sight of the eyes 9 than the wandering of the desire: this is also vanity and vexation of spirit. That which hath been is named already, and it is known 10 that it is man: neither may he contend with him that is mightier than he. Seeing there be many things that increase vanity, what 11 is man the better? For who knoweth what is good for man in this 12 life, all the days of his vain life which he spendeth as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

A good name is better than precious ointment; and the day of 7 death than the day of one's birth. It is better to go to the house 2 of mourning, than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart. Sorrow is 3 better than laughter: for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made better. The heart of the wise is in the house of 4 mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth. It is 5 better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools. For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is 6 the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity. Surely oppression 7 maketh a wise man mad; and a gift destroyeth the heart. Better 8 is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof: and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit. Be not hasty in thy 9 spirit to be angry: for anger resteth in the bosom of fools. Say 10 not thou, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for thou dost not enquire wisely concerning this. Wisdom 11 is good with an inheritance: and by it there is profit to them that see the sun. For wisdom is a defence, and money is a defence: 12 but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom giveth life to them

13 that have it. Consider the work of God: for who can make that 14 straight, which he hath made crooked? In the day of prosperity be joyful, but in the day of adversity consider: God also hath set the one over against the other, to the end that man should find 15 nothing after him. All things have I seen in the days of my vanity: there is a just man that perisheth in his righteousness, and there 16 is a wicked man that longeth his life in his wickedness. Be not righteous over much; neither make thyself over wise: why shouldest 17 thou destroy thyself? Be not over much wicked, neither be thou 18 foolish: why shouldest thou die before thy time? It is good that thou shouldest take hold of this; yea, also from this withdraw not thine hand: for he that feareth God shall come forth of them all.
 19 Wisdom strengtheneth the wise more than ten mighty men which 20 are in the city. For there is not a just man upon earth, that doeth 21 good, and sinneth not. Also take no heed unto all words that 22 are spoken; lest thou hear thy servant curse thee: For oftentimes also thine own heart knoweth that thou thyself likewise hast cursed 23 others. All this have I proved by wisdom: I said, I will be wise; 24 but it was far from me. That which is far off, and exceeding deep, 25 who can find it out? I applied mine heart to know, and to search, and to seek out wisdom, and the reason of things, and to know 26 the wickedness of folly, even of foolishness and madness: And I find more bitter than death the woman, whose heart is snares and nets, and her hands as bands: whoso pleaseth God shall escape 27 from her; but the sinner shall be taken by her. Behold, this have I found, saith the preacher, counting one by one, to find out the 28 account: Which yet my soul seeketh, but I find not: one man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those 29 have I not found. Lo, this only have I found, that God hath made man upright; but they have sought out many inventions.

8 Who is as the wise man? and who knoweth the interpretation of a thing? a man's wisdom maketh his face to shine, and the 2 boldness of his face shall be changed. I counsel thee to keep the 3 king's commandment, and that in regard of the oath of God. Be not hasty to go out of his sight: stand not in an evil thing; for he doeth whatsoever pleaseth him. Where the word of a king is, 4 there is power: and who may say unto him, What doest thou?

 Whoso keepeth the commandment shall feel no evil thing: and a 5 wise man's heart discerneth both time and judgment. Because to 6 every purpose there is time and judgment, therefore the misery of man is great upon him. For he knoweth not that which shall be: 7 for who can tell him when it shall be? There is no man that hath 8 power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither hath he power in the day of death: and there is no discharge in that war; neither shall wickedness deliver those that are given to it. All this have 9 I seen, and applied my heart unto every work that is done under the sun: there is a time wherein one man ruleth over another to his own hurt. And so I saw the wicked buried, who had come and 10 gone from the place of the holy, and they were forgotten in the city where they had so done: this is also vanity. Because sentence 11 against an evil work is not executed speedily, therefore the heart of the sons of men is fully set in them to do evil. Though a sinner 12 do evil an hundred times, and his days be prolonged, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, which fear before him: But it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall 13 he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he feareth not before God. There is a vanity which is done upon the earth; that 14 there be just men, unto whom it happeneth according to the work of the wicked; again, there be wicked men, to whom it happeneth according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity. Then I commended mirth, because a man hath no better 15 thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be merry: for that shall abide with him of his labour the days of his life, which God giveth him under the sun. When I applied mine heart to 16 know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth: (for also there is that neither day nor night seeth sleep with his eyes:) Then I beheld all the work of God, that a man cannot find 17 out the work that is done under the sun: because though a man labour to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yea further; though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

For all this I considered in my heart even to declare all this, 9 that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand

v.5 shall...: Heb. shall know. v.7 when...: or, how it shall be?. v.8 discharge: or, casting off weapons.

of God: no man knoweth either love or hatred by all that is before 2 them. All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous, and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean, and to the unclean; to him that sacrificeth, and to him that sacrificeth not: as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that sweareth, as he 3 that feareth an oath. This is an evil among all things that are done under the sun, that there is one event unto all: yea, also the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their 4 heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead. For to him that is joined to all the living there is hope: for a living dog is 5 better than a dead lion. For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not any thing, neither have they any more a 6 reward; for the memory of them is forgotten. Also their love, and their hatred, and their envy, is now perished; neither have they any more a portion for ever in any thing that is done under the sun.
7 Go thy way, eat thy bread with joy, and drink thy wine with a 8 merry heart; for God now accepteth thy works. Let thy garments 9 be always white; and let thy head lack no ointment. Live joyfully with the wife whom thou lovest all the days of the life of thy vanity, which he hath given thee under the sun, all the days of thy vanity:
for that is thy portion in this life, and in thy labour which thou 10 takest under the sun. Whatsoever thy hand findeth to do, do it with thy might; for there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, 11 nor wisdom, in the grave, whither thou goest. I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance 12 happeneth to them all. For man also knoweth not his time: as the fishes that are taken in an evil net, and as the birds that are caught in the snare; so are the sons of men snared in an evil time, 13 when it falleth suddenly upon them. This wisdom have I seen also 14 under the sun, and it seemed great unto me: There was a little city, and few men within it; and there came a great king against 15 it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it: Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom delivered 16 the city; yet no man remembered that same poor man. Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's 17 wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard. The words of

9. v.1 I considered....: Heb. I gave, or, set to my heart. v.9 Live....: Heb. See, or, Enjoy life.

wise men are heard in quiet more than the cry of him that ruleth among fools. Wisdom is better than weapons of war: but one 18 sinner destroyeth much good.

Dead flies cause the ointment of the apothecary to send forth a 10 stinking savour: so doth a little folly him that is in reputation for wisdom and honour. A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but 2 a fool's heart at his left. Yea also, when he that is a fool walketh 3 by the way, his wisdom faileth him, and he saith to every one that he is a fool. If the spirit of the ruler rise up against thee, leave 4 not thy place; for yielding pacifieth great offences. There is an 5 evil which I have seen under the sun, as an error which proceedeth from the ruler: Folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in low 6 place. I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking as 7 servants upon the earth. He that diggeth a pit shall fall into it; 8 and whoso breaketh an hedge, a serpent shall bite him. Whoso removeth stones shall be hurt therewith; and he that cleaveth wood shall be endangered thereby. If the iron be blunt, and he do not 10 whet the edge, then must he put to more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct. Surely the serpent will bite without en- 11 chantment; and a babbler is no better. The words of a wise man's 12 mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself. The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness: and 13 the end of his talk is mischievous madness. A fool also is full of 14 words: a man cannot tell what shall be; and what shall be after him, who can tell him? The labour of the foolish wearieth every 15 one of them, because he knoweth not how to go to the city. Woe 16 to thee, O land, when thy king is a child, and thy princes eat in the morning! Blessed art thou, O land, when thy king is the 17 son of nobles, and thy princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness! By much slothfulness the building decayeth; 18 and through idleness of the hands the house droppeth through. A 19 feast is made for laughter, and wine maketh merry: but money answereth all things. Curse not the king, no not in thy thought; 20 and curse not the rich in thy bedchamber: for a bird of the air shall carry the voice, and that which hath wings shall tell the matter.

- 11 Cast thy bread upon the waters: for thou shalt find it after many 2 days. Give a portion to seven, and also to eight; for thou knowest 3 not what evil shall be upon the earth. If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth: and if the tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falleth, 4 there it shall be. He that observeth the wind shall not sow; and 5 he that regardeth the clouds shall not reap. As thou knowest not what is the way of the spirit, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child: even so thou knowest not the works 6 of God who maketh all. In the morning sow thy seed, and in the evening withhold not thine hand: for thou knowest not whether shall prosper, either this or that, or whether they both shall be 7 alike good. Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for 8 the eyes to behold the sun: But if a man live many years, and rejoice in them all; yet let him remember the days of darkness; for 9 they shall be many. All that cometh is vanity. Rejoice, O young man, in thy youth; and let thy heart cheer thee in the days of thy youth, and walk in the ways of thine heart, and in the sight of thine eyes: but know thou, that for all these things God will bring 10 thee into judgment. Therefore remove sorrow from thy heart, and put away evil from thy flesh: for childhood and youth are vanity.
- 12 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the evil days come not, nor the years draw nigh, when thou shalt say, I 2 have no pleasure in them; While the sun, or the light, or the moon, or the stars, be not darkened, nor the clouds return after the rain: 3 In the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows be darkened, 4 And the doors shall be shut in the streets, when the sound of the grinding is low, and he shall rise up at the voice of the bird, and 5 all the daughters of musick shall be brought low; Also when they shall be afraid of that which is high, and fears shall be in the way, and the almond tree shall flourish, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail: because man goeth to his long home, 6 and the mourners go about the streets: Or ever the silver cord be loosed, or the golden bowl be broken, or the pitcher be broken 7 at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern. Then shall the dust return to the earth as it was: and the spirit shall return is vanity. And moreover, because the preacher was wise, he still 9 taught the people knowledge; yea, he gave good heed, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs. The preacher sought to find 10 out acceptable words: and that which was written was upright, even words of truth. The words of the wise are as goads, and as 11 nails fastened by the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd. And further, by these, my son, be admonished: of 12 making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh. Let us hear the conclusion of the whole matter: Fear 13 God, and keep his commandments: for this is the whole duty of man. For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every 14 secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON.

1, 2  he song of songs, which is Solomon's. Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth: for thy love is better 3  than wine. Because of the savour of thy good ointments thy name is as ointment poured forth, therefore do the 4 virgins love thee. Draw me, we will run after thee: the king hath brought me into his chambers: we will be glad and rejoice in thee, we will remember thy love more than wine: the upright love 5 thee. I am black, but comely, O ye daughters of Jerusalem, as 6 the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon. Look not upon me, because I am black, because the sun hath looked upon me: my mother's children were angry with me; they made me the keeper 7 of the vineyards; but mine own vineyard have I not kept. Tell me, O thou whom my soul loveth, where thou feedest, where thou makest thy flock to rest at noon: for why should I be as one that 8 turneth aside by the flocks of thy companions? If thou know not, O thou fairest among women, go thy way forth by the footsteps of 9 the flock, and feed thy kids beside the shepherds' tents. I have compared thee, O my love, to a company of horses in Pharaoh's 10 chariots. Thy cheeks are comely with rows of jewels, thy neck 11 with chains of gold. We will make thee borders of gold with studs 12 of silver. While the king sitteth at his table, my spikenard sendeth 13 forth the smell thereof. A bundle of myrrh is my wellbeloved unto 14 me; he shall lie all night betwixt my breasts. My beloved is unto 15 me as a cluster of camphire in the vineyards of Engedi. Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes.
16 Behold, thou art fair, my beloved, yea, pleasant: also our bed is 17 green. The beams of our house are cedar, and our rafters of fir.
2, 2 I am the rose of Sharon, and the lily of the valleys. As the lily among thorns, so is my love among the daughters. As the apple 3 tree among the trees of the wood, so is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste. He brought me to the banqueting house, 4 and his banner over me was love. Stay me with flagons, comfort 5 me with apples: for I am sick of love. His left hand is under my 6 head, and his right hand doth embrace me. I charge you, O ye 7 daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, and by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, till he please. The voice 8 of my beloved! behold, he cometh leaping upon the mountains, skipping upon the hills. My beloved is like a roe or a young 9 hart: behold, he standeth behind our wall, he looketh forth at the windows, shewing himself through the lattice. My beloved spake, 10 and said unto me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.

 For, lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; The flowers 11, 12 appear on the earth; the time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle is heard in our land; The fig tree putteth 13 forth her green figs, and the vines with the tender grape give a good smell. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away. O my dove, 14 that art in the clefts of the rock, in the secret places of the stairs, let me see thy countenance, let me hear thy voice; for sweet is thy voice, and thy countenance is comely. Take us the foxes, the little 15 foxes, that spoil the vines: for our vines have tender grapes. My 16 beloved is mine, and I am his: he feedeth among the lilies. Until 17 the day break, and the shadows flee away, turn, my beloved, and be thou like a roe or a young hart upon the mountains of Bether.

By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loveth: I sought 3 him, but I found him not. I will rise now, and go about the city 2 in the streets, and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loveth: I sought him, but I found him not. The watchmen that 3 go about the city found me: to whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loveth? It was but a little that I passed from them, but I 4 found him whom my soul loveth: I held him, and would not let him go, until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me. I charge you, O ye daughters 5 6 not up, nor awake my love, till he please. Who is this that cometh out of the wilderness like pillars of smoke, perfumed with myrrh 7 and frankincense, with all powders of the merchant? Behold his bed, which is Solomon's; threescore valiant men are about it, of the 8 valiant of Israel. They all hold swords, being expert in war: every man hath his sword upon his thigh because of fear in the night.

 9, 10 King Solomon made himself a chariot of the wood of Lebanon. He made the pillars thereof of silver, the bottom thereof of gold, the covering of it of purple, the midst thereof being paved with love, 11 for the daughters of Jerusalem. Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon with the crown wherewith his mother crowned him in the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.

4 Behold, thou art fair, my love; behold, thou art fair; thou hast doves' eyes within thy locks: thy hair is as a flock of goats, that 2 appear from mount Gilead. Thy teeth are like a flock of sheep that are even shorn, which came up from the washing; whereof 3 every one bear twins, and none is barren among them. Thy lips are like a thread of scarlet, and thy speech is comely: thy temples 4 are like a piece of a pomegranate within thy locks. Thy neck is like the tower of David builded for an armoury, whereon there 5 hang a thousand bucklers, all shields of mighty men. Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins, which feed among 6 the lilies. Until the day break, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.
 7, 8 Thou art all fair, my love; there is no spot in thee. Come with me from Lebanon, my spouse, with me from Lebanon: look from the top of Amana, from the top of Shenir and Hermon, from the lions' 9 dens, from the mountains of the leopards. Thou hast ravished my heart, my sister, my spouse; thou hast ravished my heart with 10 one of thine eyes, with one chain of thy neck. How fair is thy love, my sister, my spouse! how much better is thy love than wine!
 11 and the smell of thine ointments than all spices! Thy lips, O my spouse, drop as the honeycomb: honey and milk are under thy tongue; and the smell of thy garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
 12 A garden inclosed is my sister, my spouse; a spring shut up, a 13 fountain sealed. Thy plants are an orchard of pomegranates, with pleasant fruits; camphire, with spikenard, Spikenard and saffron; 14 calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices: A fountain of gardens, a well of 15 living waters, and streams from Lebanon. Awake, O north wind; 16 and come, thou south; blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his pleasant fruits.

I am come into my garden, my sister, my spouse: I have gath- 5 ered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk: eat, O friends; drink, yea, drink abundantly, O beloved. I sleep, but my heart 2 waketh: it is the voice of my beloved that knocketh, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled: for my head is filled with dew, and my locks with the drops of the night. I have 3 put off my coat; how shall I put it on? I have washed my feet; how shall I defile them? My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the 4 door, and my bowels were moved for him. I rose up to open to my 5 beloved; and my hands dropped with myrrh, and my fingers with sweet smelling myrrh, upon the handles of the lock. I opened to 6 my beloved; but my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone: my soul failed when he spake: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer. The watchmen that 7 went about the city found me, they smote me, they wounded me; the keepers of the walls took away my veil from me. I charge you, 8 O daughters of Jerusalem, if ye find my beloved, that ye tell him, that I am sick of love. What is thy beloved more than another 9 beloved, O thou fairest among women? what is thy beloved more than another beloved, that thou dost so charge us? My beloved is 10 white and ruddy, the chiefest among ten thousand. His head is as 11 the most fine gold, his locks are bushy, and black as a raven. His 12 eyes are as the eyes of doves by the rivers of waters, washed with milk, and fitly set. His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as sweet 13 flowers: his lips like lilies, dropping sweet smelling myrrh. His 14 hands are as gold rings set with the beryl: his belly is as bright Jerusalem.

6 Whither is thy beloved gone, O thou fairest among women? whither is thy beloved turned aside? that we may seek him with 3 spices, to feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies. I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine: he feedeth among the lilies.

the choice one of her that bare her. The daughters saw her, and blessed her; yea, the queens and the concubines, and they praised 10 her. Who is she that looketh forth as the morning, fair as the 11 moon, clear as the sun, and terrible as an army with banners? I went down into the garden of nuts to see the fruits of the valley, and to see whether the vine flourished, and the pomegranates bud-12 ded. Or ever I was aware, my soul made me like the chariots of 13 Amminadib. Return, return, O Shulamite; return, return, that we may look upon thee. What will ye see in the Shulamite? As it were the company of two armies.

7 How beautiful are thy feet with shoes, O prince's daughter! the joints of thy thighs are like jewels, the work of the hands of a cun-2 ning workman. Thy navel is like a round goblet, which wanteth not liquor: thy belly is like an heap of wheat set about with lilies.
3, 4 Thy two breasts are like two young roes that are twins. Thy neck is as a tower of ivory; thine eyes like the fishpools in Heshbon, by the gate of Bathrabbim: thy nose is as the tower of Lebanon which looketh toward Damascus. Thine head upon thee is like 5 Carmel, and the hair of thine head like purple; the king is held in the galleries. How fair and how pleasant art thou, O love, for 6 delights! This thy stature is like to a palm tree, and thy breasts 7 to clusters of grapes. I said, I will go up to the palm tree, I will 8 take hold of the boughs thereof: now also thy breasts shall be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of thy nose like apples; And the 9 roof of thy mouth like the best wine for my beloved, that goeth down sweetly, causing the lips of those that are asleep to speak. I 10 am my beloved's, and his desire is toward me. Come, my beloved, 11 let us go forth into the field; let us lodge in the villages. Let us 12 get up early to the vineyards; let us see if the vine flourish, whether the tender grape appear, and the pomegranates bud forth: there will I give thee my loves. The mandrakes give a smell, and at our 13 gates are all manner of pleasant fruits, new and old, which I have laid up for thee, O my beloved.

O that thou wert as my brother, that sucked the breasts of my 8 mother! when I should find thee without, I would kiss thee; yea, I should not be despised. I would lead thee, and bring thee into 2 my mother's house, who would instruct me: I would cause thee to drink of spiced wine of the juice of my pomegranate. His left 3 hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me. I charge you, O daughters of Jerusalem, that ye stir not up, 4 nor awake my love, until he please. Who is this that cometh up 5 from the wilderness, leaning upon her beloved? I raised thee up under the apple tree: there thy mother brought thee forth: there she brought thee forth that bare thee. Set me as a seal upon 6 thine heart, as a seal upon thine arm: for love is strong as death; jealousy is cruel as the grave: the coals thereof are coals of fire, which hath a most vehement flame. Many waters cannot quench 7 love, neither can the floods drown it: if a man would give all the substance of his house for love, it would utterly be contemned.
 We have a little sister, and she hath no breasts: what shall we do 8 for our sister in the day when she shall be spoken for? If she be 9 a wall, we will build upon her a palace of silver: and if she be a door, we will inclose her with boards of cedar. I am a wall, and 10

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET ISAIAH.

 he vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw con- 1 cerning Judah and Jerusalem in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah. Hear, O 2 heavens, and give ear, O earth: for the LORD hath spoken, I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me. The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his 3 master's crib: but Israel doth not know, my people doth not consider. Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil- 4 doers, children that are corrupters: they have forsaken the LORD, they have provoked the Holy One of Israel unto anger, they are gone away backward. Why should ye be stricken any more? ye 5 will revolt more and more: the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint. From the sole of the foot even unto the head there is 6 no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and putrifying sores: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with ointment. Your country is desolate, your cities are burned with 7 fire: your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers. And the daughter of Zion is left 8 as a cottage in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city. Except the LORD of hosts had left unto us a 9 very small remnant, we should have been as Sodom, and we should have been like unto Gomorrah. Hear the word of the LORD, ye 10 rulers of Sodom; give ear unto the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah. To what purpose is the multitude of your sacrifices 11 unto me? saith the LORD: I am full of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he goats. When ye come to appear before me, 12 13 who hath required this at your hand, to tread my courts? Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination unto me; the new moons and sabbaths, the calling of assemblies, I cannot away 14 with; it is iniquity, even the solemn meeting. Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hateth: they are a trouble unto 15 me; I am weary to bear them. And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide mine eyes from you: yea, when ye make many 16 prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood. Wash you, make you clean; put away the evil of your doings from before mine 17 eyes; cease to do evil; Learn to do well; seek judgment, relieve 18 the oppressed, judge the fatherless, plead for the widow. Come now, and let us reason together, saith the LORD: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red 19 like crimson, they shall be as wool. If ye be willing and obedient, 20 ye shall eat the good of the land: But if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword: for the mouth of the LORD hath 21 spoken it. How is the faithful city become an harlot! it was full 22 of judgment; righteousness lodged in it; but now murderers. Thy 23 silver is become dross, thy wine mixed with water: Thy princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves: every one loveth gifts, and followeth after rewards: they judge not the fatherless, neither 24 doth the cause of the widow come unto them. Therefore saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts, the mighty One of Israel, Ah, I will ease 25 me of mine adversaries, and avenge me of mine enemies: And I will turn my hand upon thee, and purely purge away thy dross, 26 and take away all thy tin: And I will restore thy judges as at the first, and thy counsellors as at the beginning: afterward thou shalt 27 be called, The city of righteousness, the faithful city. Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

 28 And the destruction of the transgressors and of the sinners shall be together, and they that forsake the LORD shall be consumed.
 29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and 30 ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen. For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fadeth, and as a garden that hath 31 no water. And the strong shall be as tow, and the maker of it as a spark, and they shall both burn together, and none shall quench

The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah 2 and Jerusalem. And it shall come to pass in the last days, that the 2 mountain of the LORD's house shall be established in the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow unto it. And many people shall go and say, Come ye, 3 and let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among 4 the nations, and shall rebuke many people: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk 5 in the light of the LORD. Therefore thou hast forsaken thy people 6 the house of Jacob, because they be replenished from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they please themselves in the children of strangers. Their land also is full of silver and gold, 7 neither is there any end of their treasures; their land is also full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots: Their land 8 also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made: And the mean man boweth 9 down, and the great man humbleth himself: therefore forgive them not. Enter into the rock, and hide thee in the dust, for fear of 10 the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty. The lofty looks of 11 man shall be humbled, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that day. For the 12 day of the LORD of hosts shall be upon every one that is proud and lofty, and upon every one that is lifted up; and he shall be brought low: And upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high 13 and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan, And upon all the 14 high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up, And 15 upon every high tower, and upon every fenced wall, And upon all 16 the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant pictures. And the 17 shall be made low: and the LORD alone shall be exalted in that 18, 19 day. And the idols he shall utterly abolish. And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. In that day a man shall cast his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which they made each one for himself to worship, to the moles and to the bats; To go into the clefts of the rocks, and into the tops of the ragged rocks, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth. Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils: for wherein is he to be accounted of?

3 For, behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, doth take away from Jerusalem and from Judah the stay and the staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water, The mighty man, and the man of war, the judge, and the prophet, and the prudent, and the ancient, The captain of fifty, and the honourable man, and the counsellor, and the cunning artificer, and the eloquent orator. And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them. And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbour: the child shall behave himself proudly against the ancient, and the base against the honourable. 6 When a man shall take hold of his brother of the house of his father, saying, Thou hast clothing, be thou our ruler, and let this ruin be under thy hand: In that day shall he swear, saying, I will not be an healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: make me not a ruler of the people. For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen: because their tongue and their doings are against the LORD, to provoke the eyes of his glory. The shew of their countenance doth witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe unto their soul! for they have rewarded evil unto themselves. Say ye to the righteous, that it shall be well with him: for they shall eat the fruit of their doings. Woe unto the wicked! it shall be ill with him: for the reward of his hands shall be given him. As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they which lead thee cause thee to err, and destroy the way of thy paths. The LORD

standeth up to plead, and standeth to judge the people. The LORD will enter into judgment with the ancients of his people, and the princes thereof: for ye have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses. What mean ye that ye beat my people to pieces, and grind the faces of the poor? saith the Lord GOD of hosts. Moreover the LORD saith, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with stretched forth necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet: Therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and the LORD will discover their secret parts. In that day the Lord will take away the bravery of their tinkling ornaments about their feet, and their cauls, and their round tires like the moon, The chains, and the bracelets, and the mufflers, The bonnets, and the ornaments of the legs, and the headbands, and the tablets, and the earrings, The rings, and nose jewels, The changeable suits of apparel, and the mantles, and the wimples, and the crisping pins, The glasses, and the fine linen, and the hoods, and the vails. And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet smell there shall be stink; and instead of a girdle a rent; and instead of well set hair baldness; and instead of a stomacher a girding of sackcloth; and burning instead of beauty. Thy men shall fall by the sword, and thy mighty in the war. And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she being desolate shall sit upon the ground.

And in that day seven women shall take hold of one man, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by thy name, to take away our reproach. In that day shall the branch of the LORD be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel. And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remaineth in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem: When the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof 5 by the spirit of judgment, and by the spirit of burning. And the LORD will create upon every dwelling place of mount Zion, and upon her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night: for upon all the glory shall be a defence.

 6 And there shall be a tabernacle for a shadow in the daytime from the heat, and for a place of refuge, and for a covert from storm and from rain.

5 Now will I sing to my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved hath a vineyard in a very fruitful hill: 2 And he fenced it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also made a winepress therein: and he looked that it should 3 bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes. And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem, and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, 4 betwixt me and my vineyard. What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? wherefore, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?
 5 And now go to; I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; and break 6 down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down: And I will lay it waste: it shall not be pruned, nor digged; but there shall come up briars and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no 7 rain upon it. For the vineyard of the LORD of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for judgment, but behold oppression; for righteousness, but behold a 8 cry. Woe unto them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no place, that they may be placed alone in the midst of 9 the earth! In mine ears said the LORD of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.
 10 Yea, ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and the seed of an 11 homer shall yield an ephah. Woe unto them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that continue 12 until night, till wine inflame them! And the harp, and the viol, the tabret, and pipe, and wine, are in their feasts: but they regard not the work of the LORD, neither consider the operation of his hands. Therefore my people are gone into captivity, because they 13 have no knowledge: and their honourable men are famished, and their multitude dried up with thirst. Therefore hell hath enlarged 14 herself, and opened her mouth without measure: and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoiceth, shall descend into it. And the mean man shall be brought down, and 15 the mighty man shall be humbled, and the eyes of the lofty shall be humbled: But the LORD of hosts shall be exalted in judgment, 16 and God that is holy shall be sanctified in righteousness. Then 17 shall the lambs feed after their manner, and the waste places of the fat ones shall strangers eat. Woe unto them that draw iniquity 18 with cords of vanity, and sin as it were with a cart rope: That 19 say, Let him make speed, and hasten his work, that we may see it:

and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw nigh and come, that we may know it! Woe unto them that call evil good, and 20 good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter! Woe unto them that are 21 wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight! Woe unto 22 them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink: Which justify the wicked for reward, and take away 23 the righteousness of the righteous from him! Therefore as the fire 24 devoureth the stubble, and the flame consumeth the chaff, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust: because they have cast away the law of the LORD of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel. Therefore is the anger 25 of the LORD kindled against his people, and he hath stretched forth his hand against them, and hath smitten them: and the hills did tremble, and their carcases were torn in the midst of the streets.
For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and 26 will hiss unto them from the end of the earth: and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly: None shall be weary nor stumble 27 among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:

 the heavens thereof.

6 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw also the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up, and his train filled the temple.
 2 Above it stood the seraphims: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with 3 twain he did fly. And one cried unto another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is the LORD of hosts: the whole earth is full of his 4 glory. And the posts of the door moved at the voice of him that 5 cried, and the house was filled with smoke. Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have 6 seen the King, the LORD of hosts. Then flew one of the seraphims unto me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with 7 the tongs from off the altar: And he laid it upon my mouth, and said, Lo, this hath touched thy lips; and thine iniquity is taken 8 away, and thy sin purged. Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then said I, 9 Here am I; send me. And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.
 10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and convert, and be healed.
 11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until the cities be wasted without inhabitant, and the houses without man, and the 12 land be utterly desolate, And the LORD have removed men far 13 away, and there be a great forsaking in the midst of the land. But yet in it shall be a tenth, and it shall return, and shall be eaten: as

And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, 7 the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up toward Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it. And 2 it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart was moved, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the wood are moved with the wind. Then said 3 the LORD unto Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, thou, and Shearjashub thy son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field; And say unto him, Take heed, 4 and be quiet; fear not, neither be fainthearted for the two tails of these smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin with Syria, and of the son of Remaliah. Because Syria, Ephraim, and the 5 son of Remaliah, have taken evil counsel against thee, saying, Let 6 us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeal: Thus saith the Lord GOD, It shall not stand, neither 7 shall it come to pass. For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the 8 head of Damascus is Rezin; and within threescore and five years shall Ephraim be broken, that it be not a people. And the head of 9 Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son.
 If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established. Moreover 10 the LORD spake again unto Ahaz, saying, Ask thee a sign of the 11 LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.
 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD. And 12, 13 he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also? Therefore the Lord 14 himself shall give you a sign; Behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel. Butter and honey 15

 19 the bee that is in the land of Assyria. And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the holes of the 20 rocks, and upon all thorns, and upon all bushes. In the same day shall the Lord shave with a razor that is hired, namely, by them beyond the river, by the king of Assyria, the head, and the hair of 21 the feet: and it shall also consume the beard. And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall nourish a young cow, and two 22 sheep; And it shall come to pass, for the abundance of milk that they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every 23 one eat that is left in the land. And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place shall be, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, it shall even be for briers and thorns.
 24 With arrows and with bows shall men come thither; because all 25 the land shall become briers and thorns. And on all hills that shall be digged with the mattock, there shall not come thither the fear of briers and thorns: but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of lesser cattle.
 8 Moreover the LORD said unto me, Take thee a great roll, and 2 write in it with a man's pen concerning Mahershalalhashbaz. And I took unto me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and 3 Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah. And I went unto the prophetess; and she conceived, and bare a son. Then said the LORD to me, 4 Call his name Mahershalalhashbaz. For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and my mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be taken away before the 5 king of Assyria. The LORD spake also unto me again, saying, 6 Forasmuch as this people refuseth the waters of Shiloah that go 7 softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son; Now therefore, behold, the Lord bringeth up upon them the waters of the river, strong and many, even the king of Assyria, and all his glory: and he shall come up over all his channels, and go over all his banks: And 8 he shall pass through Judah; he shall overflow and go over, he shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of his wings shall fill the breadth of thy land, O Immanuel. Associate yourselves, 9 O ye people, and ye shall be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and ye shall be broken in pieces. Take counsel 10 together, and it shall come to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us. For the LORD spake thus to me 11 with a strong hand, and instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people, saying, Say ye not, A confederacy, to all 12 them to whom this people shall say, A confederacy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be afraid. Sanctify the LORD of hosts himself; and 13 let him be your fear, and let him be your dread. And he shall 14 be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And many among them shall stumble, 15 and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken. Bind up 16 the testimony, seal the law among my disciples. And I will wait 17 upon the LORD, that hideth his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him. Behold, I and the children whom the LORD 18 hath given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from the LORD of hosts, which dwelleth in mount Zion. And when they 19 shall say unto you, Seek unto them that have familiar spirits, and unto wizards that peep, and that mutter: should not a people seek unto their God? for the living to the dead? To the law and to the 20 testimony: if they speak not according to this word, it is because there is no light in them. And they shall pass through it, hardly 21 bestead and hungry: and it shall come to pass, that when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse their king and their God, and look upward. And they shall look unto the 22 earth; and behold trouble and darkness, dimness of anguish; and they shall be driven to darkness.

Nevertheless the dimness shall not be such as was in her vexa- 9 by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, in Galilee of the nations.

2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwell in the land of the shadow of death, upon them hath the

3 light shined. Thou hast multiplied the nation, and not increased the joy: they joy before thee according to the joy in harvest, and as

4 men rejoice when they divide the spoil. For thou hast broken the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his op-

5 pressor, as in the day of Midian. For every battle of the warrior is with confused noise, and garments rolled in blood; but this shall be

6 with burning and fuel of fire. For unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God,

7 The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace. Of the increase of his government and peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to order it, and to establish it with judgment and with justice from henceforth even for ever. The zeal

8 of the LORD of hosts will perform this. The Lord sent a word into

9 Jacob, and it hath lighted upon Israel. And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in 10 the pride and stoutness of heart, The bricks are fallen down, but we will build with hewn stones: the sycomores are cut down, but

11 we will change them into cedars. Therefore the LORD shall set up the adversaries of Rezin against him, and join his enemies together;

12 The Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned

13 away, but his hand is stretched out still. For the people turneth not unto him that smiteth them, neither do they seek the LORD of 14 hosts. Therefore the LORD will cut off from Israel head and tail, branch and rush, in one day. The ancient and honourable, he is

15 the head; and the prophet that teacheth lies, he is the tail. For the leaders of this people cause them to err; and they that are led

17 of them are destroyed. Therefore the Lord shall have no joy in their young men, neither shall have mercy on their fatherless and widows: for every one is an hypocrite and an evildoer, and every mouth speaketh folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. For wickedness burneth as the 18 fire: it shall devour the briers and thorns, and shall kindle in the thickets of the forest, and they shall mount up like the lifting up of smoke. Through the wrath of the LORD of hosts is the land 19 darkened, and the people shall be as the fuel of the fire: no man shall spare his brother. And he shall snatch on the right hand, 20 and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm: Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh: and they together 21 shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.

Woe unto them that decree unrighteous decrees, and that write 10 grievousness which they have prescribed; To turn aside the needy 2 from judgment, and to take away the right from the poor of my people, that widows may be their prey, and that they may rob the fatherless! And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in 3 the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory? Without me they shall 4 bow down under the prisoners, and they shall fall under the slain.
 For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still. O Assyrian, the rod of mine anger, and the staff in their 5 hand is mine indignation. I will send him against an hypocritical 6 nation, and against the people of my wrath will I give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets. Howbeit he meaneth not so, neither 7 doth his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy and cut off nations not a few. For he saith, Are not my princes altogether 8 kings? Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is 9 not Samaria as Damascus? As my hand hath found the kingdoms 10 of the idols, and whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria; Shall I not, as I have done unto Samaria and 11 her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols? Wherefore it shall 12 come to pass, that when the Lord hath performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.

13 For he saith, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I am prudent: and I have removed the bounds of the people, and have robbed their treasures, and I have put down 14 the inhabitants like a valiant man: And my hand hath found as a nest the riches of the people: and as one gathereth eggs that are left, have I gathered all the earth; and there was none that 15 moved the wing, or opened the mouth, or peeped. Shall the axe boast itself against him that heweth therewith? or shall the saw magnify itself against him that shaketh it? as if the rod should shake itself against them that lift it up, or as if the staff should 16 lift up itself, as if it were no wood. Therefore shall the Lord, the Lord of hosts, send among his fat ones leanness; and under his 17 glory he shall kindle a burning like the burning of a fire. And the light of Israel shall be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame: and it shall burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day; 18 And shall consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and they shall be as when a standardbearer 19 fainteth. And the rest of the trees of his forest shall be few, that 20 a child may write them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and such as are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again stay upon him that smote them; but shall stay upon the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
 21 The remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, unto the 22 mighty God. For though thy people Israel be as the sand of the sea, yet a remnant of them shall return: the consumption decreed 23 shall overflow with righteousness. For the Lord GOD of hosts shall make a consumption, even determined, in the midst of all the 24 land. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, O my people that dwellest in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian: he shall smite thee with a rod, and shall lift up his staff against thee, after the 25 manner of Egypt. For yet a very little while, and the indignation 26 shall cease, and mine anger in their destruction. And the LORD of hosts shall stir up a scourge for him according to the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and as his rod was upon the sea, 27 so shall he lift it up after the manner of Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall be taken away from off thy shoulder, and his yoke from off thy neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed because of the anointing. He is come to Aiath, he 28 is passed to Migron; at Michmash he hath laid up his carriages: They are gone over the passage: they have taken up their lodging 29 at Geba; Ramah is afraid; Gibeah of Saul is fled. Lift up thy 30 voice, O daughter of Gallim: cause it to be heard unto Laish, O poor Anathoth. Madmenah is removed; the inhabitants of Gebim 31 gather themselves to flee. As yet shall he remain at Nob that day: 32 he shall shake his hand against the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem. Behold, the Lord, the LORD of hosts, shall 33 lop the bough with terror: and the high ones of stature shall be hewn down, and the haughty shall be humbled. And he shall cut 34 down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.

And there shall come forth a rod out of the stem of Jesse, and 11 a Branch shall grow out of his roots: And the spirit of the LORD 2 shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD; And shall make him of quick understanding in 3 the fear of the LORD: and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither reprove after the hearing of his ears: But with 4 righteousness shall he judge the poor, and reprove with equity for the meek of the earth: and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked. And righteousness shall be the girdle of his loins, and faithfulness 5 the girdle of his reins. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord shall set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, 12 and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea. And he shall set up an ensign for the nations, and shall assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four 13 corners of the earth. The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy 14 Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim. But they shall fly upon the shoulders of the Philistines toward the west; they shall spoil them of the east together: they shall lay their hand upon Edom 15 and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them. And the LORD shall utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his mighty wind shall he shake his hand over the river, and shall smite it in the seven streams, and make men go over dryshod. 16 And there shall be an highway for the remnant of his people, which shall be left, from Assyria; like as it was to Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.

12 And in that day thou shalt say, O LORD, I will praise thee: though thou wast angry with me, thine anger is turned away, and 2 thou comfortedst me. Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and not be afraid: for the LORD JEHOVAH is my strength and 3 my song; he also is become my salvation. Therefore with joy shall 4 ye draw water out of the wells of salvation. And in that day shall ye say, Praise the LORD, call upon his name, declare his doings 5 among the people, make mention that his name is exalted. a tumultuous noise of the kingdoms of nations gathered together: the LORD of hosts mustereth the host of the battle. They come 5 from a far country, from the end of heaven, even the LORD, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land. Howl ye; for 6 the day of the LORD is at hand; it shall come as a destruction from the Almighty. Therefore shall all hands be faint, and every man's 7 heart shall melt: And they shall be afraid: pangs and sorrows 8 shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman that travaileth: they shall be amazed one at another; their faces shall be as flames. Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, cruel both 9 with wrath and fierce anger, to lay the land desolate: and he shall destroy the sinners thereof out of it. For the stars of heaven and 10 the constellations thereof shall not give their light: the sun shall be darkened in his going forth, and the moon shall not cause her light to shine. And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked 11 for their iniquity; and I will cause the arrogancy of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible. I will make 12 a man more precious than fine gold; even a man than the golden wedge of Ophir. Therefore I will shake the heavens, and the earth 13 shall remove out of her place, in the wrath of the LORD of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger. And it shall be as the chased 14 roe, and as a sheep that no man taketh up: they shall every man turn to his own people, and flee every one into his own land. Every 15 one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is joined unto them shall fall by the sword. Their children also shall 16 and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children. And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the 19 beauty of the Chaldees' excellency, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah. It shall never be inhabited, neither shall 20 14 For the LORD will have mercy on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the strangers shall be joined with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.

 2 And the people shall take them, and bring them to their place: and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of the LORD for servants and handmaids: and they shall take them captives, whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.
 3 And it shall come to pass in the day that the LORD shall give thee rest from thy sorrow, and from thy fear, and from the hard 4 bondage wherein thou wast made to serve, That thou shalt take up this proverb against the king of Babylon, and say, How hath the 5 oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased! The LORD hath broken 6 the staff of the wicked, and the sceptre of the rulers. He who smote the people in wrath with a continual stroke, he that ruled 7 the nations in anger, is persecuted, and none hindereth. The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.

 10 raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations. All they shall speak and say unto thee, Art thou also become weak as we?
 11 art thou become like unto us? Thy pomp is brought down to the grave, and the noise of thy viols: the worm is spread under thee, 12 and the worms cover thee. How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, thee, and consider thee, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms; That made the world as a wilderness, and destroyed the cities thereof; that opened not the house of his prisoners? All the kings of the nations, even all of them, lie in glory, every one in his own house. But thou

 Thou shalt not be joined with them in burial, because thou hast destroyed thy land, and slain thy people: the seed of evildoers shall never be renowned. Prepare slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers; that they do not rise, nor possess the land, nor fill the face of the world with cities. For I will rise up against them, saith the LORD of hosts, and cut off from Babylon the name, and remnant, and son, and nephew, saith the LORD. I will also make it a possession for the bittern, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, saith the LORD of hosts. The LORD of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: That I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulders. This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth: and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations. For the LORD of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back? In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden. Rejoice not thou, whole Palestina, because the rod of him that smote thee is broken: for out of the serpent's root shall come forth a cockatrice, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent. And the firstborn of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety: and I will kill thy root

15 The burden of Moab. Because in the night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to silence; because in the night Kir of Moab is 2 laid waste, and brought to silence; He is gone up to Bajith, and to Dibon, the high places, to weep: Moab shall howl over Nebo, and over Medeba: on all their heads shall be baldness, and every beard
3 cut off. In their streets they shall gird themselves with sackcloth: on the tops of their houses, and in their streets, every one shall 4 howl, weeping abundantly. And Heshbon shall cry, and Elealeh: their voice shall be heard even unto Jahaz: therefore the armed soldiers of Moab shall cry out; his life shall be grievous unto him.
5 My heart shall cry out for Moab; his fugitives shall flee unto Zoar, an heifer of three years old: for by the mounting up of Luhith with weeping shall they go it up; for in the way of Horonaim they shall 6 raise up a cry of destruction. For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate: for the hay is withered away, the grass faileth, there is 7 no green thing. Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away to the brook
8 of the willows. For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the howling thereof unto Eglaim, and the howling thereof 9 unto Beerelim. For the waters of Dimon shall be full of blood: for I will bring more upon Dimon, lions upon him that escapeth of Moab, and upon the remnant of the land.

16 Send ye the lamb to the ruler of the land from Sela to the wilderness, unto the mount of the daughter of Zion. For it shall be, that, as a wandering bird cast out of the nest, so the daughters of Moab the oppressors are consumed out of the land. And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the proud: even of his haughtiness, and his pride, and his wrath: but his lies shall not be so. Therefore shall Moab howl for Moab, every the principal plants thereof, they are come even unto Jazer, they wandered through the wilderness: her branches are stretched out, they are gone over the sea. Therefore I will bewail with the weeping of Jazer the vine of Sibmah: I will water thee with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for the shouting for thy summer fruits and for thy harvest is fallen. And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the plentiful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither shall there be shouting: the treaders shall tread out no wine in their presses; I have made their vintage shouting to cease. Wherefore my bowels shall sound like an harp for Moab, and mine inward parts for Kirharesh. And it shall come to pass, when it is seen that Moab is weary on the high place, that he shall come to his sanctuary to pray; but he shall not prevail. This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning Moab since that time. But now the LORD hath spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of an hireling, and the glory of Moab shall be contemned, with all that great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and feeble.

The burden of Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap. The cities of Aroer are forsaken: they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and none shall make them afraid. The fortress also shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria: they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, saith the LORD of hosts. And in that day it shall come to pass, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall wax lean. And it shall be as when the harvestman gathereth the corn, and reapeth the ears with his arm; and it shall be as he that 6 gathereth ears in the valley of Rephaim. Yet gleanings shall be left in it, as the shaking of an olive tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost 7 fruitful branches thereof, saith the LORD God of Israel. At that day shall a man look to his Maker, and his eyes shall have respect 8 to the Holy One of Israel. And he shall not look to the altars, the work of his hands, neither shall respect that which his fingers 9 have made, either the groves, or the images. In that day shall his strong cities be as a forsaken bough, and an uppermost branch, which they left because of the children of Israel: and there shall be 10 desolation. Because thou hast forgotten the God of thy salvation, and hast not been mindful of the rock of thy strength, therefore shalt thou plant pleasant plants, and shalt set it with strange slips: 11 In the day shalt thou make thy plant to grow, and in the morning shalt thou make thy seed to flourish: but the harvest shall be a 12 heap in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow. Woe to the multitude of many people, which make a noise like the noise of the seas; and to the rushing of nations, that make a rushing like the 13 rushing of mighty waters! The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but God shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the 14 wind, and like a rolling thing before the whirlwind. And behold at eveningtide trouble; and before the morning he is not. This is the portion of them that spoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.

18 Woe to the land shadowing with wings, which is beyond the 2 rivers of Ethiopia: That sendeth ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of bulrushes upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation scattered and peeled, to a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden down, 3 whose land the rivers have spoiled! All ye inhabitants of the world, and dwellers on the earth, see ye, when he lifteth up an ensign on 4 the mountains; and when he bloweth a trumpet, hear ye. For so the LORD said unto me, I will take my rest, and I will consider in my dwelling place like a clear heat upon herbs, and like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest. For afore the harvest, when the bud 5 is perfect, and the sour grape is ripening in the flower, he shall both cut off the sprigs with pruning hooks, and take away and cut down the branches. They shall be left together unto the fowls 6 of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth: and the fowls shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them. In that time shall the present be brought unto 7 the LORD of hosts of a people scattered and peeled, and from a people terrible from their beginning hitherto; a nation meted out and trodden under foot, whose land the rivers have spoiled, to the place of the name of the LORD of hosts, the mount Zion.

The burden of Egypt. Behold, the LORD rideth upon a swift 19 cloud, and shall come into Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall be moved at his presence, and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it. And I will set the Egyptians against the Egyptians: 2 and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbour; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom. And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst thereof; and 3 I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards. And the Egyptians will I give over into the hand of 4 a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, saith the Lord, the LORD of hosts. And the waters shall fail from the sea, and 5 the river shall be wasted and dried up. And they shall turn the 6 rivers far away; and the brooks of defence shall be emptied and dried up: the reeds and flags shall wither. The paper reeds by the 7 brooks, by the mouth of the brooks, and every thing sown by the brooks, shall wither, be driven away, and be no more. The fish- 8 ers also shall mourn, and all they that cast angle into the brooks shall lament, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish. Moreover they that work in fine flax, and they that weave 9 networks, shall be confounded. And they shall be broken in the 10 purposes thereof, all that make sluices and ponds for fish. Surely 11 the princes of Zoan are fools, the counsel of the wise counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye unto Pharaoh, I am the 12 son of the wise, the son of ancient kings? Where are they? where are thy wise men? and let them tell thee now, and let them know 13 what the LORD of hosts hath purposed upon Egypt. The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Noph are deceived; they have also seduced Egypt, even they that are the stay of the tribes 14 thereof. The LORD hath mingled a perverse spirit in the midst thereof: and they have caused Egypt to err in every work thereof, 15 as a drunken man staggereth in his vomit. Neither shall there be any work for Egypt, which the head or tail, branch or rush, may 16 do. In that day shall Egypt be like unto women: and it shall be afraid and fear because of the shaking of the hand of the LORD of 17 hosts, which he shaketh over it. And the land of Judah shall be a terror unto Egypt, every one that maketh mention thereof shall be afraid in himself, because of the counsel of the LORD of hosts, 18 which he hath determined against it. In that day shall five cities in the land of Egypt speak the language of Canaan, and swear to the LORD of hosts; one shall be called, The city of destruction.

 19 In that day shall there be an altar to the LORD in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to the LORD.
 20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness unto the LORD of hosts in the land of Egypt: for they shall cry unto the LORD because of the oppressors, and he shall send them a saviour, and a great 21 one, and he shall deliver them. And the LORD shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know the LORD in that day, and shall do sacrifice and oblation; yea, they shall vow a vow unto the 22 LORD, and perform it. And the LORD shall smite Egypt: he shall smite and heal it: and they shall return even to the LORD, and 23 he shall be intreated of them, and shall heal them. In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria, and the 24 Egyptians shall serve with the Assyrians. In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, even a blessing in the 25 midst of the land: Whom the LORD of hosts shall bless, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel mine inheritance.

it; At the same time spake the LORD by Isaiah the son of Amoz, 2 saying, Go and loose the sackcloth from off thy loins, and put off thy shoe from thy foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot. And the LORD said, Like as my servant Isaiah hath 3 walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and wonder upon Egypt and upon Ethiopia; So shall the king of Assyria lead away 4 the Egyptians prisoners, and the Ethiopians captives, young and old, naked and barefoot, even with their buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt. And they shall be afraid and ashamed of 5 Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory. And the 6 inhabitant of this isle shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we flee for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and how shall we escape?

The burden of the desert of the sea. As whirlwinds in the south 21 pass through; so it cometh from the desert, from a terrible land. A 2 grievous vision is declared unto me; the treacherous dealer dealeth treacherously, and the spoiler spoileth. Go up, O Elam: besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease. Therefore 3 are my loins filled with pain: pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman that travaileth: I was bowed down at the hearing of it; I was dismayed at the seeing of it. My heart panted, 4 fearfulness affrighted me: the night of my pleasure hath he turned into fear unto me. Prepare the table, watch in the watchtower, 5 eat, drink: arise, ye princes, and anoint the shield. For thus hath 6 the Lord said unto me, Go, set a watchman, let him declare what he seeth. And he saw a chariot with a couple of horsemen, a chariot 7 of asses, and a chariot of camels; and he hearkened diligently with much heed: And he cried, A lion: My lord, I stand continually 8 upon the watchtower in the daytime, and I am set in my ward whole nights: And, behold, here cometh a chariot of men, with a 9 couple of horsemen. And he answered and said, Babylon is fallen, is fallen; and all the graven images of her gods he hath broken unto the ground. O my threshing, and the corn of my floor: that 10 which I have heard of the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared unto you. The burden of Dumah. He calleth to me out of 11 12 The watchman said, The morning cometh, and also the night: if ye 13 will enquire, enquire ye: return, come. The burden upon Arabia.

 In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye travelling companies 14 of Dedanim. The inhabitants of the land of Tema brought water to him that was thirsty, they prevented with their bread him that 15 fled. For they fled from the swords, from the drawn sword, and 16 from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war. For thus hath the Lord said unto me, Within a year, according to the years 17 of an hireling, and all the glory of Kedar shall fail: And the residue of the number of archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be diminished: for the LORD God of Israel hath spoken it.

22 The burden of the valley of vision. What aileth thee now, that 2 thou art wholly gone up to the housetops? Thou that art full of stirs, a tumultuous city, a joyous city: thy slain men are not 3 slain with the sword, nor dead in battle. All thy rulers are fled together, they are bound by the archers: all that are found in thee 4 are bound together, which have fled from far. Therefore said I, Look away from me; I will weep bitterly, labour not to comfort 5 me, because of the spoiling of the daughter of my people. For it is a day of trouble, and of treading down, and of perplexity by the Lord GOD of hosts in the valley of vision, breaking down the 6 walls, and of crying to the mountains. And Elam bare the quiver with chariots of men and horsemen, and Kir uncovered the shield.
 7 And it shall come to pass, that thy choicest valleys shall be full of chariots, and the horsemen shall set themselves in array at the 8 gate. And he discovered the covering of Judah, and thou didst 9 look in that day to the armour of the house of the forest. Ye have seen also the breaches of the city of David, that they are many:
 10 and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool. And ye have numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses have ye 11 broken down to fortify the wall. Ye made also a ditch between the two walls for the water of the old pool: but ye have not looked unto the maker thereof, neither had respect unto him that fashioned it 12 long ago. And in that day did the Lord GOD of hosts call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with 13 sackcloth: And behold joy and gladness, slaying oxen, and killing sheep, eating flesh, and drinking wine: let us eat and drink; for to morrow we shall die. And it was revealed in mine ears by the LORD of hosts, Surely this iniquity shall not be purged from you till ye die, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. Thus saith the Lord GOD of hosts, Go, get thee unto this treasurer, even unto Shebna, which is over the house, and say, What hast thou here? and whom hast thou here, that thou hast hewed thee out a sepulchre here, as he that heweth him out a sepulchre on high, and that graveth an habitation for himself in a rock? Behold, the LORD will carry thee away with a mighty captivity, and will surely cover thee. He will surely violently turn and toss thee like a ball into a large country: there shalt thou die, and there the chariots of thy glory shall be the shame of thy lord's house. And I will drive thee from thy station, and from thy state shall he pull thee down. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiyah: And I will clothe him with thy robe, and strengthen him with thy girdle, and I will commit thy government into his hand: and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah. And the key of the house of David will I lay upon his shoulder; so he shall open, and none shall shut; and he shall shut, and none shall open. And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a glorious throne to his father's house. And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, all vessels of small quantity, from the vessels of cups, even to all the vessels of flagons. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall the nail that is fastened in the sure place be removed, and be cut down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off: for the LORD hath spoken it.

The burden of Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Chittim it is revealed to them. Be still, ye inhabitants of the isle; thou whom the merchants of Zidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished. And by great waters the seed of Sihor, the harvest of the river, is her revenue; and she is a mart of nations. Be thou ashamed, O Zidon: for the sea hath spoken, even the strength of the sea, saying, I travail not, nor bring forth children, neither do

5 I nourish up young men, nor bring up virgins. As at the report concerning Egypt, so shall they be sorely pained at the report of 6 Tyre. Pass ye over to Tarshish; howl, ye inhabitants of the isle.
 7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days? her 8 own feet shall carry her afar off to sojourn. Who hath taken this counsel against Tyre, the crowning city, whose merchants are 9 princes, whose traffickers are the honourable of the earth? The LORD of hosts hath purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, 10 and to bring into contempt all the honourable of the earth. Pass through thy land as a river, O daughter of Tarshish: there is no 11 more strength. He stretched out his hand over the sea, he shook the kingdoms: the LORD hath given a commandment against the 12 merchant city, to destroy the strong holds thereof. And he said, Thou shalt no more rejoice, O thou oppressed virgin, daughter of Zidon: arise, pass over to Chittim; there also shalt thou have 13 no rest. Behold the land of the Chaldeans; this people was not, till the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness: they set up the towers thereof, they raised up the palaces thereof;
 14 and he brought it to ruin. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish: for your strength is laid waste. And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years shall Tyre sing as an 15 harlot. Take an harp, go about the city, thou harlot that hast been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that thou 17 mayest be remembered. And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that the LORD will visit Tyre, and she shall turn to her hire, and shall commit fornication with all the kingdoms of 18 the world upon the face of the earth. And her merchandise and her hire shall be holiness to the LORD: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before the LORD, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.
 24 Behold, the LORD maketh the earth empty, and maketh it waste, and turneth it upside down, and scattereth abroad the inhabitants thereof. And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the taker of usury, so with the giver of usury to him. The land shall be utterly emptied, 3 and utterly spoiled: for the LORD hath spoken this word. The 4 earth mourneth and fadeth away, the world languisheth and fadeth away, the haughty people of the earth do languish. The earth also 5 is defiled under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, broken the everlasting covenant. Therefore hath the curse devoured the earth, and they 6 that dwell therein are desolate: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left. The new wine mourneth, 7 the vine languisheth, all the merryhearted do sigh. The mirth of 8 tabrets ceaseth, the noise of them that rejoice endeth, the joy of the harp ceaseth. They shall not drink wine with a song; strong 9 drink shall be bitter to them that drink it. The city of confusion 10 is broken down: every house is shut up, that no man may come in. There is a crying for wine in the streets; all joy is darkened, 11 the mirth of the land is gone. In the city is left desolation, and 12 the gate is smitten with destruction. When thus it shall be in the 13 midst of the land among the people, there shall be as the shaking of an olive tree, and as the gleaning grapes when the vintage is done. They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing for the majesty of 14 the LORD, they shall cry aloud from the sea. Wherefore glorify 15 ye the LORD in the fires, even the name of the LORD God of Israel in the isles of the sea. From the uttermost part of the earth 16 have we heard songs, even glory to the righteous. But I said, My leanness, my leanness, woe unto me! the treacherous dealers have dealt treacherously; yea, the treacherous dealers have dealt very treacherously. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon thee, O 17 inhabitant of the earth. And it shall come to pass, that he who 18 fleeth from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that cometh up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows from on high are open, and the foundations of the earth do shake. The earth is utterly broken down, the earth is 19 clean dissolved, the earth is moved exceedingly. The earth shall 20 reel to and fro like a drunkard, and shall be removed like a cottage; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it; and it shall that the LORD shall punish the host of the high ones that are on 22 high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth. And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison, and after many days shall they be visited.

 23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed, when the LORD of hosts shall reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem, and before his ancients gloriously.

25 O LORD, thou art my God; I will exalt thee, I will praise thy name; for thou hast done wonderful things; thy counsels of old are 2 faithfulness and truth. For thou hast made of a city an heap; of a defenced city a ruin: a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall 3 never be built. Therefore shall the strong people glorify thee, the 4 city of the terrible nations shall fear thee. For thou hast been a strength to the poor, a strength to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shadow from the heat, when the blast of 5 the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall. Thou shalt bring down the noise of strangers, as the heat in a dry place; even the heat with the shadow of a cloud: the branch of the terrible ones 6 shall be brought low. And in this mountain shall the LORD of hosts make unto all people a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well 7 refined. And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering cast over all people, and the vail that is spread over all 8 nations. He will swallow up death in victory; and the Lord GOD will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the rebuke of his people shall he take away from off all the earth: for the LORD hath spoken 9 it. And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is the LORD; we have 10 waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation. For in this mountain shall the hand of the LORD rest, and Moab shall be trodden down under him, even as straw is trodden down for

 of them, as he that swimmeth spreadeth forth his hands to swim:

In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah; We have 26 a strong city; salvation will God appoint for walls and bulwarks.
Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keepeth the 2 truth may enter in. Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose 3 mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee. Trust ye 4 in the LORD for ever: for in the LORD JEHOVAH is everlasting strength: For he bringeth down them that dwell on high; the 5 lofty city, he layeth it low; he layeth it low, even to the ground; he bringeth it even to the dust. The foot shall tread it down, 6 even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy. The way of 7 the just is uprightness: thou, most upright, dost weigh the path of the just. Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O LORD, have 8 we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee. With my soul have I desired thee in the 9 night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness. Let favour be shewed to the wicked, yet will 10 he not learn righteousness: in the land of uprightness will he deal unjustly, and will not behold the majesty of the LORD. LORD, 11 when thy hand is lifted up, they will not see: but they shall see, and be ashamed for their envy at the people; yea, the fire of thine enemies shall devour them. LORD, thou wilt ordain peace for 12 us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us. O LORD our 13 God, other lords beside thee have had dominion over us: but by thee only will we make mention of thy name. They are dead, 14 they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore hast thou visited and destroyed them, and made all their memory to perish. Thou hast increased the nation, O LORD, thou hast 15 increased the nation: thou art glorified: thou hadst removed it far unto all the ends of the earth. LORD, in trouble have they 16 visited thee, they poured out a prayer when thy chastening was upon them. Like as a woman with child, that draweth near the 17

 19 of the world fallen. Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the 20 dead. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, 21 until the indignation be overpast. For, behold, the LORD cometh out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.

27 In that day the LORD with his sore and great and strong sword shall punish leviathan the piercing serpent, even leviathan that crooked serpent; and he shall slay the dragon that is in the sea.
 2, 3 In that day sing ye unto her, A vineyard of red wine. I the LORD do keep it; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will 4 keep it night and day. Fury is not in me: who would set the briers and thorns against me in battle? I would go through them, 5 I would burn them together. Or let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; and he shall make peace with 6 me. He shall cause them that come of Jacob to take root: Israel shall blossom and bud, and fill the face of the world with fruit.
 7 Hath he smitten him, as he smote those that smote him? or is he slain according to the slaughter of them that are slain by him?
 8 In measure, when it shooteth forth, thou wilt debate with it: he stayeth his rough wind in the day of the east wind. By this

 10 images shall not stand up. Yet the defenced city shall be desolate, and the habitation forsaken, and left like a wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches 11 thereof. When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off: the women come, and set them on fire: for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have mercy on them, and he that formed them will shew them no favour. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the LORD shall 12 beat off from the channel of the river unto the stream of Egypt, and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel. And 13 it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the LORD in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Woe to the crown of pride, to the drunkards of Ephraim, whose 28 glorious beauty is a fading flower, which are on the head of the fat valleys of them that are overcome with wine! Behold, the 2 Lord hath a mighty and strong one, which as a tempest of hail and a destroying storm, as a flood of mighty waters overflowing, shall cast down to the earth with the hand. The crown of pride, 3 the drunkards of Ephraim, shall be trodden under feet: And the 4 glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be a fading flower, and as the hasty fruit before the summer; which when he that looketh upon it seeth, while it is yet in his hand he eateth it up. In that day shall the LORD of hosts be for a 5 crown of glory, and for a diadem of beauty, unto the residue of his people, And for a spirit of judgment to him that sitteth in 6 judgment, and for strength to them that turn the battle to the gate. But they also have erred through wine, and through strong 7 drink are out of the way; the priest and the prophet have erred through strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they are out of the way through strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment. For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so 8 that there is no place clean. Whom shall he teach knowledge? 9 and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. For precept 10 must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little: For with stammering lips 11 and another tongue will he speak to this people. To whom he said, 12 This is the rest wherewith ye may cause the weary to rest; and this is the refreshing; yet they would not hear. But the word of the 13 LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and 14 taken. Wherefore hear the word of the LORD, ye scornful men, 15 that rule this people which is in Jerusalem. Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and 16 under falsehood have we hid ourselves: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth 17 shall not make haste. Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the 18 refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place. And your covenant with death shall be disannulled, and your agreement with hell shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass 19 through, then ye shall be trodden down by it. From the time that it goeth forth it shall take you: for morning by morning shall it pass over, by day and by night: and it shall be a vexation only to 20 understand the report. For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it: and the covering narrower than that he 21 can wrap himself in it. For the LORD shall rise up as in mount Perazim, he shall be wroth as in the valley of Gibeon, that he may do his work, his strange work; and bring to pass his act, his 22 strange act. Now therefore be ye not mockers, lest your bands be made strong: for I have heard from the Lord GOD of hosts 23 a consumption, even determined upon the whole earth. Give ye 24 ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech. Doth the plowman plow all day to sow? doth he open and break the clods 25 of his ground? When he hath made plain the face thereof, doth he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and cast in the principal wheat and the appointed barley and the rie in 26 their place? For his God doth instruct him to discretion, and 27 doth teach him. For the fitches are not threshed with a threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the fitches are beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a 28 rod. Bread corn is bruised; because he will not ever be threshing it, nor break it with the wheel of his cart, nor bruise it with his horsemen. This also cometh forth from the LORD of hosts, which 29 is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in working.

Woe to Ariel, to Ariel, the city where David dwelt! add ye year 29 to year; let them kill sacrifices. Yet I will distress Ariel, and there 2 shall be heaviness and sorrow: and it shall be unto me as Ariel. And I will camp against thee round about, and will lay siege against 3 thee with a mount, and I will raise forts against thee. And thou 4 shalt be brought down, and shalt speak out of the ground, and thy speech shall be low out of the dust, and thy voice shall be, as of one that hath a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and thy speech shall whisper out of the dust. Moreover the multitude of 5 thy strangers shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones shall be as chaff that passeth away: yea, it shall be at an instant suddenly. Thou shalt be visited of the LORD of hosts 6 with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with storm and tempest, and the flame of devouring fire. And the multitude 7 of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her munition, and that distress her, shall be as a dream of a night vision. It shall even be as when an hungry man dreameth, 8 and, behold, he eateth; but he awaketh, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreameth, and, behold, he drinketh; but he awaketh, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul hath appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion. Stay yourselves, and wonder; cry ye out, and cry: they 9 are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink. For the LORD hath poured out upon you the spirit of deep 10 sleep, and hath closed your eyes: the prophets and your rulers, the seers hath he covered. And the vision of all is become unto 11 you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed: And the book is delivered to him that is 12 not learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I am not learned. Wherefore the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw 13 near me with their mouth, and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear toward me is do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder: for the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and 15 the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid. Woe unto them that seek deep to hide their counsel from the LORD, and their works are in the dark, and they say, Who seeth us? and who 16 knoweth us? Surely your turning of things upside down shall be esteemed as the potter's clay: for shall the work say of him that made it, He made me not? or shall the thing framed say of him that 17 framed it, He had no understanding? Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the 18 fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest? And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall 19 see out of obscurity, and out of darkness. The meek also shall increase their joy in the LORD, and the poor among men shall 20 rejoice in the Holy One of Israel. For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scorner is consumed, and all that watch for 21 iniquity are cut off: That make a man an offender for a word, and lay a snare for him that reproveth in the gate, and turn aside the 22 just for a thing of nought. Therefore thus saith the LORD, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob, Jacob shall 23 not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now wax pale. But when he seeth his children, the work of mine hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name, and sanctify the Holy One of 24 Jacob, and shall fear the God of Israel. They also that erred in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmured shall learn doctrine.

30 Woe to the rebellious children, saith the LORD, that take counsel, but not of me; and that cover with a covering, but not of my 2 spirit, that they may add sin to sin: That walk to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to trust in the shadow of Egypt!
3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the 4 trust in the shadow of Egypt your confusion. For his princes 5 were at Zoan, and his ambassadors came to Hanes. They were all ashamed of a people that could not profit them, nor be an help nor

For the Egyptians shall help in vain, and to no 7 purpose: therefore have I cried concerning this, Their strength is to sit still. Now go, write it before them in a table, and note it 8 in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever: That this is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will 9 not hear the law of the LORD: Which say to the seers, See not; 10 and to the prophets, Prophecy not unto us right things, speak unto us smooth things, prophecy deceits: Get you out of the way, turn 11 aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us. Wherefore thus saith the Holy One of Israel, Because 12 ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and stay thereon: Therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach 13 ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking cometh suddenly at an instant. And he shall break it as the breaking of 14 the potters' vessel that is broken in pieces; he shall not spare: so that there shall not be found in the bursting of it a sherd to take fire from the hearth, or to take water withal out of the pit. For 15 thus saith the Lord GOD, the Holy One of Israel; In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength: and ye would not. But ye said, No; for we will flee upon 16 horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift. One thousand shall 17 flee at the rebuke of one; at the rebuke of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on an hill. And therefore will the LORD wait, that he may be grac- 18 ious unto you, and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for the LORD is a God of judgment: blessed are all they that wait for him. For the people shall dwell in Zion at 19 Jerusalem: thou shalt weep no more: he will be very gracious unto thee at the voice of thy cry; when he shall hear it, he will answer thee. Ye shall defile also the covering of thy graven images of silver, and the ornament of thy molten images of gold: thou shalt cast them away as a menstruous cloth; thou shalt say unto it, Get thee hence. Then shall he give the rain of thy seed, that thou shalt sow the ground withal; and bread of the increase of the earth, and it shall be fat and plenteous: in that day shall thy cattle feed in large pastures. The oxen likewise and the young asses that ear the ground shall eat clean provender, which hath been winnowed with the shovel and with the fan. And there shall be upon every high mountain, and upon every high hill, rivers and streams of waters in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall. Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that the LORD bindeth up the breach of his people, and healeth the stroke of their wound. Behold, the name of the LORD cometh from far, burning with his anger, and the burden thereof is heavy: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue as a devouring fire: And his breath, as an overflowing stream, shall reach to the midst of the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of vanity: and there shall be a bridle in the jaws of the people, causing them to err. Ye shall have a song, as in the night when a holy solemnity is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goeth with a pipe to come into the mountain of the LORD, to the mighty One of Israel. And the LORD shall cause his glorious voice to be heard, and shall shew the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and with the flame of a devouring fire, with scattering, and tempest, and hailstones. For through the voice of the LORD shall the Assyrian be beaten down, which smote with a rod. Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help; and stay on horses, 31 and trust in chariots, because they are many; and in horsemen, because they are very strong; but they look not unto the Holy One of Israel, neither seek the LORD! Yet he also is wise, and will ² bring evil, and will not call back his words: but will arise against the house of the evildoers, and against the help of them that work iniquity. Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their ³ horses flesh, and not spirit. When the LORD shall stretch out his hand, both he that helpeth shall fall, and he that is holpen shall fall down, and they all shall fail together. For thus hath the LORD ⁴ spoken unto me, Like as the lion and the young lion roaring on his prey, when a multitude of shepherds is called forth against him, he will not be afraid of their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so shall the LORD of hosts come down to fight for mount Zion, and for the hill thereof. As birds flying, so will the LORD ⁵ of hosts defend Jerusalem; defending also he will deliver it; and passing over he will preserve it. Turn ye unto him from whom ⁶ the children of Israel have deeply revolted. For in that day every ⁷ man shall cast away his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made unto you for a sin. Then shall the ⁸ Assyrian fall with the sword, not of a mighty man; and the sword, not of a mean man, shall devour him: but he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall be discomfited. And he shall pass ⁹ over to his strong hold for fear, and his princes shall be afraid of the ensign, saith the LORD, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.

Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule 32 in judgment. and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.
5 The vile person shall be no more called liberal, nor the churl said 6 to be bountiful. For the vile person will speak villany, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise hypocrisy, and to utter error against the LORD, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and he 7 will cause the drink of the thirsty to fail. The instruments also of the churl are evil: he deviseth wicked devices to destroy the poor 8 with lying words, even when the needy speaketh right. But the liberal deviseth liberal things; and by liberal things shall he stand.
9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease; hear my voice, ye careless 10 daughters; give ear unto my speech. Many days and years shall ye be troubled, ye careless women: for the vintage shall fail, the 11 gathering shall not come. Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones: strip you, and make you bare, and 12 gird sackcloth upon your loins. They shall lament for the teats, 13 for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine. Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yea, upon all the houses 14 of joy in the joyous city: Because the palaces shall be forsaken; the multitude of the city shall be left; the forts and towers shall 15 be for dens for ever, a joy of wild asses, a pasture of flocks; Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.
16 Then judgment shall dwell in the wilderness, and righteousness 17 remain in the fruitful field. And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness quietness and assurance 18 for ever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, 19 and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places; When it shall hail, coming down on the forest; and the city shall be low in a low 20 place. Blessed are ye that sow beside all waters, that send forth thither the feet of the ox and the ass.
33 Woe to thee that spoilest, and thou wast not spoiled; and dealest treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with thee! when judgment and righteousness. And wisdom and knowledge shall be 6 the stability of thy times, and strength of salvation: the fear of the LORD is his treasure. Behold, their valiant ones shall cry without: 7 the ambassadors of peace shall weep bitterly. The highways lie 8 waste, the wayfaring man ceaseth: he hath broken the covenant, he hath despised the cities, he regardeth no man. The earth 9 dwell with everlasting burnings? He that walketh righteously, and 15 speaketh uprightly; he that despiseth the gain of oppressions, that shaketh his hands from holding of bribes, that stoppeth his ears from hearing of blood, and shutteth his eyes from seeing evil; He 16 there the glorious LORD will be unto us a place of broad rivers and people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.

34 Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye people: let the earth hear, and all that is therein; the world, and all things all nations, and his fury upon all their armies: he hath utterly

And 13 thorns shall come up in her palaces, nettles and brambles in the fortresses thereof: and it shall be an habitation of dragons, and a court for owls. The wild beasts of the desert shall also meet with 14 the wild beasts of the island, and the satyr shall cry to his fellow; the screech owl also shall rest there, and find for herself a place of rest. There shall the great owl make her nest, and lay, and 15 hatch, and gather under her shadow: there shall the vultures also be gathered, every one with her mate. Seek ye out of the book 16 of the LORD, and read: no one of these shall fail, none shall want her mate: for my mouth it hath commanded, and his spirit it hath gathered them. And he hath cast the lot for them, and his hand 17 hath divided it unto them by line: they shall possess it for ever, from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.

The wilderness and the solitary place shall be glad for them; 35 and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing: the glory of Lebanon shall be given unto it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon, they shall see the glory of the LORD, and the excellency of our God. Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble 3 knees. Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: 4 behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you. Then the eyes of the blind 5 shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then 6 shall the lame man leap as an hart, and the tongue of the dumb sing: for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert. And the parched ground shall become a pool, and the 7 thirsty land springs of water: in the habitation of dragons, where each lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes. And an highway 8 shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for those: the wayfaring men, though fools, shall not err therein. - 36 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the defenced cities 2 of Judah, and took them. And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem unto king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of 3 the fuller's field. Then came forth unto him Eliakim, Hilkiyah's son, which was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, 4 Asaph's son, the recorder. And Rabshakeh said unto them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, 5 What confidence is this wherein thou trustest? I say, sayest thou, (but they are but vain words) I have counsel and strength for war:
6 now on whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me? Lo, thou trustest in the staff of this broken reed, on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh 7 king of Egypt to all that trust in him. But if thou say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is it not he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and said to Judah and 8 to Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar? Now therefore give pledges, I pray thee, to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give thee two thousand horses, if thou be able on thy part to 9 set riders upon them. How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust
10 on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen? And am I now come up without the LORD against this land to destroy it? the LORD
11 said unto me, Go up against this land, and destroy it. Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah unto Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray thee, unto thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that 12 are on the wall. But Rabshakeh said, Hath my master sent me to thy master and to thee to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, that they may eat their saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you. Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us: this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria. Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me: and eat ye every one of his vine, and every one of his fig tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern; Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards. Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, The LORD will deliver us. Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria? Where are the gods of Hamath and Arphad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand? Who are they among all the gods of these lands, that have delivered their land out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand? But they held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not. Then came Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.

And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD. And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests covered with sackcloth, unto Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz. And they said unto him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of blasphemy: for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth. It may be the LORD thy God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God, and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that is left. So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah. And Isaiah said unto them, Thus shall ye say unto your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words that thou hast heard, wherewith the 8 own land. So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he was departed 9 from Lachish. And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come forth to make war with thee. And when he 10 heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God, in whom thou trustest, deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given 11 into the hand of the king of Assyria. Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands by destroying 12 them utterly; and shalt thou be delivered? Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed, as Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden which were in 13 Telassar? Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up unto the house of the LORD, and 15 spread it before the LORD. And Hezekiah prayed unto the LORD, saying, O LORD of hosts, God of Israel, that dwellest between the cherubims, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms 17 of the earth: thou hast made heaven and earth. Incline thine ear, O LORD, and hear; open thine eyes, O LORD, and see: and hear all the words of Sennacherib, which hath sent to reproach the living 18 God. Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the nations, and their countries, And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood 20 and stone: therefore they have destroyed them. Now therefore, O LORD our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the 21 earth may know that thou art the LORD, even thou only. Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent unto Hezekiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Whereas thou hast prayed to me against 22 Sennacherib king of Assyria: This is the word which the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin, the daughter of Zion, hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir trees thereof: and I will enter into the height of his border, and the forest of his Carmel. I have 25 dugged, and drunk water; and with the sole of my feet have I dried up all the rivers of the besieged places. Hast thou not heard long 26 ago, how I have done it; and of ancient times, that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldest be to lay waste defenced cities into ruinous heaps. Therefore their inhabitants 27 were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded: they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as corn blasted before it be grown up. But 28

I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me. Because thy rage against me, and thy tumult, is 29 come up into mine ears, therefore will I put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest. And this shall be a sign unto thee, Ye 30 shall eat this year such as groweth of itself; and the second year that which springeth of the same: and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof. And the 31 remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward: For out of Jerusalem shall go 32 forth a remnant, and they that escape out of mount Zion: the zeal of the LORD of hosts shall do this. Therefore thus saith the LORD 33 concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come into this city, nor shoot an arrow there, nor come before it with shields, nor cast a bank against it. By the way that he came, by the same shall he 34 return, and shall not come into this city, saith the LORD. For I 35 will defend this city to save it for mine own sake, and for my servant David's sake. Then the angel of the LORD went forth, and smote 36

 37 were all dead corpses. So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, 38 and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh. And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Armenia: and Esarhaddon his son reigned in his stead.

38 In those days was Hezekiah sick unto death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came unto him, and said unto him, Thus saith the LORD, Set thine house in order: for thou shalt die, and 2 not live. Then Hezekiah turned his face toward the wall, and 3 prayed unto the LORD, And said, Remember now, O LORD, I beseech thee, how I have walked before thee in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in thy sight. And 4 Hezekiah wept sore. Then came the word of the LORD to Isaiah, 5 saying, Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: 6 behold, I will add unto thy days fifteen years. And I will deliver thee and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria: and 7 I will defend this city. And this shall be a sign unto thee from the LORD, that the LORD will do this thing that he hath spoken; 8 Behold, I will bring again the shadow of the degrees, which is gone down in the sun dial of Ahaz, ten degrees backward. So the sun 9 returned ten degrees, by which degrees it was gone down. The 10 was recovered of his sickness: I said in the cutting off of my days, I shall go to the gates of the grave: I am deprived of the residue of 11 my years. I said, I shall not see the LORD, even the LORD, in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants 12 of the world. Mine age is departed, and is removed from me as a shepherd's tent: I have cut off like a weaver my life: he will cut me off with pining sickness: from day even to night wilt thou make 13 an end of me. I reckoned till morning, that, as a lion, so will he break all my bones: from day even to night wilt thou make an

I am oppressed; undertake for me. What shall I say? he hath 15 both spoken unto me, and himself hath done it: I shall go softly all my years in the bitterness of my soul. O Lord, by these things 16 men live, and in all these things is the life of my spirit: so wilt thou recover me, and make me to live. Behold, for peace I had 17 great bitterness: but thou hast in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption: for thou hast cast all my sins behind thy back. For the grave cannot praise thee, death can not celebrate 18 thee: they that go down into the pit cannot hope for thy truth.
 The living, the living, he shall praise thee, as I do this day: the 19 father to the children shall make known thy truth. The LORD was 20 ready to save me: therefore we will sing my songs to the stringed instruments all the days of our life in the house of the LORD. For 21 Isaiah had said, Let them take a lump of figs, and lay it for a plaister upon the boil, and he shall recover. Hezekiah also had 22 said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of the LORD?

At that time Merodachbaladan, the son of Baladan, king of 39 Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah: for he had heard that he had been sick, and was recovered. And Hezekiah was glad 2 of them, and shewed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious ointment, and all the house of his armour, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah shewed them not. Then came Isaiah the prophet 3 unto king Hezekiah, and said unto him, What said these men? and from whence came they unto thee? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country unto me, even from Babylon. Then said 4 he, What have they seen in thine house? And Hezekiah answered, All that is in mine house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shewed them. Then said Isaiah to 5 Hezekiah, Hear the word of the LORD of hosts: Behold, the days 6 come, that all that is in thine house, and that which thy fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, saith the LORD. And of thy sons that shall 7 issue from thee, which thou shalt beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon. Then 8 said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of the LORD which thou hast spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.

6 The voice said, Cry. And he said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodness thereof is as the flower of the field:
7 The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: because the spirit of the LORD bloweth upon it: surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth: but the word of our God shall stand

 God? or what likeness will ye compare unto him? The workman 19 melteth a graven image, and the goldsmith spreadeth it over with gold, and casteth silver chains. He that is so impoverished that 20 he hath no oblation chooseth a tree that will not rot; he seeketh unto him a cunning workman to prepare a graven image, that shall it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood be planted; yea, they shall not be sown: yea, their stock shall not take root in the earth: and he shall also blow upon them, and they shall wither, and the whirlwind shall take them away as stubble.

 To whom then will ye liken me, or shall I be equal? saith the Holy 25
 One. Lift up your eyes on high, and behold who hath created 26 these things, that bringeth out their host by number: he calleth them all by names by the greatness of his might, for that he is strong in power; not one faileth. Why sayest thou, O Jacob, and 27 speakest, O Israel, My way is hid from the LORD, and my judgment is passed over from my God? Hast thou not known? hast 28 thou not heard, that the everlasting God, the LORD, the Creator of the ends of the earth, fainteth not, neither is weary? there is no searching of his understanding. He giveth power to the faint; 29 and to them that have no might he increaseth strength. Even 30 the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall: But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their 31 strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

 forth judgment unto truth. He shall not fail nor be discouraged, 4 till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his 5 law. Thus saith God the LORD, he that created the heavens, and stretched them out; he that spread forth the earth, and that which cometh out of it; he that giveth breath unto the people upon it, 6 and spirit to them that walk therein: I the LORD have called thee in righteousness, and will hold thine hand, and will keep thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles; 7 To open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the prison, 8 and them that sit in darkness out of the prison house. I am the LORD: that is my name: and my glory will I not give to another, 9 neither my praise to graven images. Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare: before they spring 10 forth I tell you of them. Sing unto the LORD a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth, ye that go down to the sea, 11 and all that is therein; the isles, and the inhabitants thereof. Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar doth inhabit: let the inhabitants of the rock sing, let 12 them shout from the top of the mountains. Let them give glory 13 unto the LORD, and declare his praise in the islands. The LORD shall go forth as a mighty man, he shall stir up jealousy like a man of war: he shall cry, yea, roar; he shall prevail against his enemies.

 14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now will I cry like a travailing woman; I will destroy and 15 devour at once. I will make waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and I will dry up 16 the pools. And I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not;
 I will lead them in paths that they have not known: I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These 17 things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. They shall be turned back, they shall be greatly ashamed, that trust in graven 18 images, that say to the molten images, Ye are our gods. Hear, ye 19 deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see. Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I sent? who is blind as he 20 that is perfect, and blind as the LORD's servant? Seeing many things, but thou observest not; opening the ears, but he heareth 21 not. The LORD is well pleased for his righteousness' sake; he will magnify the law, and make it honourable. But this is a people 22 robbed and spoiled; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison houses: they are for a prey, and none delivereth; for a spoil, and none saith, Restore. Who among you will give ear 23 to this? who will hearken and hear for the time to come? Who 24 gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not the LORD, he against whom we have sinned? for they would not walk in his ways, neither were they obedient unto his law. Therefore he hath 25 poured upon him the fury of his anger, and the strength of battle: and it hath set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.

But now thus saith the LORD that created thee, O Jacob, and 43 he that formed thee, O Israel, Fear not: for I have redeemed thee, I have called thee by thy name; thou art mine. When thou passest 2 through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned; neither shall the flame kindle upon thee.
 For I am the LORD thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour: 3
 I gave Egypt for thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba for thee. Since 4 thou wast precious in my sight, thou hast been honourable, and I have loved thee: therefore will I give men for thee, and people for thy life. Fear not: for I am with thee: I will bring thy seed from 5 the east, and gather thee from the west; I will say to the north, 6 Give up; and to the south, Keep not back: bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the ends of the earth; Even every one that 7 is called by my name: for I have created him for my glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him. Bring forth the blind people 8 that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears. Let all the nations be 9 gathered together, and let the people be assembled: who among them can declare this, and shew us former things? let them bring forth their witnesses, that they may be justified: or let them hear, and say, It is truth. Ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, and 10 my servant whom I have chosen: that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me. I, even I, am the LORD; 11 and beside me there is no saviour. I have declared, and have 12 saved, and I have shewed, when there was no strange god among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, saith the LORD, that I am God.

 13 Yea, before the day was I am he; and there is none that can deliver 14 out of my hand: I will work, and who shall let it? Thus saith the LORD, your redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and have brought down all their nobles, and the 15 Chaldeans, whose cry is in the ships. I am the LORD, your Holy 16 One, the creator of Israel, your King. Thus saith the LORD, which 17 maketh a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters; Which bringeth forth the chariot and horse, the army and the power; they shall lie down together, they shall not rise: they are extinct, they 18 are quenched as tow. Remember ye not the former things, neither 19 consider the things of old. Behold, I will do a new thing; now it shall spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way 20 in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert. The beast of the field shall honour me, the dragons and the owls: because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my 21 people, my chosen. This people have I formed for myself; they 22 shall shew forth my praise. But thou hast not called upon me, 23 O Jacob; but thou hast been weary of me, O Israel. Thou hast not brought me the small cattle of thy burnt offerings; neither hast thou honoured me with thy sacrifices. I have not caused thee to 24 serve with an offering, nor wearied thee with incense. Thou hast bought me no sweet cane with money, neither hast thou filled me with the fat of thy sacrifices: but thou hast made me to serve with 25 thy sins, thou hast wearied me with thine iniquities. I, even I, am he that blotteth out thy transgressions for mine own sake, and 26 will not remember thy sins. Put me in remembrance: let us plead 27 together: declare thou, that thou mayest be justified. Thy first father hath sinned, and thy teachers have transgressed against me.
 28 Therefore I have profaned the princes of the sanctuary, and have given Jacob to the curse, and Israel to reproaches.
 44 Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant; and Israel, whom I have 2 chosen: Thus saith the LORD that made thee, and formed thee from the womb, which will help thee; Fear not, O Jacob, my ser-water upon him that is thirsty, and floods upon the dry ground: I will pour my spirit upon thy seed, and my blessing upon thine offspring: And they shall spring up as among the grass, as wil- 4 lows by the water courses. One shall say, I am the LORD'S; and 5 another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand unto the LORD, and surname himself by the name of Israel. Thus saith the LORD the King of Israel, and 6 his redeemer the LORD of hosts; I am the first, and I am the last; and beside me there is no God. And who, as I, shall call, and 7 shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I appointed the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and shall come, let them shew unto them. Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have not 8

 I told thee from that time, and have declared it? ye are even my witnesses. Is there a God beside me? yea, there is no God; I know not any. They that make a graven image are all of them van- 9 ity; and their delectable things shall not profit; and they are their own witnesses; they see not, nor know; that they may be ashamed. Who hath formed a god, or molten a graven image that is prof- 10 itable for nothing? Behold, all his fellows shall be ashamed: and 11 the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; yet they shall fear, and they shall be ashamed together. The smith with the tongs both worketh in the coals, 12 and fashioneth it with hammers, and worketh it with the strength of his arms: yea, he is hungry, and his strength faileth: he drinketh no water, and is faint. The carpenter stretcheth out his rule; he 13 marketh it out with a line; he fitteth it with planes, and he marketh it out with the compass, and maketh it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man; that it may remain in the house. He heweth him down cedars, and taketh the cypress and the oak, 14 which he strengtheneth for himself among the trees of the forest: he planteth an ash, and the rain doth nourish it. Then shall it 15 be for a man to burn: for he will take thereof, and warm himself; yea, he kindleth it, and baketh bread; yea, he maketh a god, and worshippeth it; he maketh it a graven image, and falleth down thereto. He burneth part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he 16 eateth flesh; he roasteth roast, and is satisfied: yea, he warmeth himself, and saith, Aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire: And 17

 18 saith, Deliver me; for thou art my god. They have not known nor understood: for he hath shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and 19 their hearts, that they cannot understand. And none considereth in his heart, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yea, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh, and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to 20 the stock of a tree? He feedeth on ashes: a deceived heart hath turned him aside, that he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there 21 not a lie in my right hand? Remember these, O Jacob and Israel; for thou art my servant: I have formed thee; thou art my servant:
 22 O Israel, thou shalt not be forgotten of me. I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, thy transgressions, and, as a cloud, thy sins: re-
 23 turn unto me; for I have redeemed thee. Sing, O ye heavens; for the LORD hath done it: shout, ye lower parts of the earth: break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and glorified himself in Israel.
 24 Thus saith the LORD, thy redeemer, and he that formed thee from the womb, I am the LORD that maketh all things; that stretcheth forth the heavens alone; that spreadeth abroad the earth by 25 myself; That frustrateth the tokens of the liars, and maketh diviners mad; that turneth wise men backward, and maketh their 26 knowledge foolish; That confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers; that saith to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be inhabited; and to the cities of Judah, Ye shall be 27 built, and I will raise up the decayed places thereof: That saith to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up thy rivers: That saith of 28 Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure: even saying to Jerusalem, Thou shalt be built; and to the temple, Thy foundation shall be laid.

45 Thus saith the LORD to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him; and I will loose the loins of kings, to open before him the two leaved gates; and 2 the gates shall not be shut; I will go before thee, and make the crooked places straight: I will break in pieces the gates of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron: And I will give thee the treasures 3 of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that thou mayest know that I, the LORD, which call thee by thy name, am the God of Israel. For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel mine elect, I 4 have even called thee by thy name: I have surnamed thee, though thou hast not known me. I am the LORD, and there is none else, 5 there is no God beside me: I girded thee, though thou hast not known me: That they may know from the rising of the sun, and 6 from the west, that there is none beside me. I am the LORD, and there is none else. I form the light, and create darkness: I make 7 peace, and create evil: I the LORD do all these things. Drop down, 8 ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, and let them bring forth salvation, and let righteousness spring up together; I the LORD have created it. Woe 9 unto him that striveth with his Maker! Let the potsherd strive with the potsherds of the earth. Shall the clay say to him that fashioneth it, What makest thou? or thy work, He hath no hands?

Woe unto him that saith unto his father, What begetteth thou? 10 or to the woman, What hast thou brought forth? Thus saith the 11 LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me. I have made the earth, and created man upon 12 it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens, and all their host have I commanded. I have raised him up in righteousness, 13 and I will direct all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let go my captives, not for price nor reward, saith the LORD of hosts.
Thus saith the LORD, The labour of Egypt, and merchandise of 14 Ethiopia and of the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over unto thee, and they shall be thine: they shall come after thee; in chains they shall come over, and they shall fall down unto thee, they shall make supplication unto thee, saying, Surely God is in thee; and there is none else, there is no God. Verily thou art a God 15 that hidest thyself, O God of Israel, the Saviour. They shall 16 be ashamed, and also confounded, all of them: they shall go to confusion together that are makers of idols. But Israel shall be 17 saved in the LORD with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be ashamed nor confounded world without end. For thus saith the 18 LORD that created the heavens; God himself that formed the earth and made it; he hath established it, he created it not in vain, he formed it to be inhabited: I am the LORD; and there is none else.

19 I have not spoken in secret, in a dark place of the earth: I said not unto the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I the LORD speak

20 righteousness, I declare things that are right. Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that set up the wood of their graven image,

21 and pray unto a god that cannot save. Tell ye, and bring them near; yea, let them take counsel together: who hath declared this from ancient time? who hath told it from that time? have not I the LORD? and there is no God else beside me; a just God and

22 a Saviour; there is none beside me. Look unto me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth: for I am God, and there is none

23 else. I have sworn by myself, the word is gone out of my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, That unto me every knee

24 shall bow, every tongue shall swear. Surely, shall one say, in the LORD have I righteousness and strength: even to him shall men

25 come; and all that are incensed against him shall be ashamed. In the LORD shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.

46 Bel boweth down, Nebo stoopeth, their idols were upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: your carriages were heavy loaden;

2 they are a burden to the weary beast. They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are

3 gone into captivity. Harken unto me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, which are borne by me from

4 the belly, which are carried from the womb: And even to your old age I am he; and even to hoar hairs will I carry you: I have

5 made, and I will bear; even I will carry, and will deliver you. To whom will ye liken me, and make me equal, and compare me, that

 Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the 10 things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure: Calling a ravenous bird from the east, 11 the man that executeth my counsel from a far country: yea, I have spoken it, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed it, I will also do it. Hearken unto me, ye stouthearted, that are far from 12 righteousness: I bring near my righteousness; it shall not be far 13 off, and my salvation shall not tarry: and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.

Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon, 47 sit on the ground: there is no throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called tender and delicate. Take the 2 millstones, and grind meal: uncover thy locks, make bare the leg, uncover the thigh, pass over the rivers. Thy nakedness shall be 3 uncovered, yea, thy shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and I will not meet thee as a man. As for our redeemer, the 4 LORD of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel. Sit thou 5 silent, and get thee into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for thou shalt no more be called, The lady of kingdoms. I was 6 wroth with my people, I have polluted mine inheritance, and given them into thine hand: thou didst shew them no mercy; upon the ancient hast thou very heavily laid thy yoke. And thou saidst, I 7 shall be a lady for ever: so that thou didst not lay these things to thy heart, neither didst remember the latter end of it. Therefore 8 hear now this, thou that art given to pleasures, that dwellest carelessly, that sayest in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children: But these two things shall come to thee in a moment in one day, 9 the loss of children, and widowhood: they shall come upon thee in their perfection for the multitude of thy sorceries, and for the great abundance of thine enchantments. For thou hast trusted in 10 thy wickedness: thou hast said, None seeth me. Thy wisdom and thy knowledge, it hath perverted thee; and thou hast said in thine heart, I am, and none else beside me. Therefore shall evil come 11 upon thee; thou shalt not know from whence it riseth: and mischief shall fall upon thee; thou shalt not be able to put it off: and desolation shall come upon thee suddenly, which thou shalt not 12 know. Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast laboured from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

 13 Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, 14 and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee. Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: there shall not
 15 be a coal to warm at, nor fire to sit before it. Thus shall they be unto thee with whom thou hast laboured, even thy merchants, from thy youth: they shall wander every one to his quarter; none shall save thee.

48 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, which are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah, which swear by the name of the LORD, and make mention of the God of Israel, 2 but not in truth, nor in righteousness. For they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; The 3 LORD of hosts is his name. I have declared the former things from the beginning; and they went forth out of my mouth, and I shewed 4 them; I did them suddenly, and they came to pass. Because I knew that thou art obstinate, and thy neck is an iron sinew, and 5 thy brow brass; I have even from the beginning declared it to thee; before it came to pass I shewed it thee: lest thou shouldest say, Mine idol hath done them, and my graven image, and my 6 molten image, hath commanded them. Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.
 7 They are created now, and not from the beginning; even before the day when thou heardest them not; lest thou shouldest say,
 8 Behold, I knew them. Yea, thou heardest not; yea, thou knewest not; yea, from that time that thine ear was not opened: for I knew that thou wouldest deal very treacherously, and wast called 9 a transgressor from the womb. For my name's sake will I defer mine anger, and for my praise will I refrain for thee, that I cut 10 thee not off. Behold, I have refined thee, but not with silver; I even for mine own sake, will I do it: for how should my name be polluted? and I will not give my glory unto another. Hearken 12 unto me, O Jacob and Israel, my called; I am he; I am the first, I also am the last. Mine hand also hath laid the foundation of the 13 earth, and my right hand hath spanned the heavens: when I call unto them, they stand up together. All ye, assemble yourselves, 14 and hear; which among them hath declared these things? The LORD hath loved him: he will do his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans. I, even I, have spoken; yea, I 15 have called him: I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous. Come ye near unto me, hear ye this; I have not spoken 16 in secret from the beginning; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord GOD, and his Spirit, hath sent me. Thus 17 saith the LORD, thy Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel; I am the LORD thy God which teacheth thee to profit, which leadeth thee by the way that thou shouldest go. O that thou hadst hearkened 18 to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river, and thy righteousness as the waves of the sea: Thy seed also had been 19 as the sand, and the offspring of thy bowels like the gravel thereof; his name should not have been cut off nor destroyed from before me. Go ye forth of Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans, with a 20 voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth; say ye, The LORD hath redeemed his servant Jacob. And 21 they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts: he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them: he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out. There is no peace, saith the LORD, 22 unto the wicked.

Listen, O isles, unto me; and hearken, ye people, from far; 49 The LORD hath called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother hath he made mention of my name. And he hath made 2 my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand hath he hid me, and made me a polished shaft; in his quiver hath he hid me; And said unto me, Thou art my servant, O Israel, in whom 3 I will be glorified. Then I said, I have laboured in vain, I have 4 spent my strength for nought, and in vain: yet surely my judgment is with the LORD, and my work with my God. And now, 5 saith the LORD that formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, Though Israel be not gathered, yet shall I be glorious in the eyes of the LORD, and my God shall be 6 my strength. And he said, It is a light thing that thou shouldest be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give thee for a light to the Gentiles, that thou mayest be my salvation unto the end of the earth.

7 Thus saith the LORD, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despiseth, to him whom the nation abhorreth, to a servant of rulers, Kings shall see and arise, princes also shall worship, because of the LORD that is faithful, and the Holy One 8 of Israel, and he shall choose thee. Thus saith the LORD, In an acceptable time have I heard thee, and in a day of salvation have I helped thee: and I will preserve thee, and give thee for a covenant of the people, to establish the earth, to cause to inherit the desolate heritages; That thou mayest say to the prisoners, Go forth;
9 to them that are in darkness, Shew yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and their pastures shall be in all high places. They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that hath mercy on them shall lead them, even by 10 the springs of water shall he guide them. And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted. Behold, these shall come from far: and, lo, these from the north and from 11 the west; and these from the land of Sinim. Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains: for the LORD hath comforted his people, and will have mercy upon 12 his afflicted. But Zion said, The LORD hath forsaken me, and my Lord hath forgotten me. Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? yea, 13 they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me. Thy children shall make haste; thy destroyers and they that 14 made thee waste shall go forth of thee. Lift up thine eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to thee. As I live, saith the LORD, thou shalt surely clothe thee with them all, as with an ornament, and bind them on thee, as a 15 bride doeth. For thy waste and thy desolate places, and the land of thy destruction, shall even now be too narrow by reason of the inhabitants, and they that swallowed thee up shall be far away. The children which thou shalt have, after thou hast lost the other, 20 shall say again in thine ears, The place is too strait for me: give place to me that I may dwell. Then shalt thou say in thine heart, 21 Who hath begotten me these, seeing I have lost my children, and am desolate, a captive, and removing to and fro? and who hath brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where had they been? Thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I will lift up mine hand 22 to the Gentiles, and set up my standard to the people: and they shall bring thy sons in their arms, and thy daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders. And kings shall be thy nursing fathers, 23 and their queens thy nursing mothers: they shall bow down to thee with their face toward the earth, and lick up the dust of thy feet; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: for they shall not be ashamed that wait for me. Shall the prey be taken from the 24 mighty, or the lawful captive delivered? But thus saith the LORD, 25 Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered: for I will contend with him that contendeth with thee, and I will save thy children. And I will 26 feed them that oppress thee with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob.

Thus saith the LORD, Where is the bill of your mother's di- 50 vorcement, whom I have put away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities have ye sold yourselves, and for your transgressions is your mother put away. Wherefore, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was 2 there none to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stinketh, because there is no water, and dieth for thirst. I clothe the heavens 3 with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering. The Lord 4 GOD hath given me the tongue of the learned, that I should know how to speak a word in season to him that is weary: he wakeneth morning by morning, he wakeneth mine ear to hear as the learned.

5 The Lord GOD hath opened mine ear, and I was not rebellious, 6 neither turned away back. I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair: I hid not my face from 7 shame and spitting. For the Lord GOD will help me; therefore shall I not be confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, 8 and I know that I shall not be ashamed. He is near that justifieth me; who will contend with me? let us stand together: who is mine 9 adversary? let him come near to me. Behold, the Lord GOD will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? lo, they all shall wax 10 old as a garment; the moth shall eat them up. Who is among you that feareth the LORD, that obeyeth the voice of his servant, that walketh in darkness, and hath no light? let him trust in the name 11 of the LORD, and stay upon his God. Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that compass yourselves about with sparks: walk in the light of your fire, and in the sparks that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of mine hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole 2 of the pit whence ye are digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed 3 him, and increased him. For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of 4 melody. Hearken unto me, my people; and give ear unto me, O my nation: for a law shall proceed from me, and I will make my 5 judgment to rest for a light of the people. My righteousness is near; my salvation is gone forth, and mine arms shall judge the people; the isles shall wait upon me, and on mine arm shall they 6 trust. Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath: for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall wax old like a garment, and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and 7 my righteousness shall not be abolished. Hearken unto me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye afraid of their revilings.
 8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool: but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation from generation to generation. Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of the LORD; awake, as in the ancient days, in the generations of old. Art thou not it that hath cut Rahab, and wounded the dragon? Art thou not it which hath dried the sea, the waters of the great deep; that hath made the depths of the sea a way for the ransomed to pass over? Therefore the redeemed of the LORD shall return, and come with singing unto Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their head: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and mourning shall flee away. I, even I, am he that comforteth you: who art thou, that thou shouldst be afraid of a man that shall die, and of the son of man which shall be made as grass; And forgettest the LORD thy maker, that hath stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and hast feared continually every day because of the fury of the oppressor, as if he were ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor? The captive exile hasteneth that he may be loosed, and that he should not die in the pit, nor that his bread should fail.

 But I am the LORD thy God, that divided the sea, whose waves roared: The LORD of hosts is his name. And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people. Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, which hast drunk at the hand of the LORD the cup of his fury; thou hast drunken the dregs of the cup of trembling, and wrung them out. There is none to guide her among all the sons whom she hath brought forth; neither is there any that taketh her by the hand of all the sons that she hath brought up. These two things are come unto thee; who shall be sorry for thee? desolation, and destruction, and the famine, and the sword: by whom shall I comfort thee? Thy sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as a wild bull in a net: they are full of the fury of the LORD, the rebuke of thy God. Therefore hear now this, thou afflicted, and drunken, but not with wine: Thus saith thy Lord the LORD, and thy God that pleadeth the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of thine hand the cup of trembling, even the dregs of the cup of my fury; thou shalt no more drink it again:
 But I will put it into the hand of them that afflict thee; which have said to thy soul, Bow down, that we may go over: and thou hast laid thy body as the ground, and as the street, to them that went over.

- 52 Awake, awake; put on thy strength, O Zion; put on thy beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city: for henceforth there shall no 2 more come into thee the uncircumcised and the unclean. Shake thyself from the dust; arise, and sit down, O Jerusalem: loose thyself from the bands of thy neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
 3 For thus saith the LORD, Ye have sold yourselves for nought; and 4 ye shall be redeemed without money. For thus saith the Lord GOD, My people went down aforetime into Egypt to sojourn there;
 5 and the Assyrian oppressed them without cause. Now therefore, what have I here, saith the LORD, that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them make them to howl, saith the LORD; and my name continually every day is blasphemed.
 6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that doth speak: behold, it is I.
 7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace; that bringeth good tidings of good, that publisheth salvation; that saith unto Zion, Thy God
 8 reigneth! Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the 9 LORD shall bring again Zion. Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem: for the LORD hath comforted his 10 people, he hath redeemed Jerusalem. The LORD hath made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the 11 earth shall see the salvation of our God. Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from thence, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst 12 of her; be ye clean, that bear the vessels of the LORD. For ye shall not go out with haste, nor go by flight: for the LORD will go 13 before you; and the God of Israel will be your rereward. Behold, my servant shall deal prudently, he shall be exalted and extolled, 14 and be very high. As many were astonished at thee; his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of 15 men: So shall he sprinkle many nations; the kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they consider.
- 53 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed? For he shall grow up before him as a tender 2 plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he hath no form nor comeliness; and when we shall see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him. He is despised and rejected of men; a 3 man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; he was despised, and we esteemed him not.

 Surely he hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we 4 did esteem him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted. But he was 5 wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed. All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned 6 every one to his own way; and the LORD hath laid on him the iniquity of us all. He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he 7 opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who 8 shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.
 And he made his grave with the wicked, and with the rich in his 9 death; because he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth. Yet it pleased the LORD to bruise him; he hath put 10 him to grief: when thou shalt make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of the LORD shall prosper in his hand. He shall see of the travail of his 11 soul, and shall be satisfied: by his knowledge shall my righteous servant justify many; for he shall bear their iniquities. Therefore 12 will I divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he hath poured out his soul unto death: and he was numbered with the transgressors; and he bare the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

Sing, O barren, thou that didst not bear; break forth into 54 singing, and cry aloud, thou that didst not travail with child: for more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, saith the LORD. Enlarge the place of thy tent, and 2 let them stretch forth the curtains of thine habitations: spare not, 3 lengthen thy cords, and strengthen thy stakes; For thou shalt break forth on the right hand and on the left; and thy seed shall inherit the Gentiles, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.

4 Fear not; for thou shalt not be ashamed: neither be thou confounded; for thou shalt not be put to shame: for thou shalt forget 5 thy widowhood any more. For thy Maker is thine husband; the LORD of hosts is his name; and thy Redeemer the Holy One of 6 Israel; The God of the whole earth shall he be called. For the LORD hath called thee as a woman forsaken and grieved in spirit, 7 and a wife of youth, when thou wast refused, saith thy God. For a small moment have I forsaken thee; but with great mercies will 8 I gather thee. In a little wrath I hid my face from thee for a moment; but with everlasting kindness will I have mercy on thee, 9 saith the LORD thy Redeemer. For this is as the waters of Noah unto me: for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah should no more go over the earth; so have I sworn that I would not be wroth 10 with thee, nor rebuke thee. For the mountains shall depart, and the hills be removed; but my kindness shall not depart from thee, neither shall the covenant of my peace be removed, saith the LORD 11 that hath mercy on thee. O thou afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will lay thy stones with fair colours, 12 and lay thy foundations with sapphires. And I will make thy windows of agates, and thy gates of carbuncles, and all thy borders 13 of pleasant stones. And all thy children shall be taught of the LORD; and great shall be the peace of thy children. In righteousness shalt thou be established: thou shalt be far from oppression; for thou shalt not fear: and from terror; for it shall not come near 15 thee. Behold, they shall surely gather together, but not by me: whosoever shall gather together against thee shall fall for thy sake.
16 Behold, I have created the smith that bloweth the coals in the fire, and that bringeth forth an instrument for his work; and I have 17 created the waster to destroy. No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.
55 Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Wherefore do ye spend 2 money for that which is not bread? and your labour for that which satisfieth not? hearken diligently unto me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness. Incline your 3 ear, and come unto me: hear, and your soul shall live; and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David. Behold, I have given him for a witness to the people, a 4 leader and commander to the people. Behold, thou shalt call a 5 nation that thou knowest not, and nations that knew not thee shall run unto thee because of the LORD thy God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he hath glorified thee. Seek ye the LORD while he 6 may be found, call ye upon him while he is near: Let the wicked 7 forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts: and let him return unto the LORD, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon. For my thoughts are not 8 your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the LORD.

 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher 9 than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts. For as the 10 rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater: So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not 11 return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it. For ye shall go 12 out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing, and all the trees of the field shall clap their hands. Instead of the thorn shall come 13 up the fir tree, and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall be to the LORD for a name, for an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for 56 my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.
 Blessed is the man that doeth this, and the son of man that layeth 2 hold on it; that keepeth the sabbath from polluting it, and keepeth his hand from doing any evil. Neither let the son of the stranger, 3 that hath joined himself to the LORD, speak, saying, The LORD hath utterly separated me from his people: neither let the eunuch eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please 5 me, and take hold of my covenant; Even unto them will I give in mine house and within my walls a place and a name better than of sons and of daughters: I will give them an everlasting name, 6 that shall not be cut off. Also the sons of the stranger, that join themselves to the LORD, to serve him, and to love the name of the LORD, to be his servants, every one that keepeth the sabbath 7 from polluting it, and taketh hold of my covenant; Even them will I bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon mine altar; for mine house shall be called an house 8 of prayer for all people. The Lord GOD which gathereth the outcasts of Israel saith, Yet will I gather others to him, beside 9 those that are gathered unto him. All ye beasts of the field, come 10 to devour, yea, all ye beasts in the forest. His watchmen are blind: they are all ignorant, they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; 11 sleeping, lying down, loving to slumber. Yea, they are greedy dogs which can never have enough, and they are shepherds that cannot understand: they all look to their own way, every one for his gain, 12 from his quarter. Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and to morrow shall be as this day, and much more abundant.

 4 adulterer and the whore. Against whom do ye sport yourselves?
 against whom make ye a wide mouth, and draw out the tongue?
 5 are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood, Enflaming offering. Should I receive comfort in these? Upon a lofty and 7 high mountain hast thou set thy bed: even thither wentest thou up to offer sacrifice. Behind the doors also and the posts hast 8 thou set up thy remembrance: for thou hast discovered thyself to another than me, and art gone up; thou hast enlarged thy bed, and made thee a covenant with them; thou lovedst their bed where thou sawest it. And thou wentest to the king with ointment, and 9 didst increase thy perfumes, and didst send thy messengers far off, and didst debase thyself even unto hell. Thou art wearied in the 10 greatness of thy way; yet saidst thou not, There is no hope: thou hast found the life of thine hand; therefore thou wast not grieved.

And of whom hast thou been afraid or feared, that thou hast lied, 11 and hast not remembered me, nor laid it to thy heart? have not I held my peace even of old, and thou fearest me not? I will 12 declare thy righteousness, and thy works; for they shall not profit thee. When thou criest, let thy companies deliver thee; but the 13 wind shall carry them all away; vanity shall take them: but he that putteth his trust in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain; And shall say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the 14 way, take up the stumblingblock out of the way of my people. For 15 thus saith the high and lofty One that inhabiteth eternity, whose name is Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones. For I will 16 not contend for ever, neither will I be always wroth: for the spirit should fail before me, and the souls which I have made. For the 17 iniquity of his covetousness was I wroth, and smote him: I hid me, and was wroth, and he went on frowardly in the way of his heart.
I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and 18 restore comforts unto him and to his mourners. I create the fruit 19 of the lips; Peace, peace to him that is far off, and to him that is near, saith the LORD; and I will heal him. But the wicked are 20 like the troubled sea, when it cannot rest, whose waters cast up mire and dirt. There is no peace, saith my God, to the wicked. 21 my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins.

2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways, as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God: they ask of me the ordinances of justice; they take delight in approaching to God. Wherefore have we fasted, say they, and thou seest not? wherefore have we afflicted our soul, and thou takest no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find pleasure, and exact all your labours. Behold, ye fast for strife and debate, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye shall not fast as ye do this day, to make your voice to be heard on high. Is it such a fast that I have chosen? a day for a man to afflict his soul? is it to bow down his head as a bulrush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? wilt thou call this a fast, and an acceptable day to the LORD? Is not this the fast that I have chosen? to loose the bands of wickedness, to undo the heavy burdens, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke? Is it not to deal thy bread to the hungry, and that thou bring the poor that are cast out to thy house? when thou seest the naked, that thou cover him; and that thou hide not thyself from thine own flesh? Then shall thy light break forth as the morning, and thine health shall spring forth speedily: and thy righteousness shall go before thee; the glory of the LORD shall be thy rereward. Then shalt thou call, and the LORD shall answer; thou shalt cry, and he shall say, Here I am. If thou take away from the midst of thee the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking vanity; And if thou draw out thy soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul; then shall thy light rise in obscurity, and thy darkness be as the noon-day: And the LORD shall guide thee continually, and satisfy thy soul in drought, and make fat thy bones: and thou shalt be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not. And they that shall be of thee shall build the old waste places: thou shalt raise up the foundations of many generations; and thou shalt be called, The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in. cause thee to ride upon the high places of the earth, and feed thee with the heritage of Jacob thy father: for the mouth of the LORD hath spoken it.

Behold, the LORD's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; 59 neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear: But your iniquities have 2 separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear. For your hands are defiled 3 with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness. None calleth for 4 justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. They hatch 5 cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.
Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover 6 themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands. Their feet run to evil, 7 and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.
The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their 8 goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace. Therefore is judgment far from us, 9 neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness. We grope for the 10 wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.
We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judg- 11 ment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.
For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins tes- 12 tify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them; In transgressing and lying against the 13 LORD, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar 14 off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter. Yea, 15 truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the LORD saw it, and it displeased him that there was 16 no judgment. And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation 17 unto him; and his righteousness, it sustained him. For he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and an helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on the garments of vengeance for clothing, 18 and was clad with zeal as a cloke. According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, fury to his adversaries, recompence to his 19 enemies; to the islands he will repay recompence. So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the 20 Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him. And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from trans-21 gression in Jacob, saith the LORD. As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.

60 Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is 2 risen upon thee. For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon 3 thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee. And the Gentiles shall come to thy light, and kings to the brightness of thy rising.
 4 Lift up thine eyes round about, and see: all they gather themselves together, they come to thee: thy sons shall come from far, and thy 5 daughters shall be nursed at thy side. Then thou shalt see, and flow together, and thine heart shall fear, and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be converted unto thee, the forces 6 of the Gentiles shall come unto thee. The multitude of camels shall cover thee, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come: they shall bring gold and incense; and they 7 shall shew forth the praises of the LORD. All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together unto thee, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister unto thee: they shall come up with acceptance on mine 8 altar, and I will glorify the house of my glory. Who are these 9 that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows? Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring thy sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, unto the name of the LORD thy God, and to the Holy One of Israel, because he hath glorified thee. And the sons of strangers shall build up thy 10 walls, and their kings shall minister unto thee: for in my wrath I smote thee, but in my favour have I had mercy on thee. Therefore 11 thy gates shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring unto thee the forces of the Gentiles, and that their kings may be brought. For the nation and kingdom 12 that will not serve thee shall perish; yea, those nations shall be utterly wasted. The glory of Lebanon shall come unto thee, the 13 fir tree, the pine tree, and the box together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.

 The sons also of them that afflicted thee shall come bending unto 14 thee; and all they that despised thee shall bow themselves down at the soles of thy feet; and they shall call thee, The city of the LORD, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel. Whereas thou hast 15 been forsaken and hated, so that no man went through thee, I will make thee an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations. Thou 16 shalt also suck the milk of the Gentiles, and shalt suck the breast of kings: and thou shalt know that I the LORD am thy Saviour and thy Redeemer, the mighty One of Jacob. For brass I will 17 bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron: I will also make thy officers peace, and thine exactors righteousness. Violence shall no more be heard in thy 18 land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise. The sun shall be no 19 more thy light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light unto thee: but the LORD shall be unto thee an everlasting light, and thy God thy glory. Thy sun shall no more go down; 20 neither shall thy moon withdraw itself: for the LORD shall be thine everlasting light, and the days of thy mourning shall be ended.
 Thy people also shall be all righteous: they shall inherit the land 21 for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified. A little one shall become a thousand, and a 22 small one a strong nation: I the LORD will hasten it in his time.

The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath 61 anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, 2 and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of 3 our God; to comfort all that mourn; To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; 4 that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified. And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.

 5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and the sons of the 6 alien shall be your plowmen and your vinedressers. But ye shall be named the Priests of the LORD: men shall call you the Ministers of our God: ye shall eat the riches of the Gentiles, and in their glory 7 shall ye boast yourselves. For your shame ye shall have double; and for confusion they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess the double: everlasting joy shall be 8 unto them. For I the LORD love judgment, I hate robbery for burnt offering; and I will direct their work in truth, and I will make 9 an everlasting covenant with them. And their seed shall be known among the Gentiles, and their offspring among the people: all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which the 10 LORD hath blessed. I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation, he hath covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride 11 adorneth herself with her jewels. For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

62 For Zion's sake will I not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until the righteousness thereof go forth as 2 brightness, and the salvation thereof as a lamp that burneth. And the Gentiles shall see thy righteousness, and all kings thy glory: and thou shalt be called by a new name, which the mouth of the LORD 3 shall name. Thou shalt also be a crown of glory in the hand of 4 the LORD, and a royal diadem in the hand of thy God. Thou shalt no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall thy land any more be termed Desolate: but thou shalt be called Hephzibah, and thy land Beulah: for the LORD delighteth in thee, and thy land shall be married. For as a young man marrieth a virgin, so shall thy sons marry thee: and as the bridegroom rejoiceth over the bride, so shall thy God rejoice over thee. I have set watchmen upon thy walls, O Jerusalem, which shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that make mention of the LORD, keep not silence, And give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth. The LORD hath sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give thy corn to be meat for thine enemies; and the sons of the stranger shall not drink thy wine, for the which thou hast laboured: But they that have gathered it shall eat it, and praise the LORD; and they that have brought it together shall drink it in the courts of my holiness. Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up a standard for the people. Behold, the LORD hath proclaimed unto the end of the world, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, thy salvation cometh; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. And they shall call them, The holy people, The redeemed of the LORD: and thou shalt be called, Sought out, A city not forsaken.

Who is this that cometh from Edom, with dyed garments from Bozrah? this that is glorious in his apparel, travelling in the greatness of his strength? I that speak in righteousness, mighty to save. Wherefore art thou red in thine apparel, and thy garments like him that treadeth in the winefat? I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the people there was none with me: for I will tread them in mine anger, and trample them in my fury; and their blood shall be sprinkled upon my garments, and I will stain all my raiment. For the day of vengeance is in mine heart, and the year of my redeemed is come. And I looked, and there was none to help; and I wondered that there was none to uphold: therefore mine own arm brought salvation unto me; and my fury, it upheld me. And I will tread down the people in mine anger, and make them drunk in my fury, and I will bring down their strength to the earth. I will mention the lovingkindnesses of the LORD, and the praises of the LORD, according to all that the LORD hath bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he hath bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the 8 multitude of his lovingkindnesses. For he said, Surely they are my 9 people, children that will not lie: so he was their Saviour. In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bare 10 them, and carried them all the days of old. But they rebelled, and vexed his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and he fought against them. Then he remembered the days of old, Moses, and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherd of his flock? where is 12 he that put his holy Spirit within him? That led them by the right hand of Moses with his glorious arm, dividing the water before them, to make himself an everlasting name? That led them 13 through the deep, as an horse in the wilderness, that they should not stumble? As a beast goeth down into the valley, the Spirit of the LORD caused him to rest: so didst thou lead thy people, 15 to make thyself a glorious name. Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of thy holiness and of thy glory: where is thy zeal and thy strength, the sounding of thy bowels and of thy 16 mercies toward me? are they restrained? Doubtless thou art our father, though Abraham be ignorant of us, and Israel acknowledge us not: thou, O LORD, art our father, our redeemer; thy name is 17 from everlasting. O LORD, why hast thou made us to err from thy ways, and hardened our heart from thy fear? Return for thy servants' sake, the tribes of thine inheritance. The people of thy holiness have possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have 19 trodden down thy sanctuary. We are thine: thou never barest rule over them; they were not called by thy name.

64 Oh that thou wouldest rend the heavens, that thou wouldest come down, that the mountains might flow down at thy presence,
2 As when the melting fire burneth, the fire causeth the waters to boil, to make thy name known to thine adversaries, that the nations 3 may tremble at thy presence! When thou didst terrible things which we looked not for, thou camest down, the mountains flowed down at thy presence. For since the beginning of the world men 4 have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him. Thou meetest him that rejoiceth and worketh righteousness, 5 those that remember thee in thy ways: behold, thou art wroth; for we have sinned: in those is continuance, and we shall be saved. But we are all as an unclean thing, and all our righteousnesses are 6 as filthy rags; and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, have taken us away. And there is none that calleth 7 upon thy name, that stirreth up himself to take hold of thee: for thou hast hid thy face from us, and hast consumed us, because of our iniquities. But now, O LORD, thou art our father; we are the 8 clay, and thou our potter; and we all are the work of thy hand. Be not wroth very sore, O LORD, neither remember iniquity for 9 ever: behold, see, we beseech thee, we are all thy people. Thy holy 10 cities are a wilderness, Zion is a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation. Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised thee, 11 is burned up with fire: and all our pleasant things are laid waste. Wilt thou refrain thyself for these things, O LORD? wilt thou hold 12 thy peace, and afflict us very sore?

I am sought of them that asked not for me; I am found of them 65 that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, unto a nation that was not called by my name. I have spread out my hands all 2 the day unto a rebellious people, which walketh in a way that was not good, after their own thoughts; A people that provoketh me 3 to anger continually to my face; that sacrificeth in gardens, and burneth incense upon altars of brick; Which remain among the 4 graves, and lodge in the monuments, which eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels; Which say, Stand by 5 thyself, come not near to me; for I am holier than thou. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burneth all the day. Behold, it is 6 written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, even recompense into their bosom, Your iniquities, and the iniquities of 7 your fathers together, saith the LORD, which have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills: therefore

8 will I measure their former work into their bosom. Thus saith the LORD, As the new wine is found in the cluster, and one saith, Destroy it not; for a blessing is in it: so will I do for my servants' 9 sakes, that I may not destroy them all. And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains:
 and mine elect shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.
 10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for the herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought 11 me. But ye are they that forsake the LORD, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for that troop, and that furnish 12 the drink offering unto that number. Therefore will I number you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter: because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spake, ye did not hear; but did evil before mine eyes, and did choose that wherein I delighted 13 not. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry: behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty: behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye 14 shall be ashamed: Behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall howl for vexation of 15 spirit. And ye shall leave your name for a curse unto my chosen: for the Lord GOD shall slay thee, and call his servants by another 16 name: That he who blesseth himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that sweareth in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and 17 because they are hid from mine eyes. For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered, 18 nor come into mind. But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create: for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and 19 her people a joy. And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people: and the voice of weeping shall be no more heard in her, 20 nor the voice of crying. There shall be no more thence an infant of days, nor an old man that hath not filled his days: for the child shall die an hundred years old; but the sinner being an hundred 21 years old shall be accursed. And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of 22 them. They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree are the days of my people, and mine elect shall long enjoy the work of their hands. They shall not labour in vain, nor bring forth for trouble; for they 23 are the seed of the blessed of the LORD, and their offspring with them. And it shall come to pass, that before they call, I will 24 answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear. The wolf 25 and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the bullock: and dust shall be the serpent's meat. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD, The heaven is my throne, and the earth 66 is my footstool: where is the house that ye build unto me? and where is the place of my rest? For all those things hath mine hand 2 made, and all those things have been, saith the LORD: but to this man will I look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and trembleth at my word. He that killeth an ox is as if he slew 3 a man; he that sacrificeth a lamb, as if he cut off a dog's neck; he that offereth an oblation, as if he offered swine's blood; he that burneth incense, as if he blessed an idol. Yea, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delighteth in their abominations. I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon 4 them; because when I called, none did answer; when I spake, they did not hear: but they did evil before mine eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not. Hear the word of the LORD, ye that 5 tremble at his word; Your brethren that hated you, that cast you out for my name's sake, said, Let the LORD be glorified: but he shall appear to your joy, and they shall be ashamed. A voice of 6 noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies. Before she travailed, 7 she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such 8 things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. Shall I bring to the birth, and not 9 cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God. Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, 10 and be glad with her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn for her: That ye may suck, and be satisfied 11 with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and 13 As one whom his mother comforteth, so will I comfort you; and 14 ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem. And when ye see this, your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like an herb: and the hand of the LORD shall be known toward his servants, and 15 his indignation toward his enemies. For, behold, the LORD will come with fire, and with his chariots like a whirlwind, to render

16 his anger with fury, and his rebuke with flames of fire. For by fire and by his sword will the LORD plead with all flesh: and the

17 slain of the LORD shall be many. They that sanctify themselves, and purify themselves in the gardens behind one tree in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, shall

18 be consumed together, saith the LORD. For I know their works and their thoughts: it shall come, that I will gather all nations

19 and tongues; and they shall come, and see my glory. And I will set a sign among them, and I will send those that escape of them unto the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal, and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory

20 among the Gentiles. And they shall bring all your brethren for an offering unto the LORD out of all nations upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon swift beasts, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, saith the LORD, as the children of Israel bring an offering in a clean vessel into the house of the 23 seed and your name remain. And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall 24 all flesh come to worship before me, saith the LORD. And they shall go forth, and look upon the carcasses of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring unto all flesh.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH.

 he words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests 1 that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin: To 2 whom the word of the LORD came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign. It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah 3 king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month. Then the word of the LORD came 4 unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; 5 and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, Ah, Lord 6 GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child. But the LORD 7 said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.
Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith 8 the LORD. Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my 9 mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth. See, I have this day set thee over the nations and 10 over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant. Moreover the word of 11 the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree. Then said the LORD unto 12 me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.
And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, 13 What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north. Then the LORD said unto me, Out 14 of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of

1. v.5 ordained: Heb. gave. v.13 toward...: Heb. from the face of the north.

- 15 the land. For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities 16 of Judah. And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.
 17 Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I 18 confound thee before them. For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the 19 land. And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.
- 2, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Go and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; I remember thee, the kindness of thy youth, the love of thine espousals, when thou wentest after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not 3 sown. Israel was holiness unto the LORD, and the firstfruits of his increase: all that devour him shall offend; evil shall come upon 4 them, saith the LORD. Hear ye the word of the LORD, O house of 5 Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, What iniquity have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become 6 vain? Neither said they, Where is the LORD that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought, and of the shadow of death, through a land that no man passed 7 through, and where no man dwelt? And I brought you into a plentiful country, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made mine heritage an 8 abomination. The priests said not, Where is the LORD? and they that handle the law knew me not: the pastors also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after 9 things that do not profit. Wherefore I will yet plead with you, saith the LORD, and with your children's children will I plead. For pass over the isles of Chittim, and see; and send unto Kedar, and consider diligently, and see if there be such a thing. Hath a nation 11 changed their gods, which are yet no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which doth not profit. Be astonished, 12 O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, saith the LORD. For my people have committed two evils; they 13 have forsaken me the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water. Is Israel 14 a servant? is he a homeborn slave? why is he spoiled? The 15 young lions roared upon him, and yelled, and they made his land waste: his cities are burned without inhabitant. Also the children 16 of Noph and Tahapanes have broken the crown of thy head. Hast 17 thou not procured this unto thyself, in that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, when he led thee by the way? And now 18 what hast thou to do in the way of Egypt, to drink the waters of Sihor? or what hast thou to do in the way of Assyria, to drink the waters of the river? Thine own wickedness shall correct thee, and 19 thy backslidings shall reprove thee: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and bitter, that thou hast forsaken the LORD thy God, and that my fear is not in thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts. For of old time I have broken thy yoke, and burst thy bands; and 20 thou saidst, I will not transgress; when upon every high hill and under every green tree thou wanderest, playing the harlot. Yet I 21 had planted thee a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then art thou turned into the degenerate plant of a strange vine unto me? For though thou wash thee with nitre, and take thee much soap, 22 yet thine iniquity is marked before me, saith the Lord GOD. How 23 canst thou say, I am not polluted, I have not gone after Baalim? see thy way in the valley, know what thou hast done: thou art a swift dromedary traversing her ways; A wild ass used to the wilderness, 24 that snuffeth up the wind at her pleasure; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her. Withhold thy foot from being 25

 28 they will say, Arise, and save us. But where are thy gods that thou hast made thee? let them arise, if they can save thee in the time of thy trouble: for according to the number of thy cities are 29 thy gods, O Judah. Wherefore will ye plead with me? ye all have transgressed against me, saith the LORD. In vain have I smitten 30 your children; they received no correction: your own sword hath devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion. O generation, see 31 ye the word of the LORD. Have I been a wilderness unto Israel? a land of darkness? wherefore say my people, We are lords; we will 32 come no more unto thee? Can a maid forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without 33 number. Why trimmest thou thy way to seek love? therefore hast thou also taught the wicked ones thy ways. Also in thy skirts is 34 found the blood of the souls of the poor innocents: I have not found it by secret search, but upon all these. Yet thou sayest, Because 35 I am innocent, surely his anger shall turn from me. Behold, I will plead with thee, because thou sayest, I have not sinned. Why 36 gaddest thou about so much to change thy way? thou also shalt be ashamed of Egypt, as thou wast ashamed of Assyria. Yea, thou 37 shalt go forth from him, and thine hands upon thine head: for the LORD hath rejected thy confidences, and thou shalt not prosper in them.

3 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot

In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.  from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth? Will he reserve his anger for ever? will he keep it to 5 the end? Behold, thou hast spoken and done evil things as thou couldest. The LORD said also unto me in the days of Josiah the 6 king, Hast thou seen that which backsliding Israel hath done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there hath played the harlot. And I said after she had done 7 all these things, Turn thou unto me. But she returned not. And her treacherous sister Judah saw it. And I saw, when for all the 8 causes whereby backsliding Israel committed adultery I had put her away, and given her a bill of divorce; yet her treacherous sister Judah feared not, but went and played the harlot also. And it came 9 to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that she defiled the land, and committed adultery with stones and with stocks. And 10 yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah hath not turned unto me with her whole heart, but feignedly, saith the LORD. And the 11 LORD said unto me, The backsliding Israel hath justified herself more than treacherous Judah. Go and proclaim these words to- 12 ward the north, and say, Return, thou backsliding Israel, saith the LORD; and I will not cause mine anger to fall upon you: for I am merciful, saith the LORD, and I will not keep anger for ever. Only 13 acknowledge thine iniquity, that thou hast transgressed against the LORD thy God, and hast scattered thy ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, saith the LORD. Turn, O backsliding children, saith the LORD; for I am 14 married unto you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion: And I will give you pastors 15 according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. And it shall come to pass, when ye be multiplied 16 and increased in the land, in those days, saith the LORD, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of the LORD: neither shall it come to mind: neither shall they remember it; neither shall they visit it; neither shall that be done any more. At that time they 17 shall call Jerusalem the throne of the LORD; and all the nations shall be gathered unto it, to the name of the LORD, to Jerusalem:
 neither shall they walk any more after the imagination of their evil

- 18 heart. In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I have given for an inheritance unto your fathers.
- 19 But I said, How shall I put thee among the children, and give thee a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of nations? and I said, Thou shalt call me, My father; and shalt not turn away from
- 20 me. Surely as a wife treacherously departeth from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, saith
- 21 the LORD. A voice was heard upon the high places, weeping and supplications of the children of Israel: for they have perverted their
- 22 way, and they have forgotten the LORD their God. Return, ye backsliding children, and I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we
- 23 come unto thee; for thou art the LORD our God. Truly in vain is salvation hoped for from the hills, and from the multitude of mountains: truly in the LORD our God is the salvation of Israel.
- 24 For shame hath devoured the labour of our fathers from our youth;
- 25 their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters. We lie down in our shame, and our confusion covereth us: for we have sinned against the LORD our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even unto this day, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD our God.
- 4 If thou wilt return, O Israel, saith the LORD, return unto me: and if thou wilt put away thine abominations out of my sight, then
- 2 shalt thou not remove. And thou shalt swear, The LORD liveth, in truth, in judgment, and in righteousness; and the nations shall

- 5 your doings. Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry, gather together, and say, Assemble yourselves, and let us go into the defenced cities.

evil from the north, and a great destruction. The lion is come up 7 from his thicket, and the destroyer of the Gentiles is on his way; he is gone forth from his place to make thy land desolate; and thy cities shall be laid waste, without an inhabitant. For this gird you 8 with sackcloth, lament and howl: for the fierce anger of the LORD is not turned back from us. And it shall come to pass at that 9 day, saith the LORD, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder. Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! surely 10 thou hast greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall have peace; whereas the sword reacheth unto the soul. At 11 that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, A dry wind of the high places in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to fan, nor to cleanse, Even a full wind from 12 those places shall come unto me: now also will I give sentence against them. Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots 13 shall be as a whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe unto us! for we are spoiled. O Jerusalem, wash thine heart from 14 wickedness, that thou mayest be saved. How long shall thy vain thoughts lodge within thee? For a voice declareth from Dan, 15 and publisheth affliction from mount Ephraim. Make ye mention 16 to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah. As keepers of a field, are they against her round about; 17 because she hath been rebellious against me, saith the LORD. Thy 18 way and thy doings have procured these things unto thee; this is thy wickedness, because it is bitter, because it reacheth unto thine heart. My bowels, my bowels! I am pained at my very heart; 19 my heart maketh a noise in me; I cannot hold my peace, because thou hast heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war. Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land 20 is spoiled: suddenly are my tents spoiled, and my curtains in a moment. How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound 21 of the trumpet? For my people is foolish, they have not known 22 me; they are sottish children, and they have none understanding:
 they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.
 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form, and void; and 23 24 the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, 25 lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.

26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the LORD, and 27 by his fierce anger. For thus hath the LORD said, The whole land 28 shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end. For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black: because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and will not repent, neither will I 29 turn back from it. The whole city shall flee for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they shall go into thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city shall be forsaken, and not a man dwell 30 therein. And when thou art spoiled, what wilt thou do? Though thou clothest thyself with crimson, though thou deckest thee with ornaments of gold, though thou rentest thy face with painting, in vain shalt thou make thyself fair; thy lovers will despise thee, they 31 will seek thy life. For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, and the anguish as of her that bringeth forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that bewaileth herself, that spreadeth her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul is wearied because of murderers.

5 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that executeth judgment, that seeketh the truth;
2 and I will pardon it. And though they say, The LORD liveth; 3 surely they swear falsely. O LORD, are not thine eyes upon the truth? thou hast stricken them, but they have not grieved; thou hast consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to 4 return. Therefore I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish: for they know not the way of the LORD, nor the judgment of their 5 God. I will get me unto the great men, and will speak unto them; for they have known the way of the LORD, and the judgment of their God: but these have altogether broken the yoke, and burst 6 the bonds. Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, and a wolf of the evenings shall spoil them, a leopard shall watch over their cities: every one that goeth out thence shall be torn in pieces: because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased. How shall I pardon thee for this? thy children have 7 forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses. They were as fed 8 horses in the morning: every one neighed after his neighbour's wife. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: and shall 9 not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this? Go ye up upon 10 her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her battlements; for they are not the LORD'S. For the house of Israel 11 and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, saith the LORD. They have belied the LORD, and said, It is not 12 he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine: And the prophets shall become wind, and the word is 13 not in them: thus shall it be done unto them. Wherefore thus 14 saith the LORD God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in thy mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them. Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from 15 far, O house of Israel, saith the LORD: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language thou knowest not, neither understandest what they say. Their quiver is as an open 16 sepulchre, they are all mighty men. And they shall eat up thine 17 harvest, and thy bread, which thy sons and thy daughters should eat: they shall eat up thy flocks and thine herds: they shall eat up thy vines and thy fig trees: they shall impoverish thy fenced cities, wherein thou trustedst, with the sword. Nevertheless in 18 those days, saith the LORD, I will not make a full end with you.

 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Wherefore doeth the 19 LORD our God all these things unto us? then shalt thou answer them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served strange gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.
 Declare this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying, 20 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; which 21 have eyes, and see not; which have ears, and hear not: Fear ye not 22 me? saith the LORD: will ye not tremble at my presence, which have placed the sand for the bound of the sea by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it: and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can 23 they not pass over it? But this people hath a revolting and a 24 rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone. Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us 25 the appointed weeks of the harvest. Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good things from 26 you. For among my people are found wicked men: they lay wait, 27 as he that setteth snares; they set a trap, they catch men. As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore 28 they are become great, and waxen rich. They are waxen fat, they shine: yea, they overpass the deeds of the wicked: they judge not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, yet they prosper; and the 29 right of the needy do they not judge. Shall I not visit for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a 30 nation as this? A wonderful and horrible thing is committed in 31 the land; The prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?

6 O ye children of Benjamin, gather yourselves to flee out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and set up a sign of fire in Bethhaccerem: for evil appeareth out of the north, 2 and great destruction. I have likened the daughter of Zion to 3 a comely and delicate woman. The shepherds with their flocks shall come unto her; they shall pitch their tents against her round 4 about; they shall feed every one in his place. Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe unto us! for the day goeth away, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
 5, 6 Arise, and let us go by night, and let us destroy her palaces. For thus hath the LORD of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast a mount against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is 7 wholly oppression in the midst of her. As a fountain casteth out her waters, so she casteth out her wickedness: violence and spoil is 8 heard in her; before me continually is grief and wounds. Be thou instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul depart from thee; lest I make 9 thee desolate, a land not inhabited. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn back thine hand as a grapegatherer into the baskets. To whom shall I speak, and give warning, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of the LORD is unto them a reproach; they have no delight in it. Therefore I am full of the fury of the LORD; I am weary with holding in: I will pour it out upon the children abroad, and upon the assembly of young men together: for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days. And their houses shall be turned unto others, with their fields and wives together: for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD. For from the least of them even unto the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. They have healed also the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall: at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, Stand ye in the ways, and see, and ask for the old paths, where is the good way, and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls. But they said, We will not walk therein. Also I set watchmen over you, saying, Harken to the sound of the trumpet. But they said, We will not hearken. Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them. Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened unto my words, nor to my law, but rejected it. To what purpose cometh there to me incense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices sweet unto me. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will lay stumblingblocks before this people, and the fathers and the sons together shall fall upon them; the neighbour and his friend shall perish. Thus saith the LORD, Behold, a people cometh from the north country, and a great nation shall be raised from the sides of the earth. They shall lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roareth like the sea; and they ride upon horses, set in array as men for war against thee, O daughter of Zion. We have heard the fame thereof: our hands wax feeble: anguish hath taken hold of us, 25 and pain, as of a woman in travail. Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy and fear is on 26 every side. O daughter of my people, gird thee with sackcloth, and wallow thyself in ashes: make thee mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation: for the spoiler shall suddenly come upon 27 us. I have set thee for a tower and a fortress among my people, 28 that thou mayest know and try their way. They are all grievous revolvers, walking with slanders: they are brass and iron; they are 29 all corrupters. The bellows are burned, the lead is consumed of the fire; the founder melteth in vain: for the wicked are not plucked 30 away. Reprobate silver shall men call them, because the LORD hath rejected them.

7, 2 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Stand in the gate of the LORD'S house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of the LORD, all ye of Judah, that enter in at 3 these gates to worship the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, Amend your ways and your doings, and I will 4 cause you to dwell in this place. Trust ye not in lying words, saying, The temple of the LORD, The temple of the LORD, The 5 temple of the LORD, are these. For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute judgment between 6 a man and his neighbour; If ye oppress not the stranger, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this 7 place, neither walk after other gods to your hurt: Then will I cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your 8 fathers, for ever and ever. Behold, ye trust in lying words, that 9 cannot profit. Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense unto Baal, and walk after other 10 gods whom ye know not; And come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered to 11 do all these abominations? Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, even I have 12 seen it, saith the LORD. But go ye now unto my place which was in Shiloh, where I set my name at the first, and see what I did to it 13 for the wickedness of my people Israel. And now, because ye have done all these works, saith the LORD, and I spake unto you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not; Therefore will I do unto this house, which is called 14 by my name, wherein ye trust, and unto the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I have done to Shiloh. And I will cast 15 you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim. Therefore pray not thou for this people, 16 neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me: for I will not hear thee. Seest thou not what they do in 17 the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem? The children 18 gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead their dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto other gods, that they may provoke me to anger. Do they provoke me to anger? saith the LORD: do they not 19 provoke themselves to the confusion of their own faces? Therefore 20 thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, mine anger and my fury shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched. Thus saith the LORD 21 of hosts, the God of Israel; Put your burnt offerings unto your sacrifices, and eat flesh. For I spake not unto your fathers, nor 22 commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices: But this thing 23 commanded I them, saying, Obey my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people: and walk ye in all the ways that I have commanded you, that it may be well unto you. But they 24 hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in the counsels and in the imagination of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward. Since the day that your fathers came forth out of 25 the land of Egypt unto this day I have even sent unto you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them: Yet 26 they hearkened not unto me, nor inclined their ear, but hardened their neck: they did worse than their fathers. Therefore thou shalt 27 speak all these words unto them; but they will not hearken to thee: thou shalt also call unto them; but they will not answer thee. But 28 thou shalt say unto them, This is a nation that obeyeth not the voice of the LORD their God, nor receiveth correction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth. Cut off thine hair, O 29 Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on high places; for the LORD hath rejected and forsaken the generation of 30 his wrath. For the children of Judah have done evil in my sight, saith the LORD: they have set their abominations in the house 31 which is called by my name, to pollute it. And they have built the high places of Tophet, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I 32 commanded them not, neither came it into my heart. Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be called Tophet, nor the valley of the son of Hinnom, but the valley of slaughter: for they shall bury in Tophet, till there be no place.

33 And the carcases of this people shall be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the earth; and none shall fray them 34 away. Then will I cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride: for the land shall be desolate.

8 At that time, saith the LORD, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of 2 the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves: And they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, whom they have loved, and whom they have served, and after whom they have walked, and whom they have sought, and whom they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be 3 buried; they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth. And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue of them that remain of this evil family, which remain in all the places whither I 4 have driven them, saith the LORD of hosts. Moreover thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; Shall they fall, and not arise?
5 shall he turn away, and not return? Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast 6 deceit, they refuse to return. I hearkened and heard, but they spake not aright: no man repented him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turned to his course, as the horse 7 rusheth into the battle. Yea, the stork in the heaven knoweth her appointed times; and the turtle and the crane and the swallow observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the 8 judgment of the LORD. How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of the LORD is with us? Lo, certainly in vain made he it; the pen of the scribes is in vain. The wise men are ashamed, 9 they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of the LORD; and what wisdom is in them? Therefore will I give 10 their wives unto others, and their fields to them that shall inherit them: for every one from the least even unto the greatest is given to covetousness, from the prophet even unto the priest every one dealeth falsely. For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of 11 my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace. Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, 12 they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall: in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, saith the LORD. I will surely consume 13 them, saith the LORD: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them. Why do we sit still? 14 assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the defenced cities, and let us be silent there: for the LORD our God hath put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against the LORD. We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a 15 time of health, and behold trouble! The snorting of his horses 16 was heard from Dan: the whole land trembled at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones; for they are come, and have devoured the land, and all that is in it; the city, and those that dwell therein. For, behold, I will send serpents, cockatrices, among you, which will 17 not be charmed, and they shall bite you, saith the LORD. When 18 I would comfort myself against sorrow, my heart is faint in me. Behold the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people because 19 of them that dwell in a far country: Is not the LORD in Zion? is not her king in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with strange vanities? The harvest is 20 past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved. For the hurt 21 of the daughter of my people am I hurt; I am black; astonishment hath taken hold on me. Is there no balm in Gilead; is there no 22 physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my 9 Oh that my head were waters, and mine eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of 2 my people! Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them!

3 for they be all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men. And they bend their tongues like their bow for lies: but they are not valiant for the truth upon the earth; for they proceed from evil to 4 evil, and they know not me, saith the LORD. Take ye heed every one of his neighbour, and trust ye not in any brother: for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbour will walk with 5 slanders. And they will deceive every one his neighbour, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies, 6 and weary themselves to commit iniquity. Thine habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, saith 7 the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how shall I do for the daughter of 8 my people? Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaketh deceit: one speaketh peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, 9 but in heart he layeth his wait. Shall I not visit them for these things? saith the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a 10 nation as this? For the mountains will I take up a weeping and wailing, and for the habitations of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that none can pass through them; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the fowl of the 11 heavens and the beast are fled; they are gone. And I will make Jerusalem heaps, and a den of dragons; and I will make the cities 12 of Judah desolate, without an inhabitant. Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of the LORD hath spoken, that he may declare it, for what the land perisheth and is burned up like a wilderness, that none pas-13 seth through? And the LORD saith, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, 14 neither walked therein; But have walked after the imagination of their own heart, and after Baalim, which their fathers taught

 Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink. I will scatter them also among 16 the heathen, whom neither they nor their fathers have known: and I will send a sword after them, till I have consumed them. Thus 17 saith the LORD of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for cunning women, that they may come: And let them make haste, and take up a wailing 18 for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters. For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, 19 How are we spoiled! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because our dwellings have cast us out. Yet 20 hear the word of the LORD, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth, and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbour lamentation. For death is come up into our 21 windows, and is entered into our palaces, to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets. Speak, Thus 22 saith the LORD, Even the carcasses of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman, and none shall gather them. Thus saith the LORD, Let not the wise man 23 glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth 24 glory in this, that he understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the LORD which exercise lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the LORD.
 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will punish all them 25 which are circumcised with the uncircumcised; Egypt, and Ju- 26 dah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that are in the utmost corners, that dwell in the wilderness: for all these nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in the heart.

Hear ye the word which the LORD speaketh unto you, O house 10 of Israel: Thus saith the LORD, Learn not the way of the heathen, 2 and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the heathen are dismayed at them. For the customs of the people are vain: for 3

 5 They are upright as the palm tree, but speak not: they must needs be borne, because they cannot go. Be not afraid of them; for they 6 cannot do evil, neither also is it in them to do good. Forasmuch as there is none like unto thee, O LORD; thou art great, and thy 7 name is great in might. Who would not fear thee, O King of nations? for to thee doth it appertain: forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their kingdoms, there is none 8 like unto thee. But they are altogether brutish and foolish: the 9 stock is a doctrine of vanities. Silver spread into plates is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the workman, and of the hands of the founder: blue and purple is their clothing:
 10 they are all the work of cunning men. But the LORD is the true God, he is the living God, and an everlasting king: at his wrath the earth shall tremble, and the nations shall not be able to abide 11 his indignation. Thus shall ye say unto them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, even they shall perish 12 from the earth, and from under these heavens. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, 13 and hath stretched out the heavens by his discretion. When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens, and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth; he maketh lightnings with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out 14 of his treasures. Every man is brutish in his knowledge: every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image 15 is falsehood, and there is no breath in them. They are vanity, and the work of errors: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.
 16 The portion of Jacob is not like them: for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the rod of his inheritance: The LORD of hosts 17 is his name. Gather up thy wares out of the land, O inhabitant 18 of the fortress. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this once, and will distress them, 19 that they may find it so. Woe is me for my hurt! my wound is 20 grievous: but I said, Truly this is a grief, and I must bear it. My tabernacle is spoiled, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth of me, and they are not: there is none to stretch forth my tent any more, and to set up my curtains. For the pastors are 21 become brutish, and have not sought the LORD: therefore they shall not prosper, and all their flocks shall be scattered. Behold, 22 the noise of the bruit is come, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah desolate, and a den of dragons. O LORD, I know that the way of man is not in himself: 23 it is not in man that walketh to direct his steps. O LORD, correct 24 me, but with judgment; not in thine anger, lest thou bring me to nothing. Pour out thy fury upon the heathen that know thee not, 25 and upon the families that call not on thy name: for they have eaten up Jacob, and devoured him, and consumed him, and have made his habitation desolate.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Hear 11, 2 ye the words of this covenant, and speak unto the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem; And say thou unto 3 them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Cursed be the man that obeyeth not the words of this covenant, Which I commanded 4 your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, from the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God: That I may perform the oath 5 which I have sworn unto your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as it is this day. Then answered I, and said, So be it, O LORD. Then the LORD said unto me, Proclaim all 6 these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them. For 7 I earnestly protested unto your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even unto this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice. Yet they obeyed not, nor 8 inclined their ear, but walked every one in the imagination of their evil heart: therefore I will bring upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do; but they did them not. And the LORD said unto me, A conspiracy is found among the 9 men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem. They are 10 turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, which refused to hear my words; and they went after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant 11 which I made with their fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and though they shall cry unto me, I will not hearken 12 unto them. Then shall the cities of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem go, and cry unto the gods unto whom they offer incense: but they shall not save them at all in the time of their trouble.

 13 For according to the number of thy cities were thy gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to that shameful thing, even altars to burn incense 14 unto Baal. Therefore pray not thou for this people, neither lift up a cry or prayer for them: for I will not hear them in the time that 15 they cry unto me for their trouble. What hath my beloved to do in mine house, seeing she hath wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from thee? when thou doest evil, then thou 16 rejoicest. The LORD called thy name, A green olive tree, fair, and of goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he hath kindled 17 fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken. For the LORD of hosts, that planted thee, hath pronounced evil against thee, for the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have done against themselves to provoke me to anger in offering 18 incense unto Baal. And the LORD hath given me knowledge of it, 19 and I know it: then thou shewedst me their doings. But I was like a lamb or an ox that is brought to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land 20 of the living, that his name may be no more remembered. But, O LORD of hosts, that judgest righteously, that triest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I 21 revealed my cause. Therefore thus saith the LORD of the men of Anathoth, that seek thy life, saying, Prophecy not in the name of 22 the LORD, that thou die not by our hand: Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.

Righteous art thou, O LORD, when I plead with thee: yet let 12 me talk with thee of thy judgments: Wherefore doth the way of the wicked prosper? wherefore are all they happy that deal very treacherously? Thou hast planted them, yea, they have taken 2 root: they grow, yea, they bring forth fruit: thou art near in their mouth, and far from their reins. But thou, O LORD, knowest me: 3 thou hast seen me, and tried mine heart toward thee: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter. How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of every 4 field wither, for the wickedness of them that dwell therein? the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our last end. If thou hast run with the footmen, and 5 they have wearied thee, then how canst thou contend with horses?
and if in the land of peace, wherein thou trustedst, they wearied thee, then how wilt thou do in the swelling of Jordan? For even 6 thy brethren, and the house of thy father, even they have dealt treacherously with thee; yea, they have called a multitude after thee: believe them not, though they speak fair words unto thee. I 7 have forsaken mine house, I have left mine heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies. Mine 8 heritage is unto me as a lion in the forest; it crieth out against me: therefore have I hated it. Mine heritage is unto me as a speckled 9 bird, the birds round about are against her; come ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, come to devour. Many pastors have 10 destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness. They 11 have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourneth unto me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man layeth it to heart.
The spoilers are come upon all high places through the wilderness: 12 for the sword of the LORD shall devour from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh shall have peace. They 13 have sown wheat, but shall reap thorns: they have put themselves to pain, but shall not profit: and they shall be ashamed of your 15 from among them. And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them out I will return, and have compassion on them, and will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man 16 to his land. And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, The LORD liveth; as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built 17 in the midst of my people. But if they will not obey, I will utterly pluck up and destroy that nation, saith the LORD.

13 Thus saith the LORD unto me, Go and get thee a linen girdle, 2 and put it upon thy loins, and put it not in water. So I got a girdle 3 according to the word of the LORD, and put it on my loins. And 4 the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, Take the girdle that thou hast got, which is upon thy loins, and arise, go 5 to Euphrates, and hide it there in a hole of the rock. So I went, and 6 hid it by Euphrates, as the LORD commanded me. And it came to pass after many days, that the LORD said unto me, Arise, go to Euphrates, and take the girdle from thence, which I commanded 7 thee to hide there. Then I went to Euphrates, and digged, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it: and, behold, the 8 girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing. Then the word 9 of the LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, After this manner will I mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of 10 Jerusalem. This evil people, which refuse to hear my words, which walk in the imagination of their heart, and walk after other gods, to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, 11 which is good for nothing. For as the girdle cleaveth to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave unto me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, saith the LORD; that they might be unto me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a 12 glory: but they would not hear. Therefore thou shalt speak unto them this word; Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say unto thee, Do we not 13 certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine? Then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness. And I will dash them one against 14 another, even the fathers and the sons together, saith the LORD: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have mercy, but destroy them. Hear 15 ye, and give ear; be not proud: for the LORD hath spoken. Give 16 glory to the LORD your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness. But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret 17 places for your pride; and mine eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because the LORD's flock is carried away captive. Say 18 unto the king and to the queen, Humble yourselves, sit down: for your principalities shall come down, even the crown of your glory. The cities of the south shall be shut up, and none shall open them: 19 Judah shall be carried away captive all of it, it shall be wholly carried away captive. Lift up your eyes, and behold them that 20 come from the north: where is the flock that was given thee, thy beautiful flock? What wilt thou say when he shall punish thee? 21 for thou hast taught them to be captains, and as chief over thee: shall not sorrows take thee, as a woman in travail? And if thou 22 say in thine heart, Wherefore come these things upon me? For the greatness of thine iniquity are thy skirts discovered, and thy heels made bare. Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his 23 spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil. Therefore will I scatter them as the stubble that passeth away by 24 the wind of the wilderness. This is thy lot, the portion of thy 25 measures from me, saith the LORD; because thou hast forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood. Therefore will I discover thy skirts 26 upon thy face, that thy shame may appear. I have seen thine 27 adulteries, and thy neighings, the lewdness of thy whoredom, and thine abominations on the hills in the fields. Woe unto thee, O Jerusalem! wilt thou not be made clean? when shall it once be?

are black unto the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.
3 And their nobles have sent their little ones to the waters: they came to the pits, and found no water; they returned with their vessels empty; they were ashamed and confounded, and covered 4 their heads. Because the ground is chapt, for there was no rain in the earth, the plowmen were ashamed, they covered their heads.
5 Yea, the hind also calved in the field, and forsook it, because there 6 was no grass. And the wild asses did stand in the high places, they snuffed up the wind like dragons; their eyes did fail, because there
7 was no grass. O LORD, though our iniquities testify against us, do thou it for thy name's sake: for our backslidings are many; we 8 have sinned against thee. O the hope of Israel, the saviour thereof in time of trouble, why shouldest thou be as a stranger in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turneth aside to tarry for a night?
9 Why shouldest thou be as a man astonied, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet thou, O LORD, art in the midst of us, and we are 10 called by thy name; leave us not. Thus saith the LORD unto this people, Thus have they loved to wander, they have not refrained their feet, therefore the LORD doth not accept them; he will now 11 remember their iniquity, and visit their sins. Then said the LORD unto me, Pray not for this people for their good. When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and an oblation, I will not accept them: but I will consume them by 12 the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence. Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, the prophets say unto them, Ye shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you 13 assured peace in this place. Then the LORD said unto me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name: I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spake unto them: they prophesy unto you a false vision and divination, and a thing of nought, and the 14 deceit of their heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land; By sword 15 and famine shall those prophets be consumed. And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have none to bury them, them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters:
16 for I will pour their wickedness upon them. Therefore thou shalt say this word unto them; Let mine eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease: for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous blow. If I go forth into the field, then behold the slain with the sword! 18 and if I enter into the city, then behold them that are sick with famine! yea, both the prophet and the priest go about into a land that they know not. Hast thou utterly rejected Judah? hath 19 thy soul lothed Zion? why hast thou smitten us, and there is no healing for us? we looked for peace, and there is no good; and for the time of healing, and behold trouble! We acknowledge, O 20 LORD, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers: for we have sinned against thee. Do not abhor us, for thy name's sake, do not 21 disgrace the throne of thy glory: remember, break not thy covenant with us. Are there any among the vanities of the Gentiles that 22 can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? art not thou he, O LORD our God? therefore we will wait upon thee: for thou hast made all these things.

Then said the LORD unto me, Though Moses and Samuel stood 15 before me, yet my mind could not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth. And it shall come to pass, 2 if they say unto thee, Whither shall we go forth? then thou shalt tell them, Thus saith the LORD; Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for the captivity, to the captivity. And I will appoint over them four kinds, saith the 3 LORD: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and destroy. And 4 I will cause them to be removed into all kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh the son of Hezekiah king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem. For who shall have pity upon thee, O 5 Jerusalem? or who shall bemoan thee? or who shall go aside to ask how thou doest? Thou hast forsaken me, saith the LORD, thou art 6 gone backward: therefore will I stretch out my hand against thee, and destroy thee; I am weary with repenting. And I will fan them 7 with a fan in the gates of the land; I will bereave them of children, I will destroy my people, since they return not from their ways.

She that hath borne seven languisheth: she hath given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day: she hath been ashamed and confounded: and the residue of them will I deliver to the sword before their enemies, saith the LORD. Woe is me, my mother, that thou hast borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have neither lent on usury, nor men have lent to me on usury; yet every one of them doth curse me. The LORD said, Verily it shall be well with thy remnant; verily I will cause the enemy to entreat thee well in the time of evil and in the time of affliction. Shall iron break the northern iron and the steel? Thy substance and thy treasures will I give to the spoil without price, and that for all thy sins, even in all thy borders. And I will make thee to pass with thine enemies into a land which thou knowest not: for a fire is kindled in mine anger, which shall burn upon you. O LORD, thou knowest: remember me, and visit me, and revenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in thy longsuffering: know that for thy sake I have suffered rebuke. Thy words were found, and I did eat them; and thy word was unto me the joy and rejoicing of mine heart: for I am called by thy name, O LORD God of hosts. I sat not in the assembly of the mockers, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of thy hand: for thou hast filled me with indignation. Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuseth to be healed? wilt thou be altogether unto me as a liar, and as waters that fail? Therefore thus saith the LORD, If thou return, then will I bring thee again, and thou shalt stand before me: and if thou take forth the precious from the vile, thou shalt be as my mouth: let them return unto thee; but return not thou unto them. And I will make thee unto this people a fenced brasen wall: and they shall fight against thee, but they shall not prevail against thee: for I am with thee to save thee and to deliver thee, saith the LORD. And I will deliver thee out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem thee out of the hand of the terrible.

The word of the LORD came also unto me, saying, Thou shalt 16, 2 not take thee a wife, neither shalt thou have sons or daughters in this place. For thus saith the LORD concerning the sons and con- 3 cerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bare them, and concerning their fathers that 4 begat them in this land; They shall die of grievous deaths; they shall not be lamented; neither shall they be buried; but they shall be as dung upon the face of the earth: and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their carcases shall be meat for the fowls of heaven, and for the beasts of the earth. For thus 5 saith the LORD, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament nor bemoan them: for I have taken away my peace from this people, saith the LORD, even lovingkindness and mercies.
 Both the great and the small shall die in this land: they shall not 6 be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them: Neither shall men tear them- 7 selves for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother. Thou shalt not also go into the house of 8 feasting, to sit with them to eat and to drink. For thus saith the 9 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place in your eyes, and in your days, the voice of mirth, and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride. And it shall come to pass, when thou shalt shew this 10 people all these words, and they shall say unto thee, Wherefore hath the LORD pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against the LORD our God? Then shalt thou say unto them, Because your 11 fathers have forsaken me, saith the LORD, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law; And ye have done 12 worse than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the imagination of his evil heart, that they may not hearken unto me: Therefore will I cast you out of this land into a land that ye know 13 not, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; where I will not shew you favour. Therefore, 14 behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that it shall no more be said, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel out 15 of the land of Egypt; But, The LORD liveth, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the lands whither he had driven them: and I will bring them again 16 into their land that I gave unto their fathers. Behold, I will send for many fishers, saith the LORD, and they shall fish them; and after will I send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the holes of the 17 rocks. For mine eyes are upon all their ways: they are not hid 18 from my face, neither is their iniquity hid from mine eyes. And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double; because they have defiled my land, they have filled mine inheritance with 19 the carcasses of their detestable and abominable things. O LORD, my strength, and my fortress, and my refuge in the day of affliction, the Gentiles shall come unto thee from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Surely our fathers have inherited lies, vanity, and 20 things wherein there is no profit. Shall a man make gods unto 21 himself, and they are no gods? Therefore, behold, I will this once cause them to know, I will cause them to know mine hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is The LORD.

17 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and 2 upon the horns of your altars; Whilst their children remember their altars and their groves by the green trees upon the high hills.
 3 O my mountain in the field, I will give thy substance and all thy treasures to the spoil, and thy high places for sin, throughout all 4 thy borders. And thou, even thyself, shalt discontinue from thine heritage that I gave thee; and I will cause thee to serve thine enemies in the land which thou knowest not: for ye have kindled a fire 5 in mine anger, which shall burn for ever. Thus saith the LORD; Cursed be the man that trusteth in man, and maketh flesh his arm, 6 and whose heart departeth from the LORD. For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good cometh; but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, in a salt land 7 and not inhabited. Blessed is the man that trusteth in the LORD, 8 and whose hope the LORD is. For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, and that spreadeth out her roots by the river, and shall not see when heat cometh, but her leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit. The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately 9 wicked: who can know it? I the LORD search the heart, I try the 10 reins, even to give every man according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings. As the partridge sitteth on eggs, and 11 hatcheth them not; so he that getteth riches, and not by right, shall leave them in the midst of his days, and at his end shall be a fool. A glorious high throne from the beginning is the place of our 12 sanctuary. O LORD, the hope of Israel, all that forsake thee shall 13 be ashamed, and they that depart from me shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken the LORD, the fountain of living waters. Heal me, O LORD, and I shall be healed; save me, and I 14 shall be saved: for thou art my praise. Behold, they say unto me, 15 Where is the word of the LORD? let it come now. As for me, I 16 have not hastened from being a pastor to follow thee: neither have I desired the woeful day; thou knowest: that which came out of my lips was right before thee. Be not a terror unto me: thou art my 17 hope in the day of evil. Let them be confounded that persecute 18 me, but let not me be confounded: let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed: bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction. Thus said the LORD unto me; Go 19 and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by the which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem; And say unto them, Hear ye the word of 20 the LORD, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates: Thus saith the 21 LORD; Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem; Neither carry 22 forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work, but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers. But they obeyed not, neither inclined their ear, but made 23 their neck stiff, that they might not hear, nor receive instruction. And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken unto me, saith 24 the LORD, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein; Then shall there enter into the gates of this city kings and princes 25 sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of 26 Jerusalem: and this city shall remain for ever. And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the plain, and from the mountains, and from the south, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meat offerings, and incense, and bringing sacrifices 27 of praise, unto the house of the LORD. But if ye will not hearken unto me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden, even entering in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then will I kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

18 The word which came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
 2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause 3 thee to hear my words. Then I went down to the potter's house, 4 and, behold, he wrought a work on the wheels. And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: so he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make 5, 6 it. Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying, O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? saith the LORD. Behold, as the clay is in the potter's hand, so are ye in mine hand, O 7 house of Israel. At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up, and to pull down, and to 8 destroy it; If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto 9 them. And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and 10 concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it; If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, 11 wherewith I said I would benefit them. Now therefore go to, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, 12 and make your ways and your doings good. And they said, There is no hope: but we will walk after our own devices, and we will 13 every one do the imagination of his evil heart. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ask ye now among the heathen, who hath heard such things: the virgin of Israel hath done a very horrible thing.
 14 Will a man leave the snow of Lebanon which cometh from the rock of the field? or shall the cold flowing waters that come from another place be forsaken? Because my people hath forgotten me, 15 they have burned incense to vanity, and they have caused them to stumble in their ways from the ancient paths, to walk in paths, in a way not cast up; To make their land desolate, and a perpetual 16 hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished, and wag his head. I will scatter them as with an east wind before the 17 enemy; I will shew them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity. Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices 18 against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words. Give heed to me, O LORD, and hearken to the voice of 19 them that contend with me. Shall evil be recompensed for good? 20 for they have digged a pit for my soul. Remember that I stood before thee to speak good for them, and to turn away thy wrath from them. Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and 21 pour out their blood by the force of the sword; and let their wives be bereaved of their children, and be widows; and let their men be put to death; let their young men be slain by the sword in battle. Let a cry be heard from their houses, when thou shalt bring a troop 22 suddenly upon them: for they have digged a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet. Yet, LORD, thou knowest all their counsel 23 against me to slay me: forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from thy sight, but let them be overthrown before thee; deal thus with them in the time of thine anger.

Thus saith the LORD, Go and get a potter's earthen bottle, 19 and take of the ancients of the people, and of the ancients of the priests; And go forth unto the valley of the son of Hinnom, which 2 is by the entry of the east gate, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell thee, And say, Hear ye the word of the LORD, O kings 3 of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, the which whosoever heareth, his ears shall tingle. Because they 4 have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it unto other gods, whom neither they nor their fathers have known, nor the kings of Judah, and have filled this place with 5 the blood of innocents; They have built also the high places of Baal, to burn their sons with fire for burnt offerings unto Baal, which I commanded not, nor spake it, neither came it into my 6 mind: Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that this place shall no more be called Tophet, nor The valley of the 7 son of Hinnom, but The valley of slaughter. And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hands of them that seek their lives: and their carcases will I give to be meat for the fowls of the heaven, and for the beasts of the 8 earth. And I will make this city desolate, and an hissing; every one that passeth thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of 9 all the plagues thereof. And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters, and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend in the siege and straitness, wherewith their enemies, and they that seek their lives, shall straiten them.

10 Then shalt thou break the bottle in the sight of the men that 11 go with thee, And shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Even so will I break this people and this city, as one breaketh a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again: and 12 they shall bury them in Tophet, till there be no place to bury. Thus will I do unto this place, saith the LORD, and to the inhabitants 13 thereof, and even make this city as Tophet: And the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, shall be defiled as the place of Tophet, because of all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense unto all the host of heaven, and have 14 poured out drink offerings unto other gods. Then came Jeremiah from Tophet, whither the LORD had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of the LORD'S house; and said to all the 15 people, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all her towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it, because they have hardened their necks, that they might not hear my words.
20 Now Pashur the son of Immer the priest, who was also chief governor in the house of the LORD, heard that Jeremiah prophesied 2 these things. Then Pashur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the high gate of Benjamin, which was by the house of the LORD. And it came to pass on the morrow, 3 that Pashur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah unto him, The LORD hath not called thy name Pashur, but Magormissabib. For thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will make 4 thee a terror to thyself, and to all thy friends: and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and thine eyes shall behold it: and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive into Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword. Moreover I will deliver all the strength of this city, 5 and all the labours thereof, and all the precious things thereof, and all the treasures of the kings of Judah will I give into the hand of their enemies, which shall spoil them, and take them, and carry them to Babylon. And thou, Pashur, and all that dwell in thine 6 house shall go into captivity: and thou shalt come to Babylon, and there thou shalt die, and shalt be buried there, thou, and all thy friends, to whom thou hast prophesied lies. O LORD, thou hast 7 deceived me, and I was deceived: thou art stronger than I, and hast prevailed: I am in derision daily, every one mocketh me. For 8 since I spake, I cried out, I cried violence and spoil; because the word of the LORD was made a reproach unto me, and a derision, daily. Then I said, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any 9 more in his name. But his word was in mine heart as a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I was weary with forbearing, and I could not stay. For I heard the defaming of many, fear on every side. 10 Report, say they, and we will report it. All my familiars watched for my halting, saying, Peradventure he will be enticed, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.

But the LORD is with me as a mighty terrible one: therefore my 11 persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail: they shall be greatly ashamed; for they shall not prosper: their everlasting confusion shall never be forgotten. But, O LORD of hosts, that 12 triest the righteous, and seest the reins and the heart, let me see thy vengeance on them: for unto thee have I opened my cause.
Sing unto the LORD, praise ye the LORD: for he hath delivered 13 the soul of the poor from the hand of evildoers. Cursed be the 14 day wherein I was born: let not the day wherein my mother bare me be blessed. Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, 15 saying, A man child is born unto thee; making him very glad.

16 And let that man be as the cities which the LORD overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear the cry in the morning, and the 17 shouting at noontide; Because he slew me not from the womb; or that my mother might have been my grave, and her womb to be 18 always great with me. Wherefore came I forth out of the womb to see labour and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?

21 The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when king Zedekiah sent unto him Pashur the son of Melchiah, and Zephaniah 2 the son of Maaseiah the priest, saying, Enquire, I pray thee, of the LORD for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon maketh war against us; if so be that the LORD will deal with us according to 3 all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us. Then said 4 Jeremiah unto them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah: Thus saith the LORD God of Israel; Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, wherewith ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans, which besiege you without 5 the walls, and I will assemble them into the midst of this city. And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with 6 a strong arm, even in anger, and in fury, and in great wrath. And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they 7 shall die of a great pestilence. And afterward, saith the LORD, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, and such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, 8 nor have mercy. And unto this people thou shalt say, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I set before you the way of life, and the way 9 of death. He that abideth in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth out, and falleth to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life 10 shall be unto him for a prey. For I have set my face against this city for evil, and not for good, saith the LORD: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with 11 fire. And touching the house of the king of Judah, say, Hear ye 12 the word of the LORD; O house of David, thus saith the LORD;

Execute judgment in the morning, and deliver him that is spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my fury go out like fire, and burn that none can quench it, because of the evil of your doings. Behold, I am against thee, O inhabitant of the valley, and rock 13 of the plain, saith the LORD; which say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations? But I will 14 punish you according to the fruit of your doings, saith the LORD: and I will kindle a fire in the forest thereof, and it shall devour all things round about it.

Thus saith the LORD; Go down to the house of the king of 22 Judah, and speak there this word, And say, Hear the word of 2 the LORD, O king of Judah, that sittest upon the throne of David, thou, and thy servants, and thy people that enter in by these gates: Thus saith the LORD; Execute ye judgment and righteousness, 3 and deliver the spoiled out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence to the stranger, the fatherless, nor the widow, neither shed innocent blood in this place. For if ye do this 4 thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people. But if ye will not 5 hear these words, I swear by myself, saith the LORD, that this house shall become a desolation. For thus saith the LORD unto 6 the king's house of Judah; Thou art Gilead unto me, and the head of Lebanon: yet surely I will make thee a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited. And I will prepare destroyers against 7 thee, every one with his weapons: and they shall cut down thy choice cedars, and cast them into the fire. And many nations shall 8 pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbour, Wherefore hath the LORD done thus unto this great city? Then 9 they shall answer, Because they have forsaken the covenant of the LORD their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them. Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him: but weep sore 10 for him that goeth away: for he shall return no more, nor see his native country. For thus saith the LORD touching Shallum 11 the son of Josiah king of Judah, which reigned instead of Josiah his father, which went forth out of this place; He shall not return thither any more: But he shall die in the place whither they have 12

13 led him captive, and shall see this land no more. Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth 14 him not for his work; That saith, I will build me a wide house and large chambers, and cutteth him out windows; and it is cieled with 15 cedar, and painted with vermilion. Shalt thou reign, because thou closest thyself in cedar? did not thy father eat and drink, and do 16 judgment and justice, and then it was well with him? He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well with him: was not 17 this to know me? saith the LORD. But thine eyes and thine heart are not but for thy covetousness, and for to shed innocent blood, 18 and for oppression, and for violence, to do it. Therefore thus saith the LORD concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah; They shall not lament for him, saying, Ah my brother! or, Ah sister! they shall not lament for him, saying, Ah lord! or, Ah his 19 glory! He shall be buried with the burial of an ass, drawn and cast 20 forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem. Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up thy voice in Bashan, and cry from the passages: for all 21 thy lovers are destroyed. I spake unto thee in thy prosperity; but thou saidst, I will not hear. This hath been thy manner from thy 22 youth, that thou obeyedst not my voice. The wind shall eat up all thy pastors, and thy lovers shall go into captivity: surely then 23 shalt thou be ashamed and confounded for all thy wickedness. O inhabitant of Lebanon, that makest thy nest in the cedars, how gracious shalt thou be when pangs come upon thee, the pain as 24 of a woman in travail! As I live, saith the LORD, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right 25 hand, yet would I pluck thee thence; And I will give thee into the hand of them that seek thy life, and into the hand of them whose face thou fearest, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of 26 Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans. And I will cast thee out, and thy mother that bare thee, into another country, 27 where ye were not born; and there shall ye die. But to the land 28 whereunto they desire to return, thither shall they not return. Is this man Coniah a despised broken idol? is he a vessel wherein is no pleasure? wherefore are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into a land which they know not? O earth, earth, earth, hear 29 the word of the LORD. Thus saith the LORD, Write ye this man 30 childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days: for no man of his seed shall prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling any more in Judah.

Woe be unto the pastors that destroy and scatter the sheep of 23 my pasture! saith the LORD. Therefore thus saith the LORD God 2 of Israel against the pastors that feed my people; Ye have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them: behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, saith the LORD. And 3
I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and increase. And I will set up shepherds 4 over them which shall feed them: and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall they be lacking, saith the LORD.
Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto 5 David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth. In his days Judah 6 shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.
Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that they shall 7 no more say, The LORD liveth, which brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt; But, The LORD liveth, which 8 brought up and which led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all countries whither I had driven them; and they shall dwell in their own land. Mine heart within me is 9 broken because of the prophets; all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine hath overcome, because of the LORD, and because of the words of his holiness. For the 10 land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourneth; the pleasant places of the wilderness are dried up, and their course is evil, and their force is not right. For both prophet and priest 11 are profane; yea, in my house have I found their wickedness, saith the LORD. Wherefore their way shall be unto them as slippery 12 ways in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein: for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; 13

14 they prophesied in Baal, and caused my people Israel to err. I have seen also in the prophets of Jerusalem an horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies: they strengthen also the hands of evildoers, that none doth return from his wickedness: they are all of them unto me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as 15 Gomorrah. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the prophets; Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall: for from the prophets of Jerusalem is 16 profaneness gone forth into all the land. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Hearken not unto the words of the prophets that prophesy unto you: they make you vain: they speak a vision of their own 17 heart, and not out of the mouth of the LORD. They say still unto them that despise me, The LORD hath said, Ye shall have peace; and they say unto every one that walketh after the imagination of 18 his own heart, No evil shall come upon you. For who hath stood in the counsel of the LORD, and hath perceived and heard his word?
19 who hath marked his word, and heard it? Behold, a whirlwind of the LORD is gone forth in fury, even a grievous whirlwind: it 20 shall fall grievously upon the head of the wicked. The anger of the LORD shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the thoughts of his heart: in the latter days ye shall 21 consider it perfectly. I have not sent these prophets, yet they ran: I have not spoken to them, yet they prophesied. But if they had 22 stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they should have turned them from their evil way, and from 23 the evil of their doings. Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven 25 and earth? saith the LORD. I have heard what the prophets said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have 26 dreamed. How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies? yea, they are prophets of the deceit of their 27 own heart; Which think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbour, as 28 their fathers have forgotten my name for Baal. The prophet that hath a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that hath my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the chaff to the wheat?

saith the LORD. Is not my word like as a fire? saith the LORD; 29 and like a hammer that breaketh the rock in pieces? Therefore, 30 behold, I am against the prophets, saith the LORD, that steal my words every one from his neighbour. Behold, I am against the 31 prophets, saith the LORD, that use their tongues, and say, He saith.
 Behold, I am against them that prophesy false dreams, saith the 32 LORD, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their lightness; yet I sent them not, nor commanded them:
 therefore they shall not profit this people at all, saith the LORD.
 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask thee, 33 saying, What is the burden of the LORD? thou shalt then say unto them, What burden? I will even forsake you, saith the LORD.
 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall 34 say, The burden of the LORD, I will even punish that man and his house. Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbour, and every 35 one to his brother, What hath the LORD answered? and, What hath the LORD spoken? And the burden of the LORD shall ye 36 mention no more: for every man's word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of the LORD of hosts our God. Thus shalt thou say to the prophet, What hath the 37 LORD answered thee? and, What hath the LORD spoken? But 38 since ye say, The burden of the LORD; therefore thus saith the LORD; Because ye say this word, The burden of the LORD, and I have sent unto you, saying, Ye shall not say, The burden of the LORD; Therefore, behold, I, even I, will utterly forget you, and 39
 I will forsake you, and the city that I gave you and your fathers, and cast you out of my presence: And I will bring an everlasting 40 reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.

The LORD shewed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs were set 24 before the temple of the LORD, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the carpenters and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon. One 2 basket had very good figs, even like the figs that are first ripe: and the other basket had very naughty figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad. Then said the LORD unto me, What seest thou, 3

Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the evil, 4 very evil, that cannot be eaten, they are so evil. Again the word of 5 the LORD came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Like these good figs, so will I acknowledge them that are carried away captive of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place 6 into the land of the Chaldeans for their good. For I will set mine eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant 7 them, and not pluck them up. And I will give them an heart to know me, that I am the LORD: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God: for they shall return unto me with their whole 8 heart. And as the evil figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so evil; surely thus saith the LORD, So will I give Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain 9 in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt: And I will deliver them to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth for their hurt, to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in 10 all places whither I shall drive them. And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave unto them and to their fathers.

25 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Baby-2 lon; The which Jeremiah the prophet spake unto all the people 3 of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon king of Judah, even unto this day, that is the three and twentieth year, the word of the LORD hath come unto me, and I have spoken unto you, rising 4 early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened. And the LORD hath sent unto you all his servants the prophets, rising early and sending them; but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to 5 hear. They said, Turn ye again now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that the LORD hath given unto you and to your fathers for ever and ever: 6 And go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the works of your hands; and 7 I will do you no hurt. Yet ye have not hearkened unto me, saith the LORD; that ye might provoke me to anger with the works of your hands to your own hurt. Therefore thus saith the LORD of 8 hosts; Because ye have not heard my words, Behold, I will send 9 and take all the families of the north, saith the LORD, and Neb-uchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about, and will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and an hissing, and perpetual desolations. Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth, and 10 the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom, and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the candle.

 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; 11 and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, 12 that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, saith the LORD, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans, and will make it perpetual desolations. And I will bring upon that land 13 all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah hath prophesied against all the nations. For many nations and great kings shall serve them- 14 selves of them also: and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the works of their own hands. For thus 15 saith the LORD God of Israel unto me; Take the wine cup of this fury at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send thee, to drink it. And they shall drink, and be moved, and be mad, 16 because of the sword that I will send among them. Then took I 17 the cup at the LORD's hand, and made all the nations to drink, unto whom the LORD had sent me: To wit, Jerusalem, and the 18 cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, an hissing, and a curse; as it is this day; Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his 19 princes, and all his people; And all the mingled people, and all 20 the kings of the land of Uz, and all the kings of the land of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Azzah, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod, Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon, And all 21, 22 the kings of Tyrus, and all the kings of Zidon, and the kings of the isles which are beyond the sea, Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and 23 24 all that are in the utmost corners, And all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the desert, 25 And all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the 26 kings of the Medes, And all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another, and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink 27 after them. Therefore thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Drink ye, and be drunken, and spue, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will 28 send among you. And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at thine hand to drink, then shalt thou say unto them, Thus saith 29 the LORD of hosts; Ye shall certainly drink. For, lo, I begin to bring evil on the city which is called by my name, and should ye be utterly unpunished? Ye shall not be unpunished: for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, saith the LORD 30 of hosts. Therefore prophesy thou against them all these words, and say unto them, The LORD shall roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he shall mightily roar upon his habitation; he shall give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, 31 against all the inhabitants of the earth. A noise shall come even to the ends of the earth; for the LORD hath a controversy with the nations, he will plead with all flesh; he will give them that are 32 wicked to the sword, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great 33 whirlwind shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. And the slain of the LORD shall be at that day from one end of the earth even unto the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the ground.

 34 Howl, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow yourselves in the ashes, ye principal of the flock: for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are accomplished; and ye shall fall like a pleasant ves-35 sel. And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal 36 of the flock to escape. A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and an howling of the principal of the flock, shall be heard: for the LORD 37 hath spoiled their pasture. And the peaceable habitations are cut down because of the fierce anger of the LORD. He hath forsaken 38 his covert, as the lion: for their land is desolate because of the fierceness of the oppressor, and because of his fierce anger.

In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king 26 of Judah came this word from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the 2 LORD; Stand in the court of the LORD'S house, and speak unto all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in the LORD'S house, all the words that I command thee to speak unto them; diminish not a word: If so be they will hearken, and turn every man from 3 his evil way, that I may repent me of the evil, which I purpose to do unto them because of the evil of their doings. And thou shalt 4 say unto them, Thus saith the LORD; If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you, To hearken 5 to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I sent unto you, both rising up early, and sending them, but ye have not hearkened; Then will I make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city 6 a curse to all the nations of the earth. So the priests and the 7 prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of the LORD. Now it came to pass, when Jeremiah 8 had made an end of speaking all that the LORD had commanded him to speak unto all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people took him, saying, Thou shalt surely die. Why 9 hast thou prophesied in the name of the LORD, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate without an inhabitant? And all the people were gathered against Jeremiah in the house of the LORD. When the princes of Judah heard these 10 things, then they came up from the king's house unto the house of the LORD, and sat down in the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house. Then spake the priests and the prophets unto the 11 princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy to die; for he hath prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears. Then spake Jeremiah unto all the princes and to all the 12 people, saying, The LORD sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard. Therefore 13 now amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of the LORD your God; and the LORD will repent him of the evil that he hath pronounced against you. As for me, behold, I am in your 14

- 16 you to speak all these words in your ears. Then said the princes and all the people unto the priests and to the prophets; This man is not worthy to die: for he hath spoken to us in the name of the
- 17 LORD our God. Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spake to all the assembly of the people, saying, Micah the Morasthite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah, and spake to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Zion shall be plowed like a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.
- 19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him at all to death? did he not fear the LORD, and besought the LORD, and the LORD repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them?
- 20 Thus might we procure great evil against our souls. And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of the LORD, Urijah the son of Shemaiah of Kirjathjearim, who prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:
- 21 And when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death: but when Urijah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt;
- 22 And Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan
- 23 the son of Achbor, and certain men with him into Egypt. And they fetched forth Urijah out of Egypt, and brought him unto Jehoiakim the king; who slew him with the sword, and cast his
- 24 dead body into the graves of the common people. Nevertheless the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.
- 27 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah came this word unto Jeremiah from the LORD, saying,
- 2 Thus saith the LORD to me; Make thee bonds and yokes, and
- 3 put them upon thy neck, And send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the Ammonites, and to the king of Tyrus, and to the king of Zidon, by the hand of the messengers which come to Jerusalem unto Zedekiah king of Judah; And command them to say unto their masters, Thus saith 4 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Thus shall ye say unto your masters; I have made the earth, the man and the beast that are 5 upon the ground, by my great power and by my outstretched arm, and have given it unto whom it seemed meet unto me. And now 6 have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field have I given him also to serve him. And all nations shall serve him, and 7 his son, and his son's son, until the very time of his land come: and then many nations and great kings shall serve themselves of him. And it shall come to pass, that the nation and kingdom which will 8 not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation will I punish, saith the LORD, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand. Therefore hearken not ye to your prophets, nor to 9 your diviners, nor to your dreamers, nor to your enchanters, nor to your sorcerers, which speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: For they prophesy a lie unto you, to remove 10 you far from your land; and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish. But the nations that bring their neck under the 11 yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, those will I let remain still in their own land, saith the LORD; and they shall till it, and dwell therein. I spake also to Zedekiah king of Judah according 12 to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live. Why will 13 ye die, thou and thy people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as the LORD hath spoken against the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon? Therefore hearken not unto 14 the words of the prophets that speak unto you, saying, Ye shall not serve the king of Babylon: for they prophesy a lie unto you. For I have not sent them, saith the LORD, yet they prophesy a lie 15 in my name; that I might drive you out, and that ye might perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy unto you. Also I spake to 16 the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy unto you, saying, Behold, the vessels of the LORD's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon: for they prophesy a lie 17 unto you. Hearken not unto them; serve the king of Babylon, 18 and live: wherefore should this city be laid waste? But if they be prophets, and if the word of the LORD be with them, let them now make intercession to the LORD of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of 19 Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon. For thus saith the LORD of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that 20 remain in this city, Which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of 21 Judah and Jerusalem; Yea, thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that remain in the house of the LORD, and in the house of the king of Judah and of Jerusalem; 22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be until the day that I visit them, saith the LORD; then will I bring them up, and restore them to this place.

28 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, and in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azur the prophet, which was of Gibeon, spake unto me in the house of the LORD, in the presence of 2 the priests and of all the people, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the 3 king of Babylon. Within two full years will I bring again into this place all the vessels of the LORD's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried them to 4 Babylon: And I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went into Babylon, saith the LORD: for I will break the yoke of the king 5 of Babylon. Then the prophet Jeremiah said unto the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all 6 the people that stood in the house of the LORD, Even the prophet Jeremiah said, Amen: the LORD do so: the LORD perform thy words which thou hast prophesied, to bring again the vessels of the LORD's house, and all that is carried away captive, from Babylon 7 into this place. Nevertheless hear thou now this word that I speak in thine ears, and in the ears of all the people; The prophets that 8 have been before me and before thee of old prophesied both against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence. The prophet which prophesieth of peace, when 9 the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that the LORD hath truly sent him. Then Hananiah 10 the prophet took the yoke from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and brake it. And Hananiah spake in the presence of all the 11 people, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Even so will I break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon from the neck of all nations within the space of two full years. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way. Then the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah 12 the prophet, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the yoke from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Go and tell 13 Hananiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast broken the yokes of wood; but thou shalt make for them yokes of iron. For 14 thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may serve Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also. Then said the prophet 15 Jeremiah unto Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah; The LORD hath not sent thee; but thou makest this people to trust in a lie. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will cast thee 16 from off the face of the earth: this year thou shalt die, because thou hast taught rebellion against the LORD. So Hananiah the 17 prophet died the same year in the seventh month.

Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet 29 sent from Jerusalem unto the residue of the elders which were carried away captives, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon; (After that Jeconiah the king, and 2 the queen, and the eunuchs, the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the carpenters, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem;) By the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah 3 the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent unto Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon) saying, Thus saith the 4 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, unto all that are carried away captives, whom I have caused to be carried away from Jerusalem

5 unto Babylon; Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gar-6 dens, and eat the fruit of them; Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; that ye may be 7 increased there, and not diminished. And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captives, and pray unto the LORD for it: for in the peace thereof shall ye have 8 peace. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Let not your prophets and your diviners, that be in the midst of you, deceive you, neither hearken to your dreams which ye cause to be 9 dreamed. For they prophesy falsely unto you in my name: I have 10 not sent them, saith the LORD. For thus saith the LORD, That after seventy years be accomplished at Babylon I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return 11 to this place. For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, saith the LORD, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you an 12 expected end. Then shall ye call upon me, and ye shall go and 13 pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, 14 and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart. And I will be found of you, saith the LORD: and I will turn away your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places whither I have driven you, saith the LORD; and I will bring you again into the place whence I caused you to be carried 15 away captive. Because ye have said, The LORD hath raised us up 16 prophets in Babylon; Know that thus saith the LORD of the king that sitteth upon the throne of David, and of all the people that dwelleth in this city, and of your brethren that are not gone forth 17 with you into captivity; Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so 18 evil. And I will persecute them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be removed to all the kingdoms of the earth, to be a curse, and an astonishment, and an hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations whither I 19 have driven them: Because they have not hearkened to my words, saith the LORD, which I sent unto them by my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, saith the LORD. Hear ye therefore the word of the LORD, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent from Jerusalem to Babylon: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, of Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and of Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, which prophesy a lie unto you in my name; Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes; And of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captivity of Judah which are in Babylon, saying, The LORD make thee like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire; Because they have committed villany in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbours' wives, and have spoken lying words in my name, which I have not commanded them; even I know, and am a witness, saith the LORD.

Thus shalt thou also speak to Shemaiah the Nehelamite, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because thou hast sent letters in thy name unto all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest, and to all the priests, saying, The LORD hath made thee priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that ye should be officers in the house of the LORD, for every man that is mad, and maketh himself a prophet, that thou shouldest put him in prison, and in the stocks.
 Now therefore why hast thou not reprov'd Jeremiah of Anathoth, which maketh himself a prophet to you? For therefore he sent unto us in Babylon, saying, This captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.
 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus saith the LORD concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite; Because that Shemaiah hath prophesied unto you, and I sent him not, and he caused you to trust in a lie: Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed: he shall not have a man to dwell among this people; neither shall he behold the good that I will do for my people, saith the LORD; because he hath taught rebellion against the LORD.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD God of Israel, saying, Write thee all the words that I have spoken unto thee in a book. For, lo, the days come, 30, 2 saith the LORD, that I will bring again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, saith the LORD: and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.

4 And these are the words that the LORD spake concerning Israel 5 and concerning Judah. For thus saith the LORD; We have heard a 6 voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace. Ask ye now, and see whether a man doth travail with child? wherefore do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all 7 faces are turned into paleness? Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he 8 shall be saved out of it. For it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off thy neck, and will burst thy bonds, and strangers shall no more serve themselves 9 of him: But they shall serve the LORD their God, and David their 10 king, whom I will raise up unto them. Therefore fear thou not, O my servant Jacob, saith the LORD; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save thee from afar, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be in rest, and be 11 quiet, and none shall make him afraid. For I am with thee, saith the LORD, to save thee: though I make a full end of all nations whither I have scattered thee, yet will I not make a full end of thee: but I will correct thee in measure, and will not leave thee altogether 12 unpunished. For thus saith the LORD, Thy bruise is incurable, 13 and thy wound is grievous. There is none to plead thy cause, that thou mayest be bound up: thou hast no healing medicines.
14 All thy lovers have forgotten thee; they seek thee not; for I have wounded thee with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the multitude of thine iniquity; because thy sins 15 were increased. Why criest thou for thine affliction? thy sorrow is incurable for the multitude of thine iniquity: because thy sins 16 were increased, I have done these things unto thee. Therefore all they that devour thee shall be devoured; and all thine adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that spoil thee shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon thee will I give for a 17 prey. For I will restore health unto thee, and I will heal thee of thy wounds, saith the LORD; because they called thee an Outcast, 18 saying, This is Zion, whom no man seeketh after. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will bring again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have mercy on his dwellingplaces; and the city shall be builded upon her own heap, and the palace shall remain after the manner thereof. And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice 19 of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small. Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation 20 shall be established before me, and I will punish all that oppress them. And their nobles shall be of themselves, and their governor 21 shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach unto me: for who is this that engaged his heart to approach unto me? saith the LORD. And ye shall 22 be my people, and I will be your God. Behold, the whirlwind of 23 the LORD goeth forth with fury, a continuing whirlwind: it shall fall with pain upon the head of the wicked. The fierce anger of 24 the LORD shall not return, until he have done it, and until he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall consider it.

At the same time, saith the LORD, will I be the God of all the 31 families of Israel, and they shall be my people. Thus saith the 2 LORD, The people which were left of the sword found grace in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest. The 3 LORD hath appeared of old unto me, saying, Yea, I have loved thee with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn thee. Again I will build thee, and thou shalt be built, O 4 virgin of Israel: thou shalt again be adorned with thy tabrets, and shalt go forth in the dances of them that make merry. Thou shalt 5 yet plant vines upon the mountains of Samaria: the planters shall plant, and shall eat them as common things. For there shall be a 6 day, that the watchmen upon the mount Ephraim shall cry, Arise ye, and let us go up to Zion unto the LORD our God. For thus 7 saith the LORD; Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout among the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O LORD, save thy people, the remnant of Israel. Behold, I will bring them 8 from the north country, and gather them from the coasts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travaileth with child together: a great company 9 shall return thither. They shall come with weeping, and with supplications will I lead them: I will cause them to walk by the rivers of waters in a straight way, wherein they shall not stumble: 10 for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my firstborn. Hear the word of the LORD, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off, and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as 11 a shepherd doth his flock. For the LORD hath redeemed Jacob, and ransomed him from the hand of him that was stronger than 12 he. Therefore they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow together to the goodness of the LORD, for wheat, and for wine, and for oil, and for the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not 13 sorrow any more at all. Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, both young men and old together: for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their 14 sorrow. And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, saith the LORD.

15 Thus saith the LORD; A voice was heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping; Rahel weeping for her children refused to be 16 comforted for her children, because they were not. Thus saith the LORD; Refrain thy voice from weeping, and thine eyes from tears: for thy work shall be rewarded, saith the LORD; and they 17 shall come again from the land of the enemy. And there is hope in thine end, saith the LORD, that thy children shall come again 18 to their own border. I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus; Thou hast chastised me, and I was chastised, as a bullock unaccustomed to the yoke: turn thou me, and I shall be 19 turned; for thou art the LORD my God. Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yea, even confounded, because I did 20 bear the reproach of my youth. Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a pleasant child? for since I spake against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my bowels are troubled for him; 21 I will surely have mercy upon him, saith the LORD. Set thee up waymarks, make thee high heaps: set thine heart toward the highway, even the way which thou wentest: turn again, O virgin of 22 Israel, turn again to these thy cities. How long wilt thou go about,

O thou backsliding daughter? for the LORD hath created a new thing in the earth, A woman shall compass a man. Thus saith 23 the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As yet they shall use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity; The LORD bless thee, O habitation of justice, and mountain of holiness. And there shall dwell in Judah 24 itself, and in all the cities thereof together, husbandmen, and they that go forth with flocks. For I have satiated the weary soul, and 25
I have replenished every sorrowful soul. Upon this I awaked, and 26 beheld; and my sleep was sweet unto me. Behold, the days come, 27 saith the LORD, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast. And it 28 shall come to pass, that like as I have watched over them, to pluck up, and to break down, and to throw down, and to destroy, and to afflict; so will I watch over them, to build, and to plant, saith the LORD. In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have 29 eaten a sour grape, and the children's teeth are set on edge. But 30 every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eateth the sour grape, his teeth shall be set on edge. Behold, the days 31 come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah: Not according to 32 the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD: But this shall be the covenant that I will make with 33 the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people. And they shall teach no 34 more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more. Thus saith the 35
LORD, which giveth the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, which divideth the sea when the waves thereof roar; The LORD of hosts is his name: If those ordinances depart from before me, saith the LORD, then 36 the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever. Thus saith the LORD; If heaven above can be measured, 37 and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, saith the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that the city shall be built to the LORD from the tower of Hananeel unto the gate of the corner. And the measuring line shall yet go forth over against it upon the hill Gareb, and shall compass about to Goath. And the whole valley of the dead bodies, and of the ashes, and all the fields unto the brook of Kidron, unto the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy unto the LORD; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.

32 The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar. For then the king of Babylon's army besieged Jerusalem: and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the prison, which was in the king of Judah's house. For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Wherefore dost thou prophesy, and say, Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it; And Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes; And he shall lead Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, saith the LORD: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper. And Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Behold, Hanameel the son of Shallum thine uncle shall come unto thee, saying, Buy thee my field that is in Anathoth: for the right of redemption is thine to buy it. So Hanameel mine uncle's son came to me in the court of the prison according to the word of the LORD, and said unto me, Buy my field, I pray thee, that is in Anathoth, which is in the country of Benjamin: for the right of inheritance is thine, and the redemption is thine; buy it for thyself. Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field of Hanameel my uncle's son, that was in Anathoth, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver. And I subscribed the evidence, and sealed it, and took witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances. So I took the evidence of the purchase, both that which was sealed according to the law and custom, and that which was open: And I gave the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, in the sight of Hanameel mine uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the book of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the prison. And I charged Baruch before them, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Take these evidences, this evidence of the purchase, both which is sealed, and this evidence which is open; and put them in an earthen vessel, that they may continue many days. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Houses and fields and vineyards shall be possessed again in this land. Now when I had delivered the evidence of the purchase unto Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed unto the LORD, saying, Ah Lord GOD! behold, thou hast made the heaven and the earth by thy great power and stretched out arm, and there is nothing too hard for thee: Thou shewest lovingkindness unto thousands, and recompensest the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them: the Great, the Mighty God, the LORD of hosts, is his name, Great in counsel, and mighty in work: for thine eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men: to give every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings: Which hast set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even unto this day, and in Israel, and among other men; and hast made thee a name, as at this day; And hast brought forth thy people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with great terror; And hast given them this land, which thou didst swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey; And they came in, and possessed it; but they obeyed not thy voice, neither walked in thy law; they have done nothing of all that thou commandedst them to do: therefore thou hast caused all this evil to come upon them: Behold the mounts, they are come unto the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans, that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence: and what thou hast spoken is come to pass; and, behold, thou seest it. And thou hast said unto me, O Lord GOD, Buy thee the field for money, and take witnesses; for the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.

 26, 27 Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh: is there any thing too hard for 28 me? Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrez-29 zar king of Babylon, and he shall take it: And the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set fire on this city, and burn it with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense unto Baal, and poured out drink offerings unto other gods, to provoke 30 me to anger. For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have only done evil before me from their youth: for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their 31 hands, saith the LORD. For this city hath been to me as a provocation of mine anger and of my fury from the day that they built it even unto this day; that I should remove it from before my face, 32 Because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the 33 men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And they have turned unto me the back, and not the face: though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to 34 receive instruction. But they set their abominations in the house, 35 which is called by my name, to defile it. And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire unto Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to 36 sin. And now therefore thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and 37 by the pestilence; Behold, I will gather them out of all countries, whither I have driven them in mine anger, and in my fury, and in great wrath; and I will bring them again unto this place, and I will 38 cause them to dwell safely: And they shall be my people, and I 39 will be their God: And I will give them one heart, and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their 40 children after them: And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me. Yea, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will 41 plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul. For thus saith the LORD; Like as I have brought 42 all this great evil upon this people, so will I bring upon them all the good that I have promised them. And fields shall be bought 43 in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans. Men shall buy fields for 44 money, and subscribe evidences, and seal them, and take witnesses in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the mountains, and in the cities of the valley, and in the cities of the south: for I will cause their captivity to return, saith the LORD.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah the second 33 time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the prison, saying, Thus saith the LORD the maker thereof, the LORD that formed 2 it, to establish it; the LORD is his name; Call unto me, and I 3 will answer thee, and shew thee great and mighty things, which thou knowest not. For thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, 4 concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mounts, and by the sword; They come to fight with the Chaldeans, but it is 5 to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in mine anger and in my fury, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city. Behold, I will bring it health and cure, 6 and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth. And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the 7 captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first. And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have 8 sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned, and whereby they have transgressed against me. And it shall be to me a name of joy, a praise and an honour before 9 all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do unto them: and they shall fear and tremble for all the goodness and for all the prosperity that I procure unto it. Thus saith the 10 LORD; Again there shall be heard in this place, which ye say shall

For I will cause to return the captivity of the land, as at the 12 first, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Again in this place, which is desolate without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, shall be an habitation of shepherds causing their 13 flocks to lie down. In the cities of the mountains, in the cities of the vale, and in the cities of the south, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks pass again under the hands of him that telleth them, saith 14 the LORD. Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will perform that good thing which I have promised unto the house of Israel and to the house of Judah. In those days, and at that time, will I cause the Branch of righteousness to grow up unto David;
 16 and he shall execute judgment and righteousness in the land. In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely: and this is the name wherewith she shall be called, The LORD our 17 righteousness. For thus saith the LORD; David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel; Neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, 19 and to kindle meat offerings, and to do sacrifice continually. And the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD; If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant 20 of the night, and that there should not be day and night in their season; Then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he should not have a son to reign upon his throne;
 22 and with the Levites the priests, my ministers. As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured: so will I multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites 23 that minister unto me. Moreover the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, saying, Considerest thou not what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which the LORD hath chosen, he hath even cast them off? thus they have despised my people, that they should be no more a nation before them. Thus saith the LORD; If my covenant be not with day and night, and if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth; Then will I cast away the seed of Jacob, and David my servant, so that I will not take any of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and have mercy on them.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth of his dominion, and all the people, fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; Go and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire: And thou shalt not escape out of his hand, but shalt surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and thine eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with thee mouth to mouth, and thou shalt go to Babylon. Yet hear the word of the LORD, O Zedekiah king of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of thee, Thou shalt not die by the sword: But thou shalt die in peace: and with the burnings of thy fathers, the former kings which were before thee, so shall they burn odours for thee; and they will lament thee, saying, Ah lord! for I have pronounced the word, saith the LORD. Then Jeremiah the prophet spake all these words unto Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem, When the king of Babylon's army fought against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish, and against Azekah: for these defenced cities remained of the cities of Judah. This is the word that came unto Jeremiah from the LORD, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people which were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty unto them; That every man should let his manservant, and every man his maidservant, being an Hebrew or an Hebrewess, go free; that none should serve himself of them, to wit, of a Jew his brother. Now when all the princes, and all the people, which had entered into the covenant, heard that every one should let his manservant, and every one his maidservant, go free, that none should serve themselves of them 11 any more, then they obeyed, and let them go. But afterward they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for 12 servants and for handmaids. Therefore the word of the LORD 13 came to Jeremiah from the LORD, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel; I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the 14 house of bondmen, saying, At the end of seven years let ye go every man his brother an Hebrew, which hath been sold unto thee; and when he hath served thee six years, thou shalt let him go free from thee: but your fathers hearkened not unto me, neither 15 inclined their ear. And ye were now turned, and had done right in my sight, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbour; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called 16 by my name: But ye turned and polluted my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had set at liberty at their pleasure, to return, and brought them into subjection, to be unto you for servants and for handmaids.

 17 Therefore thus saith the LORD; Ye have not hearkened unto me, in proclaiming liberty, every one to his brother, and every man to his neighbour: behold, I proclaim a liberty for you, saith the LORD, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make 18 you to be removed into all the kingdoms of the earth. And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, which have not performed the words of the covenant which they had made before me, when they cut the calf in twain, and passed between the parts 19 thereof, The princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, which 20 passed between the parts of the calf; I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies shall be for meat unto the fowls 21 of the heaven, and to the beasts of the earth. And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes will I give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of 22 the king of Babylon's army, which are gone up from you. Behold, I will command, saith the LORD, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation without an inhabitant.

The word which came unto Jeremiah from the LORD in the days 35 of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Go unto the 2 house of the Rechabites, and speak unto them, and bring them into the house of the LORD, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink. Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, 3 the son of Habaziniyah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites; And I brought them into the house 4 of the LORD, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan, the son of Igdaliah, a man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the door: And I set before the sons of the house of the 5 Rechabites pots full of wine, and cups, and I said unto them, Drink ye wine. But they said, We will drink no wine: for Jonadab the 6 son of Rechab our father commanded us, saying, Ye shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons for ever: Neither shall ye build 7 house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any: but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land where ye be strangers. Thus have we obeyed the voice of 8 Jonadab the son of Rechab our father in all that he hath charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, nor our daughters; Nor to build houses for us to dwell in: neither have 9 we vineyard, nor field, nor seed: But we have dwelt in tents, and 10 have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us. But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king 11 of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians: so we dwell at Jerusalem. Then 12 came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the 13 LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Go and tell the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? saith the LORD. The words of Jonadab 14 the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons not to drink wine, are performed; for unto this day they drink none, but obey their father's commandment: notwithstanding I have spoken unto you, rising early and speaking; but ye hearkened not unto me. I have 15

sent also unto you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened unto me.

- 16 Because the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father, which he commanded them; but 17 this people hath not hearkened unto me: Therefore thus saith the LORD God of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them: because I have spoken unto them, but they have not heard; and I have called unto them, but 18 they have not answered. And Jeremiah said unto the house of the Rechabites, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according unto all that he hath 19 commanded you: Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.

- 36 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, that this word came unto Jeremiah from the 2 LORD, saying, Take thee a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken unto thee against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spake unto thee, 3 from the days of Josiah, even unto this day. It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do unto them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I
4 may forgive their iniquity and their sin. Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah: and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the LORD, which he had spoken unto 5 him, upon a roll of a book. And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of the LORD: 6 Therefore go thou, and read in the roll, which thou hast written from my mouth, the words of the LORD in the ears of the people in the LORD'S house upon the fasting day: and also thou shalt read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.
7 It may be they will present their supplication before the LORD, and will return every one from his evil way: for great is the anger and the fury that the LORD hath pronounced against this people. And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah 8 the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of the LORD in the LORD'S house. And it came to pass in the fifth year 9 of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, in the ninth month, that they proclaimed a fast before the LORD to all the people in Jerusalem, and to all the people that came from the cities of Judah unto Jerusalem. Then read Baruch in the book the words 10 of Jeremiah in the house of the LORD, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan the scribe, in the higher court, at the entry of the new gate of the LORD'S house, in the ears of all the people. When Michaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had 11 heard out of the book all the words of the LORD, Then he went 12 down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes sat there, even Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes. Then Michaiah declared unto them all the words that he 13 had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people. Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son 14 of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, unto Baruch, saying, Take in thine hand the roll wherein thou hast read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came unto them. And they said unto him, Sit down now, and 15 read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears. Now it came 16 to pass, when they had heard all the words, they were afraid both one and other, and said unto Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words. And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, 17 How didst thou write all these words at his mouth? Then Baruch 18 answered them, He pronounced all these words unto me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book. Then said the 19 princes unto Baruch, Go, hide thee, thou and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye be. And they went in to the king into the 20 court, but they laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe, and told all the words in the ears of the king. So the king 21 sent Jehudi to fetch the roll: and he took it out of Elishama the scribe's chamber. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and 22 in the ears of all the princes which stood beside the king. Now the king sat in the winterhouse in the ninth month: and there was 23 a fire on the hearth burning before him. And it came to pass, that when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, he cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was on the hearth, until 24 all the roll was consumed in the fire that was on the hearth. Yet they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, 25 nor any of his servants that heard all these words. Nevertheless Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll: but he would not hear them.

 26 But the king commanded Jerahmeel the son of Hammelech, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet: but the LORD hid 27 them. Then the word of the LORD came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at 28 the mouth of Jeremiah, saying, Take thee again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which 29 Jehoiakim the king of Judah hath burned. And thou shalt say to Jehoiakim king of Judah, Thus saith the LORD; Thou hast burned this roll, saying, Why hast thou written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall 30 cause to cease from thence man and beast? Therefore thus saith the LORD of Jehoiakim king of Judah; He shall have none to sit upon the throne of David: and his dead body shall be cast out 31 in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost. And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against 32 them; but they hearkened not. Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah; who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire: and there were added besides unto them many like words.
 37 And king Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon 2 made king in the land of Judah. But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken unto the words of the LORD, which he spake by the prophet Jeremiah. And Zedekiah 3 the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah the priest to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now unto the LORD our God for us. Now Jeremiah came in and 4 went out among the people: for they had not put him into prison.

Then Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt: and when the 5 Chaldeans that besieged Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they departed from Jerusalem. Then came the word of the LORD unto 6 the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God 7 of Israel; Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you unto me to enquire of me; Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land. And 8 the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city, and take it, and burn it with fire. Thus saith the LORD; Deceive not 9 yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us: for they shall not depart. For though ye had smitten the whole army 10 of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yet should they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire. And it came to pass, that 11 when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army, Then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusa- 12 lem to go into the land of Benjamin, to separate himself thence in the midst of the people. And when he was in the gate of Ben- 13 jamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he took Jeremiah the prophet, saying, Thou fallest away to the Chaldeans. Then 14 said Jeremiah, It is false; I fall not away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him: so Irijah took Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes. Wherefore the princes were wroth with Jeremiah, 15 and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe: for they had made that the prison. When Jeremiah 16 was entered into the dungeon, and into the cabins, and Jeremiah had remained there many days; Then Zedekiah the king sent, and 17 took him out: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from the LORD? And Jeremiah said, There is: for, said he, thou shalt be delivered into the hand of the king 18 of Babylon. Moreover Jeremiah said unto king Zedekiah, What have I offended against thee, or against thy servants, or against 19 this people, that ye have put me in prison? Where are now your prophets which prophesied unto you, saying, The king of Babylon 20 shall not come against you, nor against this land? Therefore hear now, I pray thee, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray thee, be accepted before thee; that thou cause me not to return to 21 the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there. Then Zedekiah the king commanded that they should commit Jeremiah into the court of the prison, and that they should give him daily a piece of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city were spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison.

38 Then Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashur the son of Malchiah, heard the words that Jeremiah had spoken unto all the 2 people, saying, Thus saith the LORD, He that remaineth in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: but he that goeth forth to the Chaldeans shall live; for he shall 3 have his life for a prey, and shall live. Thus saith the LORD, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the king of Babylon's 4 army, which shall take it. Therefore the princes said unto the king, We beseech thee, let this man be put to death: for thus he weakeneth the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words unto them: for this man seeketh not the welfare of this people, but the 5 hurt. Then Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand: 6 for the king is not he that can do any thing against you. Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchiah the son of Hammelech, that was in the court of the prison: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was 7 no water, but mire: so Jeremiah sunk in the mire. Now when Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, one of the eunuchs which was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon; 8 the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin; Ebedmelech went 9 forth out of the king's house, and spake to the king, saying, My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon;

and he is like to die for hunger in the place where he is: for there is no more bread in the city. Then the king commanded Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from hence thirty men with thee, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die. So Ebedmelech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took thence old cast clouts and old rotten rags, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah. And Ebedmelech the Ethiopian said unto Jeremiah, Put now these old cast clouts and rotten rags under thine armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so. So they drew up Jeremiah with cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the prison. Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet unto him into the third entry that is in the house of the LORD: and the king said unto Jeremiah, I will ask thee a thing; hide nothing from me. Then Jeremiah said unto Zedekiah, If I declare it unto thee, wilt thou not surely put me to death? and if I give thee counsel, wilt thou not hearken unto me? So Zedekiah the king sware secretly unto Jeremiah, saying, As the LORD liveth, that made us this soul, I will not put thee to death, neither will I give thee into the hand of these men that seek thy life. Then said Jeremiah unto Zedekiah, Thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God of Israel; If thou wilt assuredly go forth unto the king of Babylon's princes, then thy soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and thou shalt live, and thine house: But if thou wilt not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and thou shalt not escape out of their hand. And Zedekiah the king said unto Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me. But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver thee. Obey, I beseech thee, the voice of the LORD, which I speak unto thee: so it shall be well unto thee, and thy soul shall live. But if thou refuse to go forth, this is the word that the LORD hath shewed me: And, behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Thy friends have set thee on, and have prevailed against thee: thy feet are sunk in the mire, and they are turned away 23 back. So they shall bring out all thy wives and thy children to the Chaldeans: and thou shalt not escape out of their hand, but shalt be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and thou shalt 24 cause this city to be burned with fire. Then said Zedekiah unto Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and thou shalt not 25 die. But if the princes hear that I have talked with thee, and they come unto thee, and say unto thee, Declare unto us now what thou hast said unto the king, hide it not from us, and we will not 26 put thee to death; also what the king said unto thee: Then thou shalt say unto them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die 27 there. Then came all the princes unto Jeremiah, and asked him: and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter 28 was not perceived. So Jeremiah abode in the court of the prison until the day that Jerusalem was taken: and he was there when Jerusalem was taken.

39 In the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against 2 Jerusalem, and they besieged it. And in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, the 3 city was broken up. And all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, even Nergalsharezer, Samgarnebo, Sarsechim, Rabsaris, Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, with all 4 the residue of the princes of the king of Babylon. And it came to pass, that when Zedekiah the king of Judah saw them, and all the men of war, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, by the gate betwixt the two 5 walls: and he went out the way of the plain. But the Chaldeans' army pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath, 6 where he gave judgment upon him. Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king 7 of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah. Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him with chains, to carry him to Babylon. And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses 8 of the people, with fire, and brake down the walls of Jerusalem.

Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive 9 into Babylon the remnant of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to him, with the rest of the people that remained. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard 10 left of the poor of the people, which had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time. Now 11 Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying, Take him, and 12 look well to him, and do him no harm; but do unto him even as he shall say unto thee. So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard 13 sent, and Nebushasban, Rabsaris, and Nergalsharezer, Rabmag, and all the king of Babylon's princes; Even they sent, and took 14 Jeremiah out of the court of the prison, and committed him unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people. Now the word of 15 the LORD came unto Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the prison, saying, Go and speak to Ebedmelech the Ethiopian, 16 saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished in that day before thee. But I will 17 deliver thee in that day, saith the LORD: and thou shalt not be given into the hand of the men of whom thou art afraid. For I 18 will surely deliver thee, and thou shalt not fall by the sword, but thy life shall be for a prey unto thee: because thou hast put thy trust in me, saith the LORD.

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD, after that 40 Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him being bound in chains among all that were carried away captive of Jerusalem and Judah, which were carried away captive unto Babylon. And the captain of the guard took 2 Jeremiah, and said unto him, The LORD thy God hath pronounced this evil upon this place. Now the LORD hath brought it, and 3 done according as he hath said: because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is 4 come upon you. And now, behold, I loose thee this day from the chains which were upon thine hand. If it seem good unto thee to come with me into Babylon, come; and I will look well unto thee: but if it seem ill unto thee to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before thee: whither it seemeth

5 good and convenient for thee to go, thither go. Now while he was not yet gone back, he said, Go back also to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon hath made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people: or go wheresoever it seemeth convenient unto thee to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a reward, 6 and let him go. Then went Jeremiah unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and dwelt with him among the people that 7 were left in the land. Now when all the captains of the forces which were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed unto him men, and women, and children, and of the poor of the land, of them that were not carried 8 away captive to Babylon; Then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of a Maachathite, 9 they and their men. And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan sware unto them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of 10 Babylon, and it shall be well with you. As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah to serve the Chaldeans, which will come unto us: but ye, gather ye wine, and summer fruits, and oil, and put them in 11 your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken. Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the Ammonites, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set 12 over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan; Even all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, unto Mizpah, and 13 gathered wine and summer fruits very much. Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, And said unto him, Dost 14 thou certainly know that Baalis the king of the Ammonites hath sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to slay thee? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not. Then Johanan the son 15 of Kareah spake to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray thee, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: wherefore should he slay thee, that all the Jews which are gathered unto thee should be scattered, and the remnant in Judah perish? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said 16 unto Johanan the son of Kareah, Thou shalt not do this thing: for thou speakest falsely of Ishmael.

Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son 41 of Nethaniah the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, and the princes of the king, even ten men with him, came unto Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah. Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten 2 men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land. Ishmael also slew 3 all the Jews that were with him, even with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, and the men of war.
 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, 4 and no man knew it, That there came certain from Shechem, 5 from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even fourscore men, having their beards shaven, and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with offerings and incense in their hand, to bring them to the house of the LORD. And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from 6 Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said unto them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam. And it was so, when they came into the 7 midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him. But ten men were found among them that said unto 8 Ishmael, Slay us not: for we have treasures in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbore, and slew them not among their brethren. Now the pit wherein Ishmael had 9 cast all the dead bodies of the men, whom he had slain because of Gedaliah, was it which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them 10 that were slain. Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam: and Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and 11 departed to go over to the Ammonites. But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had 12 done, Then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that 13 are in Gibeon. Now it came to pass, that when all the people which were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were 14 glad. So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah cast about and returned, and went unto Johanan 15 the son of Kareah. But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped 16 from Johanan with eight men, and went to the Ammonites. Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, even mighty men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he 17 had brought again from Gibeon: And they departed, and dwelt in the habitation of Chimham, which is by Bethlehem, to go to 18 enter into Egypt, Because of the Chaldeans: for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor in the land.

42 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people 2 from the least even unto the greatest, came near, And said unto Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we beseech thee, our supplication be accepted before thee, and pray for us unto the LORD thy God, even for all this remnant; (for we are left but a few of many, as thine 3 eyes do behold us:) That the LORD thy God may shew us the 4 way wherein we may walk, and the thing that we may do. Then v.9 because...: or, near Gedaliah: Heb. by the hand, or, by the side of Gedaliah.

 42. v.2 Let...: or, Let our supplication fall before thee.

Jeremiah the prophet said unto them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray unto the LORD your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass, that whatsoever thing the LORD shall answer you, I will declare it unto you; I will keep nothing back from you. Then they said to Jeremiah, The LORD be a true and faithful witness between us, if we do not even according to all things for the which the LORD thy God shall send thee to us. Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of the LORD our God, to whom we send thee; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of the LORD our God. And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of the LORD came unto Jeremiah. Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces which were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, And said unto them, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him; If ye will still abide in this land, then will I build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up: for I repent me of the evil that I have done unto you. Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, saith the LORD: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand. And I will shew mercies unto you, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land. But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land, neither obey the voice of the LORD your God, Saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell: And now therefore hear the word of the LORD, ye remnant of Judah; Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; If ye wholly set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there; Then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye feared, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt, and the famine, whereof ye were afraid, shall follow close after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die. So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there; they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them. For thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; As mine anger and my fury hath been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem; so shall my fury be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt: and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more. The LORD hath said concerning you, O ye remnant of Judah; Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have admonished you this day. For ye dissembled in your hearts, when ye sent me unto the LORD your God, saying, Pray for us unto the LORD our God; and according unto all that the LORD our God shall say, so declare unto us, and we will do it. And now I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of the LORD your God, nor any thing for the which he hath sent me unto you. Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go and to sojourn.

43 And it came to pass, that when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking unto all the people all the words of the LORD their God, for which the LORD their God had sent him to them, even all these words, Then spake Azariah the son of Hoshaiiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying unto Jeremiah, Thou speakest falsely: the LORD our God hath not sent thee to say, Go not into Egypt to sojourn there: But Baruch the son of Neriah setteth thee on against us, for to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they might put us to death, and carry us away captives into Babylon. So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of the LORD, to dwell in the land of Judah. But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all nations, whither they had been driven, to dwell in the land of Judah; Even men, and women, and children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah. So they came into the land of Egypt: for they obeyed not the voice of the LORD: thus came they even to Tahpanhes. Then came the word of the LORD unto Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying, Take great stones in thine hand, and hide them in the clay in the brickkiln, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of

Judah; And say unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the 10 God of Israel; Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them. And when he cometh, he shall smite the land of Egypt, 11 and deliver such as are for death to death; and such as are for captivity to captivity; and such as are for the sword to the sword.
 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and 12 he shall burn them, and carry them away captives: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd putteth on his garment; and he shall go forth from thence in peace. He shall 13 break also the images of Bethshemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of the Egyptians shall he burn with fire.

The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews which 44 dwell in the land of Egypt, which dwell at Migdol, and at Tahpan-hes, and at Noph, and in the country of Pathros, saying, Thus 2 saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Ye have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwelleth therein, Because of their wickedness which they have 3 committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, whom they knew not, neither they, ye, nor your fathers. Howbeit I sent unto you all my servants 4 the prophets, rising early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate. But they hearkened not, nor 5 inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense unto other gods. Wherefore my fury and mine anger was poured 6 forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as at this day.
 Therefore now thus saith the LORD, the God of hosts, the God 7 of Israel; Wherefore commit ye this great evil against your souls, to cut off from you man and woman, child and suckling, out of Judah, to leave you none to remain; In that ye provoke me unto 8 wrath with the works of your hands, burning incense unto other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye be gone to dwell, that ye might cut yourselves off, and that ye might be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth? Have ye forgotten the 9 wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives, which they have committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem? They are not humbled even unto this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers. Therefore thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, and to cut off all Judah. And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed, and fall in the land of Egypt; they shall even be consumed by the sword and by the famine: they shall die, from the least even unto the greatest, by the sword and by the famine: and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach. For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence: So that none of the remnant of Judah, which are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or remain, that they should return into the land of Judah, to the which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return but such as shall escape. Then all the men which knew that their wives had burned incense unto other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great multitude, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying, As for the word that thou hast spoken unto us in the name of the LORD, we will not hearken unto thee. But we will certainly do whatsoever thing goeth forth out of our own mouth, to burn incense unto the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, as we have done, we, and our fathers, our kings, and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem: for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil. But since we left off to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine. And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings unto her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings unto her, without our men? Then Jeremiah said unto all the people, to the men, and to 20 the women, and to all the people which had given him that answer, saying, The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in 21 the streets of Jerusalem, ye, and your fathers, your kings, and your princes, and the people of the land, did not the LORD remember them, and came it not into his mind? So that the LORD could 22 no longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without an inhabitant, as at this day. Because ye have burned incense, and 23 because ye have sinned against the LORD, and have not obeyed the voice of the LORD, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened unto you, as at this day. Moreover Jeremiah said unto all the people, and to all 24 the women, Hear the word of the LORD, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt: Thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 25 saying; Ye and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and fulfilled with your hand, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings unto her: ye will surely accomplish your vows, and surely perform your vows. Therefore hear ye the 26 word of the LORD, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt; Behold, I have sworn by my great name, saith the LORD, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, The Lord GOD liveth. Behold, 27 I will watch over them for evil, and not for good: and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them. Yet a 28 small number that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose words shall stand, mine, or theirs. And this shall be a sign unto 29 you, saith the LORD, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil: Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will give Pharaohhophra king of 30 Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, his enemy, and that sought his life.

45 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spake unto Baruch the son of Neriah, when he had written these words in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD, the God of Israel, unto thee, O Baruch; Thou didst say, Woe is me now! for the LORD hath added grief to my sorrow; I fainted in my sighing, and I find no rest. Thus shalt thou say unto him, The LORD saith thus; Behold, that which I have built will I break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up, even this whole land. And seekest thou great things for thyself? seek them not: for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, saith the LORD: but thy life will I give unto thee for a prey in all places whither thou goest.

46 The word of the LORD which came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Gentiles; Against Egypt, against the army of Pharaohnecho king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah. Order ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle. Harness the horses; and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, and put on the brigandines. Wherefore have I seen them dismayed and turned away back? and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: for fear was round about, saith the LORD. Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; they shall stumble, and fall toward the north by the river Euphrates. Who is this that cometh up as a flood, whose waters are moved as the rivers? Egypt riseth up like a flood, and his waters are moved like the rivers; and he saith, I will go up, and will cover the earth; I will destroy the city and the inhabitants thereof. Come up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men come forth; the Ethiopians and the Libyans, that handle the shield; and the Lydians, that handle and bend the bow. For this is the day of the Lord GOD of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour, and it shall be satiate and made drunk with their blood: for the Lord GOD of hosts hath a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates. Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin, the daughter of Egypt: in vain shalt thou use many medicines; for thou shalt not be cured. The nations have 12 heard of thy shame, and thy cry hath filled the land: for the mighty man hath stumbled against the mighty, and they are fallen both together. The word that the LORD spake to Jeremiah the prophet, 13 how Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt. Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and 14 publish in Noph and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand fast, and prepare thee; for the sword shall devour round about thee. Why are thy 15 valiant men swept away? they stood not, because the LORD did drive them. He made many to fall, yea, one fell upon another: 16 and they said, Arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword. They did 17 cry there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he hath passed the time appointed. As I live, saith the King, whose name is the 18 LORD of hosts, Surely as Tabor is among the mountains, and as Carmel by the sea, so shall he come. O thou daughter dwelling 19 in Egypt, furnish thyself to go into captivity: for Noph shall be waste and desolate without an inhabitant. Egypt is like a very 20 fair heifer, but destruction cometh; it cometh out of the north.

 Also her hired men are in the midst of her like fatted bullocks; for 21 they also are turned back, and are fled away together: they did not stand, because the day of their calamity was come upon them, and the time of their visitation. The voice thereof shall go like a 22 serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood. They shall cut down her forest, 23 saith the LORD, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the grasshoppers, and are innumerable. The daughter 24 of Egypt shall be confounded; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north. The LORD of hosts, the God of Israel, 25 saith; Behold, I will punish the multitude of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with their gods, and their kings; even Pharaoh, and all them that trust in him: And I will deliver them into the hand of 26 those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants: and afterward it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, saith the LORD. But 27 fear not thou, O my servant Jacob, and be not dismayed, O Israel: for, behold, I will save thee from afar off, and thy seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and be in rest and 28 at ease, and none shall make him afraid. Fear thou not, O Jacob my servant, saith the LORD: for I am with thee; for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven thee: but I will not make a full end of thee, but correct thee in measure; yet will I not leave thee wholly unpunished.

47 The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah the prophet against the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza. Thus saith the LORD; Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall be an overflowing flood, and shall overflow the land, and all that is therein; the city, and them that dwell therein: then the men shall 3 cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall howl. At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong horses, at the rushing of his chariots, and at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers shall 4 not look back to their children for feebleness of hands; Because of the day that cometh to spoil all the Philistines, and to cut off from Tyrus and Zidon every helper that remaineth: for the LORD will spoil the Philistines, the remnant of the country of Caphtor.
 5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is cut off with the remnant 6 of their valley: how long wilt thou cut thyself? O thou sword of the LORD, how long will it be ere thou be quiet? put up thyself
 7 into thy scabbard, rest, and be still. How can it be quiet, seeing the LORD hath given it a charge against Ashkelon, and against the sea shore? there hath he appointed it.

48 Against Moab thus saith the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel; Woe unto Nebo! for it is spoiled: Kiriathaim is confounded and
 2 taken: Misgab is confounded and dismayed. There shall be no more praise of Moab: in Heshbon they have devised evil against it; come, and let us cut it off from being a nation. Also thou shalt 3 be cut down, O Madmen; the sword shall pursue thee. A voice of crying shall be from Horonaim, spoiling and great destruction.
 4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
 5 For in the going up of Luhith continual weeping shall go up; for in the going down of Horonaim the enemies have heard a cry of destruction. Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the 6 wilderness. For because thou hast trusted in thy works and in 7 thy treasures, thou shalt also be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity with his priests and his princes together. And 8 the spoiler shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape: the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed, as the LORD hath spoken. Give wings unto Moab, that it may flee 9 and get away: for the cities thereof shall be desolate, without any to dwell therein. Cursed be he that doeth the work of the LORD 10 deceitfully, and cursed be he that keepeth back his sword from blood. Moab hath been at ease from his youth, and he hath settled 11 on his lees, and hath not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither hath he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remained in him, and his scent is not changed. Therefore, behold, the days come, 12 saith the LORD, that I will send unto him wanderers, that shall cause him to wander, and shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles. And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of 13 Israel was ashamed of Bethel their confidence. How say ye, We are 14 mighty and strong men for the war? Moab is spoiled, and gone up 15 out of her cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, saith the King, whose name is the LORD of hosts. The 16 calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hasteth fast.

All ye that are about him, bemoan him; and all ye that know his 17 name, say, How is the strong staff broken, and the beautiful rod!
Thou daughter that dost inhabit Dibon, come down from thy glory, 18 and sit in thirst; for the spoiler of Moab shall come upon thee, and he shall destroy thy strong holds. O inhabitant of Aroer, stand 19 by the way, and espy; ask him that fleeth, and her that escapeth, and say, What is done? Moab is confounded; for it is broken 20 down: howl and cry; tell ye it in Arnon, that Moab is spoiled, And judgment is come upon the plain country; upon Holon, and 21 upon Jahazah, and upon Mephaath, And upon Dibon, and upon 22 Nebo, and upon Bethdiblathaim, And upon Kiriathaim, and upon 23
Bethgamul, and upon Bethmeon, And upon Kerioth, and upon 24 Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.

25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, saith the LORD.
 26 Make ye him drunken: for he magnified himself against the LORD:
 Moab also shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.
 27 For was not Israel a derision unto thee? was he found among thieves? for since thou spakest of him, thou skippedst for joy.
 28 O ye that dwell in Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock, and be like the dove that maketh her nest in the sides of the hole's 29 mouth. We have heard the pride of Moab, (he is exceeding proud) his loftiness, and his arrogancy, and his pride, and the haughtiness 30 of his heart. I know his wrath, saith the LORD; but it shall not be 31 so; his lies shall not so effect it. Therefore will I howl for Moab, and I will cry out for all Moab; mine heart shall mourn for the 32 men of Kirheres. O vine of Sibmah, I will weep for thee with the weeping of Jazer: thy plants are gone over the sea, they reach even to the sea of Jazer: the spoiler is fallen upon thy summer fruits 33 and upon thy vintage. And joy and gladness is taken from the plentiful field, and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to fail from the winepresses: none shall tread with shouting; their 34 shouting shall be no shouting. From the cry of Heshbon even unto Elealeh, and even unto Jahaz, have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even unto Horonaim, as an heifer of three years old: 35 for the waters also of Nimrim shall be desolate. Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, saith the LORD, him that offereth in the 36 high places, and him that burneth incense to his gods. Therefore mine heart shall sound for Moab like pipes, and mine heart shall sound like pipes for the men of Kirheres: because the riches that he 37 hath gotten are perished. For every head shall be bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands shall be cuttings, and upon the 38 loins sackcloth. There shall be lamentation generally upon all the housetops of Moab, and in the streets thereof: for I have broken 39 Moab like a vessel wherein is no pleasure, saith the LORD. They shall howl, saying, How is it broken down! how hath Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab be a derision and a dismaying 40 to all them about him. For thus saith the LORD; Behold, he shall 41 fly as an eagle, and shall spread his wings over Moab. Kerioth is taken, and the strong holds are surprised, and the mighty men's hearts in Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he hath magnified himself against the LORD. Fear, and the pit, and the snare, shall be upon thee, O inhabitant of Moab, saith the LORD. He that fleeth from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that getteth up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon it, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, saith the LORD. They that fled stood under the shadow of Heshbon because of the force: but a fire shall come forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and shall devour the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones. Woe be unto thee, O Moab! the people of Chemosh perisheth: for thy sons are taken captives, and thy daughters captives. Yet will I bring again the captivity of Moab in the latter days, saith the LORD. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

Concerning the Ammonites, thus saith the LORD; Hath Israel no sons? hath he no heir? why then doth their king inherit Gad, and his people dwell in his cities? Therefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard in Rabbah of the Ammonites; and it shall be a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel be heir unto them that were his heirs, saith the LORD. Howl, O Heshbon, for Ai is spoiled: cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth; lament, and run to and fro by the hedges; for their king shall go into captivity, and his priests and his princes together. Wherefore gloriest thou in the valleys, thy flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come unto me? Behold, I will bring a fear upon thee, saith the Lord GOD of hosts, from all those that be about thee; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth; and none shall gather up him that wandereth. And afterward I will bring again the captivity of the children of Ammon, saith the LORD. Concerning Edom, thus saith the LORD of hosts; Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished? Flee ye, turn back, dwell deep, O inhabitants of Dedan; for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I will visit him. If grapegatherers come to thee, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, they will destroy till they have enough.

10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is spoiled, and his

11 brethren, and his neighbours, and he is not. Leave thy fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let thy widows trust in me.

12 For thus saith the LORD; Behold, they whose judgment was not to drink of the cup have assuredly drunken; and art thou he that shall altogether go unpunished? thou shalt not go unpunished, but

13 thou shalt surely drink of it. For I have sworn by myself, saith the LORD, that Bozrah shall become a desolation, a reproach, a waste,

14 and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes. I have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent unto the heathen, saying, Gather ye together, and come against

15 her, and rise up to the battle. For, lo, I will make thee small among the heathen, and despised among men. Thy terribleness hath deceived thee, and the pride of thine heart, O thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, that holdest the height of the hill: though thou shouldest make thy nest as high as the eagle, I will

17 bring thee down from thence, saith the LORD. Also Edom shall be a desolation: every one that goeth by it shall be astonished, and 18 shall hiss at all the plagues thereof. As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD, no man shall abide there, neither shall a son of man dwell in it.

19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the swelling of Jordan against the habitation of the strong: but I will suddenly make him run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time?

20 and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear the counsel of the LORD, that he hath taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely

21 he shall make their habitations desolate with them. The earth is moved at the noise of their fall, at the cry the noise thereof was

22 heard in the Red sea. Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread his wings over Bozrah: and at that day shall the heart of the mighty men of Edom be as the heart of a woman in her pangs. Concerning Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and 23 Arpad: for they have heard evil tidings: they are fainthearted; there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet. Damascus is waxed 24 feeble, and turneth herself to flee, and fear hath seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken her, as a woman in travail. How 25 is the city of praise not left, the city of my joy! Therefore her 26 young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD of hosts. And I will kindle 27 a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall consume the palaces of Benhadad. Concerning Kedar, and concerning the kingdoms 28 of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon shall smite, thus saith the LORD; Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and spoil the men of the east. Their tents and their flocks shall they take away: they 29 shall take to themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry unto them, Fear is on every side.

 Flee, get you far off, dwell deep, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, saith 30 the LORD; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath taken counsel against you, and hath conceived a purpose against you. Arise, get 31 you up unto the wealthy nation, that dwelleth without care, saith the LORD, which have neither gates nor bars, which dwell alone.
 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle 32 a spoil: and I will scatter into all winds them that are in the utmost corners; and I will bring their calamity from all sides thereof, saith the LORD. And Hazor shall be a dwelling for dragons, and 33 a desolation for ever: there shall no man abide there, nor any son of man dwell in it. The word of the LORD that came to Jeremiah 34 the prophet against Elam in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I 35 will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might. And upon 36 Elam will I bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come. For I will 37 cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life: and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, saith the LORD; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them: And I will set my throne in Elam, and 38 will destroy from thence the king and the princes, saith the LORD.

39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring again the captivity of Elam, saith the LORD.

50 The word that the LORD spake against Babylon and against the 2 land of the Chaldeans by Jeremiah the prophet. Declare ye among the nations, and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is confounded, Merodach is broken in pieces; her idols are confounded, her images are broken
 3 in pieces. For out of the north there cometh up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and none shall dwell therein: they shall remove, they shall depart, both man and beast.
 4 In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together, going and 5 weeping: they shall go, and seek the LORD their God. They shall ask the way to Zion with their faces thitherward, saying, Come, and let us join ourselves to the LORD in a perpetual covenant that 6 shall not be forgotten. My people hath been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray, they have turned them away on the mountains: they have gone from mountain to hill, 7 they have forgotten their restingplace. All that found them have devoured them: and their adversaries said, We offend not, because they have sinned against the LORD, the habitation of justice, even 8 the LORD, the hope of their fathers. Remove out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as 9 the he goats before the flocks. For, lo, I will raise and cause to come up against Babylon an assembly of great nations from the north country: and they shall set themselves in array against her; from thence she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of a mighty 10 expert man; none shall return in vain. And Chaldea shall be a spoil: all that spoil her shall be satisfied, saith the LORD. Because ye were glad, because ye rejoiced, O ye destroyers of mine heritage, because ye are grown fat as the heifer at grass, and bellow as bulls; 12 Your mother shall be sore confounded; she that bare you shall be ashamed: behold, the hindermost of the nations shall be a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert. Because of the wrath of the LORD 13 it shall not be inhabited, but it shall be wholly desolate: every one that goeth by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues. Put yourselves in array against Babylon round about: 14 all ye that bend the bow, shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she hath sinned against the LORD. Shout against her round about: 15 she hath given her hand: her foundations are fallen, her walls are thrown down: for it is the vengeance of the LORD: take vengeance upon her; as she hath done, do unto her. Cut off the sower from 16 Babylon, and him that handleth the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land. Israel is a 17 scattered sheep; the lions have driven him away: first the king of Assyria hath devoured him; and last this Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon hath broken his bones. Therefore thus saith the LORD of 18 hosts, the God of Israel; Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria. And I will 19 bring Israel again to his habitation, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon mount Ephraim and Gilead. In those days, and in that time, saith the LORD, the 20 iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I reserve. Go up against the land of Merathaim, even 21 against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: waste and utterly destroy after them, saith the LORD, and do according to all that I have commanded thee. A sound of battle is in the land, and 22 of great destruction. How is the hammer of the whole earth cut 23 asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations! I have laid a snare for thee, and thou art also taken, 24 O Babylon, and thou wast not aware: thou art found, and also caught, because thou hast striven against the LORD. The LORD 25 hath opened his armoury, and hath brought forth the weapons of his indignation: for this is the work of the Lord GOD of hosts in the land of the Chaldeans. Come against her from the utmost 26 border, open her storehouses: cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly: let nothing of her be left. Slay all her bullocks; let them 27 go down to the slaughter: woe unto them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation. The voice of them that flee and escape 28

29 LORD our God, the vengeance of his temple. Call together the archers against Babylon: all ye that bend the bow, camp against it round about; let none thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she hath done, do unto her: for she hath been proud against the LORD, against the Holy One of 30 Israel. Therefore shall her young men fall in the streets, and all 31 her men of war shall be cut off in that day, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, O thou most proud, saith the Lord GOD 32 of hosts: for thy day is come, the time that I will visit thee. And the most proud shall stumble and fall, and none shall raise him up: and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all 33 round about him. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The children of Israel and the children of Judah were oppressed together: and all that took them captives held them fast; they refused to let them 34 go. Their Redeemer is strong; the LORD of hosts is his name: he shall thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the 35 land, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon. A sword is upon the Chaldeans, saith the LORD, and upon the inhabitants of Baby-36 lon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men. A sword is upon the liars; and they shall dote: a sword is upon her mighty 37 men; and they shall be dismayed. A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is 38 upon her treasures; and they shall be robbed. A drought is upon her waters; and they shall be dried up: for it is the land of graven 39 images, and they are mad upon their idols. Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wild beasts of the islands shall dwell there, and the owls shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to 40 generation. As God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbour cities thereof, saith the LORD; so shall no man abide 41 there, neither shall any son of man dwell therein. Behold, a people shall come from the north, and a great nation, and many kings 42 shall be raised up from the coasts of the earth. They shall hold the bow and the lance: they are cruel, and will not shew mercy: their voice shall roar like the sea, and they shall ride upon horses, every one put in array, like a man to the battle, against thee, O 43 daughter of Babylon. The king of Babylon hath heard the report of them, and his hands waxed feeble: anguish took hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail. Behold, he shall come up 44 like a lion from the swelling of Jordan unto the habitation of the strong: but I will make them suddenly run away from her: and who is a chosen man, that I may appoint over her? for who is like me? and who will appoint me the time? and who is that shepherd that will stand before me? Therefore hear ye the counsel of 45 the LORD, that he hath taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he hath purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely the least of the flock shall draw them out: surely he shall make their habitation desolate with them. At the noise of the taking 46 of Babylon the earth is moved, and the cry is heard among the nations.

Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, 51 and against them that dwell in the midst of them that rise up against me, a destroying wind; And will send unto Babylon fanners, 2 that shall fan her, and shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about. Against him that 3 bendeth let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifteth himself up in his brigandine: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host. Thus the slain shall fall in the land 4 of the Chaldeans, and they that are thrust through in her streets. For Israel hath not been forsaken, nor Judah of his God, of the 5 LORD of hosts; though their land was filled with sin against the Holy One of Israel. Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver 6 every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the LORD'S vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence. Babylon hath been a golden cup in the LORD'S hand, that 7 made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunken of her wine; therefore the nations are mad. Babylon is suddenly fallen and 8 destroyed: howl for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed. We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: 9 forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country: for her judgment reacheth unto heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies. The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us 10 declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. Make bright the 11 arrows; gather the shields: the LORD hath raised up the spirit of the kings of the Medes: for his device is against Babylon, to destroy it; because it is the vengeance of the LORD, the vengeance of his 12 temple. Set up the standard upon the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set up the watchmen, prepare the ambushes: for the LORD hath both devised and done that which he spake against the 13 inhabitants of Babylon. O thou that dwellest upon many waters, abundant in treasures, thine end is come, and the measure of thy 14 covetousness. The LORD of hosts hath sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill thee with men, as with caterpillers; and they shall 15 lift up a shout against thee. He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched 16 out the heaven by his understanding. When he uttereth his voice, there is a multitude of waters in the heavens; and he causeth the vapours to ascend from the ends of the earth: he maketh lightnings 17 with rain, and bringeth forth the wind out of his treasures. Every man is brutish by his knowledge; every founder is confounded by the graven image: for his molten image is falsehood, and there is 18 no breath in them. They are vanity, the work of errors: in the 19 time of their visitation they shall perish. The portion of Jacob is not like them; for he is the former of all things: and Israel is the 20 rod of his inheritance: the LORD of hosts is his name. Thou art my battle axe and weapons of war: for with thee will I break in 21 pieces the nations, and with thee will I destroy kingdoms; And with thee will I break in pieces the horse and his rider; and with 22 thee will I break in pieces the chariot and his rider; With thee also will I break in pieces man and woman; and with thee will I break in pieces old and young; and with thee will I break in pieces 23 the young man and the maid; I will also break in pieces with thee the shepherd and his flock; and with thee will I break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with thee will I break in 24 pieces captains and rulers. And I will render unto Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done 25 in Zion in your sight, saith the LORD. Behold, I am against thee, O destroying mountain, saith the LORD, which destroyest all the earth: and I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and roll thee 26 down from the rocks, and will make thee a burnt mountain. And they shall not take of thee a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but thou shalt be desolate for ever, saith the LORD.

 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, 27 prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashchenaz; appoint a captain against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough caterpillars.
 Prepare against her the nations with the kings of the Medes, the 28 captains thereof, and all the rulers thereof, and all the land of his dominion. And the land shall tremble and sorrow: for every pur- 29 pose of the LORD shall be performed against Babylon, to make the land of Babylon a desolation without an inhabitant. The mighty 30 men of Babylon have forborn to fight, they have remained in their holds: their might hath failed; they became as women: they have burned her dwellingplaces; her bars are broken. One post shall 31 run to meet another, and one messenger to meet another, to shew the king of Babylon that his city is taken at one end, And that 32 the passages are stopped, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted. For thus saith the LORD of 33 hosts, the God of Israel; The daughter of Babylon is like a threshingfloor, it is time to thresh her: yet a little while, and the time of her harvest shall come. Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon hath 34 devoured me, he hath crushed me, he hath made me an empty vessel, he hath swallowed me up like a dragon, he hath filled his belly with my delicates, he hath cast me out. The violence done 35 to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and my blood upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, I will plead 36 thy cause, and take vengeance for thee; and I will dry up her sea, and make her springs dry. And Babylon shall become heaps, a 37 dwellingplace for dragons, an astonishment, and an hissing, without an inhabitant. They shall roar together like lions: they shall 38 yell as lions' whelps. In their heat I will make their feasts, and I 39 will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, saith the LORD. I will bring them 40 down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he goats. How is 41 Sheshach taken! and how is the praise of the whole earth surprised! how is Babylon become an astonishment among the nations! The 42 sea is come up upon Babylon: she is covered with the multitude of 43 the waves thereof. Her cities are a desolation, a dry land, and a wilderness, a land wherein no man dwelleth, neither doth any son 44 of man pass thereby. And I will punish Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he hath swallowed up: and the nations shall not flow together any more unto him: yea, the 45 wall of Babylon shall fall. My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and deliver ye every man his soul from the fierce anger of the 46 LORD. And lest your heart faint, and ye fear for the rumour that shall be heard in the land; a rumour shall both come one year, and after that in another year shall come a rumour, and violence in 47 the land, ruler against ruler. Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will do judgment upon the graven images of Babylon: and her whole land shall be confounded, and all her slain shall fall in 48 the midst of her. Then the heaven and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for Babylon: for the spoilers shall come unto her 49 from the north, saith the LORD. As Babylon hath caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the earth.

 50 Ye that have escaped the sword, go away, stand not still: remember 51 the LORD afar off, and let Jerusalem come into your mind. We are confounded, because we have heard reproach: shame hath covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of the LORD'S 52 house. Wherefore, behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will do judgment upon her graven images: and through all her land 53 the wounded shall groan. Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, 54 yet from me shall spoilers come unto her, saith the LORD. A sound of a cry cometh from Babylon, and great destruction from 55 the land of the Chaldeans: Because the LORD hath spoiled Babylon, and destroyed out of her the great voice; when her waves do 56 roar like great waters, a noise of their voice is uttered: Because the spoiler is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, every one of their bows is broken: for the LORD 57 God of recompences shall surely requite. And I will make drunk her princes, and her wise men, her captains, and her rulers, and her mighty men: and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake,

LORD of hosts; The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly broken, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the people shall labour in vain, and the folk in the fire, and they shall be weary. The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son 59 of Neriah, the son of Maaseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah into Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. And this Seraiah was a quiet prince. So Jeremiah wrote in a book all the 60 evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written against Babylon. And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When 61 thou comest to Babylon, and shalt see, and shalt read all these words; Then shalt thou say, O LORD, thou hast spoken against 62 this place, to cut it off, that none shall remain in it, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever. And it shall be, 63 when thou hast made an end of reading this book, that thou shalt bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of Euphrates: And 64 thou shalt say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise from the evil that I will bring upon her: and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.

Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign, 52 and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah. And he did 2 that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done. For through the anger of the LORD it came 3 to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon. And 4 it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and pitched against it, and built forts against it round about. So the city was besieged 5 unto the eleventh year of king Zedekiah. And in the fourth month, 6 in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land. Then the city 7 was broken up, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were by the city round about:) and they went by the way of the plain. But 8 the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered 9 from him. Then they took the king, and carried him up unto the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; where he gave 10 judgment upon him. And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in 11 Riblah. Then he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in chains, and carried him to Babylon, and put 12 him in prison till the day of his death. Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan, captain of 13 the guard, which served the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem, And burned the house of the LORD, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, and all the houses of the great men, burned

 14 he with fire: And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, brake down all the walls of Jerusalem 15 round about. Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive certain of the poor of the people, and the residue of the people that remained in the city, and those that fell away, that 16 fell to the king of Babylon, and the rest of the multitude. But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left certain of the poor of 17 the land for vinedressers and for husbandmen. Also the pillars of brass that were in the house of the LORD, and the bases, and the brasen sea that was in the house of the LORD, the Chaldeans 18 brake, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon. The caldrons also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the bowls, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass wherewith they ministered, 19 took they away. And the basons, and the firepans, and the bowls, and the caldrons, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the cups; that which was of gold in gold, and that which was of silver 20 in silver, took the captain of the guard away. The two pillars, one sea, and twelve brasen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made in the house of the LORD: the brass of all 21 these vessels was without weight. And concerning the pillars, the height of one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a fillet of twelve cubits hollow. And a chapter of brass was upon it; and the height of 22 one chapter was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the chapters round about, all of brass. The second pillar also and the pomegranates were like unto these. And there were ninety 23 and six pomegranates on a side; and all the pomegranates upon the network were an hundred round about. And the captain of 24 the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the door: He took also out of the 25 city an eunuch, which had the charge of the men of war; and seven men of them that were near the king's person, which were found in the city; and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and threescore men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city. So Nebuzaradan the 26 captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah. And the king of Babylon smote them, and 27 put them to death in Riblah in the land of Hamath. Thus Judah was carried away captive out of his own land. This is the people 28 whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty: In the eighteenth year 29 of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons: In the three and twentieth year 30 of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred. And it came to 31 pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evilmerodach king of Babylon in the first year of his reign lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison, And spake kindly unto him, 32 and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon, And changed his prison garments: and he did 33 continually eat bread before him all the days of his life. And 34 for his diet, there was a continual diet given him of the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

THE LAMENTATIONS OF JEREMIAH.

1 ow doth the city sit solitary, that was full of people! how is she become as a widow! she that was great among the nations, and princess among the provinces, how is she 2 become tributary! She weepeth sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks: among all her lovers she hath none to comfort her: all her friends have dealt treacherously with her, they 3 are become her enemies. Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude: she dwelleth among the heathen, she findeth no rest: all her persecutors overtook her be-4 tween the straits. The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn feasts: all her gates are desolate: her priests sigh, 5 her virgins are afflicted, and she is in bitterness. Her adversaries are the chief, her enemies prosper; for the LORD hath afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: her children are gone into 6 captivity before the enemy. And from the daughter of Zion all her beauty is departed: her princes are become like harts that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.
7 Jerusalem remembered in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that she had in the days of old, when her people fell into the hand of the enemy, and none did help her: 8 the adversaries saw her, and did mock at her sabbaths. Jerusalem hath grievously sinned; therefore she is removed: all that honoured her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: yea, she 9 sigheth, and turneth backward. Her filthiness is in her skirts; she remembereth not her last end; therefore she came down wonderfully: she had no comforter. O LORD, behold my affliction: for the 10 enemy hath magnified himself. The adversary hath spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: for she hath seen that the heathen entered into her sanctuary, whom thou didst command that they should not enter into thy congregation. All her people sigh, 11 they seek bread; they have given their pleasant things for meat to relieve the soul: see, O LORD, and consider; for I am become vile. Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? behold, and see if there be 12 any sorrow like unto my sorrow, which is done unto me, wherewith the LORD hath afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger. From 13 above hath he sent fire into my bones, and it prevaieth against them: he hath spread a net for my feet, he hath turned me back: he hath made me desolate and faint all the day. The yoke of my 14 transgressions is bound by his hand: they are wreathed, and come up upon my neck: he hath made my strength to fall, the Lord hath delivered me into their hands, from whom I am not able to rise up. The Lord hath trodden under foot all my mighty men in 15 the midst of me: he hath called an assembly against me to crush my young men: the Lord hath trodden the virgin, the daughter of Judah, as in a winepress. For these things I weep; mine eye, mine 16 eye runneth down with water, because the comforter that should relieve my soul is far from me: my children are desolate, because the enemy prevailed. Zion spreadeth forth her hands, and there 17 is none to comfort her: the LORD hath commanded concerning Jacob, that his adversaries should be round about him: Jerusalem is as a menstruous woman among them. The LORD is righteous; 18 for I have rebelled against his commandment: hear, I pray you, all people, and behold my sorrow: my virgins and my young men are gone into captivity. I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: 19 my priests and mine elders gave up the ghost in the city, while they sought their meat to relieve their souls. Behold, O LORD; for I am 20 in distress: my bowels are troubled; mine heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: abroad the sword bereaveth, at home there is as death. They have heard that I sigh: there is 21 none to comfort me: all mine enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that thou hast done it: thou wilt bring the day that thou hast called, and they shall be like unto me. Let all their 22 wickedness come before thee; and do unto them, as thou hast done unto me for all my transgressions: for my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.

- 2 How hath the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger, and cast down from heaven unto the earth the beauty of Israel, and remembered not his footstool in the day of his anger!
- 2 The Lord hath swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and hath not pitied: he hath thrown down in his wrath the strong holds of the daughter of Judah; he hath brought them down to the ground:
- 3 he hath polluted the kingdom and the princes thereof. He hath cut off in his fierce anger all the horn of Israel: he hath drawn back his right hand from before the enemy, and he burned against Jacob like a flaming fire, which devoureth round about. He hath bent his bow like an enemy: he stood with his right hand as an adversary, and slew all that were pleasant to the eye in the tabernacle of the daughter of Zion: he poured out his fury like
- 5 fire. The Lord was as an enemy: he hath swallowed up Israel, he hath swallowed up all her palaces: he hath destroyed his strong holds, and hath increased in the daughter of Judah mourning and
- 6 lamentation. And he hath violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden: he hath destroyed his places of the assembly: the LORD hath caused the solemn feasts and sabbaths to be forgotten in Zion, and hath despised in the indignation of his
- 7 anger the king and the priest. The Lord hath cast off his altar, he hath abhorred his sanctuary, he hath given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces; they have made a noise in
- 8 the house of the LORD, as in the day of a solemn feast. The LORD hath purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion: he hath stretched out a line, he hath not withdrawn his hand from destroying: therefore he made the rampart and the wall to lament;
- 9 they languished together. Her gates are sunk into the ground; he hath destroyed and broken her bars: her king and her princes are among the Gentiles: the law is no more; her prophets also find
- 10 no vision from the LORD. The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, and keep silence: they have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: the virbecause the children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city. They say to their mothers, Where is corn and wine? when 12 they swooned as the wounded in the streets of the city, when their soul was poured out into their mothers' bosom. What thing shall I 13 take to witness for thee? what thing shall I liken to thee, O daughter of Jerusalem? what shall I equal to thee, that I may comfort thee, O virgin daughter of Zion? for thy breach is great like the sea: who can heal thee? Thy prophets have seen vain and foolish 14 things for thee: and they have not discovered thine iniquity, to turn away thy captivity; but have seen for thee false burdens and causes of banishment. All that pass by clap their hands at thee; 15 they hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men call The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth? All thine enemies have opened their mouth 16 against thee: they hiss and gnash the teeth: they say, We have swallowed her up: certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it. The LORD hath done that which he 17 had devised; he hath fulfilled his word that he had commanded in the days of old: he hath thrown down, and hath not pitied: and he hath caused thine enemy to rejoice over thee, he hath set up the horn of thine adversaries. Their heart cried unto the Lord, O 18 wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night: give thyself no rest; let not the apple of thine eye cease.

Arise, cry out in the night: in the beginning of the watches pour 19 out thine heart like water before the face of the Lord: lift up thy hands toward him for the life of thy young children, that faint for hunger in the top of every street. Behold, O LORD, and consider 20 to whom thou hast done this. Shall the women eat their fruit, and children of a span long? shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord? The young and the old lie on the 21 ground in the streets: my virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword; thou hast slain them in the day of thine anger; thou hast killed, and not pitied. Thou hast called as in a solemn day my 22 terrors round about, so that in the day of the LORD's anger none escaped nor remained: those that I have swaddled and brought up hath mine enemy consumed.

I am the man that hath seen affliction by the rod of his wrath. 3

2 He hath led me, and brought me into darkness, but not into light.
 3 Surely against me is he turned; he turneth his hand against me
 4 all the day. My flesh and my skin hath he made old; he hath 5 broken my bones. He hath builded against me, and compassed 6 me with gall and travail. He hath set me in dark places, as they 7 that be dead of old. He hath hedged me about, that I cannot 8 get out: he hath made my chain heavy. Also when I cry and 9 shout, he shutteth out my prayer. He hath inclosed my ways with 10 hewn stone, he hath made my paths crooked. He was unto me 11 as a bear lying in wait, and as a lion in secret places. He hath turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces: he hath made me 12 desolate. He hath bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the 13 arrow. He hath caused the arrows of his quiver to enter into my 14 reins. I was a derision to all my people; and their song all the day.
 15 He hath filled me with bitterness, he hath made me drunken with 16 wormwood. He hath also broken my teeth with gravel stones, he 17 hath covered me with ashes. And thou hast removed my soul far 18 off from peace: I forgot prosperity. And I said, My strength and 19 my hope is perished from the LORD: Remembering mine affliction 20 and my misery, the wormwood and the gall. My soul hath them 21 still in remembrance, and is humbled in me. This I recall to my 22 mind, therefore have I hope. It is of the LORD'S mercies that 23 we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are 24 new every morning: great is thy faithfulness. The LORD is my 25 portion, saith my soul; therefore will I hope in him. The LORD is good unto them that wait for him, to the soul that seeketh him.
 26 It is good that a man should both hope and quietly wait for the 27 salvation of the LORD. It is good for a man that he bear the yoke 28 in his youth. He sitteth alone and keepeth silence, because he 29 hath borne it upon him. He putteth his mouth in the dust; if so 30 be there may be hope. He giveth his cheek to him that smiteth 31 him: he is filled full with reproach. For the Lord will not cast off 32 for ever: But though he cause grief, yet will he have compassion 33 according to the multitude of his mercies. For he doth not afflict 34 willingly nor grieve the children of men. To crush under his feet before the face of the most High, To subvert a man in his cause, 36 the Lord approveth not. Who is he that saith, and it cometh to 37 pass, when the Lord commandeth it not? Out of the mouth of 38 the most High proceedeth not evil and good? Wherefore doth a 39 living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins? Let 40 us search and try our ways, and turn again to the LORD. Let 41 us lift up our heart with our hands unto God in the heavens.

 We have transgressed and have rebelled: thou hast not pardoned. 42 Thou hast covered with anger, and persecuted us: thou hast slain, 43 thou hast not pitied. Thou hast covered thyself with a cloud, 44 that our prayer should not pass through. Thou hast made us 45 as the offscouring and refuse in the midst of the people. All our 46 enemies have opened their mouths against us. Fear and a snare 47 is come upon us, desolation and destruction. Mine eye runneth 48 down with rivers of water for the destruction of the daughter of my people. Mine eye trickleth down, and ceaseth not, without any 49 intermission, Till the LORD look down, and behold from heaven. 50 Mine eye affecteth mine heart because of all the daughters of my 51 city. Mine enemies chased me sore, like a bird, without cause. 52
 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and cast a stone upon 53 me. Waters flowed over mine head; then I said, I am cut off. I 54, 55 called upon thy name, O LORD, out of the low dungeon. Thou 56 hast heard my voice: hide not thine ear at my breathing, at my cry. Thou drewest near in the day that I called upon thee: thou 57 saidst, Fear not. O Lord, thou hast pleaded the causes of my soul; 58 thou hast redeemed my life. O LORD, thou hast seen my wrong: 59 judge thou my cause. Thou hast seen all their vengeance and all 60 their imaginations against me. Thou hast heard their reproach, 61 O LORD, and all their imaginations against me; The lips of those 62 that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
 Behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their musick. 63 Render unto them a recompence, O LORD, according to the work 64 of their hands. Give them sorrow of heart, thy curse unto them. 65 Persecute and destroy them in anger from under the heavens of the 66 LORD.

the stones of the sanctuary are poured out in the top of every 2 street. The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, how are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the 3 potter! Even the sea monsters draw out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: the daughter of my people is become cruel, like 4 the ostriches in the wilderness. The tongue of the sucking child cleaveth to the roof of his mouth for thirst: the young children ask 5 bread, and no man breaketh it unto them. They that did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: they that were brought up 6 in scarlet embrace dunghills. For the punishment of the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the punishment of the sin of Sodom, that was overthrown as in a moment, and no 7 hands stayed on her. Her Nazarites were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk, they were more ruddy in body than rubies, 8 their polishing was of sapphire: Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: their skin cleaveth to their 9 bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick. They that be slain with the sword are better than they that be slain with hunger: for these pine away, stricken through for want of the fruits of the 10 field. The hands of the pitiful women have sodden their own children: they were their meat in the destruction of the daughter 11 of my people. The LORD hath accomplished his fury; he hath poured out his fierce anger, and hath kindled a fire in Zion, and 12 it hath devoured the foundations thereof. The kings of the earth, and all the inhabitants of the world, would not have believed that the adversary and the enemy should have entered into the gates 13 of Jerusalem. For the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, that have shed the blood of the just in the midst of 14 her, They have wandered as blind men in the streets, they have polluted themselves with blood, so that men could not touch their 15 garments. They cried unto them, Depart ye; it is unclean; depart, depart, touch not: when they fled away and wandered, they said 16 among the heathen, They shall no more sojourn there. The anger of the LORD hath divided them; he will no more regard them: they respected not the persons of the priests, they favoured not 17 the elders. As for us, our eyes as yet failed for our vain help: in our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save us.

 They hunt our steps, that we cannot go in our streets: our end is 18 near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come. Our persecutors 19 are swifter than the eagles of the heaven: they pursued us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness. The breath of 20 our nostrils, the anointed of the LORD, was taken in their pits, of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the heathen.
 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwellest in the land 21 of Uz; the cup also shall pass through unto thee: thou shalt be drunken, and shalt make thyself naked. The punishment of thine 22 iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry thee away into captivity: he will visit thine iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will discover thy sins.

Remember, O LORD, what is come upon us: consider, and be- 5 hold our reproach. Our inheritance is turned to strangers, our 2 houses to aliens. We are orphans and fatherless, our mothers are 3 as widows. We have drunken our water for money; our wood is 4 sold unto us. Our necks are under persecution: we labour, and 5 have no rest. We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to 6 the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread. Our fathers have sinned, 7 and are not; and we have borne their iniquities. Servants have 8 ruled over us: there is none that doth deliver us out of their hand.
 We gat our bread with the peril of our lives because of the sword 9 of the wilderness. Our skin was black like an oven because of 10 the terrible famine. They ravished the women in Zion, and the 11 maids in the cities of Judah. Princes are hanged up by their hand: 12 the faces of elders were not honoured. They took the young men 13 to grind, and the children fell under the wood. The elders have 14 ceased from the gate, the young men from their musick. The joy 15 of our heart is ceased; our dance is turned into mourning. The 16 crown is fallen from our head: woe unto us, that we have sinned!
 For this our heart is faint; for these things our eyes are dim. Be- 17, 18 cause of the mountain of Zion, which is desolate, the foxes walk upon it. Thou, O LORD, remainest for ever; thy throne from 19 generation to generation. Wherefore dost thou forget us for ever, 20 and forsake us so long time? Turn thou us unto thee, O LORD, 21

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET EZEKIEL.

ow it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth 1 month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river of Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God. In the fifth 2 day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity, The word of the LORD came expressly unto Ezekiel the 3 priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of the LORD was there upon him. And I 4 looked, and, behold, a whirlwind came out of the north, a great cloud, and a fire infolding itself, and a brightness was about it, and out of the midst thereof as the colour of amber, out of the midst of the fire. Also out of the midst thereof came the likeness of 5 four living creatures. And this was their appearance; they had the likeness of a man. And every one had four faces, and every one 6 had four wings. And their feet were straight feet; and the sole of 7 their feet was like the sole of a calf's foot: and they sparkled like the colour of burnished brass. And they had the hands of a man 8 under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings. Their wings were joined one to another; they 9 turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.
As for the likeness of their faces, they four had the face of a man, 10 and the face of a lion, on the right side: and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four also had the face of an eagle.
Thus were their faces: and their wings were stretched upward; two 11 wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies. And they went every one straight forward: whither 12 the spirit was to go, they went; and they turned not when they 13 went. As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, and like the appearance of lamps: it went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was 14 bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning. And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.

15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold one wheel upon the 16 earth by the living creatures, with his four faces. The appearance of the wheels and their work was like unto the colour of a beryl: and they four had one likeness: and their appearance and their 17 work was as it were a wheel in the middle of a wheel. When they went, they went upon their four sides: and they turned not when 18 they went. As for their rings, they were so high that they were dreadful; and their rings were full of eyes round about them four.
19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went by them: and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels 20 were lifted up. Whithersoever the spirit was to go, they went, thither was their spirit to go; and the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up over against them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the 22 wheels. And the likeness of the firmament upon the heads of the living creature was as the colour of the terrible crystal, stretched 23 forth over their heads above. And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two, which covered on this side, and every one had two, which covered on that 24 side, their bodies. And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings, like the noise of great waters, as the voice of the Almighty, the voice of speech, as the noise of an host: when they stood, they 25 let down their wings. And there was a voice from the firmament that was over their heads, when they stood, and had let down their 26 wings. And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone: and upon the likeness of the throne was the likeness as the appearance 27 of a man above upon it. And I saw as the colour of amber, as the appearance of fire round about within it, from the appearance of his loins even upward, and from the appearance of his loins even downward, I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and it had brightness round about. As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of the LORD. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spake. 28

And he said unto me, Son of man, stand upon thy feet, and I will speak unto thee. And the spirit entered into me when he spake unto me, and set me upon my feet, that I heard him that spake unto me. And he said unto me, Son of man, I send thee to the children of Israel, to a rebellious nation that hath rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me, even unto this very day. For they are impudent children and stiffhearted. I do send thee unto them; and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD. And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there hath been a prophet among them. And thou, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns be with thee, and thou dost dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they be a rebellious house. And thou shalt speak my words unto them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear: for they are most rebellious. But thou, son of man, hear what I say unto thee; Be not thou rebellious like that rebellious house: open thy mouth, and eat that I give thee. And when I looked, behold, an hand was sent unto me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein; And he spread it before me; and it was written within and without: and there was written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe. 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10

Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, eat that thou findest; eat this roll, and go speak unto the house of Israel. So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat that roll. And he said unto me, Son of man, cause thy belly to eat, and fill thy bowels with this roll that I give thee. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness. And he said unto me, Son of man, go, get thee unto the house of Israel, and speak with my words unto them. For thou art not sent to a people of a strange speech and of an hard language, but to the house of Israel; Not to many 3 2 3 4 5 6 people of a strange speech and of an hard language, whose words thou canst not understand. Surely, had I sent thee to them, they

9 against their foreheads. As an adamant harder than flint have I made thy forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their 10 looks, though they be a rebellious house. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak unto thee receive 11 in thine heart, and hear with thine ears. And go, get thee to them of the captivity, unto the children of thy people, and speak unto them, and tell them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; whether they will 12 hear, or whether they will forbear. Then the spirit took me up, and I heard behind me a voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed 13 be the glory of the LORD from his place. I heard also the noise of the wings of the living creatures that touched one another, and the noise of the wheels over against them, and a noise of a great 14 rushing. So the spirit lifted me up, and took me away, and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; but the hand of the LORD 15 was strong upon me. Then I came to them of the captivity at Telabib, that dwelt by the river of Chebar, and I sat where they 16 sat, and remained there astonished among them seven days. And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of the LORD 17 came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and 18 give them warning from me. When I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; and thou givest him not warning, nor speakest to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at which he hath done shall not be remembered; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless if thou warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he doth not sin, he shall surely live, because he is warned; also thou hast delivered thy soul. And the hand of the LORD was there upon me; and he said unto me, Arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with thee. Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of the LORD stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river of Chebar: and I fell on my face. Then the spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet, and spake with me, and said unto me, Go, shut thyself within thine house. But thou, O son of man, behold, they shall put bands upon thee, and shall bind thee with them, and thou shalt not go out among them: And I will make thy tongue cleave to the roof of thy mouth, that thou shalt be dumb, and shalt not be to them a reprover: for they are a rebellious house. But when I speak with thee, I will open thy mouth, and thou shalt say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; He that heareth, let him hear; and he that forbeareth, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.
19 thine hand. Yet if thou warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity;

Thou also, son of man, take thee a tile, and lay it before thee, and pourtray upon it the city, even Jerusalem: And lay siege against it, and build a fort against it, and cast a mount against it; set the camp also against it, and set battering rams against it round about. Moreover take thou unto thee an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between thee and the city: and set thy face against it, and it shall be besieged, and thou shalt lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel. Lie thou also upon thy left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it: according to the number of the days that thou shalt lie upon it thou shalt bear their iniquity. For I have laid upon thee the years of their iniquity, according to the number of the days, three hundred and ninety days: so shalt thou bear the iniquity of the house of Israel. And when thou hast accomplished them, lie again on thy right side, and thou shalt bear the iniquity of the house of Judah forty days: I have appointed thee each day for a year.  13 out of man, in their sight. And the LORD said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their defiled bread among the Gentiles, 14 whither I will drive them. Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! behold, my soul hath not been polluted: for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dieth of itself, or is torn in pieces; 15 neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth. Then he said unto me, Lo, I have given thee cow's dung for man's dung, 16 and thou shalt prepare thy bread therewith. Moreover he said unto me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with care; and 17 they shall drink water by measure, and with astonishment: That they may want bread and water, and be astonished one with another, and consume away for their iniquity.

5 And thou, son of man, take thee a sharp knife, take thee a barber's razor, and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard: then take thee balances to weigh, and divide the hair.
 2 Thou shalt burn with fire a third part in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled: and thou shalt take a third part, and smite about it with a knife: and a third part thou shalt scatter in the wind; and I will draw out a sword after them.
 3 Thou shalt also take thereof a few in number, and bind them in and countries that are round about her. And she hath changed my 6 judgments into wickedness more than the nations, and my statutes more than the countries that are round about her: for they have refused my judgments and my statutes, they have not walked in them. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye multiplied 7 more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgments, neither have done according to the judgments of the nations that are round about you; Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, 8 am against thee, and will execute judgments in the midst of thee in the sight of the nations. And I will do in thee that which I have 9 not done, and whereunto I will not do any more the like, because of all thine abominations. Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons 10 in the midst of thee, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments in thee, and the whole remnant of thee will I scatter into all the winds. Wherefore, as I live, saith the Lord 11 GOD; Surely, because thou hast defiled my sanctuary with all thy detestable things, and with all thine abominations, therefore will I also diminish thee; neither shall mine eye spare, neither will I have any pity. A third part of thee shall die with the pestilence, 12 and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of thee: and a third part shall fall by the sword round about thee; and I will scatter a third part into all the winds, and I will draw out a sword after them. Thus shall mine anger be accomplished, and I will 13 cause my fury to rest upon them, and I will be comforted: and they shall know that I the LORD have spoken it in my zeal, when I have accomplished my fury in them. Moreover I will make thee 14 waste, and a reproach among the nations that are round about thee, in the sight of all that pass by. So it shall be a reproach and 15 a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment unto the nations that are round about thee, when I shall execute judgments in thee in anger and in fury and in furious rebukes. I the LORD have spoken it. When I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, which 16 shall be for their destruction, and which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread: So will I send upon you famine and evil beasts, 17 and they shall bereave thee; and pestilence and blood shall pass through thee; and I will bring the sword upon thee. I the LORD have spoken it.

6, 2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy against them, And say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys; Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places. And your altars shall be desolate, and your images shall be broken: and I will cast down your slain men before your idols. And I will lay the dead carcases of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars. In all your dwellingplaces the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your images may be cut down, and your works may be abolished. And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yet will I leave a remnant, that ye may have some that shall escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries. And they that escape of you shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captives, because I am broken with their whorish heart, which hath departed from me, and with their eyes, which go a whoring after their idols: and they shall lothe themselves for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations. And they shall know that I am the LORD, and that I have not said in vain that I would do this evil unto them. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Smite with thine hand, and stamp with thy foot, and say, Alas for all the evil abominations of the house of Israel! for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence. He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remaineth and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus will I accomplish my fury upon them. Then shall ye know that I am the LORD, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, in all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the place where they did offer sweet savour to all their idols. So will I stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate, yea, more desolate than the wilderness toward Diblath, in all their habitations: and they

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Also, 7, 2 thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD unto the land of Israel; An end, the end is come upon the four corners of the land. Now 3 is the end come upon thee, and I will send mine anger upon thee, and will judge thee according to thy ways, and will recompense upon thee all thine abominations. And mine eye shall not spare 4 thee, neither will I have pity: but I will recompense thy ways upon thee, and thine abominations shall be in the midst of thee: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. The morning 7 is come unto thee, O thou that dwellest in the land: the time is come, the day of trouble is near, and not the sounding again of the mountains. escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all 17 of them mourning, every one for his iniquity. All hands shall be 18 feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water. They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame 19 shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads. They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be removed:
 their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of the LORD: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels: because it is the stumblingblock of their 20 iniquity. As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty: but they made the images of their abominations and of their de-

 I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the 22 wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall pollute it. My face will I turn also from them, and they shall pollute my secret place: 23 for the robbers shall enter into it, and defile it. Make a chain: for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.
 24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the heathen, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pomp of the strong to 25 cease; and their holy places shall be defiled. Destruction cometh; 26 and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none. Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumour shall be upon rumour; then shall they seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from 27 the priest, and counsel from the ancients. The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do unto them after their way, and according to their deserts will I judge them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

8 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in mine house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord GOD fell there from his loins even upward, as the appearance of brightness, as

and took me by a lock of mine head; and the spirit lifted me up between the earth and the heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the inner gate that looketh toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provoketh to jealousy. And, behold, the glory of the God 4 of Israel was there, according to the vision that I saw in the plain. Then said he unto me, Son of man, lift up thine eyes now the way 5 toward the north. So I lifted up mine eyes the way toward the north, and behold northward at the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry. He said furthermore unto me, Son of man, 6 seest thou what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel committeth here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations. And he brought me to the door of the court; and 7 when I looked, behold a hole in the wall. Then said he unto me, 8 Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had digged in the wall, behold a door. And he said unto me, Go in, and behold the 9 wicked abominations that they do here. So I went in and saw; and 10 behold every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, pourtrayed upon the wall round about. And there stood before them seventy men of the ancients 11 of the house of Israel, and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, with every man his censer in his hand; and a thick cloud of incense went up. Then said he unto me, Son of man, hast 12 thou seen what the ancients of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in the chambers of his imagery? for they say, The LORD seeth us not; the LORD hath forsaken the earth. He said also unto 13 me, Turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations that they do. Then he brought me to the door of the gate of the 14 LORD'S house which was toward the north; and, behold, there sat women weeping for Tammuz. Then said he unto me, Hast thou 15 seen this, O son of man? turn thee yet again, and thou shalt see greater abominations than these. And he brought me into the 16 inner court of the LORD'S house, and, behold, at the door of the temple of the LORD, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of the LORD, and their faces toward the east; and they worshipped the sun toward the east. Then he said unto me, Hast thou seen this, 17 O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have returned to provoke me to 18 anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose. Therefore will I also deal in fury: mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: and though they cry in mine ears with a loud voice, yet will I not hear them.

9 He cried also in mine ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause them that have charge over the city to draw near, even every man with his
 2 destroying weapon in his hand. And, behold, six men came from the way of the higher gate, which lieth toward the north, and every man a slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man among them was clothed with linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side: and
 3 they went in, and stood beside the brasen altar. And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon he was, to the threshold of the house. And he called to the man clothed
 4 with linen, which had the writer's inkhorn by his side; And the LORD said unto him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry for all the abominations that be done
 5 in the midst thereof. And to the others he said in mine hearing, Go ye after him through the city, and smite: let not your eye spare, 6 neither have ye pity: Slay utterly old and young, both maids, and little children, and women: but come not near any man upon whom is the mark; and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the 7 ancient men which were before the house. And he said unto them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And 8 they went forth, and slew in the city. And it came to pass, while they were slaying them, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou destroy all the residue 9 of Israel in thy pouring out of thy fury upon Jerusalem? Then said he unto me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceeding great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of perverseness: for they say, The LORD hath forsaken the earth, and 10 the LORD seeth not. And as for me also, mine eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will recompense their way upon their head. And, behold, the man clothed with linen, which had the 11 inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as thou hast commanded me.

Then I looked, and, behold, in the firmament that was above 10 the head of the cherubims there appeared over them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne. And 2 he spake unto the man clothed with linen, and said, Go in between the wheels, even under the cherub, and fill thine hand with coals of fire from between the cherubims, and scatter them over the city.
And he went in in my sight. Now the cherubims stood on the 3 right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court. Then the glory of the LORD went up from the 4 cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of the LORD'S glory. And the sound of the cherubims' wings 5 was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of the Almighty God when he speaketh. And it came to pass, that when he had 6 commanded the man clothed with linen, saying, Take fire from between the wheels, from between the cherubims; then he went in, and stood beside the wheels. And one cherub stretched forth his 7 hand from between the cherubims unto the fire that was between the cherubims, and took thereof, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed with linen: who took it, and went out. And 8 there appeared in the cherubims the form of a man's hand under their wings. And when I looked, behold the four wheels by the 9 cherubims, one wheel by one cherub, and another wheel by another cherub: and the appearance of the wheels was as the colour of a beryl stone. And as for their appearances, they four had one 10 likeness, as if a wheel had been in the midst of a wheel. When 11 they went, they went upon their four sides; they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went. And their whole body, and their 12 backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had. As for 13 the wheels, it was cried unto them in my hearing, O wheel. And 14 every one had four faces: the first face was the face of a cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third the face 15 of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle. And the cherubims were lifted up. This is the living creature that I saw by the river 16 of Chebar. And when the cherubims went, the wheels went by them: and when the cherubims lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the same wheels also turned not from beside them.

 17 When they stood, these stood; and when they were lifted up, these lifted up themselves also: for the spirit of the living creature was in 18 them. Then the glory of the LORD departed from off the threshold 19 of the house, and stood over the cherubims. And the cherubims lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight: when they went out, the wheels also were beside them, and every one stood at the door of the east gate of the LORD's house; and 20 the glory of the God of Israel was over them above. This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river of 21 Chebar; and I knew that they were the cherubims. Every one had four faces apiece, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the 22 hands of a man was under their wings. And the likeness of their faces was the same faces which I saw by the river of Chebar, their appearances and themselves: they went every one straight forward.
 11 Moreover the spirit lifted me up, and brought me unto the east gate of the LORD's house, which looketh eastward: and behold at the door of the gate five and twenty men; among whom I saw Jaazaniah the son of Azur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes 2 of the people. Then said he unto me, Son of man, these are the men that devise mischief, and give wicked counsel in this city: 3 Which say, It is not near; let us build houses: this city is the 4 caldron, and we be the flesh. Therefore prophesy against them, 5 prophesy, O son of man. And the Spirit of the LORD fell upon me, and said unto me, Speak; Thus saith the LORD; Thus have ye said, O house of Israel: for I know the things that come into your mind, 6 every one of them. Ye have multiplied your slain in this city, and 7 ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron: but I will 8 bring you forth out of the midst of it. Ye have feared the sword; 9 and I will bring a sword upon you, saith the Lord GOD. And I will bring you out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you. Ye 10 shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. This city shall not be your 11 caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; but I will judge you in the border of Israel: And ye shall know that I am the 12 LORD: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither executed my judgments, but have done after the manners of the heathen that are round about you. And it came to pass, when I prophesied, 13 that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, Ah Lord GOD! wilt thou make a full end of the remnant of Israel? Again the word 14 of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, thy brethren, 15 even thy brethren, the men of thy kindred, and all the house of Israel wholly, are they unto whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from the LORD: unto us is this land given in possession. Therefore say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Although 16 I have cast them far off among the heathen, and although I have scattered them among the countries, yet will I be to them as a little sanctuary in the countries where they shall come. Therefore 17 say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even gather you from the people, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel. And they shall 18 come thither, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from thence. And I will 19 give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them an heart of flesh: That they may walk in my statutes, and keep 20 mine ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God. But as for them whose heart walketh after 21 the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will recompense their way upon their own heads, saith the Lord GOD.

Then did the cherubims lift up their wings, and the wheels beside 22 them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.
And the glory of the LORD went up from the midst of the city, 23 and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.
Afterwards the spirit took me up, and brought me in a vision by 24 the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me. Then I spake unto them 25 of the captivity all the things that the LORD had shewed me.

- 12, 2 The word of the LORD also came unto me, saying, Son of man, thou dwellest in the midst of a rebellious house, which have eyes to see, and see not; they have ears to hear, and hear not: for they 3 are a rebellious house. Therefore, thou son of man, prepare thee stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and thou shalt remove from thy place to another place in their sight: it may 4 be they will consider, though they be a rebellious house. Then shalt thou bring forth thy stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing: and thou shalt go forth at even in their sight, as they
 5 that go forth into captivity. Dig thou through the wall in their 6 sight, and carry out thereby. In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a 7 sign unto the house of Israel. And I did so as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for captivity, and in the even I digged through the wall with mine hand; I brought it forth in the 8 twilight, and I bare it upon my shoulder in their sight. And in 9 the morning came the word of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, hath not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said unto 10 thee, What doest thou? Say thou unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; This burden concerneth the prince in Jerusalem, and all the 11 house of Israel that are among them. Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done unto them: they shall remove 12 and go into captivity. And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the twilight, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his 13 face, that he see not the ground with his eyes. My net also will I spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare: and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he 14 not see it, though he shall die there. And I will scatter toward every wind all that are about him to help him, and all his bands; 15 and I will draw out the sword after them. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall scatter them among the nations, 16 and disperse them in the countries. But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence;

that they may declare all their abominations among the heathen whither they come; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Moreover the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Son of man, 17, 18 eat thy bread with quaking, and drink thy water with trembling and with carefulness; And say unto the people of the land, Thus 19 saith the Lord GOD of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and of the land of Israel; They shall eat their bread with carefulness, and drink their water with astonishment, that her land may be desolate from all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein. And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and 20 the land shall be desolate; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 21, 22 what is that proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision faileth? Tell them therefore, 23 Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say unto them, The days are at hand, and the effect of every vision. For there 24 shall be no more any vain vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel. For I am the LORD: I will speak, and the word 25 that I shall speak shall come to pass; it shall be no more prolonged: for in your days, O rebellious house, will I say the word, and will perform it, saith the Lord GOD. Again the word of the LORD 26 came to me, saying, Son of man, behold, they of the house of 27 Israel say, The vision that he seeth is for many days to come, and he prophesieth of the times that are far off. Therefore say unto 28 them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; There shall none of my words be prolonged any more, but the word which I have spoken shall be done, saith the Lord GOD.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 13, 2 prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say thou unto them that prophesy out of their own hearts, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe unto the foolish 3 prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing! O 4 Israel, thy prophets are like the foxes in the deserts. Ye have not 5 gone up into the gaps, neither made up the hedge for the house of Israel to stand in the battle in the day of the LORD. They have 6 seen vanity and lying divination, saying, The LORD saith: and the LORD hath not sent them: and they have made others to hope 7 that they would confirm the word. Have ye not seen a vain vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, whereas ye say, The 8 LORD saith it; albeit I have not spoken? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have spoken vanity, and seen lies, therefore,

 9 behold, I am against you, saith the Lord GOD. And mine hand shall be upon the prophets that see vanity, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the assembly of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the 10 Lord GOD. Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there was no peace; and one built up a wall, 11 and, lo, others daubed it with untempered mortar: Say unto them which daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall 12 fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it. Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said unto you, Where is the daubing wherewith 13 ye have daubed it? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my fury; and there shall be an overflowing shower in mine anger, and great hailstones in my 14 fury to consume it. So will I break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be discovered, and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know 15 that I am the LORD. Thus will I accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar, and will say unto you, The wall is no more, neither they 16 that daubed it; To wit, the prophets of Israel which prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and which see visions of peace for her, and 17 there is no peace, saith the Lord GOD. Likewise, thou son of man, set thy face against the daughters of thy people, which prophesy 18 out of their own heart; and prophesy thou against them, And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the women that sew pillows to all armholes, and make kerchiefs upon the head of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and will ye 19 save the souls alive that come unto you? And will ye pollute me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hear your lies? Wherefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against 20 your pillows, wherewith ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms, and will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly. Your kerchiefs also 21 will I tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Because with lies ye have made the heart of the 22 righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, by promising him life: Therefore ye shall see no more vanity, nor 23 divine divinations: for I will deliver my people out of your hand:

 and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

Then came certain of the elders of Israel unto me, and sat before 14 me. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 2, 3 man, these men have set up their idols in their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be enquired of at all by them? Therefore speak unto them, and say 4 unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Every man of the house of Israel that setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to the prophet; I the LORD will answer him that cometh according to the multitude of his idols; That I may take the house of Israel in 5 their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith 6 the Lord GOD; Repent, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations. For every one 7 of the house of Israel, or of the stranger that sojourneth in Israel, which separateth himself from me, and setteth up his idols in his heart, and putteth the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and cometh to a prophet to enquire of him concerning me; I the LORD will answer him by myself: And I will set my face 8 against that man, and will make him a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. And if the prophet be deceived when he 9 hath spoken a thing, I the LORD have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel. And they shall bear the punishment of their iniquity: the punishment of the prophet shall be even as the punishment of him that seeketh unto him; That the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither be polluted any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, saith the Lord GOD. The word of the LORD came again to me, saying, Son of man, when the land sinneth against me by trespassing grievously, then will I stretch out mine hand upon it, and will break the staff of the bread thereof, and will send famine upon it, and will cut off man and beast from it: Though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, saith the Lord GOD. If I cause noisome beasts to pass through the land, and they spoil it, so that it be desolate, that no man may pass through because of the beasts: Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only shall be delivered, but the land shall be desolate. Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off man and beast from it: Though these three men were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only shall be delivered themselves. Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my fury upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast: Though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, they shall deliver neither son nor daughter; they shall but deliver their own souls by their righteousness. For thus saith the Lord GOD; How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the noisome beast, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast? Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be brought forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth unto you, and ye shall see their way and their doings: and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it. And they shall comfort you, when ye see their ways and their doings: and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 15, 2 What is the vine tree more than any tree, or than a branch which is among the trees of the forest? Shall wood be taken thereof to do 3 any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel thereon?
 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire devoureth both the 4 ends of it, and the midst of it is burned. Is it meet for any work?
 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much 5 less shall it be meet yet for any work, when the fire hath devoured it, and it is burned? Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As the 6 vine tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so will I give the inhabitants of Jerusalem. And I 7 will set my face against them; they shall go out from one fire, and another fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I set my face against them. And I will make the land 8 desolate, because they have committed a trespass, saith the Lord GOD.

Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 16, 2 man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations, And say, Thus 3 saith the Lord GOD unto Jerusalem; Thy birth and thy nativity is of the land of Canaan; thy father was an Amorite, and thy mother an Hittite. And as for thy nativity, in the day thou wast born 4 thy navel was not cut, neither wast thou washed in water to supple thee; thou wast not salted at all, nor swaddled at all. None eye 5 pitied thee, to do any of these unto thee, to have compassion upon thee; but thou wast cast out in the open field, to the lothing of thy person, in the day that thou wast born. And when I passed by 6 thee, and saw thee polluted in thine own blood, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live; yea, I said unto thee when thou wast in thy blood, Live. I have caused thee to multiply as the 7 bud of the field, and thou hast increased and waxen great, and thou art come to excellent ornaments: thy breasts are fashioned, and thine hair is grown, whereas thou wast naked and bare. Now 8 when I passed by thee, and looked upon thee, behold, thy time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over thee, and covered thy nakedness: yea, I swear unto thee, and entered into a covenant 9 with thee, saith the Lord GOD, and thou becamest mine. Then washed I thee with water; yea, I thoroughly washed away thy blood 10 from thee, and I anointed thee with oil. I clothed thee also with broidered work, and shod thee with badgers' skin, and I girded thee 11 about with fine linen, and I covered thee with silk. I decked thee also with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon thy hands, and a 12 chain on thy neck. And I put a jewel on thy forehead, and earrings 13 in thine ears, and a beautiful crown upon thine head. Thus wast thou decked with gold and silver; and thy raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; thou didst eat fine flour, and honey, and oil: and thou wast exceeding beautiful, and thou didst prosper 14 into a kingdom. And thy renown went forth among the heathen for thy beauty: for it was perfect through my comeliness, which I 15 had put upon thee, saith the Lord GOD. But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and pouredst out thy fornications on every one that passed by; his 16 it was. And of thy garments thou didst take, and deckedst thy high places with divers colours, and playedst the harlot thereupon: 17 the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so. Thou hast also taken thy fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given thee, and madest to thyself images of men, and didst commit 18 whoredom with them, And tookest thy broidered garments, and coveredst them: and thou hast set mine oil and mine incense before 19 them. My meat also which I gave thee, fine flour, and oil, and honey, wherewith I fed thee, thou hast even set it before them for 20 a sweet savour: and thus it was, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover thou hast taken thy sons and thy daughters, whom thou hast borne unto me, and these hast thou sacrificed unto them to be devoured.

 21 Is this of thy whoredoms a small matter, That thou hast slain my children, and delivered them to cause them to pass through the 22 fire for them? And in all thine abominations and thy whoredoms thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, when thou wast 23 naked and bare, and wast polluted in thy blood. And it came to pass after all thy wickedness, (woe, woe unto thee! saith the Lord 24 GOD;) That thou hast also built unto thee an eminent place, 25 and hast made thee an high place in every street. Thou hast built thy high place at every head of the way, and hast made thy beauty to be abhorred, and hast opened thy feet to every one that passed by, and multiplied thy whoredoms. Thou hast also 26 committed fornication with the Egyptians thy neighbours, great of flesh; and hast increased thy whoredoms, to provoke me to anger.

 Behold, therefore I have stretched out my hand over thee, and have 27 diminished thine ordinary food, and delivered thee unto the will of them that hate thee, the daughters of the Philistines, which are ashamed of thy lewd way. Thou hast played the whore also with 28 the Assyrians, because thou wast unsatiable; yea, thou hast played the harlot with them, and yet couldest not be satisfied. Thou hast 29 moreover multiplied thy fornication in the land of Canaan unto Chaldea; and yet thou wast not satisfied herewith. How weak is 30 thine heart, saith the Lord GOD, seeing thou doest all these things, the work of an imperious whorish woman; In that thou buildest 31 thine eminent place in the head of every way, and makest thine high place in every street; and hast not been as an harlot, in that thou scornest hire; But as a wife that committeth adultery, which 32 taketh strangers instead of her husband! They give gifts to all 33 whores: but thou givest thy gifts to all thy lovers, and hirest them, that they may come unto thee on every side for thy whoredom.
 And the contrary is in thee from other women in thy whoredoms, 34 whereas none followeth thee to commit whoredoms: and in that thou givest a reward, and no reward is given unto thee, therefore thou art contrary. Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of the 35 LORD: Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thy filthiness was 36 poured out, and thy nakedness discovered through thy whoredoms with thy lovers, and with all the idols of thy abominations, and by the blood of thy children, which thou didst give unto them; Behold, therefore I will gather all thy lovers, with whom thou hast 37 taken pleasure, and all them that thou hast loved, with all them that thou hast hated; I will even gather them round about against thee, and will discover thy nakedness unto them, that they may see all thy nakedness. And I will judge thee, as women that break 38 wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will give thee blood in fury and jealousy. And I will also give thee into their hand, and 39 they shall throw down thine eminent place, and shall break down thy high places: they shall strip thee also of thy clothes, and shall 40 take thy fair jewels, and leave thee naked and bare. They shall also bring up a company against thee, and they shall stone thee 41 with stones, and thrust thee through with their swords. And they shall burn thine houses with fire, and execute judgments upon thee in the sight of many women: and I will cause thee to cease from 42 playing the harlot, and thou also shalt give no hire any more. So will I make my fury toward thee to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from thee, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.

 43 Because thou hast not remembered the days of thy youth, but hast fretted me in all these things; behold, therefore I also will recompense thy way upon thine head, saith the Lord GOD: and thou shalt not commit this lewdness above all thine abominations.
 44 Behold, every one that useth proverbs shall use this proverb against 45 thee, saying, As is the mother, so is her daughter. Thou art thy mother's daughter, that lotheth her husband and her children; and thou art the sister of thy sisters, which lothed their husbands and their children: your mother was an Hittite, and your father an 46 Amorite. And thine elder sister is Samaria, she and her daughters that dwell at thy left hand: and thy younger sister, that dwelleth 47 at thy right hand, is Sodom and her daughters. Yet hast thou not walked after their ways, nor done after their abominations: but, as if that were a very little thing, thou wast corrupted more than they 48 in all thy ways. As I live, saith the Lord GOD, Sodom thy sister hath not done, she nor her daughters, as thou hast done, thou and 49 thy daughters. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister Sodom, pride, fulness of bread, and abundance of idleness was in her and in her daughters, neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor 50 and needy. And they were haughty, and committed abomination 51 before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good. Neither hath Samaria committed half of thy sins; but thou hast multiplied thine abominations more than they, and hast justified thy sisters in all 52 thine abominations which thou hast done. Thou also, which hast judged thy sisters, bear thine own shame for thy sins that thou hast committed more abominable than they: they are more righteous than thou: yea, be thou confounded also, and bear thy shame, 53 in that thou hast justified thy sisters. When I shall bring again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, then will I bring again the captivity of thy captives in the midst of them: That thou 54 mayest bear thine own shame, and mayest be confounded in all that thou hast done, in that thou art a comfort unto them. When 55 thy sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate, and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate, then thou and thy daughters shall return to your former estate. For thy sister Sodom was not mentioned by thy mouth 56 in the day of thy pride, Before thy wickedness was discovered, 57 as at the time of thy reproach of the daughters of Syria, and all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, which despise thee round about. Thou hast borne thy lewdness and 58 thine abominations, saith the LORD. For thus saith the Lord 59 GOD; I will even deal with thee as thou hast done, which hast despised the oath in breaking the covenant. Nevertheless I will 60 remember my covenant with thee in the days of thy youth, and I will establish unto thee an everlasting covenant. Then thou shalt 61 remember thy ways, and be ashamed, when thou shalt receive thy sisters, thine elder and thy younger: and I will give them unto thee for daughters, but not by thy covenant. And I will establish 62 my covenant with thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD: That thou mayest remember, and be confounded, and never open 63 thy mouth any more because of thy shame, when I am pacified toward thee for all that thou hast done, saith the Lord GOD.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 17, 2 put forth a riddle, and speak a parable unto the house of Israel; And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; A great eagle with great wings, 3 longwinged, full of feathers, which had divers colours, came unto Lebanon, and took the highest branch of the cedar: He cropped 4 off the top of his young twigs, and carried it into a land of traffick; he set it in a city of merchants. He took also of the seed of 5 the land, and planted it in a fruitful field; he placed it by great waters, and set it as a willow tree. And it grew, and became 6 a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine,

7 and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs. There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend her roots toward him, and shot forth her branches toward him, that he might water it by the furrows of 8 her plantation. It was planted in a good soil by great waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that 9 it might be a goodly vine. Say thou, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it wither? it shall wither in all the leaves of her spring, even without great power or many people to pluck it up 10 by the roots thereof. Yea, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind toucheth it? it shall 11 wither in the furrows where it grew. Moreover the word of the 12 LORD came unto me, saying, Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon is come to Jerusalem, and hath taken the king thereof, 13 and the princes thereof, and led them with him to Babylon; And hath taken of the king's seed, and made a covenant with him, and hath taken an oath of him: he hath also taken the mighty of the 14 land: That the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself 15 up, but that by keeping of his covenant it might stand. But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that doeth such things? or shall he break the 16 covenant, and be delivered? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely in the place where the king dwelleth that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he brake, even with him in 17 the midst of Babylon he shall die. Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company make for him in the war, by casting up mounts, and building forts, to cut off many persons:
18 Seeing he despised the oath by breaking the covenant, when, lo, he had given his hand, and hath done all these things, he shall 19 not escape. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely mine oath that he hath despised, and my covenant that he hath 20 broken, even it will I recompense upon his own head. And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will plead with him there for his trespass that he hath trespassed against me. And all his fugitives 21 with all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward all winds: and ye shall know that I the LORD have spoken it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also take 22 of the highest branch of the high cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the top of his young twigs a tender one, and will plant it upon an high mountain and eminent: In the mountain of the 23 height of Israel will I plant it: and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all fowl of every wing; in the shadow of the branches thereof shall they dwell. And all the trees of the field shall know that I the LORD 24 have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish: I the LORD have spoken and have done it.

The word of the LORD came unto me again, saying, What mean 18, 2 ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, ye shall not have 3 occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel. Behold, all souls 4 are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sinneth, it shall die. But if a man be just, and 5 do that which is lawful and right, And hath not eaten upon the 6 mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither hath defiled his neighbour's wife, neither hath come near to a menstruous woman, And hath not oppressed any, 7 but hath restored to the debtor his pledge, hath spoiled none by violence, hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked with a garment; He that hath not given forth upon usury, 8 neither hath taken any increase, that hath withdrawn his hand from iniquity, hath executed true judgment between man and man, Hath walked in my statutes, and hath kept my judgments, to deal 9 truly; he is just, he shall surely live, saith the Lord GOD. If he 10 beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that doeth the like to any one of these things, And that doeth not any of 11 those duties, but even hath eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbour's wife, Hath oppressed the poor and needy, hath 12 spoiled by violence, hath not restored the pledge, and hath lifted

13 up his eyes to the idols, hath committed abomination, Hath given forth upon usury, and hath taken increase: shall he then live? he shall not live: he hath done all these abominations; he shall surely 14 die; his blood shall be upon him. Now, lo, if he beget a son, that seeth all his father's sins which he hath done, and considereth, and 15 doeth not such like, That hath not eaten upon the mountains, neither hath lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, 16 hath not defiled his neighbour's wife, Neither hath oppressed any, hath not withholden the pledge, neither hath spoiled by violence, but hath given his bread to the hungry, and hath covered the naked 17 with a garment, That hath taken off his hand from the poor, that hath not received usury nor increase, hath executed my judgments, hath walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his 18 father, he shall surely live. As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, spoiled his brother by violence, and did that which is not good among his people, lo, even he shall die in his iniquity.
 19 Yet say ye, Why? doth not the son bear the iniquity of the father?
 When the son hath done that which is lawful and right, and hath kept all my statutes, and hath done them, he shall surely live.
 20 The soul that sinneth, it shall die. The son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son: the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, 21 and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him. But if the wicked will turn from all his sins that he hath committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he 22 shall surely live, he shall not die. All his transgressions that he hath committed, they shall not be mentioned unto him: in his 23 righteousness that he hath done he shall live. Have I any pleasure at all that the wicked should die? saith the Lord GOD: and not 24 that he should return from his ways, and live? But when the righteous turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and doeth according to all the abominations that the wicked man doeth, shall he live? All his righteousness that he hath done shall not be mentioned: in his trespass that he hath trespassed, and in his sin that he hath sinned, in them shall he 25 die. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel; Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?

v.13 blood: Heb. bloods. v.16 hath not....: Heb. hath not pledged the pledge, or, taken to pledge.

When a righteous man turneth away from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, and dieth in them; for his iniquity that he hath done shall he die. Again, when the wicked man turneth away from his wickedness that he hath committed, and doeth that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive. Because he considereth, and turneth away from all his transgressions that he hath committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die. Yet saith the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal? Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, saith the Lord GOD. Repent, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin. Cast away from you all your transgressions, whereby ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel? For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dieth, saith the Lord GOD: wherefore turn yourselves, and live ye.

Moreover take thou up a lamentation for the princes of Israel, And say, What is thy mother? A lioness: she lay down among lions, she nourished her whelps among young lions. And she brought up one of her whelps: it became a young lion, and it learned to catch the prey; it devoured men. The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit, and they brought him with chains unto the land of Egypt. Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion. And he went up and down among the lions, he became a young lion, and learned to catch the prey, and devoured men. And he knew their desolate palaces, and he laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, by the noise of his roaring. Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces, and spread their net over him: he was taken in their pit. And they put him in ward in chains, and brought him to the king of Babylon: they brought him into holds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel. Thy mother is like a vine in thy blood, planted by the waters: she was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters. And she had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bare rule, and her stature was exalted among the thick branches, and she appeared in her height with the multitude of her branches.

 12 But she was plucked up in fury, she was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up her fruit: her strong rods were broken 13 and withered; the fire consumed them. And now she is planted in 14 the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty ground. And fire is gone out of a rod of her branches, which hath devoured her fruit, so that she hath no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.

20 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came
 2 to enquire of the LORD, and sat before me. Then came the word
 3 of the LORD unto me, saying, Son of man, speak unto the elders of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye come to enquire of me? As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will not
 4 be enquired of by you. Wilt thou judge them, son of man, wilt thou judge them? cause them to know the abominations of their
 5 fathers: And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when I chose Israel, and lifted up mine hand unto the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known unto them in the land of Egypt, when I lifted up mine hand unto them, saying, I am the 6 LORD your God; In the day that I lifted up mine hand unto them, to bring them forth of the land of Egypt into a land that I had espied for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory
 7 of all lands: Then said I unto them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols
 8 of Egypt: I am the LORD your God. But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken unto me: they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt: then I said, I will pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of 9 Egypt. But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted before the heathen, among whom they were, in whose sight I made myself known unto them, in bringing them forth out 10 of the land of Egypt. Wherefore I caused them to go forth out 11 of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness. And I gave them my statutes, and shewed them my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them. Moreover also I gave 12 them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am the LORD that sanctify them. But the 13 house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they despised my judgments, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly polluted: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them in the wilderness, to consume them. But I wrought for my name's sake, 14 that it should not be polluted before the heathen, in whose sight I brought them out. Yet also I lifted up my hand unto them in the 15 wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands; Because they despised my judgments, and walked not in 16 my statutes, but polluted my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols. Nevertheless mine eye spared them from destroying 17 them, neither did I make an end of them in the wilderness. But 18 I said unto their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their judgments, nor defile yourselves with their idols: I am the LORD your God; walk in 19 my statutes, and keep my judgments, and do them; And hallow 20 my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am the LORD your God. Notwithstanding 21 the children rebelled against me: they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my judgments to do them, which if a man do, he shall even live in them; they polluted my sabbaths: then I said, I would pour out my fury upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness. Nevertheless I withdrew mine hand, and 22 wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be polluted in the sight of the heathen, in whose sight I brought them forth. I 23 lifted up mine hand unto them also in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the heathen, and disperse them through the countries; Because they had not executed my judgments, but had 24 despised my statutes, and had polluted my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols. Wherefore I gave them also 25 statutes that were not good, and judgments whereby they should not live; And I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they 26 caused to pass through the fire all that openeth the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that 27 I am the LORD. Therefore, son of man, speak unto the house of Israel, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Yet in this your fathers have blasphemed me, in that they have committed a 28 trespass against me. For when I had brought them into the land, for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to them, then they saw every high hill, and all the thick trees, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering: there also they made their sweet savour, and poured out 29 there their drink offerings. Then I said unto them, What is the high place whereunto ye go? And the name thereof is called Bamah 30 unto this day. Wherefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Are ye polluted after the manner of your fathers?

 31 and commit ye whoredom after their abominations? For when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, ye pollute yourselves with all your idols, even unto this day: and shall I be enquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, saith the Lord 32 GOD, I will not be enquired of by you. And that which cometh into your mind shall not be at all, that ye say, We will be as the heathen, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.
 33 As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely with a mighty hand, and with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out, will I rule over you:
 34 And I will bring you out from the people, and will gather you out of the countries wherein ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and 35 with a stretched out arm, and with fury poured out. And I will bring you into the wilderness of the people, and there will I plead 36 with you face to face. Like as I pleaded with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so will I plead with you, saith the 37 Lord GOD. And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant: And I will purge out 38 from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me: I will bring them forth out of the country where they sojourn, and they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that 39 I am the LORD. As for you, O house of Israel, thus saith the Lord GOD; Go ye, serve ye every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken unto me: but pollute ye my holy name no more 40 with your gifts, and with your idols. For in mine holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them in the land, serve me: there will I accept them, and there will I require your offerings, and the firstfruits of your oblations, with all your holy things. I 41 will accept you with your sweet savour, when I bring you out from the people, and gather you out of the countries wherein ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you before the heathen. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall bring you 42 into the land of Israel, into the country for the which I lifted up mine hand to give it to your fathers. And there shall ye remember 43 your ways, and all your doings, wherein ye have been defiled; and ye shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I 44 have wrought with you for my name's sake, not according to your wicked ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover the word of the LORD came 45 unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face toward the south, and 46 drop thy word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the south field; And say to the forest of the south, Hear the word 47 of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will kindle a fire in thee, and it shall devour every green tree in thee, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces 48 from the south to the north shall be burned therein. And all flesh shall see that I the LORD have kindled it: it shall not be quenched. Then said I, Ah Lord GOD! they say of me, Doth he not speak 49 parables?

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 21, 2 set thy face toward Jerusalem, and drop thy word toward the holy places, and prophesy against the land of Israel, And say to the 3 land of Israel, Thus saith the LORD; Behold, I am against thee, and will draw forth my sword out of his sheath, and will cut off from thee the righteous and the wicked. Seeing then that I will cut off 4 from thee the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of his sheath against all flesh from the south to the north: That all flesh may know that I the LORD have drawn forth 5 my sword out of his sheath: it shall not return any more. Sigh 6 therefore, thou son of man, with the breaking of thy loins; and with bitterness sigh before their eyes. And it shall be, when they 7 say unto thee, Wherefore sighest thou? that thou shalt answer,

For the tidings; because it cometh: and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it cometh, and shall be brought 8 to pass, saith the Lord GOD. Again the word of the LORD came 9 unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus saith the 10 LORD; Say, A sword, a sword is sharpened, and also furbished: It is sharpened to make a sore slaughter; it is furbished that it may glitter: should we then make mirth? it contemneth the rod of my 11 son, as every tree. And he hath given it to be furbished, that it may be handled: this sword is sharpened, and it is furbished, to 12 give it into the hand of the slayer. Cry and howl, son of man: for it shall be upon my people, it shall be upon all the princes of Israel: terrors by reason of the sword shall be upon my people:
13 smite therefore upon thy thigh. Because it is a trial, and what if the sword condemn even the rod? it shall be no more, saith 14 the Lord GOD. Thou therefore, son of man, prophesy, and smite thine hands together, and let the sword be doubled the third time, the sword of the slain: it is the sword of the great men that are 15 slain, which entereth into their privy chambers. I have set the point of the sword against all their gates, that their heart may faint, and their ruins be multiplied: ah! it is made bright, it is 16 wrapped up for the slaughter. Go thee one way or other, either on the right hand, or on the left, whithersoever thy face is set.
17 I will also smite mine hands together, and I will cause my fury 18 to rest: I the LORD have said it. The word of the LORD came 19 unto me again, saying, Also, thou son of man, appoint thee two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come: both twain shall come forth out of one land: and choose thou a place, choose 20 it at the head of the way to the city. Appoint a way, that the sword may come to Rabbath of the Ammonites, and to Judah in 21 Jerusalem the defenced. For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he made his arrows bright, he consulted with images, he looked to appoint captains, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to appoint battering rams against the gates, to cast a mount, and to build a fort. And it shall be unto 23 them as a false divination in their sight, to them that have sworn oaths: but he will call to remembrance the iniquity, that they may be taken. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye have 24 made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are discovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because, I say, that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand. And thou, profane wicked prince of Israel, whose 25 day is come, when iniquity shall have an end, Thus saith the Lord 26 GOD; Remove the diadem, and take off the crown: this shall not be the same: exalt him that is low, and abase him that is high. I 27 will overturn, overturn, overturn, it: and it shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him. And thou, son of 28 man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning the Ammonites, and concerning their reproach; even say thou, The sword, the sword is drawn: for the slaughter it is furbished, to consume because of the glittering: Whiles they see vanity unto 29 thee, whiles they divine a lie unto thee, to bring thee upon the necks of them that are slain, of the wicked, whose day is come, when their iniquity shall have an end. Shall I cause it to return 30 into his sheath? I will judge thee in the place where thou wast created, in the land of thy nativity. And I will pour out mine 31 indignation upon thee, I will blow against thee in the fire of my wrath, and deliver thee into the hand of brutish men, and skilful to destroy. Thou shalt be for fuel to the fire; thy blood shall be 32 in the midst of the land; thou shalt be no more remembered: for I the LORD have spoken it.

Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Now, 22, 2 yea, thou shalt shew her all her abominations. Then say thou, 3 of it, that her time may come, and maketh idols against herself to shed; and hast defiled thyself in thine idols which thou hast made; and thou hast caused thy days to draw near, and art come even unto thy years: therefore have I made thee a reproach unto the 5 heathen, and a mocking to all countries. Those that be near, and those that be far from thee, shall mock thee, which art infamous 6 and much vexed. Behold, the princes of Israel, every one were 7 in thee to their power to shed blood. In thee have they set light by father and mother: in the midst of thee have they dealt by oppression with the stranger: in thee have they vexed the fatherless 8 and the widow. Thou hast despised mine holy things, and hast 9 profaned my sabbaths. In thee are men that carry tales to shed blood: and in thee they eat upon the mountains: in the midst of 10 thee they commit lewdness. In thee have they discovered their fathers' nakedness: in thee have they humbled her that was set 11 apart for pollution. And one hath committed abomination with his neighbour's wife; and another hath lewdly defiled his daughter in law; and another in thee hath humbled his sister, his father's 12 daughter. In thee have they taken gifts to shed blood; thou hast taken usury and increase, and thou hast greedily gained of thy neighbours by extortion, and hast forgotten me, saith the Lord 13 GOD. Behold, therefore I have smitten mine hand at thy dishonest gain which thou hast made, and at thy blood which hath been in 14 the midst of thee. Can thine heart endure, or can thine hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with thee? I the LORD 15 have spoken it, and will do it. And I will scatter thee among the heathen, and disperse thee in the countries, and will consume thy 16 filthiness out of thee. And thou shalt take thine inheritance in thyself in the sight of the heathen, and thou shalt know that I am 17 the LORD. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 18 Son of man, the house of Israel is to me become dross: all they are brass, and tin, and iron, and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they 19 are even the dross of silver. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because ye are all become dross, behold, therefore I will gather 20 you into the midst of Jerusalem. As they gather silver, and brass, and iron, and lead, and tin, into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so will I gather you in mine anger and in my fury, and I will leave you there, and melt you. Yea, I will gather you, and blow upon you in the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof. As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I the LORD have poured out my fury upon you. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, say unto her, Thou art the land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation. There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof. Her priests have violated my law, and have profaned mine holy things: they have put no difference between the holy and profane, neither have they shewed difference between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them. Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, to get dishonest gain. And her prophets have daubed them with untempered mortar, seeing vanity, and divining lies unto them, saying, Thus saith the Lord GOD, when the LORD hath not spoken. The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery, and have vexed the poor and needy: yea, they have oppressed the stranger wrongfully. And I sought for a man among them, that should make up the hedge, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it: but I found none. Therefore have I poured out mine indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I recompensed upon their heads, saith the Lord GOD.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother: And they committed whoredoms in Egypt; they committed whoredoms in their youth: there were their breasts pressed, and there they bruised the teats of their virginity. And the names of them were Aholah the elder, and Aholibah her sister: and they were mine, and they bare sons and daughters. Thus were their names; Samaria is them that were the chosen men of Assyria, and with all on whom her whoredoms brought from Egypt: for in her youth they lay with her, and they bruised the breasts of her virginity, and poured their 9 whoredom upon her. Wherefore I have delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.

 10 These discovered her nakedness: they took her sons and her daughters, and slew her with the sword: and she became famous among 11 women; for they had executed judgment upon her. And when her sister Aholibah saw this, she was more corrupt in her inordinate love than she, and in her whoredoms more than her sister in 12 her whoredoms. She doted upon the Assyrians her neighbours, captains and rulers clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon 13 horses, all of them desirable young men. Then I saw that she was 14 defiled, that they took both one way, And that she increased her whoredoms: for when she saw men pourtrayed upon the wall, the 15 images of the Chaldeans pourtrayed with vermilion, Girded with girdles upon their loins, exceeding in dyed attire upon their heads, all of them princes to look to, after the manner of the Babylonians 16 of Chaldea, the land of their nativity: And as soon as she saw them with her eyes, she doted upon them, and sent messengers 17 unto them into Chaldea. And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her mind was alienated from them.
 18 So she discovered her whoredoms, and discovered her nakedness: then my mind was alienated from her, like as my mind was alien-19 ated from her sister. Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, in calling to remembrance the days of her youth, wherein she had played the 20 harlot in the land of Egypt. For she doted upon their paramours, whose flesh is as the flesh of asses, and whose issue is like the issue of horses. Thus thou calledst to remembrance the lewdness of thy youth, in bruising thy teats by the Egyptians for the paps of thy youth. Therefore, O Aholibah, thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will raise up thy lovers against thee, from whom thy mind is alienated, and I will bring them against thee on every side; The Babylonians, and all the Chaldeans, Pekod, and Shoa, and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them: all of them desirable young men, captains and rulers, great lords and renowned, all of them riding upon horses. And they shall come against thee with chariots, wagons, and wheels, and with an assembly of people, which shall set against thee buckler and shield and helmet round about: and I will set judgment before them, and they shall judge thee according to their judgments. And I will set my jealousy against thee, and they shall deal furiously with thee: they shall take away thy nose and thine ears; and thy remnant shall fall by the sword: they shall take thy sons and thy daughters; and thy residue shall be devoured by the fire. They shall also strip thee out of thy clothes, and take away thy fair jewels. Thus will I make thy lewdness to cease from thee, and thy whoredom brought from the land of Egypt: so that thou shalt not lift up thine eyes unto them, nor remember Egypt any more. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will deliver thee into the hand of of them whom thou hatest, into the hand of them from whom thy mind is alienated: And they shall deal with thee hatefully, and shall take away all thy labour, and shall leave thee naked and bare: and the nakedness of thy whoredoms shall be discovered, both thy lewdness and thy whoredoms. I will do these things unto thee, because thou hast gone a whoring after the heathen, and because thou art polluted with their idols. Thou hast walked in the way of thy sister; therefore will I give her cup into thine hand. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou shalt drink of thy sister's cup deep and large: thou shalt be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it containeth much. Thou shalt be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of thy sister Samaria. Thou shalt even drink it and suck it out, and thou shalt break the sherds thereof, and pluck off thine own breasts: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast forgotten me, and cast me behind thy back, therefore bear thou also thy 36 lewdness and thy whoredoms. The LORD said moreover unto me;

 Son of man, wilt thou judge Aholah and Aholibah? yea, declare 37 unto them their abominations; That they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands, and with their idols have they committed adultery, and have also caused their sons, whom they bare unto me, to pass for them through the fire, to devour them.
 38 Moreover this they have done unto me: they have defiled my sanc-39 tuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths. For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they 40 done in the midst of mine house. And furthermore, that ye have sent for men to come from far, unto whom a messenger was sent;
 and, lo, they came: for whom thou didst wash thyself, paintedst 41 thy eyes, and deckedst thyself with ornaments, And satest upon a stately bed, and a table prepared before it, whereupon thou hast 42 set mine incense and mine oil. And a voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with the men of the common sort were brought Sabeans from the wilderness, which put bracelets upon 43 their hands, and beautiful crowns upon their heads. Then said I unto her that was old in adulteries, Will they now commit whore-44 doms with her, and she with them? Yet they went in unto her, as they go in unto a woman that playeth the harlot: so went they in 45 unto Aholah and unto Aholibah, the lewd women. And the righteous men, they shall judge them after the manner of adulteresses, and after the manner of women that shed blood; because they are 46 adulteresses, and blood is in their hands. For thus saith the Lord GOD; I will bring up a company upon them, and will give them 47 to be removed and spoiled. And the company shall stone them with stones, and dispatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.
 48 Thus will I cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women 49 may be taught not to do after your lewdness. And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols: and ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD.

of the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son 2 of man, write thee the name of the day, even of this same day: the king of Babylon set himself against Jerusalem this same day. And 3 utter a parable unto the rebellious house, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Set on a pot, set it on, and also pour water into it: Gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, 4 the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones. Take the 5 choice of the flock, and burn also the bones under it, and make it boil well, and let them seethe the bones of it therein. Wherefore 6 thus saith the Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city, to the pot whose scum is therein, and whose scum is not gone out of it! bring it out piece by piece; let no lot fall upon it. For her blood is in the 7 midst of her; she set it upon the top of a rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust; That it might cause fury 8 to come up to take vengeance; I have set her blood upon the top of a rock, that it should not be covered. Therefore thus saith the 9 Lord GOD; Woe to the bloody city! I will even make the pile for fire great. Heap on wood, kindle the fire, consume the flesh, and 10 spice it well, and let the bones be burned. Then set it empty upon 11 the coals thereof, that the brass of it may be hot, and may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the scum of it may be consumed. She hath wearied herself with lies, and her 12 great scum went not forth out of her: her scum shall be in the fire.
In thy filthiness is lewdness: because I have purged thee, and thou 13 wast not purged, thou shalt not be purged from thy filthiness any more, till I have caused my fury to rest upon thee. I the LORD 14 have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it; I will not go back, neither will I spare, neither will I repent; according to thy ways, and according to thy doings, shall they judge thee, saith the Lord GOD. Also the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 15 Son of man, behold, I take away from thee the desire of thine eyes 16 with a stroke: yet neither shalt thou mourn nor weep, neither shall thy tears run down. Forbear to cry, make no mourning for the 17 dead, bind the tire of thine head upon thee, and put on thy shoes upon thy feet, and cover not thy lips, and eat not the bread of men. So I spake unto the people in the morning: and at even my 18 wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded. And the 19 people said unto me, Wilt thou not tell us what these things are 20 to us, that thou doest so? Then I answered them, The word of 21 the LORD came unto me, saying, Speak unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the excellency of your strength, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pitieth; and your sons and your daughters whom 22 ye have left shall fall by the sword. And ye shall do as I have 23 done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men. And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away for your 24 iniquities, and mourn one toward another. Thus Ezekiel is unto you a sign: according to all that he hath done shall ye do: and when 25 this cometh, ye shall know that I am the Lord GOD. Also, thou son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their minds, their sons and their daughters, 26 That he that escapeth in that day shall come unto thee, to cause 27 thee to hear it with thine ears? In that day shall thy mouth be opened to him which is escaped, and thou shalt speak, and be no more dumb: and thou shalt be a sign unto them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

25, 2 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against the Ammonites, and prophesy against them;
 3 And say unto the Ammonites, Hear the word of the Lord GOD; Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou saidst, Aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they 4 went into captivity; Behold, therefore I will deliver thee to the men of the east for a possession, and they shall set their palaces in thee, and make their dwellings in thee: they shall eat thy fruit, 5 and they shall drink thy milk. And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the Ammonites a couchingplace for flocks: and ye 6 shall know that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast clapped thine hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced in heart with all thy despite against the land of Israel; 7 Behold, therefore I will stretch out mine hand upon thee, and will deliver thee for a spoil to the heathen; and I will cut thee off from the people, and I will cause thee to perish out of the countries: I will destroy thee; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD. Thus 8 saith the Lord GOD; Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like unto all the heathen; Therefore, behold, 9

 I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Bethjeshimoth, Baalmeon, and Kiriathaim, Unto the men of the east with the Ammonites, 10 and will give them in possession, that the Ammonites may not be remembered among the nations. And I will execute judgments 11 upon Moab; and they shall know that I am the LORD. Thus 12 saith the Lord GOD; Because that Edom hath dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and hath greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them; Therefore thus saith the Lord 13 GOD; I will also stretch out mine hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; and they of Dedan shall fall by the sword. And I will lay my 14 vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel: and they shall do in Edom according to mine anger and according to my fury; and they shall know my vengeance, saith the Lord GOD. Thus 15 saith the Lord GOD; Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with a despiteful heart, to destroy it for the old hatred; Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will 16 stretch out mine hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethims, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast. And I will 17 execute great vengeance upon them with furious rebukes; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.

And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the 26 month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, because that Tyrus hath said against Jerusalem, Aha, she is broken that was the gates of the people: she is turned unto me: I shall be replenished, now she is laid waste: Therefore thus saith 3 the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Tyrus, and will cause many nations to come up against thee, as the sea causeth his waves to come up. And they shall destroy the walls of Tyrus, and break 4 down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her 5 like the top of a rock. It shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD: 6 and it shall become a spoil to the nations. And her daughters which are in the field shall be slain by the sword; and they shall 7 know that I am the LORD. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring upon Tyrus Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, a king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with 8 horsemen, and companies, and much people. He shall slay with the sword thy daughters in the field: and he shall make a fort against thee, and cast a mount against thee, and lift up the buckler 9 against thee. And he shall set engines of war against thy walls, 10 and with his axes he shall break down thy towers. By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover thee: thy walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wheels, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into thy gates, as men enter 11 into a city wherein is made a breach. With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all thy streets: he shall slay thy people by the sword, and thy strong garrisons shall go down to the ground.

12 And they shall make a spoil of thy riches, and make a prey of thy merchandise: and they shall break down thy walls, and destroy thy pleasant houses: and they shall lay thy stones and thy timber and 13 thy dust in the midst of the water. And I will cause the noise of thy songs to cease; and the sound of thy harps shall be no more 14 heard. And I will make thee like the top of a rock: thou shalt be a place to spread nets upon; thou shalt be built no more: for I the 15 LORD have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD to Tyrus; Shall not the isles shake at the sound of thy fall, when the wounded cry, when the slaughter is made in the midst 16 of thee? Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay away their robes, and put off their brodered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble at every moment, and be 17 astonished at thee. And they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and say to thee, How art thou destroyed, that wast inhabited of seafaring men, the renowned city, which wast strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, which cause their terror to be on all that haunt it! Now shall the isles tremble in the day of thy fall; yea, 18 the isles that are in the sea shall be troubled at thy departure.

 For thus saith the Lord GOD; When I shall make thee a desolate 19 city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon thee, and great waters shall cover thee; When I 20 shall bring thee down with them that descend into the pit, with the people of old time, and shall set thee in the low parts of the earth, in places desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that thou be not inhabited; and I shall set glory in the land of the living; I will make thee a terror, and thou shalt be no more: 21 though thou be sought for, yet shalt thou never be found again, saith the Lord GOD.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Now, thou 27, 2 son of man, take up a lamentation for Tyrus; And say unto Tyrus, 3 O thou that art situate at the entry of the sea, which art a merchant of the people for many isles, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O Tyrus, thou hast said, I am of perfect beauty. Thy borders are in the 4 midst of the seas, thy builders have perfected thy beauty. They 5 have made all thy ship boards of fir trees of Senir: they have taken cedars from Lebanon to make masts for thee. Of the oaks of 6 Bashan have they made thine oars; the company of the Ashurites have made thy benches of ivory, brought out of the isles of Chittim.
 Fine linen with brodered work from Egypt was that which thou 7 spreadest forth to be thy sail; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was that which covered thee. The inhabitants of Zidon 8 and Arvad were thy mariners: thy wise men, O Tyrus, that were in thee, were thy pilots. The ancients of Gebal and the wise 9 men thereof were in thee thy calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in thee to occupy thy merchandise. They of 10 Persia and of Lud and of Phut were in thine army, thy men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in thee; they set forth thy comeliness. The men of Arvad with thine army were upon thy 11 walls round about, and the Gammadims were in thy towers: they hanged their shields upon thy walls round about; they have made 13 traded in thy fairs. Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were thy merchants: they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass in 14 thy market. They of the house of Togarmah traded in thy fairs 15 with horses and horsemen and mules. The men of Dedan were thy merchants; many isles were the merchandise of thine hand: they 16 brought thee for a present horns of ivory and ebony. Syria was thy merchant by reason of the multitude of the wares of thy making: they occupied in thy fairs with emeralds, purple, and brodered 17 work, and fine linen, and coral, and agate. Judah, and the land of Israel, they were thy merchants: they traded in thy market wheat was thy merchant in the multitude of the wares of thy making, for the multitude of all riches; in the wine of Helbon, and white wool.

 19 Dan also and Javan going to and fro occupied in thy fairs: bright 20 iron, cassia, and calamus, were in thy market. Dedan was thy 21 merchant in precious clothes for chariots. Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they occupied with thee in lambs, and rams, and and Raamah, they were thy merchants: they occupied in thy fairs with chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.

 of rich apparel, bound with cords, and made of cedar, among thy 25 merchandise. The ships of Tarshish did sing of thee in thy market:

 and thy fairs, thy merchandise, thy mariners, and thy pilots, thy calkers, and the occupiers of thy merchandise, and all thy men of all that handle the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships, they shall stand upon the land; And shall cause their voice to be heard against thee, and shall cry 30 bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes: And they shall make themselves utterly 31 bald for thee, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for thee with bitterness of heart and bitter wailing. And in their 32 wailing they shall take up a lamentation for thee, and lament over thee, saying, What city is like Tyrus, like the destroyed in the midst of the sea? When thy wares went forth out of the seas, 33 thou filledst many people; thou didst enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of thy riches and of thy merchandise. In the 34 time when thou shalt be broken by the seas in the depths of the waters thy merchandise and all thy company in the midst of thee shall fall. All the inhabitants of the isles shall be astonished at 35 thee, and their kings shall be sore afraid, they shall be troubled in their countenance. The merchants among the people shall hiss at 36 thee; thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt be any more.

The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of 28, 2 man, say unto the prince of Tyrus, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thine heart is lifted up, and thou hast said, I am a God, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet thou art a man, and not God, though thou set thine heart as the heart of God: Behold, thou art wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that they can 3 hide from thee: With thy wisdom and with thine understanding 4 thou hast gotten thee riches, and hast gotten gold and silver into thy treasures: By thy great wisdom and by thy traffick hast thou 5 increased thy riches, and thine heart is lifted up because of thy riches: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast 6 set thine heart as the heart of God; Behold, therefore I will bring 7 strangers upon thee, the terrible of the nations: and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of thy wisdom, and they shall defile thy brightness. They shall bring thee down to the pit, and thou 8 shalt die the deaths of them that are slain in the midst of the seas. Wilt thou yet say before him that slayeth thee, I am God? but 9 thou shalt be a man, and no God, in the hand of him that slayeth 10 thee. Thou shalt die the deaths of the uncircumcised by the hand 11 of strangers: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. Moreover 12 the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation upon the king of Tyrus, and say unto him, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Thou sealest up the sum, full of wisdom, and 13 perfect in beauty. Thou hast been in Eden the garden of God; every precious stone was thy covering, the sardius, topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of thy tabrets and of thy pipes was prepared in thee in the day that thou 14 wast created. Thou art the anointed cherub that covereth; and I have set thee so: thou wast upon the holy mountain of God; thou 15 hast walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire. Thou wast perfect in thy ways from the day that thou wast created, till 16 iniquity was found in thee. By the multitude of thy merchandise they have filled the midst of thee with violence, and thou hast sinned: therefore I will cast thee as profane out of the mountain of God: and I will destroy thee, O covering cherub, from the midst of 17 the stones of fire. Thine heart was lifted up because of thy beauty, thou hast corrupted thy wisdom by reason of thy brightness: I will cast thee to the ground, I will lay thee before kings, that they may 18 behold thee. Thou hast defiled thy sanctuaries by the multitude of thine iniquities, by the iniquity of thy traffick; therefore will I bring forth a fire from the midst of thee, it shall devour thee, and I will bring thee to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them 19 that behold thee. All they that know thee among the people shall be astonished at thee: thou shalt be a terror, and never shalt thou 20 be any more. Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 21 Son of man, set thy face against Zidon, and prophesy against it, 22 And say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Zidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of thee: and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall have executed judgments 23 in her, and shall be sanctified in her. For I will send into her pestilence, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall be judged in the midst of her by the sword upon her on every side; and 24 they shall know that I am the LORD. And there shall be no more a pricking brier unto the house of Israel, nor any grieving thorn of all that are round about them, that despised them; and they shall know that I am the Lord GOD. Thus saith the Lord GOD; When 25 I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the people among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the heathen, then shall they dwell in their land that I have given to my servant Jacob. And they shall dwell safely therein, 26 and shall build houses, and plant vineyards; yea, they shall dwell with confidence, when I have executed judgments upon all those that despise them round about them; and they shall know that I am the LORD their God.

In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of 29 the month, the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of 2 man, set thy face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt: Speak, and say, Thus saith 3 the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great dragon that lieth in the midst of his rivers, which hath said, My river is mine own, and I have made it for myself. But 4 I will put hooks in thy jaws, and I will cause the fish of thy rivers to stick unto thy scales, and I will bring thee up out of the midst of thy rivers, and all the fish of thy rivers shall stick unto thy scales. And I will leave thee thrown into the wilderness, thee and 5 all the fish of thy rivers: thou shalt fall upon the open fields; thou shalt not be brought together, nor gathered: I have given thee for meat to the beasts of the field and to the fowls of the heaven. And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am the LORD, 6 because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel. When 7 they took hold of thee by thy hand, thou didst break, and rend all their shoulder: and when they leaned upon thee, thou brakest, and madest all their loins to be at a stand. Therefore thus saith the 8 Lord GOD; Behold, I will bring a sword upon thee, and cut off man and beast out of thee. And the land of Egypt shall be desolate and 9 waste; and they shall know that I am the LORD: because he hath said, The river is mine, and I have made it. Behold, therefore I 10 am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia. No foot of man shall pass through it, 11 nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited 12 forty years. And I will make the land of Egypt desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate, and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be desolate forty years: and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them 13 through the countries. Yet thus saith the Lord GOD; At the end of forty years will I gather the Egyptians from the people whither they 14 were scattered: And I will bring again the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of 15 their habitation; and they shall be there a base kingdom. It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it exalt itself any more above the nations: for I will diminish them, that they shall no more 16 rule over the nations. And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, which bringeth their iniquity to remembrance, when they shall look after them: but they shall know that I am 17 the Lord GOD. And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word 18 of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyrus: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was peeled: yet had he no wages, nor his army, for Tyrus, for the service that 19 he had served against it: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will give the land of Egypt unto Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall take her multitude, and take her spoil, and 20 take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army. I have given him the land of Egypt for his labour wherewith he served against 21 it, because they wrought for me, saith the Lord GOD. In that day will I cause the horn of the house of Israel to bud forth, and I will give thee the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

30, 2 The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy and say, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Howl ye, Woe 3 worth the day! For the day is near, even the day of the LORD is 4 near, a cloudy day; it shall be the time of the heathen. And the sword shall come upon Egypt, and great pain shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt, and they shall take away her 5 multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down. Ethiopia, and Libya, and Lydia, and all the mingled people, and Chub, and the men of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword. Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall 6 fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are 7 desolate, and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted. And they shall know that I am the LORD, when I have 8 set a fire in Egypt, and when all her helpers shall be destroyed. In 9 that day shall messengers go forth from me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid, and great pain shall come upon them, as in the day of Egypt: for, lo, it cometh. Thus saith the Lord 10 GOD; I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon. He and his people with him, 11 the terrible of the nations, shall be brought to destroy the land: and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain. And I will make the rivers dry, and sell the land 12 into the hand of the wicked: and I will make the land waste, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I the LORD have spoken it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will also destroy the idols, and 13 I will cause their images to cease out of Noph; and there shall be no more a prince of the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt. And I will make Pathros desolate, and will 14 set fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments in No. And I will 15 pour my fury upon Sin, the strength of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No. And I will set fire in Egypt: Sin shall have 16 great pain, and No shall be rent asunder, and Noph shall have distresses daily. The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall 17 fall by the sword: and these cities shall go into captivity. At 18 Tehaphnehes also the day shall be darkened, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt: and the pomp of her strength shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity. Thus will I execute judgments in Egypt: and 19 they shall know that I am the LORD. And it came to pass in the 20 eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, 21 that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it shall not be bound up to be healed, to put a roller to bind it, to make 22 it strong to hold the sword. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong, and that which was broken; and I will cause the 23 sword to fall out of his hand. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.

 24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break Pharaoh's arms, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.
 25 But I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am the LORD, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of 26 Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt. And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them among the countries; and they shall know that I am the LORD.

31 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto 2 me, saying, Son of man, speak unto Pharaoh king of Egypt, and 3 to his multitude; Whom art thou like in thy greatness? Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a shadowing shroud, and of an high stature; and his top was among 4 the thick boughs. The waters made him great, the deep set him up on high with her rivers running round about his plants, and sent out 5 her little rivers unto all the trees of the field. Therefore his height was exalted above all the trees of the field, and his boughs were multiplied, and his branches became long because of the multitude 6 of waters, when he shot forth. All the fowls of heaven made their nests in his boughs, and under his branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young, and under his shadow dwelt all 7 great nations. Thus was he fair in his greatness, in the length of 8 his branches: for his root was by great waters. The cedars in the garden of God could not hide him: the fir trees were not like his boughs, and the chesnut trees were not like his branches; nor any 9 tree in the garden of God was like unto him in his beauty. I have made him fair by the multitude of his branches: so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied him. Therefore 10 thus saith the Lord GOD; Because thou hast lifted up thyself in height, and he hath shot up his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height; I have therefore delivered him 11 into the hand of the mighty one of the heathen; he shall surely deal with him: I have driven him out for his wickedness. And 12 strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the rivers of the land; and all the people of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him. Upon his ruin shall all the fowls of the heaven 13 remain, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches:

 To the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves 14 for their height, neither shoot up their top among the thick boughs, neither their trees stand up in their height, all that drink water: for they are all delivered unto death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day when he went down 15 to the grave I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the floods thereof, and the great waters were stayed: and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him. I made the nations to shake at the sound of 16 his fall, when I cast him down to hell with them that descend into the pit: and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, shall be comforted in the nether parts of the earth. They also went down into hell with him unto them that 17 be slain with the sword; and they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the heathen. To whom art thou 18 thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shalt thou be brought down with the trees of Eden unto the nether parts of the earth: thou shalt lie in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, 32 in the first day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, take up a lamentation for Pharaoh 2 king of Egypt, and say unto him, Thou art like a young lion of the nations, and thou art as a whale in the seas: and thou camest forth with thy rivers, and troubledst the waters with thy feet, and 3 fouledst their rivers. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will therefore spread out my net over thee with a company of many people; and 4 they shall bring thee up in my net. Then will I leave thee upon the land, I will cast thee forth upon the open field, and will cause all the fowls of the heaven to remain upon thee, and I will fill the 5 beasts of the whole earth with thee. And I will lay thy flesh upon 6 the mountains, and fill the valleys with thy height. I will also water with thy blood the land wherein thou swimmest, even to 7 the mountains; and the rivers shall be full of thee. And when I shall put thee out, I will cover the heaven, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall 8 not give her light. All the bright lights of heaven will I make dark over thee, and set darkness upon thy land, saith the Lord 9 GOD. I will also vex the hearts of many people, when I shall bring thy destruction among the nations, into the countries which 10 thou hast not known. Yea, I will make many people amazed at thee, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for thee, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every 11 moment, every man for his own life, in the day of thy fall. For thus saith the Lord GOD; The sword of the king of Babylon shall 12 come upon thee. By the swords of the mighty will I cause thy multitude to fall, the terrible of the nations, all of them: and they shall spoil the pomp of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall 13 be destroyed. I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside the great waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any 14 more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them. Then will I make their waters deep, and cause their rivers to run like oil, saith the 15 Lord GOD. When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate, and the country shall be destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that 16 I am the LORD. This is the lamentation wherewith they shall lament her: the daughters of the nations shall lament her: they shall lament for her, even for Egypt, and for all her multitude, 17 saith the Lord GOD. It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, 18 and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, unto the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit. Whom dost thou pass in beauty? go down, 19 and be thou laid with the uncircumcised. They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword: draw her and all her multitudes. The strong among the 21 mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of hell with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie uncircumcised, slain by the sword. Asshur is there and all her company: his graves are about 22 him: all of them slain, fallen by the sword: Whose graves are set in the sides of the pit, and her company is round about her grave: all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which caused terror in the land of the living. There is Elam and all her multitude round 24 about her grave, all of them slain, fallen by the sword, which are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, which caused their terror in the land of the living; yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit. They have set her 25 a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword: though their terror was caused in the land of the living, yet have they borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that be slain. There is Meshech, Tubal, 26 and all her multitude: her graves are round about him: all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword, though they caused their terror in the land of the living. And they shall not lie with the mighty 27 that are fallen of the uncircumcised, which are gone down to hell with their weapons of war: and they have laid their swords under their heads, but their iniquities shall be upon their bones, though they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living. Yea, 28 thou shalt be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shalt lie with them that are slain with the sword. There is Edom, her 29 kings, and all her princes, which with their might are laid by them that were slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit. There be the princes of 30 the north, all of them, and all the Zidonians, which are gone down with the slain; with their terror they are ashamed of their might; and they lie uncircumcised with them that be slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit. Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army slain by the sword, saith the Lord GOD. For I have caused my terror in the land of the living: and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised with them that are slain with the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, saith the Lord GOD.

33, 2 Again the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman: If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand. So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me. When I say unto the wicked, O wicked man, thou shalt surely die; if thou dost not speak to warn the wicked from his way, that wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at thine hand. Nevertheless, if thou warn the wicked of his way to turn from it; if he do not turn from his way, he shall die in his iniquity; but thou hast delivered thy soul. Therefore, O thou son of man, speak unto the house of Israel; Thus ye speak, saying, If our transgressions and our sins be upon us, and we pine away in them, how should we then live? Say unto them, As I live, saith the Lord GOD, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel? Therefore, thou son of man, say unto the children of thy people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression: as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turneth from his wickedness; neither shall the righteous be able to live for his righteousness in the day that he sinneth. When I shall say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his own righteousness, and commit iniquity, all his righteousnesses shall not be remembered; but for his iniquity that he hath committed, he shall die for it. Again, when I say unto the wicked, Thou shalt surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right; If the wicked restore the pledge, give again that he had robbed, walk in the statutes of life, without committing iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die. None of his sins that he hath committed shall be mentioned unto him: he hath done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live. Yet the children of thy people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal. When the righteous turneth from his righteousness, and committeth iniquity, he shall even die thereby. But if the wicked turn from his wickedness, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby. Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O ye house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways. And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came unto me, saying, The city is smitten. Now the hand of the LORD was upon me in the evening, afore he that was escaped came; and had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb. Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, they that inhabit those wastes of the land of Israel speak, saying, Abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance. Wherefore say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Ye eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes toward your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land? Ye stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbour's wife: and shall ye possess the land? Say thou thus unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; As I live, surely they that are in the wastes shall fall by the sword, and him that is in the open field will I give to the beasts to be devoured, and they that be in the 28 forts and in the caves shall die of the pestilence. For I will lay the land most desolate, and the pomp of her strength shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, that none shall pass 29 through. Then shall they know that I am the LORD, when I have laid the land most desolate because of all their abominations which 30 they have committed. Also, thou son of man, the children of thy people still are talking against thee by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that cometh 31 forth from the LORD. And they come unto thee as the people cometh, and they sit before thee as my people, and they hear thy words, but they will not do them: for with their mouth they shew 32 much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness. And, lo, thou art unto them as a very lovely song of one that hath a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument: for they hear 33 thy words, but they do them not. And when this cometh to pass, (lo, it will come,) then shall they know that a prophet hath been among them.

34, 2 And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD unto the shepherds; Woe be to the shepherds of Israel that do feed themselves! should not the 3 shepherds feed the flocks? Ye eat the fat, and ye clothe you with 4 the wool, ye kill them that are fed: but ye feed not the flock. The diseased have ye not strengthened, neither have ye healed that which was sick, neither have ye bound up that which was broken, neither have ye brought again that which was driven away, neither have ye sought that which was lost; but with force and with cruelty 5 have ye ruled them. And they were scattered, because there is no shepherd: and they became meat to all the beasts of the field, 6 when they were scattered. My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yea, my flock was scattered upon all the face of the earth, and none did search or seek after 7, 8 them. Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; As I live, saith the Lord GOD, surely because my flock became a prey, and my flock became meat to every beast of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my flock, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my flock; Therefore, O 9 ye shepherds, hear the word of the LORD; Thus saith the Lord 10 GOD; Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my flock at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the flock; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; for I will deliver my flock from their mouth, that they may not be meat for them. For thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I, even I, will both 11 search my sheep, and seek them out. As a shepherd seeketh out 12 his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day. And 13 I will bring them out from the people, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them to their own land, and feed them upon the mountains of Israel by the rivers, and in all the inhabited places of the country. I will feed them in a good pasture, and 14 upon the high mountains of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie in a good fold, and in a fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel. I will feed my flock, and I will cause 15 them to lie down, saith the Lord GOD. I will seek that which was 16 lost, and bring again that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but I will destroy the fat and the strong; I will feed them with judgment. And as for you, O my flock, thus saith the Lord GOD; 17 Behold, I judge between cattle and cattle, between the rams and the he goats. Seemeth it a small thing unto you to have eaten 18 up the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pastures? and to have drunk of the deep waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet? And as for my flock, 19 they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet; and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet. Therefore thus saith the 20 Lord GOD unto them; Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat cattle and between the lean cattle. Because ye have thrust 21 with side and with shoulder, and pushed all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad; Therefore will I save my 22 flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between 23 cattle and cattle. And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, 24 and he shall be their shepherd. And I the LORD will be their God, and my servant David a prince among them; I the LORD 25 have spoken it. And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause the evil beasts to cease out of the land: and they 26 shall dwell safely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods. And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall 27 be showers of blessing. And the tree of the field shall yield her fruit, and the earth shall yield her increase, and they shall be safe in their land, and shall know that I am the LORD, when I have broken the bands of their yoke, and delivered them out of the hand 28 of those that served themselves of them. And they shall no more be a prey to the heathen, neither shall the beast of the land devour them; but they shall dwell safely, and none shall make them afraid.

 29 And I will raise up for them a plant of renown, and they shall be no more consumed with hunger in the land, neither bear the shame 30 of the heathen any more. Thus shall they know that I the LORD their God am with them, and that they, even the house of Israel, 31 are my people, saith the Lord GOD. And ye my flock, the flock of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, saith the Lord GOD.
 35, 2 Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, set thy face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it, 3 And say unto it, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O mount Seir,
 I am against thee, and I will stretch out mine hand against thee, 4 and I will make thee most desolate. I will lay thy cities waste, and thou shalt be desolate, and thou shalt know that I am the 5 LORD. Because thou hast had a perpetual hatred, and hast shed the blood of the children of Israel by the force of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time that their iniquity had an end: 6 Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will prepare thee unto blood, and blood shall pursue thee: sith thou hast not hated blood, 7 even blood shall pursue thee. Thus will I make mount Seir most desolate, and cut off from it him that passeth out and him that returneth. And I will fill his mountains with his slain men: in thy 8 hills, and in thy valleys, and in all thy rivers, shall they fall that are slain with the sword. I will make thee perpetual desolations, and 9 thy cities shall not return: and ye shall know that I am the LORD.

 Because thou hast said, These two nations and these two countries 10 shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas the LORD was there: Therefore, as I live, saith the Lord GOD, I will even do according 11 to thine anger, and according to thine envy which thou hast used out of thy hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I have judged thee. And thou shalt know 12 that I am the LORD, and that I have heard all thy blasphemies which thou hast spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to consume. Thus with 13 your mouth ye have boasted against me, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard them. Thus saith the Lord GOD; 14 When the whole earth rejoiceth, I will make thee desolate. As 15 thou didst rejoice at the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so will I do unto thee: thou shalt be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Idumea, even all of it: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Also, thou son of man, prophesy unto the mountains of Israel, 36 and say, Ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the LORD: Thus 2 saith the Lord GOD; Because the enemy hath said against you, have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession unto the residue of the heathen, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and are an infamy of the people: Therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord GOD; 4 Thus saith the Lord GOD to the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes, and to the cities that are forsaken, which became a prey and derision to the residue of the heathen that are round about; Therefore thus saith 5 the Lord GOD; Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the heathen, and against all Idumea, which have appointed my land into their possession with the joy of all their

6 heart, with spiteful minds, to cast it out for a prey. Prophecy therefore concerning the land of Israel, and say unto the mountains, and to the hills, to the rivers, and to the valleys, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my 7 fury, because ye have borne the shame of the heathen: Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; I have lifted up mine hand, Surely the 8 heathen that are about you, they shall bear their shame. But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people of Israel; for they are at hand to 9 come. For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn unto you, and ye 10 shall be tilled and sown: And I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it: and the cities shall be inhabited, 11 and the wastes shall be builded: And I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and bring fruit: and I will settle you after your old estates, and will do better unto you than 12 at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am the LORD. Yea, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess thee, and thou shalt be their inheritance, and thou 13 shalt no more henceforth bereave them of men. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Because they say unto you, Thou land devourest up 14 men, and hast bereaved thy nations; Therefore thou shalt devour men no more, neither bereave thy nations any more, saith the Lord 15 GOD. Neither will I cause men to hear in thee the shame of the heathen any more, neither shalt thou bear the reproach of the people any more, neither shalt thou cause thy nations to fall any more, 16 saith the Lord GOD. Moreover the word of the LORD came unto 17 me, saying, Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their own way and by their doings:
their way was before me as the uncleanness of a removed woman.
18 Wherefore I poured my fury upon them for the blood that they had shed upon the land, and for their idols wherewith they had 19 polluted it: And I scattered them among the heathen, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and 20 according to their doings I judged them. And when they entered unto the heathen, whither they went, they profaned my holy name, when they said to them, These are the people of the LORD, and 21 are gone forth out of his land. But I had pity for mine holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the heathen, whither they went. Therefore say unto the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; I do not this for your sakes, O house of Israel, but for mine holy name's sake, which ye have profaned among the heathen, whither ye went. And I will sanctify my great name, which was profaned among the heathen, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, saith the Lord GOD, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes. For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land. Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you. A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh. And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them. And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God. I will also save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the corn, and will increase it, and lay no famine upon you. And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye shall receive no more reproach of famine among the heathen. Then shall ye remember your own evil ways, and your doings that were not good, and shall lothe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations. Not for your sakes do I this, saith the Lord GOD, be it known unto you: be ashamed and confounded for your own ways, O house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the day that I shall have cleansed you from all your iniquities I will also cause you to dwell in the cities, and the wastes shall be builded. And the desolate land shall be tilled, whereas it lay desolate in the sight of all that passed by. And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are become fenced, and are inhabited. Then the heathen that are left round about you shall know that I the LORD build the ruined places, and plant that that was desolate: I the LORD have spoken it, and I will do it. Thus saith the Lord GOD; I will yet for this be enquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them; I will increase them with men like a flock. As the holy flock, as the flock of Jerusalem in her solemn feasts; so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men: and they shall know that I am the LORD.

- 37 The hand of the LORD was upon me, and carried me out in the spirit of the LORD, and set me down in the midst of the valley which was full of bones, And caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry. And he said unto me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord GOD, thou knowest. Again he said unto me, Prophecy upon these bones, and say unto them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of the LORD. Thus saith the Lord GOD unto these bones; Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live: And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am the LORD. So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and behold a shaking, and the bones came together, bone to his bone. And when I beheld, lo, the sinews and the flesh came up upon them, and the skin covered them above: but there was no breath in them. Then said he unto me, Prophecy unto the wind, prophecy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live. So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceeding great army. Then he said unto me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried, and our hope is lost: we are cut off for our parts. Therefore prophecy and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, O my people, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, and bring you into the land of Israel. And ye shall know that I am the LORD, when I have opened your graves, O my people, and brought you up out of your graves, And shall put my spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I shall place you in your own land: then shall ye know that I the LORD have spoken it, and performed it, saith the LORD. The word of the LORD came again unto me, saying, Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions: And join them one to 17

 And when the children of thy people shall speak unto thee, saying, 18 Wilt thou not shew us what thou meanest by these? Say unto 19 them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand. And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand 20 before their eyes. And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; 21 Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land: And I will make them one nation 22 in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all: Neither 23 shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwellingplaces, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God. And David my servant shall be king over them; 24 and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them. And they shall 25 dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever. Moreover I will make 26 a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore. My tabernacle 27 also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people. And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do 28 sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Son of man, 38, 2 set thy face against Gog, the land of Magog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal, and prophesy against him, And say, Thus 3 saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief 4 prince of Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn thee back, and put hooks into thy jaws, and I will bring thee forth, and all thine army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed with all sorts of armour, even a great company with bucklers and shields, all of 5 them handling swords: Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya with them; all 6 of them with shield and helmet: Gomer, and all his bands; the house of Togarmah of the north quarters, and all his bands: and 7 many people with thee. Be thou prepared, and prepare for thyself, thou, and all thy company that are assembled unto thee, and be 8 thou a guard unto them. After many days thou shalt be visited: in the latter years thou shalt come into the land that is brought back from the sword, and is gathered out of many people, against the mountains of Israel, which have been always waste: but it is brought forth out of the nations, and they shall dwell safely all of 9 them. Thou shalt ascend and come like a storm, thou shalt be like a cloud to cover the land, thou, and all thy bands, and many people 10 with thee. Thus saith the Lord GOD; It shall also come to pass, that at the same time shall things come into thy mind, and thou 11 shalt think an evil thought: And thou shalt say, I will go up to the land of unwall'd villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither 12 bars nor gates, To take a spoil, and to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited, and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations, which have gotten 13 cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land. Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say unto thee, Art thou come to take a spoil? hast thou gathered thy company to take a prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take a great spoil?

 14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy and say unto Gog, Thus saith the Lord GOD; In that day when my people of Israel dwelleth safely, 15 shalt thou not know it? And thou shalt come from thy place out of the north parts, thou, and many people with thee, all of them 16 riding upon horses, a great company, and a mighty army: And thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me, when I shall be sanctified in thee, O Gog, before their eyes. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Art 17 thou he of whom I have spoken in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, which prophesied in those days many years that I would bring thee against them? And it shall come to pass at the 18 same time when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, saith the Lord GOD, that my fury shall come up in my face. For in my 19 jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel; So that 20 the fishes of the sea, and the fowls of the heaven, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground. And I will 21 call for a sword against him throughout all my mountains, saith the Lord GOD: every man's sword shall be against his brother.

 And I will plead against him with pestilence and with blood; and I 22 will rain upon him, and upon his bands, and upon the many people that are with him, an overflowing rain, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone. Thus will I magnify myself, and sanctify myself; 23 and I will be known in the eyes of many nations, and they shall know that I am the LORD.

Therefore, thou son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, 39 Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I am against thee, O Gog, the chief prince of Meshech and Tubal: And I will turn thee back, 2 and leave but the sixth part of thee, and will cause thee to come up from the north parts, and will bring thee upon the mountains of Israel: And I will smite thy bow out of thy left hand, and will 3 cause thine arrows to fall out of thy right hand. Thou shalt fall 4 upon the mountains of Israel, thou, and all thy bands, and the people that is with thee: I will give thee unto the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured. Thou 5 shalt fall upon the open field: for I have spoken it, saith the Lord GOD. And I will send a fire on Magog, and among them that 6 dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the 7 LORD. So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel; and I will not let them pollute my holy name any more: and the heathen shall know that I am the LORD, the Holy 8 One in Israel. Behold, it is come, and it is done, saith the Lord

9 GOD; this is the day whereof I have spoken. And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall set on fire and burn the weapons, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall burn
10 them with fire seven years: So that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall burn the weapons with fire: and they shall spoil those that spoiled 11 them, and rob those that robbed them, saith the Lord GOD. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give unto Gog a place there of graves in Israel, the valley of the passengers on the east of the sea: and it shall stop the noses of the passengers: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude: and they shall call it 12 The valley of Hamongog. And seven months shall the house of 13 Israel be burying of them, that they may cleanse the land. Yea, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown the day that I shall be glorified, saith the Lord GOD.
14 And they shall sever out men of continual employment, passing through the land to bury with the passengers those that remain upon the face of the earth, to cleanse it: after the end of seven 15 months shall they search. And the passengers that pass through the land, when any seeth a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamongog.
16 And also the name of the city shall be Hamonah. Thus shall they 17 cleanse the land. And, thou son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; Speak unto every feathered fowl, and to every beast of the field, Assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh, and drink blood.
18 Ye shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, 19 all of them fatlings of Bashan. And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you. Thus ye shall be filled at my table with horses 20 and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, saith the Lord GOD. And I will set my glory among the heathen, and all the 21 heathen shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them. So the house of Israel shall know that 22 I am the LORD their God from that day and forward. And the 23 heathen shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity: because they trespassed against me, therefore hid I my face from them, and gave them into the hand of their enemies: so fell they all by the sword. According to their uncleanness and 24 according to their transgressions have I done unto them, and hid my face from them. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will 25

I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name; After that 26 they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid. When I have brought them again 27 from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations; Then shall 28 they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there. Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured 29 out my spirit upon the house of Israel, saith the Lord GOD.

In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning 40 of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day the hand of the LORD was upon me, and brought me thither. In the visions 2 of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me upon a very high mountain, by which was as the frame of a city on the south. And he brought me thither, and, behold, there was a man, 3 whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate. And the man said unto me, Son of man, behold with thine 4 eyes, and hear with thine ears, and set thine heart upon all that I shall shew thee; for to the intent that I might shew them unto thee art thou brought hither: declare all that thou seest to the house

5 of Israel. And behold a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed of six cubits long by the cubit and an hand breadth: so he measured the breadth 6 of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed. Then came he unto the gate which looketh toward the east, and went up the stairs thereof, and measured the threshold of the gate, which was one reed broad; and the other threshold of the gate, which was one 7 reed broad. And every little chamber was one reed long, and one reed broad; and between the little chambers were five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate within was one 8 reed. He measured also the porch of the gate within, one reed.
 9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was inward.
 10 And the little chambers of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and 11 the posts had one measure on this side and on that side. And he measured the breadth of the entry of the gate, ten cubits; and 12 the length of the gate, thirteen cubits. The space also before the little chambers was one cubit on this side, and the space was one cubit on that side: and the little chambers were six cubits 13 on this side, and six cubits on that side. He measured then the gate from the roof of one little chamber to the roof of another: 14 the breadth was five and twenty cubits, door against door. He made also posts of threescore cubits, even unto the post of the 15 court round about the gate. And from the face of the gate of the entrance unto the face of the porch of the inner gate were fifty 16 cubits. And there were narrow windows to the little chambers, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches: and windows were round about inward: and upon each 17 post were palm trees. Then brought he me into the outward court, and, lo, there were chambers, and a pavement made for the court 18 round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement. And the pavement by the side of the gates over against the length of the 19 gates was the lower pavement. Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate unto the forefront of the inner 20 court without, an hundred cubits eastward and northward. And the gate of the outward court that looked toward the north, he measured the length thereof, and the breadth thereof. And the little chambers thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And their windows, and their arches, and their palm trees, were after the measure of the gate that looketh toward the east; and they went up unto it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them. And the gate of the inner court was over against the gate toward the north, and toward the east; and he measured from gate to gate an hundred cubits. After that he brought me toward the south, and behold a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures. And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits. And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them: and it had palm trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof. And there was a gate in the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south an hundred cubits. And he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures; And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. And the arches round about were five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad. And the arches thereof were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts thereof: and the going up to it had eight steps. And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures. And the little chambers thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, were according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about: it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad. were toward the utter court; and palm trees were upon the posts 38 eight steps. And the chambers and the entries thereof were by the 39 posts of the gates, where they washed the burnt offering. And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay thereon the burnt offering and the sin offering 40 and the trespass offering. And at the side without, as one goeth up to the entry of the north gate, were two tables; and on the other side, which was at the porch of the gate, were two tables.

 41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew their sacrifices.
 42 And the four tables were of hewn stone for the burnt offering, of a cubit and an half long, and a cubit and an half broad, and one cubit high: whereupon also they laid the instruments wherewith 43 they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice. And within were hooks, an hand broad, fastened round about: and upon the tables 44 was the flesh of the offering. And without the inner gate were the chambers of the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south: one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.
 45 And he said unto me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house.
 46 And the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok among the sons of Levi, which come near to the LORD to 47 minister unto him. So he measured the court, an hundred cubits long, and an hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar that 48 was before the house. And he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was 49 three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side. The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; and he brought me by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.

Afterward he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, 41 six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle. And the breadth 2 of the door was ten cubits; and the sides of the door were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits: and the breadth, twenty cubits. Then went he inward, and measured the post of the door, 3 two cubits; and the door, six cubits; and the breadth of the door, seven cubits. So he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits; 4 and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said unto me, This is the most holy place. After he measured the wall 5 of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side. And the side 6 chambers were three, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which was of the house for the side chambers round about, that they might have hold, but they had not hold in the wall of the house. And there was an enlarging, 7 and a winding about still upward to the side chambers: for the winding about of the house went still upward round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house was still upward, and so increased from the lowest chamber to the highest by the midst.
 I saw also the height of the house round about: the foundations 8 of the side chambers were a full reed of six great cubits. The 9 thickness of the wall, which was for the side chamber without, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side chambers that were within. And between the chambers was the 10 wideness of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.
 And the doors of the side chambers were toward the place that was 11 left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about. Now the building that was before the separate place at the 12 end toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof 13 ninety cubits. So he measured the house, an hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, an 14 hundred cubits long; Also the breadth of the face of the house, and 15 of the separate place toward the east, an hundred cubits. And he measured the length of the building over against the separate place which was behind it, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, an hundred cubits, with the inner temple, and 16 the porches of the court; The door posts, and the narrow windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the door, cieled with wood round about, and from the ground up 17 to the windows, and the windows were covered; To that above the door, even unto the inner house, and without, and by all the wall 18 round about within and without, by measure. And it was made with cherubims and palm trees, so that a palm tree was between a 19 cherub and a cherub; and every cherub had two faces; So that the face of a man was toward the palm tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm tree on the other side: it was 20 made through all the house round about. From the ground unto above the door were cherubims and palm trees made, and on the 21 wall of the temple. The posts of the temple were squared, and the face of the sanctuary; the appearance of the one as the appearance 22 of the other. The altar of wood was three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said unto 23 me, This is the table that is before the LORD. And the temple 24 and the sanctuary had two doors. And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves; two leaves for the one door, and two 25 leaves for the other door. And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubims and palm trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there were thick planks upon the face of the 26 porch without. And there were narrow windows and palm trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch, and upon the side chambers of the house, and thick planks.

 42 Then he brought me forth into the utter court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was before the building toward the north. Before the length of an hundred cubits was the north 2 door, and the breadth was fifty cubits. Over against the twenty 3 cubits which were for the inner court, and over against the pavement which was for the utter court, was gallery against gallery in three stories. And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits 4 breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors toward the north. Now the upper chambers were shorter: for the galleries 5 were higher than these, than the lower, and than the middlemost of the building. For they were in three stories, but had not pillars 6 as the pillars of the courts: therefore the building was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground. And 7 the wall that was without over against the chambers, toward the utter court on the forepart of the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits. For the length of the chambers that were in the utter 8 court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were an hundred cubits. And from under these chambers was the entry on the east 9 side, as one goeth into them from the utter court. The chambers 10 were in the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, over against the separate place, and over against the building. And the 11 way before them was like the appearance of the chambers which were toward the north, as long as they, and as broad as they:

 and all their goings out were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors. And according to the doors of the cham- 12 bers that were toward the south was a door in the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enter-eth into them. Then said he unto me, The north chambers 13 and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they be holy chambers, where the priests that approach unto the LORD shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meat offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy. When the priests enter therein, 14 then shall they not go out of the holy place into the utter court, but there they shall lay their garments wherein they minister; for they are holy; and shall put on other garments, and shall approach to those things which are for the people. Now when he had made 15 an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth toward the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round 16 about. He measured the east side with the measuring reed, five 17 hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about. He mea-18 sured the north side, five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed 19 round about. He measured the south side, five hundred reeds, 20 with the measuring reed. He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed. He measured it by the four sides: it had a wall round about, five hundred reeds long, and five hundred broad, to make a separation between the sanctuary and the profane place.

43 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looketh 2 toward the east: And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like a noise of many 3 waters: and the earth shined with his glory. And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city: and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon 4 my face. And the glory of the LORD came into the house by the 5 way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east. So the spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the 6 glory of the LORD filled the house. And I heard him speaking 7 unto me out of the house; and the man stood by me. And he said unto me, Son of man, the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever, and my holy name, shall the house of Israel no more defile, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, nor 8 by the carcasses of their kings in their high places. In their setting of their threshold by my thresholds, and their post by my posts, and the wall between me and them, they have even defiled my holy name by their abominations that they have committed: wherefore 9 I have consumed them in mine anger. Now let them put away their whoredom, and the carcasses of their kings, far from me, and 10 I will dwell in the midst of them for ever. Thou son of man, shew the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of 11 their iniquities: and let them measure the pattern. And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, shew them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the goings out thereof, and the comings in thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof: and write it in their sight, that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them. This is the law of the house; Upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house. And these are the measures of the altar after the cubits: The cubit is a cubit and an hand breadth; even the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about shall be a span: and this shall be the higher place of the altar. And from the bottom upon the ground even to the lower settle shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser settle even to the greater settle shall be four cubits, and the breadth one cubit. So the altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar and upward shall be four horns. And the altar shall be twelve cubits long, twelve broad, square in the four squares thereof. And the settle shall be fourteen cubits long and fourteen broad in the four squares thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit about; and his stairs shall look toward the east. And he said unto me, Son of man, thus saith the Lord GOD; These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings thereon, and to sprinkle blood thereon. And thou shalt give to the priests the Levites that be of the seed of Zadok, which approach unto me, to minister unto me, saith the Lord GOD, a young bullock for a sin offering. And thou shalt take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the settle, and upon the border round about: thus shalt thou cleanse and purge it. Thou shalt take the bullock also of the sin offering, and he shall burn it in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary. And on the second day thou shalt offer a kid of the goats without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock. When thou hast made an end of cleansing it, thou shalt offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish. And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for 25 a burnt offering unto the LORD. Seven days shalt thou prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young 26 bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish. Seven days shall they purge the altar and purify it; and they shall consecrate 27 themselves. And when these days are expired, it shall be, that upon the eighth day, and so forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, saith the Lord GOD.

44 Then he brought me back the way of the gate of the outward 2 sanctuary which looketh toward the east; and it was shut. Then said the LORD unto me; This gate shall be shut, it shall not be opened, and no man shall enter in by it; because the LORD, the 3 God of Israel, hath entered in by it, therefore it shall be shut. It is for the prince; the prince, he shall sit in it to eat bread before the LORD; he shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate, 4 and shall go out by the way of the same. Then brought he me the way of the north gate before the house: and I looked, and, behold, the glory of the LORD filled the house of the LORD: and 5 I fell upon my face. And the LORD said unto me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with thine eyes, and hear with thine ears all that I say unto thee concerning all the ordinances of the house of the LORD, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entering 6 in of the house, with every going forth of the sanctuary. And thou shalt say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus saith the Lord GOD; O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all 7 your abominations, In that ye have brought into my sanctuary strangers, uncircumcised in heart, and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to pollute it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant 8 because of all your abominations. And ye have not kept the charge of mine holy things: but ye have set keepers of my charge in my 9 sanctuary for yourselves. Thus saith the Lord GOD; No stranger, uncircumcised in heart, nor uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any stranger that is among the children of Israel.
 10 And the Levites that are gone away far from me, when Israel went astray, which went astray away from me after their idols; they shall even bear their iniquity. Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having charge at the gates of the house, and ministering to the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister unto them. Because they ministered unto them before their idols, and caused the house of Israel to fall into iniquity; therefore have I lifted up mine hand against them, saith the Lord GOD, and they shall bear their iniquity. And they shall not come near unto me, to do the office of a priest unto me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, in the most holy place: but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed. But I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein. But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister unto me, and they shall stand before me to offer unto me the fat and the blood, saith the Lord GOD: They shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister unto me, and they shall keep my charge. And it shall come to pass, that when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, whiles they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within. They shall have linen bonnets upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with any thing that causeth sweat. And when they go forth into the utter court, even into the utter court to the people, they shall put off their garments wherein they ministered, and lay them in the holy chambers, and they shall put on other garments; and they shall not sanctify the people with their garments. Neither shall they shave their heads, nor suffer their locks to grow long; they shall only poll their heads. Neither shall any priest drink wine, when they enter into the inner court. Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away: but they shall take maidens of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that had a priest before. And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and 26 sister that hath had no husband, they may defile themselves. And

27 after he is cleansed, they shall reckon unto him seven days. And in the day that he goeth into the sanctuary, unto the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, saith the 30 in Israel shall be theirs. And the first of all the firstfruits of all things, and every oblation of all, of every sort of your oblations, shall be the priest's: ye shall also give unto the priest the first of your dough, that he may cause the blessing to rest in thine house.

31 The priests shall not eat of any thing that is dead of itself, or torn, whether it be fowl or beast.

45 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation unto the LORD, an holy portion of the land: the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand. This shall be holy

4 shall be the sanctuary and the most holy place. The holy portion of the land shall be for the priests the ministers of the sanctuary, which shall come near to minister unto the LORD: and it shall be

5 a place for their houses, and an holy place for the sanctuary. And the five and twenty thousand of length, and the ten thousand of breadth, shall also the Levites, the ministers of the house, have for

6 themselves, for a possession for twenty chambers. And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, over against the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel. And a portion shall be 7 for the prince on the one side and on the other side of the oblation of the holy portion, and of the possession of the city, before the oblation of the holy portion, and before the possession of the city, from the west side westward, and from the east side eastward: and the length shall be over against one of the portions, from the west 8 border unto the east border. In the land shall be his possession 8 in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; and the rest of the land shall they give to the house of Israel according to their tribes. Thus saith the Lord GOD; Let it suffice you, O 9 princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute judgment and justice, take away your exactions from my people, saith the Lord GOD. Ye shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a 10 just bath. The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that 11 the bath may contain the tenth part of an homer, and the ephah the tenth part of an homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer. And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs: twenty shekels, 12 five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh. This 13 is the oblation that ye shall offer; the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of wheat, and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah of an homer of barley: Concerning the ordinance of oil, the bath of oil, 14 ye shall offer the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is an homer of ten baths; for ten baths are an homer: And one lamb out 15 of the flock, out of two hundred, out of the fat pastures of Israel; for a meat offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make reconciliation for them, saith the Lord GOD. All the people 16 of the land shall give this oblation for the prince in Israel. And it 17 shall be the prince's part to give burnt offerings, and meat offerings, and drink offerings, in the feasts, and in the new moons, and in the sabbaths, in all solemnities of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meat offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make reconciliation for the house of Israel. Thus saith the Lord GOD; In the first month, in the first day of 18 the month, thou shalt take a young bullock without blemish, and cleanse the sanctuary: And the priest shall take of the blood of 19 the sin offering, and put it upon the posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the settle of the altar, and upon the posts of 20 the gate of the inner court. And so thou shalt do the seventh day of the month for every one that erreth, and for him that is 21 simple: so shall ye reconcile the house. In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast 22 of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten. And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of 23 the land a bullock for a sin offering. And seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to the LORD, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a kid of the 24 goats daily for a sin offering. And he shall prepare a meat offering of an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and an hin of 25 oil for an ephah. In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, shall he do the like in the feast of the seven days, according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meat offering, and according to the oil.

46 Thus saith the Lord GOD; The gate of the inner court that looketh toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath it shall be opened, and in the day of the new moon 2 it shall be opened. And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of that gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate, and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
3 Likewise the people of the land shall worship at the door of this 4 gate before the LORD in the sabbaths and in the new moons. And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer unto the LORD in the sabbath day shall be six lambs without blemish, and a ram without 5 blemish. And the meat offering shall be an ephah for a ram, and the meat offering for the lambs as he shall be able to give, and an 6 hin of oil to an ephah. And in the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram: they 7 shall be without blemish. And he shall prepare a meat offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs according as his hand shall attain unto, and an hin of oil to an 8 ephah. And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of that gate, and he shall go forth by the way 9 thereof. But when the people of the land shall come before the LORD in the solemn feasts, he that entereth in by the way of the north gate to worship shall go out by the way of the south gate; and he that entereth by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth over against it. And the prince in the midst of them, when they go in, shall go in; 10 and when they go forth, shall go forth. And in the feasts and in 11 the solemnities the meat offering shall be an ephah to a bullock, and an ephah to a ram, and to the lambs as he is able to give, and an hin of oil to an ephah. Now when the prince shall prepare 12 a voluntary burnt offering or peace offerings voluntarily unto the LORD, one shall then open him the gate that looketh toward the east, and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he did on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate. Thou shalt daily prepare a 13 burnt offering unto the LORD of a lamb of the first year without blemish: thou shalt prepare it every morning. And thou shalt 14 prepare a meat offering for it every morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of an hin of oil, to temper with the fine flour; a meat offering continually by a perpetual ordinance unto the LORD. Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meat 15 offering, and the oil, every morning for a continual burnt offering. Thus saith the Lord GOD; If the prince give a gift unto any of 16 his sons, the inheritance thereof shall be his sons'; it shall be their possession by inheritance. But if he give a gift of his inheritance 17 to one of his servants, then it shall be his to the year of liberty; after it shall return to the prince: but his inheritance shall be his sons' for them. Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's 18 inheritance by oppression, to thrust them out of their possession; but he shall give his sons inheritance out of his own possession: that my people be not scattered every man from his possession. After he brought me through the entry, which was at the side 19 of the gate, into the holy chambers of the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the two sides westward. Then said he unto me, This is the place where the 20 priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, where they shall bake the meat offering; that they bear them not out into the utter court, to sanctify the people. Then he brought me forth 21 into the utter court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a 22 court. In the four corners of the court there were courts joined of forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four corners were of 23 one measure. And there was a row of building round about in them, round about them four, and it was made with boiling places 24 under the rows round about. Then said he unto me, These are the places of them that boil, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.

47 Afterward he brought me again unto the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward: for the forefront of the house stood toward the east, and the waters came down from under from the right side of the house, 2 at the south side of the altar. Then brought he me out of the way of the gate northward, and led me about the way without unto the utter gate by the way that looketh eastward; and, behold, there ran 3 out waters on the right side. And when the man that had the line in his hand went forth eastward, he measured a thousand cubits, and he brought me through the waters; the waters were to the 4 ankles. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through the waters; the waters were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and brought me through; the waters were to the loins.
 5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass over: for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river 6 that could not be passed over. And he said unto me, Son of man, hast thou seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return 7 to the brink of the river. Now when I had returned, behold, at the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on 8 the other. Then said he unto me, These waters issue out toward the east country, and go down into the desert, and go into the sea: which being brought forth into the sea, the waters shall be 9 healed. And it shall come to pass, that every thing that liveth, which moveth, whithersoever the rivers shall come, shall live: and there shall be a very great multitude of fish, because these waters shall come thither: for they shall be healed; and every thing shall fishers shall stand upon it from Engedi even unto Eneglaim; they shall be a place to spread forth nets; their fish shall be according to their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceeding many. But the 11 miry places thereof and the marishes thereof shall not be healed; they shall be given to salt. And by the river upon the bank thereof, 12 on this side and on that side, shall grow all trees for meat, whose leaf shall not fade, neither shall the fruit thereof be consumed: it shall bring forth new fruit according to his months, because their be for meat, and the leaf thereof for medicine. Thus saith the 13 Lord GOD; This shall be the border, whereby ye shall inherit the land according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions. And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another: 14 concerning the which I lifted up mine hand to give it unto your fathers: and this land shall fall unto you for inheritance. And 15 this shall be the border of the land toward the north side, from the great sea, the way of Hethlon, as men go to Zedad; Hamath, 16 Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazarhatticon, which is by the coast of Hauran. And the border from the sea shall be Hazarenan, the 17 border of Damascus, and the north northward, and the border of Hamath. And this is the north side. And the east side ye shall 18 measure from Hauran, and from Damascus, and from Gilead, and from the land of Israel by Jordan, from the border unto the east sea. And this is the east side. And the south side southward, 19 from Tamar even to the waters of strife in Kadesh, the river to the great sea. And this is the south side southward. The west side 20 also shall be the great sea from the border, till a man come over against Hamath. This is the west side. So shall ye divide this 21 land unto you according to the tribes of Israel. And it shall come 22 to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance unto you, and to the strangers that sojourn among you, which shall beget children among you: and they shall be unto you as born in the 48 Now these are the names of the tribes. From the north end to the coast of the way of Hethlon, as one goeth to Hamath, Hazarenan, the border of Damascus northward, to the coast of Hamath; 2 for these are his sides east and west; a portion for Dan. And by the border of Dan, from the east side unto the west side, a portion 3 for Asher. And by the border of Asher, from the east side even 4 unto the west side, a portion for Naphtali. And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side unto the west side, a portion for 5 Manasseh. And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side 6 unto the west side, a portion for Ephraim. And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even unto the west side, a portion for 7 Reuben. And by the border of Reuben, from the east side unto 8 the west side, a portion for Judah. And by the border of Judah, from the east side unto the west side, shall be the offering which ye shall offer of five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the other parts, from the east side unto the west 9 side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it. The oblation that ye shall offer unto the LORD shall be of five and twenty thou-10 sand in length, and of ten thousand in breadth. And for them, even for the priests, shall be this holy oblation; toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the 11 sanctuary of the LORD shall be in the midst thereof. It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok; which have kept my charge, which went not astray when the children of Israel 12 went astray, as the Levites went astray. And this oblation of the land that is offered shall be unto them a thing most holy by the 13 border of the Levites. And over against the border of the priests the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thou-14 sand, and the breadth ten thousand. And they shall not sell of it, neither exchange, nor alienate the firstfruits of the land: for it is holy unto the LORD. And the five thousand, that are left in 15 the breadth over against the five and twenty thousand, shall be a profane place for the city, for dwelling, and for suburbs: and the city shall be in the midst thereof. And these shall be the 16 measures thereof; the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred. And the suburbs of the city shall be 17 toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty. And the residue in length 18 over against the oblation of the holy portion shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward: and it shall be over against the oblation of the holy portion; and the increase thereof shall be for food unto them that serve the city. And they that serve the 19 city shall serve it out of all the tribes of Israel. All the oblation 20 shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation foursquare, with the possession of the city. And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and 21 on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, over against the portions for the prince: and it shall be the holy oblation; and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof. Moreover from the possession 22 of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, shall be for the prince. As for the 23 rest of the tribes, from the east side unto the west side, Benjamin shall have a portion. And by the border of Benjamin, from the 24 east side unto the west side, Simeon shall have a portion. And 25 by the border of Simeon, from the east side unto the west side, Issachar a portion. And by the border of Issachar, from the east 26 side unto the west side, Zebulun a portion. And by the border 27 of Zebulun, from the east side unto the west side, Gad a portion.

 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border 28 shall be even from Tamar unto the waters of strife in Kadesh, and to the river toward the great sea. This is the land which ye shall 29 divide by lot unto the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these 30 are their portions, saith the Lord GOD. And these are the goings out of the city on the north side, four thousand and five hundred 31 measures. And the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel: three gates northward; one gate of Reuben, one 32 gate of Judah, one gate of Levi. And at the east side four thousand and five hundred: and three gates; and one gate of Joseph, 33 one gate of Benjamin, one gate of Dan. And at the south side four thousand and five hundred measures: and three gates; one 34 gate of Simeon, one gate of Issachar, one gate of Zebulun. At the west side four thousand and five hundred, with their three gates; 35 one gate of Gad, one gate of Asher, one gate of Naphtali. It was round about eighteen thousand measures: and the name of the city from that day shall be, The LORD is there.

THE BOOK OF DANIEL.

1 n the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah 2 came Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon unto Jerusalem, 3 and besieged it. And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of 4 Judah into his hand, with part of the vessels of the house 5 of God: which he carried into the land of Shinar to the house of his 6 god; and he brought the vessels into the treasure house of his god.
7 And the king spake unto Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that 8 he should bring certain of the children of Israel, and of the king's 9 seed, and of the princes; Children in whom was no blemish, but 10 well favoured, and skilful in all wisdom, and cunning in knowledge, 11 and understanding science, and such as had ability in them to stand 12 in the king's palace, and whom they might teach the learning and 13 the tongue of the Chaldeans. And the king appointed them a 14 daily provision of the king's meat, and of the wine which he drank: 15 so nourishing them three years, that at the end thereof they might 16 stand before the king. Now among these were of the children 17 of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: Unto whom 18 the prince of the eunuchs gave names: for he gave unto Daniel 19 the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, of Shadrach; and to 20 Mishael, of Meshach; and to Azariah, of Abednego. But Daniel 21 purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the 22 portion of the king's meat, nor with the wine which he drank: 23 therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might 24 not defile himself. Now God had brought Daniel into favour and 25 tender love with the prince of the eunuchs. And the prince of 26 the eunuchs said unto Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who hath 27 appointed your meat and your drink: for why should he see your 28 faces worse liking than the children which are of your sort? then 29 shall ye make me endanger my head to the king. Then said Daniel to Melzar, whom the prince of the eunuchs had set over Daniel, 12 Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, Prove thy servants, I beseech thee, ten days; and let them give us pulse to eat, and water to 13 drink. Then let our countenances be looked upon before thee, and the countenance of the children that eat of the portion of 14 the king's meat: and as thou seest, deal with thy servants. So he consented to them in this matter, and proved them ten days.

 15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer and fatter in flesh than all the children which did eat the portion of the 16 king's meat. Thus Melzar took away the portion of their meat, 17 and the wine that they should drink; and gave them pulse. As for these four children, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions 18 and dreams. Now at the end of the days that the king had said he should bring them in, then the prince of the eunuchs brought 19 them in before Nebuchadnezzar. And the king communed with them; and among them all was found none like Daniel, Hananiah, 20 Mishael, and Azariah: therefore stood they before the king. And in all matters of wisdom and understanding, that the king enquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and 21 astrologers that were in all his realm. And Daniel continued even unto the first year of king Cyrus.

2 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams, wherewith his spirit was troubled, 2 and his sleep brake from him. Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the astrologers, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, for to shew the king his dreams. So they came 3 and stood before the king. And the king said unto them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit was troubled to know the dream.
 4 Then spake the Chaldeans to the king in Syriack, O king, live for ever: tell thy servants the dream, and we will shew the interpre-5 tation. The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye will not make known unto me the dream, with the interpretation thereof, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your 6 houses shall be made a dunghill. But if ye shew the dream, and the interpretation thereof, ye shall receive of me gifts and rewards and great honour: therefore shew me the dream, and the interpretation thereof. They answered again and said, Let the king tell 7 his servants the dream, and we will shew the interpretation of it. The king answered and said, I know of certainty that ye would gain 8 the time, because ye see the thing is gone from me. But if ye will 9 not make known unto me the dream, there is but one decree for you: for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream, and I shall know that ye can shew me the interpretation thereof. The 10 Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can shew the king's matter: therefore there is no king, lord, nor ruler, that asked such things at any magician, or astrologer, or Chaldean. And it is a rare thing that the king 11 requireth, and there is none other that can shew it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh. For this cause 12 the king was angry and very furious, and commanded to destroy all the wise men of Babylon. And the decree went forth that the 13 wise men should be slain; and they sought Daniel and his fellows to be slain. Then Daniel answered with counsel and wisdom to 14 Arioch the captain of the king's guard, which was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon: He answered and said to Arioch 15 the king's captain, Why is the decree so hasty from the king? Then Arioch made the thing known to Daniel. Then Daniel went 16 in, and desired of the king that he would give him time, and that he would shew the king the interpretation. Then Daniel went to 17 his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah, his companions: That they would desire mercies of the 18 God of heaven concerning this secret; that Daniel and his fellows should not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon. Then 19 was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven. Daniel answered and said, Blessed be 20 the name of God for ever and ever: for wisdom and might are his: And he changeth the times and the seasons: he removeth kings, 21 and setteth up kings: he giveth wisdom unto the wise, and knowledge to them that know understanding: He revealeth the deep and 22 secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light 23 dwelleth with him. I thank thee, and praise thee, O thou God of my fathers, who hast given me wisdom and might, and hast made known unto me now what we desired of thee: for thou hast now 24 made known unto us the king's matter. Therefore Daniel went in unto Arioch, whom the king had ordained to destroy the wise men of Babylon: he went and said thus unto him; Destroy not the wise men of Babylon: bring me in before the king, and I will shew 25 unto the king the interpretation. Then Arioch brought in Daniel before the king in haste, and said thus unto him, I have found a man of the captives of Judah, that will make known unto the king 26 the interpretation. The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, Art thou able to make known unto me the 27 dream which I have seen, and the interpretation thereof? Daniel answered in the presence of the king, and said, The secret which the king hath demanded cannot the wise men, the astrologers, 28 the magicians, the soothsayers, shew unto the king; But there is a God in heaven that revealeth secrets, and maketh known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Thy 29 dream, and the visions of thy head upon thy bed, are these; As for thee, O king, thy thoughts came into thy mind upon thy bed, what should come to pass hereafter: and he that revealeth se-30 crets maketh known to thee what shall come to pass. But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than any living, but for their sakes that shall make known the interpretation to the king, and that thou mightest know the 31 thoughts of thy heart. Thou, O king, sawest, and behold a great image. This great image, whose brightness was excellent, stood 32 before thee; and the form thereof was terrible. This image's head was of fine gold, his breast and his arms of silver, his belly and his 33 thighs of brass, His legs of iron, his feet part of iron and part of 34 clay. Thou sawest till that a stone was cut out without hands, which smote the image upon his feet that were of iron and clay, 35 and brake them to pieces. Then was the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, broken to pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshingfloors; and the wind carried them away, that no place was found for them: and the stone that smote the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth. This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king. Thou, O king, art a king of kings: for the God of heaven hath given thee a kingdom, power, and strength, and glory. And wheresoever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the fowls of the heaven hath he given into thine hand, and hath made thee ruler over them all. Thou art this head of gold. And after thee shall arise another kingdom inferior to thee, and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth. And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron: forasmuch as iron breaketh in pieces and subdueth all things: and as iron that breaketh all these, shall it break in pieces and bruise. And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom, which shall never be destroyed: and the kingdom shall not be left to other people, but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever. Forasmuch as thou sawest that the stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it brake in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God hath made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure. Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odours unto him. The king answered unto Daniel, and said, Of a truth it is, that your God is a God of gods, and a Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing thou couldest reveal this secret. Then the king made Daniel a great man, and gave him many great gifts, and made him ruler over the whole province of Babylon, and chief of the governors over 49 all the wise men of Babylon. Then Daniel requested of the king, and he set Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel sat in the gate of the king.

3 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was threescore cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set 2 it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the princes, the governors, and the captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had 3 set up. Then the princes, the governors, and captains, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together unto the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood 4 before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up. Then an herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O people, nations, and 5 languages, That at what time ye hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar 6 the king hath set up: And whoso falleth not down and worshippeth shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery 7 furnace. Therefore at that time, when all the people heard the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and all kinds of musick, all the people, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king 8 had set up. Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near,
 9 and accused the Jews. They spake and said to the king Nebuchad-10 nezzar, O king, live for ever. Thou, O king, hast made a decree, that every man that shall hear the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, shall fall 11 down and worship the golden image: And whoso falleth not down and worshipping, that he should be cast into the midst of a burn-12 ing fiery furnace. There are certain Jews whom thou hast set over the affairs of the province of Babylon, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego; these men, O king, have not regarded thee: they serve not thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded 13 to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. Then they brought these men before the king. Nebuchadnezzar spake and said unto 14 them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, do not ye serve my gods, nor worship the golden image which I have set up? Now if ye be ready that at what time ye hear the sound 15 of the cornet, flute, harp, sackbut, psaltery, and dulcimer, and all kinds of musick, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made; well: but if ye worship not, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that God that shall deliver you out of my hands? Shadrach, Meshach, and 16 Abednego, answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we are not careful to answer thee in this matter. If it be so, our 17 God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace, and he will deliver us out of thine hand, O king. But 18 if not, be it known unto thee, O king, that we will not serve thy gods, nor worship the golden image which thou hast set up. Then 19 was Nebuchadnezzar full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego: therefore he spake, and commanded that they should heat the furnace one seven times more than it was wont to be heated. And he commanded 20 the most mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace. Then these men were bound in their coats, their ho- 21 sen, and their hats, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Therefore because the 22 king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceeding hot, the flame of the fire slew those men that took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego. And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, 23 and Abednego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace. Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose 24 up in haste, and spake, and said unto his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said unto the king, True, O king. He answered and said, Lo, 25 I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they

26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace, and spake, and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, ye servants of the most high God, come forth, and come hither. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, came forth of the midst

27 of the fire. And the princes, governors, and captains, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, upon whose bodies the fire had no power, nor was an hair of their head singed, neither were their coats changed, nor the smell of fire had

28 passed on them. Then Nebuchadnezzar spake, and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, who hath sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and yielded their bodies, that they might

Therefore I make a decree, That every people, nation, and language, which speak any thing amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill: because there is no other God that can deliver after this 4 Nebuchadnezzar the king, unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you.

2 I thought it good to shew the signs and wonders that the high

3 God hath wrought toward me. How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom,

4 and his dominion is from generation to generation. I Nebuchadnezzar was at rest in mine house, and flourishing in my palace: I saw a dream which made me afraid, and the thoughts upon my

5 bed and the visions of my head troubled me. Therefore made I a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known unto me the interpretation of the dream.

7 Then came in the magicians, the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers: and I told the dream before them; but they did

8 not make known unto me the interpretation thereof. But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name was Belteshazzar, according to the name of my god, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and before him I told the dream, saying, O Beltes- 9 hazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in thee, and no secret troubleth thee, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof. Thus were the visions of mine head in my bed; I saw, 10 and behold a tree in the midst of the earth, and the height thereof was great. The tree grew, and was strong, and the height thereof 11 reached unto heaven, and the sight thereof to the end of all the earth: The leaves thereof were fair, and the fruit thereof much, 12 and in it was meat for all: the beasts of the field had shadow under it, and the fowls of the heaven dwelt in the boughs thereof, and all flesh was fed of it. I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, 13 and, behold, a watcher and an holy one came down from heaven; He cried aloud, and said thus, Hew down the tree, and cut off his 14 branches, shake off his leaves, and scatter his fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the fowls from his branches: Never- 15 theless leave the stump of his roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth: Let his heart be changed from man's, 16 and let a beast's heart be given unto him; and let seven times pass over him. This matter is by the decree of the watchers, and the 17 demand by the word of the holy ones: to the intent that the living may know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will, and setteth up over it the basest of men. This dream I king Nebuchadnezzar have seen. Now thou, 18 O Belteshazzar, declare the interpretation thereof, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known unto me the interpretation: but thou art able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in thee. Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was 19 astonied for one hour, and his thoughts troubled him. The king spake, and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation thereof, trouble thee. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, the dream be to them that hate thee, and the interpretation thereof to thine enemies. The tree that thou sawest, which grew, 20 and was strong, whose height reached unto the heaven, and the sight thereof to all the earth; Whose leaves were fair, and the 21 fruit thereof much, and in it was meat for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the fowls of the 22 heaven had their habitation: It is thou, O king, that art grown and become strong: for thy greatness is grown, and reacheth unto 23 heaven, and thy dominion to the end of the earth. And whereas the king saw a watcher and an holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Hew the tree down, and destroy it; yet leave the stump of the roots thereof in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven, and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven 24 times pass over him; This is the interpretation, O king, and this is the decree of the most High, which is come upon my lord the 25 king: That they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and they shall wet thee with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over thee, till thou know that the most High ruleth in the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever 26 he will. And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the tree roots; thy kingdom shall be sure unto thee, after that thou 27 shalt have known that the heavens do rule. Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable unto thee, and break off thy sins by righteousness, and thine iniquities by shewing mercy to the poor; 28 if it may be a lengthening of thy tranquillity. All this came upon 29 the king Nebuchadnezzar. At the end of twelve months he walked 30 in the palace of the kingdom of Babylon. The king spake, and said, Is not this great Babylon, that I have built for the house of the kingdom by the might of my power, and for the honour of my 31 majesty? While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to thee it is 32 spoken; The kingdom is departed from thee. And they shall drive thee from men, and thy dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field: they shall make thee to eat grass as oxen, and seven times shall pass over thee, until thou know that the most High ruleth in 33 the kingdom of men, and giveth it to whomsoever he will. The same hour was the thing fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass as oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hairs were grown like eagles' 34 feathers, and his nails like birds' claws. And at the end of the days I Nebuchadnezzar lifted up mine eyes unto heaven, and mine understanding returned unto me, and I blessed the most High, and I praised and honoured him that liveth for ever, whose dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom is from generation to generation: And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as 35 nothing: and he doeth according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth: and none can stay his hand, or say unto him, What doest thou? At the same time my 36 reason returned unto me; and for the glory of my kingdom, mine honour and brightness returned unto me; and my counsellors and my lords sought unto me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent majesty was added unto me. Now I Nebuchadnezzar 37 praise and extol and honour the King of heaven, all whose works are truth, and his ways judgment: and those that walk in pride he is able to abase.

Belshazzar the king made a great feast to a thousand of his 5 lords, and drank wine before the thousand. Belshazzar, whiles he 2 tasted the wine, commanded to bring the golden and silver vessels which his father Nebuchadnezzar had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; that the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, might drink therein. Then they brought the 3 golden vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king, and his princes, his wives, and his concubines, drank in them. They drank wine, and 4 praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone. In the same hour came forth fingers of a man's 5 hand, and wrote over against the candlestick upon the plaister of the wall of the king's palace: and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote. Then the king's countenance was changed, and his 6 thoughts troubled him, so that the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees smote one against another. The king cried aloud to 7 bring in the astrologers, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. And the king spake, and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whosoever shall read this writing, and shew me the interpretation thereof, shall be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then came in 8 all the king's wise men: but they could not read the writing, nor

9 make known to the king the interpretation thereof. Then was king Belshazzar greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in 10 him, and his lords were astonished. Now the queen, by reason of the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house: and the queen spake and said, O king, live for ever: let not thy 11 thoughts trouble thee, nor let thy countenance be changed: There is a man in thy kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of thy father light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, was found in him; whom the king Nebuchadnezzar thy father, the king, I say, thy father, made master of the magicians, astrologers, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;
 12 Forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and shewing of hard sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar: now let Daniel be called, and he will 13 shew the interpretation. Then was Daniel brought in before the king. And the king spake and said unto Daniel, Art thou that Daniel, which art of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom 14 the king my father brought out of Jewry? I have even heard of thee, that the spirit of the gods is in thee, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom is found in thee. And now the 15 wise men, the astrologers, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known unto me the interpretation thereof: but they could not shew the interpretation
 16 of the thing: And I have heard of thee, that thou canst make interpretations, and dissolve doubts: now if thou canst read the writing, and make known to me the interpretation thereof, thou shalt be clothed with scarlet, and have a chain of gold about thy 17 neck, and shalt be the third ruler in the kingdom. Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let thy gifts be to thyself, and give thy rewards to another; yet I will read the writing unto the 18 king, and make known to him the interpretation. O thou king, the most high God gave Nebuchadnezzar thy father a kingdom, 19 and majesty, and glory, and honour: And for the majesty that he gave him, all people, nations, and languages, trembled and feared before him: whom he would he slew; and whom he would he kept alive; and whom he would he set up; and whom he would he put down. But when his heart was lifted up, and his mind hardened 20 in pride, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him: And he was driven from the sons of men; and his 21 heart was made like the beasts, and his dwelling was with the wild asses: they fed him with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; till he knew that the most high God ruled in the kingdom of men, and that he appointeth over it whomsoever he will. And thou his son, O Belshazzar, hast not humbled thine 22 heart, though thou knewest all this; But hast lifted up thyself 23 against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before thee, and thou, and thy lords, thy wives, and thy concubines, have drunk wine in them; and thou hast praised the gods of silver, and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know: and the God in whose hand thy breath is, and whose are all thy ways, hast thou not glorified: Then was 24 the part of the hand sent from him; and this writing was written.

 And this is the writing that was written, MENE, MENE, TEKEL, 25 UPHARSIN. This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God 26 hath numbered thy kingdom, and finished it. TEKEL; Thou art 27 weighed in the balances, and art found wanting. PERES; Thy 28 kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians. Then 29 commanded Belshazzar, and they clothed Daniel with scarlet, and put a chain of gold about his neck, and made a proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom. In 30 that night was Belshazzar the king of the Chaldeans slain. And 31 Darius the Median took the kingdom, being about threescore and two years old.

It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom an hundred and twenty 6 princes, which should be over the whole kingdom; And over these 2 three presidents; of whom Daniel was first: that the princes might give accounts unto them, and the king should have no damage.
 Then this Daniel was preferred above the presidents and princes, 3 because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm. Then the presidents and princes sought 4 to find occasion against Daniel concerning the kingdom; but they could find none occasion nor fault; forasmuch as he was faithful, 5 neither was there any error or fault found in him. Then said these men, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we 6 find it against him concerning the law of his God. Then these presidents and princes assembled together to the king, and said 7 thus unto him, King Darius, live for ever. All the presidents of the kingdom, the governors, and the princes, the counsellors, and the captains, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a firm decree, that whosoever shall ask a petition of any God or man for thirty days, save of thee, O king, he shall be 8 cast into the den of lions. Now, O king, establish the decree, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the 9 Medes and Persians, which altereth not. Wherefore king Darius 10 signed the writing and the decree. Now when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house; and his windows being open in his chamber toward Jerusalem, he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his 11 God, as he did aforetime. Then these men assembled, and found 12 Daniel praying and making supplication before his God. Then they came near, and spake before the king concerning the king's decree; Hast thou not signed a decree, that every man that shall ask a petition of any God or man within thirty days, save of thee, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and 13 Persians, which altereth not. Then answered they and said before the king, That Daniel, which is of the children of the captivity of Judah, regardeth not thee, O king, nor the decree that thou hast 14 signed, but maketh his petition three times a day. Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased with himself, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him: and he laboured till the 15 going down of the sun to deliver him. Then these men assembled unto the king, and said unto the king, Know, O king, that the law of the Medes and Persians is, That no decree nor statute which the 16 king establisheth may be changed. Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spake and said unto Daniel, Thy God whom thou servest 17 continually, he will deliver thee. And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that the purpose might not be changed concerning Daniel. Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting: neither were instruments of musick brought before him: and his sleep went from him. Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste unto the den of lions. And when he came to the den, he cried with a lamentable voice unto Daniel: and the king spake and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is thy God, whom thou servest continually, able to deliver thee from the lions? Then said Daniel unto the king, O king, live for ever. My God hath sent his angel, and hath shut the lions' mouths, that they have not hurt me: forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before thee, O king, have I done no hurt. Then was the king exceeding glad for him, and commanded that they should take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he believed in his God. And the king commanded, and they brought those men which had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and brake all their bones in pieces or ever they came at the bottom of the den. Then king Darius wrote unto all people, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth; Peace be multiplied unto you. I make a decree, That in every dominion of my kingdom men tremble and fear before the God of Daniel: for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed, and his dominion shall be even unto the end. He delivereth and rescueth, and he worketh signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who hath delivered Daniel from the power of the lions. So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream, and told the sum of the matters. Daniel spake and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of the heaven strove upon the great sea. And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another. The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I beheld till the wings thereof were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made stand upon the feet 5 as a man, and a man's heart was given to it. And behold another beast, a second, like to a bear, and it raised up itself on one side, and it had three ribs in the mouth of it between the teeth of it: 6 and they said thus unto it, Arise, devour much flesh. After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion 7 was given to it. After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts 8 that were before it; and it had ten horns. I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn, before whom there were three of the first horns plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of man, and a 9 mouth speaking great things. I beheld till the thrones were cast down, and the Ancient of days did sit, whose garment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like the pure wool: his throne 10 was like the fiery flame, and his wheels as burning fire. A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousand thousands ministered unto him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

 11 I beheld then because of the voice of the great words which the horn spake: I beheld even till the beast was slain, and his body 12 destroyed, and given to the burning flame. As concerning the rest of the beasts, they had their dominion taken away: yet their 13 lives were prolonged for a season and time. I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him 14 near before him. And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.
 15 I Daniel was grieved in my spirit in the midst of my body, and the 16 visions of my head troubled me. I came near unto one of them that stood by, and asked him the truth of all this. So he told me, 17 and made me know the interpretation of the things. These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, which shall arise out of the earth. But the saints of the most High shall take the kingdom, 18 and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever. Then I 19 would know the truth of the fourth beast, which was diverse from all the others, exceeding dreadful, whose teeth were of iron, and his nails of brass; which devoured, brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with his feet; And of the ten horns that were in his 20 head, and of the other which came up, and before whom three fell; even of that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spake very great things, whose look was more stout than his fellows. I beheld, and 21 the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them; Until the Ancient of days came, and judgment was given 22 to the saints of the most High; and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom. Thus he said, The fourth beast shall 23 be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. And the ten horns out of this 24 kingdom are ten kings that shall arise: and another shall rise after them; and he shall be diverse from the first, and he shall subdue three kings. And he shall speak great words against the most 25 High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time. But the judgment 26 shall sit, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it unto the end. And the kingdom and dominion, and the 27 greatness of the kingdom under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the most High, whose kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.

 Hitherto is the end of the matter. As for me Daniel, my cogitations 28 much troubled me, and my countenance changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision ap- 8 peared unto me, even unto me Daniel, after that which appeared unto me at the first. And I saw in a vision; and it came to pass, 2 when I saw, that I was at Shushan in the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in a vision, and I was by the river of Ulai. Then I lifted up mine eyes, and saw, and, behold, there 3 stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last. I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; so that no beasts might stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and became great. And as I was considering, behold, an he goat came from the west on the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes. And he came to the ram that had two horns, which I had seen standing before the river, and ran unto him in the fury of his power. And I saw him come close unto the ram, and he was moved with choler against him, and smote the ram, and brake his two horns: and there was no power in the ram to stand before him, but he cast him down to the ground, and stamped upon him: and there was none that could deliver the ram out of his hand. Therefore the he goat waxed very great: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and for it came up four notable ones toward the four winds of heaven. And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which waxed exceeding great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the pleasant land. And it waxed great, even to the host of heaven; and it cast down some of the host and of the stars to the ground, and stamped upon them. Yea, he magnified himself even to the prince of the host, and by him the daily sacrifice was taken away, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down. And an host was given him against the daily sacrifice by reason of transgression, and it cast down the truth to the ground; and it practised, and prospered. Then I heard one saint speaking, and another saint said unto that certain saint which spake, How long shall be the vision concerning the daily sacrifice, and the transgression of desolation, to give both the sanctuary and the host to be trodden under foot? And he said unto me, Unto two thousand and three hundred days; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed. And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, and sought for the meaning, then, behold, there stood before me as the appearance of a man. And I heard a man's voice between the banks 16 of Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, make this man to understand the vision. So he came near where I stood: and when he 17 came, I was afraid, and fell upon my face: but he said unto me, Understand, O son of man: for at the time of the end shall be the vision. Now as he was speaking with me, I was in a deep sleep 18 on my face toward the ground: but he touched me, and set me upright. And he said, Behold, I will make thee know what shall 19 be in the last end of the indignation: for at the time appointed the end shall be. The ram which thou sawest having two horns are 20 the kings of Media and Persia. And the rough goat is the king 21 of Grecia: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king. Now that being broken, whereas four stood up for it, four 22 kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not in his power.

And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are 23 come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up. And his power shall be mighty, 24 but not by his own power: and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper, and practise, and shall destroy the mighty and the holy people. And through his policy also he shall cause craft to 25 prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand. And 26 the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true:
wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.
And I Daniel fainted, and was sick certain days; afterward I rose 27 up, and did the king's business; and I was astonished at the vision, but none understood it.

In the first year of his reign I Daniel understood by books the num- 2 to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting, and sackcloth, and ashes: And I prayed unto the LORD my God, and made my 4 confession, and said, O Lord, the great and dreadful God, keeping the covenant and mercy to them that love him, and to them that 5 keep his commandments; We have sinned, and have committed iniquity, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even by de-6 parting from thy precepts and from thy judgments: Neither have we hearkened unto thy servants the prophets, which spake in thy name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the peo-7 ple of the land. O Lord, righteousness belongeth unto thee, but unto us confusion of faces, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and unto all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries whither thou hast driven them, because of their trespass that they have tres-8 passed against thee. O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have 9 sinned against thee. To the Lord our God belong mercies and for-10 givenesses, though we have rebelled against him; Neither have we obeyed the voice of the LORD our God, to walk in his laws, which 11 he set before us by his servants the prophets. Yea, all Israel have transgressed thy law, even by departing, that they might not obey thy voice; therefore the curse is poured upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God, because we have 12 sinned against him. And he hath confirmed his words, which he spake against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil: for under the whole heaven hath not been 13 done as hath been done upon Jerusalem. As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet made we not our prayer before the LORD our God, that we might turn from our 14 iniquities, and understand thy truth. Therefore hath the LORD watched upon the evil, and brought it upon us: for the LORD our God is righteous in all his works which he doeth: for we obeyed 15 not his voice. And now, O Lord our God, that hast brought thy people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and hast gotten thee renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have 16 done wickedly. O Lord, according to all thy righteousness, I beseech thee, let thine anger and thy fury be turned away from thy city Jerusalem, thy holy mountain: because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and thy people are become a reproach to all that are about us. Now therefore, O our God, 17 hear the prayer of thy servant, and his supplications, and cause thy face to shine upon thy sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake. O my God, incline thine ear, and hear; open thine eyes, 18 and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by thy name: for we do not present our supplications before thee for our righteousnesses, but for thy great mercies. O Lord, hear; O Lord, 19 forgive; O Lord, hearken and do; defer not, for thine own sake, O my God: for thy city and thy people are called by thy name. And 20 whiles I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before the LORD my God for the holy mountain of my God; Yea, whiles I 21 was speaking in prayer, even the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening oblation. And he informed me, 22 and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give thee skill and understanding. At the beginning of thy sup- 23 plications the commandment came forth, and I am come to shew thee; for thou art greatly beloved: therefore understand the matter, and consider the vision. Seventy weeks are determined upon 24 thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy. Know therefore 25 and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times. And after 26 threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined. And he 27 shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to

- 10 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed unto Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, but the time appointed was long: and he understood the 2 thing, and had understanding of the vision. In those days I Daniel 3 was mourning three full weeks. I ate no pleasant bread, neither came flesh nor wine in my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all,
 4 till three whole weeks were fulfilled. And in the four and twentieth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which 5 is Hiddekel; Then I lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold a certain man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with fine
 6 gold of Uphaz: His body also was like the beryl, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as lamps of fire, and his arms and his feet like in colour to polished brass, and the voice of 7 his words like the voice of a multitude. And I Daniel alone saw the vision: for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, so that they fled to hide themselves.
 8 Therefore I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and there remained no strength in me: for my comeliness was turned in me 9 into corruption, and I retained no strength. Yet heard I the voice of his words: and when I heard the voice of his words, then was I 10 in a deep sleep on my face, and my face toward the ground. And, behold, an hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and 11 upon the palms of my hands. And he said unto me, O Daniel, a man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak unto thee, and stand upright: for unto thee am I now sent. And when he 12 had spoken this word unto me, I stood trembling. Then said he unto me, Fear not, Daniel: for from the first day that thou didst set thine heart to understand, and to chasten thyself before thy 13 God, thy words were heard, and I am come for thy words. But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me one and twenty days: but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me; 14 and I remained there with the kings of Persia. Now I am come to make thee understand what shall befall thy people in the latter days: for yet the vision is for many days. And when he had spoken such words unto me, I set my face toward the ground, and I became dumb. And, behold, one like the similitude of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spake, and said unto him that stood before me, O my lord, by the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I have retained no strength. For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither is there breath left in me. Then there came again and touched me one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me, And said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be unto thee, be strong, yea, be strong. And when he had spoken unto me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for thou hast strengthened me. Then said he, Knowest thou wherefore I come unto thee? and now will I return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I am gone forth, lo, the prince of Grecia shall come. But I will shew thee that which is noted in the scripture of truth: and there is none that holdeth with me in these things, but Michael your prince.

Also I in the first year of Darius the Mede, even I, stood to confirm and to strengthen him. And now will I shew thee the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than they all: and by his strength through his riches he shall stir up all against the realm of Grecia. And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will. And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven; and not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion which he ruled: for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others beside those. And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion. And in the end of years they shall join themselves together; for the king's daughter of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the power of the arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm: but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that

7 strengthened her in these times. But out of a branch of her roots shall one stand up in his estate, which shall come with an army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall 8 deal against them, and shall prevail: And shall also carry captives into Egypt their gods, with their princes, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold; and he shall continue more years than 9 the king of the north. So the king of the south shall come into his kingdom, and shall return into his own land. But his sons shall be stirred up, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces: and one shall certainly come, and overflow, and pass through: then 11 shall he return, and be stirred up, even to his fortress. And the king of the south shall be moved with choler, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north: and he shall set forth a great multitude; but the multitude shall be given into 12 his hand. And when he hath taken away the multitude, his heart shall be lifted up; and he shall cast down many ten thousands: but 13 he shall not be strengthened by it. For the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former, and shall certainly come after certain years with a great army and 14 with much riches. And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the robbers of thy people shall 15 exalt themselves to establish the vision; but they shall fall. So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mount, and take the most fenced cities: and the arms of the south shall not withstand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to 16 withstand. But he that cometh against him shall do according to his own will, and none shall stand before him: and he shall stand 17 in the glorious land, which by his hand shall be consumed. He shall also set his face to enter with the strength of his whole kingdom, and upright ones with him; thus shall he do: and he shall give him the daughter of women, corrupting her: but she shall not 18 stand on his side, neither be for him. After this shall he turn his face unto the isles, and shall take many: but a prince for his own behalf shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; without his own reproach he shall cause it to turn upon him. Then he shall 19 turn his face toward the fort of his own land: but he shall stumble and fall, and not be found. Then shall stand up in his estate a 20 raiser of taxes in the glory of the kingdom: but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle. And in his 21 estate shall stand up a vile person, to whom they shall not give the honour of the kingdom: but he shall come in peaceably, and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. And with the arms of a flood shall 22 they be overflown from before him, and shall be broken; yea, also the prince of the covenant. And after the league made with him 23 he shall work deceitfully: for he shall come up, and shall become strong with a small people. He shall enter peaceably even upon 24 the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them the prey, and spoil, and riches: yea, and he shall forecast his devices against the strong holds, even for a time. And he shall stir 25 up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall be stirred up to battle with a very great and mighty army; but he shall not stand: for they shall forecast devices against him. Yea, they that feed of the 26 portion of his meat shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow: and many shall fall down slain. And both these kings' hearts shall 27 be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table; but it shall not prosper: for yet the end shall be at the time appointed. Then 28 shall he return into his land with great riches; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do exploits, and return to his own land. At the time appointed he shall return, and come 29 toward the south; but it shall not be as the former, or as the latter. For the ships of Chittim shall come against him: therefore he 30 shall be grieved, and return, and have indignation against the holy covenant: so shall he do; he shall even return, and have intelligence with them that forsake the holy covenant. And arms shall stand 31 on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomthe covenant shall he corrupt by flatteries: but the people that do 33 know their God shall be strong, and do exploits. And they that understand among the people shall instruct many: yet they shall fall by the sword, and by flame, by captivity, and by spoil, many 34 days. Now when they shall fall, they shall be holpen with a little 35 help: but many shall cleave to them with flatteries. And some of them of understanding shall fall, to try them, and to purge, and to make them white, even to the time of the end: because it is yet 36 for a time appointed. And the king shall do according to his will;

 and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods, and shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished: for that that is 37 determined shall be done. Neither shall he regard the God of his fathers, nor the desire of women, nor regard any god: for he shall 38 magnify himself above all. But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant 39 things. Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for 40 gain. And at the time of the end shall the king of the south push at him: and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass 41 over. He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many coun- tries shall be overthrown: but these shall escape out of his hand, even Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.
 42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries: and the 43 land of Egypt shall not escape. But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt: and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.
 44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him: therefore he shall go forth with great fury to destroy, and utterly to make away many. And he shall plant the tabernacles of his 45 palace between the seas in the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and none shall help him.

And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which 12 standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every 2 one that shall be found written in the book. And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt. And they that 3 be wise shall shine as the brightness of the firmament; and they that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.
But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even 4 to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased. Then I Daniel looked, and, behold, there stood 5 other two, the one on this side of the bank of the river, and the other on that side of the bank of the river. And one said to the 6 man clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders? And I heard the man 7 clothed in linen, which was upon the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand unto heaven, and sware by him that liveth for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and an half; and when he shall have accomplished to scatter the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished. And I heard, 8 but I understood not: then said I, O my Lord, what shall be the end of these things? And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the 9 words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end. Many 10 shall be purified, and made white, and tried; but the wicked shall do wickedly: and none of the wicked shall understand; but the wise shall understand. And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall 11 be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days. Blessed 12 is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days. But go thou thy way till the end be: for thou 13 shalt rest, and stand in thy lot at the end of the days.

HOSEA.

1  he word of the LORD that came unto Hosea, the son of Beerai, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, Ahaz, and Heze-2  kiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel. The beginning of the word of the LORD by Hosea. And the LORD said to Hosea, Go, take unto thee a wife of whoredoms and children of whoredoms: for the land hath committed great whoredom, departing from the LORD.
3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; which con-4 ceived, and bare him a son. And the LORD said unto him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause to cease the king-5 dom of the house of Israel. And it shall come to pass at that day, 6 that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel. And she conceived again, and bare a daughter. And God said unto him, Call her name Loruhamah: for I will no more have mercy upon the 7 house of Israel; but I will utterly take them away. But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by the LORD their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by 8 battle, by horses, nor by horsemen. Now when she had weaned 9 Loruhamah, she conceived, and bare a son. Then said God, Call his name Loammi: for ye are not my people, and I will not be your 10 God. Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people, there it shall be said unto them, Ye are the sons of 11 the living God. Then shall the children of Judah and the children of Israel be gathered together, and appoint themselves one head, and they shall come up out of the land: for great shall be the day of Jezreel.

Say ye unto your brethren, Ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah. Plead with your mother, plead: for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband: let her therefore put away her whoredoms out of her sight, and her adulteries from between her breasts; Lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst. And I will not have mercy upon her children; for they be the children of whoredoms. For their mother hath played the harlot: she that conceived them hath done shamefully: for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, mine oil and my drink. Therefore, behold, I will hedge up thy way with thorns, and make a wall, that she shall not find her paths. And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now. For she did not know that I gave her corn, and wine, and oil, and multiplied her silver and gold, which they prepared for Baal. Therefore will I return, and take away my corn in the time thereof, and my wine in the season thereof, and will recover my wool and my flax given to cover her nakedness. And now will I discover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and none shall deliver her out of mine hand. I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feast days, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn feasts. And I will destroy her vines and her fig trees, whereof she hath said, These are my rewards that my lovers have given me: and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them. And I will visit upon her the days of Baalim, wherein she burned incense to them, and she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and she went after her lovers, and forgat me, saith the LORD. Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably unto her. And I will give her her vineyards from thence, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope: and she shall sing there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when 16 she came up out of the land of Egypt. And it shall be at that day, saith the LORD, that thou shalt call me Ishi; and shalt call me 17 no more Baali. For I will take away the names of Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be remembered by their name.

 18 And in that day will I make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the earth, and will make them to lie down safely.
 19 And I will betroth thee unto me for ever; yea, I will betroth thee unto me in righteousness, and in judgment, and in lovingkindness, 20 and in mercies. I will even betroth thee unto me in faithfulness: 21 and thou shalt know the LORD. And it shall come to pass in that day, I will hear, saith the LORD, I will hear the heavens, and they 22 shall hear the earth; And the earth shall hear the corn, and the 23 wine, and the oil; and they shall hear Jezreel. And I will sow her unto me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them which were not my people, Thou art my people; and they shall say, Thou art my God.

3 Then said the LORD unto me, Go yet, love a woman beloved of her friend, yet an adulteress, according to the love of the LORD toward the children of Israel, who look to other gods, and love 2 flagons of wine. So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, 3 and for an homer of barley, and an half homer of barley: And I said unto her, Thou shalt abide for me many days; thou shalt not play the harlot, and thou shalt not be for another man: so will I 4 also be for thee. For the children of Israel shall abide many days without a king, and without a prince, and without a sacrifice, and without an image, and without an ephod, and without teraphim: 5 Afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek the LORD their God, and David their king; and shall fear the LORD and his goodness in the latter days.

4 Hear the word of the LORD, ye children of Israel: for the LORD hath a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is 2 no truth, nor mercy, nor knowledge of God in the land. By swearing, and lying, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery, 3 they break out, and blood toucheth blood. Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwelleth therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field, and with the fowls of heaven; yea, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away. Yet let no man strive, 4 nor reprove another: for thy people are as they that strive with the priest. Therefore shalt thou fall in the day, and the prophet 5 also shall fall with thee in the night, and I will destroy thy mother. My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because thou hast 6 rejected knowledge, I will also reject thee, that thou shalt be no priest to me: seeing thou hast forgotten the law of thy God, I will also forget thy children. As they were increased, so they sinned 7 against me: therefore will I change their glory into shame. They 8 eat up the sin of my people, and they set their heart on their iniquity. And there shall be, like people, like priest: and I will 9 punish them for their ways, and reward them their doings. For 10 they shall eat, and not have enough: they shall commit whoredom, and shall not increase: because they have left off to take heed to the LORD. Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the 11 heart. My people ask counsel at their stocks, and their staff de- 12 clareth unto them: for the spirit of whoredoms hath caused them to err, and they have gone a whoring from under their God. They 13 sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and elms, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters shall commit whoredom, and your spouses shall commit adultery. I will not punish your 14 daughters when they commit whoredom, nor your spouses when they commit adultery: for themselves are separated with whores, and they sacrifice with harlots: therefore the people that doth not understand shall fall. Though thou, Israel, play the harlot, yet 15 let not Judah offend; and come not ye unto Gilgal, neither go ye up to Bethaven, nor swear, The LORD liveth. For Israel slideth 16 back as a backsliding heifer: now the LORD will feed them as a lamb in a large place. Ephraim is joined to idols: let him alone. 17 Their drink is sour: they have committed whoredom continually: 18 her rulers with shame do love, Give ye. The wind hath bound 19 her up in her wings, and they shall be ashamed because of their sacrifices.

5 Hear ye this, O priests; and hearken, ye house of Israel; and give ye ear, O house of the king; for judgment is toward you, because ye 2 have been a snare on Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor. And the revolvers are profound to make slaughter, though I have been 3 a rebuker of them all. I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me: for now, O Ephraim, thou committest whoredom, and Israel is 4 defiled. They will not frame their doings to turn unto their God: for the spirit of whoredoms is in the midst of them, and they have 5 not known the LORD. And the pride of Israel doth testify to his face: therefore shall Israel and Ephraim fall in their iniquity; Judah 6 also shall fall with them. They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek the LORD; but they shall not find him; he hath 7 withdrawn himself from them. They have dealt treacherously against the LORD: for they have begotten strange children: now 8 shall a month devour them with their portions. Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: cry aloud at Bethaven, 9 after thee, O Benjamin. Ephraim shall be desolate in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which 10 shall surely be. The princes of Judah were like them that remove the bound: therefore I will pour out my wrath upon them like 11 water. Ephraim is oppressed and broken in judgment, because 12 he willingly walked after the commandment. Therefore will I be unto Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.
 13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to the Assyrian, and sent to king Jareb: yet could 14 he not heal you, nor cure you of your wound. For I will be unto Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah:
 I, even I, will tear and go away; I will take away, and none shall 15 rescue him. I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

6 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and 2 he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up. After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and 3 we shall live in his sight. Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth. O Ephraim, what shall I do unto thee? O Judah, what 4 shall I do unto thee? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the early dew it goeth away. Therefore have I hewed them by 5 the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and thy judgments are as the light that goeth forth. For I desired 6 mercy, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings. But they like men have transgressed the covenant: 7 there have they dealt treacherously against me. Gilead is a city 8 of them that work iniquity, and is polluted with blood. And as 9 troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way by consent: for they commit lewdness. I have seen an 10 horrible thing in the house of Israel: there is the whoredom of Ephraim, Israel is defiled. Also, O Judah, he hath set an harvest 11 for thee, when I returned the captivity of my people.

When I would have healed Israel, then the iniquity of Ephraim 7 was discovered, and the wickedness of Samaria: for they commit falsehood; and the thief cometh in, and the troop of robbers spoi- 2 leth without. And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now their own doings have beset them about; they are before my face. They make the king glad with 3 their wickedness, and the princes with their lies. They are all 4 adulterers, as an oven heated by the baker, who ceaseth from raising after he hath kneaded the dough, until it be leavened. In 5 the day of our king the princes have made him sick with bottles of wine; he stretched out his hand with scorners. For they have made 6 ready their heart like an oven, whiles they lie in wait: their baker sleepeth all the night; in the morning it burneth as a flaming fire.
 They are all hot as an oven, and have devoured their judges; all 7 their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calleth unto me. Ephraim, he hath mixed himself among the people; Ephraim 8 is a cake not turned. Strangers have devoured his strength, and 9 he knoweth it not: yea, gray hairs are here and there upon him, yet he knoweth not. And the pride of Israel testifieth to his face: 10 and they do not return to the LORD their God, nor seek him for all 11 this. Ephraim also is like a silly dove without heart: they call to 12 Egypt, they go to Assyria. When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the fowls of the heaven; 13 I will chastise them, as their congregation hath heard. Woe unto them! for they have fled from me: destruction unto them! because they have transgressed against me: though I have redeemed them, 14 yet they have spoken lies against me. And they have not cried unto me with their heart, when they howled upon their beds: they assemble themselves for corn and wine, and they rebel against me.

 15 Though I have bound and strengthened their arms, yet do they 16 imagine mischief against me. They return, but not to the most High: they are like a deceitful bow: their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.

8 Set the trumpet to thy mouth. He shall come as an eagle against the house of the LORD, because they have transgressed my 2 covenant, and trespassed against my law. Israel shall cry unto 3 me, My God, we know thee. Israel hath cast off the thing that 4 is good: the enemy shall pursue him. They have set up kings, but not by me: they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they 5 may be cut off. Thy calf, O Samaria, hath cast thee off; mine anger is kindled against them: how long will it be ere they attain 6 to innocency? For from Israel was it also: the workman made it; therefore it is not God: but the calf of Samaria shall be broken 7 in pieces. For they have sown the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: it hath no stalk: the bud shall yield no meal: if so be 8 it yield, the strangers shall swallow it up. Israel is swallowed up: now shall they be among the Gentiles as a vessel wherein is no 9 pleasure. For they are gone up to Assyria, a wild ass alone by 10 himself: Ephraim hath hired lovers. Yea, though they have hired among the nations, now will I gather them, and they shall sorrow a 11 little for the burden of the king of princes. Because Ephraim hath 12 made many altars to sin, altars shall be unto him to sin. I have written to him the great things of my law, but they were counted as a strange thing. They sacrifice flesh for the sacrifices of mine 13 offerings, and eat it; but the LORD accepteth them not; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins: they shall return to Egypt. For Israel hath forgotten his Maker, and buildeth tem- 14 ples; and Judah hath multiplied fenced cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.

Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, as other people: for thou hast 9 gone a whoring from thy God, thou hast loved a reward upon every cornfloor. The floor and the winepress shall not feed them, 2 and the new wine shall fail in her. They shall not dwell in the 3 LORD's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean things in Assyria. They shall not offer wine offerings 4 to the LORD, neither shall they be pleasing unto him: their sacrifices shall be unto them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted: for their bread for their soul shall not come into the house of the LORD. What will ye do in the solemn 5 day, and in the day of the feast of the LORD? For, lo, they are 6 gone because of destruction: Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them: the pleasant places for their silver, nettles shall possess them: thorns shall be in their tabernacles. The days of 7 visitation are come, the days of recompence are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the spiritual man is mad, for the multitude of thine iniquity, and the great hatred. The watchman 8 of Ephraim was with my God: but the prophet is a snare of a fowler in all his ways, and hatred in the house of his God. They 9 have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: there- fore he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins. I 10 found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the firstripe in the fig tree at her first time: but they went to Baalpeor, and separated themselves unto that shame; and their abominations were according as they loved. As for Ephraim, their glory 11 shall fly away like a bird, from the birth, and from the womb, and from the conception. Though they bring up their children, yet 12 will I bereave them, that there shall not be a man left: yea, woe also to them when I depart from them! Ephraim, as I saw Tyrus, 13 is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring forth his 14 children to the murderer. Give them, O LORD: what wilt thou 15 give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts. All their wickedness is in Gilgal: for there I hated them: for the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of mine house, I will love them 16 no more: all their princes are revolvers. Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yea, though they bring 17 forth, yet will I slay even the beloved fruit of their womb. My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken unto him:

 and they shall be wanderers among the nations.
 10 Israel is an empty vine, he bringeth forth fruit unto himself: according to the multitude of his fruit he hath increased the altars; according to the goodness of his land they have made goodly 2 images. Their heart is divided; now shall they be found faulty: he 3 shall break down their altars, he shall spoil their images. For now they shall say, We have no king, because we feared not the LORD; 4 what then should a king do to us? They have spoken words, swearing falsely in making a covenant: thus judgment springeth up as 5 hemlock in the furrows of the field. The inhabitants of Samaria shall fear because of the calves of Bethaven: for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced on it, for 6 the glory thereof, because it is departed from it. It shall be also carried unto Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall 7 receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel. As 8 for Samaria, her king is cut off as the foam upon the water. The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall 9 say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us. O Israel, thou hast sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood: the battle in Gibeah against the children of iniquity did not over-10 take them. It is in my desire that I should chastise them; and the people shall be gathered against them, when they shall bind 11 themselves in their two furrows. And Ephraim is as an heifer that is taught, and loveth to tread out the corn; but I passed over upon her fair neck: I will make Ephraim to ride; Judah shall plow, and

Jacob shall break his clods. Sow to yourselves in righteousness, 12 reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you. Ye have 13 plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies: because thou didst trust in thy way, in the multitude of thy mighty men. Therefore shall a tumult arise among thy people, 14 and all thy fortresses shall be spoiled, as Shalman spoiled Betharbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces upon her children. So shall Bethel do unto you because of your great 15 wickedness: in a morning shall the king of Israel utterly be cut off.

When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son 11 out of Egypt. As they called them, so they went from them: they 2 sacrificed unto Baalim, and burned incense to graven images. I 3 taught Ephraim also to go, taking them by their arms; but they knew not that I healed them. I drew them with cords of a man, 4 with bands of love: and I was to them as they that take off the yoke on their jaws, and I laid meat unto them. He shall not return 5 into the land of Egypt, but the Assyrian shall be his king, because they refused to return. And the sword shall abide on his cities, 6 and shall consume his branches, and devour them, because of their own counsels. And my people are bent to backsliding from me: 7 though they called them to the most High, none at all would exalt him. How shall I give thee up, Ephraim? how shall I deliver thee, 8 Israel? how shall I make thee as Admah? how shall I set thee as Zeboim? mine heart is turned within me, my repentings are kindled together. I will not execute the fierceness of mine anger, 9 I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of thee: and I will not enter into the city. They shall walk after the LORD: he shall roar like a lion: 10 when he shall roar, then the children shall tremble from the west.
 They shall tremble as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the 11 land of Assyria: and I will place them in their houses, saith the LORD. Ephraim compasseth me about with lies, and the house of 12 Israel with deceit: but Judah yet ruleth with God, and is faithful with the saints.

- 2 with the Assyrians, and oil is carried into Egypt. The LORD hath also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him. He took his brother by the heel in the womb, and by his strength he had power with God: Yea, he had power over the angel, and prevailed: he wept, and made supplication unto him: he found him in Bethel, and there he spake with us; Even the LORD God of hosts; the LORD is his memorial. Therefore turn thou to thy God: keep mercy and judgment, and wait on thy God continually. He is a merchant, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loveth to oppress. And Ephraim said, Yet I am become rich, I have found me out substance: in all my labours they shall find none iniquity in me that were sin. And I that am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt will yet make thee to dwell in tabernacles, as in the days of the solemn feast. I have also spoken by the prophets, and I have multiplied visions, and used similitudes, by the ministry of the prophets. Is there iniquity in Gilead? surely they are vanity: they sacrifice bullocks in Gilgal; yea, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the fields. And Jacob fled into the country of Syria, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep. And by a prophet the LORD brought Israel out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved. Ephraim provoked him to anger most bitterly: therefore shall he leave his blood upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return unto him.
- 13 When Ephraim spake trembling, he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died. And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, and idols according to their own understanding, all of it the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves. Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the early dew that passeth away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney. Yet I am the LORD thy God from the land of Egypt, and thou shalt know no god but me: for there is no saviour beside me. I did know thee in the wilderness, in the land of great drought. According to 6 their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted; therefore have they forgotten me. Therefore I will 7 be unto them as a lion: as a leopard by the way will I observe them: I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, 8 and will rend the caul of their heart, and there will I devour them like a lion: the wild beast shall tear them. O Israel, thou hast 9 destroyed thyself; but in me is thine help. I will be thy king: 10 where is any other that may save thee in all thy cities? and thy judges of whom thou saidst, Give me a king and princes? I gave 11 thee a king in mine anger, and took him away in my wrath. The 12 iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is hid. The sorrows of a 13 travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for he should not stay long in the place of the breaking forth of children.

 I will ransom them from the power of the grave; I will redeem them 14 from death: O death, I will be thy plagues; O grave, I will be thy destruction: repentance shall be hid from mine eyes. Though he 15 be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the wind of the LORD shall come up from the wilderness, and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall spoil the treasure of all pleasant vessels. Samaria shall become desolate; 16 for she hath rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword: their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.

O Israel, return unto the LORD thy God; for thou hast fallen by 14 thine iniquity. Take with you words, and turn to the LORD: say 2 unto him, Take away all iniquity, and receive us graciously: so will we render the calves of our lips. Asshur shall not save us; we will 3 not ride upon horses: neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, Ye are our gods: for in thee the fatherless findeth mercy.
 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely: for mine anger 4 is turned away from him. I will be as the dew unto Israel: he shall 5 as Lebanon. They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they 7 he word of the LORD that came to Joel the son of Pe- 1 thuel. Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhab- 2 itants of the land. Hath this been in your days, or even in the days of your fathers? Tell ye your children of it, 3 and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation. That which the palmerworm hath left hath the locust 4 eaten; and that which the locust hath left hath the cankerworm eaten; and that which the cankerworm hath left hath the caterpillar eaten. Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and howl, all ye 5 drinkers of wine, because of the new wine; for it is cut off from your mouth. For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and 6 without number, whose teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he hath the cheek teeth of a great lion. He hath laid my vine waste, and 7 barked my fig tree: he hath made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white. Lament like a virgin girded 8 with sackcloth for the husband of her youth. The meat offering 9 and the drink offering is cut off from the house of the LORD; the priests, the LORD'S ministers, mourn. The field is wasted, the 10 land mourneth; for the corn is wasted: the new wine is dried up, the oil languisheth. Be ye ashamed, O ye husbandmen; howl, O 11 ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; because the harvest of the field is perished. The vine is dried up, and the fig 12 tree languisheth; the pomegranate tree, the palm tree also, and the apple tree, even all the trees of the field, are withered: because joy is withered away from the sons of men. Gird yourselves, and 13 lament, ye priests: howl, ye ministers of the altar: come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meat offering and the drink offering is withholden from the house of your God.

v.7 barked...: Heb. laid my fig tree for a barking.

14 Sanctify ye a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the elders and all the inhabitants of the land into the house of the LORD your 15 God, and cry unto the LORD, Alas for the day! for the day of the LORD is at hand, and as a destruction from the Almighty shall it 16 come. Is not the meat cut off before our eyes, yea, joy and glad-17 ness from the house of our God? The seed is rotten under their clods, the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; 18 for the corn is withered. How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yea, the flocks 19 of sheep are made desolate. O LORD, to thee will I cry: for the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame 20 hath burned all the trees of the field. The beasts of the field cry also unto thee: for the rivers of waters are dried up, and the fire hath devoured the pastures of the wilderness.

2 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain: let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day 2 of the LORD cometh, for it is nigh at hand; A day of darkness and of gloominess, a day of clouds and of thick darkness, as the morning spread upon the mountains: a great people and a strong; there hath not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after 3 it, even to the years of many generations. A fire devoureth before them; and behind them a flame burneth: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yea, 4 and nothing shall escape them. The appearance of them is as the 5 appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so shall they run. Like the noise of chariots on the tops of mountains shall they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devoureth the stubble, as a strong 6 people set in battle array. Before their face the people shall be 7 much pained: all faces shall gather blackness. They shall run like mighty men; they shall climb the wall like men of war; and they shall march every one on his ways, and they shall not break their 8 ranks: Neither shall one thrust another; they shall walk every one in his path: and when they fall upon the sword, they shall not 9 be wounded. They shall run to and fro in the city; they shall run upon the wall, they shall climb up upon the houses; they shall 10 enter in at the windows like a thief. The earth shall quake before v.14 solemn...: or, day of restraint. v.17 seed: Heb. grains. v.19 pastures: or, habitations. 2. v.1 trumpet: or, cornet. v.2 of many...: Heb. of generation and generation. v.6 blackness: Heb. pot. v.8 sword: or, dart.

them; the heavens shall tremble: the sun and the moon shall be dark, and the stars shall withdraw their shining: And the LORD 11 shall utter his voice before his army: for his camp is very great: for he is strong that executeth his word: for the day of the LORD is great and very terrible; and who can abide it? Therefore also 12 now, saith the LORD, turn ye even to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning: And rend 13 your heart, and not your garments, and turn unto the LORD your God: for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repenteth him of the evil. Who knoweth if he will 14 return and repent, and leave a blessing behind him; even a meat offering and a drink offering unto the LORD your God? Blow the 15 trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly: Gather 16 the people, sanctify the congregation, assemble the elders, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts: let the bridegroom go forth of his chamber, and the bride out of her closet. Let 17 the priests, the ministers of the LORD, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare thy people, O LORD, and give not thine heritage to reproach, that the heathen should rule over them: wherefore should they say among the people, Where is their God? Then will the LORD be jealous for his land, and pity 18 his people. Yea, the LORD will answer and say unto his people, 19 Behold, I will send you corn, and wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied therewith: and I will no more make you a reproach among the heathen: But I will remove far off from you the northern army, 20 and will drive him into a land barren and desolate, with his face toward the east sea, and his hinder part toward the utmost sea, and his stink shall come up, and his ill savour shall come up, because he hath done great things. Fear not, O land; be glad and rejoice: 21 for the LORD will do great things. Be not afraid, ye beasts of 22 the field: for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree beareth her fruit, the fig tree and the vine do yield their strength.
 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your 23 God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month. And the floors shall be full of wheat, 24 25 and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil. And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent 26 among you. And ye shall eat in plenty, and be satisfied, and praise the name of the LORD your God, that hath dealt wondrously with 27 you: and my people shall never be ashamed. And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am the LORD your 28 God, and none else: and my people shall never be ashamed. And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old 29 men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions: And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will 30 I pour out my spirit. And I will shew wonders in the heavens 31 and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke. The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the 32 great and the terrible day of the LORD come. And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

3 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring 2 again the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem, I will also gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat, and will plead with them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations, and parted 3 my land. And they have cast lots for my people; and have given a boy for an harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they might drink.
 4 Yea, and what have ye to do with me, O Tyre, and Zidon, and all the coasts of Palestine? will ye render me a recompence? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily will I return your recompence 5 upon your own head; Because ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly pleasant things: 6 The children also of Judah and the children of Jerusalem have ye sold unto the Grecians, that ye might remove them far from their 7 border. Behold, I will raise them out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompence upon your own 8 head: And I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the Sabeans, to a people far off: for the LORD hath spoken it. Proclaim ye 9 this among the Gentiles; Prepare war, wake up the mighty men, let all the men of war draw near; let them come up: Beat your 10 plowshares into swords, and your pruninghooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong. Assemble yourselves, and come, all 11 ye heathen, and gather yourselves together round about: thither cause thy mighty ones to come down, O LORD. Let the heathen 12 be wakened, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat: for there will I sit to judge all the heathen round about. Put ye in the 13 sickle, for the harvest is ripe: come, get you down; for the press is full, the fats overflow; for their wickedness is great. Multitudes, 14 multitudes in the valley of decision: for the day of the LORD is near in the valley of decision. The sun and the moon shall be 15 darkened, and the stars shall withdraw their shining. The LORD 16 also shall roar out of Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but the LORD will be the hope of his people, and the strength of the children of Israel. So 17 shall ye know that I am the LORD your God dwelling in Zion, my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more. And it shall come to pass 18 in that day, that the mountains shall drop down new wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the rivers of Judah shall flow with waters, and a fountain shall come forth of the house of the LORD, and shall water the valley of Shittim. Egypt shall be a desolation, 19 and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence against the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land. But Judah shall dwell for ever, and Jerusalem from 20 generation to generation. For I will cleanse their blood that I have 21 not cleansed: for the LORD dwelleth in Zion.

AMOS.

- 1  he words of Amos, who was among the herdmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king 2 king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash said, The LORD will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the habitations of the shepherds shall mourn, and the 3 top of Carmel shall wither. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Damascus, and for four, I will not turn away the punish- ment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing 4 instruments of iron: But I will send a fire into the house of Haz-5 ael, which shall devour the palaces of Benhadad. I will break also the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the plain of Aven, and him that holdeth the sceptre from the house of Eden: and the people of Syria shall go into captivity unto Kir, saith the 6 LORD. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Gaza, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole captivity, to deliver them up 7 to Edom: But I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, which shall 8 devour the palaces thereof: And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holdeth the sceptre from Ashkelon, and I will turn mine hand against Ekron: and the remnant of the Philis-9 stines shall perish, saith the Lord GOD. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Tyrus, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole captivity 10 to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant: But I will send a fire on the wall of Tyrus, which shall devour the palaces 11 thereof. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Edom, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever: But I will send a fire upon Teman, which shall devour the palaces 12 of Bozrah. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of the 13 children of Ammon, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they might enlarge their border: But I will kindle 14 a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind: And their king shall go into captivity, he and his 15 princes together, saith the LORD.

Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Moab, and 2 for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime: But I will send 2 a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth: and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet: And I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, 3 and will slay all the princes thereof with him, saith the LORD. Thus saith the LORD; For three transgressions of Judah, and for 4 four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have despised the law of the LORD, and have not kept his commandments, and their lies caused them to err, after the which their fathers have walked: But I will send a fire upon Judah, and 5 it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem. Thus saith the LORD; 6 For three transgressions of Israel, and for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they sold the righteous for silver, and the poor for a pair of shoes; That pant after the dust of the 7 earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father will go in unto the same maid, to profane my holy name: And they lay themselves down upon clothes laid to 8 pledge by every altar, and they drink the wine of the condemned in the house of their god. Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, 9 whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath. Also I brought you up from the land of Egypt, and led 10 you forty years through the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite. And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your 11 young men for Nazarites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? saith the LORD. But ye gave the Nazarites wine to drink; and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophecy not. Behold, I am pressed under you, as a cart is pressed that is full of sheaves. Therefore the flight shall perish from the swift, and the strong shall not strengthen his force, neither shall the mighty deliver himself: Neither shall he stand that handleth the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself: neither shall he that rideth the horse deliver himself. And he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, saith the LORD.

3 Hear this word that the LORD hath spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up from the land of Egypt, saying, You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will punish you for all your iniquities. 3, 4 Can two walk together, except they be agreed? Will a lion roar in the forest, when he hath no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing? Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is for him? shall one take up a snare from the earth, and have taken nothing at all? Shall a trumpet be blown in the city, and the people not be afraid? shall there be evil in a city, and the LORD hath not done it? Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he revealeth his secret unto his servants the prophets. The lion hath roared, who will not fear? the Lord GOD hath spoken, who can but prophesy? Publish in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, Assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold the great tumults in the midst thereof, and the oppressed in the midst thereof. For they know not to do right, saith the LORD, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces. Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; An adversary there shall be even round about the land; and he shall bring down thy strength from thee, and thy palaces shall be spoiled. Thus saith the LORD; As the shepherd taketh out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear; so shall the children of Israel be taken out that dwell in Samaria in the corner of a bed, and in Damascus in a couch. Hear ye, and testify in 13 the house of Jacob, saith the Lord GOD, the God of hosts, That 14 in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him I will also visit the altars of Bethel: and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground. And I will smite the winter 15 house with the summer house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, saith the LORD.

Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain 4 of Samaria, which oppress the poor, which crush the needy, which say to their masters, Bring, and let us drink. The Lord GOD 2 hath sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that he will take you away with hooks, and your posterity with fishhooks. And ye shall go out at the breaches, every cow at that 3 which is before her; and ye shall cast them into the palace, saith the LORD. Come to Bethel, and transgress; at Gilgal multiply 4 transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes after three years: And offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving with 5 leaven, and proclaim and publish the free offerings: for this liketh you, O ye children of Israel, saith the Lord GOD. And I also have 6 given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. And also I have withholden the rain from you, when there 7 were yet three months to the harvest: and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.
 So two or three cities wandered unto one city, to drink water; but 8 they were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: when 9 your gardens and your vineyards and your fig trees and your olive trees increased, the palmerworm devoured them: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. I have sent among you the 10 pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have taken away your horses; and I have made the stink of your camps to come up unto your nostrils: yet have ye not returned unto me, saith the LORD. I have overthrown some 11 of you, as God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a firebrand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned unto 12 me, saith the LORD. Therefore thus will I do unto thee, O Israel: and because I will do this unto thee, prepare to meet thy God, O 13 Israel. For, lo, he that formeth the mountains, and createth the wind, and declareth unto man what is his thought, that maketh the morning darkness, and treadeth upon the high places of the earth, The LORD, The God of hosts, is his name.

5 Hear ye this word which I take up against you, even a lamenta-2 tion, O house of Israel. The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is forsaken upon her land; there is none to raise her 3 up. For thus saith the Lord GOD; The city that went out by a thousand shall leave an hundred, and that which went forth by an 4 hundred shall leave ten, to the house of Israel. For thus saith the 5 LORD unto the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live: But seek not Bethel, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beersheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Bethel shall come to 6 nought. Seek the LORD, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and devour it, and there be none to quench 7 it in Bethel. Ye who turn judgment to wormwood, and leave off 8 righteousness in the earth, Seek him that maketh the seven stars and Orion, and turneth the shadow of death into the morning, and maketh the day dark with night: that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD 9 is his name: That strengtheneth the spoiled against the strong, 10 so that the spoiled shall come against the fortress. They hate him that rebuketh in the gate, and they abhor him that speaketh up-11 rightly. Forasmuch therefore as your treading is upon the poor, and ye take from him burdens of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleas-12 ant vineyards, but ye shall not drink wine of them. For I know your manifold transgressions and your mighty sins: they afflict the just, they take a bribe, and they turn aside the poor in the gate 13 from their right. Therefore the prudent shall keep silence in that 14 time; for it is an evil time. Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live: and so the LORD, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as 15 ye have spoken. Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish judgment in the gate: it may be that the LORD God of hosts will be gracious unto the remnant of Joseph. Therefore the LORD, the God of hosts, the Lord, saith thus; Wailing shall be in all streets; and they shall say in all the highways, Alas! alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful of lamentation to wailing. And in all vineyards shall be wailing: for I will pass through thee, saith the LORD. Woe unto you that desire the day of the LORD! to what end is it for you? the day of the LORD is darkness, and not light. As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house, and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him. Shall not the day of the LORD be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it? I hate, I despise your feast days, and I will not smell in your solemn assemblies. Though ye offer me burnt offerings and your meat offerings, I will not accept them: neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts. Take thou away from me the noise of thy songs; for I will not hear the melody of thy viols. But let judgment run down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream. Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. Therefore will I cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, saith the LORD, whose name is The God of hosts.

Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and trust in the mountain of Samaria, which are named chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel came! Pass ye unto Calneh, and see; and from thence go ye to Hamath the great: then go down to Gath of the Philistines: be they better than these kingdoms? or their border greater than your border? Ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near; That lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall; That chant to the sound of the viol, and invent to themselves instruments of musick, like David; That drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief ointments: but they are not

7 grieved for the affliction of Joseph. Therefore now shall they go captive with the first that go captive, and the banquet of them 8 that stretched themselves shall be removed. The Lord GOD hath sworn by himself, saith the LORD the God of hosts, I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces: therefore will I deliver 9 up the city with all that is therein. And it shall come to pass, if 10 there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die. And a man's uncle shall take him up, and he that burneth him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say unto him that is by the sides of the house, Is there yet any with thee? and he shall say, No. Then shall he say, Hold thy tongue: for we may not make 11 mention of the name of the LORD. For, behold, the LORD com-mandeth, and he will smite the great house with breaches, and 12 the little house with clefts. Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? for ye have turned judgment into gall, 13 and the fruit of righteousness into hemlock: Ye which rejoice in a thing of nought, which say, Have we not taken to us horns by our 14 own strength? But, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, saith the LORD the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entering in of Hemath unto the river of the wilderness.

7 Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me; and, behold, he formed grasshoppers in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's 2 mowings. And it came to pass, that when they had made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord GOD, forgive, 3 I beseech thee: by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. The 4 LORD repented for this: It shall not be, saith the LORD. Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and, behold, the Lord GOD called to contend by fire, and it devoured the great deep, and did 5 eat up a part. Then said I, O Lord GOD, cease, I beseech thee:
 6 by whom shall Jacob arise? for he is small. The LORD repented 7 for this: This also shall not be, saith the Lord GOD. Thus he shewed me: and, behold, the Lord stood upon a wall made by a 8 plumbline, with a plumbline in his hand. And the LORD said unto me, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, A plumbline. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumbline in the midst of my people Israel: I will not again pass by them any more: And the high 9 places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword. Then Amaziah the priest of Bethel sent to Jeroboam 10 king of Israel, saying, Amos hath conspired against thee in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words. For thus Amos saith, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, 11 and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of their own land. Also Amaziah said unto Amos, O thou seer, go, flee thee away 12 into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there: But prophesy not again any more at Bethel: for it is the king's 13 chapel, and it is the king's court. Then answered Amos, and said 14 to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was an herdsman, and a gatherer of sycamore fruit: And the 15 LORD took me as I followed the flock, and the LORD said unto me, Go, prophesy unto my people Israel. Now therefore hear thou the 16 word of the LORD: Thou sayest, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not thy word against the house of Isaac. Therefore thus saith 17 the LORD; Thy wife shall be an harlot in the city, and thy sons and thy daughters shall fall by the sword, and thy land shall be divided by line; and thou shalt die in a polluted land: and Israel shall surely go into captivity forth of his land.

Thus hath the Lord GOD shewed unto me: and behold a basket 8 of summer fruit. And he said, Amos, what seest thou? And I said, 2 A basket of summer fruit. Then said the LORD unto me, The end is come upon my people of Israel; I will not again pass by them any more. And the songs of the temple shall be howlings in that 3 day, saith the Lord GOD: there shall be many dead bodies in every place; they shall cast them forth with silence. Hear this, O ye 4 that swallow up the needy, even to make the poor of the land to fail, Saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell 5 corn? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and falsifying the balances by deceit? That we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for 6

7 a pair of shoes; yea, and sell the refuse of the wheat? The LORD hath sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget 8 any of their works. Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwelleth therein? and it shall rise up wholly as a flood; and it shall be cast out and drowned, as by the flood of 9 Egypt. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the Lord GOD, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the 10 earth in the clear day: And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring up sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning of an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter 11 day. Behold, the days come, saith the Lord GOD, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, 12 but of hearing the words of the LORD: And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east, they shall run to and fro to seek the word of the LORD, and shall not find it.
 13 In that day shall the fair virgins and young men faint for thirst.
 14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, Thy god, O Dan, liveth; and, The manner of Beersheba liveth; even they shall fall, and never rise up again.

9 I saw the Lord standing upon the altar: and he said, Smite the lintel of the door, that the posts may shake: and cut them in the head, all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: he that fleeth of them shall not flee away, and he that escapeth 2 of them shall not be delivered. Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence 3 will I bring them down: And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I 4 command the serpent, and he shall bite them: And though they go into captivity before their enemies, thence will I command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set mine eyes upon them 5 for evil, and not for good. And the Lord GOD of hosts is he that toucheth the land, and it shall melt, and all that dwell therein shall mourn: and it shall rise up wholly like a flood; and shall be 6 drowned, as by the flood of Egypt. It is he that buildeth his stories in the heaven, and hath founded his troop in the earth; he that calleth for the waters of the sea, and poureth them out upon the face of the earth: The LORD is his name. Are ye not as 7 children of the Ethiopians unto me, O children of Israel? saith the LORD. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt? and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir? Behold, 8 the eyes of the Lord GOD are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; saving that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, saith the LORD. For, lo, I will 9 command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all nations, like as corn is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least grain fall upon the earth. All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, 10 which say, The evil shall not overtake nor prevent us. In that 11 day will I raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up his ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old: That they may possess the remnant 12 of Edom, and of all the heathen, which are called by my name, saith the LORD that doeth this. Behold, the days come, saith 13 the LORD, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that soweth seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt. And I will bring 14 again the captivity of my people of Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them. And I will plant them upon their land, and they 15 shall no more be pulled up out of their land which I have given them, saith the LORD thy God.

OBADIAH.

1  he vision of Obadiah. Thus saith the Lord GOD concerning Edom; We have heard a rumour from the LORD, and an ambassador is sent among the heathen, Arise ye,
2 and let us rise up against her in battle. Behold, I have made thee small among the heathen: thou art greatly despised.
3 The pride of thine heart hath deceived thee, thou that dwellest in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that saith in his
4 heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground? Though thou exalt thyself as the eagle, and though thou set thy nest among the 5 stars, thence will I bring thee down, saith the LORD. If thieves came to thee, if robbers by night, (how art thou cut off!) would they not have stolen till they had enough? if the grapegatherers
6 came to thee, would they not leave some grapes? How are the things of Esau searched out! how are his hidden things sought
7 up! All the men of thy confederacy have brought thee even to the border: the men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee; they that eat thy bread have laid
8 a wound under thee: there is none understanding in him. Shall I not in that day, saith the LORD, even destroy the wise men out 9 of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau? And thy mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every 10 one of the mount of Esau may be cut off by slaughter. For thy violence against thy brother Jacob shame shall cover thee, and thou 11 shalt be cut off for ever. In the day that thou stoodest on the other side, in the day that the strangers carried away captive his forces, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even thou wast as one of them. But thou shouldest not have looked on the day of thy brother in the day that he became a stranger; neither shouldest thou have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress. Thou shouldest not have 13 entered into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yea, thou shouldest not have looked on their affliction in the day of their calamity, nor have laid hands on their substance in the day of their calamity; Neither shouldest thou have stood in the 14 crossway, to cut off those of his that did escape; neither shouldest thou have delivered up those of his that did remain in the day of distress. For the day of the LORD is near upon all the heathen: 15 as thou hast done, it shall be done unto thee: thy reward shall return upon thine own head. For as ye have drunk upon my holy 16 mountain, so shall all the heathen drink continually, yea, they shall drink, and they shall swallow down, and they shall be as though they had not been. But upon mount Zion shall be deliverance, 17 and there shall be holiness; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions. And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the 18 house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall kindle in them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining of the house of Esau; for the LORD hath spoken it. And they of the south shall possess the mount of Esau; and 19 they of the plain the Philistines: and they shall possess the fields of Ephraim, and the fields of Samaria: and Benjamin shall possess Gilead. And the captivity of this host of the children of Israel 20 shall possess that of the Canaanites, even unto Zarephath; and the captivity of Jerusalem, which is in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the south. And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to 21 judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be the LORD'S.

JONAH.

1 ow the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the son of 2 Amittai, saying, Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before 3 me. But Jonah rose up to flee unto Tarshish from the presence of the LORD, and went down to Joppa; and he found a ship going to Tarshish: so he paid the fare thereof, and went down into it, to go with them unto Tarshish from the presence of the 4 LORD. But the LORD sent out a great wind into the sea, and there was a mighty tempest in the sea, so that the ship was like to 5 be broken. Then the mariners were afraid, and cried every man unto his god, and cast forth the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it of them. But Jonah was gone down into the sides 6 of the ship; and he lay, and was fast asleep. So the shipmaster came to him, and said unto him, What meanest thou, O sleeper? arise, call upon thy God, if so be that God will think upon us, that 7 we perish not. And they said every one to his fellow, Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon 8 us. So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah. Then said they unto him, Tell us, we pray thee, for whose cause this evil is upon us; What is thine occupation? and whence comest thou? what 9 is thy country? and of what people art thou? And he said unto them, I am an Hebrew; and I fear the LORD, the God of heaven, 10 which hath made the sea and the dry land. Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said unto him, Why hast thou done this?
For the men knew that he fled from the presence of the LORD, 11 because he had told them. Then said they unto him, What shall we do unto thee, that the sea may be calm unto us? for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous. And he said unto them, Take me 12 up, and cast me forth into the sea; so shall the sea be calm unto you: for I know that for my sake this great tempest is upon you.

 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to bring it to the land; but they 13 could not: for the sea wrought, and was tempestuous against them.
 Wherefore they cried unto the LORD, and said, We beseech thee, 14 O LORD, we beseech thee, let us not perish for this man's life, and lay not upon us innocent blood: for thou, O LORD, hast done as it pleased thee. So they took up Jonah, and cast him forth into 15 the sea: and the sea ceased from her raging. Then the men feared 16 the LORD exceedingly, and offered a sacrifice unto the LORD, and made vows. Now the LORD had prepared a great fish to swallow 17 up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.

Then Jonah prayed unto the LORD his God out of the fish's 2 belly, And said, I cried by reason of mine affliction unto the LORD, 2 and he heard me; out of the belly of hell cried I, and thou heardest my voice. For thou hadst cast me into the deep, in the midst of the 3 seas; and the floods compassed me about: all thy billows and thy waves passed over me. Then I said, I am cast out of thy sight; yet 4 I will look again toward thy holy temple. The waters compassed 5 me about, even to the soul: the depth closed me round about, the weeds were wrapped about my head. I went down to the bottoms 6 of the mountains; the earth with her bars was about me for ever: yet hast thou brought up my life from corruption, O LORD my God. When my soul fainted within me I remembered the LORD: 7 and my prayer came in unto thee, into thine holy temple. They 8 that observe lying vanities forsake their own mercy. But I will 9 sacrifice unto thee with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that that I have vowed. Salvation is of the LORD. And the LORD 10 spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.

And the word of the LORD came unto Jonah the second time, 3 saying, Arise, go unto Nineveh, that great city, and preach unto 2 it the preaching that I bid thee. So Jonah arose, and went unto 3 Nineveh, according to the word of the LORD. Now Nineveh was an 4 exceeding great city of three days' journey. And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, Yet forty 5 days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown. So the people of Nineveh believed God, and proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from 6 the greatest of them even to the least of them. For word came unto the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and he laid his robe from him, and covered him with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.

 7 And he caused it to be proclaimed and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste any thing: let them not feed, nor 8 drink water: But let man and beast be covered with sackcloth, and cry mightily unto God: yea, let them turn every one from his 9 evil way, and from the violence that is in their hands. Who can tell if God will turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce 10 anger, that we perish not? And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil, that he had said that he would do unto them; and he did it not.

4 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was very angry.
 2 And he prayed unto the LORD, and said, I pray thee, O LORD, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I fled before unto Tarshish: for I knew that thou art a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and repentest 3 thee of the evil. Therefore now, O LORD, take, I beseech thee, 4 my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live. Then 5 said the LORD, Doest thou well to be angry? So Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shadow, till he might see 6 what would become of the city. And the LORD God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shadow over his head, to deliver him from his grief. So Jonah was 7 exceeding glad of the gourd. But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it smote the gourd that it withered.
 8 And it came to pass, when the sun did arise, that God prepared a vehement east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, that he fainted, and wished in himself to die, and said, It is better it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night: And 11

MICAH.

- 1  he word of the LORD that came to Micah the Morasthite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
- 2 Hear, all ye people; hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord GOD be witness against you, the Lord from his 3 holy temple. For, behold, the LORD cometh forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.
- 4 And the mountains shall be molten under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, and as the waters that are poured 5 down a steep place. For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah?
6 are they not Jerusalem? Therefore I will make Samaria as an heap of the field, and as plantings of a vineyard: and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will discover the foundations 7 thereof. And all the graven images thereof shall be beaten to pieces, and all the hires thereof shall be burned with the fire, and all the idols thereof will I lay desolate: for she gathered it of the hire of an harlot, and they shall return to the hire of an harlot.
- 8 Therefore I will wail and howl, I will go stripped and naked: I will 9 make a wailing like the dragons, and mourning as the owls. For her wound is incurable; for it is come unto Judah; he is come unto 10 the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem. Declare ye it not at Gath, weep ye not at all: in the house of Aphrah roll thyself in the 11 dust. Pass ye away, thou inhabitant of Saphir, having thy shame naked: the inhabitant of Zaanan came not forth in the mourning of Bethzel; he shall receive of you his standing. For the inhabitant of Maroth waited carefully for good: but evil came down from the LORD unto the gate of Jerusalem. O thou inhabitant of Lachish, bind the chariot to the swift beast: she is the beginning of the sin to the daughter of Zion: for the transgressions of Israel were found in thee. Therefore shalt thou give presents to Moreshethgath: the houses of Achzib shall be a lie to the kings of Israel. Yet will I bring an heir unto thee, O inhabitant of Mareshah: he shall come unto Adullam the glory of Israel. Make thee bald, and poll thee for thy delicate children; enlarge thy baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from thee.

Woe to them that devise iniquity, and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand. And they covet fields, and take them by violence; and houses, and take them away: so they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage. Therefore thus saith the LORD; Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks; neither shall ye go haughtily: for this time is evil. In that day shall one take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We be utterly spoiled: he hath changed the portion of my people: how hath he removed it from me! turning away he hath divided our fields. Therefore thou shalt have none that shall cast a cord by lot in the congregation of the LORD. Prophecy ye not, say they to them that prophecy: they shall not prophecy to them, that they shall not take shame. O thou that art named the house of Jacob, is the spirit of the LORD straitened? are these his doings? do not my words do good to him that walketh uprightly?
 Even of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye pull off the robe with the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war. The women of my people have ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their children have ye taken away my glory

- 10 for ever. Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your rest: because it is polluted, it shall destroy you, even with a sore destruction.
- 11 If a man walking in the spirit and falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy unto thee of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people. I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of thee; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as the flock in the midst of their fold: they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude of men. The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.
- 3 And I said, Hear, I pray you, O heads of Jacob, and ye princes of the house of Israel; Is it not for you to know judgment? Who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones; Who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them; and they break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron. Then shall they cry unto the LORD, but he will not hear them: he will even hide his face from them at that time, as they have behaved themselves ill in their doings. Thus saith the LORD concerning the prophets that make my people err, that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and he that putteth not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him. Therefore night shall be unto you, that ye shall not have a vision; and it shall be dark unto you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down over the prophets, and the day shall be dark over them. Then shall the seers be ashamed, and the diviners confounded: yea, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God. But truly I am full of power by the spirit of the LORD, and of judgment, and of might, to declare unto Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.
- 9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and princes of the house of Israel, that abhor judgment, and pervert all equity.
- 10, 11 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity. The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet will they lean upon the LORD, and say, Is not the LORD among us? none evil can come upon us. Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed 12 as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of the forest.

But in the last days it shall come to pass, that the mountain 4 of the house of the LORD shall be established in the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and people shall flow unto it. And many nations shall come, and say, Come, and 2 let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for the law shall go forth of Zion, and the word of the LORD from Jerusalem. And he shall judge among many people, 3 and rebuke strong nations afar off; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruninghooks: nation shall not lift up a sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more. But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig 4 tree; and none shall make them afraid: for the mouth of the LORD of hosts hath spoken it. For all people will walk every one in the 5 name of his god, and we will walk in the name of the LORD our God for ever and ever. In that day, saith the LORD, will I assemble her 6 that halteth, and I will gather her that is driven out, and her that I have afflicted; And I will make her that halted a remnant, and 7 her that was cast far off a strong nation: and the LORD shall reign over them in mount Zion from henceforth, even for ever. And 8 thou, O tower of the flock, the strong hold of the daughter of Zion, unto thee shall it come, even the first dominion; the kingdom shall come to the daughter of Jerusalem. Now why dost thou cry out 9 aloud? is there no king in thee? is thy counsellor perished? for pangs have taken thee as a woman in travail. Be in pain, and 10 labour to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail: for now shalt thou go forth out of the city, and thou shalt dwell in the field, and thou shalt go even to Babylon; there shalt thou be delivered; there the LORD shall redeem thee from the hand of thine enemies. Now also many nations are gathered against thee, 11 that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye look upon Zion. But 12 they know not the thoughts of the LORD, neither understand they his counsel: for he shall gather them as the sheaves into the floor.
Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion: for I will make thine horn 13 iron, and I will make thy hoofs brass: and thou shalt beat in pieces many people: and I will consecrate their gain unto the LORD, and their substance unto the Lord of the whole earth.

- 5 Now gather thyself in troops, O daughter of troops: he hath laid siege against us: they shall smite the judge of Israel with a rod 2 upon the cheek. But thou, Bethlehem Ephratah, though thou be little among the thousands of Judah, yet out of thee shall he come forth unto me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth have
 3 been from of old, from everlasting. Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she which travaileth hath brought forth: then the remnant of his brethren shall return unto the children of 4 Israel. And he shall stand and feed in the strength of the LORD, in the majesty of the name of the LORD his God; and they shall 5 abide: for now shall he be great unto the ends of the earth. And this man shall be the peace, when the Assyrian shall come into our land: and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise 6 against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men. And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: thus shall he deliver us from the Assyrian, when he cometh into our land, and when he treadeth
 7 within our borders. And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many people as a dew from the LORD, as the showers upon the grass, that tarrieth not for man, nor waiteth for the sons
 8 of men. And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the Gentiles in the midst of many people as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep: who, if he go through, both treadeth down, and teareth in pieces, and none can 9 deliver. Thine hand shall be lifted up upon thine adversaries, and 10 all thine enemies shall be cut off. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that I will cut off thy horses out of the 11 midst of thee, and I will destroy thy chariots: And I will cut off the cities of thy land, and throw down all thy strong holds: And 12 I will cut off witchcrafts out of thine hand; and thou shalt have 13 no more soothsayers: Thy graven images also will I cut off, and thy standing images out of the midst of thee; and thou shalt no

I will execute vengeance in anger and fury upon the heathen, such as they have not heard.

Hear ye now what the LORD saith; Arise, contend thou before the mountains, and let the hills hear thy voice. Hear ye, O mountains, the LORD'S controversy, and ye strong foundations of the earth: for the LORD hath a controversy with his people, and he will plead with Israel. O my people, what have I done unto thee? and wherein have I wearied thee? testify against me. For I brought thee up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed thee out of the house of servants; and I sent before thee Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab consulted, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him from Shittim unto Gilgal; that ye may know the righteousness of the LORD. Wherewith shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves of a year old? Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul? He hath shewed thee, O man, what is good; and what doth the LORD require of thee, but to do justly, and to love mercy, and to walk humbly with thy God? The LORD'S voice crieth unto the city, and the man of wisdom shall see thy name: hear ye the rod, and who hath appointed it. Are there yet the treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and the scant measure that is abominable? Shall I count them pure with the wicked balances, and with the bag of deceitful weights? For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth. Therefore also will I make thee sick in smiting thee, in making thee desolate because of thy sins. Thou shalt eat, but not be satisfied; and thy casting down shall be in the midst of thee; and thou shalt take hold, but shalt not deliver; and that which thou deliverest will I give up to the sword. Thou shalt sow, but thou shalt not reap; thou shalt tread the olives, but thou shalt not anoint thee with oil; and sweet wine, but shalt not drink wine. For the statutes of Omri

- 7 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grapegleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to 2 eat: my soul desired the firstripe fruit. The good man is perished out of the earth: and there is none upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a 3 net. That they may do evil with both hands earnestly, the prince asketh, and the judge asketh for a reward; and the great man, he 4 uttereth his mischievous desire: so they wrap it up. The best of them is as a brier: the most upright is sharper than a thorn hedge: the day of thy watchmen and thy visitation cometh; now shall be

 7 law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house. Therefore I will look unto the LORD; I will wait for the God of my salvation:
 8 my God will hear me. Rejoice not against me, O mine enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, the LORD shall be 9 a light unto me. I will bear the indignation of the LORD, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall 10 behold his righteousness. Then she that is mine enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her which said unto me, Where is the LORD thy God? mine eyes shall behold her: now shall she be trodden

He will turn again, he will have compassion upon us; he will subdue 19

NAHUM.

1  he burden of Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum 2 the Elkoshite. God is jealous, and the LORD revengeth; the LORD revengeth, and is furious; the LORD will take 3 vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserveth wrath for his enemies. The LORD is slow to anger, and great in power, and will not at all acquit the wicked: the LORD hath his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of 4 his feet. He rebuketh the sea, and maketh it dry, and drieth up all the rivers: Bashan languisheth, and Carmel, and the flower of 5 Lebanon languisheth. The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt, and the earth is burned at his presence, yea, the world, and 6 all that dwell therein. Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his fury is poured out 7 like fire, and the rocks are thrown down by him. The LORD is good, a strong hold in the day of trouble; and he knoweth them 8 that trust in him. But with an overrunning flood he will make an utter end of the place thereof, and darkness shall pursue his 9 enemies. What do ye imagine against the LORD? he will make an 10 utter end: affliction shall not rise up the second time. For while they be folden together as thorns, and while they are drunken as 11 drunkards, they shall be devoured as stubble fully dry. There is one come out of thee, that imagineth evil against the LORD, a 12 wicked counsellor. Thus saith the LORD; Though they be quiet, and likewise many, yet thus shall they be cut down, when he shall pass through. Though I have afflicted thee, I will afflict thee no 13 more. For now will I break his yoke from off thee, and will burst concerning thee, that no more of thy name be sown: out of the house of thy gods will I cut off the graven image and the molten image: I will make thy grave; for thou art vile. Behold upon 15 the mountains the feet of him that bringeth good tidings, that publisheth peace! O Judah, keep thy solemn feasts, perform thy vows: for the wicked shall no more pass through thee; he is utterly cut off.

He that dasheth in pieces is come up before thy face: keep the 2 munition, watch the way, make thy loins strong, fortify thy power mightily. For the LORD hath turned away the excellency of Jacob, 2 as the excellency of Israel: for the emptiers have emptied them out, and marred their vine branches. The shield of his mighty men is 3 made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots shall be with flaming torches in the day of his preparation, and the fir trees shall be terribly shaken. The chariots shall rage in the streets, they 4 shall jostle one against another in the broad ways: they shall seem like torches, they shall run like the lightnings. He shall recount his 5 worthies: they shall stumble in their walk; they shall make haste to the wall thereof, and the defence shall be prepared. The gates of 6 the rivers shall be opened, and the palace shall be dissolved. And 7 Huzzab shall be led away captive, she shall be brought up, and her maids shall lead her as with the voice of doves, tabering upon their breasts. But Nineveh is of old like a pool of water: yet they shall 8 HABAKKUK.

1, 2  he burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see. O LORD, how long shall I cry, and thou wilt not hear! even cry out unto thee of violence, and thou wilt not save!
3 Why dost thou shew me iniquity, and cause me to behold grievance? for spoiling and violence are before me: and there are 4 that raise up strife and contention. Therefore the law is slacked, and judgment doth never go forth: for the wicked doth compass 5 about the righteous; therefore wrong judgment proceedeth. Behold ye among the heathen, and regard, and wonder marvellously: for I will work a work in your days, which ye will not believe, 6 though it be told you. For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, which shall march through the breadth of 7 the land, to possess the dwellingplaces that are not theirs. They are terrible and dreadful: their judgment and their dignity shall 8 proceed of themselves. Their horses also are swifter than the leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves: and their horsemen shall spread themselves, and their horsemen shall come 9 from far; they shall fly as the eagle that hasteth to eat. They shall come all for violence: their faces shall sup up as the east 10 wind, and they shall gather the captivity as the sand. And they shall scoff at the kings, and the princes shall be a scorn unto them: they shall deride every strong hold; for they shall heap dust, and 11 take it. Then shall his mind change, and he shall pass over, and 12 offend, imputing this his power unto his god. Art thou not from everlasting, O LORD my God, mine Holy One? we shall not die.
O LORD, thou hast ordained them for judgment; and, O mighty

God, thou hast established them for correction. Thou art of purer 13 eyes than to behold evil, and canst not look on iniquity: wherefore lookest thou upon them that deal treacherously, and holdest thy tongue when the wicked devoureth the man that is more righteous than he? And makest men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping 14 things, that have no ruler over them? They take up all of them 15 with the angle, they catch them in their net, and gather them in their drag: therefore they rejoice and are glad. Therefore they 16 sacrifice unto their net, and burn incense unto their drag; because by them their portion is fat, and their meat plenteous. Shall they 17 therefore empty their net, and not spare continually to slay the nations?

I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will 2 watch to see what he will say unto me, and what I shall answer when I am reproved. And the LORD answered me, and said, 2 Write the vision, and make it plain upon tables, that he may run that readeth it. For the vision is yet for an appointed time, but 3 at the end it shall speak, and not lie: though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not tarry. Behold, his soul 4 which is lifted up is not upright in him: but the just shall live by his faith. Yea also, because he transgresseth by wine, he is a proud 5 man, neither keepeth at home, who enlargeth his desire as hell, all nations, and heapeth unto him all people: Shall not all these 6 take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increaseth that which is not his! how long? and to him that ladeth himself with thick clay! Shall they 7 not rise up suddenly that shall bite thee, and awake that shall vex thee, and thou shalt be for booties unto them? Because thou hast 8 spoiled many nations, all the remnant of the people shall spoil thee; because of men's blood, and for the violence of the land, of the city, is it not of the LORD of hosts that the people shall labour in the very fire, and the people shall weary themselves for very vanity?

 14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the 15 LORD, as the waters cover the sea. Woe unto him that giveth his land in indignation, thou didst thresh the heathen in anger. Thou 13 wentest forth for the salvation of thy people, even for salvation with thine anointed; thou woundedst the head out of the house of the wicked, by discovering the foundation unto the neck. Selah. Thou 14 didst strike through with his staves the head of his villages: they came out as a whirlwind to scatter me: their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly. Thou didst walk through the sea with 15 thine horses, through the heap of great waters. When I heard, my 16 belly trembled; my lips quivered at the voice: rottenness entered into my bones, and I trembled in myself, that I might rest in the

ZEPHANIAH.

1  he word of the LORD which came unto Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the 2 son of Hizkiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, 3 king of Judah. I will utterly consume all things from off the land, saith the LORD. I will consume man and beast; I will consume the fowls of the heaven, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man 4 from off the land, saith the LORD. I will also stretch out mine hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of 5 the Chemarims with the priests; And them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship and that 6 swear by the LORD, and that swear by Malcham; And them that are turned back from the LORD; and those that have not sought 7 the LORD, nor enquired for him. Hold thy peace at the presence of the Lord GOD: for the day of the LORD is at hand: for the 8 LORD hath prepared a sacrifice, he hath bid his guests. And it shall come to pass in the day of the LORD's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's children, and all such as are 9 clothed with strange apparel. In the same day also will I punish all those that leap on the threshold, which fill their masters' houses 10 with violence and deceit. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD, that there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and an howling from the second, and a great crashing from 11 the hills. Howl, ye inhabitants of Maktesh, for all the merchant 12 people are cut down; all they that bear silver are cut off. And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with candles, and punish the men that are settled on their lees: that say in their heart, The LORD will not do good, neither will he do evil. Therefore their goods shall become a booty, and their houses 13 a desolation: they shall also build houses, but not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but not drink the wine thereof.

 The great day of the LORD is near, it is near, and hasteth greatly, 14 even the voice of the day of the LORD: the mighty man shall cry there bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble 15 and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, A day of the 16 trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk 17 like blind men, because they have sinned against the LORD: and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung.
 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in 18 the day of the LORD'S wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he shall make even a speedy riddance of all them that dwell in the land.

Gather yourselves together, yea, gather together, O nation not 2 desired; Before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the 2 chaff, before the fierce anger of the LORD come upon you, before the day of the LORD'S anger come upon you. Seek ye the 3 LORD, all ye meek of the earth, which have wrought his judgment; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye shall be hid in the day of the LORD'S anger. For Gaza shall be forsaken, and 4 Ashkelon a desolation: they shall drive out Ashdod at the noon day, and Ekron shall be rooted up. Woe unto the inhabitants 5 of the sea coast, the nation of the Cherethites! the word of the LORD is against you; O Canaan, the land of the Philistines, I will even destroy thee, that there shall be no inhabitant. And the sea 6 coast shall be dwellings and cottages for shepherds, and folds for flocks. And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of 7 Judah; they shall feed thereupon: in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening: for the LORD their God shall visit them, and turn away their captivity. I have heard the reproach of 8 Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, whereby they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border. Therefore as I live, saith the LORD of hosts, the God of 9 v.12 settled: Heb. curded, or, thickened. 2. v.1 not....: or, not desirous. v.7 for the LORD: or, when, etc.

Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, even the breeding of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall spoil them, and the remnant of my people shall possess them. This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of the LORD of hosts. The LORD will be terrible unto them: for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the heathen. Ye Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword. And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria; and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like a wilderness. And flocks shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the cormorant and the bittern shall lodge in the upper lintels of it; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he shall uncover the cedar work. This is the rejoicing city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none beside me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passeth by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3 Woe to her that is filthy and polluted, to the oppressing city!
 2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted 3 not in the LORD; she drew not near to her God. Her princes within her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they 4 gnaw not the bones till the morrow. Her prophets are light and treacherous persons: her priests have polluted the sanctuary, they 5 have done violence to the law. The just LORD is in the midst thereof; he will not do iniquity: every morning doth he bring his judgment to light, he faileth not; but the unjust knoweth no shame.
 6 I have cut off the nations: their towers are desolate; I made their streets waste, that none passeth by: their cities are destroyed, so 7 that there is no man, that there is none inhabitant. I said, Surely thou wilt fear me, thou wilt receive instruction; so their dwelling should not be cut off, howsoever I punished them: but they rose 8 early, and corrupted all their doings. Therefore wait ye upon me, saith the LORD, until the day that I rise up to the prey: for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them mine indignation, even all my fierce anger: for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy. For then will I turn to the people a pure language, that 9 they may all call upon the name of the LORD, to serve him with one consent. From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, 10 even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring mine offering. In 11 that day shalt thou not be ashamed for all thy doings, wherein thou hast transgressed against me: for then I will take away out of the midst of thee them that rejoice in thy pride, and thou shalt no more be haughty because of my holy mountain. I will also 12 leave in the midst of thee an afflicted and poor people, and they shall trust in the name of the LORD. The remnant of Israel shall 13 not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth: for they shall feed and lie down, and none shall make them afraid. Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; 14 be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem. The LORD hath taken away thy judgments, he hath cast out thine 15 enemy: the king of Israel, even the LORD, is in the midst of thee: thou shalt not see evil any more. In that day it shall be said to 16 Jerusalem, Fear thou not: and to Zion, Let not thine hands be slack. The LORD thy God in the midst of thee is mighty; he will 17 save, he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love, he will joy over thee with singing. I will gather them that are 18 sorrowful for the solemn assembly, who are of thee, to whom the reproach of it was a burden. Behold, at that time I will undo all 19 that afflict thee: and I will save her that halteth, and gather her that was driven out; and I will get them praise and fame in every land where they have been put to shame. At that time will I bring 20 you again, even in the time that I gather you: for I will make you a name and a praise among all people of the earth, when I turn back your captivity before your eyes, saith the LORD.

HAGGAI.

1  n the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet unto Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son 2 of Josedech, the high priest, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, This people say, The time is not come, the time that 3 the LORD'S house should be built. Then came the word of the 4 LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Is it time for you, O ye, to 5 dwell in your cieled houses, and this house lie waste? Now there-6 fore thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider your ways. Ye have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe you, but there is none warm; and he that earneth wages earneth wages to put it 7 into a bag with holes. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Consider 8 your ways. Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, saith the 9 LORD. Ye looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? saith the LORD of hosts. Because of mine house that is waste, and ye run every 10 man unto his own house. Therefore the heaven over you is stayed 11 from dew, and the earth is stayed from her fruit. And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the corn, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground bringeth forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, 12 and upon all the labour of the hands. Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of the LORD their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as the LORD their God had sent him, and the people did fear before the LORD. Then 13 spake Haggai the LORD's messenger in the LORD's message unto the people, saying, I am with you, saith the LORD. And the LORD 14 stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work in the house of the LORD of hosts, their God, In the four and twentieth day of the sixth month, in the second 15 year of Darius the king.

In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the 2 month, came the word of the LORD by the prophet Haggai, saying, Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of 2 Judah, and to Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest, and to the residue of the people, saying, Who is left among you that saw 3 this house in her first glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes in comparison of it as nothing? Yet now be strong, 4 O Zerubbabel, saith the LORD; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Josedech, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, saith the LORD, and work: for I am with you, saith the LORD of hosts: According to the word that I covenanted with you when ye 5 came out of Egypt, so my spirit remaineth among you: fear ye not.
For thus saith the LORD of hosts; Yet once, it is a little while, and 6
I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land; And I will shake all nations, and the desire of all nations 7 shall come: and I will fill this house with glory, saith the LORD of hosts. The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, saith the LORD 8 of hosts. The glory of this latter house shall be greater than of the former, saith the LORD of hosts: and in this place will I give peace, saith the LORD of hosts. In the four and twentieth day of 10 the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD by Haggai the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD 11 of hosts; Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying, If one 12 bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any meat, shall it be holy? And the priests answered and said, No. Then said Haggai, 13 If one that is unclean by a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean. Then answered Haggai, and said, So is this people, and 14 so is this nation before me, saith the LORD; and so is every work 15 of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean. And now, I pray you, consider from this day and upward, from before 16 a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of the LORD: Since those days were, when one came to an heap of twenty measures, there were but ten: when one came to the pressfat for to draw out 17 fifty vessels out of the press, there were but twenty. I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of 18 your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD. Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the 19 LORD'S temple was laid, consider it. Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

20 And again the word of the LORD came unto Haggai in the four 21 and twentieth day of the month, saying, Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth; 22 And I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms, and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the heathen; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their 23 riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, will I take thee, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, saith the LORD, and will make thee as a signet: for I have chosen thee, saith the LORD of hosts.

ZECHARIAH.

 n the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came 1 the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Bere- 2 chiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, The LORD 3 hath been sore displeased with your fathers. Therefore 4 say thou unto them, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye unto me, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will turn unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. Be ye not as your fathers, unto whom the for- 4 mer prophets have cried, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken unto me, saith the LORD. Your 5 fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants 6 the prophets, did they not take hold of your fathers? and they returned and said, Like as the LORD of hosts thought to do unto us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so hath he dealt with us. Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh 7 month, which is the month Sebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of the LORD unto Zechariah, the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo the prophet, saying, I saw by night, and behold a 8 man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle trees that were in the bottom; and behind him were there red horses, speckled, and white. Then said I, O my lord, what are these? 9 And the angel that talked with me said unto me, I will shew thee what these be. And the man that stood among the myrtle trees 10 answered and said, These are they whom the LORD hath sent to walk to and fro through the earth. And they answered the angel 11 of the LORD that stood among the myrtle trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sitteth still, and is at rest. Then the angel of the LORD answered 12 and said, O LORD of hosts, how long wilt thou not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which thou hast 13 had indignation these threescore and ten years? And the LORD answered the angel that talked with me with good words and com-14 fortable words. So the angel that communed with me said unto me, Cry thou, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; I am jealous 15 for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy. And I am very sore displeased with the heathen that are at ease: for I was but a 16 little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction. Therefore thus saith the LORD; I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies: my house shall be built in it, saith the LORD of hosts, and a line shall 17 be stretched forth upon Jerusalem. Cry yet, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; My cities through prosperity shall yet be spread abroad; and the LORD shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose 18 Jerusalem. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and saw, and behold four 19 horns. And I said unto the angel that talked with me, What be these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered 20 Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem. And the LORD shewed me 21 four carpenters. Then said I, What come these to do? And he spake, saying, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head: but these are come to fray them, to cast out the horns of the Gentiles, which lifted up their horn over the land of Judah to scatter it.

2 I lifted up mine eyes again, and looked, and behold a man with 2 a measuring line in his hand. Then said I, Whither goest thou? And he said unto me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the 3 breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof. And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out
 4 to meet him, And said unto him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as towns without walls for the 5 multitude of men and cattle therein: For I, saith the LORD, will be unto her a wall of fire round about, and will be the glory in the 6 midst of her. Ho, ho, come forth, and flee from the land of the north, saith the LORD: for I have spread you abroad as the four 7 winds of the heaven, saith the LORD. Deliver thyself, O Zion, that dwellest with the daughter of Babylon. For thus saith the 8 LORD of hosts; After the glory hath he sent me unto the nations which spoiled you: for he that toucheth you toucheth the apple of his eye. For, behold, I will shake mine hand upon them, and they 9 shall be a spoil to their servants: and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me. Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion: for, 10 lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of thee, saith the LORD.

 And many nations shall be joined to the LORD in that day, and 11 shall be my people: and I will dwell in the midst of thee, and thou shalt know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto thee. And 12 the LORD shall inherit Judah his portion in the holy land, and shall choose Jerusalem again. Be silent, O all flesh, before the 13 LORD: for he is raised up out of his holy habitation.

And he shewed me Joshua the high priest standing before the 3 angel of the LORD, and Satan standing at his right hand to resist him. And the LORD said unto Satan, The LORD rebuke thee, 2 O Satan; even the LORD that hath chosen Jerusalem rebuke thee: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire? Now Joshua was 3 clothed with filthy garments, and stood before the angel. And he 4 answered and spake unto those that stood before him, saying, Take away the filthy garments from him. And unto him he said, Behold, I have caused thine iniquity to pass from thee, and I will clothe 5 thee with change of raiment. And I said, Let them set a fair mitre 5 upon his head. So they set a fair mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments. And the angel of the LORD stood by. And 6 the angel of the LORD protested unto Joshua, saying, Thus saith 7 the LORD of hosts; If thou wilt walk in my ways, and if thou wilt keep my charge, then thou shalt also judge my house, and shalt also keep my courts, and I will give thee places to walk among these that stand by. Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, thou, 8 and thy fellows that sit before thee: for they are men wondered at: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the BRANCH. For 9 behold the stone that I have laid before Joshua; upon one stone shall be seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, saith the LORD of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day. In that day, saith the LORD of hosts, shall ye call every 10 man his neighbour under the vine and under the fig tree.

And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, 4 as a man that is wakened out of his sleep, And said unto me, What 2 seest thou? And I said, I have looked, and behold a candlestick all of gold, with a bowl upon the top of it, and his seven lamps thereon, and seven pipes to the seven lamps, which are upon the 3 top thereof: And two olive trees by it, one upon the right side of 4 the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof. So I answered and spake to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these,

 5 my lord? Then the angel that talked with me answered and said unto me, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my 6 lord. Then he answered and spake unto me, saying, This is the word of the LORD unto Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by 7 power, but by my spirit, saith the LORD of hosts. Who art thou, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel thou shalt become a plain: and he shall bring forth the headstone thereof with shoutings, crying, 8 Grace, grace unto it. Moreover the word of the LORD came unto 9 me, saying, The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and thou shalt know 10 that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole 11 earth. Then answered I, and said unto him, What are these two olive trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left 12 side thereof? And I answered again, and said unto him, What be these two olive branches which through the two golden pipes 13 empty the golden oil out of themselves? And he answered me and said, Knowest thou not what these be? And I said, No, my 14 lord. Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.

5 Then I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and behold
 2 a flying roll. And he said unto me, What seest thou? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, 3 and the breadth thereof ten cubits. Then said he unto me, This is the curse that goeth forth over the face of the whole earth: for every one that stealeth shall be cut off as on this side according to it; and every one that sweareth shall be cut off as on that side according to it. I will bring it forth, saith the LORD of hosts, 4 and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that sweareth falsely by my name: and it shall remain in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof. Then the angel that talked with me went 5 forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth. And I said, What is it? And he said, 6 This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth. And, behold, there was lifted 7 up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah. And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it 8 into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof. Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, 9 behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven. Then said I to 10 the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

 And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: 11 and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base.

And I turned, and lifted up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, 6 there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass. In the first chariot were red 2 horses; and in the second chariot black horses; And in the third 3 chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grisled and bay horses. Then I answered and said unto the angel that talked with 4 me, What are these, my lord? And the angel answered and said 5 unto me, These are the four spirits of the heavens, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth. The black horses 6 which are therein go forth into the north country; and the white go forth after them; and the grisled go forth toward the south country.
 And the bay went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to 7 and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you hence, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.
 Then cried he upon me, and spake unto me, saying, Behold, these 8 that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country. And the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, 9 Take of them of the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of 10

Jedaiah, which are come from Babylon, and come thou the same 11 day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah; Then take silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head 12 of Joshua the son of Josedech, the high priest; And speak unto him, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Behold the man whose name is The BRANCH; and he shall grow up out of 13 his place, and he shall build the temple of the LORD: Even he shall build the temple of the LORD; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne: and the counsel of peace shall be between them 14 both. And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the 15 temple of the LORD. And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of the LORD, and ye shall know that the LORD of hosts hath sent me unto you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of the LORD your God.

7 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of the LORD came unto Zechariah in the fourth day of the 2 ninth month, even in Chisleu; When they had sent unto the house of God Sherezzer and Regemmelech, and their men, to pray before 3 the LORD, And to speak unto the priests which were in the house of the LORD of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many 4 years? Then came the word of the LORD of hosts unto me, saying, 5 Speak unto all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying,
 When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and seventh month, even 6 those seventy years, did ye at all fast unto me, even to me? And when ye did eat, and when ye did drink, did not ye eat for your- 7 selves, and drink for yourselves? Should ye not hear the words which the LORD hath cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round 8 about her, when men inhabited the south and the plain? And the 9 word of the LORD came unto Zechariah, saying, Thus speaketh the LORD of hosts, saying, Execute true judgment, and shew mercy 10 and compassions every man to his brother: And oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the stranger, nor the poor; and let none of you imagine evil against his brother in your heart. But they re- 11 fused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they should not hear. Yea, they made their hearts as an 12 adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which the LORD of hosts hath sent in his spirit by the former prophets: therefore came a great wrath from the LORD of hosts. Therefore 13 it is come to pass, that as he cried, and they would not hear; so they cried, and I would not hear, saith the LORD of hosts: But 14 I scattered them with a whirlwind among all the nations whom they knew not. Thus the land was desolate after them, that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.

Again the word of the LORD of hosts came to me, saying, Thus 8, 2 saith the LORD of hosts; I was jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I was jealous for her with great fury. Thus saith the LORD; I 3 am returned unto Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called a city of truth; and the mountain of the LORD of hosts the holy mountain. Thus saith the LORD of 4 hosts; There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, and every man with his staff in his hand for very age. And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls 5 playing in the streets thereof. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; If 6 it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in these days, should it also be marvellous in mine eyes? saith the LORD of hosts. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Behold, I will save my 7 people from the east country, and from the west country; And I 8 will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; Let your hands be 9 strong, ye that hear in these days these words by the mouth of the prophets, which were in the day that the foundation of the house of the LORD of hosts was laid, that the temple might be built.
 For before these days there was no hire for man, nor any hire for 10 beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in because of the affliction: for I set all men every one against his 12 as in the former days, saith the LORD of hosts. For the seed shall be prosperous; the vine shall give her fruit, and the ground shall give her increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will 13 cause the remnant of this people to possess all these things. And it shall come to pass, that as ye were a curse among the heathen, O house of Judah, and house of Israel; so will I save you, and ye 14 shall be a blessing: fear not, but let your hands be strong. For thus saith the LORD of hosts; As I thought to punish you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, saith the LORD of hosts, and 15 I repented not: So again have I thought in these days to do well 16 unto Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not. These are the things that ye shall do; Speak ye every man the truth to his neighbour; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your 17 gates: And let none of you imagine evil in your hearts against his neighbour; and love no false oath: for all these are things that 18 I hate, saith the LORD. And the word of the LORD of hosts 19 came unto me, saying, Thus saith the LORD of hosts; The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love the truth and 20 peace. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come people, and the inhabitants of many cities: 21 And the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to pray before the LORD, and to seek the LORD of 22 hosts: I will go also. Yea, many people and strong nations shall come to seek the LORD of hosts in Jerusalem, and to pray before 23 the LORD. Thus saith the LORD of hosts; In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold out of all languages of the nations, even shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you: for we have heard that God is with you.

also shall border thereby; Tyrus, and Zidon, though it be very wise. And Tyrus did build herself a strong hold, and heaped up silver 3 as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets. Behold, the 4 Lord will cast her out, and he will smite her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire. Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; 5 Gaza also shall see it, and be very sorrowful, and Ekron; for her expectation shall be ashamed; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited. And a bastard shall dwell 6 in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines. And I 7 will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth: but he that remaineth, even he, shall be for our God, and he shall be as a governor in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite. And I will encamp about mine house because of 8 the army, because of him that passeth by, and because of him that returneth: and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with mine eyes. Rejoice greatly, O daughter 9 of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass. And I will cut off 10 the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem, and the battle bow shall be cut off: and he shall speak peace unto the heathen: and his dominion shall be from sea even to sea, and from the river even to the ends of the earth. As for thee also, by the 11 blood of thy covenant I have sent forth thy prisoners out of the pit wherein is no water. Turn you to the strong hold, ye prisoners of 12 hope: even to day do I declare that I will render double unto thee; When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and 13 raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man. And the LORD shall be seen 14 over them, and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning: and the Lord GOD shall blow the trumpet, and shall go with whirlwinds of the south. The LORD of hosts shall defend them; and they shall 15 devour, and subdue with sling stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, and as the corners of the altar. And the LORD their God shall 16 save them in that day as the flock of his people: for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted up as an ensign upon his land. For 17

 2 to every one grass in the field. For the idols have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie, and have told false dreams; they comfort in vain: therefore they went their way as a flock, they were
 3 troubled, because there was no shepherd. Mine anger was kindled against the shepherds, and I punished the goats: for the LORD of hosts hath visited his flock the house of Judah, and hath made 4 them as his goodly horse in the battle. Out of him came forth the corner, out of him the nail, out of him the battle bow, out of 5 him every oppressor together. And they shall be as mighty men, which tread down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle: and they shall fight, because the LORD is with them, and
 6 the riders on horses shall be confounded. And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them again to place them; for I have mercy upon them: and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am the

 9 And I will sow them among the people: and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and turn 10 again. I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of 11 Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them. And he shall pass through the sea with affliction, and shall smite the waves in the sea, and all the deeps of the river shall dry up: and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt are spoiled: howl, O ye oaks of Bashan; for the forest of the vintage is come down. There is a voice of the howling of the shepherds; 3 for their glory is spoiled: a voice of the roaring of young lions; for the pride of Jordan is spoiled. Thus saith the LORD my God; 4 Feed the flock of the slaughter; Whose possessors slay them, and 5 hold themselves not guilty: and they that sell them say, Blessed be the LORD; for I am rich: and their own shepherds pity them not.

 For I will no more pity the inhabitants of the land, saith the LORD: 6 but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbour's hand, and into the hand of his king: and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them. And I will feed the flock 7 of slaughter, even you, O poor of the flock. And I took unto me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock. Three shepherds also I cut off in one month; 8 and my soul lothed them, and their soul also abhorred me. Then 9 said I, I will not feed you: that that dieth, let it die; and that that is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let the rest eat every one the flesh of another. And I took my staff, even Beauty, and cut it 10 asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the people. And it was broken in that day: and so the poor 11 of the flock that waited upon me knew that it was the word of the LORD. And I said unto them, If ye think good, give me my price; 12 and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my price thirty pieces of silver. And the LORD said unto me, Cast it unto the potter: a 13 goodly price that I was prised at of them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and cast them to the potter in the house of the LORD. Then I cut asunder mine other staff, even Bands, that I 14 might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel. And the 15 LORD said unto me, Take unto thee yet the instruments of a foolish shepherd. For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, which 16 shall not visit those that be cut off, neither shall seek the young one, nor heal that that is broken, nor feed that that standeth still:
 but he shall eat the flesh of the fat, and tear their claws in pieces.

- 12 The burden of the word of the LORD for Israel, saith the LORD, which stretcheth forth the heavens, and layeth the foundation of 2 the earth, and formeth the spirit of man within him. Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against 3 Jerusalem. And in that day will I make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all people: all that burden themselves with it shall be cut in pieces, though all the people of the earth be gathered together 4 against it. In that day, saith the LORD, I will smite every horse with astonishment, and his rider with madness: and I will open mine eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of 5 the people with blindness. And the governors of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem shall be my strength 6 in the LORD of hosts their God. In that day will I make the governors of Judah like an hearth of fire among the wood, and like a torch of fire in a sheaf; and they shall devour all the people round about, on the right hand and on the left: and Jerusalem
 7 shall be inhabited again in her own place, even in Jerusalem. The LORD also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem
 8 do not magnify themselves against Judah. In that day shall the LORD defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David 9 shall be as God, as the angel of the LORD before them. And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the 10 nations that come against Jerusalem. And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplications: and they shall look upon me whom they have pierced, and they shall mourn for him, as one mourneth for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that 11 is in bitterness for his firstborn. In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in

In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of 13 David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem for sin and for uncleanness. And it shall come to pass in that day, saith the LORD of 2 hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered: and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land. And it shall 3 come to pass, that when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say unto him, Thou shalt not live; for thou speakest lies in the name of the LORD: and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesieth. And it shall come to pass in that day, that the 4 prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he hath prophesied; neither shall they wear a rough garment to deceive: But he shall say, I am no prophet, I am an husbandman; for man 5 taught me to keep cattle from my youth. And one shall say unto 6 him, What are these wounds in thine hands? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends. Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that 7 is my fellow, saith the LORD of hosts: smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered: and I will turn mine hand upon the little ones. And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, saith 8 the LORD, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein. And I will bring the third part through the 9 fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried: they shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people: and they shall say, The LORD is my God.

Behold, the day of the LORD cometh, and thy spoil shall be 14 divided in the midst of thee. For I will gather all nations against 2 Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city. Then shall the LORD go forth, and fight against 3 those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle. And his feet 4 11 from the tower of Hananeel unto the king's winepresses. And men shall dwell in it, and there shall be no more utter destruction;

12 but Jerusalem shall be safely inhabited. And this shall be the plague wherewith the LORD will smite all the people that have fought against Jerusalem; Their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their holes, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.
13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from the LORD shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbour, and his hand shall rise up against the 14 hand of his neighbour. And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the heathen round about shall be gathered MALACHI.

1  he burden of the word of the LORD to Israel by Malachi.
2 I have loved you, saith the LORD. Yet ye say, Wherein 3 hast thou loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother? saith 4 the LORD: yet I loved Jacob, And I hated Esau, and laid his mountains and his heritage waste for the dragons of the 5 wilderness. Whereas Edom saith, We are impoverished, but we will return and build the desolate places; thus saith the LORD of 6 hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and they shall call them, The border of wickedness, and, The people against whom 7 the LORD hath indignation for ever. And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, The LORD will be magnified from the border of 8 Israel. A son honoureth his father, and a servant his master: if then I be a father, where is mine honour? and if I be a master, where is my fear? saith the LORD of hosts unto you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, Wherein have we despised 9 thy name? Ye offer polluted bread upon mine altar; and ye say, Wherein have we polluted thee? In that ye say, The table of the 10 LORD is contemptible. And if ye offer the blind for sacrifice, is it not evil? and if ye offer the lame and sick, is it not evil? offer it now unto thy governor; will he be pleased with thee, or 11 accept thy person? saith the LORD of hosts. And now, I pray you, beseech God that he will be gracious unto us: this hath been by your means: will he regard your persons? saith the LORD of hosts. Who is there even among you that would shut the doors for nought? neither do ye kindle fire on mine altar for nought. I have no pleasure in you, saith the LORD of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand. For from the rising of the sun even unto the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered unto my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the heathen, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye have profaned it, in that ye say, 12 The table of the LORD is polluted; and the fruit thereof, even his meat, is contemptible. Ye said also, Behold, what a weariness 13 is it! and ye have snuffed at it, saith the LORD of hosts; and ye brought that which was torn, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye brought an offering: should I accept this of your hand? saith the LORD. But cursed be the deceiver, which hath in his flock a male, 14 and voweth, and sacrificeth unto the Lord a corrupt thing: for I am a great King, saith the LORD of hosts, and my name is dreadful among the heathen.

And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you. If ye will 2, 2 not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory unto my name, saith the LORD of hosts, I will even send a curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings: yea, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart. Behold, I will corrupt your seed, 3 and spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your solemn feasts; and one shall take you away with it. And ye shall know 4 that I have sent this commandment unto you, that my covenant might be with Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. My covenant was 5 with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him for the fear wherewith he feared me, and was afraid before my name. The 6 law of truth was in his mouth, and iniquity was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and equity, and did turn many away from iniquity. For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, 7 and they should seek the law at his mouth: for he is the messenger of the LORD of hosts. But ye are departed out of the way; ye 8 have caused many to stumble at the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, saith the LORD of hosts. Therefore have I also 9 made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have been partial in the law. Have we not all one father? hath not one God created us? why do 10 we deal treacherously every man against his brother, by profaning the covenant of our fathers? Judah hath dealt treacherously, and 11 an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah hath profaned the holiness of the LORD which he loved, and hath 12 married the daughter of a strange god. The LORD will cut off the man that doeth this, the master and the scholar, out of the tabernacles of Jacob, and him that offereth an offering unto the 13 LORD of hosts. And this have ye done again, covering the altar of the LORD with tears, with weeping, and with crying out, insomuch that he regardeth not the offering any more, or receiveth it with 14 good will at your hand. Yet ye say, Wherefore? Because the LORD hath been witness between thee and the wife of thy youth, against whom thou hast dealt treacherously: yet is she thy companion, 15 and the wife of thy covenant. And did not he make one? Yet had he the residue of the spirit. And wherefore one? That he might seek a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and 16 let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth. For the LORD, the God of Israel, saith that he hateth putting away: for one covereth violence with his garment, saith the LORD of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.

 17 Ye have wearied the LORD with your words. Yet ye say, Wherein have we wearied him? When ye say, Every one that doeth evil is good in the sight of the LORD, and he delighteth in them; or,
 Where is the God of judgment?

3 Behold, I will send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, shall suddenly come to his temple, even the messenger of the covenant, whom ye delight 2 in: behold, he shall come, saith the LORD of hosts. But who may abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he 3 appeareth? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fullers' soap: And he shall sit as a refiner and purifier of silver: and he shall purify the sons of Levi, and purge them as gold and silver, that they may 4 offer unto the LORD an offering in righteousness. Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant unto the LORD, as in 5 the days of old, and as in former years. And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the stranger from his right, and fear not me, saith the LORD of hosts. For I am the LORD, I change 6 not; therefore ye sons of Jacob are not consumed. Even from the 7 days of your fathers ye are gone away from mine ordinances, and have not kept them. Return unto me, and I will return unto you, saith the LORD of hosts. But ye said, Wherein shall we return?

 Will a man rob God? Yet ye have robbed me. But ye say, Wherein 8 have we robbed thee? In tithes and offerings. Ye are cursed with 9 a curse: for ye have robbed me, even this whole nation. Bring 10 ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the LORD of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I 11 will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the LORD of hosts. And all nations 12 shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightsome land, saith the LORD of hosts. Your words have been stout against me, saith the 13 LORD. Yet ye say, What have we spoken so much against thee?
 Ye have said, It is vain to serve God: and what profit is it that 14 we have kept his ordinance, and that we have walked mournfully before the LORD of hosts? And now we call the proud happy; yea, 15 they that work wickedness are set up; yea, they that tempt God are even delivered. Then they that feared the LORD spake often 16 one to another: and the LORD hearkened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the LORD, and that thought upon his name. And they shall be mine, 17 saith the LORD of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spareth his own son that serveth him. Then shall ye return, and discern between the righteous and 18 the wicked, between him that serveth God and him that serveth him not.

For, behold, the day cometh, that shall burn as an oven; and 4 all the proud, yea, and all that do wickedly, shall be stubble: and the day that cometh shall burn them up, saith the LORD of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch. But unto you 2 that fear my name shall the Sun of righteousness arise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the under the soles of your feet in the day that I shall do this, saith the 4 LORD of hosts. Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded unto him in Horeb for all Israel, with the statutes 5 and judgments. Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before 6 the coming of the great and dreadful day of the LORD: And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MATTHEW.

 he book of the generation of Jesus Christ, the son of 1 David, the son of Abraham. Abraham begat Isaac; and 2 Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat Judas and his brethren; And Judas begat Phares and Zara of Thamar; 3 and Phares begat Esrom; and Esrom begat Aram; And Aram 4 begat Aminadab; and Aminadab begat Naasson; and Naasson begat Salmon; And Salmon begat Booz of Rachab; and Booz begat 5 Obed of Ruth; and Obed begat Jesse; And Jesse begat David the 6 king; and David the king begat Solomon of her that had been the wife of Urias; And Solomon begat Roboam; and Roboam begat 7 Abia; and Abia begat Asa; And Asa begat Josaphat; and Jos- 8 aphat begat Joram; and Joram begat Ozias; And Ozias begat 9 Joatham; and Joatham begat Achaz; and Achaz begat Ezekias;
And Ezekias begat Manasses; and Manasses begat Amon; and 10 Amon begat Josias; And Josias begat Jechonias and his brethren, 11 about the time they were carried away to Babylon: And after they 12 were brought to Babylon, Jechonias begat Salathiel; and Salathiel begat Zorobabel; And Zorobabel begat Abiud; and Abiud begat 13 Eliakim; and Eliakim begat Azor; And Azor begat Sadoc; and 14
Sadoc begat Achim; and Achim begat Eliud; And Eliud begat 15
Eleazar; and Eleazar begat Matthan; and Matthan begat Jacob;
And Jacob begat Joseph the husband of Mary, of whom was born 16 Jesus, who is called Christ. So all the generations from Abraham 17 to David are fourteen generations; and from David until the carrying away into Babylon are fourteen generations; and from the carrying away into Babylon unto Christ are fourteen generations.
Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as his mother 18

1. v.11 Josiah....: some read, Josiah begat Jehoiakim, and Jehoiakim begat Jeconiah.

Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together, she was 19 found with child of the Holy Ghost. Then Joseph her husband, being a just man, and not willing to make her a publick example, 20 was minded to put her away privily. But while he thought on these things, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared unto him in a dream, saying, Joseph, thou son of David, fear not to take unto thee Mary thy wife: for that which is conceived in her is of the 21 Holy Ghost. And she shall bring forth a son, and thou shalt call 22 his name JESUS: for he shall save his people from their sins. Now all this was done, that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of 23 the Lord by the prophet, saying, Behold, a virgin shall be with child, and shall bring forth a son, and they shall call his name Em-24 manuel, which being interpreted is, God with us. Then Joseph being raised from sleep did as the angel of the Lord had bidden 25 him, and took unto him his wife: And knew her not till she had brought forth her firstborn son: and he called his name JESUS.

2 Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judaea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to 2 Jerusalem, Saying, Where is he that is born King of the Jews?
 for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship him.
 3 When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, 4 and all Jerusalem with him. And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of 5 them where Christ should be born. And they said unto him, In 6 Bethlehem of Judaea: for thus it is written by the prophet, And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Juda, art not the least among the princes of Juda: for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall 7 rule my people Israel. Then Herod, when he had privily called the wise men, enquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.
 8 And he sent them to Bethlehem, and said, Go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found him, bring me word 9 again, that I may come and worship him also. When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where 10 the young child was. When they saw the star, they rejoiced with 11 exceeding great joy. And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary his mother, and fell down, his name shall be called. 2. v.6 rule: or, feed.

and worshipped him: and when they had opened their treasures, they presented unto him gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh. And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return 12 to Herod, they departed into their own country another way. And 13 when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeareth to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word: for Herod will seek the young child to destroy him. When 14 he arose, he took the young child and his mother by night, and departed into Egypt: And was there until the death of Herod: that 15 it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son. Then Herod, when he 16 saw that he was mocked of the wise men, was exceeding wroth, and sent forth, and slew all the children that were in Bethlehem, and in all the coasts thereof, from two years old and under, according to the time which he had diligently enquired of the wise men. Then 17 was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, In Rama was there a voice heard, lamentation, and weeping, and 18 great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and would not be comforted, because they are not. But when Herod was dead, 19 behold, an angel of the Lord appeareth in a dream to Joseph in Egypt, Saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother, 20 and go into the land of Israel: for they are dead which sought the young child's life. And he arose, and took the young child and his 21 mother, and came into the land of Israel. But when he heard that 22 Archelaus did reign in Judaea in the room of his father Herod, he was afraid to go thither: notwithstanding, being warned of God in a dream, he turned aside into the parts of Galilee: And he came 23 and dwelt in a city called Nazareth: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophets, He shall be called a Nazarene.

In those days came John the Baptist, preaching in the wilderness 3 of Judaea, And saying, Repent ye: for the kingdom of heaven is 2 at hand. For this is he that was spoken of by the prophet Esaias, 3 saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. And the same John 4 had his raiment of camel's hair, and a leathern girdle about his loins; and his meat was locusts and wild honey. Then went out 5 to him Jerusalem, and all Judaea, and all the region round about 6 Jordan, And were baptized of him in Jordan, confessing their sins.

7 But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees come to his baptism, he said unto them, O generation of vipers, who hath 8 warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore 9 fruits meet for repentance: And think not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, that God is 10 able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And now also the axe is laid unto the root of the trees: therefore every tree which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into 11 the fire. I indeed baptize you with water unto repentance: but he that cometh after me is mightier than I, whose shoes I am not worthy to bear: he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost, and with 12 fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and gather his wheat into the garner; but he will burn up the 13 chaff with unquenchable fire. Then cometh Jesus from Galilee to 14 Jordan unto John, to be baptized of him. But John forbad him, saying, I have need to be baptized of thee, and comest thou to 15 me? And Jesus answering said unto him, Suffer it to be so now: for thus it becometh us to fulfil all righteousness. Then he suffered 16 him. And Jesus, when he was baptized, went up straightway out of the water: and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove, and lighting upon 17 him: And lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.

4 Then was Jesus led up of the Spirit into the wilderness to be 2 tempted of the devil. And when he had fasted forty days and 3 forty nights, he was afterward an hungred. And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that 4 these stones be made bread. But he answered and said, It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word that 5 proceedeth out of the mouth of God. Then the devil taketh him up into the holy city, and setteth him on a pinnacle of the temple, 6 And saith unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down: for it is written, He shall give his angels charge concerning thee:
and in their hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou 7 dash thy foot against a stone. Jesus said unto him, It is written 8 again, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. Again, the devil

3. v.8 meet.... or, answerable to amendment of life. 4. v.7 tempt: or, try, or, put to trial, or, proof.

taketh him up into an exceeding high mountain, and sheweth him all the kingdoms of the world, and the glory of them; And saith 9 unto him, All these things will I give thee, if thou wilt fall down and worship me. Then saith Jesus unto him, Get thee hence, 10 Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. Then the devil leaveth him, and, 11 behold, angels came and ministered unto him. Now when Jesus 12 had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;
And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which 13 is upon the sea coast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:
That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, 14 saying, The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the 15 way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles; The people 16 which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up. From that 17 time Jesus began to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand. And Jesus, walking by the sea of Galilee, 18 saw two brethren, Simon called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And he saith 19 unto them, Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men. And 20 they straightway left their nets, and followed him. And going on 21 from thence, he saw other two brethren, James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, in a ship with Zebedee their father, mending their nets; and he called them. And they immediately left the 22 ship and their father, and followed him. And Jesus went about 23 all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease among the people. And his fame went throughout all 24 Syria: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them. And there followed him great 25 multitudes of people from Galilee, and from Decapolis, and from Jerusalem, and from Judaea, and from beyond Jordan.

And seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and 5 when he was set, his disciples came unto him: And he opened his 2 mouth, and taught them, saying, Blessed are the poor in spirit: 3 for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are they that mourn: 4 5 for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek: for they shall 6 inherit the earth. Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst 7 after righteousness: for they shall be filled. Blessed are the mer-8 ciful: for they shall obtain mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart: 9 for they shall see God. Blessed are the peacemakers: for they 10 shall be called the children of God. Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of 11 heaven. Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my 12 sake. Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, 14 but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.
15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.
16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good 17 works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come 18 to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the 19 law, till all be fulfilled. Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of 20 heaven. For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, ye shall in 21 no case enter into the kingdom of heaven. Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever 22 shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment: But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, 23 Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire. Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath 24 ought against thee; Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go

5. v.11 falsely: Gr. lying. v.15 a bushel: the word in the original signifieth a measure containing about a pint less than a peck. v.21 by: or, to. v.22 Raca: that is, Vain fellow.

thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift. Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in 25 the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison. Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means 26 come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing. Ye 27 have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery: But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh 28 on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart. And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it 29 out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. And if thy right hand offend thee, cut it off, 30 and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell. It hath been said, Whosoever shall put away his 31 wife, let him give her a writing of divorcement: But I say unto 32 you, That whosoever shall put away his wife, saving for the cause of fornication, causeth her to commit adultery: and whosoever shall marry her that is divorced committeth adultery. Again, ye 33 have heard that it hath been said by them of old time, Thou shalt not forswear thyself, but shalt perform unto the Lord thine oaths:
But I say unto you, Swear not at all; neither by heaven; for it is 34
God's throne: Nor by the earth; for it is his footstool: neither by 35 Jerusalem; for it is the city of the great King. Neither shalt thou 36 swear by thy head, because thou canst not make one hair white or black. But let your communication be, Yea, yea; Nay, nay: 37 for whatsoever is more than these cometh of evil. Ye have heard 38 that it hath been said, An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth:
But I say unto you, That ye resist not evil: but whosoever shall 39 smite thee on thy right cheek, turn to him the other also. And 40 if any man will sue thee at the law, and take away thy coat, let him have thy cloke also. And whosoever shall compel thee to go 41 a mile, go with him twain. Give to him that asketh thee, and 42 from him that would borrow of thee turn not thou away. Ye have 43 heard that it hath been said, Thou shalt love thy neighbour, and hate thine enemy. But I say unto you, Love your enemies, bless 44 them that curse you, do good to them that hate you, and pray for 45 them which despitefully use you, and persecute you; That ye may be the children of your Father which is in heaven: for he maketh his sun to rise on the evil and on the good, and sendeth rain on 46 the just and on the unjust. For if ye love them which love you, 47 what reward have ye? do not even the publicans the same? And if ye salute your brethren only, what do ye more than others? do 48 not even the publicans so? Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father which is in heaven is perfect.

6 Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in 2 heaven. Therefore when thou doest thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto 3 you, They have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not 4 thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself 5 shall reward thee openly. And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be 6 seen of men. Verily I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou hast shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father 7 which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that 8 they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need 9 of, before ye ask him. After this manner therefore pray ye: Our 10 Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom 11 come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this 12 day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our 13 debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil:
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever.
14 Amen. For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father 15 will also forgive you: But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, 16 neither will your Father forgive your trespasses. Moreover when ye fast, be not, as the hypocrites, of a sad countenance: for they disfigure their faces, that they may appear unto men to fast. Verily

6. v.1 alms: or, righteousness. of your: or, with your. v.2 do not...: or, cause not a trumpet to be sounded.

I say unto you, They have their reward. But thou, when thou 17 fastest, anoint thine head, and wash thy face; That thou appear 18 not unto men to fast, but unto thy Father which is in secret: and thy Father, which seeth in secret, shall reward thee openly. Lay 19 not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay 20 up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal: For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also. The light 21, 22 of the body is the eye: if therefore thine eye be single, thy whole body shall be full of light. But if thine eye be evil, thy whole 23 body shall be full of darkness. If therefore the light that is in thee be darkness, how great is that darkness! No man can serve two 24 masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon. Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for 25 your life, what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink; nor yet for your body, what ye shall put on. Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment? Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow 26 not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they? Which 27 of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature? And 28 why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin: And yet I say 29 unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these. Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, 30 which to day is, and to morrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith? Therefore take no 31 thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed? (For after all these things do 32 the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things. But seek ye first the kingdom of God, 33 and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.
Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall 34 take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day is the evil thereof.

Judge not, that ye be not judged. For with what judgment ye 7, 2 judge, ye shall be judged: and with what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you again. And why beholdest thou the mote 3 that is in thy brother's eye, but considerest not the beam that is 4 in thine own eye? Or how wilt thou say to thy brother, Let me pull out the mote out of thine eye; and, behold, a beam is in thine 5 own eye? Thou hypocrite, first cast out the beam out of thine own eye; and then shalt thou see clearly to cast out the mote out 6 of thy brother's eye. Give not that which is holy unto the dogs, neither cast ye your pearls before swine, lest they trample them 7 under their feet, and turn again and rend you. Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened 8 unto you: For every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh 9 findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. Or what man is there of you, whom if his son ask bread, will he give him a 10, 11 stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he give him a serpent? If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts unto your children, how much more shall your Father which is in heaven give good things 12 to them that ask him? Therefore all things whatsoever ye would that men should do to you, do ye even so to them: for this is the 13 law and the prophets. Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and 14 many there be which go in thereat: Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that 15 find it. Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's 16 clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. Ye shall know them by their fruits. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of 17 thistles? Even so every good tree bringeth forth good fruit; but 18 a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit. A good tree cannot bring forth evil fruit, neither can a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

19 Every tree that bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and 20 cast into the fire. Wherefore by their fruits ye shall know them.
21 Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which 22 is in heaven. Many will say to me in that day, Lord, Lord, have we not prophesied in thy name? and in thy name have cast out devils?
23 and in thy name done many wonderful works? And then will I profess unto them, I never knew you: depart from me, ye that work 24 iniquity. Therefore whosoever heareth these sayings of mine, and doeth them, I will liken him unto a wise man, which built his house 25 upon a rock: And the rain descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell not: for it was founded upon a rock. And every one that heareth these sayings 26 of mine, and doeth them not, shall be likened unto a foolish man, which built his house upon the sand: And the rain descended, and 27 the floods came, and the winds blew, and beat upon that house; and it fell: and great was the fall of it. And it came to pass, when 28 Jesus had ended these sayings, the people were astonished at his doctrine: For he taught them as one having authority, and not as 29 the scribes.

When he was come down from the mountain, great multitudes 8 followed him. And, behold, there came a leper and worshipped 2 him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And 3 Jesus put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will; be thou clean. And immediately his leprosy was cleansed. And Jesus saith 4 unto him, See thou tell no man; but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer the gift that Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. And when Jesus was entered into Capernaum, there 5 came unto him a centurion, beseeching him, And saying, Lord, my 6 servant lieth at home sick of the palsy, grievously tormented. And 7 Jesus saith unto him, I will come and heal him. The centurion 8 answered and said, Lord, I am not worthy that thou shouldest come under my roof: but speak the word only, and my servant shall be healed. For I am a man under authority, having soldiers 9 under me: and I say to this man, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus heard it, he marvelled, and said to them that 10 followed, Verily I say unto you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And I say unto you, That many shall come from the 11 east and west, and shall sit down with Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, in the kingdom of heaven. But the children of the kingdom 12 shall be cast out into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. And Jesus said unto the centurion, Go thy way; 13 and as thou hast believed, so be it done unto thee. And his servant was healed in the selfsame hour. And when Jesus was come into 14 Peter's house, he saw his wife's mother laid, and sick of a fever. And he touched her hand, and the fever left her: and she arose, and 15 ministered unto them. When the even was come, they brought 16 unto him many that were possessed with devils: and he cast out the spirits with his word, and healed all that were sick: That it might 17 be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying, Himself 18 took our infirmities, and bare our sicknesses. Now when Jesus saw great multitudes about him, he gave commandment to depart 19 unto the other side. And a certain scribe came, and said unto 20 him, Master, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus saith unto him, The foxes have holes, and the birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.

21 And another of his disciples said unto him, Lord, suffer me first to 22 go and bury my father. But Jesus said unto him, Follow me; and 23 let the dead bury their dead. And when he was entered into a 24 ship, his disciples followed him. And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the 25 waves: but he was asleep. And his disciples came to him, and 26 awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish. And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and 27 rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. But the men marvelled, saying, What manner of man is this, that even 28 the winds and the sea obey him! And when he was come to the other side into the country of the Gergesenes, there met him two possessed with devils, coming out of the tombs, exceeding fierce, so 29 that no man might pass by that way. And, behold, they cried out, saying, What have we to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God?
30 art thou come hither to torment us before the time? And there 31 was a good way off from them an herd of many swine feeding. So the devils besought him, saying, If thou cast us out, suffer us to 32 go away into the herd of swine. And he said unto them, Go. And when they were come out, they went into the herd of swine: and, behold, the whole herd of swine ran violently down a steep place 33 into the sea, and perished in the waters. And they that kept them fled, and went their ways into the city, and told every thing, and 34 what was befallen to the possessed of the devils. And, behold, the whole city came out to meet Jesus: and when they saw him, they besought him that he would depart out of their coasts.

9 And he entered into a ship, and passed over, and came into 2 his own city. And, behold, they brought to him a man sick of the palsy, lying on a bed: and Jesus seeing their faith said unto the sick of the palsy; Son, be of good cheer; thy sins be forgiven 3 thee. And, behold, certain of the scribes said within themselves, 4 This man blasphemeth. And Jesus knowing their thoughts said, Wherefore think ye evil in your hearts? For whether is easier, to 5 say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and walk? But 6 that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (then saith he to the sick of the palsy,) Arise, take up thy bed, and go unto thine house. And he arose, and departed 7 to his house. But when the multitudes saw it, they marvelled, 8 and glorified God, which had given such power unto men. And as 9 Jesus passed forth from thence, he saw a man, named Matthew, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he saith unto him, Follow me.

 And he arose, and followed him. And it came to pass, as Jesus 10 sat at meat in the house, behold, many publicans and sinners came and sat down with him and his disciples. And when the Pharisees 11 saw it, they said unto his disciples, Why eateth your Master with publicans and sinners? But when Jesus heard that, he said unto 12 them, They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick. But go ye and learn what that meaneth, I will have mercy, 13 and not sacrifice: for I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. Then came to him the disciples of John, 14 saying, Why do we and the Pharisees fast oft, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the 15 bridechamber mourn, as long as the bridegroom is with them? but the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then shall they fast. No man putteth a piece of new cloth 16 unto an old garment, for that which is put in to fill it up taketh from the garment, and the rent is made worse. Neither do men 17 put new wine into old bottles: else the bottles break, and the wine runneth out, and the bottles perish: but they put new wine into new bottles, and both are preserved. While he spake these things 18 unto them, behold, there came a certain ruler, and worshipped him, saying, My daughter is even now dead: but come and lay thy hand upon her, and she shall live. And Jesus arose, and followed 19 him, and so did his disciples. And, behold, a woman, which was 20 diseased with an issue of blood twelve years, came behind him, and touched the hem of his garment: For she said within herself, If I 21 may but touch his garment, I shall be whole. But Jesus turned 22 him about, and when he saw her, he said, Daughter, be of good comfort; thy faith hath made thee whole. And the woman was made whole from that hour. And when Jesus came into the ruler's 23 24 house, and saw the minstrels and the people making a noise, He said unto them, Give place: for the maid is not dead, but sleepeth.

 25 And they laughed him to scorn. But when the people were put forth, he went in, and took her by the hand, and the maid arose.
 26, 27 And the fame hereof went abroad into all that land. And when Jesus departed thence, two blind men followed him, crying, and 28 saying, Thou Son of David, have mercy on us. And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto 29 him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to 30 your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened; and Jesus 31 straitly charged them, saying, See that no man know it. But they, when they were departed, spread abroad his fame in all that 32 country. As they went out, behold, they brought to him a dumb 33 man possessed with a devil. And when the devil was cast out, the dumb spake: and the multitudes marvelled, saying, It was never 34 so seen in Israel. But the Pharisees said, He casteth out devils 35 through the prince of the devils. And Jesus went about all the cities and villages, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing every sickness and every disease 36 among the people. But when he saw the multitudes, he was moved with compassion on them, because they fainted, and were scattered 37 abroad, as sheep having no shepherd. Then saith he unto his disciples, The harvest truly is plenteous, but the labourers are 38 few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth labourers into his harvest.

10 And when he had called unto him his twelve disciples, he gave them power against unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal 2 all manner of sickness and all manner of disease. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these; The first, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother; James the son of Zebedee, and John 3 his brother; Philip, and Bartholomew; Thomas, and Matthew the publican; James the son of Alphaeus, and Lebbaeus, whose sur-4 name was Thaddaeus; Simon the Canaanite, and Judas Iscariot, 5 who also betrayed him. These twelve Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into 6 any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. And as ye go, preach, saying, The 7 kingdom of heaven is at hand. Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, 8 raise the dead, cast out devils: freely ye have received, freely give.

Provide neither gold, nor silver, nor brass in your purses, Nor scrip 9, 10 for your journey, neither two coats, neither shoes, nor yet staves: for the workman is worthy of his meat. And into whatsoever city 11 or town ye shall enter, enquire who in it is worthy; and there abide till ye go thence. And when ye come into an house, salute it. 12
And if the house be worthy, let your peace come upon it: but if 13 it be not worthy, let your peace return to you. And whosoever 14 shall not receive you, nor hear your words, when ye depart out of that house or city, shake off the dust of your feet. Verily I say 15 unto you, It shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. Behold, I 16 send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves. But beware of men: for they 17 will deliver you up to the councils, and they will scourge you in their synagogues; And ye shall be brought before governors and 18 kings for my sake, for a testimony against them and the Gentiles.
But when they deliver you up, take no thought how or what ye 19 shall speak: for it shall be given you in that same hour what ye shall speak. For it is not ye that speak, but the Spirit of your Fa- 20 ther which speaketh in you. And the brother shall deliver up the 21 brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death.
And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that 22 endureth to the end shall be saved. But when they persecute you 23 in this city, flee ye into another: for verily I say unto you, Ye shall not have gone over the cities of Israel, till the Son of man be come.
The disciple is not above his master, nor the servant above his 24 lord. It is enough for the disciple that he be as his master, and 25 the servant as his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more shall they call them of his household?
Fear them not therefore: for there is nothing covered, that shall 26 not be revealed; and hid, that shall not be known. What I tell 27 you in darkness, that speak ye in light: and what ye hear in the ear, that preach ye upon the housetops. And fear not them which 28 kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him 29 which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell. Are not two sparrows sold for a farthing? and one of them shall not fall on the 30 ground without your Father. But the very hairs of your head are 31 all numbered. Fear ye not therefore, ye are of more value than 32 many sparrows. Whosoever therefore shall confess me before men, 33 him will I confess also before my Father which is in heaven. But whosoever shall deny me before men, him will I also deny before 34 my Father which is in heaven. Think not that I am come to send 35 peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword. For I am come to set a man at variance against his father, and the daughter against her mother, and the daughter in law against her mother in 36, 37 law. And a man's foes shall be they of his own household. He that loveth father or mother more than me is not worthy of me: and he that loveth son or daughter more than me is not worthy of 38 me. And he that taketh not his cross, and followeth after me, is 39 not worthy of me. He that findeth his life shall lose it: and he 40 that loseth his life for my sake shall find it. He that receiveth you receiveth me, and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me.

 41 He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.
 42 And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

11 And it came to pass, when Jesus had made an end of commanding his twelve disciples, he departed thence to teach and to preach 2 in their cities. Now when John had heard in the prison the works 3 of Christ, he sent two of his disciples, And said unto him, Art 4 thou he that should come, or do we look for another? Jesus answered and said unto them, Go and shew John again those things 5 which ye do hear and see: The blind receive their sight, and the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, and the deaf hear, the dead are 6 raised up, and the poor have the gospel preached to them. And 7 blessed is he, whosoever shall not be offended in me. And as they departed, Jesus began to say unto the multitudes concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in 8 soft raiment? behold, they that wear soft clothing are in kings' houses. But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? yea, I say 9 unto you, and more than a prophet. For this is he, of whom it is 10 written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. Verily I say unto you, Among them 11 that are born of women there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist: notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. And from the days of John the Baptist 12 until now the kingdom of heaven suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force. For all the prophets and the law prophesied until 13 John. And if ye will receive it, this is Elias, which was for to come. 14

He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. But whereunto shall I 15, 16 likened this generation? It is like unto children sitting in the markets, and calling unto their fellows, And saying, We have piped unto 17 you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned unto you, and ye have not lamented. For John came neither eating nor drinking, 18 and they say, He hath a devil. The Son of man came eating and 19 drinking, and they say, Behold a man gluttonous, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners. But wisdom is justified of her children. Then began he to upbraid the cities wherein most 20 of his mighty works were done, because they repented not: Woe 21 unto thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works, which were done in you, had been done in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. But 22 I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the day of judgment, than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which 23 art exalted unto heaven, shalt be brought down to hell: for if the mighty works, which have been done in thee, had been done in Sodom, it would have remained until this day. But I say unto 24 you, That it shall be more tolerable for the land of Sodom in the day of judgment, than for thee. At that time Jesus answered and 25 said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes. Even so, Father: for so it seemed good 26 in thy sight. All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and 27 no man knoweth the Son, but the Father; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal 11. v.12 suffereth....: or, is gotten by force, and they that thrust men.

28 him. Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and 29 I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly in heart: and ye shall find rest unto your 30 souls. For my yoke is easy, and my burden is light.

12 At that time Jesus went on the sabbath day through the corn; and his disciples were an hungred, and began to pluck the ears of 2 corn, and to eat. But when the Pharisees saw it, they said unto him, Behold, thy disciples do that which is not lawful to do upon 3 the sabbath day. But he said unto them, Have ye not read what David did, when he was an hungred, and they that were with him; 4 How he entered into the house of God, and did eat the shewbread, which was not lawful for him to eat, neither for them which were 5 with him, but only for the priests? Or have ye not read in the law, how that on the sabbath days the priests in the temple profane the 6 sabbath, and are blameless? But I say unto you, That in this 7 place is one greater than the temple. But if ye had known what this meaneth, I will have mercy, and not sacrifice, ye would not 8 have condemned the guiltless. For the Son of man is Lord even 9 of the sabbath day. And when he was departed thence, he went 10 into their synagogue: And, behold, there was a man which had his hand withered. And they asked him, saying, Is it lawful to heal 11 on the sabbath days? that they might accuse him. And he said unto them, What man shall there be among you, that shall have one sheep, and if it fall into a pit on the sabbath day, will he not 12 lay hold on it, and lift it out? How much then is a man better than a sheep? Wherefore it is lawful to do well on the sabbath 13 days. Then saith he to the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it forth; and it was restored whole, like as the other.
14 Then the Pharisees went out, and held a council against him, how 15 they might destroy him. But when Jesus knew it, he withdrew himself from thence: and great multitudes followed him, and he 16 healed them all; And charged them that they should not make 17 him known: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias 18 the prophet, saying, Behold my servant, whom I have chosen; my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased: I will put my spirit upon 19 him, and he shall shew judgment to the Gentiles. He shall not strive, nor cry; neither shall any man hear his voice in the streets.
20 A bruised reed shall he not break, and smoking flax shall he not quench, till he send forth judgment unto victory. And in his name 21 shall the Gentiles trust. Then was brought unto him one possessed 22 with a devil, blind, and dumb: and he healed him, insomuch that the blind and dumb both spake and saw. And all the people were 23 amazed, and said, Is not this the son of David? But when the 24 Pharisees heard it, they said, This fellow doth not cast out devils, but by Beelzebub the prince of the devils. And Jesus knew their 25 thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand: And if Satan cast out Satan, he is divided 26 against himself; how shall then his kingdom stand? And if I by 27 Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your children cast them out? therefore they shall be your judges. But if I cast out devils 28 by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God is come unto you.

 Or else how can one enter into a strong man's house, and spoil 29 his goods, except he first bind the strong man? and then he will spoil his house. He that is not with me is against me; and he that 30 gathereth not with me scattereth abroad. Wherefore I say unto 31 you, All manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven unto men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven unto men. And whosoever speaketh a word against the Son of 32 man, it shall be forgiven him: but whosoever speaketh against the Holy Ghost, it shall not be forgiven him, neither in this world, neither in the world to come. Either make the tree good, and his 33 fruit good; or else make the tree corrupt, and his fruit corrupt: for the tree is known by his fruit. O generation of vipers, how can ye, 34 being evil, speak good things? for out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaketh. A good man out of the good treasure of the 35 heart bringeth forth good things: and an evil man out of the evil treasure bringeth forth evil things. But I say unto you, That every 36 idle word that men shall speak, they shall give account thereof in the day of judgment. For by thy words thou shalt be justified, 37 and by thy words thou shalt be condemned. Then certain of the 38 scribes and of the Pharisees answered, saying, Master, we would see a sign from thee. But he answered and said unto them, An 39 evil and adulterous generation seeketh after a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas: For 40 as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart 41 of the earth. The men of Nineveh shall rise in judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: because they repented at the preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here.

42 The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for she came from the uttermost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a 43 greater than Solomon is here. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and 44 findeth none. Then he saith, I will return into my house from whence I came out; and when he is come, he findeth it empty, 45 swept, and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh with himself seven other spirits more wicked than himself, and they enter in and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the 46 first. Even so shall it be also unto this wicked generation. While he yet talked to the people, behold, his mother and his brethren 47 stood without, desiring to speak with him. Then one said unto him, Behold, thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring 48 to speak with thee. But he answered and said unto him that told 49 him, Who is my mother? and who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my 50 mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of my Father which is in heaven, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

13 The same day went Jesus out of the house, and sat by the sea 2 side. And great multitudes were gathered together unto him, so that he went into a ship, and sat; and the whole multitude 3 stood on the shore. And he spake many things unto them in 4 parables, saying, Behold, a sower went forth to sow; And when he sowed, some seeds fell by the way side, and the fowls came 5 and devoured them up: Some fell upon stony places, where they had not much earth: and forthwith they sprung up, because they 6 had no deepness of earth: And when the sun was up, they were 7 scorched; and because they had no root, they withered away. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprung up, and choked 8 them: But other fell into good ground, and brought forth fruit, 9 some an hundredfold, some sixtyfold, some thirtyfold. Who hath 10 ears to hear, let him hear. And the disciples came, and said unto 11 him, Why speakest thou unto them in parables? He answered and said unto them, Because it is given unto you to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it is not given. For whosoever hath, to him shall be given, and he shall have more 12 abundance: but whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken away even that he hath. Therefore speak I to them in parables: because 13 they seeing see not; and hearing they hear not, neither do they understand. And in them is fulfilled the prophecy of Esaias, which 14 saith, By hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and shall not perceive: For this people's heart 15 is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes they have closed; lest at any time they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and should understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. But blessed are 16 your eyes, for they see: and your ears, for they hear. For verily I 17 say unto you, That many prophets and righteous men have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. Hear 18 ye therefore the parable of the sower. When any one heareth the 19 word of the kingdom, and understandeth it not, then cometh the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart. This is he which received seed by the way side. But he that 20 received the seed into stony places, the same is he that heareth the word, and anon with joy receiveth it; Yet hath he not root in 21 himself, but dureth for a while: for when tribulation or persecution ariseth because of the word, by and by he is offended. He also 22 that received seed among the thorns is he that heareth the word; and the care of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, choke the word, and he becometh unfruitful. But he that received seed into 23 the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth it; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty. Another parable put he forth unto them, 24 saying, The kingdom of heaven is likened unto a man which sowed good seed in his field: But while men slept, his enemy came and 25 sowed tares among the wheat, and went his way. But when the 26 blade was sprung up, and brought forth fruit, then appeared the tares also. So the servants of the householder came and said unto 27 him, Sir, didst not thou sow good seed in thy field? from whence then hath it tares? He said unto them, An enemy hath done this. 28

The servants said unto him, Wilt thou then that we go and gather 29 them up? But he said, Nay; lest while ye gather up the tares, ye 30 root up also the wheat with them. Let both grow together until the harvest: and in the time of harvest I will say to the reapers, Gather ye together first the tares, and bind them in bundles to 31 burn them: but gather the wheat into my barn. Another parable put he forth unto them, saying, The kingdom of heaven is like to a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and sowed in his 32 field: Which indeed is the least of all seeds: but when it is grown, it is the greatest among herbs, and becometh a tree, so that the 33 birds of the air come and lodge in the branches thereof. Another parable spake he unto them; The kingdom of heaven is like unto leaven, which a woman took, and hid in three measures of meal, 34 till the whole was leavened. All these things spake Jesus unto the multitude in parables; and without a parable spake he not unto 35 them: That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, saying, I will open my mouth in parables; I will utter things which 36 have been kept secret from the foundation of the world. Then Jesus sent the multitude away, and went into the house: and his disciples came unto him, saying, Declare unto us the parable of 37 the tares of the field. He answered and said unto them, He that 38 soweth the good seed is the Son of man; The field is the world; the good seed are the children of the kingdom; but the tares are 39 the children of the wicked one; The enemy that sowed them is the devil; the harvest is the end of the world; and the reapers are 40 the angels. As therefore the tares are gathered and burned in the 41 fire; so shall it be in the end of this world. The Son of man shall send forth his angels, and they shall gather out of his kingdom all 42 things that offend, and them which do iniquity; And shall cast them into a furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing 43 of teeth. Then shall the righteous shine forth as the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Who hath ears to hear, let him hear.
44 Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto treasure hid in a field; the which when a man hath found, he hideth, and for joy thereof 45 goeth and selleth all that he hath, and buyeth that field. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a merchant man, seeking goodly 46 pearls: Who, when he had found one pearl of great price, went

v.33 measures: the word in the Greek is a measure containing about a peck and a half, wanting a little more than a pint. v.41 things...: or, scandals.

and sold all that he had, and bought it. Again, the kingdom of heaven is like unto a net, that was cast into the sea, and gathered of every kind: Which, when it was full, they drew to shore, and sat down, and gathered the good into vessels, but cast the bad away. So shall it be at the end of the world: the angels shall come forth, and sever the wicked from among the just, And shall cast them into the furnace of fire: there shall be wailing and gnashing of teeth. Jesus saith unto them, Have ye understood all these things? They say unto him, Yea, Lord. Then said he unto them, Therefore every scribe which is instructed unto the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which bringeth forth out of his treasure things new and old. And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these parables, he departed thence.
 And when he was come into his own country, he taught them in their synagogue, insomuch that they were astonished, and said, Whence hath this man this wisdom, and these mighty works? Is not this the carpenter's son? is not his mother called Mary? and his brethren, James, and Joses, and Simon, and Judas? And his sisters, are they not all with us? Whence then hath this man all these things? And they were offended in him. But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, save in his own country, and in his own house. And he did not many mighty works there because of their unbelief.

At that time Herod the tetrarch heard of the fame of Jesus, And said unto his servants, This is John the Baptist; he is risen from the dead; and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him.
 For Herod had laid hold on John, and bound him, and put him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife. For John said unto him, It is not lawful for thee to have her. And when he would have put him to death, he feared the multitude, because they counted him as a prophet. But when Herod's birthday was kept, the daughter of Herodias danced before them, and pleased Herod.
 Whereupon he promised with an oath to give her whatsoever she would ask. And she, being before instructed of her mother, said, Give me here John Baptist's head in a charger. And the king was sorry: nevertheless for the oath's sake, and them which sat with him at meat, he commanded it to be given her. And he sent,

11 and beheaded John in the prison. And his head was brought in a charger, and given to the damsel: and she brought it to her mother.
12 And his disciples came, and took up the body, and buried it, and 13 went and told Jesus. When Jesus heard of it, he departed thence by ship into a desert place apart: and when the people had heard 14 thereof, they followed him on foot out of the cities. And Jesus went forth, and saw a great multitude, and was moved with compassion 15 toward them, and he healed their sick. And when it was evening, his disciples came to him, saying, This is a desert place, and the time is now past; send the multitude away, that they may go into 16 the villages, and buy themselves victuals. But Jesus said unto 17 them, They need not depart; give ye them to eat. And they say 18 unto him, We have here but five loaves, and two fishes. He said, 19 Bring them hither to me. And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the grass, and took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and brake, and gave the loaves 20 to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude. And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the fragments that 21 remained twelve baskets full. And they that had eaten were about 22 five thousand men, beside women and children. And straightway Jesus constrained his disciples to get into a ship, and to go before 23 him unto the other side, while he sent the multitudes away. And when he had sent the multitudes away, he went up into a mountain apart to pray: and when the evening was come, he was there alone.
24 But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves: for 25 the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night Jesus 26 went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; 27 and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto 28 them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid. And Peter answered him and said, Lord, if it be thou, bid me come unto thee 29 on the water. And he said, Come. And when Peter was come 30 down out of the ship, he walked on the water, to go to Jesus. But when he saw the wind boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning 31 to sink, he cried, saying, Lord, save me. And immediately Jesus stretched forth his hand, and caught him, and said unto him, O 32 thou of little faith, wherefore didst thou doubt? And when they 33 were come into the ship, the wind ceased. Then they that were in the ship came and worshipped him, saying, Of a truth thou art the Son of God. And when they were gone over, they came into the land of Gennesaret. And when the men of that place had knowledge of him, they sent out into all that country round about, and brought unto him all that were diseased; And besought him that they might only touch the hem of his garment: and as many as touched were made perfectly whole.

Then came to Jesus scribes and Pharisees, which were of Jerusalem, saying, Why do thy disciples transgress the tradition of the elders? for they wash not their hands when they eat bread. But he answered and said unto them, Why do ye also transgress the commandment of God by your tradition? For God commanded, saying, Honour thy father and mother: and, He that curseth father or mother, let him die the death. But ye say, Whosoever shall say to his father or his mother, It is a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; And honour not his father or his mother, he shall be free. Thus have ye made the commandment of God of none effect by your tradition. Ye hypocrites, well did Esaias prophesy of you, saying, This people draweth nigh unto me with their mouth, and honoureth me with their lips; but their heart is far from me. But in vain they do worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men. And he called the multitude, and said unto them, Hear, and understand: Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Then came his disciples, and said unto him, Knowest thou that the Pharisees were offended, after they heard this saying? But he answered and said, Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up. Let them alone: they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable. And Jesus said, Are ye also yet without understanding? Do not ye yet understand, that whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught? But those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man. For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies: These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man. Then Jesus went thence, and departed into the coasts of 22 Tyre and Sidon. And, behold, a woman of Canaan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou Son of David; my daughter is grievously vexed with 23 a devil. But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of 25 the house of Israel. Then came she and worshipped him, saying, 26 Lord, help me. But he answered and said, It is not meet to take 27 the children's bread, and to cast it to dogs. And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters'
28 table. Then Jesus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter 29 was made whole from that very hour. And Jesus departed from thence, and came nigh unto the sea of Galilee; and went up 30 into a mountain, and sat down there. And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and 31 he healed them: Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Israel. Then Jesus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have 32 compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away 33 fasting, lest they faint in the way. And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to 34 fill so great a multitude? And Jesus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes. And 35 he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground. And he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and gave thanks, and brake 36 them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.
37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the 38 broken meat that was left seven baskets full. And they that did 39 eat were four thousand men, beside women and children. And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Magdala.

16 The Pharisees also with the Sadducees came, and tempting desired him that he would shew them a sign from heaven. He answered and said unto them, When it is evening, ye say, It will be
2 fair weather: for the sky is red. And in the morning, It will be foul 3

weather to day: for the sky is red and lowring. O ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky; but can ye not discern the signs of the times? A wicked and adulterous generation seeketh after 4 a sign; and there shall no sign be given unto it, but the sign of the prophet Jonas. And he left them, and departed. And when 5 his disciples were come to the other side, they had forgotten to take bread. Then Jesus said unto them, Take heed and beware 6 of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. And they 7 reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have taken no bread. Which when Jesus perceived, he said unto them, O ye 8 of little faith, why reason ye among yourselves, because ye have brought no bread? Do ye not yet understand, neither remember 9 the five loaves of the five thousand, and how many baskets ye took up? Neither the seven loaves of the four thousand, and how many 10 baskets ye took up? How is it that ye do not understand that 11 I spake it not to you concerning bread, that ye should beware of the leaven of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees? Then under- 12 stood they how that he bade them not beware of the leaven of bread, but of the doctrine of the Pharisees and of the Sadducees. When Jesus came into the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked 13 his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And they said, Some say that thou art John the Baptist: some, 14 Elias; and others, Jeremias, or one of the prophets. He saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Simon Peter answered 16 and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God. And 17 Jesus answered and said unto him, Blessed art thou, Simon Bar-jona: for flesh and blood hath not revealed it unto thee, but my Father which is in heaven. And I say also unto thee, That thou 18 art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it. And I will give unto thee the 19 keys of the kingdom of heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever thou shalt loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Then charged he his disciples 20 that they should tell no man that he was Jesus the Christ. From 21 that time forth began Jesus to shew unto his disciples, how that he must go unto Jerusalem, and suffer many things of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be killed, and be raised again the third day. Then Peter took him, and began to rebuke him, 22

23 saying, Be it far from thee, Lord: this shall not be unto thee. But he turned, and said unto Peter, Get thee behind me, Satan: thou art an offence unto me: for thou savourest not the things that be 24 of God, but those that be of men. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and 25 take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: and whosoever will lose his life for my sake shall find 26 it. For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul? or what shall a man give in exchange for 27 his soul? For the Son of man shall come in the glory of his Father with his angels; and then he shall reward every man according to 28 his works. Verily I say unto you, There be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the Son of man coming in his kingdom.

17 And after six days Jesus taketh Peter, James, and John his 2 brother, and bringeth them up into an high mountain apart, And was transfigured before them: and his face did shine as the sun, and 3 his raiment was white as the light. And, behold, there appeared 4 unto them Moses and Elias talking with him. Then answered Peter, and said unto Jesus, Lord, it is good for us to be here: if thou wilt, let us make here three tabernacles; one for thee, and one 5 for Moses, and one for Elias. While he yet spake, behold, a bright cloud overshadowed them: and behold a voice out of the cloud, which said, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased; 6 hear ye him. And when the disciples heard it, they fell on their 7 face, and were sore afraid. And Jesus came and touched them, and 8 said, Arise, and be not afraid. And when they had lifted up their 9 eyes, they saw no man, save Jesus only. And as they came down from the mountain, Jesus charged them, saying, Tell the vision to 10 no man, until the Son of man be risen again from the dead. And his disciples asked him, saying, Why then say the scribes that Elias 11 must first come? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Elias truly shall first come, and restore all things. But I say unto you, That Elias is come already, and they knew him not, but have done unto him whatsoever they listed. Likewise shall also the Son of 13 man suffer of them. Then the disciples understood that he spake 14 unto them of John the Baptist. And when they were come to the multitude, there came to him a certain man, kneeling down to him, and saying, Lord, have mercy on my son: for he is lunatick, 15 and sore vexed: for oftentimes he falleth into the fire, and oft into the water. And I brought him to thy disciples, and they could 16 not cure him. Then Jesus answered and said, O faithless and 17 perverse generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him hither to me. And Jesus rebuked the devil; 18 and he departed out of him: and the child was cured from that very hour. Then came the disciples to Jesus apart, and said, Why 19 could not we cast him out? And Jesus said unto them, Because of 20 your unbelief: for verily I say unto you, If ye have faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye shall say unto this mountain, Remove hence to yonder place; and it shall remove; and nothing shall be impossible unto you. Howbeit this kind goeth not out but by prayer and 21 fasting. And while they abode in Galilee, Jesus said unto them, 22

 The Son of man shall be betrayed into the hands of men: And they 23 shall kill him, and the third day he shall be raised again. And they were exceeding sorry. And when they were come to Capernaum, 24 they that received tribute money came to Peter, and said, Doth not your master pay tribute? He saith, Yes. And when he was 25 come into the house, Jesus prevented him, saying, What thinkest thou, Simon? of whom do the kings of the earth take custom or tribute? of their own children, or of strangers? Peter saith unto 26 him, Of strangers. Jesus saith unto him, Then are the children free. Notwithstanding, lest we should offend them, go thou to the 27 sea, and cast an hook, and take up the fish that first cometh up; and when thou hast opened his mouth, thou shalt find a piece of money: that take, and give unto them for me and thee.

At the same time came the disciples unto Jesus, saying, Who is 18 the greatest in the kingdom of heaven? And Jesus called a little 2 child unto him, and set him in the midst of them, And said, Ver- 3 ily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven. Whoso- 4 ever therefore shall humble himself as this little child, the same is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoso shall receive one 5 such little child in my name receiveth me. But whoso shall offend 6 one of these little ones which believe in me, it were better for him

17. v.24 tribute: called in the original, didrachma, being in value fifteen pence sterling; about thirty seven cents. v.27 a piece...: or, a stater: it is half an ounce of silver, in value two shillings and six pence, sterling; about fifty five cents.

that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and that he were 7 drowned in the depth of the sea. Woe unto the world because of offences! for it must needs be that offences come; but woe to that 8 man by whom the offence cometh! Wherefore if thy hand or thy foot offend thee, cut them off, and cast them from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life halt or maimed, rather than having two 9 hands or two feet to be cast into everlasting fire. And if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: it is better for thee to enter into life with one eye, rather than having two eyes 10 to be cast into hell fire. Take heed that ye despise not one of these little ones; for I say unto you, That in heaven their angels do 11 always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven. For the 12 Son of man is come to save that which was lost. How think ye?
if a man have an hundred sheep, and one of them be gone astray, doth he not leave the ninety and nine, and goeth into the moun-13 tains, and seeketh that which is gone astray? And if so be that he find it, verily I say unto you, he rejoiceth more of that sheep, 14 than of the ninety and nine which went not astray. Even so it is not the will of your Father which is in heaven, that one of these 15 little ones should perish. Moreover if thy brother shall trespass against thee, go and tell him his fault between thee and him alone: 16 if he shall hear thee, thou hast gained thy brother. But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
17 And if he shall neglect to hear them, tell it unto the church: but if he neglect to hear the church, let him be unto thee as an heathen 18 man and a publican. Verily I say unto you, Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall 19 loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in 20 heaven. For where two or three are gathered together in my name, 21 there am I in the midst of them. Then came Peter to him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive 22 him? till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, 23 Until seven times: but, Until seventy times seven. Therefore is the kingdom of heaven likened unto a certain king, which would

one was brought unto him, which owed him ten thousand talents. But forasmuch as he had not to pay, his lord commanded him to be sold, and his wife, and children, and all that he had, and payment to be made. The servant therefore fell down, and worshipped him, saying, Lord, have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. Then the lord of that servant was moved with compassion, and loosed him, and forgave him the debt. But the same servant went out, and found one of his fellowservants, which owed him an hundred pence: and he laid hands on him, and took him by the throat, saying, Pay me that thou owest. And his fellow servant fell down at his feet, and besought him, saying, Have patience with me, and I will pay thee all. And he would not: but went and cast him into prison, till he should pay the debt. So when his fellow servants saw what was done, they were very sorry, and came and told unto their lord all that was done. Then his lord, after that he had called him, said unto him, O thou wicked servant, I forgave thee all that debt, because thou desiredst me: Shouldest not thou also have had compassion on thy fellow servant, even as I had pity on thee? And his lord was wroth, and delivered him to the tormentors, till he should pay all that was due unto him. So likewise shall my heavenly Father do also unto you, if ye from your hearts forgive not every one his brother their trespasses.

And it came to pass, that when Jesus had finished these sayings, he departed from Galilee, and came into the coasts of Judaea beyond Jordan; And great multitudes followed him; and he healed them there. The Pharisees also came unto him, tempting him, and saying unto him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife for every cause? And he answered and said unto them, Have ye not read, that he which made them at the beginning made them male and female, And said, For this cause shall a man leave father and mother, and shall cleave to his wife: and they twain shall be one flesh? Wherefore they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God hath joined together, let not man put asunder. They say unto him, Why did Moses then command to give a writing of divorcement, and to put her away? He saith unto them, Moses because of the hardness of your hearts suffered you to put away your wives: but from the beginning it was not so.

18. v.24 talents: a talent is ounces of silver, at a hundred and eleven cents the ounce. v.26 worshipped him: or, besought him. v.28 pence: the Roman penny is the eighth part of an ounce, which after five shillings the ounce is seven pence halfpenny; about fourteen cents.

9 And I say unto you, Whosoever shall put away his wife, except it be for fornication, and shall marry another, committeth adultery: and whoso marrieth her which is put away doth commit adultery.

10 His disciples say unto him, If the case of the man be so with his wife, it is not good to marry. But he said unto them, All men

11 cannot receive this saying, save they to whom it is given. For there are some eunuchs, which were so born from their mother's womb: and there are some eunuchs, which were made eunuchs of men: and there be eunuchs, which have made themselves eunuchs for the kingdom of heaven's sake. He that is able to receive it, let

12 him receive it. Then were there brought unto him little children, that he should put his hands on them, and pray: and the disciples

13 rebuked them. But Jesus said, Suffer little children, and forbid them not, to come unto me: for of such is the kingdom of heaven.

14 And he laid his hands on them, and departed thence. And, behold, one came and said unto him, Good Master, what good thing

15, 16 shall I do, that I may have eternal life? And he said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good but one, that is,

17 God: but if thou wilt enter into life, keep the commandments. He saith unto him, Which? Jesus said, Thou shalt do no murder, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not

18 bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother: and, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. The young man saith unto

19 him, All these things have I kept from my youth up: what lack I yet? Jesus said unto him, If thou wilt be perfect, go and sell that 20 thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come and follow me. But when the young man heard that saying, he went away sorrowful: for he had great possessions.

21 Then said Jesus unto his disciples, Verily I say unto you, That 22 a rich man shall hardly enter into the kingdom of heaven. And again I say unto you, It is easier for a camel to go through the

23 eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of 24 God. When his disciples heard it, they were exceedingly amazed, saying, Who then can be saved? But Jesus beheld them, and said 25 unto them, With men this is impossible; but with God all things are possible. Then answered Peter and said unto him, Behold,

26 we have forsaken all, and followed thee; what shall we have therefore? And Jesus said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit in the throne of his glory, ye also shall sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. And every one that hath forsaken houses, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my name's sake, shall receive an hundredfold, and shall inherit everlasting life. But many that are first shall be last; and the last shall be first.

For the kingdom of heaven is like unto a man that is an householder, which went out early in the morning to hire labourers into his vineyard. And when he had agreed with the labourers for a penny a day, he sent them into his vineyard. And he went out about the third hour, and saw others standing idle in the market-place, And said unto them; Go ye also into the vineyard, and whatsoever is right I will give you. And they went their way. Again he went out about the sixth and ninth hour, and did likewise. And about the eleventh hour he went out, and found others standing idle, and saith unto them, Why stand ye here all the day idle? They say unto him, Because no man hath hired us. He saith unto them, Go ye also into the vineyard; and whatsoever is right, that shall ye receive. So when even was come, the lord of the vineyard saith unto his steward, Call the labourers, and give them their hire, beginning from the last unto the first. And when they came that were hired about the eleventh hour, they received every man a penny. But when the first came, they supposed that they should have received more; and they likewise received every man a penny. And when they had received it, they murmured against the goodman of the house, Saying, These last have wrought but one hour, and thou hast made them equal unto us, which have borne the burden and heat of the day. But he answered one of them, and said, Friend, I do thee no wrong: didst not thou agree with me for a penny? Take that thine is, and go thy way: I will give unto this last, even as unto thee. Is it not lawful for me to do what I will with mine own? Is thine eye evil, because I am good? So the last shall be first, and the first last: for many be called, but few chosen. And Jesus going up to Jerusalem took the twelve disciples apart in the way, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be betrayed unto the chief priests and unto the scribes, and they shall condemn him to death, 19 And shall deliver him to the Gentiles to mock, and to scourge, and 20 to crucify him: and the third day he shall rise again. Then came to him the mother of Zebedee's children with her sons, worshipping 21 him, and desiring a certain thing of him. And he said unto her, What wilt thou? She saith unto him, Grant that these my two sons may sit, the one on thy right hand, and the other on the left, 22 in thy kingdom. But Jesus answered and said, Ye know not what ye ask. Are ye able to drink of the cup that I shall drink of, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? They say 23 unto him, We are able. And he saith unto them, Ye shall drink indeed of my cup, and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with: but to sit on my right hand, and on my left, is not mine to give, but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared 24 of my Father. And when the ten heard it, they were moved with 25 indignation against the two brethren. But Jesus called them unto him, and said, Ye know that the princes of the Gentiles exercise dominion over them, and they that are great exercise authority 26 upon them. But it shall not be so among you: but whosoever will 27 be great among you, let him be your minister; And whosoever 28 will be chief among you, let him be your servant: Even as the Son of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and 29 to give his life a ransom for many. And as they departed from 30 Jericho, a great multitude followed him. And, behold, two blind men sitting by the way side, when they heard that Jesus passed by, cried out, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, thou Son of David. 31 And the multitude rebuked them, because they should hold their peace: but they cried the more, saying, Have mercy on us, O Lord, 32 thou Son of David. And Jesus stood still, and called them, and 33 said, What will ye that I shall do unto you? They say unto him, 34 Lord, that our eyes may be opened. So Jesus had compassion on them, and touched their eyes: and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

21 And when they drew nigh unto Jerusalem, and were come to Bethphage, unto the mount of Olives, then sent Jesus two disciples, 2 Saying unto them, Go into the village over against you, and straightway ye shall find an ass tied, and a colt with her: loose 3 them, and bring them unto me. And if any man say ought unto you, ye shall say, The Lord hath need of them; and straightway he will send them. All this was done, that it might be fulfilled 4 which was spoken by the prophet, saying, Tell ye the daughter of 5 Sion, Behold, thy King cometh unto thee, meek, and sitting upon an ass, and a colt the foal of an ass. And the disciples went, and 6 did as Jesus commanded them, And brought the ass, and the colt, 7 and put on them their clothes, and they set him thereon. And a 8 very great multitude spread their garments in the way; others cut down branches from the trees, and strawed them in the way. And 9 the multitudes that went before, and that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna to the Son of David: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord; Hosanna in the highest. And when he was 10 come into Jerusalem, all the city was moved, saying, Who is this? And the multitude said, This is Jesus the prophet of Nazareth of 11 Galilee. And Jesus went into the temple of God, and cast out all 12 them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves, And 13 said unto them, It is written, My house shall be called the house of prayer; but ye have made it a den of thieves. And the blind and 14 the lame came to him in the temple; and he healed them. And 15 when the chief priests and scribes saw the wonderful things that he did, and the children crying in the temple, and saying, Hosanna to the Son of David; they were sore displeased, And said unto him, 16 Hearest thou what these say? And Jesus saith unto them, Yea; have ye never read, Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings thou hast perfected praise? And he left them, and went out of the city 17 into Bethany; and he lodged there. Now in the morning as he 18 returned into the city, he hungered. And when he saw a fig tree 19 in the way, he came to it, and found nothing thereon, but leaves only, and said unto it, Let no fruit grow on thee henceforward for ever. And presently the fig tree withered away. And when the 20 disciples saw it, they marvelled, saying, How soon is the fig tree withered away! Jesus answered and said unto them, Verily I say 21 unto you, If ye have faith, and doubt not, ye shall not only do this which is done to the fig tree, but also if ye shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; it shall be done. And all things, whatsoever ye shall ask in prayer, 22 believing, ye shall receive. And when he was come into the tem- 23

ple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came unto him as he was teaching, and said, By what authority doest thou these 24 things? and who gave thee this authority? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I also will ask you one thing, which if ye tell me, I in like wise will tell you by what authority I do these things.
25 The baptism of John, whence was it? from heaven, or of men? And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From 26 heaven; he will say unto us, Why did ye not then believe him? But if we shall say, Of men; we fear the people; for all hold John as a 27 prophet. And they answered Jesus, and said, We cannot tell. And he said unto them, Neither tell I you by what authority I do these 28 things. But what think ye? A certain man had two sons; and he came to the first, and said, Son, go work to day in my vineyard.
29 He answered and said, I will not: but afterward he repented, and 30 went. And he came to the second, and said likewise. And he answered and said, I go, sir: and went not. Whether of them twain 31 did the will of his father? They say unto him, The first. Jesus saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That the publicans and the 32 harlots go into the kingdom of God before you. For John came unto you in the way of righteousness, and ye believed him not: but the publicans and the harlots believed him: and ye, when ye had 33 seen it, repented not afterward, that ye might believe him. Hear another parable: There was a certain householder, which planted a vineyard, and hedged it round about, and digged a winepress in it, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into 34 a far country: And when the time of the fruit drew near, he sent his servants to the husbandmen, that they might receive the fruits 35 of it. And the husbandmen took his servants, and beat one, and 36 killed another, and stoned another. Again, he sent other servants more than the first: and they did unto them likewise. But last 37 of all he sent unto them his son, saying, They will reverence my 38 son. But when the husbandmen saw the son, they said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and let us seize 39 on his inheritance. And they caught him, and cast him out of the vineyard, and slew him. When the lord therefore of the vineyard 40 cometh, what will he do unto those husbandmen? They say unto him, He will miserably destroy those wicked men, and will let out 41 his vineyard unto other husbandmen, which shall render him the 42 fruits in their seasons. Jesus saith unto them, Did ye never read in the scriptures, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner: this is the Lord's doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? Therefore say I unto you, The kingdom of God shall be taken from you, and given to a nation bringing forth the fruits thereof. And whosoever shall fall on this stone shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And when the chief priests and Pharisees had heard his parables, they perceived that he spake of them. But when they sought to lay hands on him, they feared the multitude, because they took him for a prophet.

And Jesus answered and spake unto them again by parables, and said, The kingdom of heaven is like unto a certain king, which made a marriage for his son, And sent forth his servants to call them that were bidden to the wedding: and they would not come. Again, he sent forth other servants, saying, Tell them which are bidden, Behold, I have prepared my dinner: my oxen and my fatlings are killed, and all things are ready: come unto the marriage. But they made light of it, and went their ways, one to his farm, another to his merchandise: And the remnant took his servants, and entreated them spitefully, and slew them. But when the king heard thereof, he was wroth: and he sent forth his armies, and destroyed those murderers, and burned up their city. Then saith he to his servants, The wedding is ready, but they which were bidden were not worthy. Go ye therefore into the highways, and as many as ye shall find, bid to the marriage. So those servants went out into the highways, and gathered together all as many as they found, both bad and good: and the wedding was furnished with guests. And when the king came in to see the guests, he saw there a man which had not on a wedding garment: And he saith unto him, Friend, how camest thou in hither not having a wedding garment? And he was speechless. Then said the king to the servants, Bind him hand and foot, and take him away, and cast him into outer darkness; there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth. For many are called, but few are chosen. Then went the Pharisees, and took counsel how they might entangle him in his talk. And they sent out unto him their disciples with the Herodians, saying, Master, we know that thou art true, and teachest the way of God in truth, neither carest thou for any man: for thou regardest not the person of men. Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful 18 to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? But Jesus perceived their 19 wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? Shew me 20 the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. And he 21 saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render there-22 fore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the 23 things that are God's. When they had heard these words, they 24 marvelled, and left him, and went their way. The same day came to him the Sadducees, which say that there is no resurrection, and 25 asked him, Saying, Master, Moses said, If a man die, having no children, his brother shall marry his wife, and raise up seed unto 26 his brother. Now there were with us seven brethren: and the first, when he had married a wife, deceased, and, having no issue, left 27, 28 his wife unto his brother: Likewise the second also, and the third, unto the seventh. And last of all the woman died also. Therefore in the resurrection whose wife shall she be of the seven? for they 29 all had her. Jesus answered and said unto them, Ye do err, not 30 knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God. For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as 31 the angels of God in heaven. But as touching the resurrection of the dead, have ye not read that which was spoken unto you by 32 God, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? God is not the God of the dead, but of the 33 living. And when the multitude heard this, they were astonished 34 at his doctrine. But when the Pharisees had heard that he had 35 put the Sadducees to silence, they were gathered together. Then one of them, which was a lawyer, asked him a question, tempt-36 ing him, and saying, Master, which is the great commandment in 37 the law? Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

 38, 39 This is the first and great commandment. And the second is 40 like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. On these 41 two commandments hang all the law and the prophets. While 42 the Pharisees were gathered together, Jesus asked them, Saying, What think ye of Christ? whose son is he? They say unto him, 43 The Son of David. He saith unto them, How then doth David in 44 spirit call him Lord, saying, The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool? If 45 David then call him Lord, how is he his son? And no man was 46 able to answer him a word, neither durst any man from that day forth ask him any more questions.

Then spake Jesus to the multitude, and to his disciples, Saying, 23, 2
 The scribes and the Pharisees sit in Moses' seat: All therefore 3 whatsoever they bid you observe, that observe and do; but do not ye after their works: for they say, and do not. For they bind 4 heavy burdens and grievous to be borne, and lay them on men's shoulders; but they themselves will not move them with one of their fingers. But all their works they do for to be seen of men: 5 they make broad their phylacteries, and enlarge the borders of their garments, And love the uppermost rooms at feasts, and the chief 6 seats in the synagogues, And greetings in the markets, and to be 7 called of men, Rabbi, Rabbi. But be not ye called Rabbi: for one 8 is your Master, even Christ; and all ye are brethren. And call no 9 man your father upon the earth: for one is your Father, which is in heaven. Neither be ye called masters: for one is your Master, 10 even Christ. But he that is greatest among you shall be your 11 servant. And whosoever shall exalt himself shall be abased; and 12 he that shall humble himself shall be exalted. But woe unto you, 13 scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in. Woe unto you, scribes and 14 Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye devour widows' houses, and for a pretence make long prayer: therefore ye shall receive the greater damnation. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for 15 ye compass sea and land to make one proselyte, and when he is made, ye make him twofold more the child of hell than yourselves.
 Woe unto you, ye blind guides, which say, Whosoever shall swear 16 by the temple, it is nothing; but whosoever shall swear by the gold of the temple, he is a debtor! Ye fools and blind: for whether is 17 greater, the gold, or the temple that sanctifieth the gold? And, 18 Whosoever shall swear by the altar, it is nothing; but whosoever sweareth by the gift that is upon it, he is guilty. Ye fools and 19 blind: for whether is greater, the gift, or the altar that sanctifieth the gift? Whoso therefore shall swear by the altar, sweareth by it, 20

23. v.5 phylacteries: pieces of parchment containing sentences of the law. v.18 guilty:
 or, debtor, or, bound.

21 and by all things thereon. And whoso shall swear by the temple, 22 sweareth by it, and by him that dwelleth therein. And he that shall swear by heaven, sweareth by the throne of God, and by 23 him that sitteth thereon. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye pay tithe of mint and anise and cummin, and have omitted the weightier matters of the law, judgment, mercy, and faith: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the other 24 undone. Ye blind guides, which strain at a gnat, and swallow a 25 camel. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye make clean the outside of the cup and of the platter, but within 26 they are full of extortion and excess. Thou blind Pharisee, cleanse first that which is within the cup and platter, that the outside of 27 them may be clean also. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are like unto whited sepulchres, which indeed appear beautiful outward, but are within full of dead men's bones, 28 and of all uncleanness. Even so ye also outwardly appear righteous 29 unto men, but within ye are full of hypocrisy and iniquity. Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! because ye build the tombs of the prophets, and garnish the sepulchres of the righteous, 30 And say, If we had been in the days of our fathers, we would not have been partakers with them in the blood of the prophets.
31 Wherefore ye be witnesses unto yourselves, that ye are the children 32 of them which killed the prophets. Fill ye up then the measure 33 of your fathers. Ye serpents, ye generation of vipers, how can ye 34 escape the damnation of hell? Wherefore, behold, I send unto you prophets, and wise men, and scribes: and some of them ye shall kill and crucify; and some of them shall ye scourge in your synagogues, 35 and persecute them from city to city: That upon you may come all the righteous blood shed upon the earth, from the blood of righteous Abel unto the blood of Zacharias son of Barachias, whom 36 ye slew between the temple and the altar. Verily I say unto you, 37 All these things shall come upon this generation. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, thou that killest the prophets, and stonest them which are sent unto thee, how often would I have gathered thy children together, even as a hen gathereth her chickens under her wings, 38 and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate.
39 For I say unto you, Ye shall not see me henceforth, till ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

And Jesus went out, and departed from the temple: and his 24 disciples came to him for to shew him the buildings of the temple.
And Jesus said unto them, See ye not all these things? verily I 2 say unto you, There shall not be left here one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of 3 Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto 4 them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come 5 in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye 6 shall hear of wars and rumours of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For 7 nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows. Then shall they 8, 9 deliver you up to be afflicted, and shall kill you: and ye shall be hated of all nations for my name's sake. And then shall many be 10 offended, and shall betray one another, and shall hate one another.
And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many. And 11, 12 because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.
But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved. 13
And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world 14 for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come. When 15 ye therefore shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, stand in the holy place, (whoso readeth, let him understand:) Then let them which be in Judaea flee into the 16 mountains: Let him which is on the housetop not come down to 17 take any thing out of his house: Neither let him which is in the 18 field return back to take his clothes. And woe unto them that are 19 with child, and to them that give suck in those days! But pray 20 ye that your flight be not in the winter, neither on the sabbath day: For then shall be great tribulation, such as was not since the 21 beginning of the world to this time, no, nor ever shall be. And 22 except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened. Then 23 if any man shall say unto you, Lo, here is Christ, or there; believe it not. For there shall arise false Christs, and false prophets, 24 and shall shew great signs and wonders; insomuch that, if it were possible, they shall deceive the very elect. Behold, I have told 25 26 you before. Wherefore if they shall say unto you, Behold, he is in the desert; go not forth: behold, he is in the secret chambers; 27 believe it not. For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of 28 man be. For wheresoever the carcase is, there will the eagles be 29 gathered together. Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens 30 shall be shaken: And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven 31 with power and great glory. And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect 32 from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other. Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When his branch is yet tender, and 33 putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is nigh: So likewise ye, when ye shall see all these things, know that it is near, even at the 34 doors. Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass, till 35 all these things be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but 36 my words shall not pass away. But of that day and hour knoweth 37 no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only. But as the days of Noe were, so shall also the coming of the Son of man 38 be. For as in the days that were before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day that 39 Noe entered into the ark, And knew not until the flood came, and took them all away; so shall also the coming of the Son of man be.

40 Then shall two be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other 41 left. Two women shall be grinding at the mill; the one shall be 42 taken, and the other left. Watch therefore: for ye know not what 43 hour your Lord doth come. But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be 44 broken up. Therefore be ye also ready: for in such an hour as ye 45 think not the Son of man cometh. Who then is a faithful and wise servant, whom his lord hath made ruler over his household, to give 46 them meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his lord 47 when he cometh shall find so doing. Verily I say unto you, That 48 he shall make him ruler over all his goods. But and if that evil servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; And 49 shall begin to smite his fellowservants, and to eat and drink with the drunken; The lord of that servant shall come in a day when 50 he looketh not for him, and in an hour that he is not aware of,

 And shall cut him asunder, and appoint him his portion with the 51 hypocrites: there shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

Then shall the kingdom of heaven be likened unto ten virgins, 25 which took their lamps, and went forth to meet the bridegroom.
 And five of them were wise, and five were foolish. They that were 2, 3 foolish took their lamps, and took no oil with them: But the wise 4 took oil in their vessels with their lamps. While the bridegroom 5 tarried, they all slumbered and slept. And at midnight there was a 6 cry made, Behold, the bridegroom cometh; go ye out to meet him.
 Then all those virgins arose, and trimmed their lamps. And the 7, 8 foolish said unto the wise, Give us of your oil; for our lamps are gone out. But the wise answered, saying, Not so; lest there be 9 not enough for us and you: but go ye rather to them that sell, and buy for yourselves. And while they went to buy, the bridegroom 10 came; and they that were ready went in with him to the marriage: and the door was shut. Afterward came also the other virgins, 11 saying, Lord, Lord, open to us. But he answered and said, Verily 12 I say unto you, I know you not. Watch therefore, for ye know 13 neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh. For 14 the kingdom of heaven is as a man travelling into a far country, who called his own servants, and delivered unto them his goods.
 And unto one he gave five talents, to another two, and to another 15 one; to every man according to his several ability; and straightway took his journey. Then he that had received the five talents went 16 and traded with the same, and made them other five talents. And 17 likewise he that had received two, he also gained other two. But 18 he that had received one went and digged in the earth, and hid his lord's money. After a long time the lord of those servants 19 cometh, and reckoneth with them. And so he that had received 20 five talents came and brought other five talents, saying, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me five talents: behold, I have gained beside them five talents more. His lord said unto him, Well done, thou good 21 and faithful servant: thou hast been faithful over a few things, I v.51 cut...: or, cut him off. 25. v.8 gone out: or, going out. v.15 talents: a talent is pounds ten shillings.

will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy of 22 thy lord. He also that had received two talents came and said, Lord, thou deliveredst unto me two talents: behold, I have gained 23 two other talents beside them. His lord said unto him, Well done, good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things: enter thou into the joy 24 of thy lord. Then he which had received the one talent came and said, Lord, I knew thee that thou art an hard man, reaping where thou hast not sown, and gathering where thou hast not strawed: 25 And I was afraid, and went and hid thy talent in the earth: lo, 26 there thou hast that is thine. His lord answered and said unto him, Thou wicked and slothful servant, thou knewest that I reap 27 where I sowed not, and gather where I have not strawed: Thou oughtest therefore to have put my money to the exchangers, and then at my coming I should have received mine own with usury.
28 Take therefore the talent from him, and give it unto him which 29 hath ten talents. For unto every one that hath shall be given, and he shall have abundance: but from him that hath not shall be 30 taken away even that which he hath. And cast ye the unprofitable servant into outer darkness: there shall be weeping and gnashing 31 of teeth. When the Son of man shall come in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then shall he sit upon the throne of his 32 glory: And before him shall be gathered all nations: and he shall separate them one from another, as a shepherd divideth his sheep 33 from the goats: And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but 34 the goats on the left. Then shall the King say unto them on his right hand, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom 35 prepared for you from the foundation of the world: For I was an hungred, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: 36 I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me:
I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto 37 me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungred, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink?
38 When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and 39 clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came 40 unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least 41 of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me. Then shall he say also unto them on the left hand, Depart from me, ye cursed, into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels: For 42 I was an hungred, and ye gave me no meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me no drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me not in: 43 naked, and ye clothed me not: sick, and in prison, and ye visited me not. Then shall they also answer him, saying, Lord, when saw 44 we thee an hungred, or athirst, or a stranger, or naked, or sick, or in prison, and did not minister unto thee? Then shall he answer 45 them, saying, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye did it not to one of the least of these, ye did it not to me. And these shall 46 go away into everlasting punishment: but the righteous into life eternal.

And it came to pass, when Jesus had finished all these sayings, 26 he said unto his disciples, Ye know that after two days is the feast 2 of the passover, and the Son of man is betrayed to be crucified.
Then assembled together the chief priests, and the scribes, and the 3 elders of the people, unto the palace of the high priest, who was called Caiaphas, And consulted that they might take Jesus by 4 subtilty, and kill him. But they said, Not on the feast day, lest 5 there be an uproar among the people. Now when Jesus was in 6 Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, There came unto him 7 a woman having an alabaster box of very precious ointment, and poured it on his head, as he sat at meat. But when his disciples 8 saw it, they had indignation, saying, To what purpose is this waste?
For this ointment might have been sold for much, and given to the 9 poor. When Jesus understood it, he said unto them, Why trouble 10 ye the woman? for she hath wrought a good work upon me. For 11 ye have the poor always with you; but me ye have not always. For 12 in that she hath poured this ointment on my body, she did it for my burial. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be 13 preached in the whole world, there shall also this, that this woman hath done, be told for a memorial of her. Then one of the twelve, 14 called Judas Iscariot, went unto the chief priests, And said unto 15 them, What will ye give me, and I will deliver him unto you? And they covenanted with him for thirty pieces of silver. And from 16 that time he sought opportunity to betray him. Now the first 17 day of the feast of unleavened bread the disciples came to Jesus, saying unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare for thee to eat the passover? And he said, Go into the city to such a man, and 18 say unto him, The Master saith, My time is at hand; I will keep 19 the passover at thy house with my disciples. And the disciples did as Jesus had appointed them; and they made ready the passover.

20, 21 Now when the even was come, he sat down with the twelve. And as they did eat, he said, Verily I say unto you, that one of you shall 22 betray me. And they were exceeding sorrowful, and began every 23 one of them to say unto him, Lord, is it I? And he answered and said, He that dippeth his hand with me in the dish, the same shall 24 betray me. The Son of man goeth as it is written of him: but woe unto that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! it had 25 been good for that man if he had not been born. Then Judas, which betrayed him, answered and said, Master, is it I? He said 26 unto him, Thou hast said. And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed it, and brake it, and gave it to the disciples, and 27 said, Take, eat; this is my body. And he took the cup, and gave 28 thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the 29 remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with 30 you in my Father's kingdom. And when they had sung an hymn, 31 they went out into the mount of Olives. Then saith Jesus unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock shall 32 be scattered abroad. But after I am risen again, I will go before 33 you into Galilee. Peter answered and said unto him, Though all men shall be offended because of thee, yet will I never be offended.
34 Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this night, before 35 the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. Peter said unto him, Though I should die with thee, yet will I not deny thee. Likewise 36 also said all the disciples. Then cometh Jesus with them unto a place called Gethsemane, and saith unto the disciples, Sit ye here, 37 while I go and pray yonder. And he took with him Peter and the two sons of Zebedee, and began to be sorrowful and very heavy.
38 Then saith he unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful, even unto 39 death: tarry ye here, and watch with me. And he went a little further, and fell on his face, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if it be possible, let this cup pass from me: nevertheless not as I will, 40 but as thou wilt. And he cometh unto the disciples, and findeth them asleep, and saith unto Peter, What, could ye not watch with me one hour? Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak. He went away again the second time, and prayed, saying, O my Father, if this cup may not pass away from me, except I drink it, thy will be done. And he came and found them asleep again: for their eyes were heavy. And he left them, and went away again, and prayed the third time, saying the same words. Then cometh he to his disciples, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: behold, the hour is at hand, and the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise, let us be going: behold, he is at hand that doth betray me. And while he yet spake, lo, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and elders of the people. Now he that betrayed him gave them a sign, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he: hold him fast. And forthwith he came to Jesus, and said, Hail, master; and kissed him. And Jesus said unto him, Friend, wherefore art thou come? Then came they, and laid hands on Jesus, and took him. And, behold, one of them which were with Jesus stretched out his hand, and drew his sword, and struck a servant of the high priest's, and smote off his ear. Then said Jesus unto him, Put up again thy sword into his place: for all they that take the sword shall perish with the sword. Thinkest thou that I cannot now pray to my Father, and he shall presently give me more than twelve legions of angels? But how then shall the scriptures be fulfilled, that thus it must be? In that same hour said Jesus to the multitudes, Are ye come out as against a thief with swords and staves for to take me? I sat daily with you teaching in the temple, and ye laid no hold on me. But all this was done, that the scriptures of the prophets might be fulfilled. Then all the disciples forsook him, and fled. And they that had laid hold on Jesus led him away to Caiaphas the high priest, where the scribes and the elders were assembled. But Peter followed him afar off unto the high priest's palace, and went in, and sat with the servants, to see the end. Now the chief priests, and elders, and all the council, sought false witness against Jesus, to put him to death; But found none: yea, though many false witnesses came, yet found they none. At the last came two false witnesses, And said, This fellow said, I am able to destroy the temple of God, and to build 62 it in three days. And the high priest arose, and said unto him, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these witness against 63 thee? But Jesus held his peace. And the high priest answered and said unto him, I adjure thee by the living God, that thou 64 tell us whether thou be the Christ, the Son of God. Jesus saith unto him, Thou hast said: nevertheless I say unto you, Hereafter shall ye see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, 65 and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, saying, He hath spoken blasphemy; what further need have 66 we of witnesses? behold, now ye have heard his blasphemy. What 67 think ye? They answered and said, He is guilty of death. Then did they spit in his face, and buffeted him; and others smote him 68 with the palms of their hands, Saying, Prophecy unto us, thou 69 Christ, Who is he that smote thee? Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, Thou also wast with 70 Jesus of Galilee. But he denied before them all, saying, I know 71 not what thou sayest. And when he was gone out into the porch, another maid saw him, and said unto them that were there, This 72 fellow was also with Jesus of Nazareth. And again he denied with 73 an oath, I do not know the man. And after a while came unto him they that stood by, and said to Peter, Surely thou also art one 74 of them; for thy speech bewrayeth thee. Then began he to curse and to swear, saying, I know not the man. And immediately the 75 cock crew. And Peter remembered the word of Jesus, which said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And he went out, and wept bitterly.

27 When the morning was come, all the chief priests and elders of 2 the people took counsel against Jesus to put him to death: And when they had bound him, they led him away, and delivered him 3 to Pontius Pilate the governor. Then Judas, which had betrayed him, when he saw that he was condemned, repented himself, and brought again the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and 4 elders, Saying, I have sinned in that I have betrayed the innocent 5 blood. And they said, What is that to us? see thou to that. And he cast down the pieces of silver in the temple, and departed, and 6 went and hanged himself. And the chief priests took the silver pieces, and said, It is not lawful for to put them into the trea-7 sury, because it is the price of blood. And they took counsel, and bought with them the potter's field, to bury strangers in. Where- 8 fore that field was called, The field of blood, unto this day. Then 9 was fulfilled that which was spoken by Jeremy the prophet, saying, And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him that was valued, whom they of the children of Israel did value; And gave 10 them for the potter's field, as the Lord appointed me. And Jesus 11 stood before the governor: and the governor asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And Jesus said unto him, Thou sayest. And when he was accused of the chief priests and elders, 12 he answered nothing. Then said Pilate unto him, Hearest thou 13 not how many things they witness against thee? And he answered 14 him to never a word; insomuch that the governor marvelled greatly.

Now at that feast the governor was wont to release unto the peo- 15 ple a prisoner, whom they would. And they had then a notable 16 prisoner, called Barabbas. Therefore when they were gathered 17 together, Pilate said unto them, Whom will ye that I release unto you? Barabbas, or Jesus which is called Christ? For he knew that 18 for envy they had delivered him. When he was set down on the 19 judgment seat, his wife sent unto him, saying, Have thou nothing to do with that just man: for I have suffered many things this day in a dream because of him. But the chief priests and elders per- 20 suaded the multitude that they should ask Barabbas, and destroy Jesus. The governor answered and said unto them, Whether of 21 the twain will ye that I release unto you? They said, Barabbas.
Pilate saith unto them, What shall I do then with Jesus which is 22 called Christ? They all say unto him, Let him be crucified. And 23 the governor said, Why, what evil hath he done? But they cried out the more, saying, Let him be crucified. When Pilate saw that 24 he could prevail nothing, but that rather a tumult was made, he took water, and washed his hands before the multitude, saying, I am innocent of the blood of this just person: see ye to it. Then 25 answered all the people, and said, His blood be on us, and on our children. Then released he Barabbas unto them: and when 26 he had scourged Jesus, he delivered him to be crucified. Then 27 the soldiers of the governor took Jesus into the common hall, and gathered unto him the whole band of soldiers. And they stripped 28 him, and put on him a scarlet robe. And when they had platted 29 a crown of thorns, they put it upon his head, and a reed in his right hand: and they bowed the knee before him, and mocked him, saying, Hail, King of the Jews! And they spit upon him, and took the reed, and smote him on the head. And after that they had mocked him, they took the robe off from him, and put his own raiment on him, and led him away to crucify him. And as they came out, they found a man of Cyrene, Simon by name: him they compelled to bear his cross. And when they were come unto a place called Golgotha, that is to say, a place of a skull, They gave him vinegar to drink mingled with gall: and when he had tasted thereof, he would not drink. And they crucified him, and parted his garments, casting lots: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken by the prophet, They parted my garments among them, and upon my vesture did they cast lots. And sitting down they watched him there; And set up over his head his accusation written, THIS IS JESUS THE KING OF THE JEWS. Then were there two thieves crucified with him, one on the right hand, and another on the left. And they that passed by reviled him, wagging their heads, And saying, Thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days, save thyself. If thou be the Son of God, come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking him, with the scribes and elders, said, He saved others; himself he cannot save. If he be the King of Israel, let him now come down from the cross, and we will believe him. He trusted in God; let him deliver him now, if he will have him: for he said, I am the Son of God. The thieves also, which were crucified with him, cast the same in his teeth. Now from the sixth hour there was darkness over all the land unto the ninth hour. And about the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eli, Eli, lama sabachthani? that is to say, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? Some of them that stood there, when they heard that, said, This man calleth for Elias. And straightway one of them ran, and took a sponge, and filled it with vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink. The rest said, Let be, let us see whether Elias will come to save him. Jesus, when he had cried again with a loud voice, yielded up the ghost. And, behold, the veil of the temple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom; and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent; And the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saints which slept arose, And came out of the graves after his resurrection, and went into the holy city, and appeared unto many. Now when the centurion, and they that were with him, watching 54 Jesus, saw the earthquake, and those things that were done, they feared greatly, saying, Truly this was the Son of God. And many 55 women were there beholding afar off, which followed Jesus from Galilee, ministering unto him: Among which was Mary Magda- 56 lene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's children. When the even was come, there came a rich 57 man of Arimathaea, named Joseph, who also himself was Jesus' disciple: He went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. Then 58 Pilate commanded the body to be delivered. And when Joseph 59 had taken the body, he wrapped it in a clean linen cloth, And laid 60 it in his own new tomb, which he had hewn out in the rock: and he rolled a great stone to the door of the sepulchre, and departed. And there was Mary Magdalene, and the other Mary, sitting over 61 against the sepulchre. Now the next day, that followed the day of 62 the preparation, the chief priests and Pharisees came together unto Pilate, Saying, Sir, we remember that that deceiver said, while he 63 was yet alive, After three days I will rise again. Command there- 64 fore that the sepulchre be made sure until the third day, lest his disciples come by night, and steal him away, and say unto the peo- ple, He is risen from the dead: so the last error shall be worse than the first. Pilate said unto them, Ye have a watch: go your way, 65 make it as sure as ye can. So they went, and made the sepulchre 66 sure, sealing the stone, and setting a watch.

In the end of the sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first 28 day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre. And, behold, there was a great earthquake: for 2 the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance 3 was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: And for fear 4 of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men. And the 5 angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for he is 6 risen, as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go 7 quickly, and tell his disciples that he is risen from the dead; and, behold, he goeth before you into Galilee; there shall ye see him: lo, I have told you. And they departed quickly from the sepulchre 8 with fear and great joy; and did run to bring his disciples word.

9 And as they went to tell his disciples, behold, Jesus met them, saying, All hail. And they came and held him by the feet, and 10 worshipped him. Then said Jesus unto them, Be not afraid: go tell my brethren that they go into Galilee, and there shall they 11 see me. Now when they were going, behold, some of the watch came into the city, and shewed unto the chief priests all the things 12 that were done. And when they were assembled with the elders, and had taken counsel, they gave large money unto the soldiers, 13 Saying, Say ye, His disciples came by night, and stole him away 14 while we slept. And if this come to the governor's ears, we will persuade him, and secure you. So they took the money, and did 15 as they were taught: and this saying is commonly reported among 16 the Jews until this day. Then the eleven disciples went away into 17 Galilee, into a mountain where Jesus had appointed them. And when they saw him, they worshipped him: but some doubted.
18 And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given 19 unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the 20 Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. MARK.

 he beginning of the gospel of Jesus Christ, the Son of 1 God; As it is written in the prophets, Behold, I send my 2 messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. The voice of one crying in the wilderness, 3 Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. John did 4 baptize in the wilderness, and preach the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins. And there went out unto him all the 5 land of Judaea, and they of Jerusalem, and were all baptized of him in the river of Jordan, confessing their sins. And John was 6 clothed with camel's hair, and with a girdle of a skin about his loins; and he did eat locusts and wild honey; And preached, saying, 7 There cometh one mightier than I after me, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to stoop down and unloose. I indeed have 8 baptized you with water: but he shall baptize you with the Holy Ghost. And it came to pass in those days, that Jesus came from 9 Nazareth of Galilee, and was baptized of John in Jordan. And 10 straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him: And there came 11 a voice from heaven, saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And immediately the Spirit driveth him into 12 the wilderness. And he was there in the wilderness forty days, 13 tempted of Satan; and was with the wild beasts; and the angels ministered unto him. Now after that John was put in prison, 14 Jesus came into Galilee, preaching the gospel of the kingdom of God, And saying, The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is 15 at hand: repent ye, and believe the gospel. Now as he walked by 16 the sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and Andrew his brother casting 17 a net into the sea: for they were fishers. And Jesus said unto them, Come ye after me, and I will make you to become fishers of 18 men. And straightway they forsook their nets, and followed him.

19 And when he had gone a little further thence, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and John his brother, who also were in the ship 20 mending their nets. And straightway he called them: and they left their father Zebedee in the ship with the hired servants, and 21 went after him. And they went into Capernaum; and straightway on the sabbath day he entered into the synagogue, and taught.
22 And they were astonished at his doctrine: for he taught them as 23 one that had authority, and not as the scribes. And there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit; and he cried out, 24 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, 25 the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy 26 peace, and come out of him. And when the unclean spirit had torn 27 him, and cried with a loud voice, he came out of him. And they were all amazed, insomuch that they questioned among themselves, saying, What thing is this? what new doctrine is this? for with authority commandeth he even the unclean spirits, and they do 28 obey him. And immediately his fame spread abroad throughout 29 all the region round about Galilee. And forthwith, when they were come out of the synagogue, they entered into the house of 30 Simon and Andrew, with James and John. But Simon's wife's 31 mother lay sick of a fever, and anon they tell him of her. And he came and took her by the hand, and lifted her up; and immediately 32 the fever left her, and she ministered unto them. And at even, when the sun did set, they brought unto him all that were diseased, 33 and them that were possessed with devils. And all the city was 34 gathered together at the door. And he healed many that were sick of divers diseases, and cast out many devils; and suffered not 35 the devils to speak, because they knew him. And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into 36 a solitary place, and there prayed. And Simon and they that 37 were with him followed after him. And when they had found him, 38 they said unto him, All men seek for thee. And he said unto them, Let us go into the next towns, that I may preach there also: 39 for therefore came I forth. And he preached in their synagogues throughout all Galilee, and cast out devils. And there came a leper 40 to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved 41 with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean. And as soon as he had spoken, 42 immediately the leprosy departed from him, and he was cleansed.

And he straitly charged him, and forthwith sent him away; And 43, 44 saith unto him, See thou say nothing to any man: but go thy way, shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing those things which Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But he 45 went out, and began to publish it much, and to blaze abroad the matter, insomuch that Jesus could no more openly enter into the city, but was without in desert places: and they came to him from every quarter.

And again he entered into Capernaum after some days; and it 2 was noised that he was in the house. And straightway many were 2 gathered together, insomuch that there was no room to receive them, no, not so much as about the door: and he preached the word unto them. And they come unto him, bringing one sick of 3 the palsy, which was borne of four. And when they could not come 4 nigh unto him for the press, they uncovered the roof where he was:
and when they had broken it up, they let down the bed wherein the sick of the palsy lay. When Jesus saw their faith, he said unto the 5 sick of the palsy, Son, thy sins be forgiven thee. But there were 6 certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts, Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins 7 but God only? And immediately when Jesus perceived in his 8 spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said unto them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts? Whether is it easier 9 to say to the sick of the palsy, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk? But that ye may know 10 that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, (he saith to the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy 11 bed, and go thy way into thine house. And immediately he arose, 12 took up the bed, and went forth before them all; insomuch that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion. And he went forth again by the sea side; and all 13 the multitude resorted unto him, and he taught them. And as he 14 passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alphaeus sitting at the receipt of custom, and said unto him, Follow me. And he arose and followed 15 him. And it came to pass, that, as Jesus sat at meat in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his 16 disciples: for there were many, and they followed him. And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eat with publicans and sinners, they said unto his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh 17 with publicans and sinners? When Jesus heard it, he saith unto them, They that are whole have no need of the physician, but they that are sick: I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to 18 repentance. And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees used to fast: and they come and say unto him, Why do the disciples of John 19 and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not? And Jesus said unto them, Can the children of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? as long as they have the bridegroom 20 with them, they cannot fast. But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they 21 fast in those days. No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up taketh away from 22 the old, and the rent is made worse. And no man putteth new wine into old bottles: else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new 23 wine must be put into new bottles. And it came to pass, that he went through the corn fields on the sabbath day; and his disciples 24 began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn. And the Pharisees said unto him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath day that which 25 is not lawful? And he said unto them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was an hungred, he, and they 26 that were with him? How he went into the house of God in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and did eat the shewbread, which is not lawful to eat but for the priests, and gave also to them which 27 were with him? And he said unto them, The sabbath was made 28 for man, and not man for the sabbath: Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

3 And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man 2 there which had a withered hand. And they watched him, whether he would heal him on the sabbath day; that they might accuse him.
3 And he saith unto the man which had the withered hand, Stand forth. And he saith unto them, Is it lawful to do good on the 4 sabbath days, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? But they held their peace. And when he had looked round about on them 5 with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith unto the man, Stretch forth thine hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other. And the Phar- 6 isees went forth, and straightway took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him. But Jesus withdrew 7 himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judaea, And from Jerusalem, and 8 from Idumaea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came unto him. And he spake to his disciples, that a 9 small ship should wait on him because of the multitude, lest they should throng him. For he had healed many; insomuch that they 10 pressed upon him for to touch him, as many as had plagues. And 11 unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God. And he straitly charged 12 them that they should not make him known. And he goeth up 13 into a mountain, and calleth unto him whom he would: and they came unto him. And he ordained twelve, that they should be 14 with him, and that he might send them forth to preach, And to 15 have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out devils: And Simon 16 he surnamed Peter; And James the son of Zebedee, and John 17 the brother of James; and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is,

 The sons of thunder: And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, 18 and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Canaanite, And Judas Iscariot, which 19 also betrayed him: and they went into an house. And the mul- 20 titude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread. And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay 21 hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself. And the scribes 22 which came down from Jerusalem said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the devils casteth he out devils. And he called 23 them unto him, and said unto them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan? And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that 24 kingdom cannot stand. And if a house be divided against itself, 25

3. v.3 Stand forth: Gr. Arise, stand forth in the midst. v.5 hardness: or, blindness. v.10 pressed: or, rushed. v.19 into...: or, home. v.21 friends: or, kinsmen.

26 that house cannot stand. And if Satan rise up against himself, 27 and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end. No man can enter into a strong man's house, and spoil his goods, except he will 28 first bind the strong man; and then he will spoil his house. Verily
I say unto you, All sins shall be forgiven unto the sons of men, 29 and blasphemies wherewith soever they shall blaspheme: But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Ghost hath never forgive-30 ness, but is in danger of eternal damnation: Because they said, 31 He hath an unclean spirit. There came then his brethren and his 32 mother, and, standing without, sent unto him, calling him. And the multitude sat about him, and they said unto him, Behold, thy 33 mother and thy brethren without seek for thee. And he answered 34 them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren? And he looked round about on them which sat about him, and said, Behold my 35 mother and my brethren! For whosoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

4 And he began again to teach by the sea side: and there was gathered unto him a great multitude, so that he entered into a ship, and sat in the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea 2 on the land. And he taught them many things by parables, and 3 said unto them in his doctrine, Hearken; Behold, there went out 4 a sower to sow: And it came to pass, as he sowed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up.
5 And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and 6 immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth: But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, 7 it withered away. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns 8 grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. And other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred.
9 And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
10 And when he was alone, they that were about him with the twelve 11 asked of him the parable. And he said unto them, Unto you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but unto 12 them that are without, all these things are done in parables: That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, 13 and their sins should be forgiven them. And he said unto them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?

The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, 14, 15 where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts. And these are they likewise which are sown on stony 16 ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness; And have no root in themselves, and so endure 17 but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they are offended. And these are 18 they which are sown among thorns; such as hear the word, And 19 the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful. And these are they which are sown on good ground; 20 such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirtyfold, some sixty, and some an hundred. And he said unto 21 them, Is a candle brought to be put under a bushel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick? For there is nothing hid, 22 which shall not be manifested; neither was any thing kept secret, but that it should come abroad. If any man have ears to hear, let 23 him hear. And he said unto them, Take heed what ye hear: with 24 what measure ye mete, it shall be measured to you: and unto you that hear shall more be given. For he that hath, to him shall be 25 given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath. And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if 26 a man should cast seed into the ground; And should sleep, and 27 rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how. For the earth bringeth forth fruit of herself; 28 first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.
 But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the 29 sickle, because the harvest is come. And he said, Whereunto shall 30 we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it? It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is 31 sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that be in the earth:
 But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all 32 herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under the shadow of it. And with many such parables 33 spake he the word unto them, as they were able to hear it. But 34 without a parable spake he not unto them: and when they were 35 alone, he expounded all things to his disciples. And the same day, when the even was come, he saith unto them, Let us pass over unto 36 the other side. And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the ship. And there were also with 37 him other little ships. And there arose a great storm of wind, and 38 the waves beat into the ship, so that it was now full. And he was in the hinder part of the ship, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say unto him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?

39 And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said unto the sea, Peace, 40 be still. And the wind ceased, and there was a great calm. And he said unto them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have 41 no faith? And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

5 And they came over unto the other side of the sea, into the 2 country of the Gadarenes. And when he was come out of the ship, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an 3 unclean spirit, Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no 4 man could bind him, no, not with chains: Because that he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither 5 could any man tame him. And always, night and day, he was in the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with 6 stones. But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshipped 7 him, And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the most high God? I adjure thee 8 by God, that thou torment me not. For he said unto him, Come 9 out of the man, thou unclean spirit. And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for 10 we are many. And he besought him much that he would not 11 send them away out of the country. Now there was there nigh 12 unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding. And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may 13 enter into them. And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about 14 two thousand;) and were choked in the sea. And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And 15 they went out to see what it was that was done. And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the devil, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid. And they that saw it told them how it befell to him 16 that was possessed with the devil, and also concerning the swine. And they began to pray him to depart out of their coasts. And 17, 18 when he was come into the ship, he that had been possessed with the devil prayed him that he might be with him. Howbeit Jesus 19 suffered him not, but saith unto him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee. And he departed, and began to 20 publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him: and all men did marvel. And when Jesus was passed over again by 21 ship unto the other side, much people gathered unto him: and he was nigh unto the sea. And, behold, there cometh one of the 22 rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet, And besought him greatly, saying, My little 23 daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she shall live. And 24 Jesus went with him; and much people followed him, and thronged him. And a certain woman, which had an issue of blood twelve 25 years, And had suffered many things of many physicians, and had 26 spent all that she had, and was nothing bettered, but rather grew worse, When she had heard of Jesus, came in the press behind, 27 and touched his garment. For she said, If I may touch but his 28 clothes, I shall be whole. And straightway the fountain of her 29 blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that plague. And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that 30 virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the press, and said, Who touched my clothes? And his disciples said unto him, 31 Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me? And he looked round about to see her that had 32 done this thing. But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing 33 what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth. And he said unto her, Daughter, thy faith hath 34 made thee whole; go in peace, and be whole of thy plague. While 35 he yet spake, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain which said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further? As soon as Jesus heard the word that was 36 spoken, he saith unto the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, 37 only believe. And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, 38 and James, and John the brother of James. And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and 39 them that wept and wailed greatly. And when he was come in, he saith unto them, Why make ye this ado, and weep? the damsel is 40 not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughed him to scorn. But when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the 41 damsel was lying. And he took the damsel by the hand, and said unto her, Talitha cumi; which is, being interpreted, Damsel, I say 42 unto thee, arise. And straightway the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished 43 with a great astonishment. And he charged them straitly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

6 And he went out from thence, and came into his own country;
2 and his disciples follow him. And when the sabbath day was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given unto him, that even such mighty 3 works are wrought by his hands? Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Juda, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.
4 But Jesus said unto them, A prophet is not without honour, but in his own country, and among his own kin, and in his own house.
5 And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands 6 upon a few sick folk, and healed them. And he marvelled because of their unbelief. And he went round about the villages, teaching.
7 And he called unto him the twelve, and began to send them forth 8 by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits; And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, 9 save a staff only; no scrip, no bread, no money in their purse: But 10 be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats. And he said unto them, In what place soever ye enter into an house, there abide till 11 ye depart from that place. And whosoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence, shake off the dust under your feet for a testimony against them. Verily I say unto you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrha in the day of judgment, than for that city. And they went out, and preached that men 12 should repent. And they cast out many devils, and anointed with 13 oil many that were sick, and healed them. And king Herod heard 14 of him; (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist was risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do shew forth themselves in him. Others said, That it is Elias. And 15 others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets. But 16 when Herod heard thereof, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he is risen from the dead. For Herod himself had sent forth and laid 17 hold upon John, and bound him in prison for Herodias' sake, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her. For John had said 18 unto Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.

 Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have 19 killed him; but she could not: For Herod feared John, knowing 20 that he was a just man and an holy, and observed him; and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly. And 21 when a convenient day was come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief estates of Galilee;
 And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, 22 and pleased Herod and them that sat with him, the king said unto the damsel, Ask of me whatsoever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.
 And he sware unto her, Whatsoever thou shalt ask of me, I will 23 give it thee, unto the half of my kingdom. And she went forth, 24 and said unto her mother, What shall I ask? And she said, The head of John the Baptist. And she came in straightway with haste 25 unto the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou give me by and by in a charger the head of John the Baptist. And the king was 26 exceeding sorry; yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes which sat with him, he would not reject her. And immediately the king 27 sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison, And brought his head 28 in a charger, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother. And when his disciples heard of it, they came 29 and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb. And the apostles 30 gathered themselves together unto Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught. And he said 31 unto them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no 32 leisure so much as to eat. And they departed into a desert place 33 by ship privately. And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran afoot thither out of all cities, and outwent 34 them, and came together unto him. And Jesus, when he came out, saw much people, and was moved with compassion toward them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he 35 began to teach them many things. And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came unto him, and said, This is a desert place, 36 and now the time is far passed: Send them away, that they may go into the country round about, and into the villages, and buy 37 themselves bread: for they have nothing to eat. He answered and said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they say unto him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them 38 to eat? He saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? go and 39 see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes. And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the 40 green grass. And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by 41 fifties. And when he had taken the five loaves and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and brake the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes divided 42, 43 he among them all. And they did all eat, and were filled. And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.

44 And they that did eat of the loaves were about five thousand men.
45 And straightway he constrained his disciples to get into the ship, and to go to the other side before unto Bethsaida, while he sent 46 away the people. And when he had sent them away, he departed 47 into a mountain to pray. And when even was come, the ship 48 was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land. And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary unto them:
and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh unto them, 49 walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them. But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a 50 spirit, and cried out: For they all saw him, and were troubled.
And immediately he talked with them, and saith unto them, Be 51 of good cheer: it is I; be not afraid. And he went up unto them into the ship; and the wind ceased: and they were sore amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered. For they considered 52 not the miracle of the loaves: for their heart was hardened. And 53 when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore. And when they were come out of the ship, 54 straightway they knew him, And ran through that whole region 55 round about, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was. And whithersoever he entered, 56 into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him were made whole.

Then came together unto him the Pharisees, and certain of the 7 scribes, which came from Jerusalem. And when they saw some of 2 his disciples eat bread with defiled, that is to say, with unwashen, hands, they found fault. For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, ex- 3 cept they wash their hands oft, eat not, holding the tradition of the elders. And when they come from the market, except they 4 wash, they eat not. And many other things there be, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, brasen vessels, and of tables. Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, 5 Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashen hands? He answered and said 6 unto them, Well hath Esaias prophesied of you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoureth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me. Howbeit in vain do they worship me, teaching for 7 doctrines the commandments of men. For laying aside the com- 8 mandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do. And 9 he said unto them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition. For Moses said, Honour thy 10 father and thy mother; and, Whoso curseth father or mother, let him die the death: But ye say, If a man shall say to his father 11 or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatsoever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free. And ye suffer him no 12 more to do ought for his father or his mother; Making the word of 13 God of none effect through your tradition, which ye have delivered:

14 and many such like things do ye. And when he had called all the people unto him, he said unto them, Hearken unto me every one of 15 you, and understand: There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him can defile him: but the things which come out 16 of him, those are they that defile the man. If any man have ears 17 to hear, let him hear. And when he was entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
18 And he saith unto them, Are ye so without understanding also?
Do ye not perceive, that whatsoever thing from without entereth 19 into the man, it cannot defile him; Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purg-20 ing all meats? And he said, That which cometh out of the man, 21 that defileth the man. For from within, out of the heart of men, 22 proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders, Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blas-23 phemy, pride, foolishness: All these evil things come from within, 24 and defile the man. And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into an house, and 25 would have no man know it: but he could not be hid. For a cer- tain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard 26 of him, and came and fell at his feet: The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation; and she besought him that he would 27 cast forth the devil out of her daughter. But Jesus said unto her, Let the children first be filled: for it is not meet to take the chil-28 dren's bread, and to cast it unto the dogs. And she answered and said unto him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the 29 children's crumbs. And he said unto her, For this saying go thy 30 way; the devil is gone out of thy daughter. And when she was come to her house, she found the devil gone out, and her daughter 31 laid upon the bed. And again, departing from the coasts of Tyre and Sidon, he came unto the sea of Galilee, through the midst of 32 the coasts of Decapolis. And they bring unto him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him 33 to put his hand upon him. And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched 34 his tongue; And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith unto 35 him, Ephphatha, that is, Be opened. And straightway his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spake plain. And he charged them that they should tell no man: but 36 the more he charged them, so much the more a great deal they published it; And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He 37 hath done all things well: he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

In those days the multitude being very great, and having noth- 8 ing to eat, Jesus called his disciples unto him, and saith unto them, I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been 2 with me three days, and have nothing to eat: And if I send them 3 away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for divers of them came from far. And his disciples answered him, 4 From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness? And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And 5 they said, Seven. And he commanded the people to sit down on 6 the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and brake, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they did set them before the people. And they had a few small fishes: and 7 he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them. So they 8 did eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets. And they that had eaten were about four 9 thousand: and he sent them away. And straightway he entered 10 into a ship with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dal-manutha. And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question 11 with him, seeking of him a sign from heaven, tempting him. And 12 he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek after a sign? verily I say unto you, There shall no sign be given unto this generation. And he left them, and entering into 13 the ship again departed to the other side. Now the disciples had 14 forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the ship with them more than one loaf. And he charged them, saying, Take heed, 15 beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.
And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we 16 have no bread. And when Jesus knew it, he saith unto them, 17 Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened? Having 18 eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember? When I brake the five loaves among five thousand, how 19 many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say unto him, Twelve. And when the seven among four thousand, how many 20 21 baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven. And 22 he said unto them, How is it that ye do not understand? And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man unto him, and 23 besought him to touch him. And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw ought.

24, 25 And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees, walking. After that he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look 26 up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly. And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell 27 it to any in the town. And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his 28 disciples, saying unto them, Whom do men say that I am? And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elias; and others, 29 One of the prophets. And he saith unto them, But whom say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith unto him, Thou art 30 the Christ. And he charged them that they should tell no man 31 of him. And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders, and of the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
32 And he spake that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began 33 to rebuke him. But when he had turned about and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savourest not the things that be of God, but the things that 34 be of men. And when he had called the people unto him with his disciples also, he said unto them, Whosoever will come after me, 35 let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it; but whosoever shall lose 36 his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it. For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose 37 his own soul? Or what shall a man give in exchange for his soul?
38 Whosoever therefore shall be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

9 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, That there be some of them that stand here, which shall not taste of death, till 2 they have seen the kingdom of God come with power. And after six days Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up into an high mountain apart by themselves: and he was transfigured before them. And his raiment became shining, 3 exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can white them. And there appeared unto them Elias with Moses: and they were 4 talking with Jesus. And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, 5 it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias. For he wist not 6 what to say; for they were sore afraid. And there was a cloud that 7 overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And suddenly, when they had 8 looked round about, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves. And as they came down from the mountain, he 9 charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead. And they kept 10 that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean. And they asked him, saying, 11 Why say the scribes that Elias must first come? And he answered 12 and told them, Elias verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written of the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at nought. But I say unto you, That Elias is 13 indeed come, and they have done unto him whatsoever they listed, as it is written of him. And when he came to his disciples, he saw 14 a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them. And straightway all the people, when they beheld him, 15 were greatly amazed, and running to him saluted him. And he 16 asked the scribes, What question ye with them? And one of the 17 multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought unto thee my son, which hath a dumb spirit; And wheresoever he taketh him, 18 he teareth him: and he foameth, and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away: and I spake to thy disciples that they should cast him out; and they could not. He answereth him, and saith, O faithless 19 generation, how long shall I be with you? how long shall I suffer you? bring him unto me. And they brought him unto him: and 20 when he saw him, straightway the spirit tare him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed foaming. And he asked his father, How 21 long is it ago since this came unto him? And he said, Of a child. And ofttimes it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters, 22 to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion

23 on us, and help us. Jesus said unto him, If thou canst believe, all 24 things are possible to him that believeth. And straightway the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; 25 help thou mine unbelief. When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying unto him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no 26 more into him. And the spirit cried, and rent him sore, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; insomuch that many said, 27 He is dead. But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; 28 and he arose. And when he was come into the house, his disciples 29 asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out? And he said unto them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and 30 fasting. And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; 31 and he would not that any man should know it. For he taught his disciples, and said unto them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they shall kill him; and after that he is killed, 32 he shall rise the third day. But they understood not that saying, 33 and were afraid to ask him. And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house he asked them, What was it that ye disputed 34 among yourselves by the way? But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the 35 greatest. And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith unto them, If any man desire to be first, the same shall be last of all, 36 and servant of all. And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said unto 37 them, Whosoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, 38 but him that sent me. And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name, and he followeth not us: 39 and we forbad him, because he followeth not us. But Jesus said, Forbid him not: for there is no man which shall do a miracle in my 40 name, that can lightly speak evil of me. For he that is not against 41 us is on our part. For whosoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say unto 42 you, he shall not lose his reward. And whosoever shall offend one of these little ones that believe in me, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the 43 sea. And if thy hand offend thee, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter into life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth 44 not, and the fire is not quenched. And if thy foot offend thee, cut 45 it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched. And 46, 47 if thine eye offend thee, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes to be cast into hell fire: Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is 48 not quenched. For every one shall be salted with fire, and every 49 sacrifice shall be salted with salt. Salt is good: but if the salt 50 have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

And he arose from thence, and cometh into the coasts of Judaea 10 by the farther side of Jordan: and the people resort unto him again; and, as he was wont, he taught them again. And the Pharisees 2 came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him. And he answered and said unto them, What 3 did Moses command you? And they said, Moses suffered to write a 4 bill of divorcement, and to put her away. And Jesus answered and 5 said unto them, For the hardness of your heart he wrote you this precept. But from the beginning of the creation God made them 6 male and female. For this cause shall a man leave his father and 7 mother, and cleave to his wife; And they twain shall be one flesh: 8 so then they are no more twain, but one flesh. What therefore God 9 hath joined together, let not man put asunder. And in the house 10 his disciples asked him again of the same matter. And he saith 11 unto them, Whosoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her. And if a woman shall put away 12 her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
 And they brought young children to him, that he should touch 13 them: and his disciples rebuked those that brought them. But 14 when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said unto them, Suffer the little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whosoever 15 shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein. And he took them up in his arms, put his hands 16 upon them, and blessed them. And when he was gone forth into 17 the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

18 And Jesus said unto him, Why callest thou me good? there is none 19 good but one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear 20 false witness, Defraud not, Honour thy father and mother. And he answered and said unto him, Master, all these have I observed 21 from my youth. Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said unto him, One thing thou lackest: go thy way, sell whatsoever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in 22 heaven: and come, take up the cross, and follow me. And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great 23 possessions. And Jesus looked round about, and saith unto his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the 24 kingdom of God! And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith unto them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom 25 of God! It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, 26 than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God. And they were astonished out of measure, saying among themselves, Who 27 then can be saved? And Jesus looking upon them saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things 28 are possible. Then Peter began to say unto him, Lo, we have left 29 all, and have followed thee. And Jesus answered and said, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my 30 sake, and the gospel's, But he shall receive an hundredfold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come 31 eternal life. But many that are first shall be last; and the last 32 first. And they were in the way going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell 33 them what things should happen unto him, Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man shall be delivered unto the chief priests, and unto the scribes; and they shall condemn him to 34 death, and shall deliver him to the Gentiles: And they shall mock him, and shall scourge him, and shall spit upon him, and shall kill 35 him: and the third day he shall rise again. And James and John, the sons of Zebedee, come unto him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldest do for us whatsoever we shall desire. And he said 36 unto them, What would ye that I should do for you? They said 37 unto him, Grant unto us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory. But Jesus said unto 38 them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with? And they said unto him, We can. And Jesus said unto 39 them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of; and with the baptism that I am baptized withal shall ye be baptized: But 40 to sit on my right hand and on my left hand is not mine to give;

 but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared. And when 41 the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John. But Jesus called them to him, and saith unto them, 42 Ye know that they which are accounted to rule over the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them. But so shall it not be among you: but whosoever will 43 be great among you, shall be your minister: And whosoever of 44 you will be the chiefest, shall be servant of all. For even the Son 45 of man came not to be ministered unto, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many. And they came to Jericho: and 46 as he went out of Jericho with his disciples and a great number of people, blind Bartimaeus, the son of Timaeus, sat by the highway side begging. And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, 47 he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but 48 he cried the more a great deal, Thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called. And 49 they call the blind man, saying unto him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee. And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came 50 to Jesus. And Jesus answered and said unto him, What wilt thou 51 that I should do unto thee? The blind man said unto him, Lord, that I might receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Go thy 52 way; thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, unto Bethphage and 11 Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples, And saith unto them, Go your way into the village over 2 against you: and as soon as ye be entered into it, ye shall find a 3 colt tied, whereon never man sat; loose him, and bring him. And if any man say unto you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord 4 hath need of him; and straightway he will send him hither. And they went their way, and found the colt tied by the door without 5 in a place where two ways met; and they loose him. And certain of them that stood there said unto them, What do ye, loosing the 6 colt? And they said unto them even as Jesus had commanded: 7 and they let them go. And they brought the colt to Jesus, and 8 cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him. And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches 9 off the trees, and strawed them in the way. And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna; Blessed is 10 he that cometh in the name of the Lord: Blessed be the kingdom of our father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna 11 in the highest. And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round about upon all things, and now the eventide was come, he went out unto Bethany with the 12 twelve. And on the morrow, when they were come from Bethany, 13 he was hungry: And seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing thereon: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves; for the time of figs was not yet.

14 And Jesus answered and said unto it, No man eat fruit of thee 15 hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it. And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables 16 of the moneychangers, and the seats of them that sold doves; And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the 17 temple. And he taught, saying unto them, Is it not written, My house shall be called of all nations the house of prayer? but ye 18 have made it a den of thieves. And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared 19 him, because all the people was astonished at his doctrine. And 20 when even was come, he went out of the city. And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig tree dried up from the 21 roots. And Peter calling to remembrance saith unto him, Master, 22 behold, the fig tree which thou cursedst is withered away. And

11. v.17 of all...: or, an house of prayer for all nations.

Jesus answering saith unto them, Have faith in God. For verily 23 I say unto you, That whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith. Therefore I 24 say unto you, What things soever ye desire, when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them. And when ye stand 25 praying, forgive, if ye have ought against any: that your Father also which is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses. But if ye 26 do not forgive, neither will your Father which is in heaven forgive your trespasses. And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he 27 was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, And say unto him, By what author- 28 ity doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things? And Jesus answered and said unto them, I will 29 also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things. The baptism of John, was 30 it from heaven, or of men? answer me. And they reasoned with 31 themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him? But if we shall say, Of men; they 32 feared the people: for all men counted John, that he was a prophet indeed. And they answered and said unto Jesus, We cannot tell. 33 And Jesus answering saith unto them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.

And he began to speak unto them by parables. A certain man 12 planted a vineyard, and set an hedge about it, and digged a place for the winefat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country. And at the season he sent to the 2 husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard. And they caught him, and beat him, 3 and sent him away empty. And again he sent unto them another 4 servant; and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled. And again he sent 5 another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some. Having yet therefore one son, his wellbeloved, he 6 sent him also last unto them, saying, They will reverence my son.
 But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; 7 come, let us kill him, and the inheritance shall be ours. And 8 they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.

9 What shall therefore the lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard unto others.
10 And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders 11 rejected is become the head of the corner: This was the Lord's 12 doing, and it is marvellous in our eyes? And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people: for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and went 13 their way. And they send unto him certain of the Pharisees and 14 of the Herodians, to catch him in his words. And when they were come, they say unto him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute 15 to Caesar, or not? Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said unto them, Why tempt ye me? bring 16 me a penny, that I may see it. And they brought it. And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they 17 said unto him, Caesar's. And Jesus answering said unto them, Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and to God the 18 things that are God's. And they marvelled at him. Then come unto him the Sadducees, which say there is no resurrection; and 19 they asked him, saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If a man's brother die, and leave his wife behind him, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his 20 brother. Now there were seven brethren: and the first took a 21 wife, and dying left no seed. And the second took her, and died, 22 neither left he any seed: and the third likewise. And the seven 23 had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also. In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she 24 be of them? for the seven had her to wife. And Jesus answering said unto them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the 25 scriptures, neither the power of God? For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but 26 are as the angels which are in heaven. And as touching the dead, that they rise: have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spake unto him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and 27 the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? He is not the God of the 28 dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err. And

12. v.15 penny: valuing of our money seven pence halfpenny.

one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all? And Jesus answered him, The 29 first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord: And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy 30 heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment. And the second is 31 like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. There is none other commandment greater than these. And the scribe 32 said unto him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is none other but he: And to love him with all 33 the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbour as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices. And when 34 Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said unto him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question. And Jesus answered and said, while he 35 taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the Son of David? For David himself said by the Holy Ghost, The LORD 36 said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thine enemies thy footstool. David therefore himself calleth him Lord; 37 and whence is he then his son? And the common people heard him gladly. And he said unto them in his doctrine, Beware of 38 the scribes, which love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the marketplaces, And the chief seats in the synagogues, and 39 the uppermost rooms at feasts: Which devour widows' houses, 40 and for a pretence make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation. And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld 41 how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much. And there came a certain poor widow, and she 42 threw in two mites, which make a farthing. And he called unto 43 him his disciples, and saith unto them, Verily I say unto you, That this poor widow hath cast more in, than all they which have cast into the treasury: For all they did cast in of their abundance; but 44 she of her want did cast in all that she had, even all her living.

And as he went out of the temple, one of his disciples saith unto 13 him, Master, see what manner of stones and what buildings are v.41 money: a piece of brass money. v.42 mites: it is the seventh part of one piece of that brass money.

2 here! And Jesus answering said unto him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall 3 not be thrown down. And as he sat upon the mount of Olives over against the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked 4 him privately, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall 5 be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled? And Jesus answering them began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive 6 you: For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and 7 shall deceive many. And when ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but 8 the end shall not be yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be earthquakes in divers places, and there shall be famines and troubles: these are 9 the beginnings of sorrows. But take heed to yourselves: for they shall deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye shall be beaten: and ye shall be brought before rulers and kings for my 10 sake, for a testimony against them. And the gospel must first be 11 published among all nations. But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, take no thought beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatsoever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy 12 Ghost. Now the brother shall betray the brother to death, and the father the son; and children shall rise up against their parents, 13 and shall cause them to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure unto the end, 14 the same shall be saved. But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand,) then let them that 15 be in Judaea flee to the mountains: And let him that is on the housetop not go down into the house, neither enter therein, to take 16 any thing out of his house: And let him that is in the field not turn back again for to take up his garment. But woe to them that 17 are with child, and to them that give suck in those days! And pray 18 ye that your flight be not in the winter. For in those days shall be affliction, such as was not from the beginning of the creation which 19 God created unto this time, neither shall be. And except that the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh should be saved: but for 20 the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.

13. v.8 sorrows: the word in the original importeth the pains of a woman in travail.

And then if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or, lo, he is there; believe him not: For false Christs and false prophets shall rise, and shall shew signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect. But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things. But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory. And then shall he send his angels, and shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven. Now learn a parable of the fig tree; When her branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near: So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors. Verily I say unto you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things be done. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away. But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father. Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning: Lest coming suddenly he find you sleeping. And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.

After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death. But they said, Not on the feast day, lest there be an uproar of the people. And being in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at meat, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard very precious; and she brake the box, and poured it on his head. And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made? For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her. And Jesus said, 14. v.3 spikenard: or, pure nard, or, liquid nard.

Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work 7 on me. For ye have the poor with you always, and whensoever ye 8 will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always. She hath done what she could: she is come aforehand to anoint my body to 9 the burying. Verily I say unto you, Wheresoever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath 10 done shall be spoken of for a memorial of her. And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went unto the chief priests, to betray him unto 11 them. And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray 12 him. And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said unto him, Where wilt thou that we go 13 and prepare that thou mayest eat the passover? And he sendeth forth two of his disciples, and saith unto them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow 14 him. And wheresoever he shall go in, say ye to the goodman of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guestchamber, where I 15 shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he will shew you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
16 And his disciples went forth, and came into the city, and found as 17 he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And 18 in the evening he cometh with the twelve. And as they sat and did eat, Jesus said, Verily I say unto you, One of you which eateth 19 with me shall betray me. And they began to be sorrowful, and to say unto him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
20 And he answered and said unto them, It is one of the twelve, that 21 dippeth with me in the dish. The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written of him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.
22 And as they did eat, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and brake it, 23 and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body. And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: 24 and they all drank of it. And he said unto them, This is my blood 25 of the new testament, which is shed for many. Verily I say unto you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day 26 that I drink it new in the kingdom of God. And when they had 27 sung an hymn, they went out into the mount of Olives. And Jesus saith unto them, All ye shall be offended because of me this night:

for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered. But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee. But Peter said unto him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I. And Jesus saith unto him, Verily I say unto thee, That this day, even in this night, before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. But he spake the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all. And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray. And he taketh with him Peter and James and John, and began to be sore amazed, and to be very heavy; And saith unto them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful unto death: tarry ye here, and watch. And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass from him. And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible unto thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless not what I will, but what thou wilt. And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith unto Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldest not thou watch one hour? Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak. And again he went away, and prayed, and spake the same words. And when he returned, he found them asleep again, (for their eyes were heavy,) neither wist they what to answer him. And he cometh the third time, and saith unto them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners. Rise up, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand. And immediately, while he yet spake, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staves, from the chief priests and the scribes and the elders. And he that betrayed him had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely. And as soon as he was come, he goeth straightway to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him. And they laid their hands on him, and took him. And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear. And Jesus answered and said unto them, Are ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staves to take me? I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures

50, 51 must be fulfilled. And they all forsook him, and fled. And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about 52 his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him: And he left 53 the linen cloth, and fled from them naked. And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief 54 priests and the elders and the scribes. And Peter followed him afar off, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the 55 servants, and warmed himself at the fire. And the chief priests and all the council sought for witness against Jesus to put him to 56 death; and found none. For many bare false witness against him, but their witness agreed not together. And there arose certain, 58 and bare false witness against him, saying, We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three 59 days I will build another made without hands. But neither so did 60 their witness agree together. And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is 61 it which these witness against thee? But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said unto 62 him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed? And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right 63 hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven. Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further 64 witnesses? Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And 65 they all condemned him to be guilty of death. And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say unto him, Prophesy: and the servants did strike him with the 66 palms of their hands. And as Peter was beneath in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest: And when she 67 saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth. But he denied, saying, I know not, neither understand I what thou sayest. And he went out 69 into the porch; and the cock crew. And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them. And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilaean, 71 and thy speech agreeth thereto. But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak. And the second time the cock crew. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said unto him, Before the cock crow twice, thou shalt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.

And straightway in the morning the chief priests held a con- 15 sultation with the elders and scribes and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he 2 answering said unto him, Thou sayest it. And the chief priests 3 accused him of many things: but he answered nothing. And Pi- 4 late asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they witness against thee. But Jesus yet answered 5 nothing; so that Pilate marvelled. Now at that feast he released 6 unto them one prisoner, whomsoever they desired. And there was 7 one named Barabbas, which lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection. And the multitude crying aloud began to desire him to 8 do as he had ever done unto them. But Pilate answered them, 9 saying, Will ye that I release unto you the King of the Jews? For 10 he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy. But 11 the chief priests moved the people, that he should rather release Barabbas unto them. And Pilate answered and said again unto 12 them, What will ye then that I shall do unto him whom ye call the King of the Jews? And they cried out again, Crucify him. 13 Then Pilate said unto them, Why, what evil hath he done? And 14 they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him. And so Pilate, 15 willing to content the people, released Barabbas unto them, and delivered Jesus, when he had scourged him, to be crucified. And 16 the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Praetorium; and they call together the whole band. And they clothed him with purple, 17 and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head, And 18 began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews! And they smote 19 him on the head with a reed, and did spit upon him, and bowing their knees worshipped him. And when they had mocked him, 20 they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him. And they compel one Simon a 21 Cyrenian, who passed by, coming out of the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross. And they bring him unto 22 the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull. And they gave him to drink wine mingled with myrrh: but 23 v.72 when...: or, he wept abundantly, or, he began to weep. 15. v.16 Praetorium: or, the palace, or, hall of audience.

24 he received it not. And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
25, 26 And it was the third hour, and they crucified him. And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF 27 THE JEWS. And with him they crucify two thieves; the one on 28 his right hand, and the other on his left. And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
29 And they that passed by railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in 30, 31 three days, Save thyself, and come down from the cross. Likewise also the chief priests mocking said among themselves with the 32 scribes, He saved others; himself he cannot save. Let Christ the King of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and 33 believe. And they that were crucified with him reviled him. And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole 34 land until the ninth hour. And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, being 35 interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me? And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he 36 calleth Elias. And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us 37 see whether Elias will come to take him down. And Jesus cried 38 with a loud voice, and gave up the ghost. And the veil of the tem-39 ple was rent in twain from the top to the bottom. And when the centurion, which stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and gave up the ghost, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
40 There were also women looking on afar off: among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, 41 and Salome; (Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered unto him;) and many other women which came up with 42 him unto Jerusalem. And now when the even was come, because 43 it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath, Joseph of Arimathaea, an honourable counsellor, which also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly unto Pilate, and craved 44 the body of Jesus. And Pilate marvelled if he were already dead: and calling unto him the centurion, he asked him whether he had 45 been any while dead. And when he knew it of the centurion, he 46 gave the body to Joseph. And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulchre which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone unto the door of the sepulchre. And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of 47 Joses beheld where he was laid.

And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary 16 the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him. And very early in the morning 2 the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun. And they said among themselves, Who shall roll us 3 away the stone from the door of the sepulchre? And when they 4 looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man 5 sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted. And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: Ye 6 seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, 7 tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you. And they went out 8 quickly, and fled from the sepulchre; for they trembled and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid. Now when Jesus was risen early the first day of the week, 9 he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven devils. And she went and told them that had been with 10 him, as they mourned and wept. And they, when they had heard 11 that he was alive, and had been seen of her, believed not. After 12 that he appeared in another form unto two of them, as they walked, and went into the country. And they went and told it unto the 13 residue: neither believed they them. Afterward he appeared unto 14 the eleven as they sat at meat, and upbraided them with their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they believed not them which had seen him after he was risen. And he said unto them, Go 15 ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. He 16 that believeth and is baptized shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned. And these signs shall follow them that 17 believe; In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; They shall take up serpents; and if they drink 18 any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover. So then after the Lord had spoken 19 unto them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right 20 hand of God. And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. LUKE.

 orasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in or- 1 der a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us, Even as they delivered them unto us, 2 which from the beginning were eyewitnesses, and ministers of the word; It seemed good to me also, having had perfect 3 understanding of all things from the very first, to write unto thee in order, most excellent Theophilus, That thou mightest know 4 the certainty of those things, wherein thou hast been instructed.
There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judaea, a certain priest 5 named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth. And they were 6 both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless. And they had no child, because 7 that Elisabeth was barren, and they both were now well stricken in years. And it came to pass, that while he executed the priest's of- 8 fice before God in the order of his course, According to the custom 9 of the priest's office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord. And the whole multitude of the people 10 were praying without at the time of incense. And there appeared 11 unto him an angel of the Lord standing on the right side of the altar of incense. And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, 12 and fear fell upon him. But the angel said unto him, Fear not, 13 Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John. And thou shalt 14 have joy and gladness; and many shall rejoice at his birth. For 15 he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Ghost, even from his mother's womb. And many of the children of Israel 16 shall he turn to the Lord their God. And he shall go before him 17 in the spirit and power of Elias, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to 18 make ready a people prepared for the Lord. And Zacharias said unto the angel, Whereby shall I know this? for I am an old man, 19 and my wife well stricken in years. And the angel answering said unto him, I am Gabriel, that stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak unto thee, and to shew thee these glad tidings.

20 And, behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest 21 not my words, which shall be fulfilled in their season. And the people waited for Zacharias, and marvelled that he tarried so long 22 in the temple. And when he came out, he could not speak unto them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple:
23 for he beckoned unto them, and remained speechless. And it came to pass, that, as soon as the days of his ministration were 24 accomplished, he departed to his own house. And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and hid herself five months, saying, 25 Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days wherein he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men. And in the sixth 26 month the angel Gabriel was sent from God unto a city of Galilee, named Nazareth, To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was 27 Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary. And the angel came in unto her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favoured, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
28 And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in 30 her mind what manner of salutation this should be. And the angel said unto her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favour with 31 God. And, behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS. He shall be great, and shall be called the Son of the Highest: and the Lord God shall give 33 unto him the throne of his father David: And he shall reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there shall be no 34 end. Then said Mary unto the angel, How shall this be, seeing I 35 know not a man? And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall 36 be born of thee shall be called the Son of God. And, behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age: and this is the sixth month with her, who was called barren. For with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her. And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Juda; And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth. And it came to pass, that, when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb; and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Ghost: And she spake out with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb. And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me? For, lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in mine ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy. And blessed is she that believed: for there shall be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord. And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For he that is mighty hath done to me great things; and holy is his name. And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation. He hath shewed strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich he hath sent empty away. He hath holpen his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy; As he spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever. And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house. Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son. And her neighbours and her cousins heard how the Lord had shewed great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her. And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father. And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John. And they said unto her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name. And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called. And he asked for a writing table, and 64 wrote, saying, His name is John. And they marvelled all. And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he 65 spake, and praised God. And fear came on all that dwelt round about them: and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout 66 all the hill country of Judaea. And all they that heard them laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child shall this be!

 67 And the hand of the Lord was with him. And his father Zacharias 68 was filled with the Holy Ghost, and prophesied, saying, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his peo-69 ple, And hath raised up an horn of salvation for us in the house 70 of his servant David; As he spake by the mouth of his holy pro-71 phets, which have been since the world began: That we should be 72 saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us; To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his 73 holy covenant; The oath which he sware to our father Abraham, 74 That he would grant unto us, that we being delivered out of the 75 hand of our enemies might serve him without fear, In holiness and 76 righteousness before him, all the days of our life. And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest: for thou shalt go before 77 the face of the Lord to prepare his ways; To give knowledge of 78 salvation unto his people by the remission of their sins, Through the tender mercy of our God; whereby the dayspring from on high 79 hath visited us, To give light to them that sit in darkness and in 80 the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his shewing unto Israel.

2 And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree 2 from Caesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed. (And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.) 3, 4 And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city. And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judaea, unto the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was 5 of the house and lineage of David:) To be taxed with Mary his 6 espoused wife, being great with child. And so it was, that, while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be 7 delivered. And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn. And there were in the same 8 country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, 9 and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, behold, 10 I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which 11 is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you; Ye shall find 12 the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And 13 suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and 14 on earth peace, good will toward men. And it came to pass, as 15 the angels were gone away from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even unto Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us. And they came with haste, and found Mary, and 16 Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger. And when they had 17 seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child. And all they that heard it wondered at 18 those things which were told them by the shepherds. But Mary 19 kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart. And the 20 shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them. And when 21 eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was so named of the angel before he was conceived in the womb. And when the days of her purification 22 according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord; (As it is written in the 23 law of the Lord, Every male that openeth the womb shall be called holy to the Lord;) And to offer a sacrifice according to that which 24 is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons. And, behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name 25 was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Ghost was upon him. And 26 it was revealed unto him by the Holy Ghost, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ. And he came by the 27 Spirit into the temple: and when the parents brought in the child

28 Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law, Then took he 29 him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said, Lord, now lettest 30 thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word: For mine 31 eyes have seen thy salvation, Which thou hast prepared before the 32 face of all people; A light to lighten the Gentiles, and the glory of 33 thy people Israel. And Joseph and his mother marvelled at those 34 things which were spoken of him. And Simeon blessed them, and said unto Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken 35 against; (Yea, a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also,) that 36 the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed. And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Aser:
she was of a great age, and had lived with an husband seven years 37 from her virginity; And she was a widow of about fourscore and four years, which departed not from the temple, but served God 38 with fastings and prayers night and day. And she coming in that instant gave thanks likewise unto the Lord, and spake of him to all 39 them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem. And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they 40 returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth. And the child grew, and waxed strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace 41 of God was upon him. Now his parents went to Jerusalem every 42 year at the feast of the passover. And when he was twelve years 43 old, they went up to Jerusalem after the custom of the feast. And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not 44 of it. But they, supposing him to have been in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their kinsfolk and 45 acquaintance. And when they found him not, they turned back 46 again to Jerusalem, seeking him. And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the 47 doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions. And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
48 And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said unto him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy 49 father and I have sought thee sorrowing. And he said unto them, How is it that ye sought me? wist ye not that I must be about 50 my Father's business? And they understood not the saying which he spake unto them. And he went down with them, and came 51 to Nazareth, and was subject unto them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart. And Jesus increased in wisdom and 52 stature, and in favour with God and man.

Now in the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, Pon- 3 tius Pilate being governor of Judaea, and Herod being tetrarch of Galilee, and his brother Philip tetrarch of Ituraea and of the region of Trachonitis, and Lysanias the tetrarch of Abilene, Annas and 2 Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came unto John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness. And he came into all the 3 country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins; As it is written in the book of the words of Esa- 4 ias the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight. Every 5 valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth; And all flesh shall see the salvation of God. 6 Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized of 7 him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come? Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, 8 and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham to our father: for I say unto you, That God is able of these stones to raise up children unto Abraham. And now also the axe is laid unto 9 the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit is hewn down, and cast into the fire. And the people 10 asked him, saying, What shall we do then? He answereth and 11 saith unto them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath meat, let him do likewise. Then 12 came also publicans to be baptized, and said unto him, Master, what shall we do? And he said unto them, Exact no more than 13 that which is appointed you. And the soldiers likewise demanded 14 of him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said unto them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely; and be content with your wages. And as the people were in expectation, and all 15 men mused in their hearts of John, whether he were the Christ, or not; John answered, saying unto them all, I indeed baptize you 16 with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he shall baptize you with the 17 Holy Ghost and with fire: Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly purge his floor, and will gather the wheat into his garner; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable. And many 18 other things in his exhortation preached he unto the people. But Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him for Herodias his brother 19 Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done, Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison. Now when 20 all the people were baptized, it came to pass, that Jesus also being baptized, and praying, the heaven was opened, And the Holy 21 Ghost descended in a bodily shape like a dove upon him, and a voice came from heaven, which said, Thou art my beloved Son; in thee I am well pleased. And Jesus himself began to be about 22 thirty years of age, being (as was supposed) the son of Joseph, which was the son of Heli, Which was the son of Matthat, which was the son of Levi, which was the son of Melchi, which was the son of Janna, which was the son of Joseph, Which was the son of Mattathias, which was the son of Amos, which was the son of Naum, which was the son of Esli, which was the son of Nagge, which was the son of Adam, which was the son of God.

And Jesus being full of the Holy Ghost returned from Jordan, 4 and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness, Being forty days 2 tempted of the devil. And in those days he did eat nothing: and when they were ended, he afterward hungered. And the devil said 3 unto him, If thou be the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread. And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, 4 That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
And the devil, taking him up into an high mountain, shewed unto 5 him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time. And the 6 devil said unto him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered unto me; and to whomsoever I will I give it. If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine. And 7, 8 Jesus answered and said unto him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve. And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set 9 him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said unto him, If thou be the Son of God, cast thyself down from hence: For it is written, He 10 shall give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee: And in their 11 hands they shall bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone. And Jesus answering said unto him, It is said, 12 Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God. And when the devil had 13 ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season. And 14 Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about. And 15 he taught in their synagogues, being glorified of all. And he came 16 to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read. And there was delivered unto him the book of the 17 prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the 18 place where it was written, The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty 19 them that are bruised, To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.

20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue 21 were fastened on him. And he began to say unto them, This day 22 is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. And all bare him witness, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his 23 mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son? And he said unto them, Ye will surely say unto me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatsoever we have heard done in Capernaum, do 24 also here in thy country. And he said, Verily I say unto you, 25 No prophet is accepted in his own country. But I tell you of a truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elias, when the heaven was shut up three years and six months, when great famine 26 was throughout all the land; But unto none of them was Elias sent, save unto Sarepta, a city of Sidon, unto a woman that was 27 a widow. And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Eliseus the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the 28 Syrian. And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these 29 things, were filled with wrath, And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him unto the brow of the hill whereon their 30 city was built, that they might cast him down headlong. But he 31 passing through the midst of them went his way, And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath 32 days. And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word 33 was with power. And in the synagogue there was a man, which had a spirit of an unclean devil, and cried out with a loud voice, 34 Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, thou Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou 35 art; the Holy One of God. And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the devil had thrown 36 him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not. And they were all amazed, and spake among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out. And the fame of him went out 37 into every place of the country round about. And he arose out 38 of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And Simon's wife's mother was taken with a great fever; and they besought him for her. And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left 39 her: and immediately she arose and ministered unto them. Now 40 when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases brought them unto him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them. And devils also came out of many, 41 crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ. And when it was day, he departed and went into a 42 desert place: and the people sought him, and came unto him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them. And he said 43 unto them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also: for therefore am I sent. And he preached in the synagogues of 44 Galilee.

And it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to 5 hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret, And 2 saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets. And he entered into 3 one of the ships, which was Simon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship. Now when he had left speaking, he said 4 unto Simon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught. And Simon answering said unto him, Master, we have 5 toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net. And when they had this done, they 6 inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake. And 7 they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink. When Simon Peter 8 saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord. For he was astonished, and all that 9 were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
And so was also James, and John, the sons of Zebedee, which were 10 partners with Simon. And Jesus said unto Simon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men. And when they had brought 11

v.41 to speak....: or, to say that they knew him to be Christ.

12 their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him. And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him. And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded, for a testimony unto them. But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities. And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed. And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Galilee, and Judaea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them. And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him. And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the housetop, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jesus. And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee. And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone? But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts? Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk? But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house. And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God. And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day. And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me. And he left all, rose up, and followed him. And Levi made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them. But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners? And Jesus answering said unto them, 31 They that are whole need not a physician; but they that are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance. And 32, 33 they said unto him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink? And he said unto them, Can ye make the children 34 of the bridechamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? But 35 the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken away from them, and then shall they fast in those days. And he spake also a 36 parable unto them; No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old; if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new agreeth not with the old. And no 37 man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles shall perish. But new 38 wine must be put into new bottles; and both are preserved. No 39 man also having drunk old wine straightway desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that 6 he went through the corn fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and did eat, rubbing them in their hands. And certain of 2 the Pharisees said unto them, Why do ye that which is not lawful to do on the sabbath days? And Jesus answering them said, Have 3 ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was an hungred, and they which were with him; How he went into the 4 house of God, and did take and eat the shewbread, and gave also to them that were with him; which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone? And he said unto them, That the Son of man 5 is Lord also of the sabbath. And it came to pass also on another 6 sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered. And the scribes and 7 Pharisees watched him, whether he would heal on the sabbath day; that they might find an accusation against him. But he knew their 8 thoughts, and said to the man which had the withered hand, Rise up, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose and stood forth. Then said Jesus unto them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful 9 on the sabbath days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it? And looking round about upon them all, he said 10 unto the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his 11 hand was restored whole as the other. And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to 12 Jesus. And it came to pass in those days, that he went out into a 13 mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God. And when it was day, he called unto him his disciples: and of them 14 he chose twelve, whom also he named apostles; Simon, (whom he also named Peter,) and Andrew his brother, James and John, 15 Philip and Bartholomew, Matthew and Thomas, James the son 16 of Alphaeus, and Simon called Zelotes, And Judas the brother of 17 James, and Judas Iscariot, which also was the traitor. And he came down with them, and stood in the plain, and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judaea and Jerusalem, and from the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, which came 18 to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases; And they that were 19 vexed with unclean spirits: and they were healed. And the whole multitude sought to touch him: for there went virtue out of him, 20 and healed them all. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and 21 said, Blessed be ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that 22 weep now: for ye shall laugh. Blessed are ye, when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, for the Son 23 of man's sake. Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for, behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their 24 fathers unto the prophets. But woe unto you that are rich! for ye 25 have received your consolation. Woe unto you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe unto you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn 26 and weep. Woe unto you, when all men shall speak well of you!

27 for so did their fathers to the false prophets. But I say unto you which hear, Love your enemies, do good to them which hate you, 28 Bless them that curse you, and pray for them which despitefully 29 use you. And unto him that smiteth thee on the one cheek offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke forbid not to 30 take thy coat also. Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of 31 him that taketh away thy goods ask them not again. And as ye 32 would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise. For if ye love them which love you, what thank have ye? for sinners 33 also love those that love them. And if ye do good to them which do good to you, what thank have ye? for sinners also do even the same. And if ye lend to them of whom ye hope to receive, what 34 thank have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much again. But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping 35 for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil. Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is 36 merciful. Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, 37 and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven: Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, 38 and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again. And he spake a parable unto them, Can 39 the blind lead the blind? shall they not both fall into the ditch?

 The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect 40 shall be as his master. And why beholdest thou the mote that is 41 in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, 42 let me pull out the mote that is in thine eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thine own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thine own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye. For a 43 good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit. For every tree is known by his own 44 fruit. For of thorns men do not gather figs, nor of a bramble bush gather they grapes. A good man out of the good treasure of his 45 heart bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart bringeth forth that which is evil: for of the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh. And why call ye 46 me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say? Whosoever 47 cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will shew you to whom he is like: He is like a man which built an house, 48 and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock. But he that 49 heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that without a foundation built an house upon the earth; against which the stream did beat vehemently, and immediately it fell; and the ruin of that house was great.

6. v.40 that...: or, shall be perfected as his master. v.44 grapes: Gr. a grape.

7 Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the 2 people, he entered into Capernaum. And a certain centurion's 3 servant, who was dear unto him, was sick, and ready to die. And 4 when he heard of Jesus, he sent unto him the elders of the Jews, 5 beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant. And 6 when they came to Jesus, they besought him instantly, saying, 7 That he was worthy for whom he should do this: For he loveth 8 our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue. Then Jesus went 9 with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the 10 centurion sent friends to him, saying unto him, Lord, trouble not 11 thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my 12 roof: Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come unto 13 thee: but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed. For I 14 also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and 15 I say unto one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he 16 cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it. When Jesus 17 heard these things, he marvelled at him, and turned him about, 18 and said unto the people that followed him, I say unto you, I have 19 not found so great faith, no, not in Israel. And they that were 20 sent, returning to the house, found the servant whole that had been sick. And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain; and many of his disciples went with him, and much people. Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and much people of the city was with her. And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said unto her, Weep not. And he came and touched the bier: and they that bare him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say unto thee, Arise. And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak.
And he delivered him to his mother. And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet is risen up among us; and, That God hath visited his people. And this rumour of him went forth throughout all Judaea, and throughout all the region round about. And the disciples of John shewed him of all these things. And John calling unto him two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? When the men were come unto him, they said, John Baptist hath sent us unto thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another? And in that same 21 hour he cured many of their infirmities and plagues, and of evil spirits; and unto many that were blind he gave sight. Then Jesus 22 answering said unto them, Go your way, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; how that the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached. And blessed is he, whosoever shall not be 23 offended in me. And when the messengers of John were departed, 24 he began to speak unto the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness for to see? A reed shaken with the wind?

But what went ye out for to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? 25 Behold, they which are gorgeously apparelled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts. But what went ye out for to see? A prophet? 26 Yea, I say unto you, and much more than a prophet. This is he, 27 of whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, which shall prepare thy way before thee. For I say unto 28 you, Among those that are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he. And all the people that heard him, and 29 the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John. But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God 30 against themselves, being not baptized of him. And the Lord 31 said, Whereunto then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like? They are like unto children sitting in 32 the marketplace, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped unto you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept. For John the Baptist came neither eating 33 bread nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a devil. The Son of 34 man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold a gluttonous man, and a winebibber, a friend of publicans and sinners! But 35 wisdom is justified of all her children. And one of the Pharisees 36 desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down to meat. And, behold, a woman 37 in the city, which was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at meat in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster box of ointment, And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his 38 feet with tears, and did wipe them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment. Now 39 when the Pharisee which had bidden him saw it, he spake within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him: for she 40 is a sinner. And Jesus answering said unto him, Simon, I have 41 somewhat to say unto thee. And he saith, Master, say on. There was a certain creditor which had two debtors: the one owed five 42 hundred pence, and the other fifty. And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of 43 them will love him most? Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said unto him, Thou 44 hast rightly judged. And he turned to the woman, and said unto Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thine house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with 45 tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head. Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman since the time I came in hath not 46 ceased to kiss my feet. My head with oil thou didst not anoint:

47 but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment. Wherefore I say unto thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.
48, 49 And he said unto her, Thy sins are forgiven. And they that sat at meat with him began to say within themselves, Who is this that 50 forgiveth sins also? And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

8 And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and shewing the glad tidings of the 2 kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him, And certain women, which had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary 3 called Magdalene, out of whom went seven devils, And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, 4 which ministered unto him of their substance. And when much people were gathered together, and were come to him out of every 5 city, he spake by a parable: A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, 6 and the fowls of the air devoured it. And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered away, because it lacked 7 moisture. And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up 8 with it, and choked it. And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bare fruit an hundredfold. And when he had said these 9 things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear. And his disciples asked him, saying, What might this parable be? And he 10 said, Unto you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they might not see, and hearing they might not understand. Now the parable is this: 11

The seed is the word of God. Those by the way side are they that 12 hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved. They on the rock are 13 they, which, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, which for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away. And that which fell among thorns are they, which, when 14 they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection. But that 15 on the good ground are they, which in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.
No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, 16 or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they which enter in may see the light. For nothing is secret, that 17 shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad. Take heed therefore how ye hear: for 18 whosoever hath, to him shall be given; and whosoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have. Then 19 came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come at him for the press. And it was told him by certain which said, Thy 20 mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee. And 21 he answered and said unto them, My mother and my brethren are these which hear the word of God, and do it. Now it came to pass 22 on a certain day, that he went into a ship with his disciples: and he said unto them, Let us go over unto the other side of the lake.
And they launched forth. But as they sailed he fell asleep: and 23 there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy. And they came to him, and 24 awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm. And he said unto them, Where is your 25 faith? And they being afraid wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him. And they arrived at the country 26 of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee. And when he 27 went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, which had devils long time, and ware no clothes, neither abode in 28 any house, but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech 29 thee, torment me not. (For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For oftentimes it had caught him: and he was kept bound with chains and in fetters; and he brake the bands, 30 and was driven of the devil into the wilderness.) And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because 31 many devils were entered into him. And they besought him that he would not command them to go out into the deep. And there 32 was there an herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them.

33 And he suffered them. Then went the devils out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep 34 place into the lake, and were choked. When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city 35 and in the country. Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man, out of whom the devils were departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right 36 mind: and they were afraid. They also which saw it told them by what means he that was possessed of the devils was healed. Then 37 the whole multitude of the country of the Gadarenes round about besought him to depart from them; for they were taken with great 38 fear: and he went up into the ship, and returned back again. Now the man out of whom the devils were departed besought him that 39 he might be with him: but Jesus sent him away, saying, Return to thine own house, and shew how great things God hath done unto thee. And he went his way, and published throughout the whole 40 city how great things Jesus had done unto him. And it came to pass, that, when Jesus was returned, the people gladly received 41 him: for they were all waiting for him. And, behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at Jesus' feet, and besought him that he would come 42 into his house: For he had one only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she lay a dying. But as he went the people thronged 43 him. And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, which had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed of any, Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: 44 and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd. And Jesus said, 45 Who touchèd me? When all denied, Peter and they that were with him said, Master, the multitude throng thee and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touchèd me? And Jesus said, Somebody hath 46 touchèd me: for I perceive that virtue is gone out of me. And 47 when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared unto him before all the people for what cause she had touchèd him, and how she was healèd immediately. And he said unto her, Daughter, be of good comfort: 48 thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace. While he yet spake, 49 there cometh one from the ruler of the synagogue's house, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead; trouble not the Master. But when 50 Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be made whole. And when he came into the house, 51 he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden. And all wept, 52 and bewailèd her: but he said, Weep not; she is not dead, but sleepeth. And they laughèd him to scorn, knowing that she was 53 dead. And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and 54 callèd, saying, Maid, arise. And her spirit came again, and she 55 arose straightway: and he commandèd to give her meat. And her 56 parents were astonishèd: but he chargèd them that they should tell no man what was done.

Then he callèd his twelve disciples together, and gavè them 9 power and authority over all devils, and to cure diseases. And 2 he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
And he said unto them, Take nothing for your journey, neither 3 staves, nor scrip, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece. And whatsoever house ye enter into, there abide, 4 and thence depart. And whosoever will not receive you, when ye 5 go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them. And they departed, and went through 6 the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where. Now 7 Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said of some, that John was risen 8 from the dead; And of some, that Elias had appearèd; and of 8 others, that one of the old prophets was risen again. And Herod 9 said, John have I beheadèd: but who is this, of whom I hear such 10 things? And he desired to see him. And the apostles, when they were returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place belonging to the city 11 called Bethsaida. And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spake unto them of the kingdom 12 of God, and healed them that had need of healing. And when the day began to wear away, then came the twelve, and said unto him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country round about, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are 13 here in a desert place. But he said unto them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more but five loaves and two 14 fishes; except we should go and buy meat for all this people. For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, 15 Make them sit down by fifties in a company. And they did so, 16 and made them all sit down. Then he took the five loaves and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and brake, 17 and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude. And they did eat, and were all filled: and there was taken up of fragments 18 that remained to them twelve baskets. And it came to pass, as he was alone praying, his disciples were with him: and he asked them, 19 saying, Whom say the people that I am? They answering said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elias; and others say, that one of 20 the old prophets is risen again. He said unto them, But whom say ye that I am? Peter answering said, The Christ of God. And he 21 straitly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that 22 thing; Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected of the elders and chief priests and scribes, and be slain, 23 and be raised the third day. And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross 24 daily, and follow me. For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save 25 it. For what is a man advantaged, if he gain the whole world, and 26 lose himself, or be cast away? For whosoever shall be ashamed of me and of my words, of him shall the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in his Father's, and of 27 the holy angels. But I tell you of a truth, there be some standing here, which shall not taste of death, till they see the kingdom of 28 God. And it came to pass about an eight days after these sayings, he took Peter and John and James, and went up into a mountain to pray. And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening. And, behold, there talked with him two men, which were Moses and Elias: Who appeared in glory, and spake of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem. But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him. And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said unto Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elias: not knowing what he said. While he thus spake, there came a cloud, and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud. And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him. And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen. And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they were come down from the hill, much people met him. And, behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee, look upon my son: for he is mine only child. And, lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth again, and bruising him hardly departeth from him. And I besought thy disciples to cast him out; and they could not. And Jesus answering said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you? Bring thy son hither. And as he was yet a coming, the devil threw him down, and tare him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father. And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they wondered every one at all things which Jesus did, he said unto his disciples, Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man shall be delivered into the hands of men. But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying. Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest. And Jesus, perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, And said unto them, Whosoever shall receive this child in my name receiveth me: and whosoever shall receive me receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the 49 same shall be great. And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out devils in thy name; and we forbad him, because he 50 followeth not with us. And Jesus said unto him, Forbid him not: 51 for he that is not against us is for us. And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he stedfastly 52 set his face to go to Jerusalem, And sent messengers before his face: and they went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, 53 to make ready for him. And they did not receive him, because 54 his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem. And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, 55 even as Elias did? But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, 56 Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of. For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they 57 went to another village. And it came to pass, that, as they went in the way, a certain man said unto him, Lord, I will follow thee 58 whithersoever thou goest. And Jesus said unto him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not 59 where to lay his head. And he said unto another, Follow me. But 60 he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father. Jesus said unto him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach 61 the kingdom of God. And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go bid them farewell, which are at home at 62 my house. And Jesus said unto him, No man, having put his hand to the plough, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.

10 After these things the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city and place, 2 whither he himself would come. Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his 3 harvest. Go your ways: behold, I send you forth as lambs among 4 wolves. Carry neither purse, nor scrip, nor shoes: and salute no 5 man by the way. And into whatsoever house ye enter, first say, 6 Peace be to this house. And if the son of peace be there, your 7 peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again. And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the labourer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to 8 house. And into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you, 9 eat such things as are set before you: And heal the sick that are therein, and say unto them, The kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But into whatsoever city ye enter, and they receive you not, 10 go your ways out into the streets of the same, and say, Even the 11 very dust of your city, which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh unto you. But I say unto you, that it shall be more 12 tolerable in that day for Sodom, than for that city. Woe unto 13 thee, Chorazin! woe unto thee, Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.

But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, 14 than for you. And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, 15 shalt be thrust down to hell. He that heareth you heareth me; 16 and he that despiseth you despiseth me; and he that despiseth me despiseth him that sent me. And the seventy returned again with 17 joy, saying, Lord, even the devils are subject unto us through thy name. And he said unto them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall 18 from heaven. Behold, I give unto you power to tread on serpents 19 and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you. Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, 20 that the spirits are subject unto you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven. In that hour Jesus rejoiced in 21 spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them unto babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight. All things are delivered to me of my Father: and no 22 man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him. And he 23 turned him unto his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see: For I tell you, that many 24 prophets and kings have desired to see those things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear those things which ye hear, and have not heard them. And, behold, a certain lawyer stood up, 25 and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? He said unto him, What is written in the law? how readest 26 thou? And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God 27 with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength,

10. v.22 many ancient copies add these words at the beginning of verse, and turning to his disciples, he said.

28 and with all thy mind; and thy neighbour as thyself. And he said unto him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.
 29 But he, willing to justify himself, said unto Jesus, And who is my 30 neighbour? And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him 31 half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that 32 way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on 33 him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had 34 compassion on him, And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought 35 him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest 36 more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the 37 thieves? And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said 38 Jesus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise. Now it came to pass, as they went, that he entered into a certain village: and a certain 39 woman named Martha received him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, which also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his 40 word. But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left 41 me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me. And Jesus answered and said unto her, Martha, Martha, thou art careful and 42 troubled about many things: But one thing is needful: and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.
 11 And it came to pass, that, as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said unto him, Lord, teach us 2 to pray, as John also taught his disciples. And he said unto them, When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, 3, 4 so in earth. Give us day by day our daily bread. And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us.
 5 And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. And he said unto them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go unto him at midnight, and say unto him, Friend, lend me three loaves; For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I 6 have nothing to set before him? And he from within shall answer 7 and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee. I say unto you, 8 Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth. And I say unto you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, 9 and ye shall find; knock, and it shall be opened unto you. For 10 every one that asketh receiveth; and he that seeketh findeth; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread 11 of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent? Or if he shall ask 12 an egg, will he offer him a scorpion? If ye then, being evil, know 13 how to give good gifts unto your children: how much more shall your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him? And he was casting out a devil, and it was dumb. And it came 14 to pass, when the devil was gone out, the dumb spake; and the people wondered. But some of them said, He casteth out devils 15 through Beelzebub the chief of the devils. And others, tempting 16 him, sought of him a sign from heaven. But he, knowing their 17 thoughts, said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth. If Satan also be divided against himself, how shall his kingdom 18 stand? because ye say that I cast out devils through Beelzebub. And if I by Beelzebub cast out devils, by whom do your sons cast 19 them out? therefore shall they be your judges. But if I with 20 the finger of God cast out devils, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you. When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, 21 his goods are in peace: But when a stronger than he shall come 22 upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armour wherein he trusted, and divideth his spoils. He that is not with 23 me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth. When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through 24 dry places, seeking rest; and finding none, he saith, I will return unto my house whence I came out. And when he cometh, he 25 findeth it swept and garnished. Then goeth he, and taketh to 26

him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than 27 the first. And it came to pass, as he spake these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said unto him, Blessed is the womb that bare thee, and the paps which thou hast 28 sucked. But he said, Yea rather, blessed are they that hear the 29 word of God, and keep it. And when the people were gathered thick together, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given it, but the sign of Jonas 30 the prophet. For as Jonas was a sign unto the Ninevites, so shall 31 also the Son of man be to this generation. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon 32 is here. The men of Nineve shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the 33 preaching of Jonas; and, behold, a greater than Jonas is here. No man, when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a bushel, but on a candlestick, that they which come 34 in may see the light. The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thine eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but 35 when thine eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness. Take 36 heed therefore that the light which is in thee be not darkness. If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light, as when the bright shining of a candle 37 doth give thee light. And as he spake, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to meat. And 38 when the Pharisee saw it, he marvelled that he had not first washed before dinner. And the Lord said unto him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward 39 part is full of ravening and wickedness. Ye fools, did not he that 40 made that which is without make that which is within also? But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and, behold, all things 41 are clean unto you. But woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint and rue and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to 42 leave the other undone. Woe unto you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

Woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as 44 graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them. Then answered one of the lawyers, and said 45 unto him, Master, thus saying thou reproachest us also. And he 46 said, Woe unto you also, ye lawyers! for ye lade men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers. Woe unto you! for ye build the sepulchres 47 of the prophets, and your fathers killed them. Truly ye bear 48 witness that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchres. Therefore also said the 49 wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they shall slay and persecute: That the blood of all the 50 prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation; From the blood of Abel unto the blood 51 of Zacharias, which perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say unto you, It shall be required of this generation. Woe 52 unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. And as he said these things unto them, the scribes and 53 the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to provoke him to speak of many things: Laying wait for him, and seeking to 54 catch something out of his mouth, that they might accuse him.

In the mean time, when there were gathered together an innu- 12 merable multitude of people, insomuch that they trode one upon another, he began to say unto his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. For there is 2 nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness 3 shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops. And I say 4 unto you my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do. But I will forewarn 5 you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, which after he hath killed hath power to cast into hell; yea, I say unto you, Fear him. Are not 6 five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all 7 numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows. Also I say unto you, Whosoever shall confess me before 8 men, him shall the Son of man also confess before the angels of 9 God: But he that denieth me before men shall be denied before 10 the angels of God. And whosoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but unto him that blas-11 phemeth against the Holy Ghost it shall not be forgiven. And when they bring you unto the synagogues, and unto magistrates, and powers, take ye no thought how or what thing ye shall answer, 12 or what ye shall say: For the Holy Ghost shall teach you in the 13 same hour what ye ought to say. And one of the company said unto him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheri-14 tance with me. And he said unto him, Man, who made me a judge 15 or a divider over you? And he said unto them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abun-16 dance of the things which he possesseth. And he spake a parable unto them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth 17 plentifully: And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I 18 do, because I have no room where to bestow my fruits? And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; 19 and there will I bestow all my fruits and my goods. And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast much goods laid up for many years; 20 take thine ease, eat, drink, and be merry. But God said unto him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then 21 whose shall those things be, which thou hast provided? So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God.

22 And he said unto his disciples, Therefore I say unto you, Take no thought for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what 23 ye shall put on. The life is more than meat, and the body is more 24 than raiment. Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap; which neither have storehouse nor barn; and God feedeth them: 25 how much more are ye better than the fowls? And which of you 26 with taking thought can add to his stature one cubit? If ye then be not able to do that thing which is least, why take ye thought for 27 the rest? Consider the lilies how they grow: they toil not, they spin not; and yet I say unto you, that Solomon in all his glory was 28 not arrayed like one of these. If then God so clothe the grass, which is to day in the field, and to morrow is cast into the oven; 29 how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith? And seek not ye what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind. For all these things do the nations of the world 30 seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things. But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these 31 things shall be added unto you. Fear not, little flock; for it is 32 your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom. Sell that ye 33 have, and give alms; provide yourselves bags which wax not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approucheth, neither moth corrupteth. For where your treasure is, there 34 will your heart be also. Let your loins be girded about, and your 35 lights burning; And ye yourselves like unto men that wait for their 36 lord, when he will return from the wedding; that when he cometh and knocketh, they may open unto him immediately. Blessed are 37 those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them. And if he 38 shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants. And this know, that if 39 the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through. Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man 40 cometh at an hour when ye think not. Then Peter said unto him, 41

 Lord, speakest thou this parable unto us, or even to all? And the 42 Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of meat in due season? Blessed is that servant, whom his 43 lord when he cometh shall find so doing. Of a truth I say unto 44 you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath. But and 45 if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken; The lord of that servant will come in a 46 day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him in sunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers. And that servant, which knew his lord's 47 will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes. But he that knew not, and did 48 commit things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes.
 For unto whomsoever much is given, of him shall be much required: and to whom men have committed much, of him they will ask the 49 more. I am come to send fire on the earth; and what will I, if it be 50 already kindled? But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and 51 how am I straitened till it be accomplished! Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, Nay; but rather division: 52 For from henceforth there shall be five in one house divided, three 53 against two, and two against three. The father shall be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother in law against her daughter in law, and the daughter in law against 54 her mother in law. And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rise out of the west, straightway ye say, There cometh a 55 shower; and so it is. And when ye see the south wind blow, ye 56 say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass. Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky and of the earth; but how is it 57 that ye do not discern this time? Yea, and why even of yourselves 58 judge ye not what is right? When thou goest with thine adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he hale thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into 59 prison. I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

13 There were present at that season some that told him of the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.
 2 And Jesus answering said unto them, Suppose ye that these Galilaeans were sinners above all the Galilaeans, because they suffered 3 such things? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye repent, ye shall 4 all likewise perish. Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and slew them, think ye that they were sinners above 5 all men that dwelt in Jerusalem? I tell you, Nay: but, except ye 6 repent, ye shall all likewise perish. He spake also this parable; A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard; and he came 7 and sought fruit thereon, and found none. Then said he unto the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it 8 the ground? And he answering said unto him, Lord, let it alone 9 this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it: And if it bear 10 fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down. And 11 he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath. And, behold, there was a woman which had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise lift up herself. And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said 12 unto her, Woman, thou art loosed from thine infirmity. And he 13 laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God. And the ruler of the synagogue answered with 14 indignation, because that Jesus had healed on the sabbath day, and said unto the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath day. The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hyp- 15 ocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering? And ought 16 not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, be loosed from this bond on the sabbath day? And when he had said these things, all his adver- 17 saries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him. Then said he, Unto what is the 18 kingdom of God like? and whereunto shall I resemble it? It is 19 like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it. And again he said, Whereunto 20 shall I liken the kingdom of God? It is like leaven, which a woman 21 took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened. And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and 22 journeying toward Jerusalem. Then said one unto him, Lord, are 23 there few that be saved? And he said unto them, Strive to enter 24 in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able. When once the master of the house is 25 risen up, and hath shut to the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open unto us; and he shall answer and say unto you, I know you not whence ye are: Then shall ye begin to say, We have eaten and drunk in thy pres- 26 ence, and thou hast taught in our streets. But he shall say, I tell 27 you, I know you not whence ye are; depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity. There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when 28 ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves thrust out. And they 29 shall come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and shall sit down in the kingdom of God.

30 And, behold, there are last which shall be first, and there are first 31 which shall be last. The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying unto him, Get thee out, and depart hence: for Herod 32 will kill thee. And he said unto them, Go ye, and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out devils, and I do cures to day and to morrow, and 33 the third day I shall be perfected. Nevertheless I must walk to day, and to morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a 34 prophet perish out of Jerusalem. O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, which killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent unto thee; how often would I have gathered thy children together, as a hen doth 35 gather her brood under her wings, and ye would not! Behold, your house is left unto you desolate: and verily I say unto you, Ye shall not see me, until the time come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.

14 And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath day, that they watched 2 him. And, behold, there was a certain man before him which 3 had the dropsy. And Jesus answering spake unto the lawyers and 4 Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath day? And they held their peace. And he took him, and healed him, and let 5 him go; And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not straightway pull him 6 out on the sabbath day? And they could not answer him again 7 to these things. And he put forth a parable to those which were bidden, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying 8 unto them, When thou art bidden of any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room; lest a more honourable man than 9 thou be bidden of him; And he that bade thee and him come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to 10 take the lowest room. But when thou art bidden, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that bade thee cometh, he may say unto thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have worship 11 in the presence of them that sit at meat with thee. For whosoever exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself 12 shall be exalted. Then said he also to him that bade him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbours; lest they 13 also bid thee again, and a recompence be made thee. But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:

And thou shalt be blessed; for they cannot recompense thee: for 14 thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just. And 15 when one of them that sat at meat with him heard these things, he said unto him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God. Then said he unto him, A certain man made a great 16 supper, and bade many: And sent his servant at supper time to 17 say to them that were bidden, Come; for all things are now ready.
And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first 18 said unto him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, 19 I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused. And another said, I have married a wife, 20 and therefore I cannot come. So that servant came, and shewed 21 his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind. And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast 22 commanded, and yet there is room. And the lord said unto the 23 servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled. For I say unto you, That 24 none of those men which were bidden shall taste of my supper.
And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and 25 said unto them, If any man come to me, and hate not his father, 26 and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yea, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple. And whosoever 27 doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.
For which of you, intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, 28 and counteth the cost, whether he have sufficient to finish it? Lest 29 haply, after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him, Saying, This man began 30 to build, and was not able to finish. Or what king, going to make 31 war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he be able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand? Or else, while the other is yet 32 a great way off, he sendeth an ambassage, and desireth conditions of peace. So likewise, whosoever he be of you that forsaketh not 33 all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple. Salt is good: but if 34 the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be seasoned? It 35 is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill; but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

- 15 Then drew near unto him all the publicans and sinners for to 2 hear him. And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This 3 man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them. And he spake this 4 parable unto them, saying, What man of you, having an hundred sheep, if he lose one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he find it?
5 And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
6 And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbours, saying unto them, Rejoice with me; for I have found 7 my sheep which was lost. I say unto you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety 8 and nine just persons, which need no repentance. Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she lose one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she find 9 it? And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbours together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the 10 piece which I had lost. Likewise, I say unto you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.
11, 12 And he said, A certain man had two sons: And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that 13 falleth to me. And he divided unto them his living. And not many days after the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with 14 riotous living. And when he had spent all, there arose a mighty famine in that land; and he began to be in want. And he went and 15 joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine. And he would fain have filled his belly with 16 the husks that the swine did eat: and no man gave unto him. And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my 17 father's have bread enough and to spare, and I perish with hunger!
18 I will arise and go to my father, and will say unto him, Father, 19 I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.
20 And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell 21 on his neck, and kissed him. And the son said unto him, Father,

15. v.8 pieces.... drachma, here translated a piece of silver, is the eighth part of an ounce, which cometh to seven pence halfpenny, and is equal to the Roman penny.

I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son. But the father said to his servants, 22
 Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him; and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet: And bring hither the fatted calf, and 23 kill it; and let us eat, and be merry: For this my son was dead, 24 and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry. Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came 25 and drew nigh to the house, he heard musick and dancing. And 26 he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant. And he said unto him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath 27 killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him safe and sound. And he was angry, and would not go in: therefore came his father 28 out, and intreated him. And he answering said to his father, Lo, 29 these many years do I serve thee, neither transgressed I at any time thy commandment: and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends: But as soon as this thy son 30 was come, which hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf. And he said unto him, Son, thou 31 art ever with me, and all that I have is thine. It was meet that 32 we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

And he said also unto his disciples, There was a certain rich 16 man, which had a steward; and the same was accused unto him that he had wasted his goods. And he called him, and said unto 2 him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship; for thou mayest be no longer steward. Then the steward 3 said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh away from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; to beg I am ashamed. I am 4 resolved what to do, that, when I am put out of the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses. So he called every one 5 of his lord's debtors unto him, and said unto the first, How much owest thou unto my lord? And he said, An hundred measures of 6 oil. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty. Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? 7
 And he said, An hundred measures of wheat. And he said unto him, Take thy bill, and write fourscore. And the lord commended 8 the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say unto you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that, when ye fail, they may receive you into 10 everlasting habitations. He that is faithful in that which is least is faithful also in much: and he that is unjust in the least is unjust 11 also in much. If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?
12 And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who shall give you that which is your own? No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot 14 serve God and mammon. And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things: and they derided him. And he said unto them, Ye are they which justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among 16 men is abomination in the sight of God. The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, 17 and every man presseth into it. And it is easier for heaven and 18 earth to pass, than one tittle of the law to fail. Whosoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery: and whosoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband 19 committeth adultery. There was a certain rich man, which was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:
20 And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, which was laid 21 at his gate, full of sores, And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover the dogs came and 22 licked his sores. And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by the angels into Abraham's bosom: the rich man 23 also died, and was buried; And in hell he lift up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
24 And he cried and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and 25 cool my tongue; for I am tormented in this flame. But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy lifetime receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented. And beside all this, between us and you 26 there is a great gulf fixed: so that they which would pass from hence to you cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence. Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou 27 wouldest send him to my father's house: For I have five brethren; 28 that he may testify unto them, lest they also come into this place of torment. Abraham saith unto him, They have Moses and the 29 prophets; let them hear them. And he said, Nay, father Abraham: 30 but if one went unto them from the dead, they will repent. And 31 he said unto him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one rose from the dead.

Then said he unto the disciples, It is impossible but that offences 17 will come: but woe unto him, through whom they come! It were 2 better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should offend one of these little ones. Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother trespass against 3 thee, rebuke him; and if he repent, forgive him. And if he trespass 4 against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him. And the 5 apostles said unto the Lord, Increase our faith. And the Lord said, 6 If ye had faith as a grain of mustard seed, ye might say unto this sycamine tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it should obey you. But which of you, having a 7 servant plowing or feeding cattle, will say unto him by and by, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to meat? And will not 8 rather say unto him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drunken; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink? Doth he thank that servant because he 9 did the things that were commanded him? I trow not. So likewise 10 ye, when ye shall have done all those things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which was our duty to do. And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, 11 that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee. And as 12 he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, which stood afar off: And they lifted up their voices, and 13 said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us. And when he saw them, he 14 said unto them, Go shew yourselves unto the priests. And it came to pass, that, as they went, they were cleansed. And one of them, 15 when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God, And fell down on his face at his feet, giving 16 him thanks: and he was a Samaritan. And Jesus answering said, 17 18 Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine? There are not found that returned to give glory to God, save this stranger.

 19 And he said unto him, Arise, go thy way: thy faith hath made 20 thee whole. And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The 21 kingdom of God cometh not with observation: Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is 22 within you. And he said unto the disciples, The days will come, when ye shall desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, and 23 ye shall not see it. And they shall say to you, See here; or, see 24 there: go not after them, nor follow them. For as the lightning, that lighteneth out of the one part under heaven, shineth unto the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his 25 day. But first must he suffer many things, and be rejected of this 26 generation. And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also 27 in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.
 28 Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, 29 they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from 30 heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day 31 when the Son of man is revealed. In that day, he which shall be upon the housetop, and his stuff in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise 32, 33 not return back. Remember Lot's wife. Whosoever shall seek to save his life shall lose it; and whosoever shall lose his life shall 34 preserve it. I tell you, in that night there shall be two men in 35 one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left. Two women shall be grinding together; the one shall be taken, and the 36 other left. Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, 37 and the other left. And they answered and said unto him, Where, Lord? And he said unto them, Wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles be gathered together.

18 And he spake a parable unto them to this end, that men ought 2 always to pray, and not to faint; Saying, There was in a city a 3 judge, which feared not God, neither regarded man: And there was a widow in that city; and she came unto him, saying, Avenge me of mine adversary. And he would not for a while: but after- 4 ward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man; Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest 5 by her continual coming she weary me. And the Lord said, Hear 6 what the unjust judge saith. And shall not God avenge his own 7 elect, which cry day and night unto him, though he bear long with them? I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Neverthe- 8 less when the Son of man cometh, shall he find faith on the earth? And he spake this parable unto certain which trusted in themselves 9 that they were righteous, and despised others: Two men went up 10 into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican. The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I 11 thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican. I fast twice in the week, I 12 give tithes of all that I possess. And the publican, standing afar 13 off, would not lift up so much as his eyes unto heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner. I tell 14 you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted. And they brought unto 15 him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them. But Jesus called them unto him, and 16 said, Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God. Verily I say unto you, Whoso- 17 ever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child shall in no wise enter therein. And a certain ruler asked him, saying, 18 Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life? And Jesus 19 said unto him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is, God. Thou knowest the commandments, Do not com- 20 mit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother. And he said, All these have 21 I kept from my youth up. Now when Jesus heard these things, 22 he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me. And when he heard this, he 23 was very sorrowful: for he was very rich. And when Jesus saw 24 that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that

v.9 that....: or, as being righteous.

25 have riches enter into the kingdom of God! For it is easier for a 26 camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter 27 into the kingdom of God. And they that heard it said, Who then 28 can be saved? And he said, The things which are impossible with 29 men are possible with God. Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, 30 and followed thee. And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or 31 wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake, Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to 32 come life everlasting. Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be 33 accomplished. For he shall be delivered unto the Gentiles, and shall be mocked, and spitefully entreated, and spitted on: And they shall scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day 34 he shall rise again. And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things 35 which were spoken. And it came to pass, that as he was come nigh unto Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side beg-36 ging: And hearing the multitude pass by, he asked what it meant.
37, 38 And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth passeth by. And he 39 cried, saying, Jesus, thou Son of David, have mercy on me. And they which went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou Son of David, have mercy on 40 me. And Jesus stood, and commanded him to be brought unto 41 him: and when he was come near, he asked him, Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do unto thee? And he said, Lord, that I may 42 receive my sight. And Jesus said unto him, Receive thy sight: thy 43 faith hath saved thee. And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise unto God.

19, 2 And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho. And, behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus, which was the chief among the 3 publicans, and he was rich. And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.
4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycomore tree to see him:
5 for he was to pass that way. And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zacchaeus, make 6 haste, and come down; for to day I must abide at thy house. And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully. And 7 when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner. And Zacchaeus stood, 8 and said unto the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold. And Jesus said unto him, This 9 day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of Abraham. For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that 10 which was lost. And as they heard these things, he added and 11 spake a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to 12 receive for himself a kingdom, and to return. And he called his 13 ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said unto them, Occupy till I come. But his citizens hated him, and sent a message 14 after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us. And 15 it came to pass, that when he was returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called unto him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading. Then came the first, saying, 16 Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds. And he said unto him, 17 Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities. And the second came, 18 saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds. And he said 19 likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities. And another came, 20 saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin: For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: 21 thou takest up that thou layedst not down, and reapest that thou didst not sow. And he saith unto him, Out of thine own mouth 22 will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest that I was an austere man, taking up that I laid not down, and reaping that I did not sow: Wherefore then gavest not thou my money into 23 the bank, that at my coming I might have required mine own with usury? And he said unto them that stood by, Take from him the 24 pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds. (And they said 25 unto him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.) For I say unto you, That 26 unto every one which hath shall be given; and from him that hath

19. v.13 pounds: mina, here translated a pound, is twelve ounces and an half: which according to five shillings the ounce is three pounds two shillings and sixpence. v.15 money: Gr. silver.

27 not, even that he hath shall be taken away from him. But those mine enemies, which would not that I should reign over them, bring 28 hither, and slay them before me. And when he had thus spoken, 29 he went before, ascending up to Jerusalem. And it came to pass, when he was come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount 30 called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples, Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in the which at your entering ye shall find a colt tied, whereon yet never man sat: loose him, 31 and bring him hither. And if any man ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say unto him, Because the Lord hath need of 32 him. And they that were sent went their way, and found even 33 as he had said unto them. And as they were loosing the colt, 34 the owners thereof said unto them, Why loose ye the colt? And 35 they said, The Lord hath need of him. And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set 36 Jesus thereon. And as he went, they spread their clothes in the 37 way. And when he was come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works 38 that they had seen; Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.
39 And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said unto 40 him, Master, rebuke thy disciples. And he answered and said unto them, I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the 41 stones would immediately cry out. And when he was come near, 42 he beheld the city, and wept over it, Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong unto 43 thy peace! but now they are hid from thine eyes. For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about 44 thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because 45 thou knewest not the time of thy visitation. And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold therein, and them 46 that bought; Saying unto them, It is written, My house is the 47 house of prayer: but ye have made it a den of thieves. And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests and the scribes 48 and the chief of the people sought to destroy him, And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he taught 20 the people in the temple, and preached the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him with the elders, And spake unto 2 him, saying, Tell us, by what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority? And he answered 3 and said unto them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me: The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or of men? And they 4, 5 reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not? But and if we say, 6
Of men; all the people will stone us: for they be persuaded that John was a prophet. And they answered, that they could not tell 7 whence it was. And Jesus said unto them, Neither tell I you by 8 what authority I do these things. Then began he to speak to the 9 people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it forth to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they 10 should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty. And again he sent another 11 servant: and they beat him also, and entreated him shamefully, and sent him away empty. And again he sent a third: and they 12 wounded him also, and cast him out. Then said the lord of the 13 vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be they will reverence him when they see him. But when the 14 husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir: come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours. So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What 15 therefore shall the lord of the vineyard do unto them? He shall 16 come and destroy these husbandmen, and shall give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, God forbid. And 17 he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner? Whosoever shall fall upon that stone shall be broken; 18 but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder. And 19 the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them. And they watched him, 20 and sent forth spies, which should feign themselves just men, that v.48 were....: or, hanged on him.

they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him 21 unto the power and authority of the governor. And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of 22 God truly: Is it lawful for us to give tribute unto Caesar, or no?
23 But he perceived their craftiness, and said unto them, Why tempt 24 ye me? Shew me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath 25 it? They answered and said, Caesar's. And he said unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which be Caesar's, and 26 unto God the things which be God's. And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marvelled at his 27 answer, and held their peace. Then came to him certain of the Sadducees, which deny that there is any resurrection; and they 28 asked him, Saying, Master, Moses wrote unto us, If any man's brother die, having a wife, and he die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed unto his brother.
29 There were therefore seven brethren: and the first took a wife, and 30 died without children. And the second took her to wife, and he 31 died childless. And the third took her; and in like manner the 32 seven also: and they left no children, and died. Last of all the 33 woman died also. Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them 34 is she? for seven had her to wife. And Jesus answering said unto them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage: 35 But they which shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in 36 marriage: Neither can they die any more: for they are equal unto the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the 37 resurrection. Now that the dead are raised, even Moses shewed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and 38 the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. For he is not a God of 39 the dead, but of the living: for all live unto him. Then certain 40 of the scribes answering said, Master, thou hast well said. And 41 after that they durst not ask him any question at all. And he said 42 unto them, How say they that Christ is David's son? And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The LORD said unto my Lord, 43 Sit thou on my right hand, Till I make thine enemies thy footstool.
44, 45 David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son? Then in 46 the audience of all the people he said unto his disciples, Beware of the scribes, which desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts; Which devour widows' houses, and for a shew make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation. 47

And he looked up, and saw the rich men casting their gifts into the treasury. And he saw also a certain poor widow casting in thither two mites. And he said, Of a truth I say unto you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all: For all these have of their abundance cast in unto the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had. And as some spake of the temple, how it was adorned with goodly stones and gifts, he said, As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in the which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down. And they asked him, saying, Master, but when shall these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass? And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven. But before all these, they shall lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake. And it shall turn to you for a testimony. Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer: For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist. And ye shall be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsfolks, and friends; and some of you shall they cause to be put to death. And ye shall be hated of all men for my name's sake. But there shall not an hair of your head perish. In your patience possess ye your souls. And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that the desolation thereof is nigh. Then let them which are in Judaea flee to the mountains; and let them which are in the midst of it depart out; and let not them that are in 21

22 the countries enter therinto. For these be the days of vengeance, 23 that all things which are written may be fulfilled. But woe unto them that are with child, and to them that give suck, in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this 24 people. And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down of the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles be fulfilled.
25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the 26 sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for 27 the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the 28 Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up 29 your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh. And he spake to 30 them a parable; Behold the fig tree, and all the trees; When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your own selves that summer 31 is now nigh at hand. So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know ye that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.
32 Verily I say unto you, This generation shall not pass away, till all 33 be fulfilled. Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words 34 shall not pass away. And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting, and drunkenness, and 35 cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares. For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the 36 whole earth. Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to 37 pass, and to stand before the Son of man. And in the day time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in 38 the mount that is called the mount of Olives. And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, for to hear him.

22 Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called 2 the Passover. And the chief priests and scribes sought how they 3 might kill him; for they feared the people. Then entered Satan into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.
4 And he went his way, and communed with the chief priests and 5 captains, how he might betray him unto them. And they were 6 glad, and covenanted to give him money. And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him unto them in the absence of the multitude. Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the 7 passover must be killed. And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go 8 and prepare us the passover, that we may eat. And they said 9 unto him, Where wilt thou that we prepare? And he said unto 10 them, Behold, when ye are entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth in. And ye shall say unto the goodman of the 11 house, The Master saith unto thee, Where is the guestchamber, where I shall eat the passover with my disciples? And he shall 12 shew you a large upper room furnished: there make ready. And 13 they went, and found as he had said unto them: and they made ready the passover. And when the hour was come, he sat down, 14 and the twelve apostles with him. And he said unto them, With 15 desire I have desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer: For I say unto you, I will not any more eat thereof, until it be 16 fulfilled in the kingdom of God. And he took the cup, and gave 17 thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves: For 18 I say unto you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come. And he took bread, and gave thanks, 19 and brake it, and gave unto them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me. Likewise also 20 the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. But, behold, the hand of him that 21 betrayeth me is with me on the table. And truly the Son of man 22 goeth, as it was determined: but woe unto that man by whom he is betrayed! And they began to enquire among themselves, which 23 of them it was that should do this thing. And there was also a 24 strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.

And he said unto them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship 25 over them; and they that exercise authority upon them are called benefactors. But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among 26 you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve. For whether is greater, he that sitteth at meat, or he that 27 serveth? is not he that sitteth at meat? but I am among you as he that serveth. Ye are they which have continued with me 28 in my temptations. And I appoint unto you a kingdom, as my 29 Father hath appointed unto me; That ye may eat and drink at 30 my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones judging the twelve 31 tribes of Israel. And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan 32 hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat: But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not: and when thou art 33 converted, strengthen thy brethren. And he said unto him, Lord, 34 I am ready to go with thee, both into prison, and to death. And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock shall not crow this day, before 35 that thou shalt thrice deny that thou knowest me. And he said unto them, When I sent you without purse, and scrip, and shoes, 36 lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing. Then said he unto them, But now, he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his scrip: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and 37 buy one. For I say unto you, that this that is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: 38 for the things concerning me have an end. And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said unto them, It is enough.

39 And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; 40 and his disciples also followed him. And when he was at the place, 41 he said unto them, Pray that ye enter not into temptation. And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled 42 down, and prayed, Saying, Father, if thou be willing, remove this 43 cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done. And there appeared an angel unto him from heaven, strengthening him.
44 And being in an agony he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling down to the ground.
45 And when he rose up from prayer, and was come to his disciples, 46 he found them sleeping for sorrow, And said unto them, Why 47 sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. And while he yet spake, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near unto Jesus to 48 kiss him. But Jesus said unto him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son 49 of man with a kiss? When they which were about him saw what would follow, they said unto him, Lord, shall we smite with the 50 sword? And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and 51 cut off his right ear. And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus 52 far. And he touched his ear, and healed him. Then Jesus said unto the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders, which were come to him, Be ye come out, as against a thief, with 53 swords and staves? When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness. Then took they him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed afar off. And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them. But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him. And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not. And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not. And about the space of one hour after another confidently affirmed, saying, Of a truth this fellow also was with him: for he is a Galilaean. And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he yet spake, the cock crew. And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said unto him, Before the cock crow, thou shalt deny me thrice. And Peter went out, and wept bitterly. And the men that held Jesus mocked him, and smote him. And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophesy, who is it that smote thee? And many other things blasphemously spake they against him. And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people and the chief priests and the scribes came together, and led him into their council, saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said unto them, If I tell you, ye will not believe: And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go. Hereafter shall the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God. Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said unto them, Ye say that I am. And they said, What need we any further witness? for we ourselves have heard of his own mouth.

And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him unto Pilate. And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this fellow perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, saying that he himself is Christ a King. And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it. Then said Pilate to the chief priests and to the people, I find no fault in this man. And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Jewry, beginning from Galilee to this place. When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man were a Galilaean. And as soon as he knew that he belonged unto Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him 8 to Herod, who himself also was at Jerusalem at that time. And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he was desirous to see him of a long season, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to have seen some miracle done by him.

9 Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him 10 nothing. And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently 11 accused him. And Herod with his men of war set him at nought, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent 12 him again to Pilate. And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together: for before they were at enmity between 13 themselves. And Pilate, when he had called together the chief 14 priests and the rulers and the people, Said unto them, Ye have brought this man unto me, as one that perverteth the people: and, behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in 15 this man touching those things whereof ye accuse him: No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and, lo, nothing worthy of death 16 is done unto him. I will therefore chastise him, and release him.
17, 18 (For of necessity he must release one unto them at the feast.) And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release 19 unto us Barabbas: (Who for a certain sedition made in the city, 20 and for murder, was cast into prison.) Pilate therefore, willing 21 to release Jesus, spake again to them. But they cried, saying, 22 Crucify him, crucify him. And he said unto them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death 23 in him: I will therefore chastise him, and let him go. And they were instant with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified.
24 And the voices of them and of the chief priests prevailed. And 25 Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required. And he released unto them him that for sedition and murder was cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their 26 will. And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon, a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the 27 cross, that he might bear it after Jesus. And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, which also bewailed and 28 lamented him. But Jesus turning unto them said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your 29 children. For, behold, the days are coming, in the which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bare, and the paps which never gave suck. Then shall they begin to say 30 to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us. For if 31 they do these things in a green tree, what shall be done in the dry?

 And there were also two other, malefactors, led with him to be put 32 to death. And when they were come to the place, which is called 33 Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors, one on the right hand, and the other on the left. Then said Jesus, Father, 34 forgive them; for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots. And the people stood beholding. And 35 the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he be Christ, the chosen of God. And the 36 soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar, And saying, If thou be the king of the Jews, save thyself. And a 37, 38 superscription also was written over him in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS. And 39 one of the malefactors which were hanged railed on him, saying, If thou be Christ, save thyself and us. But the other answering 40 rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation? And we indeed justly; for we receive the 41 due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.
 And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into 42 thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily I say unto thee, 43 To day shalt thou be with me in paradise. And it was about the 44 sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the earth until the ninth hour. And the sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple 45 was rent in the midst. And when Jesus had cried with a loud 46 voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he gave up the ghost. Now when the centurion 47 saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man. And all the people that came together to that 48 sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned. And all his acquaintance, and the women that 49 followed him from Galilee, stood afar off, beholding these things.
 And, behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counsellor; and he 50 was a good man, and a just: (The same had not consented to the 51 counsel and deed of them;) he was of Arimathaea, a city of the Jews: who also himself waited for the kingdom of God. This man 52

53 went unto Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus. And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulchre that was 54 hewn in stone, wherein never man before was laid. And that day 55 was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on. And the women also, which came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld 56 the sepulchre, and how his body was laid. And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested the sabbath day according to the commandment.

24 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they 2 had prepared, and certain others with them. And they found the 3 stone rolled away from the sepulchre. And they entered in, and 4 found not the body of the Lord Jesus. And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold, two men stood by 5 them in shining garments: And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said unto them, Why seek ye 6 the living among the dead? He is not here, but is risen: remember 7 how he spake unto you when he was yet in Galilee, Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be 8 crucified, and the third day rise again. And they remembered his 9 words, And returned from the sepulchre, and told all these things 10 unto the eleven, and to all the rest. It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that 11 were with them, which told these things unto the apostles. And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them 12 not. Then arose Peter, and ran unto the sepulchre; and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, 13 wondering in himself at that which was come to pass. And, behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, 14 which was from Jerusalem about threescore furlongs. And they 15 talked together of all these things which had happened. And it came to pass, that, while they communed together and reasoned, 16 Jesus himself drew near, and went with them. But their eyes were 17 holden that they should not know him. And he said unto them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to an-18 other, as ye walk, and are sad? And the one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering said unto him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which are come to pass there in these days? And he said unto them, What things? 19 And they said unto him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, which was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people: And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to 20 be condemned to death, and have crucified him. But we trusted 21 that it had been he which should have redeemed Israel: and beside all this, to day is the third day since these things were done.

 Yea, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, 22 which were early at the sepulchre; And when they found not his 23 body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, which said that he was alive. And certain of them which 24 were with us went to the sepulchre, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not. Then he said unto them, 25 O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken: Ought not Christ to have suffered these things, and to enter 26 into his glory? And beginning at Moses and all the prophets, he 27 expounded unto them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself. And they drew nigh unto the village, whither they went: 28 and he made as though he would have gone further. But they 29 constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is toward evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them. And 30 it came to pass, as he sat at meat with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and brake, and gave to them. And their eyes were 31 opened, and they knew him; and he vanished out of their sight.
 And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us, 32 while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures? And they rose up the same hour, and returned 33 to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them, Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath 34 appeared to Simon. And they told what things were done in the 35 way, and how he was known of them in breaking of bread. And 36 as they thus spake, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. But they were terrified and 37 affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit. And he said 38 unto them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts? Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: 39 handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have. And when he had thus spoken, he shewed them his 40

v.31 vanished...: or, ceased to be seen of them.

41 hands and his feet. And while they yet believed not for joy, and 42 wondered, he said unto them, Have ye here any meat? And they 43 gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and of an honeycomb. And he 44 took it, and did eat before them. And he said unto them, These are the words which I spake unto you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.
45 Then opened he their understanding, that they might understand 46 the scriptures, And said unto them, Thus it is written, and thus it behoved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day: 47 And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in 48 his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. And ye are 49 witnesses of these things. And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be 50 endued with power from on high. And he led them out as far as 51 to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them. And it came to pass, while he blessed them, he was parted from them, and 52 carried up into heaven. And they worshipped him, and returned 53 to Jerusalem with great joy: And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

THE GOSPEL ACCORDING TO ST. JOHN.

 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with 1 God, and the Word was God. The same was in the 2 beginning with God. All things were made by him; and 3 without him was not any thing made that was made.
In him was life; and the life was the light of men. And the light 4, 5 shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not. There 6 was a man sent from God, whose name was John. The same came 7 for a witness, to bear witness of the Light, that all men through him might believe. He was not that Light, but was sent to bear 8 witness of that Light. That was the true Light, which lighteth 9 every man that cometh into the world. He was in the world, and 10 the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He 11 came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many 12 as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, 13 not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among 14 us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth. John bare witness of him, 15 and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spake, He that cometh after me is preferred before me: for he was before me. And of his 16 fulness have all we received, and grace for grace. For the law was 17 given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ. No 18 man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him. And this is 19 the record of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, Who art thou? And he confessed, and 20

1. v.5 comprehended: or, did not admit, or, receive. v.12 power: or, the right, or, privilege.

21 denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ. And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elias? And he saith, I am not. Art 22 thou that prophet? And he answered, No. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that 23 sent us. What sayest thou of thyself? He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, 24 as said the prophet Esaias. And they which were sent were of the Pharisees. And they asked him, and said unto him, Why 25 baptizest thou then, if thou be not that Christ, nor Elias, neither that prophet? John answered them, saying, I baptize with water:
26 but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not; He it is, who coming after me is preferred before me, whose shoe's latchet I 27 am not worthy to unloose. These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing. The next day John 28 seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world. This is he of whom I 29 said, After me cometh a man which is preferred before me: for he was before me. And I knew him not: but that he should be made 30 manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water. And John bare record, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven 31 like a dove, and it abode upon him. And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said unto me, Upon 32 whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he which baptizeth with the Holy Ghost. And I saw, 33 and bare record that this is the Son of God. Again the next day after John stood, and two of his disciples; And looking upon Jesus 34 as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God! And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus. Then Jesus 35 turned, and saw them following, and saith unto them, What seek ye? They said unto him, Rabbi, (which is to say, being interpreted, 36 Master,) where dwellest thou? He saith unto them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day:
37 for it was about the tenth hour. One of the two which heard John 38 speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother. He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith unto him, We have 39 found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ. And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou v.21 that prophet: or, a prophet?. v.29 taketh away: or, beareth. v.38 dwellest: or, abidest. v.39 about....: that was two hours before night. v.41 the Christ: or, the Anointed.

art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas, which is by interpretation, A stone. The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith unto him, Follow me. Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.
Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith unto him, We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, did write, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph. And Nathanael said unto him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith unto him, Come and see. Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile! Nathanael saith unto him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said unto him, Before that Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig tree, I saw thee. Nathanael answered and saith unto him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.
Jesus answered and said unto him, Because I said unto thee, I saw thee under the fig tree, believest thou? thou shalt see greater things than these. And he saith unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.

And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there: And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage. And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith unto him, They have no wine. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? mine hour is not yet come. His mother saith unto the servants, Whatsoever he saith unto you, do it. And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece. Jesus saith unto them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them up to the brim. And he saith unto them, Draw out now, and bear unto the governor of the feast.
And they bare it. When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was: (but the servants which drew the water knew;) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom, And saith unto him, Every man at the beginning doth set forth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now. This beginning of miracles did Jesus in Cana of Galilee, and manifested forth his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples: and they continued there not many 13 days. And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up 14 to Jerusalem, And found in the temple those that sold oxen and 15 sheep and doves, and the changers of money sitting: And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' 16 money, and overthrew the tables; And said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house an 17 house of merchandise. And his disciples remembered that it was 18 written, The zeal of thine house hath eaten me up. Then answered the Jews and said unto him, What sign shewest thou unto us, seeing 19 that thou doest these things? Jesus answered and said unto them, 20 Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt 21 thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his 22 body. When therefore he was risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this unto them; and they believed 23 the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said. Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed 24 in his name, when they saw the miracles which he did. But Jesus 25 did not commit himself unto them, because he knew all men, And needed not that any should testify of man: for he knew what was in man.

3 There was a man of the Pharisees, named Nicodemus, a ruler of 2 the Jews: The same came to Jesus by night, and said unto him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
3 Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
4 Nicodemus saith unto him, How can a man be born when he is old?
can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom 6 of God. That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is 7 born of the Spirit is spirit. Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye 8 must be born again. The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

Nicodemus answered and said unto him, How can these things be? 9 Jesus answered and said unto him, Art thou a master of Israel, and 10 knowest not these things? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, We speak 11 that we do know, and testify that we have seen; and ye receive not our witness. If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, 12 how shall ye believe, if I tell you of heavenly things? And no man 13 hath ascended up to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man which is in heaven. And as Moses lifted 14 up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up: That whosoever believeth in him should not perish, 15 but have eternal life. For God so loved the world, that he gave 16 his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life. For God sent not his Son into 17 the world to condemn the world; but that the world through him might be saved. He that believeth on him is not condemned: but 18 he that believeth not is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten Son of God. And this 19 is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.
 For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to 20 the light, lest his deeds should be reproved. But he that doeth 21 truth cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God. After these things came Jesus and 22 his disciples into the land of Judaea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized. And John also was baptizing in Aenon near 23 to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized. For John was not yet cast into prison. Then 24, 25 there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews about purifying. And they came unto John, and said unto 26 him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou barest witness, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him. John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except 27 it be given him from heaven. Ye yourselves bear me witness, that 28 I said, I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him. He that 29 hath the bride is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, which standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled. He must 30 increase, but I must decrease. He that cometh from above is above 31 all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: 32 he that cometh from heaven is above all. And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.

33 He that hath received his testimony hath set to his seal that God 34 is true. For he whom God hath sent speaketh the words of God:
35 for God giveth not the Spirit by measure unto him. The Father 36 loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand. He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.

4 When therefore the Lord knew how the Pharisees had heard
2 that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John, (Though 3 Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,) He left Judaea, 4 and departed again into Galilee. And he must needs go through 5 Samaria. Then cometh he to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son 6 Joseph. Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the 7 sixth hour. There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: 8 Jesus saith unto her, Give me to drink. (For his disciples were 9 gone away unto the city to buy meat.) Then saith the woman of Samaria unto him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, which am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no 10 dealings with the Samaritans. Jesus answered and said unto her,
If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldest have asked of him, and he would 11 have given thee living water. The woman saith unto him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence 12 then hast thou that living water? Art thou greater than our father Jacob, which gave us the well, and drank thereof himself, and 13 his children, and his cattle? Jesus answered and said unto her, 14 Whosoever drinketh of this water shall thirst again: But whosoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him shall be in him a well of water 15 springing up into everlasting life. The woman saith unto him, Sir, give me this water, that I thirst not, neither come hither to draw.
16, 17 Jesus saith unto her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither. The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said unto her, 18 Thou hast well said, I have no husband: For thou hast had five husbands; and he whom thou now hast is not thy husband: in that saidst thou truly. The woman saith unto him, Sir, I perceive that 19 thou art a prophet. Our fathers worshipped in this mountain; and 20 ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.

Jesus saith unto her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when 21 ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father. Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship: 22 for salvation is of the Jews. But the hour cometh, and now is, 23 when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him. God is a 24 Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. The woman saith unto him, I know that Messias cometh, 25 which is called Christ: when he is come, he will tell us all things.
Jesus saith unto her, I that speak unto thee am he. And upon this 26, 27 came his disciples, and marvelled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her? The woman then left her waterpot, and went her way into 28 the city, and saith to the men, Come, see a man, which told me all 29 things that ever I did: is not this the Christ? Then they went out 30 of the city, and came unto him. In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat. But he said unto them, I have 32 meat to eat that ye know not of. Therefore said the disciples one 33 to another, Hath any man brought him ought to eat? Jesus saith 34 unto them, My meat is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work. Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then 35 cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest. And he 36 that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit unto life eternal: that both he that soweth and he that reapeth may rejoice together.
And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth. 37
I sent you to reap that whereon ye bestowed no labour: other men 38 laboured, and ye are entered into their labours. And many of 39 the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, which testified, He told me all that ever I did. So when 40 the Samaritans were come unto him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days. And many 41 more believed because of his own word; And said unto the woman, 42 Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Saviour of 43 the world. Now after two days he departed thence, and went into 44 Galilee. For Jesus himself testified, that a prophet hath no hon-45 our in his own country. Then when he was come into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did at 46 Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went unto the feast. So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine.

And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Caper-47 naum. When he heard that Jesus was come out of Judaea into Galilee, he went unto him, and besought him that he would come 48 down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death. Then said Jesus unto him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not 49 believe. The nobleman saith unto him, Sir, come down ere my 50 child die. Jesus saith unto him, Go thy way; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken unto him, and 51 he went his way. And as he was now going down, his servants met 52 him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth. Then enquired he of them the hour when he began to amend. And they said unto him, 53 Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him. So the father knew that it was at the same hour, in the which Jesus said unto him, Thy son liveth: and himself believed, and his whole house.
54 This is again the second miracle that Jesus did, when he was come out of Judaea into Galilee.

5 After this there was a feast of the Jews; and Jesus went up 2 to Jerusalem. Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue Bethesda, having 3 five porches. In these lay a great multitude of impotent folk, of 4 blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water. For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and troubled the water: whosoever then first after the troubling of the water 5 stepped in was made whole of whatsoever disease he had. And a certain man was there, which had an infirmity thirty and eight 6 years. When Jesus saw him lie, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith unto him, Wilt thou be made whole?
7 The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is troubled, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, 8 another steppeth down before me. Jesus saith unto him, Rise, 9 take up thy bed, and walk. And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath. The Jews therefore said unto him that was cured, It 10 is the sabbath day: it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed. He 11 answered them, He that made me whole, the same said unto me, Take up thy bed, and walk. Then asked they him, What man is 12 that which said unto thee, Take up thy bed, and walk? And he 13 that was healed wist not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place. Afterward Jesus findeth 14 him in the temple, and said unto him, Behold, thou art made whole: sin no more, lest a worse thing come unto thee. The man 15 departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus, which had made him whole. And therefore did the Jews persecute Jesus, and sought 16 to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath day.

 But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work. 17 Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only 18 had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God. Then answered Jesus and said 19 unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, The Son can do nothing of himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for what things soever he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise. For the Father loveth 20 the Son, and sheweth him all things that himself doeth: and he will shew him greater works than these, that ye may marvel. For as 21 the Father raiseth up the dead, and quickeneth them; even so the Son quickeneth whom he will. For the Father judgeth no man, 22 but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: That all men 23 should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that honoureth not the Son honoureth not the Father which hath sent him. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that heareth my word, 24 and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death unto life.
 Verily, verily, I say unto you, The hour is coming, and now is, when 25 the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live. For as the Father hath life in himself; so hath he given 26 to the Son to have life in himself; And hath given him authority 27 to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man. Marvel 28 not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have 29 done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation. I can of mine own self 30

do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not mine own will, but the will of the Father which hath sent me. If I bear witness of myself, my witness is not true. There is another that beareth witness of me; and I know that the witness which he witnesseth of me is true. Ye sent unto John, and he bare witness unto the truth. But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye might be saved. He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light. But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me. And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape. And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not. Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me. And ye will not come to me, that ye might have life. I receive not honour from men. But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you. I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive. How can ye believe, which receive honour one of another, and seek not the honour that cometh from God only? Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust. For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote of me. But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

6 After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias. And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he did on them that were diseased. 3 And Jesus went up into a mountain, and there he sat with his 4, 5 disciples. And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh. When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come unto him, he saith unto Philip, Whence shall we buy bread, that these 6 may eat? And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what 7 he would do. Philip answered him, Two hundred pennyworth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them may take 8 a little. One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, 9 saith unto him, There is a lad here, which hath five barley loaves, 10 and two small fishes: but what are they among so many? And

Jesus said, Make the men sit down. Now there was much grass in the place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand. And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes as much as they would. When they were filled, he said unto his disciples, Gather up the fragments that remain, that nothing be lost. Therefore they gathered them together, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley loaves, which remained over and above unto them that had eaten. Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus did, said, This is of a truth that prophet that should come into the world. When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again into a mountain himself alone. And when even was now come, his disciples went down unto the sea, And entered into a ship, and went over the sea toward Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus was not come to them. And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew. So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh unto the ship: and they were afraid. But he saith unto them, It is I; be not afraid. Then they willingly received him into the ship: and immediately the ship was at the land whither they went. The day following, when the people which stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was none other boat there, save that one whereinto his disciples were entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples were gone away alone; (Howbeit there came other boats from Tiberias nigh unto the place where they did eat bread, after that the Lord had given thanks:) When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took shipping, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus. And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said unto him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither? Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye did eat of the loaves, and were filled. Labour not for the meat which perisheth, but for that meat which endureth unto everlasting life, which the Son of man shall give unto you: for him hath God the Father sealed. Then said they unto him, 29 What shall we do, that we might work the works of God? Jesus answered and said unto them, This is the work of God, that ye 30 believe on him whom he hath sent. They said therefore unto him, What sign shewest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee?

31 what dost thou work? Our fathers did eat manna in the desert; 32 as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat. Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the 33 true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is he which cometh 34 down from heaven, and giveth life unto the world. Then said they 35 unto him, Lord, evermore give us this bread. And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me shall never 36 hunger; and he that believeth on me shall never thirst. But I 37 said unto you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not. All that the Father giveth me shall come to me; and him that cometh 38 to me I will in no wise cast out. For I came down from heaven, not to do mine own will, but the will of him that sent me. And 39 this is the Father's will which hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again 40 at the last day. And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one which seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have 41 everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day. The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which 42 came down from heaven. And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that 43 he saith, I came down from heaven? Jesus therefore answered and said unto them, Murmur not among yourselves. No man can come 44 to me, except the Father which hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day. It is written in the prophets, And 45 they shall be all taught of God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned of the Father, cometh unto me. Not that 46 any man hath seen the Father, save he which is of God, he hath seen the Father. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth 47 on me hath everlasting life. I am that bread of life. Your fathers 48, 49 did eat manna in the wilderness, and are dead. This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat thereof, and 50 not die. I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that 51 I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.

The Jews therefore strove among themselves, saying, How can this 52 man give us his flesh to eat? Then Jesus said unto them, Verily, 53 verily, I say unto you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you. Whoso eateth my 54 flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day. For my flesh is meat indeed, and my blood is 55 drink indeed. He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, 56 dwelleth in me, and I in him. As the living Father hath sent me, 57 and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me. This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as 58 your fathers did eat manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever. These things said he in the synagogue, 59 as he taught in Capernaum. Many therefore of his disciples, when 60 they had heard this, said, This is an hard saying; who can hear it?
When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he 61 said unto them, Doth this offend you? What and if ye shall see 62 the Son of man ascend up where he was before? It is the spirit 63 that quickeneth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life. But there are some of 64 you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who should betray him. And he said, 65 Therefore said I unto you, that no man can come unto me, except it were given unto him of my Father. From that time many of 66 his disciples went back, and walked no more with him. Then said 67 Jesus unto the twelve, Will ye also go away? Then Simon Peter 68 answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life. And we believe and are sure that thou art that 69 Christ, the Son of the living God. Jesus answered them, Have 70 not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil? He spake of 71 Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for he it was that should betray him, being one of the twelve.

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not 7 walk in Jewry, because the Jews sought to kill him. Now the Jews' 2 feast of tabernacles was at hand. His brethren therefore said unto 3 him, Depart hence, and go into Judaea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest. For there is no man that doeth 4 any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly.
If thou do these things, shew thyself to the world. For neither 5 6 did his brethren believe in him. Then Jesus said unto them, My 7 time is not yet come: but your time is alway ready. The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify of it, that 8 the works thereof are evil. Go ye up unto this feast: I go not up 9 yet unto this feast; for my time is not yet full come. When he 10 had said these words unto them, he abode still in Galilee. But when his brethren were gone up, then went he also up unto the 11 feast, not openly, but as it were in secret. Then the Jews sought 12 him at the feast, and said, Where is he? And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, Nay; but he deceiveth the people.

 13, 14 Howbeit no man spake openly of him for fear of the Jews. Now about the midst of the feast Jesus went up into the temple, and 15 taught. And the Jews marvelled, saying, How knoweth this man 16 letters, having never learned? Jesus answered them, and said, My 17 doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me. If any man will do his will, he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God, or 18 whether I speak of myself. He that speaketh of himself seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same 19 is true, and no unrighteousness is in him. Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to 20 kill me? The people answered and said, Thou hast a devil: who 21 goeth about to kill thee? Jesus answered and said unto them, I 22 have done one work, and ye all marvel. Moses therefore gave unto you circumcision; (not because it is of Moses, but of the fathers;) 23 and ye on the sabbath day circumcise a man. If a man on the sabbath day receive circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have made a man 24 every whit whole on the sabbath day? Judge not according to 25 the appearance, but judge righteous judgment. Then said some 26 of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he, whom they seek to kill? But, lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing unto him. Do the 27 rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ? Howbeit we know this man whence he is: but when Christ cometh, no man knoweth 28 whence he is. Then cried Jesus in the temple as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come 29 of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not. But I 30 know him: for I am from him, and he hath sent me. Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come. And many of the people believed on him, 31 and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done? The Pharisees heard that the people 32 murmured such things concerning him; and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him. Then said Jesus unto them, 33 Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go unto him that sent me. Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, 34 thither ye cannot come. Then said the Jews among themselves, 35 Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go unto the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles? What 36 manner of saying is this that he said, Ye shall seek me, and shall not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come? In the 37 last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirst, let him come unto me, and drink. He that 38 believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water. (But this spake he of the Spirit, which 39 they that believe on him should receive: for the Holy Ghost was not yet given; because that Jesus was not yet glorified.) Many of the 40 people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, Of a truth this is the Prophet. Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, 41 Shall Christ come out of Galilee? Hath not the scripture said, 42 That Christ cometh of the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was? So there was a division among the 43 people because of him. And some of them would have taken him; 44 but no man laid hands on him. Then came the officers to the chief 45 priests and Pharisees; and they said unto them, Why have ye not brought him? The officers answered, Never man spake like this 46 man. Then answered them the Pharisees, Are ye also deceived? 47 Have any of the rulers or of the Pharisees believed on him? But 48, 49 this people who knoweth not the law are cursed. Nicodemus saith 50 unto them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them,) Doth our law judge any man, before it hear him, and know what 51 he doeth? They answered and said unto him, Art thou also of 52 Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet. 53 And every man went unto his own house.

Jesus went unto the mount of Olives. And early in the morning 8, 2 he came again into the temple, and all the people came unto him;

3 and he sat down, and taught them. And the scribes and Pharisees brought unto him a woman taken in adultery; and when they had 4 set her in the midst, They say unto him, Master, this woman
5 was taken in adultery, in the very act. Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned: but what sayest thou?
6 This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, 7 as though he heard them not. So when they continued asking him, he lifted up himself, and said unto them, He that is without sin 8 among you, let him first cast a stone at her. And again he stooped 9 down, and wrote on the ground. And they which heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even unto the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the 10 woman standing in the midst. When Jesus had lifted up himself, and saw none but the woman, he said unto her, Woman, where are 11 those thine accusers? hath no man condemned thee? She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said unto her, Neither do I condemn 12 thee: go, and sin no more. Then spake Jesus again unto them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not 13 walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life. The Pharisees therefore said unto him, Thou bearest record of thyself; thy record 14 is not true. Jesus answered and said unto them, Though I bear record of myself, yet my record is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I 15, 16 go. Ye judge after the flesh; I judge no man. And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father 17 that sent me. It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true. I am one that bear witness of myself, and 18 the Father that sent me beareth witness of me. Then said they unto him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye should have known 19 my Father also. These words spake Jesus in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him; for his hour 20 was not yet come. Then said Jesus again unto them, I go my way, and ye shall seek me, and shall die in your sins: whither I 21 go, ye cannot come. Then said the Jews, Will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come. And he said 22 unto them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world. I said therefore unto you, that ye shall die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye shall die in your sins. Then said they unto him, Who art thou? And 25 Jesus saith unto them, Even the same that I said unto you from the beginning. I have many things to say and to judge of you: 26 but he that sent me is true; and I speak to the world those things which I have heard of him. They understood not that he spake 27 to them of the Father. Then said Jesus unto them, When ye have 28 lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things. And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath 29 not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him. As 30 he spake these words, many believed on him. Then said Jesus to 31 those Jews which believed on him, If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; And ye shall know the truth, and the 32 truth shall make you free. They answered him, We be Abraham's 33 seed, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free? Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say 34 unto you, Whosoever committeth sin is the servant of sin. And 35 the servant abideth not in the house for ever: but the Son abideth ever. If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free 36 indeed. I know that ye are Abraham's seed; but ye seek to kill 37 me, because my word hath no place in you. I speak that which I 38 have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father. They answered and said unto him, Abraham is our 39 father. Jesus saith unto them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham. But now ye seek to kill me, a 40 man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard of God: this did not Abraham. Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they 41 to him, We be not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God. Jesus said unto them, If God were your Father, ye would 42 love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me. Why do ye not understand my speech? 43 even because ye cannot hear my word. Ye are of your father the 44 devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it. And because I tell you the 45 truth, ye believe me not. Which of you convinceth me of sin? 46
24

47 And if I say the truth, why do ye not believe me? He that is of God heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye 48 are not of God. Then answered the Jews, and said unto him, Say 49 we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a devil? Jesus answered, I have not a devil; but I honour my Father, and ye do 50 dishonour me. And I seek not mine own glory: there is one that 51 seeketh and judgeth. Verily, verily, I say unto you, If a man keep 52 my saying, he shall never see death. Then said the Jews unto him, Now we know that thou hast a devil. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man keep my saying, he shall never 53 taste of death. Art thou greater than our father Abraham, which is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?
54 Jesus answered, If I honour myself, my honour is nothing: it is my Father that honoureth me; of whom ye say, that he is your God: 55 Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I shall be a liar like unto you: but I know him, 56 and keep his saying. Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day:
57 and he saw it, and was glad. Then said the Jews unto him, Thou 58 art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham? Jesus said unto them, Verily, verily, I say unto you, Before Abraham was, 59 I am. Then took they up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

9 And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man which was blind from his
2 birth. And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who did sin, 3 this man, or his parents, that he was born blind? Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works 4 of God should be made manifest in him. I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, when no 5 man can work. As long as I am in the world, I am the light of 6 the world. When he had thus spoken, he spat on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man 7 with the clay, And said unto him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went his way therefore, and 8 washed, and came seeing. The neighbours therefore, and they which before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he 9 that sat and begged? Some said, This is he: others said, He is like 10 him: but he said, I am he. Therefore said they unto him, How

9. v.6 anointed....: or, spread the clay upon the eyes of the blind man.

were thine eyes opened? He answered and said, A man that is 11 called Jesus made clay, and anointed mine eyes, and said unto me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight. Then said they unto him, Where is he? He said, 12
I know not. They brought to the Pharisees him that aforetime 13 was blind. And it was the sabbath day when Jesus made the clay, 14 and opened his eyes. Then again the Pharisees also asked him 15 how he had received his sight. He said unto them, He put clay upon mine eyes, and I washed, and do see. Therefore said some 16 of the Pharisees, This man is not of God, because he keepeth not the sabbath day. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them. They say 17 unto the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thine eyes? He said, He is a prophet. But the Jews did 18 not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight. And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who 19 ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see? His parents 20 answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind: But by what means he now seeth, we know 21 not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he shall speak for himself. These words spake his parents, 22 because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man did confess that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue. Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask 23 him. Then again called they the man that was blind, and said 24 unto him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
He answered and said, Whether he be a sinner or no, I know not: 25 one thing I know, that, whereas I was blind, now I see. Then said 26 they to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thine eyes?
He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: 27 wherefore would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?
Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are 28 Moses' disciples. We know that God spake unto Moses: as for 29 this fellow, we know not from whence he is. The man answered 30 and said unto them, Why herein is a marvellous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened mine eyes.
Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man be 31 a worshipper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth. Since 32 the world began was it not heard that any man opened the eyes 33 of one that was born blind. If this man were not of God, he 34 could do nothing. They answered and said unto him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? And they cast him 35 out. Jesus heard that they had cast him out; and when he had found him, he said unto him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?

36 He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I might believe on 37 him? And Jesus said unto him, Thou hast both seen him, and it 38 is he that talketh with thee. And he said, Lord, I believe. And he 39 worshipped him. And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they which see not might see; and that they which 40 see might be made blind. And some of the Pharisees which were with him heard these words, and said unto him, Are we blind also?
41 Jesus said unto them, If ye were blind, ye should have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

10 Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheepfold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is 2 a thief and a robber. But he that entereth in by the door is the 3 shepherd of the sheep. To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth 4 them out. And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.
5 And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for 6 they know not the voice of strangers. This parable spake Jesus unto them: but they understood not what things they were which 7 he spake unto them. Then said Jesus unto them again, Verily, 8 verily, I say unto you, I am the door of the sheep. All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not 9 hear them. I am the door: by me if any man enter in, he shall be 10 saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture. The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly.
11 I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the 12 sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the 13 sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth 14 not for the sheep. I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known of mine. As the Father knoweth me, even so know 15 I the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep. And other 16 sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd. Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down 17 my life, that I might take it again. No man taketh it from me, 18 but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received of my Father. There was a division therefore again among the 19 Jews for these sayings. And many of them said, He hath a devil, 20 and is mad; why hear ye him? Others said, These are not the 21 words of him that hath a devil. Can a devil open the eyes of the blind? And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it 22 was winter. And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch. 23 Then came the Jews round about him, and said unto him, How 24 long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou be the Christ, tell us plainly. Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: 25 the works that I do in my Father's name, they bear witness of me.

 But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said unto 26 you. My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow 27 me: And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, 28 neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand. My Father, 29 which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. I and my Father are one. 30 Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him. Jesus answered 31, 32 them, Many good works have I shewed you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me? The Jews answered him, 33 saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy; and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God. Jesus 34 answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
 If he called them gods, unto whom the word of God came, and the 35 scripture cannot be broken; Say ye of him, whom the Father hath 36 sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God? If I do not the works of my Father, 37 believe me not. But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the 38 works: that ye may know, and believe, that the Father is in me, and I in him. Therefore they sought again to take him: but he 39 escaped out of their hand, And went away again beyond Jordan 40 into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.

41 And many resorted unto him, and said, John did no miracle: but 42 all things that John spake of this man were true. And many believed on him there.

11 Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the 2 town of Mary and her sister Martha. (It was that Mary which anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, 3 whose brother Lazarus was sick.) Therefore his sisters sent unto 4 him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick. When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not unto death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God might be glorified thereby.
5, 6 Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus. When he had heard therefore that he was sick, he abode two days still in the 7 same place where he was. Then after that saith he to his disciples, 8 Let us go into Judaea again. His disciples say unto him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
9 Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walk in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of 10 this world. But if a man walk in the night, he stumbleth, because 11 there is no light in him. These things said he: and after that he saith unto them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go, that I 12 may awake him out of sleep. Then said his disciples, Lord, if he 13 sleep, he shall do well. Howbeit Jesus spake of his death: but they 14 thought that he had spoken of taking of rest in sleep. Then said 15 Jesus unto them plainly, Lazarus is dead. And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless 16 let us go unto him. Then said Thomas, which is called Didymus, unto his fellowdisciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.
17 Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave 18 four days already. Now Bethany was nigh unto Jerusalem, about 19 fifteen furlongs off: And many of the Jews came to Martha and 20 Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother. Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but 21 Mary sat still in the house. Then said Martha unto Jesus, Lord, 22 if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. But I know, that even now, whatsoever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it 23, 24 thee. Jesus saith unto her, Thy brother shall rise again. Martha saith unto him, I know that he shall rise again in the resurrection at the last day. Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and 25 the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. 26 Believest thou this? She saith unto him, Yea, Lord: I believe that 27 thou art the Christ, the Son of God, which should come into the world. And when she had so said, she went her way, and called 28 Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee. As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came unto 29 him. Now Jesus was not yet come into the town, but was in that 30 place where Martha met him. The Jews then which were with 31 her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up hastily and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth unto the grave to weep there. Then when Mary was come where 32 Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying unto him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died. When 33 Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping which came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled, And 34 said, Where have ye laid him? They said unto him, Lord, come and see. Jesus wept. Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved 35, 36 him! And some of them said, Could not this man, which opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died? Jesus therefore again groaning in himself cometh to 38 the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it. Jesus said, 39 Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith unto him, Lord, by this time he stinketh: for he hath been dead four days. Jesus saith unto her, Said I not unto thee, that, if 40 thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God? Then 41 they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid.

And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me. And I knew that thou hearest me always: 42 but because of the people which stand by I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me. And when he thus had spoken, 43 he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth. And he that 44 was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with graveclothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith unto them, Loose him, and let him go. Then many of the Jews which came to 45
Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.
But some of them went their ways to the Pharisees, and told them 46

47 what things Jesus had done. Then gathered the chief priests and the Pharisees a council, and said, What do we? for this man doeth 48 many miracles. If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans shall come and take away both our place 49 and nation. And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high 50 priest that same year, said unto them, Ye know nothing at all, Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for 51 the people, and that the whole nation perish not. And this spake he not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied 52 that Jesus should die for that nation; And not for that nation only, but that also he should gather together in one the children of 53 God that were scattered abroad. Then from that day forth they 54 took counsel together for to put him to death. Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence unto a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and 55 there continued with his disciples. And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country up to Jerusalem 56 before the passover, to purify themselves. Then sought they for Jesus, and spake among themselves, as they stood in the temple, 57 What think ye, that he will not come to the feast? Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he were, he should shew it, that they might take him.

12 Then Jesus six days before the passover came to Bethany, where Lazarus was which had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.
2 There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus 3 was one of them that sat at the table with him. Then took Mary a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house 4 was filled with the odour of the ointment. Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, which should betray him, 5 Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given 6 to the poor? This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bare what was put 7 therein. Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my 8 burying hath she kept this. For the poor always ye have with you; 9 but me ye have not always. Much people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead. But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death; Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus. On the next day much people that were come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, Took branches of palm trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna: Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord. And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written, Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt. These things understood not his disciples at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then remembered they that these things were written of him, and that they had done these things unto him. The people therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bare record. For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle. The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him. And there were certain Greeks among them that came up to worship at the feast: The same came therefore to Philip, which was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus. Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again Andrew and Philip tell Jesus. And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again. The people therefore, that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered: others said, An angel spake to him. Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes. Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out. And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me. This he said, signifying what death he should die. The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? who is this Son of man?

35 Then Jesus said unto them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he

36 that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth. While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spake Jesus, and departed, and did hide himself from

37 them. But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet

38 they believed not on him: That the saying of Esaias the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spake, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

39 Therefore they could not believe, because that Esaias said again,

40 He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart,

41 and be converted, and I should heal them. These things said

42 Esaias, when he saw his glory, and spake of him. Nevertheless among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put

43 out of the synagogue: For they loved the praise of men more than 44 the praise of God. Jesus cried and said, He that believeth on me, 45 believeth not on me, but on him that sent me. And he that seeth

46 me seeth him that sent me. I am come a light into the world, that

47 whosoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness. And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for

48 I came not to judge the world, but to save the world. He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in

49 the last day. For I have not spoken of myself; but the Father which sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say,

50 and what I should speak. And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatsoever I speak therefore, even as the Father said unto me, so I speak.

13 Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world unto the Father, having loved his own which were in the world, he loved

2 them unto the end. And supper being ended, the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray

3 him; Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his

4 hands, and that he was come from God, and went to God; He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself. After that he poureth water into a bason, 5 and began to wash the disciples' feet, and to wipe them with the towel wherewith he was girded. Then cometh he to Simon Peter: 6 and Peter saith unto him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet? Jesus 7 answered and said unto him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter. Peter saith unto him, Thou shalt 8 never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me. Simon Peter saith unto him, Lord, not my 9 feet only, but also my hands and my head. Jesus saith to him, 10 He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is clean every whit: and ye are clean, but not all. For he knew who should 11 betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean. So after he had 12 washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said unto them, Know ye what I have done to you? Ye 13 call me Master and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am. If I then, 14 your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example, that ye 15 should do as I have done to you. Verily, verily, I say unto you, The 16 servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him. If ye know these things, happy are ye if 17 ye do them. I speak not of you all: I know whom I have chosen: 18 but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me hath lifted up his heel against me. Now I tell you before it 19 come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he. Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send 20 receiveth me; and he that receiveth me receiveth him that sent me. When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, 21 and said, Verily, verily, I say unto you, that one of you shall betray me. Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom 22 he spake. Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom one of his 23 disciples, whom Jesus loved. Simon Peter therefore beckoned to 24 him, that he should ask who it should be of whom he spake. He 25 then lying on Jesus' breast saith unto him, Lord, who is it? Jesus 26 answered, He it is, to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon. And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then 27 said Jesus unto him, That thou doest, do quickly. Now no man 28

29 at the table knew for what intent he spake this unto him. For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said unto him, Buy those things that we have need of against the 30 feast; or, that he should give something to the poor. He then having received the sop went immediately out: and it was night.
31 Therefore, when he was gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of 32 man glorified, and God is glorified in him. If God be glorified in him, God shall also glorify him in himself, and shall straightway 33 glorify him. Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye shall seek me: and as I said unto the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot 34 come; so now I say to you. A new commandment I give unto you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love 35 one another. By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, 36 if ye have love one to another. Simon Peter said unto him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst 37 not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterwards. Peter said unto him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down 38 my life for thy sake. Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say unto thee, The cock shall not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.

14 Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also 2 in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not 3 so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive 4 you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be also. And 5 whither I go ye know, and the way ye know. Thomas saith unto him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know 6 the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the 7 life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me. If ye had known me, ye should have known my Father also: and from henceforth 8 ye know him, and have seen him. Philip saith unto him, Lord, 9 shew us the Father, and it sufficeth us. Jesus saith unto him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me, Philip? he that hath seen me hath seen the Father; and how 10 sayest thou then, Shew us the Father? Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak unto you I speak not of myself: but the Father that dwelleth in 11 me, he doeth the works. Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works 12 that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father. And whatsoever ye shall ask in 13 my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love 14, 15 me, keep my commandments. And I will pray the Father, and he 16 shall give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever; Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, 17 because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and shall be in you. I will not leave 18 you comfortless: I will come to you. Yet a little while, and the 19 world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also. At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in 20 me, and I in you. He that hath my commandments, and keepeth 21 them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me shall be loved of my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
Judas saith unto him, not Iscariot, Lord, how is it that thou wilt 22 manifest thyself unto us, and not unto the world? Jesus answered 23 and said unto him, If a man love me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him. He that loveth me not keepeth not my sayings: 24 and the word which ye hear is not mine, but the Father's which sent me. These things have I spoken unto you, being yet present 25 with you. But the Comforter, which is the Holy Ghost, whom 26 the Father will send in my name, he shall teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatsoever I have said unto you. Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as 27 the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid. Ye have heard how I said unto you, I go 28 away, and come again unto you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go unto the Father: for my Father is greater than
I. And now I have told you before it come to pass, that, when it 29 is come to pass, ye might believe. Hereafter I will not talk much 30 with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me. But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as 31 the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.

I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman. Every 15, 2 branch in me that beareth not fruit he taketh away: and every branch that beareth fruit, he purgeth it, that it may bring forth 3 more fruit. Now ye are clean through the word which I have 4 spoken unto you. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can 5 ye, except ye abide in me. I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much 6 fruit: for without me ye can do nothing. If a man abide not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered; and men gather 7 them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned. If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye shall ask what ye will, 8 and it shall be done unto you. Herein is my Father glorified, that 9 ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples. As the Father 10 hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love. If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have 11 kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love. These things have I spoken unto you, that my joy might remain in you, 12 and that your joy might be full. This is my commandment, That 13 ye love one another, as I have loved you. Greater love hath no 14 man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. Ye are 15 my friends, if ye do whatsoever I command you. Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard of my 16 Father I have made known unto you. Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatsoever ye 17 shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you. These 18 things I command you, that ye love one another. If the world hate 19 you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you. If ye were of the world, the world would love his own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the 20 world hateth you. Remember the word that I said unto you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you; if they have kept my saying, they will 21 keep yours also. But all these things will they do unto you for 22 my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me. If I had not come and spoken unto them, they had not had sin: but 23 now they have no cloke for their sin. He that hateth me hateth my Father also. If I had not done among them the works which none other man did, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen and hated both me and my Father. But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause. But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send unto you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, which proceedeth from the Father, he shall testify of me:

 And ye also shall bear witness, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

These things have I spoken unto you, that ye should not be offended. They shall put you out of the synagogues: yea, the time cometh, that whosoever killeth you will think that he doeth God service. And these things will they do unto you, because they have not known the Father, nor me. But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not unto you at the beginning, because I was with you. But now I go my way to him that sent me; and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
 But because I have said these things unto you, sorrow hath filled your heart. Nevertheless I tell you the truth; It is expedient for you that I go away: for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come unto you; but if I depart, I will send him unto you. And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: Of sin, because they believe not on me; Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more; Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged. I have yet many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now.
 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will shew you things to come. He shall glorify me: for he shall receive of mine, and shall shew it unto you. All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore said I, that he shall take of mine, and shall shew it unto you. A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father. Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith unto us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father? They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot 19 tell what he saith. Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said unto them, Do ye enquire among yourselves of that I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little 20 while, and ye shall see me? Verily, verily, I say unto you, That ye shall weep and lament, but the world shall rejoice: and ye shall 21 be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy. A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the 22 anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world. And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall 23 rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you. And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, verily, I say unto you, Whatsoever 24 ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you. Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that 25 your joy may be full. These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto 26 you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father. At that day ye shall ask in my name: and I say not unto you, that I 27 will pray the Father for you: For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came out from 28 God. I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: 29 again, I leave the world, and go to the Father. His disciples said unto him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.

30 Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest forth 31, 32 from God. Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe? Behold, the hour cometh, yea, is now come, that ye shall be scattered, every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, 33 because the Father is with me. These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.
17 These words spake Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also 2 may glorify thee: As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.
3 And this is life eternal, that they might know thee the only true 4 God, and Jesus Christ, whom thou hast sent. I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thine own self 5 with the glory which I had with thee before the world was. I have 6 manifested thy name unto the men which thou gavest me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them me; and they have kept thy word. Now they have known that all things whatsoever 7 thou hast given me are of thee. For I have given unto them the 8 words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came out from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me. I pray for them: I pray not for the 9 world, but for them which thou hast given me; for they are thine.

And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in 10 them. And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the 11 world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thine own name those whom thou hast given me, that they may be one, as we are. While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy 12 name: those that thou gavest me I have kept, and none of them is lost, but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
And now come I to thee; and these things I speak in the world, that 13 they might have my joy fulfilled in themselves. I have given them 14 thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world. I pray not that thou 15 shouldest take them out of the world, but that thou shouldest keep them from the evil. They are not of the world, even as I am not 16 of the world. Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth. 17 As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them 18 into the world. And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they 19 also might be sanctified through the truth. Neither pray I for 20 these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, 21 and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me. And the glory which thou 22 gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one: I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect 23 in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them, as thou hast loved me. Father, I will that they 24 also, whom thou hast given me, be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory, which thou hast given me: for thou lovedst

17. v.19 sanctified...: or, truly sanctified.

25 me before the foundation of the world. O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have 26 known that thou hast sent me. And I have declared unto them thy name, and will declare it: that the love wherewith thou hast loved me may be in them, and I in them.

18 When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Cedron, where was a garden, into the which 2 he entered, and his disciples. And Judas also, which betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus oftentimes resorted thither with his 3 disciples. Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns 4 and torches and weapons. Jesus therefore, knowing all things that should come upon him, went forth, and said unto them, Whom 5 seek ye? They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith unto them, I am he. And Judas also, which betrayed him, stood 6 with them. As soon then as he had said unto them, I am he,
7 they went backward, and fell to the ground. Then asked he them 8 again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: if therefore ye seek me, 9 let these go their way: That the saying might be fulfilled, which 10 he spake, Of them which thou gavest me have I lost none. Then Simon Peter having a sword drew it, and smote the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
11 Then said Jesus unto Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the 12 cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it? Then the band and the captain and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and 13 bound him, And led him away to Annas first; for he was father in law to Caiaphas, which was the high priest that same year.
14 Now Caiaphas was he, which gave counsel to the Jews, that it was 15 expedient that one man should die for the people. And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple: that disciple was known unto the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the 16 palace of the high priest. But Peter stood at the door without.
Then went out that other disciple, which was known unto the high priest, and spake unto her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.
17 Then saith the damsel that kept the door unto Peter, Art not thou 18 also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not. And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; for 18. v.13 year: year. And Annas sent Christ bound unto Caiaphas the high priest.

it was cold: and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself. The high priest then asked Jesus of 19 his disciples, and of his doctrine. Jesus answered him, I spake 20 openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue, and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing. Why askest thou me? ask them which heard me, what I 21 have said unto them: behold, they know what I said. And when 22 he had thus spoken, one of the officers which stood by struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so? Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear witness of the 23 evil: but if well, why smitest thou me? Now Annas had sent him 24 bound unto Caiaphas the high priest. And Simon Peter stood 25 and warmed himself. They said therefore unto him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not. One 26 of the servants of the high priest, being his kinsman whose ear Peter cut off, saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?
 Peter then denied again: and immediately the cock crew. Then 27, 28 led they Jesus from Caiaphas unto the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.
 Pilate then went out unto them, and said, What accusation bring 29 ye against this man? They answered and said unto him, If he 30 were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up unto thee. Then said Pilate unto them, Take ye him, and judge him 31 according to your law. The Jews therefore said unto him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death: That the saying of Jesus 32 might be fulfilled, which he spake, signifying what death he should die. Then Pilate entered into the judgment hall again, and called 33 Jesus, and said unto him, Art thou the King of the Jews? Jesus 34 answered him, Sayest thou this thing of thyself, or did others tell it thee of me? Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thine own nation 35 and the chief priests have delivered thee unto me: what hast thou done? Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my 36 kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence. Pilate therefore said unto him, Art thou a king then? 37 Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a king. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should bear witness unto the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my 38 voice. Pilate saith unto him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again unto the Jews, and saith unto them, 39 I find in him no fault at all. But ye have a custom, that I should release unto you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release 40 unto you the King of the Jews? Then cried they all again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.

19, 2 Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him. And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and 3 they put on him a purple robe, And said, Hail, King of the Jews!
4 and they smote him with their hands. Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith unto them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, 5 that ye may know that I find no fault in him. Then came Jesus forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And 6 Pilate saith unto them, Behold the man! When the chief priests therefore and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Take ye him, and crucify him: 7 for I find no fault in him. The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the 8 Son of God. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the 9 more afraid; And went again into the judgment hall, and saith unto Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.
10 Then saith Pilate unto him, Speakest thou not unto me? knowest thou not that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to 11 release thee? Jesus answered, Thou couldest have no power at all against me, except it were given thee from above: therefore he that 12 delivered me unto thee hath the greater sin. And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Caesar's friend: whosoever maketh 13 himself a king speaketh against Caesar. When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down in the judgment seat in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the 14 Hebrew, Gabbatha. And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith unto the Jews, Behold your 15 King! But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith unto them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief 16 priests answered, We have no king but Caesar. Then delivered he him therefore unto them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and 17 led him away. And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew Golgotha: 18 Where they crucified him, and two other with him, on either side 18 one, and Jesus in the midst. And Pilate wrote a title, and put 19 it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH

 THE KING OF THE JEWS. This title then read many of the 20 Jews: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, and Greek, and Latin. Then said 21 the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews. Pilate answered, 22
 What I have written I have written. Then the soldiers, when they 23 had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout. They said therefore among 24 themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it, whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they did cast lots.
 These things therefore the soldiers did. Now there stood by the 25 cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother's sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene. When Jesus therefore saw 26 his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith unto his mother, Woman, behold thy son! Then saith he to the 27 disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her unto his own home. After this, Jesus knowing that all things 28 were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst. Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled 29 a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth. When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, 30
 It is finished: and he bowed his head, and gave up the ghost. The 31 Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath day, (for that sabbath day was an high day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away. Then came the 32 soldiers, and brake the legs of the first, and of the other which was crucified with him. But when they came to Jesus, and saw 33 that he was dead already, they brake not his legs: But one of the 34 soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came there out blood and water. And he that saw it bare record, and his record 35 is true: and he knoweth that he saith true, that ye might believe.

36 For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, 37 A bone of him shall not be broken. And again another scripture 38 saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced. And after this Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore, and took 39 the body of Jesus. And there came also Nicodemus, which at the first came to Jesus by night, and brought a mixture of myrrh 40 and aloes, about an hundred pound weight. Then took they the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen clothes with the spices, as the 41 manner of the Jews is to bury. Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulchre, 42 wherein was never man yet laid. There laid they Jesus therefore because of the Jews' preparation day; for the sepulchre was nigh at hand.

20 The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, unto the sepulchre, and seeth the stone taken away 2 from the sepulchre. Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple, whom Jesus loved, and saith unto them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre, and we 3 know not where they have laid him. Peter therefore went forth, 4 and that other disciple, and came to the sepulchre. So they ran both together: and the other disciple did outrun Peter, and came 5 first to the sepulchre. And he stooping down, and looking in, saw 6 the linen clothes lying; yet went he not in. Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulchre, and seeth the 7 linen clothes lie, And the napkin, that was about his head, not lying with the linen clothes, but wrapped together in a place by 8 itself. Then went in also that other disciple, which came first to 9 the sepulchre, and he saw, and believed. For as yet they knew not 10 the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead. Then the 11 disciples went away again unto their own home. But Mary stood without at the sepulchre weeping: and as she wept, she stooped 12 down, and looked into the sepulchre, And seeth two angels in white sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where 13 the body of Jesus had lain. And they say unto her, Woman, why weapest thou? She saith unto them, Because they have taken away 14 my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him. And when she had thus said, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus. Jesus saith unto her, Woman, why weapest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith unto him, Sir, if thou have borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away. Jesus saith unto her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith unto him, Rabboni; which is to say, Master. Jesus saith unto her, Touch me not; for I am not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say unto them, I ascend unto my Father, and your Father; and to my God, and your God. Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things unto her. Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, came Jesus and stood in the midst, and saith unto them, Peace be unto you. And when he had so said, he shewed unto them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord. Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be unto you: as my Father hath sent me, even so send I you. And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost: Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted unto them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained. But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came. The other disciples therefore said unto him, We have seen the Lord. But he said unto them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe. And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be unto you. Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side: and be not faithless, but believing. And Thomas answered and said unto him, My Lord and my God. Jesus saith unto him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed. And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book: But these are written, that ye might believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God; and that believing ye might have life through his name.

After these things Jesus shewed himself again to the disciples at 21

2 the sea of Tiberias; and on this wise shewed he himself. There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other of his 3 disciples. Simon Peter saith unto them, I go a fishing. They say unto him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered 4 into a ship immediately; and that night they caught nothing. But when the morning was now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but 5 the disciples knew not that it was Jesus. Then Jesus saith unto 6 them, Children, have ye any meat? They answered him, No. And he said unto them, Cast the net on the right side of the ship, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to 7 draw it for the multitude of fishes. Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith unto Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt his fisher's coat unto him, (for 8 he was naked,) and did cast himself into the sea. And the other disciples came in a little ship; (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits,) dragging the net with fishes.
9 As soon then as they were come to land, they saw a fire of coals 10 there, and fish laid thereon, and bread. Jesus saith unto them, 11 Bring of the fish which ye have now caught. Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, an hundred and fifty and three: and for all there were so many, yet was not the net 12 broken. Jesus saith unto them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the 13 Lord. Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and 14 fish likewise. This is now the third time that Jesus shewed himself 15 to his disciples, after that he was risen from the dead. So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love thee. He saith unto him, Feed my lambs.
16 He saith to him again the second time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith unto him, Yea, Lord; thou knowest that I love 17 thee. He saith unto him, Feed my sheep. He saith unto him the third time, Simon, son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved because he said unto him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said unto him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I 18 love thee. Jesus saith unto him, Feed my sheep. Verily, verily, I say unto thee, When thou wast young, thou girdedst thyself, and walkedst whither thou wouldest: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldest not. This spake he, signifying 19 by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith unto him, Follow me. Then Peter, turning about, 20 seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved following; which also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, which is he that betrayeth thee? Peter seeing him saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this 21 man do? Jesus saith unto him, If I will that he tarry till I come, 22 what is that to thee? follow thou me. Then went this saying 23 abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not unto him, He shall not die; but, If I will that he tarry till I come, what is that to thee? This is the disciple which 24 testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true. And there are also many other things 25 which Jesus did, the which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that should be written. Amen.

THE ACTS OF THE APOSTLES.

1  he former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that 2 Jesus began both to do and teach, Until the day in 3 which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy 4 Ghost had given commandments unto the apostles whom 5 he had chosen: To whom also he shewed himself alive after his pas-6 sion by many infallible proofs, being seen of them forty days, and 7 speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God: And,
8 being assembled together with them, commanded them that they 9 should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the 10 Father, which, saith he, ye have heard of me. For John truly bap-11 tized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not 12 many days hence. When they therefore were come together, they 13 asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel? And he said unto them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power. But ye shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses unto me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and unto the uttermost part of the earth. And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight. And while they looked stedfastly toward heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel; Which also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up into heaven? this same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven. Then returned they unto Jerusalem from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day's journey. And when they were come in, they went up into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew,

1. v.4 being...: or, eating together. v.8 power...: or, the power of the Holy Ghost coming upon you.

and Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James. These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren. And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said, (the number of names together were about an hundred and twenty,) Men and brethren, this scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Ghost by the mouth of David spake before concerning Judas, which was guide to them that took Jesus. For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry. Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out. And it was known unto all the dwellers at Jerusalem; insomuch as that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood. For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell therein: and his bishoprick let another take. Wherefore of these men which have companied with us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, Beginning from the baptism of John, unto that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection. And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias. And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, which knowest the hearts of all men, shew whether of these two thou hast chosen, That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place. And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.

And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place. And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting. And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and began to speak with other tongues, as the Spirit gave them utterance. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, out of every nation under heaven. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because that every man heard them v.20 bishoprick: or, office, or, charge.

7 speak in his own language. And they were all amazed and marvelled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these which speak 8 Galilaeans? And how hear we every man in our own tongue, 9 wherein we were born? Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judaea, and Cappadocia, in 10 Pontus, and Asia, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and 11 proselytes, Cretes and Arabians, we do hear them speak in our 12 tongues the wonderful works of God. And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
13, 14 Others mocking said, These men are full of new wine. But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be 15 this known unto you, and hearken to my words: For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
16, 17 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel; And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men 18 shall dream dreams: And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth 20 beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke: The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great 21 and notable day of the Lord come: And it shall come to pass, that 22 whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved. Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved of God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God 23 did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know: Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
24 Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be holden of it. For David 25 speaketh concerning him, I foresaw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved: Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also 26 my flesh shall rest in hope: Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thine Holy One to see corruption.

Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou shalt make me full of joy with thy countenance. Men and brethren, let me freely speak unto you of the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulchre is with us unto this day. Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him, that of the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne; He seeing this before spake of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither his flesh did see corruption. This Jesus hath God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses. Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received of the Father the promise of the Holy Ghost, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.
 For David is not ascended into the heavens: but he saith himself,
 The LORD said unto my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, Until I make thy foes thy footstool. Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus, whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ. Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said unto Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men and brethren, what shall we do? Then Peter said unto them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Ghost. For the promise is unto you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call. And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this untoward generation. Then they that gladly received his word were baptized: and the same day there were added unto them about three thousand souls. And they continued stedfastly in the apostles' doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
 And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles. And all that believed were together, and had all things common; And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need. And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, did eat their meat with gladness and singleness of heart, Praising God, and having favour with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the 3

2 hour of prayer, being the ninth hour. And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that 3 entered into the temple; Who seeing Peter and John about to go 4 into the temple asked an alms. And Peter, fastening his eyes upon 5 him with John, said, Look on us. And he gave heed unto them, 6 expecting to receive something of them. Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have give I thee: In the name of 7 Jesus Christ of Nazareth rise up and walk. And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle 8 bones received strength. And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and 9 praising God. And all the people saw him walking and praising 10 God: And they knew that it was he which sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and 11 amazement at that which had happened unto him. And as the lame man which was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together unto them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly 12 wondering. And when Peter saw it, he answered unto the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this 13 man to walk? The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he 14 was determined to let him go. But ye denied the Holy One and the 15 Just, and desired a murderer to be granted unto you; And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; whereof 16 we are witnesses. And his name through faith in his name hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of 17 you all. And now, brethren, I wot that through ignorance ye did 18 it, as did also your rulers. But those things, which God before had shewed by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should 19 suffer, he hath so fulfilled. Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing 20 shall come from the presence of the Lord; And he shall send Jesus 21 Christ, which before was preached unto you: Whom the heaven must receive until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets since the world began. For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. And it shall come to pass, that every soul, which will not hear that prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people. Yea, and all the prophets from Samuel and those that follow after, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold of these days. Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying unto Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed. Unto you first God, having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.

And as they spake unto the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees, came upon them, Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead. And they laid hands on them, and put them in hold unto the next day: for it was now eventide. Howbeit many of them which heard the word believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand. And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes, And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were gathered together at Jerusalem. And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name, have ye done this? Then Peter, filled with the Holy Ghost, said unto them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel, If we this day be examined of the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made whole; Be it known unto you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you whole. This is the stone which was set at nought of you builders, which is become the head of the corner. Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is none other name under heaven given among men, whereby we must be saved. Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marvelled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus. And beholding the man which was healed standing with them, they could say 15 nothing against it. But when they had commanded them to go 16 aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves, Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in 17 Jerusalem; and we cannot deny it. But that it spread no further among the people, let us straitly threaten them, that they speak 18 henceforth to no man in this name. And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Je-19 sus. But Peter and John answered and said unto them, Whether it be right in the sight of God to hearken unto you more than unto 20 God, judge ye. For we cannot but speak the things which we 21 have seen and heard. So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was 22 done. For the man was above forty years old, on whom this mir-23 acle of healing was shewed. And being let go, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders 24 had said unto them. And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that in 25 them is: Who by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why 26 did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things? The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were gathered together 27 against the Lord, and against his Christ. For of a truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were 28 gathered together, For to do whatsoever thy hand and thy coun-29 sel determined before to be done. And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant unto thy servants, that with all boldness 30 they may speak thy word, By stretching forth thine hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy 31 child Jesus. And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled together; and they were all filled with the Holy Ghost, and they spake the word of God with boldness.

32 And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart and of one soul: neither said any of them that ought of the things which 33 he possessed was his own; but they had all things common. And with great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. Neither was 34 there any among them that lacked: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and 35 distribution was made unto every man according as he had need.

And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which 36 is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, Having land, sold it, and brought the money, 37 and laid it at the apostles' feet.

But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold 5 a possession, And kept back part of the price, his wife also being 2 privy to it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet. But Peter said, Ananias, why hath Satan filled thine heart 3 to lie to the Holy Ghost, and to keep back part of the price of the land? Whiles it remained, was it not thine own? and after it 4 was sold, was it not in thine own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thine heart? thou hast not lied unto men, but unto God. And Ananias hearing these words fell down, and gave up the 5 ghost: and great fear came on all them that heard these things.
And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, 6 and buried him. And it was about the space of three hours after, 7 when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in. And Peter 8 answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much?
And she said, Yea, for so much. Then Peter said unto her, How 9 is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out. Then fell she down straightway 10 at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband. And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as 11 many as heard these things. And by the hands of the apostles 12 were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch. And of the rest 13 durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both 14 of men and women.) Insomuch that they brought forth the sick 15 into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of 16 them. There came also a multitude out of the cities round about unto Jerusalem, bringing sick folks, and them which were vexed 17 with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one. Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him, (which is 18 the sect of the Sadducees,) and were filled with indignation, And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common 19 prison. But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison 20 doors, and brought them forth, and said, Go, stand and speak in 21 the temple to the people all the words of this life. And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of 22 Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and 23 told, Saying, The prison truly found we shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had 24 opened, we found no man within. Now when the high priest and the captain of the temple and the chief priests heard these things, 25 they doubted of them whereunto this would grow. Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are 26 standing in the temple, and teaching the people. Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for 27 they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned. And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and 28 the high priest asked them, Saying, Did not we straitly command you that ye should not teach in this name? and, behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's 29 blood upon us. Then Peter and the other apostles answered and 30 said, We ought to obey God rather than men. The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree. Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Saviour, 32 for to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins. And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Ghost, whom 33 God hath given to them that obey him. When they heard that, 34 they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them. Then stood there up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and 35 commanded to put the apostles forth a little space; And said unto them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do as touching these men. For before these days rose up Theudas, 36 boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to nought. After this 37 man rose up Judas of Galilee in the days of the taxing, and drew away much people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed. And now I say unto you, 38 Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work be of men, it will come to nought: But if it be of God, 39 ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God. And to him they agreed: and when they had called the 40 apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go. And they departed 41 from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name. And daily in the temple, and 42 in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.

And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministration. Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples unto 2 them, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among 3 you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Ghost and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business. But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word. And 5 the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Ghost, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch: Whom they set before the apostles: and when they 6 had prayed, they laid their hands on them. And the word of God 7 increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith. And Stephen, full of faith and power, did great wonders 8 and miracles among the people. Then there arose certain of the 9 synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia and of Asia, disputing with Stephen. And they were not able to resist the wis- 10 11 dom and the spirit by which he spake. Then they suborned men, which said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against 12 Moses, and against God. And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, 13 and brought him to the council, And set up false witnesses, which said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against 14 this holy place, and the law: For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth shall destroy this place, and shall change 15 the customs which Moses delivered us. And all that sat in the council, looking stedfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.

7, 2 Then said the high priest, Are these things so? And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared unto our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before 3 he dwelt in Charran, And said unto him, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I 4 shall shew thee. Then came he out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and dwelt in Charran: and from thence, when his father was dead, 5 he removed him into this land, wherein ye now dwell. And he gave him none inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, 6 and to his seed after him, when as yet he had no child. And God spake on this wise, That his seed should sojourn in a strange land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and entreat them 7 evil four hundred years. And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that shall they come 8 forth, and serve me in this place. And he gave him the covenant of circumcision: and so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob; and Jacob begat the twelve 9 patriarchs. And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph 10 into Egypt: but God was with him, And delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favour and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt 11 and all his house. Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Chanaan, and great affliction: and our fathers found no 12 sustenance. But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, 13 he sent out our fathers first. And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren; and Joseph's kindred was made known unto Pharaoh. Then sent Joseph, and called his father 14 Jacob to him, and all his kindred, threescore and fifteen souls.

 So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers, 15
 And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulchre that 16 Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem. But when the time of the promise drew nigh, 17 which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt, Till another king arose, which knew not Joseph. The 18, 19 same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and evil entreated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live. In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, 20 and nourished up in his father's house three months: And when 21 he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son. And Moses was learned in all the wisdom 22 of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds. And 23 when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel. And seeing one of them suffer 24 wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian: For he supposed his brethren would have 25 understood how that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not. And the next day he shewed himself unto 26 them as they strove, and would have set them at one again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren; why do ye wrong one to another? But he 27 that did his neighbour wrong thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us? Wilt thou kill me, as thou 28 diddest the Egyptian yesterday? Then fled Moses at this saying, 29 and was a stranger in the land of Midian, where he begat two sons.
 And when forty years were expired, there appeared to him in the 30 wilderness of mount Sina an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush. When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight: and as 31 he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came unto him, Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the 32 God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold. Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes 33 from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.
 I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people which is in 34 Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt. This 35

Moses whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by 36 the hand of the angel which appeared to him in the bush. He brought them out, after that he had shewed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness 37 forty years. This is that Moses, which said unto the children of Israel, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your 38 brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear. This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel which spake to him in the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the lively 39 oracles to give unto us: To whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into 40 Egypt, Saying unto Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, which brought us out of the land of Egypt, we wot not 41 what is become of him. And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice unto the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own 42 hands. Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space 43 of forty years in the wilderness? Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
44 Our fathers had the tabernacle of witness in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking unto Moses, that he should make it 45 according to the fashion that he had seen. Which also our fathers that came after brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drave out before the face of our fathers, unto 46 the days of David; Who found favour before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob. But Solomon built him 47 an house. Howbeit the most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands; as saith the prophet, Heaven is my throne, and earth 48 is my footstool: what house will ye build me? saith the Lord: or 50 what is the place of my rest? Hath not my hand made all these 51 things? Ye stiffnecked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Ghost: as your fathers did, so do ye. Which 52 of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them which shewed before of the coming of the Just One; of received.

v.44 speaking: or, who spake.

v.45 that...: or, having whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers: Who have 53 received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept 54 it. When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and 54 they gnashed on him with their teeth. But he, being full of the 55 Holy Ghost, looked up stedfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God, And said, 56 Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God. Then they cried out with a loud voice, and 57 stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord, And cast 58 him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul. And 59 they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit. And he kneeled down, and cried with a loud 60 voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

And Saul was consenting unto his death. And at that time there 8 was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judaea and Samaria, except the apostles. And devout men carried 2 Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him. As 3 for Saul, he made havock of the church, entering into every house, and haling men and women committed them to prison. Therefore 4 they that were scattered abroad went every where preaching the word. Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached 5 Christ unto them. And the people with one accord gave heed unto 6 those things which Philip spake, hearing and seeing the miracles which he did. For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came 7 out of many that were possessed with them: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed. And there was great joy 8 in that city. But there was a certain man, called Simon, which 9 beforetime in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one: To whom 10 they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God. And to him they had regard, because 11 that of long time he had bewitched them with sorceries. But when 12 they believed Philip preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women. Then Simon himself believed also: and when he 13 was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding

14 the miracles and signs which were done. Now when the apostles which were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word 15 of God, they sent unto them Peter and John: Who, when they were come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy 16 Ghost: (For as yet he was fallen upon none of them: only they 17 were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.) Then laid they 18 their hands on them, and they received the Holy Ghost. And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the 19 Holy Ghost was given, he offered them money, Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive 20 the Holy Ghost. But Peter said unto him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be pur-21 chased with money. Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: 22 for thy heart is not right in the sight of God. Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of 23 thine heart may be forgiven thee. For I perceive that thou art in 24 the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity. Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these 25 things which ye have spoken come upon me. And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.
26 And the angel of the Lord spake unto Philip, saying, Arise, and go toward the south unto the way that goeth down from Jerusalem 27 unto Gaza, which is desert. And he arose and went: and, behold, a man of Ethiopia, an eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, 28 and had come to Jerusalem for to worship, Was returning, and 29 sitting in his chariot read Esaias the prophet. Then the Spirit 30 said unto Philip, Go near, and join thyself to this chariot. And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him read the prophet Esaias, 31 and said, Understandest thou what thou readest? And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired 32 Philip that he would come up and sit with him. The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so opened he 33 not his mouth: In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the 34 earth. And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man? Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, 35 and preached unto him Jesus. And as they went on their way, 36 they came unto a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized? And Philip said, If 37 thou believest with all thine heart, thou mayest. And he answered and said, I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God. And he 38 commanded the chariot to stand still: and they went down both into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him. And when they were come up out of the water, the Spirit of the 39 Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing. But Philip was found at Azotus: 40 and passing through he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against 9 the disciples of the Lord, went unto the high priest, And desired 2 of him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he found any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound unto Jerusalem. And as he journeyed, he came near 3 Damascus: and suddenly there shined round about him a light from heaven: And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying 4 unto him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And he said, 5 Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest: it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And 6 he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said unto him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do. And the men which 7 journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man. And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were 8 opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus. And he was three days without sight, and 9 neither did eat nor drink. And there was a certain disciple at 10 Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord. And the Lord 11 said unto him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and enquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul, of Tarsus: for, behold, he prayeth, And hath seen in a vision a man named 12 Ananias coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might 13 receive his sight. Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at 14 Jerusalem: And here he hath authority from the chief priests to 15 bind all that call on thy name. But the Lord said unto him, Go thy way: for he is a chosen vessel unto me, to bear my name before 16 the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel: For I will shew 17 him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake. And Ananias went his way, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him said, Brother Saul, the Lord, even Jesus, that appeared unto thee in the way as thou camest, hath sent me, that thou mightest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Ghost.

18 And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and 19 he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized. And when he had received meat, he was strengthened. Then was Saul 20 certain days with the disciples which were at Damascus. And straightway he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the 21 Son of God. But all that heard him were amazed, and said; Is not this he that destroyed them which called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound 22 unto the chief priests? But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews which dwelt at Damascus, proving that 23 this is very Christ. And after that many days were fulfilled, the 24 Jews took counsel to kill him: But their laying await was known of 25 Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him. Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in 26 a basket. And when Saul was come to Jerusalem, he assayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and 27 believed not that he was a disciple. But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared unto them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how 28 he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. And 29 he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem. And he spake boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against 30 the Grecians: but they went about to slay him. Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent 31 him forth to Tarsus. Then had the churches rest throughout all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria, and were edified; and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost, were 32 multiplied. And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints which dwelt at Lydda. And there he found a certain man named Aeneas, which had kept 33 his bed eight years, and was sick of the palsy. And Peter said unto 34 him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ maketh thee whole: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately. And all that dwelt at Lydda 35 and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord. Now there was at 36 Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and almsdeeds which she did. And it came to pass in those days, that she was 37 sick, and died: whom when they had washed, they laid her in an upper chamber. And forasmuch as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and 38 the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent unto him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them. Then Peter arose and went with them. When he was come, they 39 brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and shewing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them. But Peter put them all forth, 40 and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning him to the body said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up. And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up, and when 41 he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive. And it 42 was known throughout all Joppa; and many believed in the Lord. And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one 43 Simon a tanner.

There was a certain man in Caesarea called Cornelius, a centu- 10 rion of the band called the Italian band, A devout man, and one 2 that feared God with all his house, which gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God alway. He saw in a vision evidently 3 about the ninth hour of the day an angel of God coming in to him, and saying unto him, Cornelius. And when he looked on him, he 4 was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said unto him, Thy prayers and thine alms are come up for a memorial before God. And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose sur- 5 name is Peter: He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house 6 is by the sea side: he shall tell thee what thou oughtest to do. And when the angel which spake unto Cornelius was departed, he 7 called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually; And when he had declared all 8 9 these things unto them, he sent them to Joppa. On the morrow, as they went on their journey, and drew nigh unto the city, Peter 10 went up upon the housetop to pray about the sixth hour: And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made 11 ready, he fell into a trance, And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending unto him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the 12 four corners, and let down to the earth: Wherein were all manner of fourfooted beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping 13 things, and fowls of the air. And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat. But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never 14 eaten any thing that is common or unclean. And the voice spake unto him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that 15 call not thou common. This was done thrice: and the vessel was 16 received up again into heaven. Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men which were sent from Cornelius had made enquiry for Simon's 17 house, and stood before the gate, And called, and asked whether Simon, which was surnamed Peter, were lodged there. While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said unto him, Behold, three 18 men seek thee. Arise therefore, and get thee down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them. Then Peter went 19 down to the men which were sent unto him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause wherefore 20 ye are come? And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by an holy angel to send for 21 thee into his house, and to hear words of thee. Then called he them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went away with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.

22 And the morrow after they entered into Caesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near 23 friends. And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him. But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up; I myself also am a man. And as he talked with 24 him, he went in, and found many that were come together. And he said unto them, Ye know how that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come unto one of another nation; but God hath shewed me that I should not call any man 25 common or unclean. Therefore came I unto you without gainsay-

ing, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me? And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and, behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing, And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thine alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God. Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he is lodged in the house of one Simon a tanner by the sea side: who, when he cometh, shall speak unto thee. Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou art come. Now therefore are we all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee of God. Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, Of a truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons: But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him. The word which God sent unto the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:) That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judaea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached; How God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed of the devil; for God was with him. And we are witnesses of all things which he did both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree: Him God raised up the third day, and shewed him openly; Not to all the people, but unto witnesses chosen before of God, even to us, who did eat and drink with him after he rose from the dead. And he commanded us to preach unto the people, and to testify that it is he which was ordained of God to be the Judge of quick and dead. To him give all the prophets witness, that through his name whosoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins. While Peter yet spake these words, the Holy Ghost fell on all them which heard the word. And they of the circumcision which believed were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Ghost. For they heard them speak with tongues, and magnify God. Then answered Peter, Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, which have received the Holy Ghost as well as we? And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then prayed they him to tarry certain days.

11 And the apostles and brethren that were in Judaea heard that 2 the Gentiles had also received the word of God. And when Peter was come up to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision con-3 tended with him, Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, 4 and didst eat with them. But Peter rehearsed the matter from 5 the beginning, and expounded it by order unto them, saying, I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down 6 from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me: Upon the which when I had fastened mine eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, 7 and fowls of the air. And I heard a voice saying unto me, Arise, 8 Peter; slay and eat. But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing com-9 mon or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth. But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, 10 that call not thou common. And this was done three times: and 11 all were drawn up again into heaven. And, behold, immediately there were three men already come unto the house where I was, sent 12 from Caesarea unto me. And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover these six brethren accompanied me, 13 and we entered into the man's house: And he shewed us how he had seen an angel in his house, which stood and said unto him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter; 14 Who shall tell thee words, whereby thou and all thy house shall 15 be saved. And as I began to speak, the Holy Ghost fell on them, 16 as on us at the beginning. Then remembered I the word of the Lord, how that he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye 17 shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost. Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did unto us, who believed on the Lord 18 Jesus Christ; what was I, that I could withstand God? When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance unto 19 life. Now they which were scattered abroad upon the persecution that arose about Stephen travelled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but unto the Jews only.
20 And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, which, when they were come to Antioch, spake unto the Grecians, preaching 21 the Lord Jesus. And the hand of the Lord was with them: and 22 a great number believed, and turned unto the Lord. Then tidings of these things came unto the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch. Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would cleave unto the Lord. For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith: and much people was added unto the Lord. Then departed Barnabas to Tarsus, for to seek Saul: And when he had found him, he brought him unto Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught much people. And the disciples were called Christians first in Antioch. And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem unto Antioch. And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Caesar. Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief unto the brethren which dwelt in Judaea: Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

Now about that time Herod the king stretched forth his hands to vex certain of the church. And he killed James the brother of John with the sword. And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. (Then were the days of unleavened bread.) And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after Easter to bring him forth to the people. Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing of the church unto God for him. And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains: and the keepers before the door kept the prison. And, behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison: and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise up quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands. And the angel said unto him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals. And so he did. And he saith unto him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me. And he went out, and followed him; and wist not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision. When they were past the first and the second ward, they came unto the iron gate that leadeth unto the city; which opened to them of his own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; 11 and forthwith the angel departed from him. And when Peter was come to himself, he said, Now I know of a surety, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews. 12 And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John, whose surname was Mark; where many 13 were gathered together praying. And as Peter knocked at the 14 door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda. And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, 15 but ran in, and told how Peter stood before the gate. And they said unto her, Thou art mad. But she constantly affirmed that it 16 was even so. Then said they, It is his angel. But Peter continued knocking: and when they had opened the door, and saw him, they 17 were astonished. But he, beckoning unto them with the hand to hold their peace, declared unto them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go shew these things unto James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another 18 place. Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among 19 the soldiers, what was become of Peter. And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down 20 from Judaea to Caesarea, and there abode. And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon: but they came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace; because their country was nourished by 21 the king's country. And upon a set day Herod, arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration unto them. 22 And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and 23 not of a man. And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten of worms, 24 and gave up the ghost. But the word of God grew and multiplied. 25 And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.

Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, which had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul. As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Ghost said, Separate me Barnabas and Saul for the work whereunto I have called them. And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away. So they, being sent forth by the Holy Ghost, departed unto Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus. And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews: and they had also John to their minister. And when they had gone through the isle unto Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus: Which was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God. But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith. Then Saul, (who also is called Paul,) filled with the Holy Ghost, set his eyes on him, And said, O full of all subtilty and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord? And now, behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand. Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord. Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia: and John departing from them returned to Jerusalem. But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and sat down. And after the reading of the law and the prophets the rulers of the synagogue sent unto them, saying, Ye men and brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, say on. Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience. The God of this people of Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with an high arm brought he them out of it. And about the time of forty years

19 suffered he their manners in the wilderness. And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Chanaan, he divided their 20 land to them by lot. And after that he gave unto them judges about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the 21 prophet. And afterward they desired a king: and God gave unto them Saul the son of Cis, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the 22 space of forty years. And when he had removed him, he raised up unto them David to be their king; to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after mine 23 own heart, which shall fulfil all my will. Of this man's seed hath God according to his promise raised unto Israel a Saviour, Jesus: 24 When John had first preached before his coming the baptism of 25 repentance to all the people of Israel. And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But, behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am 26 not worthy to loose. Men and brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whosoever among you feareth God, to you is the 27 word of this salvation sent. For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the voices of the prophets which are read every sabbath day, they have fulfilled them 28 in condemning him. And though they found no cause of death in 29 him, yet desired they Pilate that he should be slain. And when they had fulfilled all that was written of him, they took him down 30 from the tree, and laid him in a sepulchre. But God raised him 31 from the dead: And he was seen many days of them which came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses unto 32 the people. And we declare unto you glad tidings, how that the 33 promise which was made unto the fathers, God hath fulfilled the same unto us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this 34 day have I begotten thee. And as concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said 35 on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David. Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou shalt not suffer thine Holy 36 One to see corruption. For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell on sleep, and was laid unto his fathers, and saw corruption: But he, whom God raised again, 37 saw no corruption. Be it known unto you therefore, men and bre- 38 thren, that through this man is preached unto you the forgiveness of sins: And by him all that believe are justified from all things, 39 from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses. Beware 40 therefore, lest that come upon you, which is spoken of in the prophets; Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a 41 work in your days, a work which ye shall in no wise believe, though a man declare it unto you. And when the Jews were gone out of 42 the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath. Now when the congregation 43 was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas: who, speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God. And the next sabbath day came 44 almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But 45 when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradict-ing and blaspheming. Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and 46 said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles. For so 47 hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth. And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, 48 and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life believed. And the word of the Lord was published 49 throughout all the region. But the Jews stirred up the devout 50 and honourable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them out of their coasts. But they shook off the dust of their feet against 51 them, and came unto Iconium. And the disciples were filled with 52 joy, and with the Holy Ghost.

And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together 14 into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spake, that a great multitude both of the Jews and also of the Greeks believed. But the 2 unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil affected against the brethren. Long time therefore abode they 3 speaking boldly in the Lord, which gave testimony unto the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands. But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles. And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them, They were ware of it, and fled unto Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and unto the region that lieth round about: And there they preached the gospel. And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked: The same heard Paul speak: who stedfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed, Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked. And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods are come down to us in the likeness of men. And they called Barnabas, Jupiter; and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker. Then the priest of Jupiter, which was before their city, brought oxen and garlands unto the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people. Which when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out, And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach unto you that ye should turn from these vanities unto the living God, which made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all things that are therein: Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways. Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness. And with these sayings scarce restrained they the people, that they had not done sacrifice unto them. And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and, having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing he had been dead. Howbeit, as the disciples stood round about him, he rose up, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe. And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and Antioch, Confirming the souls of the disciples, and exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God. And when they had ordained them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed. And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia. And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia: And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been recommended to the grace of God for the work which they fulfilled. And when they were come, and had gathered the church together, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and how he had opened the door of faith unto the Gentiles. And there they abode long time with the disciples.

And certain men which came down from Judaea taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved. When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain other of them, should go up to Jerusalem unto the apostles and elders about this question. And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy unto all the brethren. And when they were come to Jerusalem, they were received of the church, and of the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them. But there rose up certain of the sect of the Pharisees which believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses. And the apostles and elders came together for to consider of this matter. And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose up, and said unto them, Men and brethren, ye know how that a good while ago God made choice among us, that the Gentiles by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe. And God, which knoweth the hearts, bare them witness, giving them the Holy Ghost, even as he did unto us; And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith. Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? But we believe that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they. Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to

Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought among the Gentiles by them. And after they had held their peace, James answered, saying, Men and brethren, hearken unto me: Simeon hath declared how God at the first did visit the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name. And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written, After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David, which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins thereof, and I will set it up: That the residue of men might seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things. Known unto God are all his works from the beginning of the world. Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, which from among the Gentiles are turned to God: But that we write unto them, that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from fornication, and from things strangled, and from blood. For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath day. Then pleased it the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren: And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles and elders and brethren send greeting unto the brethren which are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain which went out from us have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law: to whom we gave no such commandment: It seemed good unto us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men unto you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul, Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who shall also tell you the same things by mouth. For it seemed good to the Holy Ghost, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things; That ye abstain from meats offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from fornication: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye shall do well. Fare ye well. So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had gathered the multitude together, they delivered the epistle: Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation. And Judas and Silas, being prophets 32 also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them. And after they had tarried there a space, they were 33 let go in peace from the brethren unto the apostles. Notwithstand- 34 ing it pleased Silas to abide there still. Paul also and Barnabas 35 continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also. And some days after Paul said unto Barn- 36 abas, Let us go again and visit our brethren in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do. And 37 Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark. But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who de- 38 parted from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work. And the contention was so sharp between them, that they 39 departed asunder one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed unto Cyprus; And Paul chose Silas, and departed, be- 40 ing recommended by the brethren unto the grace of God. And he 41 went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

Then came he to Derbe and Lystra: and, behold, a certain 16 disciple was there, named Timotheus, the son of a certain woman, which was a Jewess, and believed; but his father was a Greek:
 Which was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra 2 and Iconium. Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and 3 took and circumcised him because of the Jews which were in those quarters: for they knew all that his father was a Greek. And as 4 they went through the cities, they delivered them the decrees for to keep, that were ordained of the apostles and elders which were at Jerusalem. And so were the churches established in the faith, and 5 increased in number daily. Now when they had gone throughout 6 Phrygia and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden of the Holy Ghost to preach the word in Asia, After they were come to Mysia, 7 they assayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.
 And they passing by Mysia came down to Troas. And a vision 8, 9 appeared to Paul in the night; There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.
 And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavoured to 10 go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering that the Lord had called us for to preach the gospel unto them. Therefore loosing from 11 Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the 12 next day to Neapolis; And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in 13 that city abiding certain days. And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spake unto the women which resorted thither.

14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, which worshipped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended unto the things which were spoken 15 of Paul. And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there. And she constrained 16 us. And it came to pass, as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination met us, which brought her 17 masters much gain by soothsaying: The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high 18 God, which shew unto us the way of salvation. And this did she many days. But Paul, being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out 19 of her. And he came out the same hour. And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and 20 Silas, and drew them into the marketplace unto the rulers, And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, 21 do exceedingly trouble our city, And teach customs, which are not 22 lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans. And the multitude rose up together against them: and the magistrates 23 rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them. And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, 24 charging the jailor to keep them safely: Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their 25 feet fast in the stocks. And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, 26 and sang praises unto God: and the prisoners heard them. And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, 27 and every one's bands were loosed. And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the 28 prisoners had been fled. But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying,

16. v.12 the chief: or, the first. v.13 sabbath: Gr. sabbath day. v.16 of divination:

Do thyself no harm: for we are all here. Then he called for a light, 29 and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and 30 Silas, And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to 31 be saved? And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and 32 thou shalt be saved, and thy house. And they spake unto him 33 the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house. And he 34 took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, straightway. And when he had 35 brought them into his house, he set meat before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house. And when it was day, the 36 magistrates sent the serjeants, saying, Let those men go. And the 37 keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace. But Paul 38 said unto them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us 39 out privily? nay verily; but let them come themselves and fetch us out. And the serjeants told these words unto the magistrates: 40 and they feared, when they heard that they were Romans. And 41 they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city. And they went out of the prison, 42 and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.

Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, 17 they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews:
 And Paul, as his manner was, went in unto them, and three sab- 2 bath days reasoned with them out of the scriptures, Opening and 3 alleging, that Christ must needs have suffered, and risen again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach unto you, is Christ.
 And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas; and 4 of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few. But the Jews which believed not, moved with envy, took 5 unto them certain lewd fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city on an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people. And when 6 they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren unto the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down are come hither also; Whom Jason hath received: and 7 these all do contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is

17. v.3 whom....: or, whom, said he, I preach.

8 another king, one Jesus. And they troubled the people and the 9 rulers of the city, when they heard these things. And when they had taken security of Jason, and of the other, they let them go.
 10 And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night unto Berea: who coming thither went into the synagogue of the 11 Jews. These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the 12 scriptures daily, whether those things were so. Therefore many of them believed; also of honourable women which were Greeks, and 13 of men, not a few. But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached of Paul at Berea, they 14 came thither also, and stirred up the people. And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul to go as it were to the sea: but 15 Silas and Timotheus abode there still. And they that conducted Paul brought him unto Athens: and receiving a commandment unto Silas and Timotheus for to come to him with all speed, they 16 departed. Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.
 17 Therefore disputed he in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met 18 with him. Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoicks, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? other some, He seemeth to be a setter forth of strange gods: because he preached unto them Jesus, and the resurrection.
 19 And they took him, and brought him unto Areopagus, saying, May 20 we know what this new doctrine, whereof thou speakest, is? For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears: we would know 21 therefore what these things mean. (For all the Athenians and strangers which were there spent their time in nothing else, but 22 either to tell, or to hear some new thing.) Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars' hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive 23 that in all things ye are too superstitious. For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, 24 him declare I unto you. God that made the world and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands; Neither is worshipped with men's 25 hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things; And hath made of one blood all na- 26 tions of men for to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation; That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might 27 feel after him, and find him, though he be not far from every one of us: For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as 28 certain also of your own poets have said, For we are also his offspring. Forasmuch then as we are the offspring of God, we ought 29 not to think that the Godhead is like unto gold, or silver, or stone, graven by art and man's device. And the times of this ignorance 30 God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent: Because he hath appointed a day, in the which he will judge 31 the world in righteousness by that man whom he hath ordained; whereof he hath given assurance unto all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead. And when they heard of the resurrec- 32 tion of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again of this matter. So Paul departed from among them. How- 33, 34 beit certain men clave unto him, and believed: among the which was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to 18 Corinth; And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pon- 2 tus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla; (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome:) and came unto them. And because he was of the same craft, he abode 3 with them, and wrought: for by their occupation they were tentmakers. And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and 4 persuaded the Jews and the Greeks. And when Silas and Timo- 5 theus were come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in the spirit, and testified to the Jews that Jesus was Christ. And when they 6 opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said unto them, Your blood be upon your own heads; I am clean: from henceforth I will go unto the Gentiles. And he departed 7 thence, and entered into a certain man's house, named Justus, one that worshipped God, whose house joined hard to the synagogue.
And Crispus, the chief ruler of the synagogue, believed on the Lord 8 with all his house; and many of the Corinthians hearing believed, 9 and were baptized. Then spake the Lord to Paul in the night by 10 a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace: For I am with thee, and no man shall set on thee to hurt thee: for I 11 have much people in this city. And he continued there a year and 12 six months, teaching the word of God among them. And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment seat, 13 Saying, This fellow persuadeth men to worship God contrary to 14 the law. And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said unto the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong or wicked lewdness, 15 O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you: But if it be a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it; for 16 I will be no judge of such matters. And he drave them from the 17 judgment seat. Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. And 18 Gallio cared for none of those things. And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and then took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; hav-19 ing shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow. And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the 20 synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. When they desired him 21 to tarry longer time with them, he consented not; But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return again unto you, if God will. And 22 he sailed from Ephesus. And when he had landed at Caesarea, and gone up, and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.

23 And after he had spent some time there, he departed, and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthen-24 ing all the disciples. And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came 25 to Ephesus. This man was instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in the spirit, he spake and taught diligently the 26 things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John. And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: whom when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him unto them, and expounded unto 27 him the way of God more perfectly. And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he was come, helped them much which had believed through grace: For he mightily convinced the Jews, and 28 that publicly, shewing by the scriptures that Jesus was Christ.

And it came to pass, that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul 19 having passed through the upper coasts came to Ephesus: and finding certain disciples, He said unto them, Have ye received the 2 Holy Ghost since ye believed? And they said unto him, We have not so much as heard whether there be any Holy Ghost. And 3 he said unto them, Unto what then were ye baptized? And they said, Unto John's baptism. Then said Paul, John verily baptized 4 with the baptism of repentance, saying unto the people, that they should believe on him which should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus. When they heard this, they were baptized in the 5 name of the Lord Jesus. And when Paul had laid his hands upon 6 them, the Holy Ghost came on them; and they spake with tongues, and prophesied. And all the men were about twelve. And he went 7, 8 into the synagogue, and spake boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God. But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spake 9 evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus. And this continued by the space of two years; so that 10 all they which dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks. And God wrought special miracles by 11 the hands of Paul: So that from his body were brought unto 12 the sick handkerchiefs or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them. Then certain of 13 the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them which had evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth. And there were seven 14 sons of one Sceva, a Jew, and chief of the priests, which did so. And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I 15 know; but who are ye? And the man in whom the evil spirit was 16 leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded. And this 17 was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus; and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified. And many that believed came, and confessed, and 18

19 shewed their deeds. Many of them also which used curious arts brought their books together, and burned them before all men: and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand 20 pieces of silver. So mightily grew the word of God and prevailed.
21 After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, 22 saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome. So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered unto him, Timotheus 23 and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season. And the 24 same time there arose no small stir about that way. For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, which made silver shrines 25 for Diana, brought no small gain unto the craftsmen; Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, 26 Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth. Moreover ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away much people, 27 saying that they be no gods, which are made with hands: So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at nought; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia and the 28 world worshippeth. And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the 29 Ephesians. And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theatre.
30 And when Paul would have entered in unto the people, the disciples suffered him not. And certain of the chief of Asia, which were his friends, sent unto him, desiring him that he would not adventure 32 himself into the theatre. Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused; and the more part 33 knew not wherefore they were come together. And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made 34 his defence unto the people. But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, 35 Great is Diana of the Ephesians. And when the townclerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not how that the city of the Ephesians is a worshipper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter? Seeing then that these things cannot be spoken against, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

 For ye have brought hither these men, which are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess. Wherefore if Demetrius, and the craftsmen which are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another. But if ye enquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly. For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause whereby we may give an account of this concourse. And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

And after the uproar was ceased, Paul called unto him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed for to go into Macedonia.
 And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece, And there abode three months.
 And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia. And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timo-theus; and of Asia, Tychicus and Trophimus. These going before tarried for us at Troas. And we sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came unto them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days. And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached unto them, ready to depart on the morrow; and continued his speech until midnight. And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were gathered together. And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, being fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell down from the third loft, and was taken up dead. And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him. When he therefore was come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and talked a long while, even till break of day, so he departed. And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.
 And we went before to ship, and sailed unto Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so had he appointed, minding himself to 14 go afoot. And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, 15 and came to Mitylene. And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.

16 For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to 17 be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost. And from Miletus he sent 18 to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church. And when they were come to him, he said unto them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you 19 at all seasons, Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears, and temptations, which befell me by the lying in 20 wait of the Jews: And how I kept back nothing that was profitable unto you, but have shewed you, and have taught you publickly, and 21 from house to house, Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus 22 Christ. And now, behold, I go bound in the spirit unto Jerusalem, 23 not knowing the things that shall befall me there: Save that the Holy Ghost witnesseth in every city, saying that bonds and afflic-24 tions abide me. But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear unto myself, so that I might finish my course with joy, and the ministry, which I have received of the Lord Jesus, to testify 25 the gospel of the grace of God. And now, behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, shall 26 see my face no more. Wherefore I take you to record this day, 27 that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned 28 to declare unto you all the counsel of God. Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath 29 purchased with his own blood. For I know this, that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you, not sparing the 30 flock. Also of your own selves shall men arise, speaking perverse 31 things, to draw away disciples after them. Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn 32 every one night and day with tears. And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified. I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel. 33 Yea, ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered unto my 34 necessities, and to them that were with me. I have shewed you all 35 things, how that so labouring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive. And when he had thus spoken, he 36 kneeled down, and prayed with them all. And they all wept sore, 37 and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, Sorrowing most of all for 38 the words which he spake, that they should see his face no more.

And they accompanied him unto the ship.

And it came to pass, that after we were gotten from them, and 21 had launched, we came with a straight course unto Coos, and the day following unto Rhodes, and from thence unto Patara: And 2 finding a ship sailing over unto Phenicia, we went aboard, and set forth. Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left 3 hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden. And finding disciples, we tarried there 4 seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem. And when we had accomplished those 5 days, we departed and went our way; and they all brought us on our way, with wives and children, till we were out of the city: and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed. And when we had 6 taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again. And when we had finished our course from Tyre, 7 we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day. And the next day we that were of Paul's company 8 departed, and came unto Caesarea: and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, which was one of the seven; and abode with him. And the same man had four daughters, virgins, which 9 did prophesy. And as we tarried there many days, there came 10 down from Judaea a certain prophet, named Agabus. And when 11 he was come unto us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Ghost, So shall the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and shall deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles. And when we heard 12 these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem. Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep 13 and to break mine heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus. And 14 when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done. And after those days we took up our carriages, and went up to Jerusalem. There went with us also certain of the disciples of Caesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge. And when we were come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly. And the day following Paul went in with us unto James; and all the elders were present. And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry. And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said unto him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are which believe; and they are all zealous of the law: And they are informed of thee, that thou teachest all the Jews which are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying that they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs. What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come. Do therefore this that we say to thee: We have four men which have a vow on them; Them take, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things, whereof they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law. As touching the Gentiles which believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from fornication. Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them. And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews which were of Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him, Crying out, Men of Israel, help: This is the man, that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further brought Greeks also into the temple, and hath polluted this holy place. (For they had seen before with him in the city Trophimus an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.) And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul, and drew him out of the temple: and forthwith the doors were shut. And as they went about to kill him, tidings came unto the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar. Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down unto them: and when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating of Paul. Then the chief captain came near, and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains; and demanded who he was, and what he had done. And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle. And when he came upon the stairs, so it was, that he was borne of the soldiers for the violence of the people. For the multitude of the people followed after, crying, Away with him. And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said unto the chief captain, May I speak unto thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek? Art not thou that Egyptian, which before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers? But Paul said, I am a man which am a Jew of Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and, I beseech thee, suffer me to speak unto the people. And when he had given him licence, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand unto the people. And when there was made a great silence, he spake unto them in the Hebrew tongue, saying,

Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defence which I make now unto you. (And when they heard that he spake in the Hebrew tongue to them, they kept the more silence: and he saith,) I am verily a man which am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, and was zealous toward God, as ye all are this day. And I persecuted this way unto the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women. As also the high priest doth bear me witness, and all the estate of the elders: from whom also I received letters unto the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them which were there bound unto Jerusalem, for to be punished. And it came to pass, that, as I made my journey, and was come nigh unto Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light round about me. And I fell unto the ground, and heard a voice saying unto me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said unto me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, 9 whom thou persecutest. And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that 10 spake to me. And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said unto me, Arise, and go into Damascus; and there it shall be 11 told thee of all things which are appointed for thee to do. And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the 12 hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus. And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report 13 of all the Jews which dwelt there, Came unto me, and stood, and said unto me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour 14 I looked up upon him. And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldest know his will, and see that Just 15 One, and shouldest hear the voice of his mouth. For thou shalt be 16 his witness unto all men of what thou hast seen and heard. And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away 17 thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord. And it came to pass, that, when I was come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed 18 in the temple, I was in a trance; And saw him saying unto me, Make haste, and get thee quickly out of Jerusalem: for they will 19 not receive thy testimony concerning me. And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue them that 20 believed on thee: And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting unto his death, and 21 kept the raiment of them that slew him. And he said unto me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence unto the Gentiles. And 22 they gave him audience unto this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a fellow from the earth: for it

23 is not fit that he should live. And as they cried out, and cast 24 off their clothes, and threw dust into the air, The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know wherefore 25 they cried so against him. And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said unto the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to 26 scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned? When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, 27 Take heed what thou doest: for this man is a Roman. Then the chief captain came, and said unto him, Tell me, art thou a 28 Roman? He said, Yea. And the chief captain answered, With a great sum obtained I this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born. Then straightway they departed from him which should 29 have examined him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him. On 30 the morrow, because he would have known the certainty wherefore he was accused of the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.

And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men and bre- 23 thren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
 And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him 2 to smite him on the mouth. Then said Paul unto him, God shall 3 smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me after the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law? And 4 they that stood by said, Revilest thou God's high priest? Then 5 said Paul, I wist not, brethren, that he was the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people. But 6 when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men and brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: of the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question. And when he had so said, 7 there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided. For the Sadducees say that there 8 is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both. And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were 9 of the Pharisees' part arose, and strove, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God. And when there arose a great dissen- 10 sion, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul should have been pulled in pieces of them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.
 And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of 11 good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified of me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear witness also at Rome. And when it was day, 12 certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul. And they were more than forty which had made this 13 conspiracy. And they came to the chief priests and elders, and 14

22. v.29 examined him: or, tortured him. 23. v.12 under a curse: or, with an oath of execration.

said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will 15 eat nothing until we have slain Paul. Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain that he bring him down unto you to morrow, as though ye would enquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, or ever he come near, are ready 16 to kill him. And when Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in 17 wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul. Then Paul called one of the centurions unto him, and said, Bring this young man unto the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to 18 tell him. So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me unto him, and prayed me to bring this young man unto thee, who hath something to say unto 19 thee. Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast 20 to tell me? And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee that thou wouldest bring down Paul to morrow into the council, as though they would enquire somewhat of him more perfectly.
21 But do not thou yield unto them: for there lie in wait for him of them more than forty men, which have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed 22 him: and now are they ready, looking for a promise from thee. So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shewed these things to me.
23 And he called unto him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Caesarea, and horsemen threescore and ten, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night; 24 And provide them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring 25 him safe unto Felix the governor. And he wrote a letter after this 26 manner: Claudius Lysias unto the most excellent governor Felix 27 sendeth greeting. This man was taken of the Jews, and should have been killed of them: then came I with an army, and rescued 28 him, having understood that he was a Roman. And when I would have known the cause wherefore they accused him, I brought him 29 forth into their council: Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of 30 death or of bonds. And when it was told me how that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent straightway to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also to say before thee what they had 31 against him. Farewell. Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris. On the 32 morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle: Who, when they came to Caesarea, and delivered the 33 epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him. And when 34 the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was.

And when he understood that he was of Cilicia; I will hear thee, 35 said he, when thine accusers are also come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment hall.

And after five days Ananias the high priest descended with the 24 elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul. And when he was called forth, Tertul- 2 lus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done unto this nation by thy providence, We accept it always, and in all places, most 3 noble Felix, with all thankfulness. Notwithstanding, that I be not 4 further tedious unto thee, I pray thee that thou wouldest hear us of thy clemency a few words. For we have found this man a pestilent 5 fellow, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes: Who also 6 hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law. But the chief captain Lysias 7 came upon us, and with great violence took him away out of our hands, Commanding his accusers to come unto thee: by exam- 8 ining of whom thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things, whereof we accuse him. And the Jews also assented, saying that 9 these things were so. Then Paul, after that the governor had 10 beckoned unto him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been of many years a judge unto this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself: Because that thou mayest un- 11 derstand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem for to worship. And they neither found me in the tem- 12 ple disputing with any man, neither raising up the people, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city: Neither can they prove the 13 things whereof they now accuse me. But this I confess unto thee, 14 that after the way which they call heresy, so worship I the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets: And have hope toward God, which they them- 15 selves also allow, that there shall be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust. And herein do I exercise myself, to 16 have always a conscience void of offence toward God, and toward men. Now after many years I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings. Whereupon certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult. Who ought to have been here before thee, and object, if they had ought against me. Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil doing in me, while I stood before the council, Except it be for this one voice, that I cried standing among them, Touching the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day. And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter. And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister or come unto him. And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, which was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ. And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee. He hoped also that money should have been given him of Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him. But after two years Porcius Festus came into Felix' room: and Felix, willing to shew the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

Now when Festus was come into the province, after three days he ascended from Caesarea to Jerusalem. Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him, And desired favour against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him. But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Caesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither. Let them therefore, said he, which among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there be any wickedness in him. And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down unto Caesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment seat commanded Paul to be brought. And when he was come, the Jews which came down from Jerusalem stood round about, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove. While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Caesar, have I offended any thing at all. But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and 9 said, Wilt thou go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me? Then said Paul, I stand at Caesar's judgment 10 seat, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest. For if I be an offender, or have com- 11 mitted any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there be none of these things whereof these accuse me, no man may deliver me unto them. I appeal unto Caesar. Then Festus, when he 12 had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed unto Caesar? unto Caesar shalt thou go. And after certain days king 13 Agrippa and Bernice came unto Caesarea to salute Festus. And 14 when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause unto the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix: About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the 15 elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him. To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to 16 deliver any man to die, before that he which is accused have the accusers face to face, and have licence to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him. Therefore, when they were 17 come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth. Against 18 whom when the accusers stood up, they brought none accusation of such things as I supposed: But had certain questions against him 19 of their own superstition, and of one Jesus, which was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive. And because I doubted of such manner 20 of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these matters. But when Paul had appealed to 21 be reserved unto the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar. Then Agrippa said unto Fes- 22 tus, I would also hear the man myself. To morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him. And on the morrow, when Agrippa was come, 23 and Bernice, with great pomp, and was entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains, and principal men of the city, at Festus' commandment Paul was brought forth. And Festus said, 24 King Agrippa, and all men which are here present with us, ye see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought 25 not to live any longer. But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed 26 to Augustus, I have determined to send him. Of whom I have no certain thing to write unto my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that, 27 after examination had, I might have somewhat to write. For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not withal to signify the crimes laid against him.

26 Then Agrippa said unto Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for him-2 self: I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee touching all the things whereof I am 3 accused of the Jews: Especially because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore 4 I beseech thee to hear me patiently. My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among mine own nation at Jerusalem, 5 know all the Jews; Which knew me from the beginning, if they would testify, that after the most straitest sect of our religion I 6 lived a Pharisee. And now I stand and am judged for the hope of 7 the promise made of God unto our fathers: Unto which promise our twelve tribes, instantly serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused of the 8 Jews. Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that 9 God should raise the dead? I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
10 Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.
11 And I punished them oft in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly mad against them, I perse-12 cuted them even unto strange cities. Whereupon as I went to Damascus with authority and commission from the chief priests, 13 At midday, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, above the brightness of the sun, shining round about me and them which 14 journeyed with me. And when we were all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking unto me, and saying in the Hebrew tongue, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? it is hard for thee to kick against the pricks. And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, 15 I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. But rise, and stand upon thy 16 feet: for I have appeared unto thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of these things which thou hast seen, and of those things in the which I will appear unto thee; Deliver- 17 ing thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, unto whom now I send thee, To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness 18 to light, and from the power of Satan unto God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them which are sanctified by faith that is in me. Whereupon, O king Agrippa, 19 I was not disobedient unto the heavenly vision: But shewed first 20 unto them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the coasts of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance. For these 21 causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me. Having therefore obtained help of God, I continue unto this 22 day, witnessing both to small and great, saying none other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:

That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that 23 should rise from the dead, and should shew light unto the people, and to the Gentiles. And as he thus spake for himself, Festus said 24 with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee mad. But he said, I am not mad, most noble Festus; 25 but speak forth the words of truth and soberness. For the king 26 knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely: for I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner. King Agrippa, believest thou the 27 prophets? I know that thou believest. Then Agrippa said unto 28 Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian. And Paul 29 said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds. And when he had thus spoken, the king rose up, 30 and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them: And 31 when they were gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death or of bonds. Then 32 said Agrippa unto Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed unto Caesar.

And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, 27 they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners unto one named

2 Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band. And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we launched, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia; one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with 3 us. And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously entreated Paul, and gave him liberty to go unto his friends 4 to refresh himself. And when we had launched from thence, we 5 sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to 6 Myra, a city of Lycia. And there the centurion found a ship of 7 Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein. And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce were come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over 8 against Salmone; And, hardly passing it, came unto a place which is called The fair havens; nigh whereunto was the city of Lasea.
9 Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished 10 them, And said unto them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, 11 but also of our lives. Nevertheless the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship, more than those things which were 12 spoken by Paul. And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the more part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is an haven of Crete, and lieth toward the south west and north 13 west. And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by 14 Crete. But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous 15 wind, called Euroclydon. And when the ship was caught, and 16 could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive. And running under a certain island which is called Clauda, we had much work 17 to come by the boat: Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and, fearing lest they should fall into 18 the quicksands, strake sail, and so were driven. And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened 19 the ship; And the third day we cast out with our own hands the 20 tackling of the ship. And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away. But after long abstinence Paul 21 stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened unto me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss. And now I exhort you to be of good 22 cheer: for there shall be no loss of any man's life among you, but of the ship. For there stood by me this night the angel of God, 23 whose I am, and whom I serve, Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must 24 be brought before Caesar: and, lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee. Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe 25 God, that it shall be even as it was told me. Howbeit we must 26 be cast upon a certain island. But when the fourteenth night was 27 come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen deemed that they drew near to some country; And 28 sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

 Then fearing lest we should have fallen upon rocks, they cast four 29 anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day. And as the ship- 30 men were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under colour as though they would have cast anchors out of the foreship, Paul said to the centurion and 31 to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
 Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off. 32
 And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take 33 meat, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried and continued fasting, having taken nothing. Wherefore I pray 34 you to take some meat: for this is for your health: for there shall not an hair fall from the head of any of you. And when he had 35 thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all: and when he had broken it, he began to eat. Then were 36 they all of good cheer, and they also took some meat. And we 37 were in all in the ship two hundred threescore and sixteen souls.
 And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and 38 cast out the wheat into the sea. And when it was day, they knew 39 not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into the which they were minded, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship. And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed 40 themselves unto the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoised up the mainsail to the wind, and made toward shore. And falling 41 v.40 taken...: or, cut the anchors, they left them in the sea.

into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained unmoveable, but the hinder 42 part was broken with the violence of the waves. And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, 43 and escape. But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose; and commanded that they which could swim 44 should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land: And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship. And so it came to pass, that they escaped all safe to land.

28 And when they were escaped, then they knew that the island 2 was called Melita. And the barbarous people shewed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because 3 of the present rain, and because of the cold. And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came 4 a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand. And when the barbarians saw the venomous beast hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to 5 live. And he shook off the beast into the fire, and felt no harm.
6 Howbeit they looked when he should have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that
7 he was a god. In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the island, whose name was Publius; who received us, and 8 lodged us three days courteously. And it came to pass, that the father of Publius lay sick of a fever and of a bloody flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed 9 him. So when this was done, others also, which had diseases in 10 the island, came, and were healed: Who also honoured us with many honours; and when we departed, they laded us with such 11 things as were necessary. And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign 12 was Castor and Pollux. And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there 13 three days. And from thence we fetched a compass, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came 14 the next day to Puteoli: Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went toward 15 Rome. And from thence, when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii forum, and The three taverns:

whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage. And 16 when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself with a soldier that kept him. And it came to pass, that after 17 three days Paul called the chief of the Jews together: and when they were come together, he said unto them, Men and brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet was I delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans. Who, when they had examined me, 18 would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me. But when the Jews spake against it, I was constrained to 19 appeal unto Caesar; not that I had ought to accuse my nation of.
For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to 20 speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain. And they said unto him, We neither received 21 letters out of Judaea concerning thee, neither any of the brethren that came shewed or spake any harm of thee. But we desire to 22 hear of thee what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against. And when they had 23 appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening. And some believed the 24 things which were spoken, and some believed not. And when 25 they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after that Paul had spoken one word, Well spake the Holy Ghost by Esaias the prophet unto our fathers, Saying, Go unto this people, and say, 26 Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive: For the heart of this people is waxed 27 gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them. Be it known therefore unto you, that 28 the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it. And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, 29 and had great reasoning among themselves. And Paul dwelt two 30 whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in unto him, Preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching those 31 things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ, with all confidence, no man forbidding him.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE ROMANS.

Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated unto the gospel of God, (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,) Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, which was made of the seed of David according to the flesh; And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead: By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name: Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ: To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world. For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers; Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come unto you. For I long to see you, that I may impart unto you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established; That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me. Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that oftentimes I purposed to come unto you, (but was let hitherto,) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles. I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the Barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise. So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also. For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God unto salvation to every 17 one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek. For therein is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as 18 it is written, The just shall live by faith. For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteous-19 ness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness; Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God hath 20 shewed it unto them. For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they 21 are without excuse: Because that, when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful; but became vain 22 in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened. Pro-23 fessing themselves to be wise, they became fools, And changed the glory of the uncorruptible God into an image made like to cor-ruptible man, and to birds, and fourfooted beasts, and creeping 24 things. Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonour their own bodies be-25 tween themselves: Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who 26 is blessed for ever. Amen. For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections: for even their women did change the natural 27 use into that which is against nature: And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompence of their error which was 28 meet. And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things 29 which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, 30 murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers, Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, dis-31 obedient to parents, Without understanding, covenantbreakers, 32 without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.

Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whosoever thou art that 2 judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest doest the same things. But we are 2 sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against them which commit such things. And thinkest thou this, O man, that 3 judgest them which do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God? Or despisest thou the riches of 4 his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance? But after thy 5 hardness and impenitent heart treasurest up unto thyself wrath against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God; Who will render to every man according to his deeds: 6
 To them who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory 7

 But glory, honour, and peace, to every man that worketh good, 10 to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile: For there is no respect 11 of persons with God. For as many as have sinned without law 12 shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law shall be judged by the law; (For not the hearers of the law 13 are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.
 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the 14 things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel. Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the 17 law, and makest thy boast of God, And knowest his will, and 18 approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law; And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the 19

teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not 22 steal, dost thou steal? Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, 23 dost thou commit sacrilege? Thou that makest thy boast of the 24 law, through breaking the law dishonourest thou God? For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles through you, as 25 it is written. For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keep the law: but if thou be a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made 26 uncircumcision. Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the rightteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for 27 circumcision? And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfil the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost 28 transgress the law? For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; 29 neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh: But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not of men, but of God.

3 What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of 2 circumcision? Much every way: chiefly, because that unto them 3 were committed the oracles of God. For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
 4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and might-5 est overcome when thou art judged. But if our unrighteousness commend the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God un-6 righteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man) God forbid: 7 for then how shall God judge the world? For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie unto his glory; why yet am I 8 also judged as a sinner? And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good 9 may come? whose damnation is just. What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews 10 and Gentiles, that they are all under sin; As it is written, There 11 is none righteous, no, not one: There is none that understandeth, 12 there is none that seeketh after God. They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is none that 13 doeth good, no, not one. Their throat is an open sepulchre; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips: Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness: Their 14, 15 feet are swift to shed blood: Destruction and misery are in their 16 ways: And the way of peace have they not known: There is no 17, 18 fear of God before their eyes. Now we know that what things 19 soever the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God. Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh 20 be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.

 But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, 21 being witnessed by the law and the prophets; Even the righteous- 22 ness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ unto all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference: For all have sinned, 23 and come short of the glory of God; Being justified freely by his 24 grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus: Whom God 25 hath set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God; To declare, I say, at this time 26 his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believeth in Jesus. Where is boasting then? It is excluded. 27 By what law? of works? Nay: but by the law of faith. Therefore 28 we conclude that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law. Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the 29 Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also: Seeing it is one God, which 30 shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith. Do we then make void the law through faith? God forbid: 31 yea, we establish the law.

What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining 4 to the flesh, hath found? For if Abraham were justified by works, 2 he hath whereof to glory; but not before God. For what saith the 3 scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness. Now to him that worketh is the reward not 4 reckoned of grace, but of debt. But to him that worketh not, but 5 believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness. Even as David also describeth the blessedness of 6 the man, unto whom God imputeth righteousness without works, Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose 7 sins are covered. Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not 8 v.19 guilty...: or, subject to the judgment of God. v.25 set forth: or, foreordained. remission: or, passing over.

9 impute sin. Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was 10 reckoned to Abraham for righteousness. How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in 11 circumcision, but in uncircumcision. And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness 12 might be imputed unto them also: And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had being 13 yet uncircumcised. For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, 14 but through the righteousness of faith. For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of none 15 effect: Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there 16 is no transgression. Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the 17 faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all, (As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those 18 things which be not as though they were. Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, 19 according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be. And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about an hundred years old, neither yet the deadness 20 of Sara's womb: He staggered not at the promise of God through 21 unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God; And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to 22 perform. And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to 24 him; But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe 25 on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead; Who was delivered for our offences, and was raised again for our justification.
5 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God 2 through our Lord Jesus Christ: By whom also we have access by faith into this grace wherein we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God. And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: 3 knowing that tribulation worketh patience; And patience, expe- 4 rience; and experience, hope: And hope maketh not ashamed; 5 because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us. For when we were yet without 6 strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely 7 for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man 8 some would even dare to die. But God commendeth his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be 9 saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, 10 we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life. And not only so, 11 but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement. Wherefore, as by one man 12 sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned: (For until the law sin was 13 in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law. Nev- 14 ertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come. But not as the offence, 15 so also is the free gift. For if through the offence of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded unto many. And not 16 as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift: for the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offences unto justification. For if by one man's offence death reigned by one; 17 much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.) Therefore 18 as by the offence of one judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life. For as by one man's disobedience 19 many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous. Moreover the law entered, that the offence might 20 abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
 That as sin hath reigned unto death, even so might grace reign 21 through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

6 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace
 2 may abound? God forbid. How shall we, that are dead to sin, 3 live any longer therein? Know ye not, that so many of us as were 4 baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ 5 was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness 6 of his resurrection: Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that henceforth 7 we should not serve sin. For he that is dead is freed from sin.
 8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live 9 with him: Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dieth 10 no more; death hath no more dominion over him. For in that he died, he died unto sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth unto 11 God. Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed unto 12 sin, but alive unto God through Jesus Christ our Lord. Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the 13 lusts thereof. Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness unto sin: but yield yourselves unto God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of 14 righteousness unto God. For sin shall not have dominion over you: 15 for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God 16 forbid. Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants ye are to whom ye obey; whether of sin unto 17 death, or of obedience unto righteousness? But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin, but ye have obeyed from the heart 18 that form of doctrine which was delivered you. Being then made 19 free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness. I speak after the manner of men because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity unto iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to 20 righteousness unto holiness. For when ye were the servants of sin, 21 ye were free from righteousness. What fruit had ye then in those things whereof ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death. But now being made free from sin, and become servants 22 to God, ye have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life. For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal 23 life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the 7 law,) how that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth? For the woman which hath an husband is bound by the 2 law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband. So then if, while 3 her husband liveth, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man. Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead 4 to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit unto God. For when we were in the flesh, the 5 motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit unto death. But now we are delivered from the 6 law, that being dead wherein we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter. What 7 shall we say then? Is the law sin? God forbid. Nay, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet. But sin, taking occasion by 8 the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence.
For without the law sin was dead. For I was alive without the 9 law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died. And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found 10 to be unto death. For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me. Wherefore the law is holy, and 12 the commandment holy, and just, and good. Was then that which 13 is good made death unto me? God forbid. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful. For we know 14 that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin. For that 15 which I do I allow not: for what I would, that do I not; but what I hate, that do I. If then I do that which I would not, I consent 16 unto the law that it is good. Now then it is no more I that do 17 18 it, but sin that dwelleth in me. For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with 19 me; but how to perform that which is good I find not. For the good that I would I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I 20 do. Now if I do that I would not, it is no more I that do it, but 21 sin that dwelleth in me. I find then a law, that, when I would do 22 good, evil is present with me. For I delight in the law of God after 23 the inward man: But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the 24 law of sin which is in my members. O wretched man that I am!

 25 who shall deliver me from the body of this death? I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

8 There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free 3 from the law of sin and death. For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: 4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk 5 not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after 6 the Spirit the things of the Spirit. For to be carnally minded is 7 death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law 8 of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh 9 cannot please God. But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have 10 not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because 11 of righteousness. But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in 12 you. Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live 13 after the flesh. For if ye live after the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.

v.24 the body...: or, this body of death. 8. v.3 for sin: or, by a sacrifice for sin. v.6 to be carnally...: Gr. the minding of the flesh. to be spiritually...: Gr. the minding of the Spirit. v.7 the carnal...: Gr. the minding of the flesh. v.11 by: or, because of.

For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of 14
 God. For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; 15 but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father. The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we 16 are the children of God: And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, 17 and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together. For I reckon that the sufferings 18 of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the 19 creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God. For the 20 creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope, Because the creature 21 itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God. For we know that the 22 whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now.
 And not only they, but ourselves also, which have the firstfruits 23 of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body. For we are 24 saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see 25 not, then do we with patience wait for it. Likewise the Spirit also 26 helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered. And he that searcheth the 27 hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints according to the will of God. And we 28 know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose. For 29 whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brethren. Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he 30 also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified. What shall we then say to 31 these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that 32 spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things? Who shall lay 33 any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth.
 Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, yea rather, 34 that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also 35 maketh intercession for us. Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or 36 nakedness, or peril, or sword? As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.

 37 Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him 38 that loved us. For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor 39 things to come, Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

9 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing 2 me witness in the Holy Ghost, That I have great heaviness and 3 continual sorrow in my heart. For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ for my brethren, my kinsmen according to 4 the flesh: Who are Israelites; to whom pertaineth the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and 5 the service of God, and the promises; Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God 6 blessed for ever. Amen. Not as though the word of God hath taken none effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel: 7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all chil-8 dren: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called. That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but 9 the children of the promise are counted for the seed. For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sara shall have 10 a son. And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived 11 by one, even by our father Isaac; (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him 12 that calleth;) It was said unto her, The elder shall serve the youn-13 ger. As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
 14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? God 15 forbid. For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have com-16 passion. So then it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that 17 runneth, but of God that sheweth mercy. For the scripture saith unto Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might shew my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth. Therefore hath he mercy on 18 whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth. Thou 19 wilt say then unto me, Why doth he yet find fault? For who hath resisted his will? Nay but, O man, who art thou that repliest 20 against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus? Hath not the potter power over 21 the clay, of the same lump to make one vessel unto honour, and another unto dishonour? What if God, willing to shew his wrath, 22 and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction: And that he might make 23 known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had afore prepared unto glory, Even us, whom he hath called, not of 24 the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles? As he saith also in Osee, 25

I will call them my people, which were not my people; and her beloved, which was not beloved. And it shall come to pass, that 26 in the place where it was said unto them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God. Esaias 27 also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved: For he 28 will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth. And as Esaias said 29 before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodoma, and been made like unto Gomorrha. What shall we 30 say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith. But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, 31 hath not attained to the law of righteousness. Wherefore? 32 Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone; As it is writ- 33 ten, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumblingstone and rock of offence: and whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.

Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that 10 they might be saved. For I bear them record that they have a zeal 2 of God, but not according to knowledge. For they being ignorant 3 of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves unto the righteousness 4 of God. For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every 5 one that believeth. For Moses describeth the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which doeth those things shall live by 6 them. But the righteousness which is of faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thine heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that 7 is, to bring Christ down from above;) Or, Who shall descend into 8 the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ again from the dead.) But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in 9 thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach; That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be 10 saved. For with the heart man believeth unto righteousness; and 11 with the mouth confession is made unto salvation. For the scrip-12 ture saith, Whosoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed. For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same 13 Lord over all is rich unto all that call upon him. For whosoever 14 shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how 15 shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of 16 good things! But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Esaias 17 saith, Lord, who hath believed our report? So then faith cometh 18 by hearing, and hearing by the word of God. But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their 19 words unto the ends of the world. But I say, Did not Israel know?

 First Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are 20 no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you. But Esaias is very bold, and saith, I was found of them that sought me not; 21 I was made manifest unto them that asked not after me. But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands unto a disobedient and gainsaying people.
 11 I say then, Hath God cast away his people? God forbid. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of 2 Benjamin. God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew.
 Wot ye not what the scripture saith of Elias? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying, Lord, they have killed 3 thy prophets, and digged down thine altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life. But what saith the answer of God unto 4 him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal. Even so then at this present 5 time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.

And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is 6 no more grace. But if it be of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work. What then? Israel hath not 7 obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded (According as it is written, God 8 hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) unto this day. And 9 David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumblingblock, and a recompence unto them: Let their eyes 10 be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always. I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? 11 God forbid: but rather through their fall salvation is come unto the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy. Now if the fall of 12 them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fulness? For I speak 13 to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify mine office: If by any means I may provoke to emulation 14 them which are my flesh, and might save some of them. For if 15 the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead? For if the 16 firstfruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches. And if some of the branches be broken off, and 17 thou, being a wild olive tree, wert grafted in among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive tree; Boast not 18 against the branches. But if thou boast, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee. Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken 19 off, that I might be grafted in. Well; because of unbelief they were 20 broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not highminded, but fear: For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he 21 also spare not thee. Behold therefore the goodness and severity 22 of God: on them which fell, severity; but toward thee, goodness, if thou continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

 23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted 24 in: for God is able to graff them in again. For if thou wert cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and wert grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which 25 be the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree? For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come 26 in. And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness 27 from Jacob: For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall 28 take away their sins. As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as touching the election, they are beloved for 29 the fathers' sakes. For the gifts and calling of God are without 30 repentance. For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet 31 have now obtained mercy through their unbelief: Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also 32 may obtain mercy. For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, 33 that he might have mercy upon all. O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his 34 judgments, and his ways past finding out! For who hath known 35 the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counsellor? Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed unto him 36 again? For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

12 I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, 2 which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will 3 of God. For I say, through the grace given unto me, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt 4 to every man the measure of faith. For as we have many members 5 in one body, and all members have not the same office: So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another. Having then gifts differing according to the grace that 6 is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith; Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: 7 ruleth, with diligence; he that sheweth mercy, with cheerfulness.

Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave 9 to that which is good. Be kindly affectioned one to another with 10 brotherly love; in honour preferring one another; Not slothful in 11 business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord; Rejoicing in hope; 12 patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer; Distributing 13 to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality. Bless them which 14 persecute you: bless, and curse not. Rejoice with them that do 15 rejoice, and weep with them that weep. Be of the same mind one 16 toward another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits. Recompense to no 17 man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men. If 18 it be possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.
 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place unto 19 wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord. Therefore if thine enemy hunger, feed him; if he thirst, give 20 him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.
 Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good. 21

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there 13 is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God.
 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of 2
 God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt 3 thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: For he is the minister of God 4 to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil. Wherefore ye 5 must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For for this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's 6 ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. Render 7 therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour.

8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth 9 another hath fulfilled the law. For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, 10 Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. Love worketh no ill 11 to his neighbour: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law. And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of 12 sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the 13 works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light. Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in 14 chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying. But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.

14 Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful dis-
2 putations. For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, 3 who is weak, eateth herbs. Let not him that eateth despise him that eateth not; and let not him which eateth not judge him that 4 eateth: for God hath received him. Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth.
Yea, he shall be holden up: for God is able to make him stand.
5 One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.
6 He that regardeth the day, regardeth it unto the Lord; and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.
7, 8 For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself. For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he 10 might be Lord both of the dead and living. But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at nought thy brother?
11 for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ. For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, v.13 honestly: or, decently. 14. v.1 not...: or, not to judge his doubtful thoughts.

and every tongue shall confess to God. So then every one of us 12 shall give account of himself to God. Let us not therefore judge 13 one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumblingblock or an occasion to fall in his brother's way. I know, 14 and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean. But if thy brother be grieved with thy meat, 15 now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy meat, for whom Christ died. Let not then your good be evil spoken of: 16 For the kingdom of God is not meat and drink; but righteousness, 17 and peace, and joy in the Holy Ghost. For he that in these things 18 serveth Christ is acceptable to God, and approved of men. Let us 19 therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things wherewith one may edify another. For meat destroy not the work 20 of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offence. It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink 21 wine, nor any thing whereby thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak. Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. 22 Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth. And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he 23 eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the 15 weak, and not to please ourselves. Let every one of us please his 2 neighbour for his good to edification. For even Christ pleased 3 not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me. For whatsoever things were written 4 aforetime were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope. Now the God of 5 patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus: That ye may with one mind 6 and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received 7 us to the glory of God. Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister 8 of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers: And that the Gentiles might glorify God 9 for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee

10 among the Gentiles, and sing unto thy name. And again he saith, 11 Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people. And again, Praise the Lord, 12 all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people. And again, Esaias saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign 13 over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may 14 abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost. And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one 15 another. Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly unto you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace 16 that is given to me of God, That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified 17 by the Holy Ghost. I have therefore whereof I may glory through 18 Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God. For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed, 19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about unto Illyricum, I 20 have fully preached the gospel of Christ. Yea, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should 21 build upon another man's foundation: But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not 22 heard shall understand. For which cause also I have been much 23 hindered from coming to you. But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come 24 unto you; Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I be somewhat filled with 25 your company. But now I go unto Jerusalem to minister unto 26 the saints. For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at 27 Jerusalem. It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister unto them in carnal things.
28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain. And I am sure that, 29 when I come unto you, I shall come in the fulness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ. Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord 30 Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me; That I may be 31 delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints; That I may come unto you with joy by the will of God, and may 32 with you be refreshed. Now the God of peace be with you all. 33 Amen.

I commend unto you Phebe our sister, which is a servant of the 16 church which is at Cenchrea: That ye receive her in the Lord, 2 as becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatsoever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succourer of many, and of myself also. Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ 3 Jesus: Who have for my life laid down their own necks: unto 4 whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles. Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute 5 my wellbeloved Epaenetus, who is the firstfruits of Achaia unto Christ. Greet Mary, who bestowed much labour on us. Salute 6, 7 Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellowprisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me. Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord. Salute Urbane, 8, 9 our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved. Salute Apelles 10 approved in Christ. Salute them which are of Aristobulus' house- hold. Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the 11 household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord. Salute Tryphena 12 and Tryphosa, who labour in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which laboured much in the Lord. Salute Rufus chosen in 13 the Lord, and his mother and mine. Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, 14 Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren which are with them.
 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, 15 and all the saints which are with them. Salute one another with 16 an holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you. Now I beseech 17 you, brethren, mark them which cause divisions and offences contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them. For 18 they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of 19 the simple. For your obedience is come abroad unto all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise unto 20 that which is good, and simple concerning evil. And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our 21 Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. Timotheus my workfellow, 22 and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you. I 23 Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord. Gaius mine host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the 24 chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother. The 25 grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. Now to him that is of power to stablish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the 26 mystery, which was kept secret since the world began, But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to 27 all nations for the obedience of faith: To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ for ever. Amen. Written to the Romans from Corinthus, and sent by Phebe servant of the church at Cenchrea.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the 1 will of God, and Sosthenes our brother, Unto the church 2 of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, 3 and from the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God always on your 4 behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ; That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and 5 in all knowledge; Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed 6 in you: So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming 7 of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall also confirm you unto the 8 end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
God is faithful, by whom ye were called unto the fellowship of his 9 Son Jesus Christ our Lord. Now I beseech you, brethren, by the 10 name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment. For 11 it hath been declared unto me of you, my brethren, by them which are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of 12 Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ. Is Christ divided? was 13
Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?
I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius; 14
Lest any should say that I had baptized in mine own name. And 15, 16 I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides, I know not whether I baptized any other. For Christ sent me not to baptize, 17 but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross 18 of Christ should be made of none effect. For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but unto us which are 19 saved it is the power of God. For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding 20 of the prudent. Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom 21 of this world? For after that in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of 22 preaching to save them that believe. For the Jews require a sign, 23 and the Greeks seek after wisdom: But we preach Christ crucified, unto the Jews a stumblingblock, and unto the Greeks foolishness; 24 But unto them which are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the 25 power of God, and the wisdom of God. Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than 26 men. For ye see your calling, brethren, how that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called: 27 But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to 28 confound the things which are mighty; And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, yea, and 29 things which are not, to bring to nought things that are: That 30 no flesh should glory in his presence. But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and 31 sanctification, and redemption: That, according as it is written,

 He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

2 And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellency of speech or of wisdom, declaring unto you the testimony of God.
 2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus 3 Christ, and him crucified. And I was with you in weakness, and 4 in fear, and in much trembling. And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration 5 of the Spirit and of power: That your faith should not stand in 6 the wisdom of men, but in the power of God. Howbeit we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this 7 world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nought: But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, 8 which God ordained before the world unto our glory: Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory. But as it is written, Eye 9 hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him. But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God. For what 10 man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God. Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, 12 but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not 13 in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But 14 the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. But he that is spiritual judgeth all 15 things, yet he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known 16 the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

And I, brethren, could not speak unto you as unto spiritual, 3 but as unto carnal, even as unto babes in Christ. I have fed you 2 with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able. For ye are yet carnal: for 3 whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men? For while one saith, I am of 4 Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal? Who then 5 is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man? I have planted, Apollos 6 watered; but God gave the increase. So then neither is he that 7 planteth any thing, neither he that watereth; but God that giveth the increase. Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: 8 and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labour. For we are labourers together with God: ye are God's 9 husbandry, ye are God's building. According to the grace of God 10 which is given unto me, as a wise masterbuilder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth thereon. But let every man take heed how he buildeth thereupon. For other foundation can no 11 12 man lay than that is laid, which is Jesus Christ. Now if any man build upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, 13 stubble; Every man's work shall be made manifest: for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire 14 shall try every man's work of what sort it is. If any man's work abide which he hath built thereupon, he shall receive a reward.

 15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he 16 himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire. Know ye not that ye are 17 the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you? If any man defile the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the 18 temple of God is holy, which temple ye are. Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, 19 let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the 20 wise in their own craftiness. And again, The Lord knoweth the 21 thoughts of the wise, that they are vain. Therefore let no man 22 glory in men. For all things are yours; Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or 23 things to come; all are yours; And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

4 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and 2 stewards of the mysteries of God. Moreover it is required in stew-3 ards, that a man be found faithful. But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged of you, or of man's judgment: yea, I 4 judge not mine own self. For I know nothing by myself; yet am I 5 not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord. Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord come, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have 6 praise of God. And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that ye might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no 7 one of you be puffed up for one against another. For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as 8 if thou hadst not received it? Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I would to God ye did reign, that we also might reign with you. For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle unto the world, and to angels, and to men.

 We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honourable, but we are despised.
 Even unto this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwellingplace; And labour, working with our own hands: being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it: Being defamed, we intreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things unto this day. I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you. For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel. Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me. For this cause have I sent unto you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church. Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you. But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them which are puffed up, but the power. For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power. What will ye? shall I come unto you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

It is reported commonly that there is fornication among you, 5 and such fornication as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife. And ye are puffed 2 up, and have not rather mourned, that he that hath done this deed might be taken away from among you. For I verily, as absent in 3 body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed, In the name 4 of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ, To deliver such 5 an one unto Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus. Your glorying is not 6 good. Know ye not that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, 7 as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for v.9 us...: or, us the last apostles. spectacle: Gr. theatre. 5. v.3 judged: or, determined.

8 us: Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened 9 bread of sincerity and truth. I wrote unto you in an epistle not to 10 company with fornicators: Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idol-11 aters; for then must ye needs go out of the world. But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such an one no not to eat.
12 For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do not 13 ye judge them that are within? But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

6 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law 2 before the unjust, and not before the saints? Do ye not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by 3 you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters? Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain 4 to this life? If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
5 I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that shall be able to judge between his 6 brethren? But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before 7 the unbelievers. Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?
8, 9 Nay, ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren. Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor 10 effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind, Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall 11 inherit the kingdom of God. And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name 12 of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God. All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
13 Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body. And God hath both raised up 14 the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power. Know ye 15 not that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of an harlot?

God forbid. What? know ye not that he which is joined to an 16 harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh. But he 17 that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit. Flee fornication. Every 18 sin that a man doeth is without the body; but he that committeth fornication sinneth against his own body. What? know ye not 19 that your body is the temple of the Holy Ghost which is in you, which ye have of God, and ye are not your own? For ye are bought 20 with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: It is 7 good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, to avoid 2 fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband. Let the husband render unto the wife due 3 benevolence: and likewise also the wife unto the husband. The 4 wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife. Defraud ye not one the other, except it be with consent 5 for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan tempt you not for your incontinency. But I speak this by permission, and not of commandment. 6 For I would that all men were even as I myself. But every man 7 hath his proper gift of God, one after this manner, and another after that. I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is 8 good for them if they abide even as I. But if they cannot contain, 9 let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn. And unto 10 the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband: But and if she depart, let her remain 11 unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife. But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If 12 any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she be pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away. And the woman which 13 hath an husband that believeth not, and if he be pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him. For the unbelieving husband is 14 sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the

6. v.13 Meats: not flesh only, but food of any kind.

husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.
 15 But if the unbelieving depart, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God hath called us to 16 peace. For what knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt 17 save thy wife? But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in 18 all churches. Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him 19 not be circumcised. Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision 20 is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God. Let 21 every man abide in the same calling wherein he was called. Art thou called being a servant? care not for it: but if thou mayest be 22 made free, use it rather. For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called, being 23 free, is Christ's servant. Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the 24 servants of men. Brethren, let every man, wherein he is called, 25 therein abide with God. Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that hath 26 obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful. I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man 27 so to be. Art thou bound unto a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art 28 thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife. But and if thou marry, thou hast not sinned; and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned.
 Nevertheless such shall have trouble in the flesh: but I spare you.
 29 But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both 30 they that have wives be as though they had none; And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
 31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion 32 of this world passeth away. But I would have you without carefulness. He that is unmarried careth for the things that belong to 33 the Lord, how he may please the Lord: But he that is married careth for the things that are of the world, how he may please his 34 wife. There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman careth for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married careth

7. v.15 to peace: Gr. in peace. v.16 how: Gr. what. v.22 freeman: Gr. made free.

for the things of the world, how she may please her husband. And 35 this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction. But if any man think that he be- 36 haveth himself uncomely toward his virgin, if she pass the flower of her age, and need so require, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry. Nevertheless he that standeth stedfast in 37 his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well. So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he 38 that giveth her not in marriage doeth better. The wife is bound 39 by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord. But she is happier if she so abide, after my judgment: and 40
 I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all 8 have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth. And 2 if any man think that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know. But if any man love God, the same is 3 known of him. As concerning therefore the eating of those things 4 that are offered in sacrifice unto idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is none other God but one.
 For though there be that are called gods, whether in heaven or in 5 earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,) But to us there 6 is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
 Howbeit there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with 7 conscience of the idol unto this hour eat it as a thing offered unto an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled. But meat com- 8 mendeth us not to God: for neither, if we eat, are we the better; neither, if we eat not, are we the worse. But take heed lest by 9 any means this liberty of yours become a stumblingblock to them that are weak. For if any man see thee which hast knowledge sit 10 at meat in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols; And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, 11 for whom Christ died? But when ye sin so against the brethren, 12

8. v.6 in: or, for. v.8 are we the better: or, have we the more. are we the worse: or, have we the less. v.9 liberty: or, power. v.10 emboldened: Gr. edified.

13 and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ. Wherefore, if meat make my brother to offend, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to offend.

9 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus 2 Christ our Lord? are not ye my work in the Lord? If I be not an apostle unto others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal 3 of mine apostleship are ye in the Lord. Mine answer to them 4 that do examine me is this, Have we not power to eat and to 5 drink? Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we power to forbear working?
 7 Who goeth a warfare any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of the fruit thereof? or who feedeth a 8 flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock? Say I these things 9 as a man? or saith not the law the same also? For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox 10 that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen? Or saith he it altogether for our sakes? For our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that 11 he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope. If we have sown unto you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall 12 reap your carnal things? If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do ye not know that they which minister about holy things live of the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are 14 partakers with the altar? Even so hath the Lord ordained that 15 they which preach the gospel should live of the gospel. But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done unto me: for it were better for me to die, 16 than that any man should make my glorying void. For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid 17 upon me; yea, woe is unto me, if I preach not the gospel! For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, 18 a dispensation of the gospel is committed unto me. What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I abuse not my power in 19 the gospel. For though I be free from all men, yet have I made myself servant unto all, that I might gain the more. And unto the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law; To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law. To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some. And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker thereof with you. Know ye not that they which run in a race run all, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain. And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible. I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beateth the air: But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; And were all baptized unto Moses in the cloud and in the sea; And did all eat the same spiritual meat; And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ. But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness. Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted. Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play. Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand. Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents. Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer. Now all these things happened unto them for ensamples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come. Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it. Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry. I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say. The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ? For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread. Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar? What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing? But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with devils. Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils. Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he? All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not. Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth. Whatsoever is sold in the shambles, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake: For the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. If any of them that believe not bid you to a feast, and ye be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake. But if any man say unto you, This is offered in sacrifice unto idols, eat not for his sake that shewed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof: Conscience, I say, not thine own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged of another man's conscience? For if I by grace be a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks? Whether therefore ye eat, or drink, or whatsoever ye do, do all to the glory of God. Give none offence, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God: Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking mine own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

11, 2 Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ. Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep 3 the ordinances, as I delivered them to you. But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God. Every man 4 praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoureth his head. But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her 5 head uncovered dishonoureth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven. For if the woman be not covered, let her also 6 be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered. For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, 7 forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man. For the man is not of the woman; but the 8 woman of the man. Neither was the man created for the woman; 9 but the woman for the man. For this cause ought the woman 10 to have power on her head because of the angels. Nevertheless 11 neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord. For as the woman is of the man, even so 12 is the man also by the woman; but all things of God. Judge in 13 yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray unto God uncovered?

Doth not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man have long 14 hair, it is a shame unto him? But if a woman have long hair, it is 15 a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering. But if any 16 man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God. Now in this that I declare unto you I praise you 17 not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that 18 there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it. For there 19 must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you. When ye come together therefore 20 into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper. For in eating 21 every one taketh before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken. What? have ye not houses to eat and 22 to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not. For I have received of the Lord that 23 which also I delivered unto you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread: And when he had 24 given thanks, he brake it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me. After the 25 same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as oft 26 as ye drink it, in remembrance of me. For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do shew the Lord's death till 27 he come. Wherefore whosoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and 28 blood of the Lord. But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup. For he that eateth and 29 drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are weak 30 and sickly among you, and many sleep. For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged. But when we are judged, we 31 are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world. Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to 32 eat, tarry one for another. And if any man hunger, let him eat at home; that ye come not together unto condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

12 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you 2 ignorant. Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away unto these 3 dumb idols, even as ye were led. Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calleth Jesus 4 accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Ghost. Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same 5 Spirit. And there are differences of administrations, but the same 6 Lord. And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same 7 God which worketh all in all. But the manifestation of the Spirit 8 is given to every man to profit withal. For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by 9 the same Spirit; To another faith by the same Spirit; to another 10 the gifts of healing by the same Spirit; To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to 11 another divers kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues: But all these worketh that one and the selfsame Spirit, 12 dividing to every man severally as he will. For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one 13 body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ. For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit. For the body is not one member, but many. 14

 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the 15 body; is it therefore not of the body? And if the ear shall say, 16 Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body? If the whole body were an eye, where were the 17 hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling? But 18 now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him. And if they were all one member, where 19 were the body? But now are they many members, yet but one 20 body. And the eye cannot say unto the hand, I have no need of 21 thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you. Nay, 22 much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary: And those members of the body, which we 23 think to be less honourable, upon these we bestow more abundant honour; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.
 For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the 24 body together, having given more abundant honour to that part which lacked: That there should be no schism in the body; but 25 that the members should have the same care one for another. And 26 whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honoured, all the members rejoice with it. Now ye are 27 the body of Christ, and members in particular. And God hath 28 set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues. Are all apostles? are all prophets? 29 are all teachers? are all workers of miracles? Have all the gifts of 30 healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret? But covet 31 earnestly the best gifts: and yet shew I unto you a more excellent way.

Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and 13 have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal. And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand 2 all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and 3 though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it prof-

4 iteth me nothing. Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity 5 envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up, Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not her own, is not easily pro-6 voked, thinketh no evil; Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth 7 in the truth; Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all 8 things, endureth all things. Charity never faileth: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they 9 shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away. For 10 we know in part, and we prophesy in part. But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish 12 things. For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am 13 known. And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.
 14 Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that 2 ye may prophesy. For he that speaketh in an unknown tongue speaketh not unto men, but unto God: for no man understandeth 3 him; howbeit in the spirit he speaketh mysteries. But he that prophesieth speaketh unto men to edification, and exhortation, and 4 comfort. He that speaketh in an unknown tongue edifieth himself; 5 but he that prophesieth edifieth the church. I would that ye all spake with tongues, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh with tongues, except he 6 interpret, that the church may receive edifying. Now, brethren, if I come unto you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, 7 or by prophesying, or by doctrine? And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction 8 in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped? For if the trumpet give an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself 9 to the battle? So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for 10 ye shall speak into the air. There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification. Therefore if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be unto 11 him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh shall be a barbarian unto me. Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of 12 spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

 Wherefore let him that speaketh in an unknown tongue pray that 13 he may interpret. For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit 14 prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful. What is it then? I 15 will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also. Else when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how 16 shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
 For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified. I 17, 18 thank my God, I speak with tongues more than ye all: Yet in the 19 church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue. Brethren, be not children in understanding: 20 howbeit in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.
 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips 21 will I speak unto this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord. Wherefore tongues are for a sign, not 22 to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them which believe. If therefore the whole church be come together into one 23 place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are mad? But 24 if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all: And thus are 25 the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.
 How is it then, brethren? when ye come together, every one of you 26 hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a tongue, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done unto edifying. If 27 any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret. But if 28 there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let 29 him speak to himself, and to God. Let the prophets speak two 30 or three, and let the other judge. If any thing be revealed to an-31 other that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace. For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

 32, 33 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets. For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches 34 of the saints. Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted unto them to speak; but they are commanded to 35 be under obedience, as also saith the law. And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame 36 for women to speak in the church. What? came the word of God 37 out from you? or came it unto you only? If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things 38 that I write unto you are the commandments of the Lord. But if 39 any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant. Wherefore, brethren, 40 covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues. Let all things be done decently and in order.
 15 Moreover, brethren, I declare unto you the gospel which I preached unto you, which also ye have received, and wherein ye stand; 2 By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached 3 unto you, unless ye have believed in vain. For I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for 4 our sins according to the scriptures; And that he was buried, and 5 that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures: And 6 that he was seen of Cephas, then of the twelve: After that, he was seen of above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater 7 part remain unto this present, but some are fallen asleep. After 8 that, he was seen of James; then of all the apostles. And last of 9 all he was seen of me also, as of one born out of due time. For I am the least of the apostles, that am not meet to be called an 10 apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I laboured more abundantly than they all: 11 yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me. Therefore 12 whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed. Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some 13 among you that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen: And if 14 Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain. Yea, and we are found false witnesses of God; because 15 we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not. For if the dead rise not, 16 then is not Christ raised: And if Christ be not raised, your faith 17 is vain; ye are yet in your sins. Then they also which are fallen 18 asleep in Christ are perished. If in this life only we have hope in 19 Christ, we are of all men most miserable. But now is Christ risen 20 from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept. For 21 since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be 22 made alive. But every man in his own order: Christ the firstfruits; 23 afterward they that are Christ's at his coming. Then cometh the 24 end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power. For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under 25 his feet. The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death. For 26, 27 he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him. And when all things shall be subdued 28 unto him, then shall the Son also himself be subject unto him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all. Else what 29 shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead? And why stand 30 we in jeopardy every hour? I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily. If after the manner 32 of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantageth it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to morrow we die. Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good man- 33 ners. Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the 34 knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame. But some man 35 will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come? Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not quickened, 36 except it die: And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that 37 body that shall be, but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased 38 him, and to every seed his own body. All flesh is not the same 39 flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, 40 another of fishes, and another of birds. There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, 41 and the glory of the terrestrial is another. There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the 42 stars: for one star differeth from another star in glory. So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised 43 in incorruption: It is sown in dishonour; it is raised in glory: it is 44 sown in weakness; it is raised in power: It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is 45 a spiritual body. And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.

 46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is 47 natural; and afterward that which is spiritual. The first man is of 48 the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven. As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the 49 heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the 50 heavenly. Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incor-51 ruption. Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, 52 but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead 53 shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put 54 on immortality. So when this corruptible shall have put on incor-ruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed 55 up in victory. O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is 56 thy victory? The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin 57 is the law. But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory 58 through our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye stedfast, unmoveable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labour is not in vain in the Lord.

16 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given 2 order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye. Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come. And 3 when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality unto Jerusalem. And if it be 4 meet that I go also, they shall go with me. Now I will come unto 5 you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia. And it may be that I will abide, yea, and winter with 6 you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go. For 7 I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit. But I will tarry at Ephesus until 8 Pentecost. For a great door and effectual is opened unto me, and 9 there are many adversaries. Now if Timotheus come, see that 10 he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do. Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct 11 him forth in peace, that he may come unto me: for I look for him with the brethren. As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly 12 desired him to come unto you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time. Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, quit you 13 like men, be strong. Let all your things be done with charity. I 14, 15 beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the firstfruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,) That ye submit yourselves unto such, 16 and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboureth. I am glad 17 of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied. For they have 18 refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such. The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla 19 salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.

 All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with an holy kiss. 20
 The salutation of me Paul with mine own hand. If any man love 21, 22 not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema Maranatha. The 23 grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. My love be with you 24 all in Christ Jesus. Amen. The first epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi by Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus and Timotheus.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE CORINTHIANS.

1 aul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and 2 Timothy our brother, unto the church of God which is 3 at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia: 4 Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and 5 from the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be God, even the Father of 6 our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all 7 comfort; Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may 8 be able to comfort them which are in any trouble, by the comfort 9 wherewith we ourselves are comforted of God. For as the suffer-10 ings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by 11 Christ. And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and 12 salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation. And our hope of you is stedfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation. For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life: But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raiseth the dead: Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us; Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf. For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conversation in the world, and more abundantly to you-ward. For we write none other things unto you, than what ye 13 read or acknowledge; and I trust ye shall acknowledge even to the end; As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your 14 rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.

 And in this confidence I was minded to come unto you before, that 15 ye might have a second benefit; And to pass by you into Macedo- 16 nia, and to come again out of Macedonia unto you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea. When I therefore was thus 17 minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea yea, and nay nay? But as God is true, our word toward you was not 18 yea and nay. For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached 19 among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea. For all the promises of God 20 in him are yea, and in him Amen, unto the glory of God by us.
 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed 21 us, is God; Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the 22 Spirit in our hearts. Moreover I call God for a record upon my 23 soul, that to spare you I came not as yet unto Corinth. Not for 24 that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again 2 to you in heaviness. For if I make you sorry, who is he then that 2 maketh me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me? And I 3 wrote this same unto you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all. For out of much affliction 4 and anguish of heart I wrote unto you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly unto you. But if any have caused grief, he hath 5 not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of 6 many. So that contrariwise ye ought rather to forgive him, and 7 comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow. Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm 8 your love toward him. For to this end also did I write, that I 9 might know the proof of you, whether ye be obedient in all things.
 To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any 10 thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person 11 of Christ; Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are 12 not ignorant of his devices. Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened unto me of the Lord, 13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.

 14 Now thanks be unto God, which always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in 15 every place. For we are unto God a sweet savour of Christ, in 16 them that are saved, and in them that perish: To the one we are the savour of death unto death; and to the other the savour of life 17 unto life. And who is sufficient for these things? For we are not as many, which corrupt the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

3 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commenda-2 tion from you? Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known 3 and read of all men: Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in 4 fleshy tables of the heart. And such trust have we through Christ 5 to God-ward: Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any 6 thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God; Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but 7 of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life. But if the ministration of death, written and engraven in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not stedfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was 8 to be done away: How shall not the ministration of the spirit be 9 rather glorious? For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
 10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this re-11 spect, by reason of the glory that excelleth. For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glori-12 ous. Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness 13 of speech: And not as Moses, which put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not stedfastly look to the end of that v.10 person: or, sight. v.17 corrupt: or, deal deceitfully with. in Christ: or, of Christ.

which is abolished: But their minds were blinded: for until this 14 day remaineth the same vail untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ. But even unto this 15 day, when Moses is read, the vail is upon their heart. Nevertheless 16 when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away. Now 17 the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty. But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the 18 glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received 4 mercy, we faint not; But have renounced the hidden things of 2 dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God. But if 3 our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost: In whom the god 4 of this world hath blinded the minds of them which believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine unto them. For we preach not ourselves, but 5 Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath 6 shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ. But we have this treasure in 7 earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us. We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; 8 we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not for- 9 saken; cast down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the 10 body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body. For we which live are alway deliver- 11 ed unto death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh. So then death worketh in us, 12 but life in you. We having the same spirit of faith, according as it 13 is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak; Knowing that he which raised up the Lord 14 Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you. For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace 15 might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God. For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man 16

17 perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh for us a far more 18 exceeding and eternal weight of glory; While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

5 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with 2 hands, eternal in the heavens. For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:
 3, 4 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked. For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be 5 swallowed up of life. Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.
 6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, whilst we are at 7 home in the body, we are absent from the Lord: (For we walk by 8 faith, not by sight:) We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
 9 Wherefore we labour, that, whether present or absent, we may be 10 accepted of him. For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to that he hath done, whether it be good or bad.
 11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest unto God; and I trust also are made manifest 12 in your consciences. For we commend not ourselves again unto you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them which glory in appearance, and 13 not in heart. For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or 14 whether we be sober, it is for your cause. For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, 15 then were all dead: And that he died for all, that they which live should not henceforth live unto themselves, but unto him which 16 died for them, and rose again. Wherefore henceforth know we no man after the flesh: yea, though we have known Christ after 17 the flesh, yet now henceforth know we him no more. Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new. And all things are 18 of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation; To wit, that God 19 was in Christ, reconciling the world unto himself, not imputing their trespasses unto them; and hath committed unto us the word of reconciliation. Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as 20 though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God. For he hath made him to be sin for us, 21 who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that 6 ye receive not the grace of God in vain. (For he saith, I have 2 heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succoured thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.) Giving no offence in any thing, that the 3 ministry be not blamed: But in all things approving ourselves as 4 the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses, In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labours, 5 in watchings, in fastings; By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuf- 6 fering, by kindness, by the Holy Ghost, by love unfeigned, By the 7 word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, By honour and dishonour, 8 by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true; As 9 unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed; As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as 10 poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things. O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open unto you, our 11 heart is enlarged. Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are strait- 12 ened in your own bowels. Now for a recompence in the same, (I 13 speak as unto my children,) be ye also enlarged. Be ye not un- 14 equally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness? And what concord hath Christ with Belial? 15 or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel? And what 16 agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my peo-17 ple. Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive 18 you, And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

7 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting ho-2 liness in the fear of God. Receive us; we have wronged no man, 3 we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man. I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our 4 hearts to die and live with you. Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, 5 I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation. For, when we were come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled 6 on every side; without were fightings, within were fears. Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted 7 us by the coming of Titus; And not by his coming only, but by the consolation wherewith he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; 8 so that I rejoiced the more. For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it were but for a season.
9 Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye 10 might receive damage by us in nothing. For godly sorrow worketh repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of 11 the world worketh death. For behold this selfsame thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what revenge!
In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
12 Wherefore, though I wrote unto you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear unto you.
13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yea, and exceedingly the more joyed we for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was 14 refreshed by you all. For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spake all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, whilst he 15 remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him. I rejoyce therefore that I have confidence in you 16 in all things.

Moreover, brethren, we do you to wit of the grace of God be- 8 stowed on the churches of Macedonia; How that in a great trial 2 of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded unto the riches of their liberality. For to their power, 3 I bear record, yea, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves; Praying us with much intreaty that we would receive 4 the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints. And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own 5 selves to the Lord, and unto us by the will of God. Insomuch that 6 we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also. Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, 7 in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also. I speak not 8 by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love. For ye know the grace of 9 our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich. And 10 herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.
Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness 11 to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have. For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according 12 to that a man hath, and not according to that he hath not. For 13 I mean not that other men be eased, and ye burdened: But by 14 an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality: As it is written, He that had 15 gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack. But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest 16 care into the heart of Titus for you. For indeed he accepted the 17 exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went unto you. And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise 18 is in the gospel throughout all the churches; And not that only, 19

v.15 inward...: Gr. bowels. 8. v.2 liberality: Gr. simplicity. v.6 grace: or, gift.

but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind: Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us: Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men. And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you. Whether any do enquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellowhelper concerning you: or our brethren be enquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ. Wherefore shew ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

9 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you: For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath provoked very many. Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready: Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting. Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before unto you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness. But this I say, He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loveth a cheerful giver. And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that ye, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work: (As it is written, He hath dispersed abroad; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever. Now he that ministereth seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;) Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God. For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings unto God; Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection unto the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution unto them, and unto all men; And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you. Thanks be unto God for his unspeakable gift.

Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you: But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, wherewith I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh. For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh: (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;) Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ; And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled. Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's. For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed: That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters. For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible. Let such an one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present. For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise. But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even unto you. For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not unto you: for we are 15 come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ: Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labours; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we 16 shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly, To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in 17 another man's line of things made ready to our hand. But he that 18 glorieth, let him glory in the Lord. For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.

11 Would to God ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and 2 indeed bear with me. For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present 3 you as a chaste virgin to Christ. But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds 4 should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ. For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might 5 well bear with him. For I suppose I was not a whit behind the 6 very chiefest apostles. But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among 7 you in all things. Have I committed an offence in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the 8 gospel of God freely? I robbed other churches, taking wages of 9 them, to do you service. And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome unto you, and so 10 will I keep myself. As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall 11 stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia. Wherefore?
12 because I love you not? God knoweth. But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them which desire occa-13 sion; that wherein they glory, they may be found even as we. For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves 14 into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is 15 transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. I say again, 16 Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little. That which I speak, I speak it 17 not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting. Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also. 18 For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise. For ye 19, 20 suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man smite you on the face. I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been 21 weak. Howbeit whereinsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also. Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so 22 am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I. Are they min- 23 isters of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labours more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths oft. Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes save 24 one. Thrice was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, thrice I 25 suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep; In 26 journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by mine own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren; In weariness and painfulness, in watchings 27 often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.

 Beside those things that are without, that which cometh upon me 28 daily, the care of all the churches. Who is weak, and I am not 29 weak? who is offended, and I burn not? If I must needs glory, I 30 will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities. The God 31 and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not. In Damascus the governor under Aretas 32 the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me: And through a window in a basket was I let 33 down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to 12 visions and revelations of the Lord. I knew a man in Christ above 2 fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such an one caught up to the third heaven. And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, 3 or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) How that he was 4 caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is 5 not lawful for a man to utter. Of such an one will I glory: yet of 6 myself I will not glory, but in mine infirmities. For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which 7 he seeth me to be, or that he heareth of me. And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to 8 buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure. For this thing 9 I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me. And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon 10 me. Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when 11 I am weak, then am I strong. I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I 12 be nothing. Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among 13 you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds. For what is it wherein ye were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.

 14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
 15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more 16 abundantly I love you, the less I be loved. But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.
 17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent unto you?
 18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in 19 the same steps? Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves unto you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly 20 beloved, for your edifying. For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found unto you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, 21 backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults: And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of 13 two or three witnesses shall every word be established. I told you 2 before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them which heretofore have sinned, and to all other, that, if I come again, I will not spare: Since ye 3 seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you. For though he was crucified through 4 weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you. Examine yourselves, whether ye be in the faith; prove your 5 own selves. Know ye not your own selves, how that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye be reprobates? But I trust that ye shall know 6 that we are not reprobates. Now I pray to God that ye do no 7 evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates. For we can do 8 nothing against the truth, but for the truth. For we are glad, when 9 we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection. Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being 10 present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction. Finally, 11 brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
 Greet one another with an holy kiss. All the saints salute you. 12, 13
 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and 14 the communion of the Holy Ghost, be with you all. Amen. The second epistle to the Corinthians was written from Philippi, a city of Macedonia, by Titus and Lucas.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE GALATIANS.

1  aul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by 2 Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from 3 the dead;) And all the brethren which are with me, unto 4 the churches of Galatia: Grace be to you and peace from 5 God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, Who gave him-6 self for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil 7 world, according to the will of God and our Father: To whom 8 be glory for ever and ever. Amen. I marvel that ye are so soon 9 removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto 10 another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that 11 trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though 12 we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you 13 than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.
14 As we said before, so say I now again, If any man preach any other 15 gospel unto you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.
16 For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men?
17 for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ. But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached of me is not after man. For I neither received it of man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ. For ye have heard of my conversation in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it: And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in mine own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers. But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace, To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood: Neither went I up to Jerusalem to them which were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again unto Damascus. Then after three years I went up 18 to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days. But 19 other of the apostles saw I none, save James the Lord's brother.

Now the things which I write unto you, behold, before God, I lie 20 not. Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia; And 21, 22 was unknown by face unto the churches of Judaea which were in Christ: But they had heard only, That he which persecuted us in 23 times past now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed. And 24 they glorified God in me.

Then fourteen years after I went up again to Jerusalem with 2 Barnabas, and took Titus with me also. And I went up by rev- 2 elation, and communicated unto them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them which were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain. But 3 neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised: And that because of false brethren unawares 4 brought in, who came in privily to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage: To 5 whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you. But of these who 6 seemed to be somewhat, (whatsoever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat in conference added nothing to me: But contrari- 7 wise, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed unto me, as the gospel of the circumcision was unto Peter; (For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of 8 the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:) And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, 9 perceived the grace that was given unto me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go unto the heathen, and they unto the circumcision. Only they would that 10 we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do. But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him 11 to the face, because he was to be blamed. For before that cer- 12 tain came from James, he did eat with the Gentiles: but when they were come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing them which were of the circumcision. And the other Jews dissembled 13 likewise with him; insomuch that Barnabas also was carried away 14 with their dissimulation. But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said unto Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gen-15 tiles to live as do the Jews? We who are Jews by nature, and not 16 sinners of the Gentiles, Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law 17 shall no flesh be justified. But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the 18 minister of sin? God forbid. For if I build again the things which 19 I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor. For I through the law 20 am dead to the law, that I might live unto God. I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the 21 Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me. I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness come by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

3 O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently 2 set forth, crucified among you? This only would I learn of you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of 3 faith? Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now 4 made perfect by the flesh? Have ye suffered so many things in 5 vain? if it be yet in vain. He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he it by the works 6 of the law, or by the hearing of faith? Even as Abraham believed 7 God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness. Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of 8 Abraham. And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abra-9 ham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed. So then they 10 which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham. For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are 11 written in the book of the law to do them. But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith. And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live in them. Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Cursed is every one that hangeth on a tree: That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith. Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto. Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ. And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect. For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise. Wherefore then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator. Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one. Is the law then against the promises of God? God forbid: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, verily righteousness should have been by the law. But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe. But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed. Wherefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us unto Christ, that we might be justified by faith. But after that faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster. For ye are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus. For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ. There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus. And if ye be Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all; But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed of the father. Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements

4 of the world: But when the fulness of the time was come, God sent 5 forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law, To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption 6 of sons. And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit 7 of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God 8 through Christ. Howbeit then, when ye knew not God, ye did 9 service unto them which by nature are no gods. But now, after that ye have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto ye desire again 10 to be in bondage? Ye observe days, and months, and times, and 11 years. I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labour 12 in vain. Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are:
 13 ye have not injured me at all. Ye know how through infirmity 14 of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first. And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; 15 but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus. Where is then the blessedness ye spake of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, 16 and have given them to me. Am I therefore become your enemy, 17 because I tell you the truth? They zealously affect you, but not 18 well; yea, they would exclude you, that ye might affect them. But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not 19 only when I am present with you. My little children, of whom I 20 travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you, I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in 21 doubt of you. Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do 22 ye not hear the law? For it is written, that Abraham had two 23 sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman. But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the 24 freewoman was by promise. Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which 25 gendereth to bondage, which is Agar. For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is 26 in bondage with her children. But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all. For it is written, Rejoice, thou 27 barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she which hath an husband. Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of 28 promise. But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted 29 him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now. Nevertheless 30 what saith the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman. So then, brethren, we are not children of the 31 bondwoman, but of the free.

Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made 5 us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ 2 shall profit you nothing. For I testify again to every man that 3 is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law. Christ 4 is become of no effect unto you, whosoever of you are justified by the law; ye are fallen from grace. For we through the Spirit 5 wait for the hope of righteousness by faith. For in Jesus Christ 6 neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love. Ye did run well; who did hinder 7 you that ye should not obey the truth? This persuasion cometh 8 not of him that calleth you. A little leaven leaveneth the whole 9 lump. I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will 10 be none otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whosoever he be. And I, brethren, if I yet preach 11 circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offence of the cross ceased. I would they were even cut off which trouble you. 12 For, brethren, ye have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty 13 for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another. For all 14 the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself. But if ye bite and devour one another, take 15 heed that ye be not consumed one of another. This I say then, 16 Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh. For 17 the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that ye cannot do the things that ye would. But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not 18 under the law. Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are 19 these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, Idolatry, 20 witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, 21 heresies, Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom 22 of God. But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, 23 gentleness, goodness, faith, Meekness, temperance: against such 24 there is no law. And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh 25 with the affections and lusts. If we live in the Spirit, let us also 26 walk in the Spirit. Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

6 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness; considering 2 thyself, lest thou also be tempted. Bear ye one another's bur-
 3 dens, and so fulfil the law of Christ. For if a man think himself 4 to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself. But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing 5 in himself alone, and not in another. For every man shall bear 6 his own burden. Let him that is taught in the word communicate 7 unto him that teacheth in all good things. Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.
 8 For he that soweth to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that soweth to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life ever-9 lasting. And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season 10 we shall reap, if we faint not. As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the 11 household of faith. Ye see how large a letter I have written unto 12 you with mine own hand. As many as desire to make a fair shew in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they 13 should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ. For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have 14 you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh. But God forbid that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, 15 by whom the world is crucified unto me, and I unto the world. For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncir-16 cumcision, but a new creature. And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of 17 God. From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my 18 body the marks of the Lord Jesus. Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen. To the Galatians written from Rome.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE EPHESIANS.

1 aul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to 2 the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in 3 Christ Jesus: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our 4 Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ. Blessed be the 5 God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with 6 all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: According as 7 he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that 8 we should be holy and without blame before him in love: Having 9 predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to 10 himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, To the praise 11 of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the 12 beloved. In whom we have redemption through his blood, the 13 forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace; Wherein 14 he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence; Having 15 made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself: That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him: In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will: That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ. In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory. Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love unto all the saints, Cease not to give 16 thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; That the 17 God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:

 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may 18 know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints, And what is the exceeding 19 greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, according to the working of his mighty power, Which he wrought in Christ, when 20 he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and 21 might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all 22 things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fulness of him that filleth 23 all in all.

And you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and 2 sins; Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of 2 this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience: Among whom 3 also we all had our conversation in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others. But God, who is 4 rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us, Even when 5 we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;) And hath raised us up together, and made 6 us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus: That in the 7 ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus. For by grace are ye 8 saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast. For we are his 9, 10 workmanship, created in Christ Jesus unto good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them. Wherefore 11 remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands; That at that time ye were without 12 Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God 13 in the world: But now in Christ Jesus ye who sometimes were far 14 off are made nigh by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall 15 of partition between us; Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to 16 make in himself of twain one new man, so making peace; And that he might reconcile both unto God in one body by the cross, 17 having slain the enmity thereby: And came and preached peace to 18 you which were afar off, and to them that were nigh. For through 19 him we both have access by one Spirit unto the Father. Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellowcitizens 20 with the saints, and of the household of God; And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself 21 being the chief corner stone; In whom all the building fitly framed 22 together groweth unto an holy temple in the Lord: In whom ye also are builded together for an habitation of God through the Spirit.

3 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gen-2 tiles, If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which 3 is given me to you-ward: How that by revelation he made known 4 unto me the mystery; (as I wrote afore in few words, Whereby, when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of 5 Christ) Which in other ages was not made known unto the sons of men, as it is now revealed unto his holy apostles and prophets 6 by the Spirit; That the Gentiles should be fellowheirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel: 7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace 8 of God given unto me by the effectual working of his power. Unto me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches 9 of Christ; And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in 10 God, who created all things by Jesus Christ: To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be 11 known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord: 12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him. Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations 13 for you, which is your glory. For this cause I bow my knees unto 14 the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, Of whom the whole family in 15 heaven and earth is named, That he would grant you, according 16 to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man; That Christ may dwell in your hearts by 17 faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love, May be able to 18 comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height; And to know the love of Christ, which pas- 19 seth knowledge, that ye might be filled with all the fulness of God.

 Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all 20 that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all 21 ages, world without end. Amen.

I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk 4 worthy of the vocation wherewith ye are called, With all lowliness 2 and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love; Endeavouring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace. 3
There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one 4 hope of your calling; One Lord, one faith, one baptism, One God 5, 6 and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of 7 the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, When he ascended up on 8 high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. (Now that 9 he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth? He that descended is the same also that 10 ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)
 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evan- 11 gelists; and some, pastors and teachers; For the perfecting of the 12 saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ: Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the 13 knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ: That we henceforth 14 be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive; But speaking the truth in love, 15 may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:

16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual work-17 ing in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love. This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in 18 the vanity of their mind, Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is 19 in them, because of the blindness of their heart: Who being past feeling have given themselves over unto lasciviousness, to work all 20 uncleanness with greediness. But ye have not so learned Christ; 21 If so be that ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as 22 the truth is in Jesus: That ye put off concerning the former conversation the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful 23, 24 lusts; And be renewed in the spirit of your mind; And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and 25 true holiness. Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man 26 truth with his neighbour: for we are members one of another. Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath: 27, 28 Neither give place to the devil. Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labour, working with his hands the thing which 29 is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth. Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the 30 hearers. And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are 31 sealed unto the day of redemption. Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamour, and evil speaking, be put away from you, 32 with all malice: And be ye kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

5, 2 Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children; And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweetsmelling savour.
 3 But fornication, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not be 4 once named among you, as becometh saints; Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather 5 giving of thanks. For this ye know, that no whoremonger, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God. Let no man 6 deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience. Be not ye 7 therefore partakers with them. For ye were sometimes darkness, 8 but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light: (For 9 the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;) Proving what is acceptable unto the Lord. And have 10, 11 no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. For it is a shame even to speak of those things 12 which are done of them in secret. But all things that are reproved 13 are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise 14 from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that 15 ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the 16 time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but 17 understanding what the will of the Lord is. And be not drunk with 18 wine, wherein is excess; but be filled with the Spirit; Speaking to 19 yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord; Giving thanks always 20 for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ; Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear 21 of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as 22 unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as 23 Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.

Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be 24 to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, 25 even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; That 26 he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not 27 having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men to love their wives as 28 their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no 29 man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church: For we are members of his body, 30 of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave 31 his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh. This is a great mystery: but I speak 32 concerning Christ and the church. Nevertheless let every one of 33 you in particular so love his wife even as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

6, 2 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right. Honour thy father and mother; (which is the first commandment with promise;) That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth. And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord. Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as unto Christ; Not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart; With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men: Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man doeth, the same shall he receive of the Lord, whether he be bond or free. And, ye masters, do the same things unto them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him. Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places. Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness; And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace; Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God: Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints; And for me, that utterance may be given unto me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel, For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak. But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things: Whom 22 I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that ye might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts. Peace be to the 23 brethren, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus 24 Christ in sincerity. Amen. To the Ephesians written from Rome, by Tychicus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE PHILIPPIANS.

1  aul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all 2 the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the 3 bishops and deacons: Grace be unto you, and peace, 4 from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
5 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you, Always in every 6 prayer of mine for you all making request with joy, For your fellow-7 ship in the gospel from the first day until now; Being confident of 8 this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will 9 perform it until the day of Jesus Christ: Even as it is meet for me 10 to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch 11 as both in my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the 12 gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace. For God is my record, 13 how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ. And 14 this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowl-15 edge and in all judgment; That ye may approve things that are 16 excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Christ; Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God. But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened unto me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel; So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places; And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear. Some indeed preach Christ even of envy and strife; and some also of good will: The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds: But the 17 other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or 18 in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice. For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through 19 your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ, Accord- 20 ing to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death. For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain. But if 21, 22 I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labour: yet what I shall choose I wot not. For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire 23 to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better: Neverthe- 24 less to abide in the flesh is more needful for you. And having 25 this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith; That your rejoicing may 26 be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again. Only let your conversation be as it becometh the gospel 27 of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel; And in nothing 28 terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God. For unto you 29 it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake; Having the same conflict which ye saw 30 in me, and now hear to be in me.

If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort 2 of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies, Fulfil ye my joy, that ye be likeminded, having the same love, being 2 of one accord, of one mind. Let nothing be done through strife 3 or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves. Look not every man on his own things, but 4 every man also on the things of others. Let this mind be in you, 5 which was also in Christ Jesus: Who, being in the form of God, 6 thought it not robbery to be equal with God: But made himself 7 of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men: And being found in fashion as a 8 man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even 9 the death of the cross. Wherefore God also hath highly exalted 10 him, and given him a name which is above every name: That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and 11 things in earth, and things under the earth; And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the 12 Father. Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work 13 out your own salvation with fear and trembling. For it is God which worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.

 14, 15 Do all things without murmurings and disputings: That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine 16 as lights in the world; Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither 17 laboured in vain. Yea, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and 18 service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all. For the same 19 cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me. But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may 20 be of good comfort, when I know your state. For I have no man 21 likeminded, who will naturally care for your state. For all seek 22 their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's. But ye know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he hath served with 23 me in the gospel. Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon 24 as I shall see how it will go with me. But I trust in the Lord that 25 I also myself shall come shortly. Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labour, and fellowsoldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to 26 my wants. For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, 27 because that ye had heard that he had been sick. For indeed he was sick nigh unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon 28 sorrow. I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
 29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such 30 in reputation: Because for the work of Christ he was nigh unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same 3 things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision. 2
For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, 3 and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other 4 man thinketh that he hath whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more: Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the 5 tribe of Benjamin, an Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee; Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the 6 righteousness which is in the law, blameless. But what things 7 were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ. Yea doubtless, 8 and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ, And 9 be found in him, not having mine own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith: That I may know him, and the 10 power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death; If by any means I might attain 11 unto the resurrection of the dead. Not as though I had already 12 attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus. Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but 13 this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before, I press toward 14 the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if 15 in any thing ye be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you. Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us 16 walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing. Brethren, be 17 followers together of me, and mark them which walk so as ye have us for an ensample. (For many walk, of whom I have told you 18 often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ: Whose end is destruction, whose God is 19 their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.) For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we 20 21 look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

4 Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy
2 and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved. I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same
3 mind in the Lord. And I intreat thee also, true yokefellow, help those women which laboured with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellowlabourers, whose names are in the 4 book of life. Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice. Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
6 Be careful for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.
7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep 8 your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any 9 virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things. Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and 10 seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you. But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity. Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, 12 in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both 13 to abound and to suffer need. I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me. Notwithstanding ye have well done, that 14 ye did communicate with my affliction. Now ye Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only. For even in Thessalonica ye sent 16 once and again unto my necessity. Not because I desire a gift: but 17 I desire fruit that may abound to your account. But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received of Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odour of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, wellpleasing to God. But my God shall supply all your 19 need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus. Now unto 20 God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute 21 every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren which are with me greet you. All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's 22 household. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. 23 Amen. To the Philippians written from Rome, by Epaphroditus.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE COLOSSIANS.

1  aul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and 2 Timotheus our brother, To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ which are at Colosse: Grace be unto 3 you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus 4 Christ. We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus 5 Christ, praying always for you, Since we heard of your faith in 6 Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints, For 7 the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, whereof ye heard before 8 in the word of the truth of the gospel; Which is come unto 9 you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth 10 also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God 11 in truth: As ye also learned of Epaphras our dear fellowservant, 12 who is for you a faithful minister of Christ; Who also declared 13 unto us your love in the Spirit. For this cause we also, since the 14 day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that 15 ye might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and 16 spiritual understanding; That ye might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God; Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, unto all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness; Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins: Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of every creature: For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him: And he is before all things, and by him all things consist. 17 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, 18 the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence. For it pleased the Father that in him should all ful- 19 ness dwell; And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, 20 by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. And you, that were 21 sometime alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled In the body of his flesh through death, to 22 present you holy and unblameable and unreprieveable in his sight: If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved 23 away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister; Who now rejoice in my sufferings for 24 you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church: Whereof I am 25 made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfil the word of God; Even the mystery 26 which hath been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints: To whom God would make known 27 what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gen- tiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory: Whom we preach, 28 warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus: Whereunto I 29 also labour, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, 2 and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh; That their hearts might be comforted, being knit 2 together in love, and unto all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the acknowledgement of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ; In whom are hid all the treasures of 3 wisdom and knowledge. And this I say, lest any man should be- 4 guile you with enticing words. For though I be absent in the flesh, 5 yet am I with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order,

6 and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. As ye have therefore 7 received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him: Rooted and built up in him, and stablished in the faith, as ye have been taught, 8 abounding therein with thanksgiving. Beware lest any man spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, 9 after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ. For in him 10 dwelleth all the fulness of the Godhead bodily. And ye are com-11 plete in him, which is the head of all principality and power: In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the cir-12 cumcision of Christ: Buried with him in baptism, wherein also ye are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, 13 who hath raised him from the dead. And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he quickened to-14 gether with him, having forgiven you all trespasses; Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was con-15 trary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, he made a shew of them 16 openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new 17 moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to 18 come; but the body is of Christ. Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by 19 his fleshly mind, And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit 20 together, increaseth with the increase of God. Wherefore if ye be dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though 21 living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances, (Touch not; taste 22 not; handle not; Which all are to perish with the using;) after the 23 commandments and doctrines of men? Which things have indeed a shew of wisdom in will worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honour to the satisfying of the flesh.

3 If ye then be risen with Christ, seek those things which are 2 above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God. Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth. For ye 3 are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, 4 who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory. Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; 5 fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry: For which things' sake the 6 wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience: In the 7 which ye also walked some time, when ye lived in them. But now 8 ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth. Lie not one to another, seeing 9 that ye have put off the old man with his deeds; And have put 10 on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him: Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, 11 circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all. Put on therefore, as the elect 12 of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering; Forbearing one another, and 13 forgiving one another, if any man have a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye. And above all these things 14 put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness. And let the 15 peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful. Let the word of Christ dwell in 16 you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord. And whatsoever ye do in word or deed, do all 17 in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as it 18 is fit in the Lord. Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter 19 against them. Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is 20 well pleasing unto the Lord. Fathers, provoke not your children to 21 anger, lest they be discouraged. Servants, obey in all things your 22 masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as menpleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God: And whatsoever ye do, 23 do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not unto men; Knowing that 24 of the Lord ye shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ. But he that doeth wrong shall receive for 25 the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

Masters, give unto your servants that which is just and equal; 4

2 knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven. Continue in prayer, 3 and watch in the same with thanksgiving; Withal praying also for us, that God would open unto us a door of utterance, to speak the 4 mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds: That I may make 5 it manifest, as I ought to speak. Walk in wisdom toward them that 6 are without, redeeming the time. Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer 7 every man. All my state shall Tychicus declare unto you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellowservant in the 8 Lord: Whom I have sent unto you for the same purpose, that he 9 might know your estate, and comfort your hearts; With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make 10 known unto you all things which are done here. Aristarchus my fellowprisoner saluteth you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom ye received commandments: if he come unto you, 11 receive him;) And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellowworkers unto the kingdom 12 of God, which have been a comfort unto me. Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always labouring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the 13 will of God. For I bear him record, that he hath a great zeal for 14 you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis. Luke, 15 the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you. Salute the brethren which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his 16 house. And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read 17 the epistle from Laodicea. And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfil 18 it. The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds.
Grace be with you. Amen. Written from Rome to Colossians by Tychicus and Onesimus.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of 1 the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. We give 2 thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers; Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and 3 labour of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father; Knowing, brethren beloved, your 4 election of God. For our gospel came not unto you in word only, 5 but also in power, and in the Holy Ghost, and in much assurance;
as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the 6 word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Ghost: So that ye 7 were ensamples to all that believe in Macedonia and Achaia. For 8 from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith to God-ward is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing. For they 9 themselves shew of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how ye turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God; And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from 10 the dead, even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance in unto you, that it 2 was not in vain: But even after that we had suffered before, and 2 were shamefully entreated, as ye know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak unto you the gospel of God with much contention.
For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in 3 guile: But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with 4 the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which

1. v.4 beloved....: or, beloved of God, your election.

5 trieth our hearts. For neither at any time used we flattering words, 6 as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness: Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we 7 might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ. But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children: 8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own 9 souls, because ye were dear unto us. For ye remember, brethren, our labour and travail: for labouring night and day, because we would not be chargeable unto any of you, we preached unto you 10 the gospel of God. Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that 11 believe: As ye know how we exhorted and comforted and charged 12 every one of you, as a father doth his children, That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you unto his kingdom and glory.
13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard of us, ye received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which 14 effectually worketh also in you that believe. For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things of your own 15 countrymen, even as they have of the Jews: Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and 16 they please not God, and are contrary to all men: Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins 17 alway: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost. But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavoured the more abundantly to see your face 18 with great desire. Wherefore we would have come unto you, even 19 I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us. For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence 20 of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming? For ye are our glory and joy.

3 Wherefore when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good 2 to be left at Athens alone; And sent Timotheus, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellowlabourer in the gospel of Christ, 3 to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith: That

2. v.6 been...: or, used authority. v.15 persecuted us: or, chased us out. v.19 rejoicing: or, glorying.

no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed thereunto. For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know. For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter have tempted you, and our labour be in vain. But now when Timotheus came from you unto us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you: Therefore, brethren, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith: For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord. For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy wherewith we joy for your sakes before our God; Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith? Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you. And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we do toward you: To the end he may stablish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received of us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more. For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus. For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from fornication: That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honour; Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles which know not God: That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified. For God hath not called us unto uncleanness, but unto holiness. He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given unto us his holy Spirit. But as touching brotherly love ye need not that I write unto you: for ye yourselves are taught of God to love one another. And indeed ye do it toward all the brethren which are in all Macedonia: but we 11 beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more; And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work 12 with your own hands, as we commanded you; That ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack 13 of nothing. But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them which are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as 14 others which have no hope. For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring 15 with him. For this we say unto you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall 16 not prevent them which are asleep. For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: 17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall 18 we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.

5 But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that 2 I write unto you. For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the 3 Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as 4 travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake 5 you as a thief. Ye are all the children of light, and the children of 6 the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness. Therefore let us 7 not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober. For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken 8 in the night. But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for an helmet, the hope of 9 salvation. For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain 10 salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ, Who died for us, that, whether 11 we wake or sleep, we should live together with him. Wherefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye 12 do. And we beseech you, brethren, to know them which labour 13 among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you; And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves. Now we exhort you, brethren, warn 14 them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men. See that none render evil for evil 15 unto any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men. Rejoice evermore. Pray without 16, 17 ceasing. In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God 18 in Christ Jesus concerning you. Quench not the Spirit. Despise 19, 20 not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good. 21 Abstain from all appearance of evil. And the very God of peace 22, 23 sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ. Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it. 24 Brethren, pray for us. Greet all the brethren with an holy kiss. 25, 26

 I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read unto all the holy 27 brethren. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen. 28

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO THE THESSALONIANS.

1  aul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of 2 the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus 3 Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father 4 and the Lord Jesus Christ. We are bound to thank God 5 always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because that your faith 6 groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all toward 7 each other aboundeth; So that we ourselves glory in you in the 8 churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions 9 and tribulations that ye endure: Which is a manifest token of the 10 righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the 11 kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer: Seeing it is a righteous 12 thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you; 13 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus 14 shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels, In flaming 15 fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey 16 not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ: Who shall be punished 17 with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and 18 from the glory of his power; When he shall come to be glorified in 19 his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our 20 testimony among you was believed) in that day. Wherefore also 21 we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of 22 this calling, and fulfil all the good pleasure of his goodness, and 23 the work of faith with power: That the name of our Lord Jesus 24 Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the 25 grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.
26 Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus 27 Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall 3 not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; Who opposeth and exalteth 4 himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you 5 these things? And now ye know what withholdeth that he might 6 be revealed in his time. For the mystery of iniquity doth already 7 work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord 8 shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: Even him, whose coming is after 9 the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; 10 because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, 11 that they should believe a lie: That they all might be damned 12 who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness. But we are bound to give thanks alway to God for you, brethren 13 beloved of the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth: Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining 14 of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. Therefore, brethren, stand 15 fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle. Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and 16 God, even our Father, which hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace, Comfort 17 your hearts, and stablish you in every good word and work.

Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may 3 have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you: And that 2 we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith. But the Lord is faithful, who shall stablish 3 you, and keep you from evil. And we have confidence in the Lord 4 touching you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you. And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, 5

v.6 withholdeth: or, holdeth. 3. v.1 have...: Gr. run. v.2 unreasonable: Gr. absurd.

6 and into the patient waiting for Christ. Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us. For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you; Neither did we eat any man's bread for nought; but wrought with labour and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you: Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an ensample unto you to follow us. For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread. But ye, brethren, be not weary in well doing. And if any man obey not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed. Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother. Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all. The salutation of Paul with mine own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen. The second epistle to the Thessalonians was written from Athens.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of 1 God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, which is our hope; Unto Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, 2 mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord. As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I 3 went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine, Neither give heed to fables and endless 4 genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do. Now the end of the commandment is 5 charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned: From which some having swerved have turned aside 6 unto vain jangling; Desiring to be teachers of the law; understand- 7 ing neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm. But we know 8 that the law is good, if a man use it lawfully; Knowing this, that 9 the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, 10 for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine; According to the 11 glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust. And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled 12 me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;
Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: 13 but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. And 14 the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus. This is a faithful saying, and worthy 15 of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save

1. v.6 having...: or, not aiming at.

16 sinners; of whom I am chief. Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all longsuffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to 17 life everlasting. Now unto the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
 18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest 19 war a good warfare; Holding faith, and a good conscience; which 20 some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck: Of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

2 I exhort therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, in-2 tercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men; For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and 3 peaceable life in all godliness and honesty. For this is good and 4 acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour; Who will have all men to be saved, and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.
 5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, 6 the man Christ Jesus; Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be 7 testified in due time. Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of 8 the Gentiles in faith and verity. I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
 9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with broided hair, 10 or gold, or pearls, or costly array; But (which becometh women 11 professing godliness) with good works. Let the woman learn in 12 silence with all subjection. But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor 13 to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence. For Adam 14 was first formed, then Eve. And Adam was not deceived, but the 15 woman being deceived was in the transgression. Notwithstanding she shall be saved in childbearing, if they continue in faith and charity and holiness with sobriety.

3 This is a true saying, If a man desire the office of a bishop, 2 he desireth a good work. A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to 3 hospitality, apt to teach; Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy

2. v.1 exhort: or, desire. v.2 authority: or, eminent place. v.6 to...: or, a testimony.
 v.9 broided: or, plaited. 3. v.2 of good...: or, modest.

of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; One that 4 ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how 5 shall he take care of the church of God?) Not a novice, lest being 6 lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
 Moreover he must have a good report of them which are without; 7 lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil. Likewise must 8 the deacons be grave, not doubletongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre; Holding the mystery of the faith in a 9 pure conscience. And let these also first be proved; then let them 10 use the office of a deacon, being found blameless. Even so must 11 their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
 Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children 12 and their own houses well. For they that have used the office 13 of a deacon well purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus. These things write 14 I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: But if I tarry long, 15 that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth. And without controversy great is the 16 mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen of angels, preached unto the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.

Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some 4 shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits, and doctrines of devils; Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience 2 seared with a hot iron; Forbidding to marry, and commanding to 3 abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving of them which believe and know the truth. For ev- 4 ery creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if it be received with thanksgiving: For it is sanctified by the word of God 5 and prayer. If thou put the brethren in remembrance of these 6 things, thou shalt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished up in the words of faith and of good doctrine, whereunto thou hast attained. But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise 7 thyself rather unto godliness. For bodily exercise profiteth little: 8 but godliness is profitable unto all things, having promise of the 9 life that now is, and of that which is to come. This is a faithful 10 saying and worthy of all acceptation. For therefore we both labour and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the 11 Saviour of all men, specially of those that believe. These things 12 command and teach. Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in 13 spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come, give attendance to reading, 14 to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands 15 of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly 16 to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

5 Rebuke not an elder, but intreat him as a father; and the youn-2 ger men as brethren; The elder women as mothers; the younger 3 as sisters, with all purity. Honour widows that are widows in-4 deed. But if any widow have children or nephews, let them learn first to shew piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is 5 good and acceptable before God. Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and 6 prayers night and day. But she that liveth in pleasure is dead 7 while she liveth. And these things give in charge, that they may 8 be blameless. But if any provide not for his own, and specially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than 9 an infidel. Let not a widow be taken into the number under three-10 score years old, having been the wife of one man, Well reported of for good works; if she have brought up children, if she have lodged strangers, if she have washed the saints' feet, if she have relieved 11 the afflicted, if she have diligently followed every good work. But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to wax wan-12 ton against Christ, they will marry; Having damnation, because 13 they have cast off their first faith. And withal they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house; and not only idle, but tattlers also and busybodies, speaking things which they ought not.
 14 I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give none occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully. For some are already turned aside after Satan. If any man 15, 16 or woman that believeth have widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed. Let the elders that rule well be counted worthy 17 of double honour, especially they who labour in the word and doctrine. For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that 18 treadeth out the corn. And, The labourer is worthy of his reward.

 Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three 19 witnesses. Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may 20 fear. I charge thee before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and 21 the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality. Lay hands sud- 22 denly on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure. Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy 23 stomach's sake and thine often infirmities. Some men's sins are 24 open beforehand, going before to judgment; and some men they follow after. Likewise also the good works of some are manifest 25 beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.

Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own 6 masters worthy of all honour, that the name of God and his doctrine be not blasphemed. And they that have believing masters, 2 let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort. If any man teach 3 otherwise, and consent not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to 4 godliness; He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about ques- 4 tions and strifes of words, whereof cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings, Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and 5 destitute of the truth, supposing that gain is godliness: from such withdraw thyself. But godliness with contentment is great gain. 6 For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can 7 carry nothing out. And having food and raiment let us be there- 8 with content. But they that will be rich fall into temptation and a 9 snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition. For the love of money is the root of all 10 evil: which while some coveted after, they have erred from the faith, 11 and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. But thou, O man of God, flee these things; and follow after righteousness, god-12 liness, faith, love, patience, meekness. Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, whereunto thou art also called, and 13 hast professed a good profession before many witnesses. I give thee charge in the sight of God, who quickeneth all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate witnessed a good 14 confession; That thou keep this commandment without spot, un-15 rebukeable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ: Which in his times he shall shew, who is the blessed and only Potentate, 16 the King of kings, and Lord of lords; Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach unto; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honour and power ev-17 erlasting. Amen. Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not highminded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the 18 living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy; That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing 19 to communicate; Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal 20 life. O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely 21 so called: Which some professing have erred concerning the faith.

 Grace be with thee. Amen. The first to Timothy was written from Laodicea, which is the chiefest city of Phrygia Pacatiana.

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, ac- 1 cording to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus, To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and 2 peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure con- 3 science, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day; Greatly desiring to see thee, being mind- 4 ful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy; When I call to 5 remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also. Wherefore I put thee in remembrance 6 that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the putting on of my hands. For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but 7 of power, and of love, and of a sound mind. Be not thou there- 8 fore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God; Who hath saved us, and called us with an 9 holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began, But is now made manifest by the appearing of our 10 Saviour Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel: Whereunto I 11 am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles. For the which cause I also suffer these things: never- 12 theless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day. Hold fast the form of sound words, 13

1. v.4 Greatly...: or, remembering thy tears, I greatly desire to see thee that. v.12 believed: or, trusted.

which thou hast heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ 14 Jesus. That good thing which was committed unto thee keep by 15 the Holy Ghost which dwelleth in us. This thou knowest, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are 16 Phygellus and Hermogenes. The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he oft refreshed me, and was not ashamed of 17 my chain: But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very 18 diligently, and found me. The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered unto me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

2 Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ 2 Jesus. And the things that thou hast heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be 3 able to teach others also. Thou therefore endure hardness, as a 4 good soldier of Jesus Christ. No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who 5 hath chosen him to be a soldier. And if a man also strive for 6 masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he strive lawfully. The husbandman that laboureth must be first partaker of the fruits.
 7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all 8 things. Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was 9 raised from the dead according to my gospel: Wherein I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is 10 not bound. Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with 11 eternal glory. It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, 12 we shall also live with him: If we suffer, we shall also reign with 13 him: if we deny him, he also will deny us: If we believe not, yet 14 he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself. Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the 15 hearers. Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
 16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto 17 more ungodliness. And their word will eat as doth a canker: of 18 whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus; Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some. Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth 19 sure, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And,

 Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, 20 but also of wood and of earth; and some to honour, and some to dishonour. If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall 21 be a vessel unto honour, sanctified, and meet for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work. Flee also youthful lusts: but 22 follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart. But foolish and unlearned questions 23 avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes. And the servant of 24 the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient, In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if 25 God peradventure will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth; And that they may recover themselves out of the 26 snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. 3
 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, 2 proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, inconti- 3 nent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, Traitors, heady, 4 highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; Having 5 a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead 6 captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts, Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the 7 truth. Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these 8 also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith. But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall 9 be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was. But thou hast fully 10 known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, charity, patience, Persecutions, afflictions, which came unto me at 11 Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me. Yea, and all that will live 12 godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. But evil men and 13 seducers shall wax worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

v.19 sure: or, steady. v.24 patient: or, forbearing. v.26 recover...: Gr. awake. taken...: Gr. taken alive. 3. v.3 false...: or, one who fomented strife. v.8 reprobate: or, of no judgment. v.10 fully...: or, been a diligent follower of.

14 But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast 15 been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them; And that from a child thou hast known the holy scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in 16 Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction 17 in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

4 I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his 2 kingdom; Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; 3 reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine. For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having 4 itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, 5 and shall be turned unto fables. But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of 6 thy ministry. For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my 7 departure is at hand. I have fought a good fight, I have finished 8 my course, I have kept the faith: Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them 9 also that love his appearing. Do thy diligence to come shortly 10 unto me: For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, 11 Titus unto Dalmatia. Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.
 12, 13 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus. The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the 14 books, but especially the parchments. Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works: 15 Of whom be thou ware also; for he hath greatly withstood our 16 words. At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.
 17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion. And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will 18 preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household 19 of Onesiphorus. Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have 20

I left at Miletum sick. Do thy diligence to come before winter. 21 Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren. The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace 22 be with you. Amen. The second epistle unto Timotheus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Ephesians, was written from Rome, when Paul was brought before Nero the second time.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO TITUS.

1  aul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, 2 according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowl-
3 edging of the truth which is after godliness; In hope 4 of eternal life, which God, that cannot lie, promised be-5 fore the world began; But hath in due times manifested his word 6 through preaching, which is committed unto me according to the 7 commandment of God our Saviour; To Titus, mine own son after 8 the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father 9 and the Lord Jesus Christ our Saviour. For this cause left I thee in 10 Crete, that thou shouldest set in order the things that are wanting, 11 and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee: If any 12 be blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children not 13 accused of riot or unruly. For a bishop must be blameless, as the 14 steward of God; not selfwilled, not soon angry, not given to wine, 15 no striker, not given to filthy lucre; But a lover of hospitality, a 16 lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate; Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers. For there are many unruly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision: Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for filthy lu-cre's sake. One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are alway liars, evil beasts, slow bellies. This witness is true. Wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith; Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men, that turn from the truth. Unto the pure all things are pure: but unto them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled. They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and unto every good work reprobate.

But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine: That 2, 2 the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience. The aged women likewise, that they be in behaviour 3 as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things; That they may teach the young women 4 to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children, To 5 be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed. Young men 6 likewise exhort to be sober minded. In all things shewing thyself a 7 pattern of good works: in doctrine shewing uncorruptness, gravity, sincerity, Sound speech, that cannot be condemned; that he that 8 is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say of you. Exhort servants to be obedient unto their own masters, 9 and to please them well in all things; not answering again; Not 10 purloining, but shewing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things. For the grace of God 11 that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men, Teaching us 12 that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and godly, in this present world; Looking for that 13 blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ; Who gave himself for us, that he might 14 redeem us from all iniquity, and purify unto himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works. These things speak, and exhort, 15 and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to 3 obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work, To speak evil of 2 no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men. For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, 3 deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another. But after that the kindness 4 and love of God our Saviour toward man appeared, Not by works 5 of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Ghost; Which he shed on us abundantly through Jesus Christ 6

7 our Saviour; That being justified by his grace, we should be made 8 heirs according to the hope of eternal life. This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they which have believed in God might be careful to maintain good works.
9 These things are good and profitable unto men. But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about 10 the law; for they are unprofitable and vain. A man that is an 11 heretick after the first and second admonition reject; Knowing that he that is such is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned of 12 himself. When I shall send Artemas unto thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come unto me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there 13 to winter. Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey 14 diligently, that nothing be wanting unto them. And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they be not 15 unfruitful. All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen. It was written to Titus, ordained the first bishop of the church of the Cretians, from Nicopolis of Macedonia.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL TO PHILEMON.

aul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, 1 unto Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellowlabourer, And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellowsol- 2 dier, and to the church in thy house: Grace to you, and 3 peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank 4 my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers, Hearing 5 of thy love and faith, which thou hast toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all saints; That the communication of thy faith may be 6 come effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus. For we have great joy and consolation in 7 thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother. Wherefore, though I might be much bold in Christ to 8 enjoin thee that which is convenient, Yet for love's sake I rather 9 beseech thee, being such an one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, 10 whom I have begotten in my bonds: Which in time past was to 11 thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me: Whom 12 I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, mine own bowels: Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead 13 he might have ministered unto me in the bonds of the gospel: But 14 without thy mind would I do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly. For perhaps he therefore 15 departed for a season, that thou shouldest receive him for ever;
Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, spe- 16 cially to me, but how much more unto thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? If thou count me therefore a partner, receive him as 17 myself. If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee ought, put that 18 on mine account; I Paul have written it with mine own hand, I 19 will repay it: albeit I do not say to thee how thou owest unto me

20 even thine own self besides. Yea, brother, let me have joy of thee 21 in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord. Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote unto thee, knowing that thou wilt also 22 do more than I say. But withal prepare me also a lodging: for I 23 trust that through your prayers I shall be given unto you. There 24 salute thee Epaphras, my fellowprisoner in Christ Jesus; Marcus, 25 Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellowlabourers. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen. Written from Rome to Philemon, by Onesimus a servant.

THE EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO HEBREWS.

od, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake 1 in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, Hath in 2 these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds; Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express 3 image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high; Being made so much better 4 than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, 5 Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son? And again, when 6 he bringeth in the firstbegotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him. And of the angels he saith, Who 7 maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. But 8 unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom. Thou hast 9 loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the 10 earth; and the heavens are the works of thine hands: They shall 11 perish; but thou remainest; and they all shall wax old as doth a garment; And as a vesture shalt thou fold them up, and they shall 12 be changed: but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.
But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right 13 hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool? Are they not all 14 heirs of salvation?

2 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things 2 which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip. For if the word spoken by angels was stedfast, and every transgression 3 and disobedience received a just recompence of reward; How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that 4 heard him; God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Ghost, 5 according to his own will? For unto the angels hath he not put 6 in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak. But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful 7 of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him? Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory 8 and honour, and didst set him over the works of thy hands: Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we see not yet all things put under him.
 9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honour; that 10 he by the grace of God should taste death for every man. For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their 11 salvation perfect through sufferings. For both he that sanctifieth and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which cause he is not 12 ashamed to call them brethren, Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise 13 unto thee. And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, 14 Behold I and the children which God hath given me. Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy 15 him that had the power of death, that is, the devil; And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to 16 bondage. For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but 17 he took on him the seed of Abraham. Wherefore in all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people. For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted. 18

Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus; Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house. For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath builded the house hath more honour than the house. For every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God. And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after; But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end. Wherefore (as the Holy Ghost saith, To day if ye will hear his voice, Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness: When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years. Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do alway err in their heart; and they have not known my ways. So I sware in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.) Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God. But exhort one another daily, while it is called To day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin. For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence stedfast unto the end; While it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation. For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses. But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcases fell in the wilderness? And to whom sware he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not? So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief. 3 3 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it. For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them 4 2

3 that heard it. For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the 4 world. For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this 5 wise, And God did rest the seventh day from all his works. And in 6 this place again, If they shall enter into my rest. Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and they to whom it 7 was first preached entered not in because of unbelief: Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To day, after so long a time; as it is said, To day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
 8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have 9 spoken of another day. There remaineth therefore a rest to the 10 people of God. For he that is entered into his rest, he also hath 11 ceased from his own works, as God did from his. Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same 12 example of unbelief. For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any twoedged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a 13 discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart. Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
 14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
 15 For we have not an high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like as we 16 are, yet without sin. Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

5 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and 2 sacrifices for sins: Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is 3 compassed with infirmity. And by reason hereof he ought, as for 4 the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins. And no man taketh this honour unto himself, but he that is called of God, as 5 was Aaron. So also Christ glorified not himself to be made an high priest; but he that said unto him, Thou art my Son, to day have I begotten thee. As he saith also in another place, Thou art 6 a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. Who in the days 7 of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared; Though he were a Son, yet 8 learned he obedience by the things which he suffered; And being 9 made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him; Called of God an high priest after the order 10 of Melchisedec. Of whom we have many things to say, and hard 11 to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing. For when for the time 12 ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat. For every one 13 that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe. But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full 14 age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us 6 go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God, Of the doctrine 2 of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment. And this will we do, if God per- 3 mit. For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, 4 and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Ghost, And have tasted the good word of God, and the 5 powers of the world to come, If they shall fall away, to renew them 6 again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame. For the earth which 7 drinketh in the rain that cometh oft upon it, and bringeth forth herbs meet for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God: But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and 8 is nigh unto cursing; whose end is to be burned. But, beloved, 9 we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak. For God is not unrighteous to 10 forget your work and labour of love, which ye have shewed toward his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

11 And we desire that every one of you do shew the same diligence 12 to the full assurance of hope unto the end: That ye be not slothful, 13 but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit 14 the promises. For when God made promise to Abraham, because 15 he could swear by no greater, he sware by himself, Saying, Surely 16 blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee. And 17 so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise. For 18 men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to 19 them an end of all strife. Wherein God, willing more abundantly 20 to shew unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath: That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us: Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and stedfast, and which entereth into that within the veil; Whither the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made an high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

7 For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, 2 and blessed him; To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all;
 first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that 3 also King of Salem, which is, King of peace; Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abideth a priest 4 continually. Now consider how great this man was, unto whom 5 even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils. And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brethren, though they come 6 out of the loins of Abraham: But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had 7 the promises. And without all contradiction the less is blessed of 8 the better. And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth 9 them, of whom it is witnessed that he liveth. And as I may so say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.
 10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him. If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for 11 under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron? For the priesthood being 12 changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law. For 13 he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar. For it is evident 14 that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spake nothing concerning priesthood. And it is yet far more evident: 15 for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest, Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, 16 but after the power of an endless life. For he testifieth, Thou 17 art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec. For there 18 is verily a disannulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness thereof. For the law made nothing 19 perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw nigh unto God. And inasmuch as not without an oath he 20 was made priest: (For those priests were made without an oath; 21 but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord sware and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:) By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better 22 testament. And they truly were many priests, because they were 23 not suffered to continue by reason of death: But this man, because 24 he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood. Wherefore 25 he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them. For 26 such an high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens; Who 27 needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself. For the law maketh men high priests 28 which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We 8 have such an high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens; A minister of the sanctuary, and 2

3 of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man. For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.
 4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that 5 there are priests that offer gifts according to the law: Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, saith he, that thou make all things according to the pattern shewed to thee in the mount. But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a 7 better covenant, which was established upon better promises. For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have 8 been sought for the second. For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I
 10 regarded them not, saith the Lord. For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
 11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from 12 the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no 13 more. In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

9 Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary. For there was a tabernacle made; the first, wherein was the candlestick, and the table, and the shewbread; which is called the sanctuary. And after the second veil, the 4 tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all; Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, wherein was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant; And over it the cheru- 5 bins of glory shadowing the mercyseat; of which we cannot now speak particularly. Now when these things were thus ordained, 6 the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God. But into the second went the high priest alone 7 once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people: The Holy Ghost this signifying, 8 that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing: Which was a fig- 9 ure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience; Which stood only in meats and 10 drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation. But Christ being come an 11 high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building; Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his 12 own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us. For if the blood of bulls and of goats, 13 and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifieth to the purifying of the flesh: How much more shall the blood of Christ, 14 who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?

 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by 15 means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance. For where a testament is, there 16 must also of necessity be the death of the testator. For a testa- 17 ment is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth. Whereupon neither the first testa- 18 ment was dedicated without blood. For when Moses had spoken 19 every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people, Saying, 20 This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined unto you. Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and 21 all the vessels of the ministry. And almost all things are by the 22 law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission. It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these. For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us: Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others; For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself. And as it is appointed unto men once to die, but after this the judgment: So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

10 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect. 2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshippers once purged should have had no more conscience 3 of sins. But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made 4 of sins every year. For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and 5 of goats should take away sins. Wherefore when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldest not, but 6 a body hast thou prepared me: In burnt offerings and sacrifices 7 for sin thou hast had no pleasure. Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do thy will, O God. 8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin thou wouldest not, neither hadst pleasure therein; 9 which are offered by the law; Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the 10 second. By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of 11 the body of Jesus Christ once for all. And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which 12 can never take away sins: But this man, after he had offered one 13 sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God; From 14 henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool. For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

10. v.2 would...: or, they would have ceased to be offered, because, etc.. v.5 hast...: or, thou hast fitted me.

Whereof the Holy Ghost also is a witness to us: for after that 15 he had said before, This is the covenant that I will make with 16 them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them; And their sins and 17 iniquities will I remember no more. Now where remission of these 18 is, there is no more offering for sin. Having therefore, brethren, 19 boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus, By a new 20 and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh; And having an high priest over the house 21 of God; Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of 22 faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water. Let us hold fast the profession 23 of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;) 24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good 25 works: Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the 26 manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching. For if we sin wilfully after 26 that we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins, But a certain fearful looking for of 27 judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
 He that despised Moses' law died without mercy under two or three 28 witnesses: Of how much sorer punishment, suppose ye, shall he 29 be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, wherewith he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite unto the Spirit of grace? For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth unto 30 me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people. It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the 31 living God. But call to remembrance the former days, in which, 32 after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions; Partly, whilst ye were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and 33 afflictions; and partly, whilst ye became companions of them that were so used. For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took 34 joyfully the spoiling of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance. Cast not 35 away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompence of reward. For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the 36 37 will of God, ye might receive the promise. For yet a little while, 38 and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry. Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall 39 have no pleasure in him. But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

 11 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence
 2 of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report.
 3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things 4 which do appear. By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead 5 yet speaketh. By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased 6 God. But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder 7 of them that diligently seek him. By faith Noah, being warned of God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by the which he condemned the 8 world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith. By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, 9 not knowing whither he went. By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tabernacles with 10 Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise: For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker 11 is God. Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, 12 because she judged him faithful who had promised. Therefore sprang there even of one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea 13 shore innumerable. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were stran-14 gers and pilgrims on the earth. For they that say such things 15 declare plainly that they seek a country. And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came out, they might have had opportunity to have returned. But now they desire a better country, that is, an heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he hath prepared for them a city. By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son, Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called: Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure. By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come. By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff. By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones. By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months of his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment. By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter; Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season; Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he had respect unto the recompence of the reward. By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible. Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them. By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians assaying to do were drowned. By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days. By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace. And what shall I more say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gedeon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also,

 and Samuel, and of the prophets: Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions, Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, waxed valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens. Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection: 36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yea, more-37 over of bonds and imprisonment: They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, 38 tormented; (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.

 39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, re-40 ceived not the promise: God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

12 Wherefore seeing we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that 2 is set before us, Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of 3 the throne of God. For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in 4 your minds. Ye have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against 5 sin. And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh unto you as unto children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of 6 the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked of him: For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he re-7 ceiveth. If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with 8 sons; for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not? But if ye be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are 9 ye bastards, and not sons. Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh which corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, 10 and live? For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers 11 of his holiness. Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto them which are exercised thereby.
 12 Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees; 13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed. Follow peace 14 with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord: Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; 15 lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled; Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, 16 as Esau, who for one morsel of meat sold his birthright. For ye 17 know how that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears. For ye are not come unto the 18 mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest, And the sound of a trum- 19 pet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more: (For they 20 could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart: And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I 21 exceedingly fear and quake:) But ye are come unto mount Sion, 22 and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels, To the general assembly 23 and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect, And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood 24 of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel. See 25 that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spake on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven: Whose voice 26 then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven. And this word, 27 Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain. Wherefore we receiving a kingdom 28 which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with reverence and godly fear: For our God is a 29 consuming fire.

Let brotherly love continue. Be not forgetful to entertain stran- 13, 2 ber them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which 4 suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body. Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers and 5 adulterers God will judge. Let your conversation be without cov-etousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath 6 said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee. So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man 7 shall do unto me. Remember them which have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, 8 considering the end of their conversation. Jesus Christ the same 9 yesterday, and to day, and for ever. Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited 10 them that have been occupied therein. We have an altar, whereof 11 they have no right to eat which serve the tabernacle. For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary 12 by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp. Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own 13 blood, suffered without the gate. Let us go forth therefore unto 14 him without the camp, bearing his reproach. For here have we no 15 continuing city, but we seek one to come. By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of 16 our lips giving thanks to his name. But to do good and to communicate forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

 17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable 18 for you. Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in 19 all things willing to live honestly. But I beseech you the rather 20 to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner. Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the ever-21 lasting covenant, Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is wellpleasing in his sight, through 22 Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen. And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have 23 written a letter unto you in few words. Know ye that our brother

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

1  ames, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.
2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers
3 temptations; Knowing this, that the trying of your faith 4 worketh patience. But let patience have her perfect work, that 5 ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing. If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and 6 upbraideth not; and it shall be given him. But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the 7 sea driven with the wind and tossed. For let not that man think 8 that he shall receive any thing of the Lord. A double minded man 9 is unstable in all his ways. Let the brother of low degree rejoice in 10 that he is exalted: But the rich, in that he is made low: because as 11 the flower of the grass he shall pass away. For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also 12 shall the rich man fade away in his ways. Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love 13 him. Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man: 14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, 15 and enticed. Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth 16 sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death. Do not 17 err, my beloved brethren. Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with 18 whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning. Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind 19 of firstfruits of his creatures. Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath: For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God. Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the engrafted word, which is able to save your souls.

 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass: For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was. But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed. If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain. Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons. For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment; And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool: Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts? Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?
 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats? Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called? If ye fulfil the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well: But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors. For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all. For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law. So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty. For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy 14 rejoiceth against judgment. What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith 15 save him? If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily 16 food, And one of you say unto them, Depart in peace, be ye warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things 17 which are needful to the body; what doth it profit? Even so faith, 18 if it hath not works, is dead, being alone. Yea, a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: shew me thy faith without thy 19 works, and I will shew thee my faith by my works. Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the devils also believe, and 20 tremble. But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without 21 works is dead? Was not Abraham our father justified by works, 22 when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar? Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made 23 perfect? And the scripture was fulfilled which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness: and 24 he was called the Friend of God. Ye see then how that by works 25 a man is justified, and not by faith only. Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the 26 messengers, and had sent them out another way? For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

3 My brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall re-2 ceive the greater condemnation. For in many things we offend all. If any man offend not in word, the same is a perfect man, and 3 able also to bridle the whole body. Behold, we put bits in the horses' mouths, that they may obey us; and we turn about their 4 whole body. Behold also the ships, which though they be so great, and are driven of fierce winds, yet are they turned about with a 5 very small helm, whithersoever the governor listeth. Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how 6 great a matter a little fire kindleth! And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; 7 and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind: But the tongue can no man tame; it is an 8 unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Therewith bless we God, even 9 the Father; and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing 10 and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. Doth 11 a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

 Can the fig tree, my brethren, bear olive berries? either a vine, 12 figs? so can no fountain both yield salt water and fresh. Who is 13 a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him shew out of a good conversation his works with meekness of wisdom.
 But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, 14 and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from 15 above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and 16 strife is, there is confusion and every evil work. But the wisdom 17 that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be intreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy. And the fruit of righteousness is sown in 18 peace of them that make peace.

From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they 4 not hence, even of your lusts that war in your members? Ye lust, 2 and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not. Ye ask, and 3 receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts. Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the 4 friendship of the world is enmity with God? whosoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God. Do ye think that 5 the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy? But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God 6 resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble. Submit 7 yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you. Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse 8 your hands, ye sinners; and purify your hearts, ye double minded.
 Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to 9 mourning, and your joy to heaviness. Humble yourselves in the 10 sight of the Lord, and he shall lift you up. Speak not evil one 11 of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judge the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a 12 judge. There is one lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy: 13 who art thou that judgest another? Go to now, ye that say, To day or to morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a 14 year, and buy and sell, and get gain: Whereas ye know not what shall be on the morrow. For what is your life? It is even a vapour, 15 that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away. For that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, 16 or that. But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing 17 is evil. Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.

5 Go to now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that 2 shall come upon you. Your riches are corrupted, and your gar-3 ments are motheaten. Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a witness against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have heaped treasure together for the last 4 days. Behold, the hire of the labourers who have reaped down your fields, which is of you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them which have reaped are entered into the ears of the 5 Lord of sabaoth. Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
 6 Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.
 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and lat-8 ter rain. Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming 9 of the Lord draweth nigh. Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before 10 the door. Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of 11 patience. Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; 12 that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy. But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea be yea; and 13 your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation. Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any merry? let him sing psalms. Is 14 any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord: And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord 15 shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him. Confess your faults one to another, and pray one 16 for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of a righteous man availeth much. Elias was a man subject to 17 like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months. And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, 18 and the earth brought forth her fruit. Brethren, if any of you do 19 err from the truth, and one convert him; Let him know, that he 20 which converteth the sinner from the error of his way shall save a soul from death, and shall hide a multitude of sins.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1  eter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scat-2 tered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and 3 Bithynia, Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied. Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a lively hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, To an inheritance incorruptible, and unde-filed, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time. Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations: That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ: Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory: Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls. Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you: Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.
Unto whom it was revealed, that not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into. Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the 13 end for the grace that is to be brought unto you at the revelation of Jesus Christ; As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves 14 according to the former lusts in your ignorance: But as he which 15 hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. And if ye call on 16, 17 the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear: Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible 18 things, as silver and gold, from your vain conversation received by tradition from your fathers; But with the precious blood of Christ, 19 as of a lamb without blemish and without spot: Who verily was 20 foreordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifest in these last times for you, Who by him do believe in God, that 21 raised him up from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God. Seeing ye have purified your souls 22 in obeying the truth through the Spirit unto unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently: Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by 23 the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever. For all flesh 24 is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and the flower thereof falleth away: But the word 25 of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached unto you.

Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, 2 and envies, and all evil speakings, As newborn babes, desire the 2 sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby: If so be ye 3 have tasted that the Lord is gracious. To whom coming, as unto 4 a living stone, disallowed indeed of men, but chosen of God, and precious, Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, 5 an holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. Wherefore also it is contained in the scrip- 6 ture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded. Unto you 7 therefore which believe he is precious: but unto them which be disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made

8 the head of the corner, And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offence, even to them which stumble at the word, being disobedient: whereunto also they were appointed. But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, an holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should shew forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvellous light: Which in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: which had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy. Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul; Having your conversation honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evildoers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation. Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether it be to the king, as supreme; Or unto governors, as unto them that are sent by him for the punishment of evildoers, and for the praise of them that do well. For so is the will of God, that with well doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men: As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God. Honour all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honour the king. Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward. For this is thankworthy, if a man for conscience toward God endure grief, suffering wrongfully. For what glory is it, if, when ye be buffeted for your faults, ye shall take it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye take it patiently, this is acceptable with God. For even hereunto were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps: Who did no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth: Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously: Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed. For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, 3 if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the conversation of the wives; While they behold your chaste 2 conversation coupled with fear. Whose adorning let it not be that 3 outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing of gold, or of putting on of apparel; But let it be the hidden man of the 4 heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.
 For after this manner in the old time the holy women also, who 5 trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection unto their own husbands: Even as Sara obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: 6 whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement. Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them 7 according to knowledge, giving honour unto the wife, as unto the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered. Finally, be ye all of one mind, 8 having compassion one of another, love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous: Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but 9 contrariwise blessing; knowing that ye are thereunto called, that ye should inherit a blessing. For he that will love life, and see 10 good days, let him refrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile: Let him eschew evil, and do good; let him 11 seek peace, and ensue it. For the eyes of the Lord are over the 12 righteous, and his ears are open unto their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil. And who is he that will 13 harm you, if ye be followers of that which is good? But and if 14 ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled; But sanctify the Lord God in 15 your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you with meekness and fear: Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil 16 of you, as of evildoers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good conversation in Christ. For it is better, if the will of 17
 God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing. For 18
 Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit: By which also he went and preached 19 20 unto the spirits in prison; Which sometime were disobedient, when once the longsuffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing, wherein few, that is, eight souls were saved 21 by water. The like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God,) by the resurrection of 22 Jesus Christ: Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels and authorities and powers being made subject unto him.

4 Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered 2 in the flesh hath ceased from sin; That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of 3 God. For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revellings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries: 4 Wherein they think it strange that ye run not with them to the 5 same excess of riot, speaking evil of you: Who shall give account 6 to him that is ready to judge the quick and the dead. For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live 7 according to God in the spirit. But the end of all things is at 8 hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch unto prayer. And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity shall 9 cover the multitude of sins. Use hospitality one to another without 10 grudging. As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace 11 of God. If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to 12 whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, 13 as though some strange thing happened unto you: But rejoice, inasmuch as ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.
14 If ye be reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you: on their part he is 15 evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified. But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evildoer, or as a busybody in other men's matters. Yet if any man suffer as a 16 Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf. For the time is come that judgment must begin at the 17 house of God: and if it first begin at us, what shall the end be of them that obey not the gospel of God? And if the righteous 18 scarcely be saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? Wherefore let them that suffer according to the will of God commit 19 the keeping of their souls to him in well doing, as unto a faithful Creator.

The elders which are among you I exhort, who am also an el- 5 der, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed: Feed the flock of God which 2 is among you, taking the oversight thereof, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but of a ready mind; Neither as 3 being lords over God's heritage, but being ensamples to the flock. And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown 4 of glory that fadeth not away. Likewise, ye younger, submit your- 5 selves unto the elder. Yea, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble. Humble yourselves therefore under 6 the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time: Cast- 7 ing all your care upon him; for he careth for you. Be sober, be vig- 8 ilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour: Whom resist stedfast in the 9 faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world. But the God of all grace, who 10 hath called us unto his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after that ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, stablish, strengthen, settle you. To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen. By 11, 12 Silvanus, a faithful brother unto you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God wherein ye stand. The church that is at Babylon, elected together 13 with you, saluteth you; and so doth Marcus my son. Greet ye one 14 another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

THE SECOND EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1 imon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Saviour Jesus 2 Christ: Grace and peace be multiplied unto you through 3 the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord, According as his divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us 4 to glory and virtue: Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world 5 through lust. And beside this, giving all diligence, add to your 6 faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge; And to knowledge temper-7 ance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness; And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
8 For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord 9 Jesus Christ. But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purged from his 10 old sins. Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall 11 never fall: For so an entrance shall be ministered unto you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus 12 Christ. Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and be estab-13 lished in the present truth. Yea, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance; 14 Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as

1. v.1 Simon: or, Symeon. God...: Gr. of our God and Saviour. v.3 to: or, by.
v.8 barren: Gr. idle.

our Lord Jesus Christ hath shewed me. Moreover I will endeavour 15 that ye may be able after my decease to have these things always in remembrance. For we have not followed cunningly devised fa- 16 bles, when we made known unto you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eyewitnesses of his majesty. For he 17 received from God the Father honour and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased. And this voice which came from 18 heaven we heard, when we were with him in the holy mount. We 19 have also a more sure word of prophecy; whereunto ye do well that ye take heed, as unto a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day star arise in your hearts: Knowing this 20 first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: 21 but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

But there were false prophets also among the people, even as 2 there shall be false teachers among you, who privily shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction. And many shall follow 2 their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth shall be evil spoken of. And through covetousness shall they with feigned 3 words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not. For if 4 God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved unto judgment; And spared not the old world, but saved Noah 5 the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing in the flood upon the world of the ungodly; And turning the cities of 6 Sodom and Gomorrha into ashes condemned them with an overthrow, making them an ensample unto those that after should live ungodly; And delivered just Lot, vexed with the filthy conver- 7 sation of the wicked: (For that righteous man dwelling among 8 them, in seeing and hearing, vexed his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;) The Lord knoweth how to deliver 9 the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust unto the day of judgment to be punished: But chiefly them that walk after 10 the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Prev.21 in old time: or, at any time. 2. v.2 pernicious ways: or, lascivious ways, as some copies read.

sumptuous are they, selfwilled, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities. Whereas angels, which are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord. But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption; And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you; Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: an heart they have exercised with covetous practices; cursed children: Which have forsaken the right way, and are gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness; But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice forbad the madness of the prophet. These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever. For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that were clean escaped from them who live in error. While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage. For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning. For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered unto them. But it is happened unto them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and the sow that was washed to her wallowing in the mire.

3 This second epistle, beloved, I now write unto you; in both which 2 I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance: That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord 3 and Saviour: Knowing this first, that there shall come in the last 4 days scoffers, walking after their own lusts, And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation. For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the 5 heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water: Whereby the world that then was, being overflowed 6 with water, perished: But the heavens and the earth, which are 7 now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved unto fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men. But, beloved, 8 be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord 9 is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is longsuffering to us-ward, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance. But the day of the Lord 10 will come as a thief in the night; in the which the heavens shall pass away with a great noise, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein shall be burned up. Seeing then that all these things shall be dissolved, 11 what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy conversation and godliness, Looking for and hasting unto the coming of the day of 12 God, wherein the heavens being on fire shall be dissolved, and the elements shall melt with fervent heat? Nevertheless we, according 13 to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, wherein dwelleth righteousness. Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look 14 for such things, be diligent that ye may be found of him in peace, without spot, and blameless. And account that the longsuffering 15 of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also according to the wisdom given unto him hath written unto you; As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in 16 which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, unto their own destruction. Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know 17 these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness. But grow in 18 grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF JOHN.

1  hat which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the Word of life; 2 (For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and bear witness, and shew unto you that eternal life, which was with 3 the Father, and was manifested unto us;) That which we have seen and heard declare we unto you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his 4 Son Jesus Christ. And these things write we unto you, that your 5 joy may be full. This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no 6 darkness at all. If we say that we have fellowship with him, and 7 walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth: But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, 8 and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is 9 not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive 10 us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

2 My little children, these things write I unto you, that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, 2 Jesus Christ the righteous: And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole 3 world. And hereby we do know that we know him, if we keep his 4 commandments. He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his 5 commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. But whoso keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: hereby know we that we are in him. He that saith he abideth in him ought 6 himself also so to walk, even as he walked. Brethren, I write no 7 new commandment unto you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning. Again, a new commandment 8 I write unto you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth. He that 9 saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now. He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and 10 there is none occasion of stumbling in him. But he that hateth 11 his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because that darkness hath blinded his eyes.

I write unto you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you 12 for his name's sake. I write unto you, fathers, because ye have 13 known him that is from the beginning. I write unto you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write unto you, little children, because ye have known the Father. I have written 14 unto you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written unto you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one. Love not the world, neither the things that are in 15 the world. If any man love the world, the love of the Father is not in him. For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the 16 lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father, but is of the world. And the world passeth away, and the lust thereof: but 17 he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever. Little children, it 18 is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist shall come, even now are there many antichrists; whereby we know that it is the last time. They went out from us, but they were not of us; 19 for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us. But ye have an unction from the 20 Holy One, and ye know all things. I have not written unto you 21 because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth. Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus 22 is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son. Whosoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: 23 (but) he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also. Let that 24 therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, 25 ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father. And this is 26 the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life. These things have I written unto you concerning them that seduce you.

 27 But the anointing which ye have received of him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you of all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it 28 hath taught you, ye shall abide in him. And now, little children, abide in him; that, when he shall appear, we may have confidence, 29 and not be ashamed before him at his coming. If ye know that he is righteous, ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.

3 Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world 2 knoweth us not, because it knew him not. Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we 3 shall see him as he is. And every man that hath this hope in him 4 purifieth himself, even as he is pure. Whosoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law: for sin is the transgression of the law.
 5 And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in 6 him is no sin. Whosoever abideth in him sinneth not: whosoever 7 sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him. Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, 8 even as he is righteous. He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the 9 devil. Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.
 10 In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whosoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither 11 he that loveth not his brother. For this is the message that ye 12 heard from the beginning, that we should love one another. Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And wherefore slew he him? Because his own works were evil, and his 13 brother's righteous. Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate 14 you. We know that we have passed from death unto life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother abideth in death. Whosoever hateth his brother is a murderer: and ye know 15 that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him. Hereby perceive 16 we the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren. But whoso hath 17 this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him? My little children, let us not love in word, neither 18 in tongue; but in deed and in truth. And hereby we know that 19 we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him. For if 20 our heart condemn us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things. Beloved, if our heart condemn us not, then have we 21 confidence toward God. And whatsoever we ask, we receive of 22 him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight. And this is his commandment, That we 23 should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment. And he that keepeth his 24 commandments dwelleth in him, and he in him. And hereby we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.

2. v.27 in him: or, in it. v.29 ye know that every: or, know ye etc.. is born: or, has been born. 3. v.9 is born: or, has been born. v.11 message: or, commandment.

Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether 4 they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world. Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that 2 confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God: And 3 every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world. Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: 4 because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world. They are of the world: therefore speak they of the world, and the 5 world heareth them. We are of God: he that knoweth God heareth 6 us; he that is not of God heareth not us. Hereby know we the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error. Beloved, let us love one another: 7 for love is of God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God. He that loveth not knoweth not God; for God is 8 love. In this was manifested the love of God toward us, because 9 that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him. Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that 10 he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.

11 Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.
 12 No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God 13 dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us. Hereby know we 14 that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of 15 his Spirit. And we have seen and do testify that the Father sent 16 the Son to be the Saviour of the world. Whosoever shall confess 17 that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
 18 And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us.
 19 God is love; and he that dwelleth in love dwelleth in God, and 20 God in him. Herein is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world. There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love. We love him, because he first loved us. If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen? And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God love his brother also.

5 Whosoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat loveth him also that is begotten of him. By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments. For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments: and his commandments are not grievous. For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith. Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God? This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth. For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one. And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son. He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son. And this is the record, that God hath given to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son. He that hath the Son hath life; and he that hath not the Son of 12 God hath not life. These things have I written unto you that 13 believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God. And this is the confidence that we have in him, that, if 14 we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us: And if we 15 know that he hear us, whatsoever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired of him. If any man see his brother sin a 16 sin which is not unto death, he shall ask, and he shall give him life for them that sin not unto death. There is a sin unto death: I do not say that he shall pray for it. All unrighteousness is sin: and 17 there is a sin not unto death. We know that whosoever is born of 18 God sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not. And we know that we are 19 of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness. And we know 20 that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life. Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen. 21

THE SECOND EPISTLE OF JOHN.

1  he elder unto the elect lady and her children, whom I love 2 in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have 3 known the truth; For the truth's sake, which dwelleth 4 in us, and shall be with us for ever. Grace be with you, 5 mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus 6 Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love. I rejoiced greatly 7 that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received 8 a commandment from the Father. And now I beseech thee, lady, 9 not as though I wrote a new commandment unto thee, but that 10 which we had from the beginning, that we love one another. And 11 this is love, that we walk after his commandments. This is the 12 commandment, That, as ye have heard from the beginning, ye 13 should walk in it. For many deceivers are entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver and an antichrist. Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward. Whosoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son. If there come any unto you, and bring not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither bid him God speed: For he that biddeth him God speed is partaker of his evil deeds. Having many things to write unto you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come unto you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full. The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.

THE THIRD EPISTLE OF JOHN.

 he elder unto the wellbeloved Gaius, whom I love in the 1 truth. Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest 2 prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testi- 3 fied of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth. 4 Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatsoever thou doest to the bre- 5 thren, and to strangers; Which have borne witness of thy charity 6 before the church: whom if thou bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou shalt do well: Because that for his name's 7 sake they went forth, taking nothing of the Gentiles. We there- 8 fore ought to receive such, that we might be fellowhelpers to the truth. I wrote unto the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to 9 have the preeminence among them, receiveth us not. Wherefore, 10 if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content therewith, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church. Beloved, follow not 11 that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God. Demetrius 12 hath good report of all men, and of the truth itself: yea, and we also bear record; and ye know that our record is true. I had many 13 things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write unto thee:
But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face. 14 Peace be to thee. Our friends salute thee. Greet the friends by name.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JUDE.

1  ude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James,
2 to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and pre-3 served in Jesus Christ, and called: Mercy unto you, and 4 peace, and love, be multiplied. Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write unto you of the common salvation, it was needful for me to write unto you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly 5 contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints. For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and 6 our Lord Jesus Christ. I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, how that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that 7 believed not. And the angels which kept not their first estate, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness unto the judgment of the great day. Even as Sodom and Gomorrha, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to fornication, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.
8 Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise domin-9 ion, and speak evil of dignities. Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The 10 Lord rebuke thee. But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those 11 things they corrupt themselves. Woe unto them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and ran greedily after the error of Balaam 12 for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core. These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about of winds; trees whose fruit withereth, without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots; Raging waves of the sea, foaming 13 out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever. And Enoch also, the seventh from 14 Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints, To execute judgment upon all, and 15 to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. These 16 are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage. But, beloved, remember ye 17 the words which were spoken before of the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ; How that they told you there should be mockers 18 in the last time, who should walk after their own ungodly lusts.

These be they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the 19 Spirit. But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy 20 faith, praying in the Holy Ghost, Keep yourselves in the love of 21 God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life. And of some have compassion, making a difference: And 22, 23 others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh. Now unto him that is able to keep 24 you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy, To the only wise God our Saviour, 25 be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever.
Amen.

THE REVELATION OF ST. JOHN THE DIVINE.

1  he Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his 2 servant John: Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he 3 saw. Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: 4 for the time is at hand. John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be unto you, and peace, from him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which 5 are before his throne; And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. Unto him that loved us, and washed us from 6 our sins in his own blood, And hath made us kings and priests unto God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever 7 and ever. Amen. Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of 8 the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, which 9 is, and which was, and which is to come, the Almighty. I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus 10 Christ. I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind 11 me a great voice, as of a trumpet, Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it unto the seven churches which are in Asia; unto Ephesus, and unto Smyrna, and unto Pergamos, and unto Thyatira, and 12 unto Sardis, and unto Philadelphia, and unto Laodicea. And I turned to see the voice that spake with me. And being turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks; And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like unto the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle. His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire; And his feet like unto fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters. And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp twoedged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength. And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying unto me, Fear not; I am the first and the last: I am he that liveth, and was dead; and, behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death. Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter; The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

Unto the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks; I know thy works, and thy labour, and thy patience, and how thou canst not bear them which are evil: and thou hast tried them which say they are apostles, and are not, and hast found them liars: And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast laboured, and hast not fainted. Nevertheless I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love. Remember therefore from whence thou art fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of his place, except thou repent. But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God. And unto the angel of the church in Smyrna write; These things saith the first and the last, which was dead, and is alive; I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of 10 Satan. Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer: behold, the devil shall cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days: be thou faithful unto death, 11 and I will give thee a crown of life. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; He that overcometh 12 shall not be hurt of the second death. And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he which hath the 13 sharp sword with two edges; I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where 14 Satan dwelleth. But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balac to cast a stumblingblock before the children of Israel, to eat 15 things sacrificed unto idols, and to commit fornication. So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which 16 thing I hate. Repent; or else I will come unto thee quickly, and 17 will fight against them with the sword of my mouth. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name 18 written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. And unto the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like unto a flame of fire, and 19 his feet are like fine brass; I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last 20 to be more than the first. Notwithstanding I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, which calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to 21 commit fornication, and to eat things sacrificed unto idols. And I gave her space to repent of her fornication; and she repented not. Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.

22 And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he which searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will 23 give unto every one of you according to your works. But unto you I say, and unto the rest in Thyatira, as many as have not this doctrine, and which have not known the depths of Satan, as they 24 speak; I will put upon you none other burden. But that which ye 25

have already hold fast till I come. And he that overcometh, and 26 keepeth my works unto the end, to him will I give power over the nations: And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels 27 of a potter shall they be broken to shivers: even as I received of my Father. And I will give him the morning star. He that hath 28, 29 an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

And unto the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things 3 saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name that thou livest, and art dead. Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that 2 are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.
Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold 3 fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee. Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not 4 defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy. He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed 5 in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith 6 unto the churches. And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia 7 write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth; I know thy works: behold, I 8 have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name. Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of 9 Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee. Because thou hast kept the word of my 10 patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth. Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, 11 that no man take thy crown. Him that overcometh will I make a 12 pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go no more out: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.
He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the 13

14 churches. And unto the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, 15 the beginning of the creation of God; I know thy works, that 16 thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot. So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will 17 spue thee out of my mouth. Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and 18 naked: I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness do not appear; and anoint 19 thine eyes with eyesalve, that thou mayest see. As many as I love, 20 I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent. Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: if any man hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and 21 he with me. To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me in my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my 22 Father in his throne. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches.

4 After this I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things 2 which must be hereafter. And immediately I was in the spirit: and, behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.
3 And he that sat was to look upon like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow round about the throne, in sight like unto 4 an emerald. And round about the throne were four and twenty seats: and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of 5 gold. And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices: and there were seven lamps of fire burning before the 6 throne, which are the seven Spirits of God. And before the throne there was a sea of glass like unto crystal: and in the midst of the throne, and round about the throne, were four beasts full of eyes 7 before and behind. And the first beast was like a lion, and the second beast like a calf, and the third beast had a face as a man, 8 and the fourth beast was like a flying eagle. And the four beasts had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, which was, and is, and is to come. And when 9 those beasts give glory and honour and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever, The four and twenty 10 elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying, Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and 11 honour and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.

And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book 5 written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals. And 2 I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose the seals thereof? And no man in 3 heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look thereon. And I wept much, because no man 4 was found worthy to open and to read the book, neither to look thereon. And one of the elders saith unto me, Weep not: behold, 5 the Lion of the tribe of Juda, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose the seven seals thereof. And I 6 beheld, and, lo, in the midst of the throne and of the four beasts, and in the midst of the elders, stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth. And he came and took the 7 book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne. And 8 when he had taken the book, the four beasts and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odours, which are the prayers of saints. And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the 9 book, and to open the seals thereof: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation; And hast made us unto our God kings 10 and priests: and we shall reign on the earth. And I beheld, and 11 I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne and the beasts and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; Saying with a 12 loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing. And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, 13 and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying, Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for 14 ever and ever. And the four beasts said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshipped him that liveth for ever and ever.

6 And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four beasts saying, Come 2 and see. And I saw, and behold a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given unto him: and he went 3 forth conquering, and to conquer. And when he had opened the 4 second seal, I heard the second beast say, Come and see. And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat thereon to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given unto him a great 5 sword. And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse;
6 and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand. And I heard a voice in the midst of the four beasts say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny;
7 and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine. And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth beast say, 8 Come and see. And I looked, and behold a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and Hell followed with him. And power was given unto them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the 9 beasts of the earth. And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word 10 of God, and for the testimony which they held: And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the 11 earth? And white robes were given unto every one of them; and it was said unto them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellowservants also and their brethren, that should be 12 killed as they were, should be fulfilled. And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and, lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood; And the stars of heaven fell unto the earth, even as a fig 13 tree casteth her untimely figs, when she is shaken of a mighty wind.

 And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and 14 every mountain and island were moved out of their places. And 15 the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every free man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains; And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and 16 hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb: For the great day of his wrath is come; 17 and who shall be able to stand?

And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four 7 corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.
 And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal 2 of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea, Saying, Hurt 3 not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads. And I heard the number 4 of them which were sealed: and there were sealed an hundred and forty and four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.
 Of the tribe of Juda were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe 5 of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Aser were sealed twelve 6 thousand. Of the tribe of Nepthalim were sealed twelve thousand.
 Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe 7 of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Issachar were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. 8 Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand. After this I beheld, 9 and, lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and tongues, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands; And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation 10 to our God which sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb.
 And all the angels stood round about the throne, and about the 11 elders and the four beasts, and fell before the throne on their faces, 12 and worshipped God, Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honour, and power, and might, be 13 unto our God for ever and ever. Amen. And one of the elders answered, saying unto me, What are these which are arrayed in 14 white robes? and whence came they? And I said unto him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they which came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them 15 white in the blood of the Lamb. Therefore are they before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and 16 he that sitteth on the throne shall dwell among them. They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light 17 on them, nor any heat. For the Lamb which is in the midst of the throne shall feed them, and shall lead them unto living fountains of waters: and God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes.

8 And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in 2 heaven about the space of half an hour. And I saw the seven angels which stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.
3 And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given unto him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which 4 was before the throne. And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended up before God out of the 5 angel's hand. And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it into the earth: and there were voices, 6 and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake. And the seven angels which had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to 7 sound. The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
8 And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the 9 sea became blood; And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were 10 destroyed. And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the 11 third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters; And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died of the waters, because they were made bitter. And the fourth angel sounded, 12 and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so as the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise. And I beheld, and heard an angel flying 13 through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!

And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven 9 unto the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit. And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke 2 out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit. And there 3 came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and unto them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power. And it 4 was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men which have not the seal of God in their foreheads. And to them it 5 was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man. And in those days shall men 6 seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them. And the shapes of the locusts were like unto 7 horses prepared unto battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men. And 8 they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions. And they had breastplates, as it were breastplates 9 of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle. And they had tails like unto 10 scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months. And they had a king over them, which is 11 the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew tongue is Abaddon, but in the Greek tongue hath his name Apollyon.
One woe is past; and, behold, there come two woes more hereafter. 12
And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four 13 horns of the golden altar which is before God, Saying to the sixth 14 angel which had the trumpet, Loose the four angels which are bound in the great river Euphrates. And the four angels were 15 loosed, which were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, 16 and a year, for to slay the third part of men. And the number of the army of the horsemen were two hundred thousand thousand: 17 and I heard the number of them. And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breastplates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths issued fire and smoke 18 and brimstone. By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued 19 out of their mouths. For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like unto serpents, and had heads, 20 and with them they do hurt. And the rest of the men which were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship devils, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, 21 nor hear, nor walk: Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts.

10 And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face 2 was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire: And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the 3 sea, and his left foot on the earth, And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders 4 uttered their voices. And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders ut-5 tered, and write them not. And the angel which I saw stand upon 6 the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven, And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that therein are, and the earth, and the things that therein are, and the sea, and the things which are therein, that 7 there should be time no longer: But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the 8 prophets. And the voice which I heard from heaven spake unto me again, and said, Go and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the 9 earth. And I went unto the angel, and said unto him, Give me the little book. And he said unto me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey. And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter. And he said unto me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and tongues, and kings.

And there was given me a reed like unto a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship therein. But the court which is without the temple leave out, and measure it not; for it is given unto the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months. And I will give power unto my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and threescore days, clothed in sackcloth. These are the two olive trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth. And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed. These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will. And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them. And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. And they of the people and kindreds and tongues and nations shall see their dead bodies three days and an half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves. And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth. And after three days and an half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them which saw them. And they heard a great voice from heaven saying unto them, Come up hither. And they ascended up to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them. And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were slain of men seven thousand: and the remnant 14 were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven. The second 15 woe is past; and, behold, the third woe cometh quickly. And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he shall reign for ever and ever.

 16 And the four and twenty elders, which sat before God on their 17 seats, fell upon their faces, and worshipped God, Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, which art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and 18 hast reigned. And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward unto thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and 19 shouldest destroy them which destroy the earth. And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.

12 And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a 2 crown of twelve stars: And she being with child cried, travailing
 3 in birth, and pained to be delivered. And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold a great red dragon, having seven 4 heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads. And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and did cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child as soon as it was born.
 5 And she brought forth a man child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up unto God, and to his 6 throne. And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared of God, that they should feed her there a thousand 7 two hundred and threescore days. And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon 8 fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place 9 found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him. And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, 10 Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night. And 11 they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to 12 the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time. And when the dragon saw that he was cast 13 unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child. And to the woman were given two wings of a great 14 eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent. And the serpent cast out of his mouth water 15 as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood. And the earth helped the woman, and the 16 earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth. And the dragon was wroth with 17 the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

And I stood upon the sand of the sea, and saw a beast rise 13 up out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy. And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were 2 as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority. And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his 3 deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast. And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto 4 the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? who is able to make war with him? And there was 5 given unto him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given unto him to continue forty and two months. And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme 6 his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven. And 7 it was given unto him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and 8 nations. And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain 9 from the foundation of the world. If any man have an ear, let him 10 hear. He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here 11 is the patience and the faith of the saints. And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a 12 lamb, and he spake as a dragon. And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was 13 healed. And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come 14 down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men, And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, 15 which had the wound by a sword, and did live. And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship 16 the image of the beast should be killed. And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark 17 in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, 18 or the number of his name. Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

 14 And I looked, and, lo, a Lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him an hundred forty and four thousand, having his Father's 2 name written in their foreheads. And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps: 3 And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty and four thousand, which were 4 redeemed from the earth. These are they which were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they which follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the firstfruits unto God and to the Lamb. And in their 5 mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God. And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, 6 having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people, Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; 7 for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters. And 8 there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her fornication. And the third angel followed them, 9 saying with a loud voice, If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, The 10 same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb: And the smoke of their 11 torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whosoever receiveth the mark of his name. Here is the patience of the saints: 12 here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus. And I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, 13 Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them. And I looked, and behold a white cloud, 14 and upon the cloud one sat like unto the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle. And 15 another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and 16 the earth was reaped. And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle. And another 17 angel came out from the altar, which had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe. And the angel thrust in his sickle 19 into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into 20 the great winepress of the wrath of God. And the winepress was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the winepress, even unto the horse bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.

15 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvellous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the 2 wrath of God. And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gotten the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, 3 stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God. And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvellous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; 4 just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints. Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments 5 are made manifest. And after that I looked, and, behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened: 6 And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts 7 girded with golden girdles. And one of the four beasts gave unto the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who 8 liveth for ever and ever. And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

16 And I heard a great voice out of the temple saying to the seven angels, Go your ways, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God 2 upon the earth. And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men which had the mark of the beast, and upon them which wor-3 shipped his image. And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and 4 every living soul died in the sea. And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became 5 blood. And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, which art, and wast, and shalt be, because thou 6 hast judged thus. For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy. And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord 7 God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments. And the 8 fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given unto him to scorch men with fire. And men were scorched with 9 great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, which hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory. And 10 the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain, And blasphemed the God of heaven because of their 11 pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds. And the 12 sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water thereof was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared. And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs 13 come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet. For they are the 14 spirits of devils, working miracles, which go forth unto the kings of the earth and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty. Behold, I come as a thief. 15 Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame. And he gathered them together 16 into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon. And the 17 seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done. And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; 18 and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great. And the 19 great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give unto her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath. And 20 every island fled away, and the mountains were not found. And 21 there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague thereof was exceeding great.

And there came one of the seven angels which had the seven 17 vials, and talked with me, saying unto me, Come hither; I will shew unto thee the judgment of the great whore that sitteth upon many waters: With whom the kings of the earth have commit- 2 ted fornication, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made 3 drunk with the wine of her fornication. So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet coloured beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads 4 and ten horns. And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet colour, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness 5 of her fornication: And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HAR-6 LOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH. And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great 7 admiration. And the angel said unto me, Wherefore didst thou marvel? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast 8 that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns. The beast that thou sawest was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of 9 life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is. And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the 10 woman sitteth. And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he 11 must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdi-12 tion. And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one 13 hour with the beast. These have one mind, and shall give their 14 power and strength unto the beast. These shall make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb shall overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings: and they that are with him are called, 15 and chosen, and faithful. And he saith unto me, The waters which thou sawest, where the whore sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, 16 and nations, and tongues. And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.

17 For God hath put in their hearts to fulfil his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom unto the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled. And the woman which thou sawest is that great city, 18 which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

And after these things I saw another angel come down from 18 heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory. And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon 2 the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of devils, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird. For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath 3 of her fornication, and the kings of the earth have committed fornication with her, and the merchants of the earth are waxed rich through the abundance of her delicacies. And I heard another 4 voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.
For her sins have reached unto heaven, and God hath remembered 5 her iniquities. Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double 6 unto her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled fill to her double. How much she hath glorified herself, and 7 lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow. Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, 8 and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her. And the kings 9 of the earth, who have committed fornication and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning, Standing afar off for the fear of her 10 torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come. And the merchants 11 of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more: The merchandise of gold, and silver, 12 and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thyine wood, and all manner vessels of ivory, and all manner vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble, And cinnamon, and odours, and ointments, 13 and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men. And the fruits that thy soul lusted after are departed 14 from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly are departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all. The 15 merchants of these things, which were made rich by her, shall stand 16 afar off for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing, And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and 17 pearls! For in one hour so great riches is come to nought. And every shipmaster, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and 18 as many as trade by sea, stood afar off, And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like unto this great 19 city! And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, wherein were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her costliness! for in one 20 hour is she made desolate. Rejoice over her, thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.

21 And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be found no more at all.
22 And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trum-peters, shall be heard no more at all in thee; and no craftsman, of whatsoever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the 23 sound of a millstone shall be heard no more at all in thee; And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by 24 thy sorceries were all nations deceived. And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.

19 And after these things I heard a great voice of much people in heaven, saying, Alleluia; Salvation, and glory, and honour, and 2 power, unto the Lord our God: For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great whore, which did corrupt the earth with her fornication, and hath avenged the blood of his 3 servants at her hand. And again they said, Alleluia. And her 4 smoke rose up for ever and ever. And the four and twenty elders and the four beasts fell down and worshipped God that sat on 5 the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia. And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that 6 fear him, both small and great. And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth. Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honour 7 to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready. And to her was granted that she should be 8 arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints. And he saith unto me, Write, Blessed 9 are they which are called unto the marriage supper of the Lamb.

And he saith unto me, These are the true sayings of God. And 10
I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said unto me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. And I saw heaven opened, and behold 11 a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war. His eyes 12 were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself. And 13 he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God. And the armies which were in heaven 14 followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it 15 he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God. And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a 16 name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. And 17
I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come and gather yourselves together unto the supper of the great God; That 18 ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great. And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and 19 their armies, gathered together to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army. And the beast was taken, and 20 with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone. And the remnant were 21 slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceeded out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.

20 And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key 2 of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and 3 Satan, and bound him a thousand years, And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should 4 be fulfilled: and after that he must be loosed a little season. And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and 5 reigned with Christ a thousand years. But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the 6 first resurrection. Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a 7 thousand years. And when the thousand years are expired, Satan 8 shall be loosed out of his prison, And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to battle: the number of whom is as the 9 sand of the sea. And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and compassed the camp of the saints about, and the beloved city:
and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.
10 And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be 11 tormented day and night for ever and ever. And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.
12 And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of those things which 13 were written in the books, according to their works. And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man 14 according to their works. And death and hell were cast into the 15 lake of fire. This is the second death. And whosoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.

And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven 21 and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.
And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from 2
God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the taber- 3 nacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself shall be with them, and be their God. And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes; 4 and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things are passed away. And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all 5 things new. And he said unto me, Write: for these words are true and faithful. And he said unto me, It is done. I am Alpha and 6 Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give unto him that is athirst of the fountain of the water of life freely. He that over- 7 cometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, 8 and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death. And there came 9 unto me one of the seven angels which had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will shew thee the bride, the Lamb's wife. And he carried me away 10 in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and shewed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, Having the glory of God: and her light was like unto a stone most 11 precious, even like a jasper stone, clear as crystal; And had a wall 12 great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written thereon, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel: On the east three gates; on the 13 north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates. And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and in 14 them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb. And he that 15 talked with me had a golden reed to measure the city, and the gates thereof, and the wall thereof. And the city lieth foursquare, and 16 the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth 17 and the height of it are equal. And he measured the wall thereof, an hundred and forty and four cubits, according to the measure 18 of a man, that is, of the angel. And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like unto clear glass.

19 And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald; 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprasus; the 21 eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst. And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl: and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.
22 And I saw no temple therein: for the Lord God Almighty and the 23 Lamb are the temple of it. And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God did lighten 24 it, and the Lamb is the light thereof. And the nations of them which are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the 25 earth do bring their glory and honour into it. And the gates of it shall not be shut at all by day: for there shall be no night there.
26 And they shall bring the glory and honour of the nations into it.
27 And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatsoever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie: but they which are written in the Lamb's book of life.

22 And he shewed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, 2 proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb. In the midst of the street of it, and on either side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bare twelve manner of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing 3 of the nations. And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve 4 him: And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their 5 foreheads. And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them 6 light: and they shall reign for ever and ever. And he said unto me, These sayings are faithful and true: and the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to shew unto his servants the things 7 which must shortly be done. Behold, I come quickly: blessed is 8 he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book. And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. Then saith he unto me, See thou do it 9 not: for I am thy fellowservant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them which keep the sayings of this book: worship God. And he saith unto me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this 10 book: for the time is at hand. He that is unjust, let him be unjust 11 still: and he which is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still. And, behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with 12 me, to give every man according as his work shall be. I am Alpha 13 and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last. Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have 14 right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and whoremongers, and 15 murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie. I Jesus have sent mine angel to testify unto you these things in the 16 churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning star. And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And 17 let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely. For I 18 testify unto every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, If any man shall add unto these things, God shall add unto him the plagues that are written in this book: And if any 19 man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God shall take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book. He 20 which testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly. Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ 21 be with you all. Amen.
